"Queen of the moon...."

The Unicorn - Vol 2 - I
the Winter Solstice; 1978
O M O M

Candle flames cast

Liquid shadows that gather Whispering secrets to each other
And to the trees.

A soft wave of laughter
Permeates the life forces
We build up and send forth.
Outward and inward they grow.
A personification and humble
Acceptance
Of the intrinsic polarity
Found in ourselves and Fortuously within others.

Dear humans,

Wouldn't you know - typical Virgo that he is, Paul has found his location - he is now teaching two beginning astrology classes. Instead of finding a center, he is teaching in his home, or in a student's home, which keeps everyone in a circle of happiness. He has booked a large number of performances, and will be "fluting" all over the place (he thinks he's pretty good, but that's his ♀ in ♍). He's always interrupting my naps with students, humans for horoscopes, for amulets and herbs and other balderdash. I wish you people would learn from we Unicorns - all we do is live on love and magick, and we do quite nicely, thank you!

All Hallow's Eve was super! New incense on the altar, and in the middle of the celebration, two little foals - oops - children, for wishes, for treats of seashells and cakes, and we talked of the change in seasons. Two beautiful are little humans!

To the lady who took my advice of wearing a long coat to the grocer's: next time be sure the buttons are sewn on tightly!!

Love You, Ardeul

We were unable to send out the cinnamon tea as promised. We hope the substitution was pleasing to all. A friend had been mixing it, but she got too nervous learning that here we would go to Pagans, Druids, Witches, and other happy, beautiful folk. To us it proves a real need for those of us who are able to 'come out' to do so, in order to bring about a balance. So much news-print is spent upon the black arts - it sullies our reputations. In 'coming out' - if people learn of your religion, the best way to show them the fruits of our ways of love and trust is by example and by protecting the identities of those who have families and social situations requiring their secrecy over the work.

the 19th of January, Paul will be opening the Brackeneidge Chamber Concert Series, in Rochester, Minn. If anyone is in the area, we hope to see you! Paul and his magick flute will be in Brackeneidge Hall, which adjoins Calvary Episcopal Church, just west of the Mayo Clinic.

the 22nd of March Paul will perform in Gallery 310 of the Institute of Arts in Minneapolis. Joining him will be violinist Diane Reynolds, who is also an excellent tarot reader.

Paul will be appearing regularly at Muffuletta's, 2260 Como Ave., St. Paul.

♈ A time ago we requested extra love and good energy for a special Virgo out in California. What a delightful surprise to have him for a visit. Some wrote wonderful letters saying he was included in your blessings. He tells us it helped, and all is well. Bless all of you in thanks! The sharing of love is our greatest work!

Bravos for our local newspaper, the Mpls. Tribune and Mpls. Star: The Minneapolis area has long been one of the stronger areas in magical arts and the manifestation of dreams into reality. The book Seth Speaks lists Minneapolis as a "coordinate point." The Indians kept this entire Mississippi valley area as special, for sacred rivers were where two forks joined on a river flowing from the North... Again, science, the slow believer catches up. The Oct. 25 Star tells us we are the site of an unusual lava formation which affects our gravity and energy. "Stronger 'deflections of the vertical' have been found on the west face of the Andes.... and on the southwest valley floor of the Himalayas. It's really the attraction for Mother Earth!! This is one of the nicest places to get in touch with her!

The Sunday Oct 29 Tribune ran a huge article assuring everyone that comets are, indeed, much different under a full moon, but concludes "We know something happens more than just occasionally, but we do not know why. Perhaps they should consult one of the excellent astrologers about the Cities. Our local papers also feature articles on life after death, several series on hypnosis, and it's nice to read...

have you read? Pentaplo Journal the new look of the Druid Chronicle. For the Druids, but mostly for all us like minded friends of the Gods....

Thank you's - to Ruth K. of Madison for the nifty present - to Chris and Val for their tape (which will be soon answered) - to Don for sculpting some very special Unicorn cardies - we were speechless at their sense of whimsy and fun!

to Da'oud for sharing his jewelry with us. A design was suggested in September, and the ring completed as moon's love waxed full in Gemini - what a ring, crescent moon and star, set with a moonstone. Da'oud travels about the country. If you'd like him at your gathering, write him to the Unicorn....
