Dr. Frank R. Reade, President

Dear Dr. Reade:

You are familiar with the fact that the Georgia Association of Colleges began a movement for Better Education for Georgia two years ago, This, at their suggestion, was taken over by the G. E. A. and we have done our best to develop it and promote it according to the financial ability that has been rendered. The Association of Colleges re-pledged its efforts in this direction at their meeting in Macon in January of this year, and you will recall that a financial statement was plac@d in your hands at that time.

We are now in the midst of a state-wide radio program and newspaper publicity in sixty newspapers in the state, through which agencies we are reaching an estimated one million people weekly. We believe that this is bringing and will bring good results.

If we are to carry on with this program, even through the month of May, we must have additional help from the colleges. To date, the G. E. A. has contributed $2,600 of the $4,200 that has been received and used in the promotion of this movement. If you can send your contribution at this time it will be greatly appreciated.

If there is any further information that you desire with reference to what has been done so far in the movement and what our present and future plans are, I will be glad to furnish it.

Cordially yours,

Dear Ralph:

You will remember even as long ago as last summer we offered you $100. for the Better Education for Georgia movement, - but, for some reason, we were asked not to make a contribution at that time.

At the moment, all of us are looking forward to working for not less than two months, - May and June, without salaries. Briefly, we are flat broke!

Just as soon as we can, of course, we want to do our part in furthering the movement.

Sincerely yours,

November 4, 1941.

Dr. W. D. Hooper,
University of Georgia,
Athens, Georgia.

My dear Dr. Hooper:

The time is approaching when a program must be mapped out for the coming meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges. You will remember that a Work Conference on higher education in the South was sponsored at Sewanee last summer by the Southern Association and affiliated groups. Several representatives of Georgia institutions were at this conference and found it both interesting and valuable. You have perhaps already gotten fairly complete reports of what was done both from the office of the Southern Association and from Dr. Stephens who was in attendance.

It has occurred to me and some of the rest of us who were present in Sewanee that it would be well to build our program for this year completely around the activities of that conference. This seems particularly important since a more elaborate one is projected for the coming summer. I am writing to ask if you would acquiesce in this suggested plan. If you do, it would seem to me that the entire morning program, exclusive of the business session, could be profitably devoted to discussions by those who were at Sewanee of what was done last summer and of some of the problems raised then, and also an outline of the proposed activities for the coming summer.

Please let me have as promptly as you can your ideas on this matter. If you are able to talk with Dr. Stephens you may get a more detailed account of last summer's happenings.

I am

Sincerely yours,

John L. Daniel,
Department of Chemistry.

Professor Jno. L. Daniel
Atlanta, Ga.

My dear Daniel:

Congratulations, you lazy rascal!

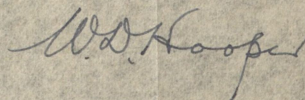

I have never known one of our Presidents to find such an easy 'out' as this. Usually, they have to sweat blood to get up a program (as Frank Reade will probably find out next year).

Yes, this seems to be a good idea. I have heard repeated references to this meeting at Sewanee, but never one word as to what they did; in fact, I got the idea that it was a sort of secret meeting. Men would remark: "We had a good time at Sewanee." "We certainly worked hard at Sewanee." "The meeting at Sewanee was very interesting." But not one has ever told me a thing about it.- I saw McCain the day before he left for the meeting, and he seemed really secretive about it! So hunt up a few of them and get them to tell us what it was all about. Unless you know more about it than I do, you will find it hard to divide up the topics and get men to tell of them. (I didn't even know, until I got your letter that they intend to have a 'bigger and better' meeting next summer.)

And, incidentally, some of us may want a little time to think what we are going to do. It happens that all three of us are in the same boat - and a very leaky boat, I take it. I know the three men on that Southern Association Committee very intimately, and I am not at all happy in contemplating the report they are probably going to make. The queer thing to me is that everybody but us here seems to have taken the whole thing mighty quietly; I knew all the time that we were equally affected.

Love to you both.

Yours very sincerely,

Dear Daniel:

You and Dr. Hooper know perfectly well that the vice-president of any organization is just a sort of flunky! Naturally, therefore, I am more than willing to concur in the proposed program for the meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges.

By the way, when is the meeting to be held, and where? Perhaps we should meet right away and throw each other out of the Association of Georgia Colleges before the Southern Association has a chance to do same.

Publicity Suggestion: that we met them lyin' newspapers to pay particular attention to the fact that the officers of the Association of Georgia Colleges, at the moment, are all furriners. Worse, all Virginians.

It was good to catch a glimpse of you on North Avenue the other day. Hope to get up for the Georgia-Tech game and to see you then.

My dear Dr. Reade:

I am enclosing a first suggestion for a program for our 1942 meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges with the thought that it will be a good starting point for your thinking leading to better suggestions when we meet at Agnes Scott next Monday.

I am assuming that by this time each of you has had access to the report on last summer's conference at Sewanee. With reference to speakers, it has occurred to me that we may not wish to settle upon the Friday evening program until after the meeting of the Southern Association in Louisville this week.

It is my hope that with this beginning on plans for a program our meeting next Monday will not need to be long.

Professor John L. Daniel
Department of Chemistry
Georgia School of Technology
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Daniel:

I must apologize for a number of things! First, your letter of December 2 reached my desk while I was in Louisville. After leaving there, I had to drive to Baltimore on account of illness in Mrs. Reade's family, and we didn't get back here until the final rush of examinations, Christmas Festival, and so on, had begun.

Your letter mentioned "our meeting next Monday" --- which, of course, was already over. Your earlier letter, telling me about this meeting had missed catching up with me in Louisville and had been returned to me here.

Somewhere on my desk is another letter from you which I think suggested a meeting in Atlanta this week. Unhappily, what with visitors, including my father and stepmother, my desk has gotten piled up so high that I can't even find your letter! In any event, I should not have been able to attend any sort of meeting this week, anywhere.

Now that apologies are over, I am afraid you have a mighty sorry sort of vice-president. However, I shall make a very real effort to be on hand, even as early as nine o'clock, for the Saturday morning meeting of the Association in Atlanta. By that time, I hope to have some sort of report on the social security business which we were instructed to look into at last year's meeting.

Please let me know if you will still want a report on the subject at that time, --- and I should also like to know what dates have been chosen for the meeting of the Association.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Dear Daniel:

I shall appreciate it if you will send me on the enclosed card the proposed dates of the meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges.

Sincerely,

January 17, 1942

Hon. Richard B. Russell
Senate Office Building
Washington, D. C.

Dear Dick:

The Association of Georgia Colleges, of which I am vice-president, still expects me to make a report to them at their annual meeting, --- which is the latter part of this month, --- on Social Security and why state employees are not eligible for same!

I appreciated the letter you sent me last summer from Paul McNutt, and I am wondering if anything has happened since then that I ought to report to the Association. Now that University System teachers are paying city, county, state, federal, war, and every other tax known to man, they seem to feel that they ought to have some sort of security for what almost certainly is going to be a penniless old age for all of them. I mean all of us!

If you can give me a few lines of counsel and sympathy that I can read before the Association, I shall appreciate it a great deal.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Frank R. Reade

22 January, 1942

To the Presidents and Deans of Georgia Colleges:

As you know, the Association of Georgia Colleges is meeting in Atlanta on January 30-31. The first regular meeting is at 7 P.M., Friday, January 30, at the Biltmore Hotel

The Association of Junior Colleges is meeting at the Biltmore at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, and President George King has been kind enough to invite representatives from all Georgia Colleges to attend this meeting if they wish to do so. I have talked with professor John L. Daniel, president of the Association of Georgia Colleges, and he urges all of us who are directing college work in Georgia to attend this Friday afternoon meeting.

Chancellor Sanford plans to call University System representatives together, probably on Thursday afternoon. He feels that the present national emergency offers us an opportunity to work together in every possible way, and indeed makes it mandatory that we discuss together such problems as the advisability of speeding up our educational machinery, making certain changes in our curricula, laying plans for summer work, and so on.

It is the opinion of many of us, perhaps of all of us, that a great deal of preliminary work needs to be done if we are to discuss our mutual problems calmly and make our mutual decisions wisely when we come together as a body on Saturday morning. Committee work on Friday afternoon and after the banquet on Friday evening should contribute a great deal to the success of the Saturday morning meeting.

If you will let me know what particular matters you wish to have brought up for discussion, I shall be glad to assemble your suggestions and hand them to professor Daniel on Thursday. This will enable him to appoint committees to study these vital matters, and to have their recommendations presented to the Association at the proper time.

I shall appreciate it a great deal if you will write to me not later than Monday next, January 26, so that I may have your letters before me by Wednesday.

With all good wishes, and looking forward to seeing you in Atlanta, I am

Sincerely yours,

Frank R. Reade

Thank you so much for your letter of February 5. I hope that I did not intrude too much in the "direction of the meeting", and am glad, as you are, that everything went off so successfully. You did a fine job as chairman, and I shall call on you next year to help me out with this business of parliamentary law!

I shall probably be in Atlanta again before very long, and would like very much to attend another meeting of the Research Group. As I remember it, I was regarded as the court jester, and doubtless can still play the same role.

My dear President Reade:

At the request of the Committee on Work Conferences on Higher Education of the Southern Association, a copy of the report on the Work Conference held at the University of the South, Sewanee, Tenn., June 21st - 26th, will be mailed you late in October. The Committee further instructed me to ask your consideration for the presentation of its work at the annual meeting of your State Association.

Dr. Roscoe E. Parker, Professor of English, University of Tennessee, who was executive secretary of the Sewanee Conference, will continue as executive secretary of the Conference Committee and will assist college faculty groups in any work in which they are engaged. If you can have this work presented at your Conference, I suggest that you communicate with Dr. Parker, who will be glad to assist you in any way he can.

Our Committee has found that a forum or panel discussion by participants who are familiar with the work of the Conference problems is helpful. Such a procedure usually makes provision for discussion from the audience, which seems to be an important part of this kind of work. You will note in the report the names of the participants in the Sewanee Conference from institutions in your State. It may be that some of these participants could help you and Dr. Parker might be able to suggest others.

If you can arrange to have this work presented at the annual meeting of your Association this year, we believe you will advance the educational interests in your State and the South. We shall be grateful to you for any assistance you can give us in extending the work which our Committee is supporting.

scholastic standing of all students admitted to your in-

This report is to be on all students who entered in September, 1941 and for the session ending June, 1942.
As you will note on the enclosed blanks, students from each junior college are to be listed in two categories: one graduates, the other non-graduates. In some cases it will be difficult to determine whether a student is a graduate or not; in such cases list the name as best you can with a star to indicate that the status of that student is uncertain. Please do not show names of students whose transcripts show they were excluded from the junior college.

It will be greatly appreciated if you will let me have your report by November 1.

President H. T. Quillian

Dear Quillian:

I had to be in Athens last Wednesday for their Honors Day celebration, and at that time I talked with Dr. Hooper, Harmon Caldwell, and others, as to what they thought we should do about a meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges this year.

Personally, I feel that we would all do a lot better if we stayed at home and tried to solve some of our own problems rather than all meeting somewhere and hearing some fellow make a speech about his problems! Everyone to whom I talked felt the same way about it and Dr. Hooper said that, if you were in accord with us, the three of us as the Executive Committee might recommend to the members of the Association that no meeting be held this year.

There are, I suspect, a number of things which we might do. What do you think of my sending a letter to the head of each member institution, asking his opinion about calling off the meeting, and also asking for suggestions as to what we might be doing by mail?

All of us are having a difficult time replacing faculty members. Perhaps troubles of this sort might be sent to me, and I could assemble them, and send them out to the various colleges. This, of course, is only a suggestion.

Please let me hear from you at your earliest convenience.

Sincerely yours,

As President of the Association of Georgia Colleges for this year, and with the approval of the other officers, Mr. Quillian, and Mr. Hooper, I am writing to suggest that we do not have the customary annual meeting of the Association this year. The reasons for this suggestion are obvious to all of us.

In recent weeks, I have talked with a number of the heads of member institutions, all of whom feel that it would be unwise for us to have a meeting of the Association this year. As a matter of record, however, I shall appreciate your dropping me a line on this subject even if you have already given me an oral opinion.

Dear Dr. Hooper:

I am enclosing a form letter which is being sent to the heads of colleges belonging to our Georgia Association. When I have heard from the various institutions, I will let you know whether or not the vote is unanimous. I am sure the University System schools favor not meeting this year as I raised the question in council meeting last week.

What shall we do about officers? If we have a constitution, does it require annual election of officers, or shall we just stay on until we meet again?

Dear Frank:

I judge from your silence that the meeting is off.

Another question arises: last year I reported that we were rich and increased in goods and had need of nothing - or words to that biblical effect - and recommended that no dues be collected; "which the same they were forward to do." However, our obligations already made have not only eaten up this surplus but left me holding the bag personally to the tune of some sixty bucks. Also, what are we to do about the $300.00 which I was directed to pay last year to the High School Commission, abolished by summary action of your admired friend (who seems to have been successful in running his own farm and also the State farm) ?

In short, shall I collect the regular dues? And, if so, shall I continue the various budget appropriations? Or did House Bill 1 expire with your election?

Happy New Year.

Dear Dr. Hooper:

You are a smart fellow! For all these weeks, I have been expecting a letter from you in answer to the second paragraph of my letter of November 12: "What shall we do about officers? If we have a constitution, does it require annual election of officers, or shall we just stay on until we meet again?" And now, with no suggestion of dereliction on your part, you write me, "I judge from your silence that the meeting is off." To be entirely fair in the matter, however, I must confess that I promised to let you know how the various college heads reacted to my form letter.

Well, --- here is how they reacted: 19 voted for "No Meeting" --- and 3 voted for a meeting, with certain reservations. I have had no reply from Piedmont, Andrew, Emory at Oxford, or South Georgia. Since these replies came in, transportation has become increasingly more difficult; so I think we may be assured that the meeting is "off".

It brings elephant tears to my eyes when I read that you have been left holding the bag personally to the tune of some sixty bucks! Do you think we could get by on dunning each member college for half of the usual fee? Anything you want to do, of course, is quite all right with me. As for the three hundred dollars which you were directed to pay to the now extinct High School Commission, I see nothing for us to worry about. You haven't the three hundred dollars and, if you did have it, there would be nobody to whom to pay it!

Is the Department of Classics still grading on the curve? Speaking of curves, it appears that our friend Dr. F. S. Beers has removed himself from our midst. When the spirit moves you again, drop me a line. It is always a pleasure to hear from a man who was born and raised at Liberty, Virginia.

Dear Quillian:

It is my understanding that all the heads of member colleges in the Association of Georgia Colleges have been invited to Athens on January 27 for exercises which are to be held there commemorating the long years of service of five of the grand Old Men of the University faculty.

It occurs to me that this may give us an opportunity to call a brief meeting of the Association, elect officers, and decide about the possibility of a later meeting, --- perhaps in Atlanta when school administrators will meet there anyhow, about the middle of February. If you and Dr. Hooper, to whom I am sending a copy of this letter, think well of this idea, I shall send out letters at once to the heads of all member colleges.

As there is so much to do in these tumultuous days, I am sure that you will forgive me for sending you a form letter.

It is my understanding that you and the other heads of member colleges of the Association of Georgia Colleges have been invited to exercises which will be held at the University of Georgia about noon on Thursday, January 27. These exercises are to be followed by a luncheon. A tour of the University or something of that sort is planned for the early afternoon.

It occurs to me that we might have a brief meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges following the tour of the University, which I hope will not be too long! As you know, there was no meeting last year, and I think it time for us to elect new officers and decide, for example, whether or not we wish to have a regular meeting this year. One or two other matters might be taken up, but I think we should count on having not more than a thirty minute meeting.

If you are not in Athens on the 27th, those of us who are there can have a little meeting, --- and I will let you know what suggestions, if any, come out of the meeting. Mr. Quillian, Vice-President of the Association, and Dr. Hooper, our perennial Secretary-Treasurer, agree with me in thinking that a meeting on the 27th, even without full attendance, will do no harm.

Athens, Georgia.

Dear Dr. Hooper:

I had hoped to be in Athens last week; so put off writing, with the hope of seeing you instead.

Many thanks for your check for $36.00, the amount turned in to you by certain members of the Association for their luncheon. By this time, you should also have a check for $1.50 from President Rogers of Dahlonga.

Total expenses for the Association luncheon ran to $80.50, and I personally paid Mr. Himmel the sum of $8.00 (approximately ten percent) for tips. As for guests of the Association I suggest the following: Mr. Bellingrath, Rabun Gap-Nacoochee, as I have no idea how he got to the luncheon, but have a vague recollection that somebody asked to be permitted to bring him; Dr. Ashby Jones, for lending us his presence and blessing our food; Dr. Kilpatrick, for saying a few kind words to us; Miss Sibley, of the press; Mr. Thompson, representing the Governor; Chancellor Sanford; Ex-Chancellor Weltner; Ex-Regent Clark Howell; President Emeritus M. L. Brittain; and Editor Ralph McGill, speaker.

It cost the Association $15.00 to feed these ten gentlemen, which, plus the $8.00 for tips, makes a grand total of $23.00 which I think is mighty cheap for the good time that was had by all! If Rogers has sent you the $1.50, just send me a check for $24.50.

All of the above higher mathematics adds up to a deficit of only about $20.00, which will be taken care of at this end, so to speak. You remember about the oysters!

With assurances of high esteem, I am, Sir,

Y'r Humble & Ob'd't S'v't,

P.S. You may have seen by the papers that I have rushed in where any angel would fear to tread, --- but no one has ever even suspected me of being an angel.

Dear President Green:

I am sorry that it was not possible for you to be with us at a recent meeting of the Association of Georgia Colleges in Atlanta. We had a very pleasant time, but we did not solve very many of the serious problems that confront us!

The Atlanta Constitution wants to run a series of articles on the Association of Georgia Member Colleges, and I shall let you hear from me further about this a little later on this spring.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

My dear Frank:

I have deliberately been holding off in the matter of Oglethorpe, to give them some time to make arrangements; it seemed unreasonable to go over there before they could even take stock.

Last week Weltner telephoned the President, and wanted this institution to state that it would accept credits from the new institution. Caldwell called me in - I am, among other things, Chairman of the Committee on Admission - and I explained to him that what he wanted was not this assurance only, but the fact that such assurance would act as accrediting the institution for all those outside this state. We must therefore move slowly. After talking with him, we called Weltner, and explained frankly the situation to him. He told me, in the conversation, that he had actually secured only one member of his new faculty, which he repeatedly states is going to be one of the best. He wanted our assurance before last Tuesday, when he was to have a meeting of his Board. I explained to him how impossible this was in the circumstances, and suggested that he meet my Committee and the President at some time convenient, and he said he would come over - last week; but I have heard nothing from him since. I imagine your letter is prompted by a similar request to you. You know that when an institution is not a member of the Association, institutions in other states write to the State University for a rating.

We are of course all most sympathetic; but he has an awful job on his hands, and I am somewhat shaky as to his ideas. This man he has got is in International Relations - which seems an odd beginning for a liberal arts college. If it were my job, I think I should start with the fundamentals; and you know my ideas as to fundamentals.

I think we should all be cautious - which idea may come from my long service on the Commission of the Association.

We shall be happy to see you here any time; the scene will be familiar to you, because I suggested that we change our name to The Georgia Female Seminary!

Yours, most sincerely,

E. O. E.

W.D. Hooper
You see, I have no Secretary - never have had -
* this is written by my own fumbling fingers.

* know what that means?

Dear Mr. Pafford:

We have received a transcript of record of high school credits earned by a graduate of the College Park High School, College Park, Georgia. The transcript is signed by C. R. Brown.

I do not find this high school listed in the Commission's bulletin. However, before writing to the student, I would like to make sure that the school is not listed under another name. Please let me know whether the school may be found under another listing.

(What with the paper shortage, you might let me have your answer at the bottom of this page.)

Sincerely yours

General Sandy Beaver

Dear Sandy:

Several days ago, I wrote to Mr. Ingram, who is President of the Association of Georgia Colleges this year, and suggested that we invite you and other members of the Board of Regents who live in or near Atlanta to attend our meetings. I hope that Mr. Ingram has followed my suggestion, and also hope that you can be with us. There is a dinner meeting at the Piedmont Hotel, about 7:00 P. M. on day after tomorrow, Friday, -- and a morning meeting beginning at 9:00 on Saturday. The President of the University of Chicago is to speak at the Friday evening meeting.

Enclosed is a letter from Dr. Mann. No need to return it.

Sincerely,
