

April 2, 1943.

Mr. Charles Kinsolving,
52 Vanderbilt Avenue,
New York City.

Dear Charlie:

The enclosed copy of a letter to Eddie Rickenbacker explains itself, --- even to an old High School boy! If you know Eddie, as I suppose you do, how about doing me the favor of calling him on the phone and telling him that he not only ought to come to Valdosta but ought to bring you with him!

We can let the great American public look after Captain Rickenbacker while we drift out home and lift an elbow, --- or maybe if we are in the mood, we will let him go out with us!

Still hoping to see you again sometime soon, --- and why not on April 13? ---

Sincerely,

FRR/ar