Cynthian Trio Appears In Auditorium December 3

Third In Music Appreciation Series To Be Presented On Tuesday Evening

Third in the series of Music Appreciation Programs presented at G. S. W. C. is the Cynthian Trio, of Atlanta, which will be Tuesday evening, December 3 in the College auditorium. Hugh Hodgson, Director of the Department of Music at the University of Georgia, is responsible for the series of programs, and will accompany the trio to Valdosta.

Making up the trio are Hazel Rood Weems, violinist, Priscilla Warren Loemker, violoncelloist, and Isabel Mawha Bryan, pianist, who will give selections from Bach, Handel, Haydn, Beethoven, and a number of noteworthy composers.

The Cynthian Trio—named after those mythical patrons of the arts, Apollo and Diana (who were born on Mt. Cynthus)—will present not only group work, but also Cello Solos and Violin Solos.

Native Of Hartford
Hazel Rood Weems is a native of Hartford, Connecticut, where she studied with Mary Cooper at the Hartford School of Music. She graduated from the Juilliard School of Musical Art in 1940, receiving the faculty scholarship. This same year she was a member of the string quartet which won the Morris Loeb Memorial Prize. Mrs. Weems graduated from the Post graduate course in 1938. She later taught violin at Hartford School of Music and at Smith College Summer School of Music. She appeared in recital throughout New England and New York until she moved to Atlanta late in 1938. She has become an active member of the musical contingent of that city, and is frequently heard in concert.

Residents Of Atlanta

Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Loemker have been residents of Atlanta for many years and have played in ensemble and as soloists during this entire period. Mrs. Bryan is a graduate of the New England (See CYNTHIAN Page 4)

Fine Arts Club Holds Annual Christmas Bazaar

The Fine Arts Club will have its annual Christmas Bazaar next Wednesday, December 4, through Saturday. "This year", said Louie Peoples, club president, "The Bazaar is going to be one of the most attractive the club has ever had. We are going to feature the pine, which is so characteristic of our campus".

Mittens, perfume, pictures, stationery, potted plants, vases, jewelry, smocks, and numerous other articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on sale. Cake and candy will also be sold.

Pine cones painted with Christmas colors and interesting Christmas wreaths will constitute the main offering of the Bazaar.

Japanese Prints

A group of Japanese Prints from the China Art Company in New York will be on display and sale. In addition, a very unusual exhibit will include both Japanese and Chinese prints from San Francisco. These prints are also offered for sale.

The Bazaar every year provides all the students an opportunity of doing their Christmas shopping early.

Kryl To Present 50 Piece Symphony Orchestra

Program Features Classical Selections By Vocalist, Harpist, And Violinist

Bohumir Kryl, conductor of a 50 piece symphony orchestra, will appear in the G. S. W. C. auditorium Sunday afternoon, December 1. Included in the performance are Katherine Landry, soprano, May Hopkins, harpist, and Pravoslav Krch, violinist. Kryl and his orchestra appear annually in more than one hundred colleges and universities.

The organization is now entering upon its thirty-sixth consecutive season of production.

Born in Prague, Bohemia, the son of a sculptor, Kryl ran away from home when he was 11 years old to join a circus then touring Europe. He performed as an acrobat during the shows and played cornet in the parade. After two years of circus work Kryl met with an accident, quit the circus and walked over 200 miles to his home town.

Came To America

Less than six months after leaving the circus, Kryl was on his way to America, paying for his passage by playing the violin in the orchestra of the ship. Ten years later Sousa, hearing of a young cornetist who was working as a sculptor in Indiana, persuaded him to play a cornet in his band. After a few years under Sousa, and other noted bandmasters, Kryl was ready to tour America with his symphonic band.

Three Soloists

Katherine Landry, soprano, studied under the great baritone, Pasquale. The harpist, May Hopkins, appeared as a soloist with the orchestra on its coast-to-coast tour last year. Pravoslav Krch, third soloist appearing with Kryl, is a Czechoslovakian violinist.

The symphony is playing this week at the University of Florida in Gainesville, and in Moultrie and Brunswick. It will be on this campus December 1, and will give some of the most popular music of Beethoven, Wagner, and Strauss. Admission for the performance is fifty cents for college students.

It's Catching! What's Catching? "Knitting Fever!"

By A. M. Pryor
"It's catching!" What's catching? Knitting of course. The craze has spread like wildfire on campus.

When someone is seen concentrating deeply, pondering earnestly or hopping mad, there is a knitting needle at the bottom of it all. Yes, it is a booming industry . . . this knitting.

Cardigans, and slip-overs, and even Red Cross squares are coming off the needles with profound rapidity. It's surprising! Unbelievable! Foot warmers and high top socks as well as hoods have been discussed by some conscientious members of more advanced knitting circles.

National Art Week Observed With Varied Programs

This week was National Art Week, and GSWC has observed it with many interesting programs by outstanding artists. In the early part of the week Mr. Lamar Dodd, head of the Art Department at the University of Georgia, was on the campus for two days. He visited with the Art classes, giving two demonstrations in portrait painting during his stay. He and Mr. John Held, Jr., sculptor, and artist in residence at the University of Georgia, who accompanied Mr. Dodd on his visit to this campus, spoke Monday evening to an enthusiastic audience of students and faculty members. They both showed interesting examples of their work.

Jan Reiner Spoke

Tuesday night Mr. Jan Reiner spoke in the college auditorium on the subject of "From Pyramid to Skyscraper". Using some sixty slides, Mr. Reiner sketched in an entertaining manner the history of architecture. His illustrated lecture was another special feature of Art Week.

A local art exhibit has been set up at Mather Brothers in Valdosta for both student and local art lovers. It is under the direction of Miss Ruth Carpenter, head of GSWC's Art Department and chairman of National Art Week (See NATIONAL Page 4)

Dr. Durrenberger Has Been Busy With Textbook Work

By Louie Peeples

"I am doing no research at present", said Dr. Joe Durrenberger, Professor of Social Sciences in this college, at a recent interview. "I have been altogether too busy with text book work in the Social Sciences for the past four years. "But what Dr. Durrenberger has done before that time is worthy of mention, and honorable mention at that.

Annual Ceremony Firelighting Held In Ashley Rotunda

Cold weather ushers in the annual fire-lighting ceremony in the Rotunda. Last evening this impressive service, sponsored by the YWCA, and directed this year by Mary Williams, was presented at vespers.

The presidents of campus organizations, editors of the publications, a representative from the alumnae association, and a representative of the faculty, dressed in white, formed a semi-circle about the fireplaces. Each representative, led by Ann Parham and Carolyn Williams, brought to the "Fire of Fellowship" a bundle of fagots denoting the aims of her respective organization.

Students Participate

Miss Elizabeth Garbutt represented the alumnae; and Miss Janie Bush served as representative for the faculty. Students who participated in the service included Helen Quarterman, Valdosta Club; Gwen Hendricks, Junior Class; Margaret Burns, Senior Class; Sara Petty, Freshman Class; S. C. Martin, Sophomore Class; Louie Peeples, Fine Arts Club; Evelyn Brim, Honor Societies; Mary Alice Brim, English Club; Inez Taylor, Sociology Club; Jean Thompson, International Relations Club; Kathryn Scott, Y. W. Y. A.; Maxwell Williams, Government Association.

Richards To Speak

Dr. J. McDowell Richards, president of Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, will be the speaker at Sunday night vespers on December 1. Dr. Richards, a graduate of Oxford, and a former Rhodes scholar, is the youngest theological executive in the United States. He is chairman of the board of trustees of Davidson college.

The deputation team of the Y will present a program at the Sunday evening services of the First Methodist Church, December 1. Nancy Cole will be the speaker; the vesper choir will sing.

Maybe we could find enough girls interested and form a real old-fashioned Knitting Circle. We might then meet in the House-in-the-Woods and have somebody read to us, or play concert records, while being busily a-knitting (or a-crocheting).

ELIZABETH GARBUTT

Garbutt Resigns Position, Goes To Bainbridge

Miss Elizabeth Garbutt, who has served as assistant to the dean of women since her graduation from G. S. W. C. in 1939, will leave Saturday to take a position in Bainbridge. She will be a supervisor at Camp Sawyer, an N. Y. A. part-time residence project located 15 miles from Bainbridge.

Miss Garbutt explained that the camp was for the purpose of training girls who were unemployed and out of school for a two-weeks period in home-making, crafts, citizenship training, and vocational guidance. Eighty girls from 12 to 23 years of age are to be at Camp Sawyer at once. The rustic-styled camp is located on a river.

Transferring from G. S. C. W. where she was president of her freshman class, Miss Garbutt came here for her last three years. During her senior year she served as president of the Y. W. C. A. and was elected May Queen. Miss Garbutt's name appeared in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities for the years 1938-39.

Philharmonic Club Program Features Club Talent

Featuring a program of club talent, the Philharmonic Club met in the Rotunda Tuesday evening. Two vocal selections, "Snow" (Sigurd Lie) sung by Louise Griffin, and "Shepherd! Play A Little Air" (Stikles) by Corrinne Smith comprised the first group.

Betty Barnes played two piano solos, "An Old Love Story" (MacDowell) and "The Elf" (Philipp). "A House on a Hill" (E. Charles) was sung by Mary Martha Burnette. Susie McKey sang "Love Eyes" (Sir Henry Bishop).

"Gavotte" (Gluck-Brahms) and "Scherzando" (Beecher) were played by Eleanor Cook. A duet, "Go, Pretty Rose" (Margjals), by Corrinne Smith and Ruth Taylor was the final number on the program.

Lois Christian, president of the club, announced that the Kryl symphony orchestra would appear at the college auditorium Sunday afternoon.

Sock And Buskin Initiates Entertain With Crazy Skits

By Anna May Pryor

"Whirr you there?" was the slogan of the Dramatic Club members following the entertainment presented to them by the Sock and Buskin's newest discoveries of 1940, November 19. All types of skits were dramatized by the actors, thus the name Sock and Buskin, meaning Drama and Comedy, was carried out in a "big way".

First in the lime-light was a play "Insurance Trouble". Beth Rollison, Jane Williams, Leonora Peeples, Elizabeth Koblenzer, and Mary Frances Rutland took parts.

Allen And Mallory

"Yes, My Darling Daughter" . . . no doubt you saw it in the movies . . . was "swell". Edith Allen and Mildred Mallory took the leading parts of mother and daughter. Thelma Sirmans read between the lines.

Next up to bat were Connie Threat, Beth Whittica, Mary Carol Allen, Rachael Williams and Julia Frances McCorkle bringing back a historical play, at least a version of ancient Greece. Perhaps this is a shining example of making one's own History, but Brutus and those guys were having a time of it from the looks of things.

Three Bears

Fairy tales may seem rather childish but not in the Dramatic Club. Goldie Locks was hailed with as much favor and praise as it was in the days of bed time stories. Inez McGill, Annette Blackburn, Evelyn Woodward, Margaret White, and Frances Williams were a treat for those who have to recall childhood.

Brims Discuss Cooperatives At Honor Society

On Wednesday evening, November 27, the Senior Honor Society met at the House-in-the-Woods for their regular meeting.

Evelyn and Mary Alice Brim, who attended the Southeastern Cooperative Educational Association Conference in Atlanta the 14 and 15 of November, told of their trip to the Cooperative Conference.

Evelyn gave the Origin and Purpose of cooperatives while Mary Alice talked on the Convention itself, and told of discussions and points of interest concerning cooperatives and their social significance for the Southeast.

Dr. Durrenberger, faculty advisor for the Society, was present and took part in the round table discussion of the Conference and its usefulness and the benefits that it renders to society. Following the discussion the Honor Society took up matters of business importance, and adjourned afterward.

We Want To Unstagger

At the beginning of this year, the stagger system was introduced on campus. Reasons for establishing this system here, as explained in assembly were:

- (1) That GSWC was the only senior unit of the University system which did not have such a system.
  - (2) That a five-day week stretched over six days would give both students and faculty members more free time during each each.
- GSWC was the last school to adopt the six-day week, and we hope it will be the first to abolish it. The Campus Canopy heartily endorses the "Down with the Stagger System" movement which is afoot on campus, and joins the Red and Black, and the corps of college newspapers in other states as well as in Georgia who are campaigning for a five-day week.

That the majority of students and faculty members here are opposed to the stagger system is evidenced by opinions expressed verbally and in writing on the part of both.

In spite of all the convincing discussion to impress on us that we would have more free time, we have not been convinced. We have tried it, and found that it just hasn't worked out that way. Instead of having free periods, we have programs, meetings, and even extra classes to fill up all these periods. As one student expressed it, "We have no time we can call our own now, since our free Saturdays have been taken away".

All in all, the stagger system is not what it was "cracked up to be". We are strained to the breaking point for lack of time.

We believe that the student body will support this movement unanimously, and that the faculty support will be almost as strong.

Let's Get That Tea-Room

To be or not to be! That is the question that is being raised about the tea room. And yet, nothing has been done about it exclusive of having the plans drawn.

Just think how grand it would be to have the country store, the book store, and the post office all in one central location rather than scattered about in the most extreme points of the campus. How convenient it would be! And yet no organized group will take the initiative of starting a campaign for the funds to build it.

It seems that the upperclassmen, especially the Seniors, are the ones who are most interested in this project. The logical thing would be for the Senior Class to adopt this as their project for the year and see that those who come after them have the benefit of this convenience.

Other organizations would certainly be willing to assist them and cooperate with them in achieving this goal.

Let's get the tea room built this year so that the present Seniors can enjoy it during the rest of their stay here! What could be a better memorial for the class of '41?

Post-Thanksgiving Prattle . . . We can't wait to meet Rachel's Ralph from Long Island, who must be pretty much of an all right person to keep Rachel as interested as she certainly is . . . Goldsmith said, "Sweet Auburn, loveliest village of the plain" but Edith Allen says "Sweet Auburn . . . sweet Reid", and the rest is indistinguishable as she sighs deeply and casts a rapturous glance at a photograph of the person in mention . . . A. B. Dennis, accompanied by a jeweled Phi Delta Theta pin, was down from Atlanta to see Martha Wilkes this past week, and incidentally, the pin was refused. The gal has scruples! . . . Martha Ashley visited Sister Bowen in Tifton and returned wearing a football jacket belonging to James Bowen . . . From Gibsonville, N. C., and Gipple came a letter for Sot and then before we could turn around and say Yehudi, a letter followed by a special from Miami came through the mail for her from Dewey . . . A picture of Joe from Merver will arrive soon, addressed to Rowena Burford . . . Harriet saw Chappell, and now she doubles for the newspaper man in Arise, My Love as she says, "I am not happy!", for it seems that Chappell is considering "arising" into Virginia . . . Dot and Raymond are definitely airplane minded, and a Greyhound bus helped the situation along on the road to Atlanta last week-end by barging up, and sending the above mentioned two into something that resembled a nose dive and a three-point landing . . . Mary Doster Hunt has disclosed "a ring for the finger", which she has had since the beginning of school. She's wearing it for home town Jimmie Brown . . . Marilyn Miller displays two rings however, we don't think they're official . . . Gwen Hendricks and date heard Little Jack Little in Albany Thanksgiving nite . . . Jean Herring and Wilma Cody convalesced at home from super-super holidays . . . Dot Dusenberry is wearing a lovely engagement ring these days . . . We overheard Marjorie Murray being described by a Mercer man after the homecoming dances . . . Life-savers are Ed Puckett and Earl Davis, we hear . . . Gwen Winter said, "Yesterday was Thursday and the today's Moultrie!" . . . Look-alikes: Amy Tison's amazing resemblance to Pricilla Lane . . . Camille West is wearing an engagement ring, and she's engaged to Theo, but of course . . . Phyllis Story, Nell Brannen and Fanny West trek northward this week-end to Athens town to hear Jan Savitt . . . Della Wentz, last year's glamor girl, week-ended here . . . Girl of the week - Porky Orr who has returned after a long illness.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Will the Saturday ever come again when, at the sound of the breakfast bell, we can turn over and peacefully resume our slumber? Will we never again be able to wash our hair on a Saturday morning? Can we never again give our rooms a much needed weekly cleaning on Saturday? Must we turn to Sunday for our day of work, rather than go to church?

Because of Saturday classes and the stagger periods filled with extra-curricular as well as curricular activities, all our time is taken up, save a few hours in the afternoons from four to six-thirty. We have no time to call our own. Our time belongs to the stagger system! We don't want this system!

Miss Hopper recently informed us in a few brief words that anyone interested in assisting the Red Cross will find working material and patterns in her office in Ashley Hall. The work is not hard to do.

Student Opinion's

CUIS AUSTIN, Texas, Nov. 28.—How serious is the problem of class cutting? Are many college students wasting their time by failing to appear at lectures? How often does the average student cut a class?

Those are questions that have perhaps been answered locally in many schools, but a national study, as far as is known, has heretofore never been possible. Student Opinion Surveys of America, leaving the field of social and political issues this week, has used its coast to coast structure to measure the extent of class cutting going on today on the American campus.

The survey reveals that a good majority (62 per cent) during a typical week in October attended all their classes. The remainder of the students interviewed (38 per cent) declared that they had missed class at least once. But over half of these (20 per cent) missed class only one time during the week.

Here are the national tabulations:

Cut no classes during week	62%
Cut one class	31
Cut two classes	10
Cut three classes
Cut four or more classes

Less than one per cent of the students answer the question or did not remember.

Lambdas Gain 6 Point Lead By Scoring Two Wins

Phi Kappas went down in defeat twice last Tuesday as the Phi Lambdas won basketball 21-16 and fistball 2-0. This brought the Lambdas up to a six-point lead over the Kappas for the much-coveted plaque. After the Kappas maintained a safe lead for three quarters of the basketball game, the superior guarding of Coleman, Dunbar and Cunningham was the deciding factor in the last quarter that gave the Purple team the victory.

Score For Lambdas

Paschal and Brown vied for high score, making 10 and 9 points respectively for the Lambdas. Bateman, Kappa sub led for her team with 7.

Lambda	Kappa
Holland lf	Cowart 6
Bowen 9 rf	Newberry 3
Paschal 10 cf	Reid
Coleman lg	Taylor
Dunbar rg	Allen
Cunningham cg	Morgan
Substitutes: Kappa, Bateman 7, Kirkland; Lambda, Fender 2.
Officials: O'Neal, Referee; Hurst, Umpire; Carter, Scorekeeper; Ivey, Timekeeper.
Fist Ball Game

In Fistball the Lambdas gained an early lead, before the Red team could get started and the entire two games they were ahead. The superb playing of Heald and Mundy was notable, not to mention that of Vernon and Youngblood. Young was excellent for the Kappas and the game would have been dull without Tilly Dashers' nose dives.

Line-ups — Lambda — Mundy, Heald, Ingram, Neal, Walker, Youngblood, M. T. Bowen, Ogburn, Subs, Lovett, Westbrook, Jackson and Vernon.

Kappa: Brim, Flournoy, Young, Dasher, Chambers, Moore, Rowland. Subs, Adams, Sawyer, Nicholson, Carter.

Officials: Ivey, scorekeeper, Young and Coppage, Referees.

committee succeeds Ann Parham, Inez Taylor, Mary Alice Brim, and Ruth Reid, who composed the committee for the fall quarter. Officers of the council are changed quarterly.

Upon being notified of her election, Miss Williams made the following statement to a Canopy reporter, "I hope the President's Council will be as successful next quarter as it has been under Carolyn Williams. There is lots we can do, and we hope to accomplish many constructive things".

Speaking Of Prettv Dives—

Were you among those present at the last math games to see Tilly Dasher and her twist and turn nose dives? Well, Tilly got interested in the fistball game and every time she would hit the ball, the rebound was so terrific that she lost her balance and ended up on the ground like a tank cutting its way through both dirt, players, and grass. So destructive was this Miss, that the Lambdas had to win both games to beat her. Tilly is a versatile Miss. She was one of those present in the foursome that Marion Miley played in when she visited our fair city. Miss Miley as you all know or have heard by now was the person with the most gratifying smile. Everybody who got the chance to see her was thrilled with the way she charmed them with her graciousness.

Roommates Battle Against Each Other—

It's hard to say whether they pull together or whether they just pull, those slap-happy roommates of Converse, Bowen and Young. But, everybody else barred, they were the stars of the last match games. Young, a Kappa and a fistball player, took off all honors for individual play at the Kappa defeat and was in the spotlight until Tilly got warmed up and stole the show. Bowen, a basketball player and a Lambda, was personally in contact with the ball when the Lambdas put in their final point to put the game on ice. This lady makes some new and brighter spotlights for herself every game she plays in for the Lambdas. They both, Bowen and Young, watch each other play. Its hard to say whether they are pleased with the other's fine play or not. But as yet, they haven't made sufficient boo on the sidelines to cause any noticeable disturbance, to the fans or players.

Bateman Uses Unusual Tactics—

Maybe you have heard about shoe string tackles made in football, but the Kappa's Bateman made one of those fly swatter shots from way down in the field during the basketball game that brought the spectators up with cheers and cheers, a big cheer, a little cheer and a high cheer.

Don't Miss The Final Games!—

And speaking of Bateman, the final match games of the season will take place next Friday afternoon. The teams as you know have been well matched and should offer a rare bit of excitement for anybody who would like to go back to nature and spend the afternoon in the open watching them fight away. By the way, points for the plaque stand Lambdas 16, Kappas 10. Not such a walk-a-way as yet. Be on hand to pull for your team.

conducted by the Surveys have shown that on questions such as this very few students fail to give truthful answers; so the results above should give a satisfactory indication of conditions over the nation. The entire United States is represented because the schools in which the polls are conducted, including G. S. W. C. make up a proportionate sample of all types of educational institutions as listed by the U. S. Office of Education.

In connection with this poll, it may be recalled that last February 64 per cent of the collegians in a Survey expressed the opinion that compulsory class attendance should be abolished.

Although the frequency of attendance is quite uniform from one section of the country to another, New Englanders and Southerners appear to be at the two extremes. In the northeast corner of the nation cuts are at a minimum, only 25 per cent of the students having missed one or more classes during the week of the poll. In the South over half of them, 57 per cent said they had cut at least once.

Durrenberger has contributed chapters to Studies in Social Progress, the Freshman Survey of the Social Sciences, and in the year 1939-40 he was one of the committee of three who worked up the Syllabus now in use throughout the University System. He also had a part in the writing of the current text in Contemporary Georgia.

"Most of my writings", said Dr. Durrenberger, "have connected with survey work." However, he has occasionally contributed articles to the Georgia Educational Journal and to newspapers. As soon as the new census figures come out, he is planning to do some work on the shift in population, or migration trends.
