

Pendleton's Lithography Boston.

LOVE FROM THE HEART,

OR

Yes, I will leave my Father's Walls

as sung by

MADAME VESTRIS

Composed & Arranged by

SIDNEY WALLER.

Boston. Published by C. Bradlee 164 Washington St.

LOVE FROM THE HEART,

or

YES I WILL LEAVE MY FATHER'S HALLS.

As Sung by

MADAME VESTRIS.

2^d Verse. Love, gentle love shall be our guide To a far- - - dis- - - tant

Yes I will leave my Fa- - - ther's halls To roam a long with land, - - - And whether bliss or woe be-tide, This heart you shall command. I'll tell you thee, - - - A-dieu! a-dieu my na- - - tive walls, To oth- - - er scenes I flee. Yes we will tales of old- - - en years, Of hap-less love or war, - - - - But seek the si- - - lent glade When we have stray'd- - - - a far, - - - - And 3279

should they cause you pearly tears Then sound the gay Gui-tar - - - But should they cause you² you shall play, my dearest maid, Songs on your light Gui-tar, - - - And you shall play my pearly tears Then sound the gay Gui-tar - - - Then sound Love's sweet Gui-tar - - - Then dearest maid, Songs on your light Gui-tar, - - - Songs on your light Gui-tar - - - sound the gay - - - Gui-tar - -

Songs on your light - - - Gui-tar - -

2.

Love, gentle love shall be our guide
 To a far distant land,
 And whether bliss or woe betide,
 This heart you shall command.
 I'll tell you tales of olden years,
 Of hapless love or war,
 |: But should they cause you pearly tears
 Then sound the gay Guitar, :|
 Then sound &c.