The PINE CONE

Volume II

1926

Published by the Senior Class

THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE

Valdosta, Georgia

Dedication

mire her for her forgetfulness of self, her fine sympathy and poise; because we believe with Emerson that "our chief want in life is somebody who shall make us do what we can"; because we feel that to an immeasurable degree she embodies to us those things which we love in our mothers, we, the Senior Class of '26, dedicate this volume of THE PINE CONE to

Miss Annie Powe Hopper

MISS ANNIE POWE HOPPER

FOREWORD

To picture our Present,
A heritage from Georgia's Past.
And to provide for the Future
A storehouse of memories
Is the aim of the Staff in this,
The second volume of the

The Plumed Pines

Tall, regular and dark and straight
They stand;
A regiment, alive and yet inanimate,
On either hand,
A regiment armed, plumed and uniformed—
On daty!

Each tree a silent sentinel!
And in the midst a citadel;
No enemy has stormed
This fortress—well
All enemies may see
The guarding soldiery
Protecting Beauty!

Nor in this fortress thrice secare
Is Beauty anattended; There
Goodness and Wisdom sure
Service and Sacrifice and fair.
Far vision of accomplishment
Are sheltered, that to Beauty may be lent
An added and enduring loveliness,
A loveliness of life when its intent
Is living
In larger circles—life that e'er shall bless
By giving!

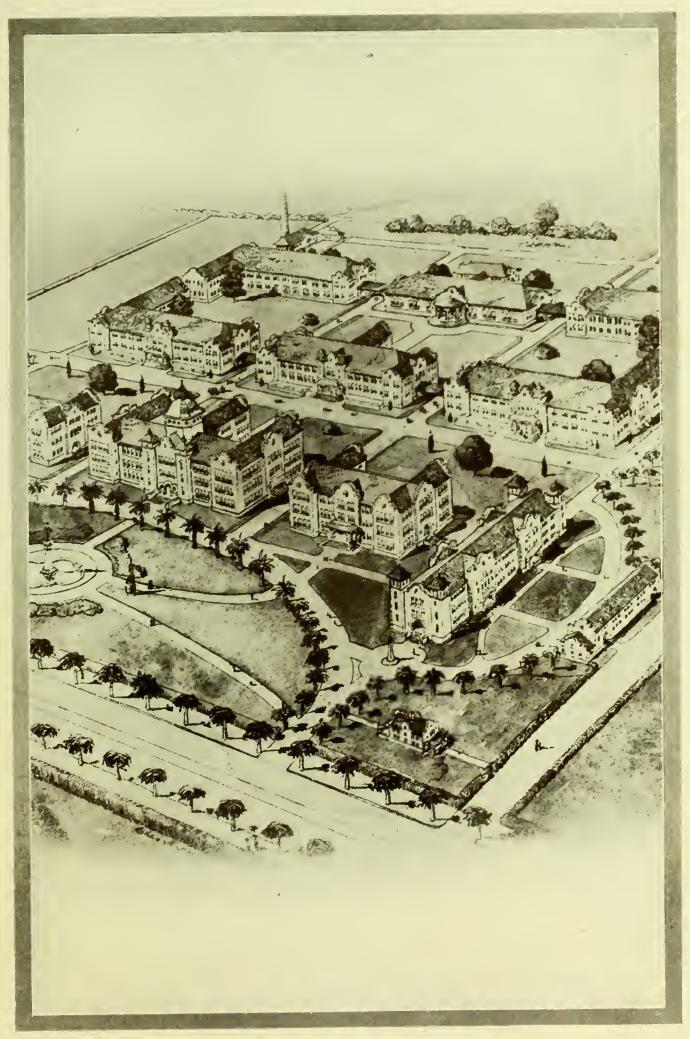

Tall, regular and dark and straight They stand on guard— Plumed pines to keep inviolate The shrine of learning. Above the alturs, where the fires Lit by a love that Sacrifice inspires Are burning!

D. G. BICKERS

The Gollege

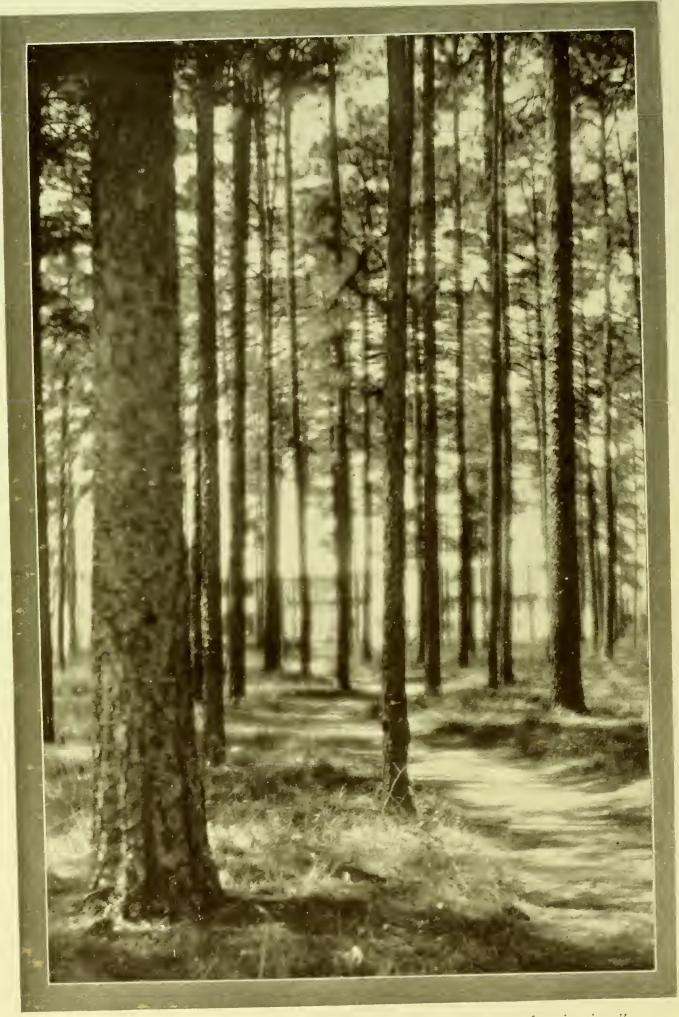

"A Home for the Spirit of Learning."

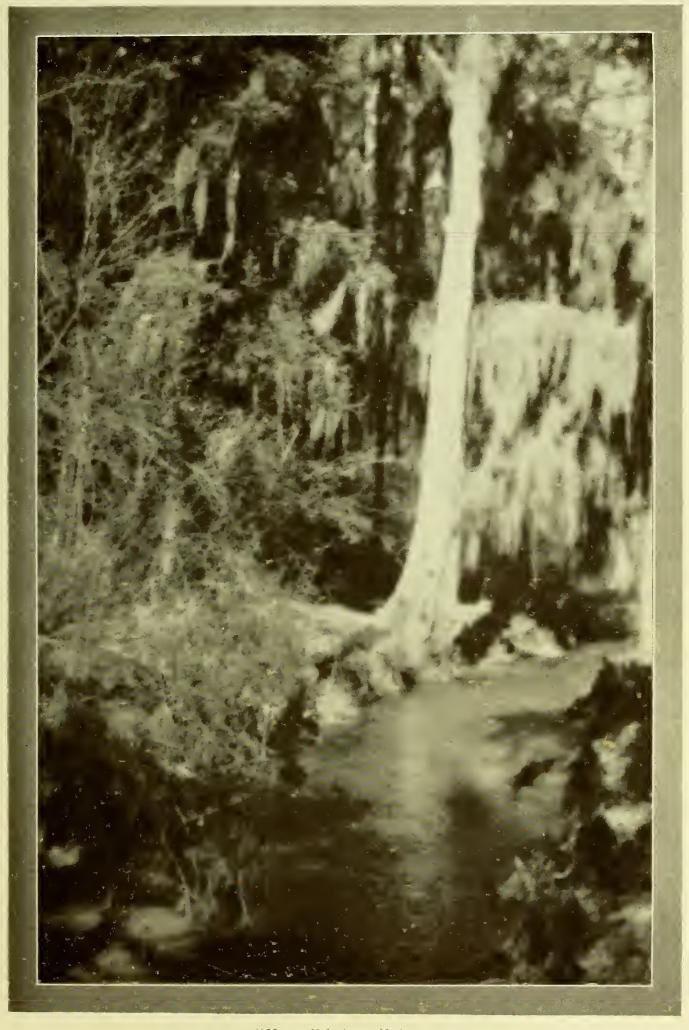

"I love thee when thy crimson roofs aflame with sunset burn."

"Places I love come back to me like music; Hush me and heal me when I am very tired."

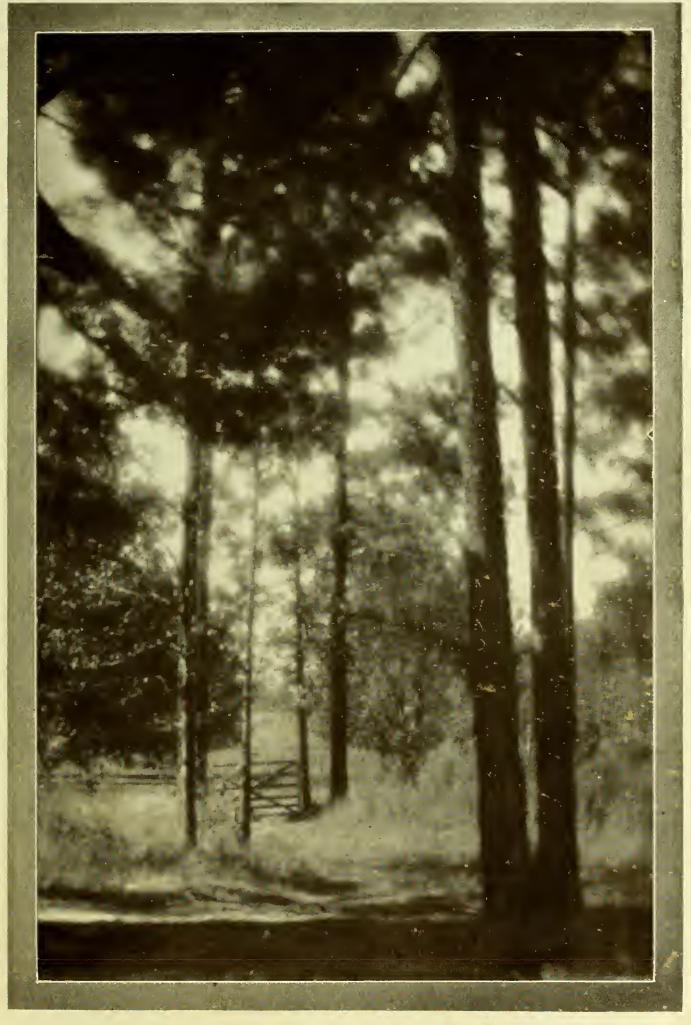

"Where sunshine and rich fragrance blend in the rich harmony of springtime."

"Here all is beautiful.
The rustling boughs have
Such a strange, full sound."

"Loveliness that dies when I forget Comes alive when I remember."

"I love it for what it makes me forget, and what it makes me remember."

Alma Mater

'Mong the stately pines of Georgia, Glorious to the view, Stands our noble Alma Mater Basking 'neath the blue.

Alma Mater, thee we honor, Praises never fail, For thy fame shall never perish Red and Black, all hail!

Alma Mater's loving daughters We will ever be, Always to thy heart returning G. S. W. C.

Administration

President's Greeting

DR. R. H. POWELL

President

HERE are three phases of college life which I have aiways regarded as of greatest significance. The first is the physical — the campus, buildings, equipment. The second is the intellectual and social—administrative officers, instructors, social arrangements, courses of study. The third is what we group together as student activities. This last is possibly the most significant. It is not only indicative of what it accomplishes itself; it is equally indicative of what the other two phases are accomplishing. "By their fruits ye shall know them." What the students do of their own wish is essentially the fruits of the college. Trifling, silly, commonplace, inane, cheap, risque, bright happy, sensible, high-minded—as the student activities, so the college.

As an observer of the growth of the college from its beginning, I have been deeply gratified not only by the type of student activities undertaken here, but by the initiative, resourcefulness, energy, good taste, and effectiveness with which they have been put through. The Student Government Association, the Y. W. C. A., the various societies, the Christmas Festival, May Day, Glee Club concerts, class plays, the Pine Branch—all are most creditable undertakings, and all carried out with resourcefulness and finish.

The Annual is the latest arrival in the family of student activities at the college. We were proud of the first issue last year. It started well. This year we confidently expect it to be better. It is good to have such a picture—such a "close-up"—of our college life. The college has always been happy to have its reputation made by its student activities: it is my great pleasure as President to welcome this issue of the Pine Cone as a worthy and fitting expression of our college life.

R. H. POWELL. President.

"SONNY" CRUDUP

Mascot

The class of '26 feels that with such a mascot as "Sonny" they could not but have a successful year. If his only qualification were his unfailing good nature, he would be admirably fitted for his position, for he has been known to keep a smiling face even when passed about unceremoniously among the girls, all eager to have possession of him if only for a moment. Such treatment might well ruin the disposition of one older and more inured to hardship than he, but "Sonny" bears it all with fortitude, and has won the hearts of all the class.

Here's to the mascot of '26!

MARIE ELIZABETH CLYATT

President A.B., Education Nashville, Georgia

"He who reigns within himself, and rules his own passions, desires and fears, is more than a king."

Entered 1922. Sororian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Crescendo Music Club, '22-'23. '23-'24: Vice-President Sophomore Class. '23-'24; President Senior Class, second semester '25, '26; Student Court and Council. '25, '26: Annual Staff, '25, '26; Philharmonic Club, '25, '26; Home Economics Club, '25, '26; Fine Arts Club, '25, '26.

Here is our highly esteemed class president, and we congratulate ourselves on having her fill the office for the second semester. She is ever ready to lend a helping hand: is the possessor of a good disposition, and is excelled by none in intellectual ability. She is a quiet girl, seldom seen on the campus, but one who does her work thoroughly and with understanding. Through her unassuming manner she has gained the respect of all her classmates. She carries with her always that smile which characterizes her lovable disposition. "Seldom gloomy, never sad—says life's too short to be feeling bad."

FRANCES FARIES

A.B., Education

Savannah, Georgia

"And she is wise, if I may judge her, And fair she is, if that mine eyes be true, Therefore she is wise, and fair and true."

Entered 1922. Sororian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Club; Secretary-Treasurer, Class '23, '24; Vice-President Sock and Buskin Club, '23, '24; Class Play, '23, '24; Inter-Society Debater, '23-'24; Cap'ain Basketball Team, '22-'23, '23-'24, '24-'25, '25-'26; Secretary Athletic Association, '23-'24; President Sororian Literary Society, '24-'25; Student Council, '24-'25; Student Court and Council, '25-'26; Assistant Editor-in-Chief "Pine Cone," '25-'26; President Student Government, '25-'26; Fine Arts Club, '25-'26.

The kind reader now turns the pages and discloses our friend and classmate, Frances. Gracefully built, she is one of those girls who can wear any style and look as if she were a modiste. Perhaps she acquired her graceful figure through her ability in athletics, for she is a star on the basketball team. "Laws!" is an expression with which she exhibits her executive ability as president of the Student Government. She probably has more engagements at court than any other girl. She is the possessor of a keen mind and is the winner of many honors. Frances has yet to be confronted with a situation which she has not met willingly and cheerfully. She has a new method of absorbing French which is all her own—through tortoise shell glasses. Best of luck to our all-round student.

EUNICE FARNUM

A.B., Education

Harlem, Montana

"Real happiness comes only through the conscious pursuit of a worthy purpose."

Entered 1923. Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Club; President Home Economics Club, '25-'26; Class Secretary-Treasurer, '25-'26; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '25-'26; Art Editor Annual, '25-'26; Fine Arts Club.

Eunice, one of those quiet, steady, unassuming girls, comes to us from the University of Montana, and we can truly say that "Another's loss is our gain." Though not with us for the entire four years, she has made for herself a place in the activities of the class and school. She has also won a place in the hearts of her classmates, who have found her to be a loyal friend, a girl of keen intellect, and lofty ideals. She is an earnest and efficient worker, a thorough student and a leader in Home Economics and art work. Eunice is a girl with a big heart—fine and true—one who has found time to play as well as to work, winning for herself a place in basketball. The class of '26 is glad that she decided to come to us for the completion of her college career.

CLARICE IVEY

A.B., Education

Valdosta, Georgia

"No man has done his duty who has not done his best."

Entered 1922. Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Assistant Business Manager, "Pine Branch," '22-'23; Property Manager Class Play, '23-'24; Secretary-Treasurer, Class '24-'25; President Lowndes County Cluh, '95-'96

Memories of the college will never cross our minds without the image of Clarice looming up before us —a tireless worker ready at all times to do a kind act for someone else. Clarice has a quiet dignity all her own. She is a diligent student, her work being thorough, consistent, and conscientious. Success is bound to come to a person who has the knowledge of Science which she undoubtedly has. We know her as one of the shining lights of the class, A's being her only grade. Her character and ready fund of knowledge make her an asset to the class. A girl of affable and engaging personality, loyal to her friends and liked by all who know her, we are indeed proud of Clarice, and hope that she will some day reach the star to which her wagon is already hitched.

MARGARET LAFAR

A.B., Education

Savannah, Georgia

"But the sweetest thing is the clasp of a hand Of a friend that is tried and true,"

Entered 1922. Sororian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Treasurer Y. W. C. A., '23-'24; President Y. W. C. A., '25-'26; Sock and Buskin Club, '25-'26; Philharmonic Club; President Sophomore Class, '23-'24; Class Play, '23-'24; Student Council, '23-'24, '25-'26; Blue Ridge, '22-'23, '24-'25; Inter-Society Debater, '24-'25; Phi Kappa Cheer Leader, '24-'25, '25-'26; Advertising Manager, "Pine Cone."

Margaret is a member of the trio that comes to us from Savannah. It must be a fine town! "Fair laughs this girl, the captain of her hopes." She does not care what happens, everything will come right in the end. We find her an ideal college girl in class and on the campus. She has made a splendid record as a student of theory as well as practice; as a college mate, she is all-round; as a friend, she is devoted; as a worker, she is indefatigable. In class she is alert, although occasionally her attention is sidetracked by an affair of the heart. Can you hear her? "All ready! Fifteen rahs for Phi Kappa!" Our cheer leader—the peppiest in every game, We are glad that we have known her, and wish for her the gratification of all her desires—whatever they may be.

LOUISE McLENDON

A.B., Science

Gordon, Alabama

"Her ways are the ways of pleasantness."

Entered 1921. Charter Member, Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Music Club; Sock and Buskin Club; Class Play, '23-'24; President Lowndes County Club, '24-'25; President Senior Class, first semester, '25-'26; Secretary Court and Council, first semester, '25-'26; Associate Editor "Pine Cone," '25-'26.

Louise refuses to stay with us for long at a time; we never know where she will be next for although she stays with us in the dormitory sometimes, yet no sooner do we become accustomed to having her with us than she goes to live in town. Of course living in town has its advantages! Even when she lives away from the campus, however, she remains the same—interested in all the activities of the class, as willing to assist in any way as when she lived in the dormitory and was our class president. There is no need to enumerate her activities—look at the list for yourself. Then add to those listed the activities in which she takes part away from the campus, and the sum total is Louise as we know her—a good friend, student and classmate—a "regular girl."

VERNA SCARBOROUGH

A.B., Education

Unadilla, Georgia

"For a working dream made good, For an ideal understood, For thy Christian Womanhood."

Entered 1920. Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Music Club; Secretary Argonian Literary Society, '21-'22; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '21-'22; Pine Branch Staff, '21-'22; President Y. W. C. A., '22-'23, '23-'24; Class Play, '23-'24; President Student Government Association, '23-'24; Student Council, '22-'23, '23-'24, '24-'25; Leader Student Volunteer Group, '23-'24, '24-'25; Georgia Student Volunteer Union President-elect; Southern Division of National Y. W. C. A. Council; Council Member Georgia Student Volunteer Union; Member Executive Council Student Movement; Immediate Advisor Y. W. C. A., '25-'26.

"Better late than never!" The day that Verna came to class on time we had a holiday, but otherwise she is an excellent student, and she is as sure as the seasons. Her congenial nature, keen insight, and kindness make us proud of Verna, and her many virtues argue well for her in her future religious activities for which she is so graciously fitted. In this field she has come to the front by virtue of her Christian character and ability. A girl loved and admired by all, she is a stronghold of the class, and could never be replaced, for she is thoughtful, steady, dependable and her friends are innumerable. Her favorite pastime is taking trips to New York, Chicago, and various other places on Y. W. and Student Volunteer missions. Her quiet, reserved appearance is but the true covering for the tranquil composure, the confidence and sincerity of the girl underneath. We predict for Verna a peaceful, happy, and successful career.

MARY YOUNG

A.B., Science

Faceville, Georgia

"The reason firm, the temperate will, Endurance, foresight, strength and skill."

Entered 1921. Charter member Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '22-'23; Treasurer Y. W. C. A., '25-'26; Country Store Chairman, '22-'23; Basketball Team, '21-'22, '22-'23; Business Manager Pine Cone, '25-'26.

'Way back in the ages dark, there came to this college a young girl endowed with many talents. Now after these years of application—though she has been out for two years—we are glad to have her in the class of '26. She is a "good sport," has never failed us yet, is always ready for anything—the best ever. Mary is one of those girls who radiate good cheer wherever she goes. She is a business manager of no mean ability, and in the chemical laboratory she shines. Her particular hobby is devising short-cut methods to eliminate work. She plays as hard as she works, and enjoys a real basketball game. Mary has a mind of her own and is not afraid to express her opinion about anything, but she is very tactful about it. If she uses the same tact with everyone, she is sure to get what she wishes—be it what it may.

MARTHA YOUNGBLOOD

A.B., Liberal Arts

Savannah, Georgia

"Earth seemed more sweet to live upon, More full of love because of her."

Entered 1922. Sororian Literary Society; Glee Club; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Club; Sock and Buskin Club, 25, '26; Chairman Program Committee Sororian Literary Society; Secretary-Treasurer Class '22, '23; Inter-Society Debater, '22, '23; Undergraduate Representative Y. W. C. A., '23, '24; Pine Branch Staff, '23, '24; Advertising Manager Glee Club, '23, '24; Class Play, '23, '24; Class President, '24, '25; Student Court and Council, '24, '25; Editor-in-Chief Pine Branch, '24, '25; Vice-President Glee Club, '24, '25; President Glee Club, '25, '26; Editor-in-Chief "Pine Cone," '25, '26.

Now you have met our efficient Editor-in-Chief of the "Pine Cone." This is Martha, our steady, hard-working student, but one who yet finds time for numerous activities. If we had more of her kind there would be no need for faculty, for she makes A's rather consistently. If exceptional ability, thorough training, pleasing personality, and a determination to succeed are worth anything, then we predict for Martha success in her chosen field. Her talents are so many and varied that we wonder what will become of her, but we are sure that whatever she does will be done well. She's as deeply versed in Latin and French constructions as in the art of making friends, and is famous for both qualities. We are glad to call her the songbird of the class for each of the four years, Best of all, she is tall and well known as the "hero-lover" of all our plays, being the possessor of "burning brown eyes." We hail her as our Martha.

Class Song

Oh. Green and White, dear Green and White, The years may come, the years may go; But still we'll keep our banner pure, The emblem of our loyalty.

The hearts of every Senior here Beat at the very sight of thee; We love to see thee floating free, We love to stand and fight for thee.

Oh. Green and White, dear Green and White. The years may come, the years may go, But still we'll keep our banner pure, The emblem of our loyalty.

Oh, may the Pine Branch ever wave O'er Georgia's college fair.
And may we of G. S. W. C.
With glad songs fill the air.

Our hearts are with the Red and Black And may we never sever The ties that bind our hearts to thee, G. S. W. C. forever.

And may our classes raise a song To Alma Mater dear,
And may she win new laurels true
Fresh honors year by year.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL

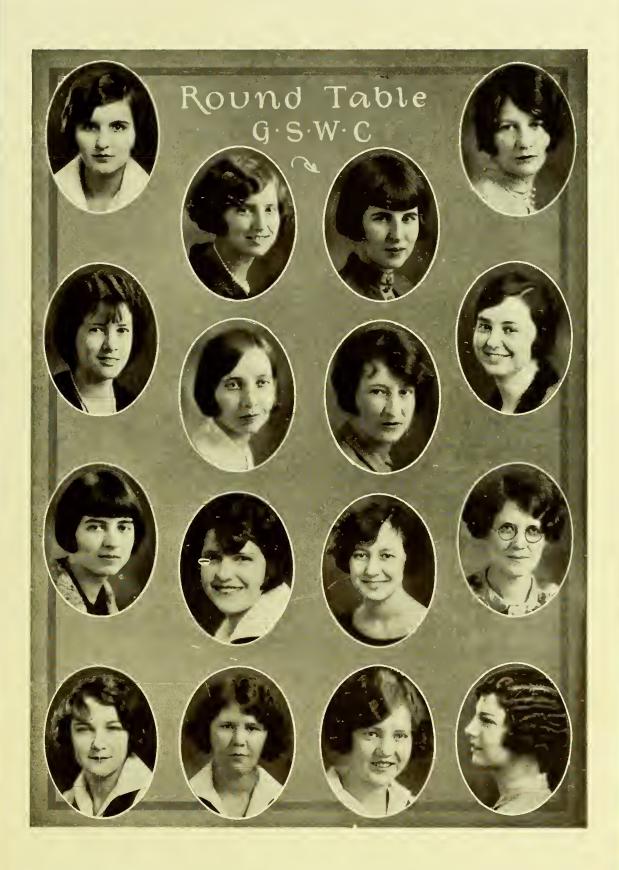

The Training School is an important part of any school for the training of teachers. This college in its Training School, offers opportunity to the student for training in any grade from the first through the eleventh grade of High School. When first the Administration added to the Junior College the two years work for a degree, the regular High School work as a part of the course offered here was abandoned, but the High School as a part of the Training School was maintained.

The Argonian Literary Society has been fortunate in the selection of a theme for programs of the year—the subject being the various forms of art, the division in programs being made according to the different countries. Especial emphasis has been put on the art of painting, for which a studio tea, featuring a miniature art gallery, served as a fitting culmination.

One of the outstanding achievements of the year has been the fine spirit of cooperation which has been shown between the two societies. Besides having joint programs, they have exchanged programs frequently. They have had joint social affairs also, and the studio tea which came as a fitting climax to the year's work, was given by the societies together.

Alumnae

Living institutions are not finished products, but they are progressive, throbbing with life. We alumnae of a new association are striving to build on a sure and strong foundation by gathering up and focusing as we go all the power which springs from love, vision, and high purpose. By this means can "character first" be the slogan which is today the watchword of our Alma Mater.

Calendar

SEPTEMBER

- 8—So this is college. Hanging in the registration line until we nearly drop, having clothes fitted, and a few other things like that. But "Every sweet has its bitter" so maybe the sweet will come.
- 9—Our big sisters are good to us. They must know how Freshmen feel. They gave a lovely lawn party for us tonight.
- 10—First classes.
- 11—First meeting of the S. G. A. We learn the "Do's and Don'ts" of college life.
- 12—Y. W. C. A. treasure hunt, but what did we find? Not what we were looking for and certainly not what we wanted—Rain.
- 13—First Sunday. All the girls don their uniform for the first time and make their first appearance at church in Valdosta.
- 14—Freshman training begins. Scared? What's it all about anyway?
- 17—At vesper we learn that "A word to the Y's is sufficient." We have already learned that the Y's a good thing to have on the campus.
- 19—Faculty reception. The students saunter nonchalantly down the receiving line.
- 21—Pine Branch elections. Aren't we glad "Chris Meadows" came back!
- 22—First court list—all criminals tremble with fear.
- 23—The Argonians and Sororians receive new members. The old members feel their importance on this occasion.
- 25—Quivers and quavers! Tryout for the Glee Club. A chance for those who think they can sing to find out.
- 27-Y. W. Candle Light Service for the recognition of new members. A very pretty service.
- 30-Last day of the month. First one gone. Will the other eight ever pass?

OCTOBER

- 1-Classes, societies, clubs, etc. start collecting dues. Everybody has to write home for a check.
- 2—Miss Hopper entertains the faculty with a "garden party." She must like the Juniors and Seniors best because we noticed that they were there, too.
- 4—We have a lot of musical talent on our faculty. Mr. Dasher gives an organ recital at the First Baptist Church.
- 6—Mr. Wood gives the Freshmen intelligence tests. Do you suppose he is trying to find out whether or not they belong in some other State institution?
- 10—Phi Kappa-Phi Lambda Dance. Bids are extended to new members. Did you ever see such handsome men before in your life?
- 15—We thought we had met all of the organizations on the campus, but not the Sock and Buskin Club. Tryouts for the dramatic club. All the pleasures of reading Carl Sandburg to an appreciative (?) audience of Scniors!
- 17—The faculty are poetically inclined even if we are not. They have organized a Modern Poetry Club.
- 19—Sophs hide the hat (an old grey hat of Mr. Powell's that has been handed down since the Sophomore class of '18).

  The Freshmen look for it, but can't find it.
- 23—Something else new sprung on us—the music lovers organize the Philharmonic Club. The Valkyries and Argonauts have a Hallowe'en Party at the "House in the Woods."
- 24—Hallowe'en Masquerade—Spooks. Black Cats, and witches dance to Horne's Orchestra. Lights out—a ghost story—we couldn't sleep that night, we were so scared.
- 25—Thrills! We're told to put our "going home slips" in the wire basket, and write the homefolks when to meet us.
- 30-Fall Holidays. Glorious!

NOVEMBER

- 3—We had such a good time at home, but it's work again we must!
- 5-Mid-term reports. Results: No. 1-Allowance cut. No. 2-Sudden drop in Country Store profits.
- 8—Dr. Smart from Emory University is with us for a week. He has a big place in all our hearts.
- 11-Armistice Day.
- 12—The Baptist Girls are entertained at the new Womans' Building. For one time they are sprinkled—in a good shower of rain.
- 19—The Freshmen find the hat! Sophs watch your step, or else you will have no purses next spring. Dr. Southwick gives "The Rivals."
- 20—Faculty Recital: Misses Walker and Sawyer give us a very enjoyable evening.

- 25—A large flock of chickens arrive for the Thanksgiving feast.
- 26—We're so thankful for Thanksgiving Day! Exciting game—The Phi Lambdas show their "stuff"! Big dinner! Dandy program!
- 27—The local Alumnae meet in town with Estelle Barker. Estelle has started something!

DECEMBER

- 1—Just eighteen more days before Christmas holidays!
- 5—Elsie Gunn must have heard about a few checks coming in—she is all the time coming around to collect for something.
- 7—Note books called for—Exams posted—These teachers have no mercy upon us whatever.
- 11—Another faculty recital—Miss Smith and Mrs. Pardee give us a delightful evening with their piano and violin.
- 12—The two literary societies pool their efforts and give us a good Christmas program.
- 13-At vesper we had a beautiful Christmas pageant: "The Nativity" one of the most impressive services of the year.
- 15—Making costumes! Rehearsing plays!
- 16—Doing Christmas shopping! Packing suitcases, etc.!
- 17—All thrills! We are going home soon!
- 18—Christmas Festival! Presentation of the new victrola to the College for a Christmas gift. Taking Christmas with fireworks out on the front Campus at mid-night! (Something you've never heard of before at G. S. W. C.) Then Goodbyes!
- 19—Christmas Holidays—Going home—Rain and late trains!

JANUARY

- 4—Getting back to school. Echoes of "good times." Display of Christmas presents. Classes again! Evidence of much holiday dissipation.
- 11—Final Exams begin. And mumps also.
- 14—Half holiday! (Thanks to Gov. Walker!)
- 15-Methodist students and faculty are entertained.
- 17-Mr. Crudup makes a hit with the girls at vesper.
- 18—Beginning of the second semester. O! what a relief to put a half year behind us.
- 20—"Hold your pose! Don't look so solemn, now!" (A stream of students start down to Blackburn's Studio to have pictures made for the Annual.)
- 21—Skating craze hits the college. The Juniors and Seniors are no longer dignified. Broken bones, spines, and faces are quite the thing.
- 27—Y. W. Book Party—"Clepto-maniac!" Who was it? Oh yes, a play.
- 29-Mr. Gustlin's interpretative piano recital at Womans' Building.
- 31—Thus ends the first month of the New Year—since exams are over it isn't so bad after all.

FEBRUARY

- 6-Sororians treat the Argonians to a Wiener Roast out in "The Pines."
- 8-Phi Kappa-Phi Lambda Dance. Charleston craze manifest.
- 9-Music in the air! Glee Club rehearsals every day.
- 10—The College entertains the legislators of the 11th district.
- 11—Pep Meeting—We see our dormitories full and running over for next year. Alumnae have a lovely Valentine Party at the Colonial Tea Room.
- 13—Lowndes County Club gives a Valentine Party for the Faculty. And, what became of the balloons? Ask Sara Mandeville.
- 15—Glee Club at Strand. Wonderful, beautiful, splendid—there just aren't enough adjectives in the dictionary to describe it!
- 19—Poor Sophs! "That hat just ain't to be found." Who's who contest—About 193 out of 200 girls disappointed.
- 20—Miss Hopper leaves for Washington to attend a meeting of the National Association of Deans of Women.
- 23—Scandal! About 30 girls were out all night long—came in this A. M. about seven o'clock. But they were well chaperoned—went down to Jacksonville to hear Paderewski.
- 25—Madame Franceska Kaspar Lawson in Song Recital at Womans' Building.
- 26—Miss Hopper returns. My! how we have missed her. And we were right good while she was away. "Florist's Shop" at the Strand. What shall we do next year without Martha Youngblood as our hero?
- 28—Our new spring bonnets are so becoming. We can't decide whether we look like Quaker Maids or Salvation Army lassies.

MARCH

- 1—Last month was such a short month. But then February has only 28 days.
- 2—Glee Club goes to Waycross. Why couldn't we all be song-birds or bluff Miss Walker!
- 4-Mrs. Pardee's violin recital at the Womans' Building.
- 6-Argonians are hostesses to the Sororians-an Irish party. For once the Freshmen fit in with the color scheme.
- 9-Basketball tournament begins.
- 10-Phi Lambdas win the loving cup.
- 12-Student Government election. Florence Breen elected.
- 13—Fine Arts Club put on a Puppet Show with the legend of "Lover's Leap" as the theme.
- 15—Thrills and more thrills! We're going home in three more days.
- 17—Field Day—a lot of athletic ability seen on the field today. But the Phi Lambdas walk off with everything.
- 18—Everybody clears out for spring holidays as soon as classes are over.
- 23—Back on the scenes again. Do wish holidays had lasted a few more days.
- 26—Spring is coming, even if it does rain.
- 28—Big attendance at the Methodist church—Georgia Glee Club furnishes the music for the evening.
- 29—Georgia Glee Club. Grand! Again our Glee Club is lucky—they entertain the Georgia boys in the afternoon.
- 31—Another leaf off the calendar. Just two more months.

APRIL

- 1—Everybody's day! But Chris. Verna, Tillie, and Lucius tie for first honor. They celebrate their birthday at the Club House. Juniors and Seniors turn Freshmen again.
- 3—Literary Societies put on Art Exhibit. They also encourage attendance by serving refreshments.
- 4—Easter has already arrived. Glorious! Not much longer.
- 7—Freshmen are in such a flurry—something is going to happen!
- 10-Freshman-Sophomore Reception-nuf said.
- 14—She Stoops to Conquer presented at the Strand. Everybody enjoyed the play including the actors. We're so proud of our High School!
- 15—Frances Faries and Florence Breen go to Wesleyan to Student Government Conference. Aren't S. G. A. Presidents lucky?
- 17—Inter-society Debate. The debaters thresh the problem of uniform marriage and divorce laws. The Argonians are victorious.
- 18—Spring is really here! The white uniform goes to church today for the first time this year.
- 21—The College has a banquet in honor of the Georgia Press Association. We're so glad Mr. Brantley believes in the College girls.
- 24—Junior-Senior Picnic. You should hear those folks rave about Twin Lakes, handsome men, fried chicken, boat riding, the heavenly moonlight, the ride home, etc.

MAY

- 1—The flowers awaken, the May Queen assumes her regal duties at the May Day Festival.
- 3—Our new officers are getting along just fine—they have our best wishes.
- 4-Glee Club Picnic. We all know that we'll develop a voice next year.
- 6-Beginning to hear of Blue Ridge again. It surely must be a wonderful place.
- 7—Philharmonic Club has a lovely party as they meet for the last time.
- 9-Just two more Sundays to be here.
- 12-Not so long until exams. begin.
- 14-Last S. G. A. meeting.
- 17-E-X-A-M-S-! Final!
- 21-Enough of us survived the ordeal to have commencement.
- 22—Class Day—Those Sophs and Seniors think they are the greatest things to be sure.
- 23-Baccalaureate Sunday. Soph-Senior Farewell Vesper Service.
- 24-Senior Play: The Rivals.
- 25-Commencement Dinner, College Exhibit, and Alumnae Banquet.
- 26—Commencement Day—"The Seniors skip for to get their dips."
- 27—Going home! We've had a wonderful year. But good-bye now until next year.

Monday's child is fair of face,
Tuesday's child is full of grace,
Wednesday's child banishes woe,
Thursday's child has far to go.
Friday's child is loving and giving,
Saturday's child works hard for a living,
But the child who is born on the Sabbath Day
Is fair and wise and good and gay.

THE COLLEGE

A young man entered a jewelry store, sidled up to the jeweler with a furtive air and asked to see some wedding rings. Selecting one at last he asked if he might have it engraved.

"Certainly, sir," said the jeweler, "What do you wish engraved on it?" "From Henry to Clara."

"Beg pardon, sir, but wouldn't it be safer to simply put on it 'From Henry'?'' suggested the jeweler.

AN ADVERTISEMENT

This page is nominally an advertisement of The Georgia State Womans College. The real advertisement, though, is the pages of the Annual. The things that students do, more perfectly reveal the actual significance of an institution of learning than anything else. This College is happy to be so revealed.
