

April 14, 1943

Captain Horace Caldwell,
Daniel Ashley Hotel,
Valdosta, Georgia.

Dear Horace:

Many thanks for coming out to lunch with us on yesterday and for spending part of the afternoon with us. It is always a pleasure to have your bright and beaming countenance amongst us, so to speak, --- and we wish that you could find time to come by and see us more often.

I had intended writing you a much longer letter than this, my dear sir, but my wife has just telephoned to say that she is on her way to pick me up and that she has a large hunk of ice on the car; so I shall have to write you a long letter some other time!

Sincerely,

FRR/ar