

April 9, 1943.

Hon. Edward R. Jerger,
Thomasville, Georgia.

Dear Mr. Jerger:

Dr. Reade has been called to Atlanta for a meeting with Chancellor Sanford, but he has asked me to write you that he is most anxious for you to be with us on Tuesday, April 13, on which day the College is holding open house in connection with sponsoring the Lowndes County War Bond Drive for April.

The first meeting will be at ten o'clock in the morning, Eastern War Time. If you can't be here by that time, we hope that you can certainly be here in time for lunch with us at one o'clock sharp. There will be a number of attractions in the afternoon, --- horseback and swimming exhibitions, a band concert, and the like.

With all good wishes, and hoping that you can be with us, I am

Sincerely yours,

Secretary
