SENIOR CLASS
RAY CITY HIGH SCHOOL
Ray City, Georgia
1953-54

We, the Senior Class of 1954, do, hereby, dedicate this, the 1954 Beaver, to Mrs. B. L. Johnson. She is a true scholar, a person who has ably and devotedly guided the faltering footsteps of Seniors over a period of years.

We humbly dedicate this book--hoping it will serve in some way to show our greatest admiration--to Mrs. B. L. Johnson.

Congratulations Seniors

You have achieved your first major goal in life. You undoubtedly feel proud of this accomplishment, and rightfully so, for it has been no easy task. For your efforts you have placed yourself in the upper 25 per cent of the population in education. From that 25 per cent will come the leaders of the nation in business, civic, religious, and governmental affairs. Where will you fit in this pattern? What is your next major goal? These are questions that should be the most outstanding in your mind. Be sure that the answers to them are based on sound principles so that they will stand against all tests.

Believe in yourself, believe in your fellowman, and believe in your God, and you will not fail.

Best Wishes to You,
M. M. JOHNSON
