

WELCOME FRESHMEN TO G. S. W. C.

The Campus Canopy

VOLUME VI 2127

THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA, TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1939

G. S. W. C. SEES MANY CHANGES AFTER ESTABLISHMENT

G. S. W. C. BEGINS TWENTY-SEVENTH SESSION

Witnessing the largest enrollment in recent years, the Georgia State Womans College opens for its twenty-seventh college session. Dr. Frank R. Reade begins the sixth year of his presidency of the college.

Curriculum Changes

In 1906 the college was established. It was not until 1913 that the college was formerly opened, and then as a Junior College—a teacher's training school was installed in 1923.

A four-year liberal arts college, as it is today, came into existence in 1933.

Numerous Campus Improvements

Campus improvements in the past two years include a $25,000 pool, a Student Activities House, in the pine woods back of Senior Hall. Improvements in Converse Hall and Ashley Hall, effected during the past summer, consist of new lighting facilities and fixtures, and walls repainted. The seven tennis courts have been reclayed.

Work Progressing on Library

On July 6 the contract for the $75,000 library was let by the Board of Regents to the Walter Aldred Company of Statesboro. Work began immediately and the building is to be completed within eight months. As planned the library will be one and a half stories with special stock rooms and reference rooms. Also, included will be a librarian office and repairing rooms.

Ohio State University co-eds have organized a personal appearance clinic to teach correct dress and make-up.

College Bells Chime--Skirts, Sweaters Are Tops

By LOUIE PEEPLES

A word to the slylists is not sufficient. They would add yards of lace, a dash of black silk, and a veil or two. In college, however, conventions are conventions. The traditional sweater and skirt and the inevitable saddle oxfords are uniform. Strands of pearls and gay scarfs change the effect, but the motive is the same.

Tricky Jewelry and Pearly Buttons

And what about these novelty bracelets that are going favor, and these unusual novelty belts and pins!

Cardigans, and more cardigans—not to give that sloppy look, but to give the careless college effect. And the above the knees "campus length" skirt worn with half hose, which look very much like overgrown socks to us.

Topcoats Good the Year Round
Culottes or active sports wear, tweed suits, shirts all spell COL-

NYA ALLOTMENT FOR 1939-40 INCREASED

STUDENT AID COMMITTEE TO APPROVE APPLICATIONS

N.Y.A. allotments of the Georgia State Womans College for the year 1939-40 will be $495 per month, an increase of $60 over last year's allotment, as given out by Miss Mildred Teasley, Director of Placement.

Increase of $60

A Student Aid Committee, composed of President Frank R. Reade, Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean, and Mr. J. R. Dusenbury, treasurer, will pass upon the applications, of which there are 125, for part time work.

The Student Aid Committee introduces for the first time a merit system for the available secretarial positions. Tests on ability in typing and shorthand will be given to those who desire the stenographic work. The proficient will obtain the more difficult positions.

Merit System is New

Work performed by students in earning their allowances is practical, useful, and adapted to the abilities and interests of the students. The hourly rates of pay at which students are employed at G.S.W.C. vary from twenty-five cents to forty cents an hour.

Maximum Working Hours

Students are assigned to work from twenty to forty hours a month, and are not permitted to work more than thirty hours in any one week, nor more than eight hours in any one day.

DORMITORY ROMEO: A University of Florida collegian has his own "correspondence club." It's made up of 18 women in 16 U. S. cities, and he claims he knows them all. He made our reporter promise not to divulge his name—for most obvious reasons!

STUDENT-FACULTY HONOR SYSTEM WILL RULE ACADEMIC WORK

OFFICIALS ANNOUNCE REGULATIONS

Officials of the Government Association of the Georgia State Womans College announce the rules and regulations of the Student-Faculty Honor System, which will govern academic work throughout the year.

In response to student demand the system was organized and went into effect in 1938. The Student-Faculty Honor Council was formed as a disciplinary body, to refer its decisions to the Executive Board, which in turn reports its action to the faculty and to the student body.

Disciplinary Body

Procedure for faculty control of academic work is, as follows:

1. On quizzes and examinations, students will be assigned, wherever it is possible, to alternate seats; or else alternate quizzes and examinations will be given.

2. Faculty members will remain in the room during quizzes and examinations, and will proctor them.

3. In no cases will quizzes or examinations be given by students or proctored by them. In no case will quiz or examination questions be prepared by students, nor will quizzes or examinations be graded by them.

4. Students will not be permitted to leave the room during quizzes or examinations.

5. Department heads will post and order read in all classes, regulations stating what is regarded as fair and what as unfair work in their departments.

6. Identical quizzes or examinations will not be given to groups meeting at different hours.

7. Home work of any sort will be accepted for credit only with the clear understanding between teacher and student that the work is the student's own, and (See STUDENT, Page 4)

YWCA WILL PRESENT PLAY ON THURSDAY

Pygmalion and Galatea, a skit based on Greek mythology, will be given at Vesper service on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the auditorium. The purpose of the skit is to show the need of the YWCA to every college student.

Williams Announces Cast

The proposed cast, as given out by Carolyn Williams, vice-president of the YWCA, is as follows: Katherine Scott, Ann Parham, Leecy Ann Goodloe, Frances Middleton, Eleanor Turnbull, Mary Williams.

Louise Bell, Mary Catherine Abernathy, Mary Alice Brim, Doris Harper, Eleanor Morgan, Louie Peeples, Angeline Cunningham, Evelyn Brim, Irwin Smith, and Rosalind Taylor.

Richter Will Direct

Miss Anna Richter, assistant in the speech department, will be director of the skit.

Orientation Week Of GSWC Centers Around Freshmen

SPONSORED BY SGA, YWCA, AND FACULTY

Freshman Orientation Week of G.S.W.C., officially opening on September 18 at Freshman Assembly, will be handled jointly by the faculty and the Government Association and the Young Woman's Christian Association. Presidents of the S.G.A., and the Y.W.C.A. are Ruth Whisonant and Mildred Wilson, respectively.

New Students Take Placement Tests

During the week, ability, intelligence, and aptitude tests, prescribed by the University System, will be given by faculty members. A short course on "How to Study" will be taught, and the students will be selecting work schedules.

Freshmen Honored at Social

The orientation program also includes the study of the admission of students into the SGA and the "Y," introducing freshmen to each other and to the faculty, giving parties and informal "get-togethers" for the new students, helping each to plan a sports and recreational program, and teaching to them the college customs, songs, and traditions.

Sports Club and Sock and Buskin to Entertain

Ruth Reid will be in charge of water carnival on Wednesday evening. The Sock and Buskin Club, dramatic club of the college, will stage on Thursday evening a short skit, entitled "What Happened to Rhett Butler," at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium.

A Barn Dance will be sponsored by the YWCA in the Recreation Hall from 8 o'clock until 10 o'clock during the week.

WORKMAN WILL GIVE WEEKLY BIBLE LECTURES

BIBLE STUDY INAUGURATED

Bible study, in the form of a series of lectures, will be inaugurated at the Georgia State Womans College for the first time in the history of its existence. Dr. Gatewood Workman professor of Bible and psychology at Emory Junior College, will be the instructor.

Dr. Workman, who has practically completed the work for the A.B. degree at the Candler School of Theology of Emory University, will conduct the lectures at chapel period, each Wednesday morning throughout the entire college session.

Attendance Compulsory

Attendance will be compulsory for G.S.W.C. students. The lectures will cover the Old Testament. It is to be a course without quizzes, examinations, or credit.

It is the hope of the administrative staff to continue the Bible course into the ensuing years. A study of the New Testament is to be taken up in the following year. Plans are being made for the distribution of a Bible to each dormitory room, to be the property of the college, for the use of the students.

Students and Faculty Show Interest

Last year interest was evidenced by the students and the faculty in favor of a Bible course. It through that interest that the course is being made possible.

NOTICE!

BARN DANCE IN RECREATION HALL ON SATURDAY EVENING—7:30 TO 10:00. SPONSORED BY YWCA. COME IN COSTUME!!

A Senior Looks Back Upon Freshman Week

By ORA KATE WISENBAKER

Upper classmen—they were so dignified and so clearly at ease on the campus. We envied their familiarity with each other and most of all with faculty members. Would we ever be as dignified, as poised, as at ease? (Note: We aren't.)

More New and Exciting Freshmen

And the exams. We felt that every bit of knowledge we ever had, and as a graduate of high school we really knew lots, had deserted us entirely. Just why hadn't we really learned all about verbs, pronouns and dangling participles in school? Surely they didn't teach it! And the fatal day when Dr. Hawks called us in for a private interview about the results! Gee, was that awful! We knew we did bad but not as bad as that. Probably we should have brushed up on a few things before the exam.

But after all it really wasn't so bad. Dr. Hawks was most cheerful and encouraging in spite of it all.

Dr. Hawks Gave Encouragement

Such awful courses we had to take—Math, Physical Science, by the way, just what is Physical Science? Seems like we could take what we want to—like plenty of art and home ec.

The Tall, Dark and Handsome One

Ah, the day we got out the b. f.'s picture—it's only a small one, 9 x 12—and everybody chorused—"tell us about him"—that was just what we were waiting on. That sort of broke the ice and before long everybody was talking and carrying on. Suddenly we felt all warm and cozy inside. After all these girls were just like the girls in the crowd at home. We were at college and life was swell! the girls were swell! and gee—a college woman!

When September

COMES, we hear the sound of marching feet. They're little and big, in new shoes, in the latest thing fashion has decreed—toes peeking out, heels open to the weather, with no chance that a darn will never save the price of a new pair of stockings. They are all going in one direction, the schools and colleges, the most democratic institutions in the world.

Recruited from every part of the country, they come imbued with ideas of college. Some come with hopes, great hopes, for high achievement. Others come, not so highly inclined, and rather careless in the way in which they shall seek their grades.

In high school maybe a pupil was commended by all fellow classmates for helping pass a football hero in his difficult Latin and geometry courses.

Cheating, for that was what it was, was a thing which received social approval, when directed in so worthy a direction.

The Student-Faculty Honor System of GSWC makes it possible for the student and professor to work in conjunction when there is dishonesty among students in academic work.

A system which is fairly new, coming into existence a year and a half ago, it is definitely proving worthy of its existence. It allows for self-government in each student.

The personal code of the GSWC woman demands that each be scrupulously honest in academic work, knowing that in this way only can a student learn to think hard and straight, to love truth and to become intellectually independent.

"Each girl is considered trustworthy by both faculty and fellow-students and shows appreciation of the trust reposed in her not only by her own conduct but by insisting on the absolute honesty of others."

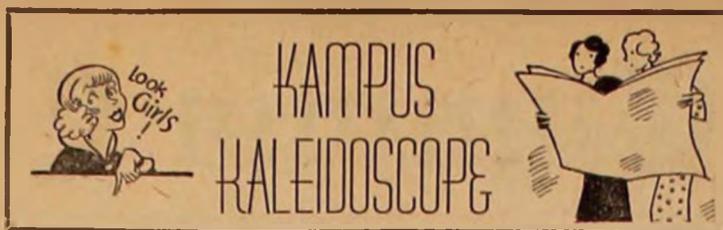

Advice from all sides is being given to the freshmen. Parents, friends, older students of the chosen college—all are getting in their word.

Bewildered, perhaps they stand, trying to sift it all out into a workable, livable code.

Trying hard enough she will find it to be a code which excludes all those things which are not becoming in young womanhood and which includes all those things which are lovely and desirable.

Citizenship in the Government Association involves self-government. The whole organization is based on the principles of honor and self-discipline. It is believed that a girl who has developed the inner spirit of governing herself will, of her own accord apply principles of honesty in all phases of daily life as well as academic work.

Calling all Freshmen—and the five Smiths! The eyes of the Kaleidoscope are upon you, and speaking of eyes, the CANOPY has its eye on ELIZABETH CRENSHAW, the ninety-five pound Atlantan who likes to write. But so does RITA CHAUNCEY. Proof: four anxious letters before arrival. Much admired photo: VIVIAN REED all the way from BRILLIANT, O. And BERTHA LOUISE ROBERTS wants to be called BERTHA LOUISE. No nicknames, girls, PUL-LEASE. Interesting note: Blondes dominate. Interesting examples: BETH THORPE, Arlington belle, and DOROTHY WILKES. Interesting names: MARY GNANN, SAMMIE HARP (we hear she's really intelligent) MUIR CREWS, CAROLYN CRUMMY, and SUNSHINE TAYLOR, who lives on SUNSHINE HILL in Cordele. Novel hobby: SARA CATHERINE MARTIN has a waste basket you simply must autograph! And two BLANTONS: NANCY and SARA, who would "just as soon live up or down stairs." Two others from far away: ROSE MARY BOWDEN, Walkill, New York, and RUTH P. WILLIAMS, Pleasant, New Jersey. Ruth was born at LAKEWOOD and lives in OCEAN COUNTRY. Extended welcome to JEAN BURNS, if she will follow in her sister's foot-

All Are Eager To Help

Office of the Dean of Women is the "shock absorber" for your campus living.

There you will be able to solve many of your problems. Miss Hopper and her staff stand ready to help you in any difficulties that arise.

Miss Hopper's office is in Ashley where she may be found always at certain hours, and at other times by appointment.

Miss Carter is immediately available in Converse Hall where

The Time Has Come

NOW FOR SCHOOL to start. For some, entering college as freshman, life will seem to be an endless tangle of rules, regulations, and the more exciting moments of unpacking, meeting new friends and most of all finding that college is not a preparation for life, but a marvelous new experience in living.

Reuniting of Upperclassmen

For others, upperclassmen, it will be a reunion of old friendships, a home-coming to a beloved friend and the easy slipping back into college regime which has lapsed during the summer.

Seeing upper classmen greet each other joyously—the freshmen begin to realize what college friendship means. And how they jabber—"Did you know Dot and Tray got married?"

What College Opening Means

College opening means—new faces and old faces—new ideas garnered from everywhere during the summer—lights about dormi-steps. Other sisters of former students: SARA (Glamour) WADE, JEANNE FRYOR, DORIS HIERS, and ALLEN NEWBERY. Predicted star on freshman horizon: JACQUELINE SMITH, and she's a first honor graduate along with many others. To be noticed: MARTHA HATTEN and MYRTIS JENKINS (cute girls, but so are all the girls from Rochelle), VERONICA KLEEMAN, transfer from ARMSTRONG; MARY MINCHEW, MARY HO MILSAP, CAROLYN MARSHALL, CAROLYN MARTIN. Inevitable Frosh custom: two MARY WILLIAMSES on the list.

Valdosta notables: STUMP, BARNES, PEEPLES, DUSENBURY. Talented artist coming up: EMILY MCCALL. Idle wonder: if the girl-of-the-cute-plantation stationery, HARRIET MARTIN, has arrived. And the CANOPY has its eye on LOUISE LAMBERT too, a reported GOOD PROOF READER. Events in a nutshell, according to MISS TEASLEY: "The tennis courts are going down,; the library is going up; the old beds are going out; and the Freshmen are coming in!" Yep, the Kaleidoscopic eye can't miss. We're glad you're here, hope you stay, and in the words of the happy little freshmen, we all are happily looking forward to all of you joining our big happy family—.

she will help you to settle down to a happy college life. Mrs. Middlebrooks is also in Converse Hall. Take to her all your house-keeping problems.

You will find it helpful to know Miss Garbutt who is Miss Hopper's assistant. She is full of suggestions and good ideas.

Then there are the "Y" girls and the student government officials. Give them a chance to get acquainted with you and to help you over the hard places.

A happy year to you!

tory row at night—visits to the Country Store after quiet hour with everybody sleepy and hungry—hair done up, faces washed and in robes, negligees, and the like. College opening means the sound of many feet and voices through halls long hushed—the soft murmur of lovers talk under the camphor trees—classes and books and papers—the nickleodeon going at the Saturday night dances—steak, spaghetti and hamburger at the House-in-the-Woods—heads bent low over the test tube, a book, a rare flower—the annual reception when all the faculty wears formal dress and Dr. and Mrs. Reade head the receiving line—long bull sessions held at late hours with everybody curled up on the beds—

College opening means a glad rush of happiness, a still hush of thankfulness and expectations—to be fulfilled—of a wonderful year.

If You Would Be

WISE, begin the freshman year on the right foot and forget the left. High school days are over, and now—comes college! Your life is just beginning, and there is a new world ahead, but first a word from an experienced sideline.

Canopy Watches Frosh

In the first week of rush and excitement, keep your head and do as you're told. Learn the college, the rules, and the customs. Get acquainted with all the interesting things, and of course, your faculty and classmates. Be sure you are not absent from a single event on the schedule, and we will guarantee you a place in the college's activities—and Canopy headlines.

SGA Booklet Designed to Help

Everything this week is being done for your interest and your benefit. Make the most of your first week in college, for the impressions you are making now will linger through the year. In college girls grow up quickly, mentally and emotionally. Learn to take things as they come, and for spirit's sake don't let them pass you by.

Revisions Made

Chapel period has been the catch-all period of the school day, so to speak, in the past. Clubs, organizations, classes, societies—all have clambered for that period of the day in which to hold meetings.

As a result the period became a tangled mass of students hurrying from one room to another in the vain hope of attending two meetings in one hour.

When meetings, which should have been scheduled at that time could not, the result was they had to be set for the evening.

In an effort to relieve the congestion of club meetings during chapel period, and also at the same time cut to a minimum the evening meetings, there will be a reduction in the number of heretofore compulsory lectures.

The need for a revision was noted last year by the administration. Smoother contacts should be possible under the new system. Chapel period could then be left free for call meetings of the various clubs.

From An Uneasy

CHAIR. Cushioned—was this first issue of the paper by the unswerving loyalty of Rosemary Baker, Ora Kate Wisenbaker, Virginia Zachert, Louie Peeples, and Susie McKey—Miss Garbutt even gives noteworthy assistance, along with the aid of Miss Richter—Coming back to school with only five or six people around was an intriguing experience.

The jingle by Miss Teasley—most fitting—the freshmen here, the tennis courts are down and ready, the library is still going up, and the old beds are gone, replaced by new.

The Country Store promises great services—good luck—and plenty of cold coca colas—Barn Dance is spotted and anticipated—also the skit by the dramatic club—on the "must" list.

The House-in-the-Woods promises to be a haven for Sports Club monthly suppers, Chinese checkers enthusiasts, book lovers, the music minded—Brookwood park, a spot of superloveliness.

Canopy Junior—dwarf edition of ye weekly, will cover the schedule for Wednesday, Thursday and Friday—makes three appearances, in other words.

Patronize advertisements in the Campus Canopy—the chair will rest easier knowing ads will be coming in to fill space on pages three and four.—Watch for a ghost writer in the next issue.

Arrival of Miss Lowry in Senior Dorm, after a belated train—a violin recital scheduled for next week, the Faculty Reception, the first dance of the year, and not least, but first classes—all are things to look forward to.

The zip in the air gives one a zippy feeling—reminds of things to be done, of things that are coming—with held breath we wait for things to get back in the groove.

With everyone and everything extending welcome to the freshman we insist on getting ours in too—hence the banner above the illustrious title, THE CAMPUS CANOPY, hoping that it will hit between the eyes, and remain.

Eyes Of Frosh Are Bright With Future Hopes

It's an old college custom to look your formal prettiest and attend the faculty reception given in honor of the students the second Saturday evening after school opens, to sing with classmates in South Georgia twilight on the campus between the evening meal and study hall for the first few weeks of school, to attend "Ye Olde English Feast" at Christmas attired as "Ye Lords and Ye Ladies of Ye Court," to sing Christmas carols in groups up and down the halls at dawn on the morning you leave for home, to find or hide the hat of college tradition, to wind the Maypoles in May Day celebration, and join in the gay festival, to play on Play Day with College guests, to attend college formals and participate in club affairs.

Bazaars and Carnivals

It's an old college pleasure to attend the Saturday night dances, have the time of your life at the Halloween Carnival, buy at the Christmas Bazaar, attend the Artist Series, fall in line at chapel time, go to class meetings, vote in enthusiastic elections, get into genuine bull sessions, gossip in the library, scamper to the Country Store, gather in the Rotunda before meals, walk down to Brookwood, go on club and class trips.

New Friends, New Work, New Play

But it's an old college truth that just as surely as you do all these, you will make life-long friends and have life-long memories. Four years of glorious living await you, and may your Freshman year mark a glorious beginning.

CAMPUS CANOPY DEDICATES INITIAL ISSUE TO FRESHMEN

Paper Appears Two Weeks Earlier Than Last Year

The Campus Canopy, official news-organ of the Georgia State Womans College, this year begins publication at an earlier date than usual. With Louise Bell as the editor-in-chief of the weekly newspaper, the 1939-40 staff has on its list some of the most outstanding girls on the campus. Among them are Curtis Whatley, Virginia Zachert, Rosemary Baker, Louie Peeples, Susie McKey, Marie Ambos, Gwendolyn Hendricks, Louise Macfie, and Frances Middleton.

Outstanding Girls on Staff

Each Friday throughout the school year, the Campus Canopy is distributed with the Collegiate Digest. As a member of the Associated Collegiate Press and of the National Scholastic Press Association, the paper has sent delegates to conventions in Louisville, Ky., Athens, Atlanta, Savannah, Cincinnati, and during the past year was host to other delegates at a convention on the Valdosta campus.

Convention Held at G.S.W.C.

Supported by student activities fees and by its advertising columns, the Campus Canopy offers to entering students an opportunity to earn honor points, which count on the coveted G.S.-W.C. emblems, and at the same time to gain interesting and valuable experience reporting, soliciting advertising, writing features, and copy-reading.

New Office in Log Cabin

Installed in its relatively new office in the Log Cabin student activities house, the staff of the Campus Canopy holds meetings on Monday evenings, and on Wednesday nights. The Canopy also contributes to the social life of the campus with its parties and recreational gatherings.

New students who wish to join the workers on the newspaper should report to Louise Bell at their earliest convenience.

Quality Points for G.S.W.C. Emblems

Under the point system at G.S.-W.C., the Campus Canopy positions listed below carry the following points: Editor, 12; Assistant Editor, 8; Associate Editors, 8; Business Manager 9; Reporters, 5; Circulation, 3; Advertising staff, 5; Managing Editor, 9; Columnists, 3; Photograph Editor, 3; Headline writers, 5; Proofreaders, 3.

SCHOLARSHIP GIVEN TO GSWC AS MEMORIAL FUND

Administrative officials of the Georgia State Womans College today announced the establishment of a $1000 scholarship fund as a memorial to Mrs. Mary Murray Talbott.

The scholarship fund, a gift from Mrs. Frank N. Mann of Huntingdon, West Virginia, is to be known as the Mary Murray Talbott Scholarship and is to be used at the rate of $100. a year for the coming ten years to furnish books, fees, and expenses for a worthy Valdosta girl.

Mrs. Mann, sister of the late Mrs. Talbott, has requested that the fund be administered by the college authorities in cooperation with the Mary Talbott Bible Class of the First Baptist Church of Valdosta.

Mrs. Talbott, wife of the well-known Dr. T. M. Talbott of this city, was an outstanding member of social and civic organizations during her residence in Valdosta, and had served as a member of the board of the local Carnegie Library, and as a Bible teacher in the First Baptist Church for twenty-five years. She was well known for her interest in educational and cultural ideals, and her many acts of personal service to the people of the community.

Five Additions Made To Faculty Personnel

CHANGES IN THREE DEPARTMENTS

Faculty changes at the Georgia State Womans College include a new member of the music department, an addition to the staff of the Physical Education department and of the Science department and two new administrative workers.

Voice Teacher

Miss Marie Motter, who has been selected to teach voice students and direct the Glee Club and choral groups, is a graduate of the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh. She has taught at the Fillion Studios in Pittsburgh and has held several responsible choir positions and musical directorships. Her lyric soprano voice has been heard on the radio, with symphony orchestras, in concerts and with choral groups, and has won her unusual praise from critics. She is also a solo member of the Tuesday Music Club, and president of the alumni chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota, well-known musical organization.

Riding Instructor

Miss Edith Lowry of Bedford, Virginia, has joined the staff of the Physical Education Department as instructor of horseback riding. Miss Lowry attended Gulf Park College and has had additional training in riding instructorship at Sweetbriar College.

Professor of Chemistry

Dr. Lee Wesley Blich, assistant professor of Chemistry at Emory University's Valdosta division, will teach one lecture course in Physical Science on the G.S.W.C. campus. Dr. Blich received the Ph.D. degree from Johns Hopkins and has taught at Emory Junior College for the past five years.

To Administrative Staff

Miss Elizabeth Garbutt, who received the A.B. degree from G.S.W.C. in June, 1939, has been appointed assistant to the Dean of Women for the coming year. Another graduate of 1939, Miss Anna Richter, talented student of the speech department, will act as secretary to the president, and assistant in the speech work.

MISS MARIE MOTTER

On Tuesday there will be a tour of the entire athletic field of G.S.W.C. Wednesday afternoon of Open House will bring a tennis tournament—Ruth Reid, Phi Kappa white hope, will play Sara Garbutt, consistently the Phi Lambda tennis champion.

Golf notables of Valdosta will play on the G.S.W.C. course on Thursday afternoon. Martha Ashley will pit her stroke against Matilda Dasher. Both have played and won in state tournaments.

Formation swimming and diving will be featured by the Sports Club on Friday afternoon.

The Sports Club is divided into two teams, the Lambdas and the Kappas, which are captained and led into deadly rivalry with one another. Each new student will receive a bid at an early date to join one of the teams, of which she will be a part as long as she remains in the club.

The Physical Education Department and the Sports Club work together to provide "health, happiness and recreation," for G.S.W.C. students.

SPORTS CLUB TO AID IN FRESHMAN WEEK

By MARY OUT-OF-DOORS

Sports-minded students discover at once the wide variety of athletics at G.S.W.C. Swimming, tennis, golf, horseback riding, archery, basketball, softball, badminton, fistball, shuffleboard—all are here.

Under the leadership of the Sports Club, with Ruth Reid as its president each Freshman is to be a guest at an Open House which will last the whole of Freshman Week.

Open House will begin at four o'clock on each afternoon, beginning Tuesday, Sept. 19, and continue until six o'clock.

Canopy Staff Presents Canopy, Jr.

The Campus Canopy will sponsor a Canopy Junior, a small mimeographed edition, each day of Freshman Week beginning on Wednesday, September 20. The Canopy Junior will carry the schedule for the day, and highlights of the activities.

Chaperones for Freshman Week, as announced today by Ruth Whisonant, are as follows:

Tuesday A.M.

- Cunningham
- Parham
- Bundrick

not that of another.

If a teacher believes a student to be dishonest on academic work:

a. The teacher will report the student, and will present the evidence to the Student-Faculty Honor Committee.

b. The Student-Faculty Honor Committee will examine the evidence and, by a vote of not less than five out of seven, will find the student guilty as charged.

c. Students found guilty of dishonesty will be remanded by the Student-Faculty Honor Committee, with or without recommendation, to the Executive Board, for discipline.

If a student finds another student to be dishonest on academic work:

a. The student will report that student to the President of the Government Association.

b. The President of the Government Association will call the student before members of the Student-Faculty Honor Council for warning and reprimand.

c. The teacher in whose class the offense has occurred will be notified.

d. The parents of the offending student will be written to by the president of the college, informing them of the proceeding.

e. In the event that a student is reported for a second offense she will be brought before the entire Student-Faculty Council and will have all evidence presented.

NEWS FROM OTHER COLLEGES

INDIANA'S PRES. WELLS PRAISES WISCONSIN U.

MADISON, Wis. (Special)—The University of Wisconsin was praised as one of the greatest universities not only in America but also in the world by Dr. Herman B. Wells, former Wisconsin graduate student who is now president of the University of Indiana, at the second annual Wisconsin Bankers' conference held here recently.

"You men and women of the state of Wisconsin have one of the greatest universities in America," Pres. Wells declared. "You have an institution so distinguished that it is numbered with those few which have an enviable world reputation."

WISCONSIN U. HONORS OUTSTANDING STUDENTS

MADISON, Wis. (Special)—Dr. Guy Stanton Ford, president of the University of Minnesota, and graduate of the University of Wisconsin with the class of 1895, was the main speaker at the first annual All-University Honors Day convention held at the University of Wisconsin recently. Between 150 and 200 members of the senior class who have done outstanding academic work at the University were honored at the convocation.

The slide-rule, important tool of the engineering profession, is such an expensive part of a "boilermaker" student's equipment that University of Michigan engineers have set up a new method to cut down on replacements made necessary by loss and theft. The engineering council of the Wolverine school has established a bureau for registration and identification of all "slip sticks." Each one will be numbered and in the future misplaced or stolen slide rules will be easier to recover.

TWO U. W. GRADS WIN PULITZER $1,000 AWARDS

MADISON, Wis. (Special)—Two University of Wisconsin graduates, Marjorie Kinnan Rawlings, author, and Louis P. Lochner, newspaper correspondent, were awarded Pulitzer prizes recently for distinguished work in their respective fields.

Mrs. Rawlings, the former Marjorie Kinnan who was graduated from Wisconsin in 1918, was awarded the $1,000 Pulitzer prize for the most distinguished novel of 1938. The award is given for her novel, "The Yearling." She now lives at Hawthorne, Fla.

Mr. Lochner, a graduate of Wisconsin in 1909 who is now chief of the Associated Press Bureau at Berlin, Germany, was awarded the $1,000 Pulitzer prize for distinguished service as a foreign or Washington correspondent in 1938. He has been correspondent in Germany for more than a decade.
