Dear Miss MacLaren:

Many thanks for your kind letter of May 5. I, too, am far behind with correspondence!

I am glad to know that you are interested in the book of table graces which our students are compiling. It will be several weeks, perhaps a month or two, before the manuscript will be in shape to submit to you. Meantime, please remember me to my old friend, Mr. John Macrae, and, if you can find time for it, please print out the name of your Editor in Chief on a postal card and send it to me. In your letter it looks like Wrdden. Maybe it is!

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,
