Young FFA'ers, 4-H'ers preparing Three county livestock show Wednesday

Movin' time

School workman began this week moving into the Hahira Junior High new addition across the street from the main campus. The $322,000 building will house two completely equipped and furnished Home Economics rooms including food preparation units, classrooms; two industrial art shops completely furnished; a band room with office, storage and practice room; a room designated for speech, drama and choral which will have a stage for students to perform; an office for the assistant principal; and four regular academic classrooms to be used as the school sees fit.

Retiring after 22 years

No more pickups and deliveries

Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Simpson, who have been closely identified with the business life of the community for the past 22 years, are retiring from the active role in business and plan to devote their time to leisure activities.

Mr. Simpson announced this week that the Deluxe Dry Cleaners was sold Monday to Eddie Simon, owner and operator of Simon Dry Cleaners, and becomes effective Monday, March 19.

The Simpson's who have owned and operated the cleaners since 1950, have made many friends while serving their customers through the years. While Mr. Simpson covered his daily pick-up and delivery route and met the public with his usual jovial personality, his wife, Pearl, kept the shop, did clothing alterations and greeted the customers with her warm friendly smile.

Married June 16, 1928 in Hahira, the couple were born and reared in this area only a

FFA and 4-H members from Lowndes, Lanier, and Echols Counties will bring their steers to the Lowndes County Livestock Market next Wednesday to determine who has the best steer in the three-county area. The occasion is the 1973 Lowndes County Livestock Show and Sale.

These South Georgia young people will show their steers around mid-day Wednesday. At this time the Grand Champion and Reserve Champion will be selected. That night buyers from this area will come to the sale to bid on the steer of their choice.

The sale means several things to a young participant...but mainly it means parting with an animal that they have spent a year caring for and conditioning for competition.

But, giving up a prize steer has a bright side too. The youngsters will have a chance to take away top honors and cash premiums.

Open only to FFA and 4-H members in the three counties, the steers will be weighed and sifted. All animals must have been raised and owned by their exhibitors.

The show is slated to begin at 10:00 a.m. and the selection of the Grand Champion, Reserve Champion and Best Homegrown should be completed by 12:30.

Ribbons of Blue, Red and White with cash premiums of $50, $35, and $20 respectively going with each ribbon, will be awarded to the young winners.

4-H NEWS

By Mrs. Sally Black and R. Douglas Durham

Cloverleafs Prepare For D.P.A.

For the past few weeks cloverleaf 4-H members have been busy preparing for District Project Achievement at Tifton to be held this Saturday. There will be about 35 participants from Lowndes County in various projects.

4-H'ers and parents will receive a letter concerning when and from where we will leave. Anyone who is supposed to go and cannot should let us know immediately.

Juniors Hold Workshops

Junior 4-H members at Lowndes Junior High and Hahira Junior High held workshops last week to work on recordbooks and demonstrations.

Those attending at Hahira Junior High were Gwen Cowart, Fonda Moore, Mary Kirkland, Martha Drennon, Katrina Kirkland, and Beth Cowart. Leaders attending were Mrs. L. L. Carter and Mrs. E. B. Jones.

Next Week is Busy For 4-H'ers

Next week 4-H'ers will be participating in several events. On Wednesday, The Beef Cattle Show and Sale will be held at the Livestock Auditorium with about 35 4-H'ers from Lowndes County participating. These boys and girls have worked hard with their animals and the public is invited to attend the Show at 10:00 a.m. and the Sale at 7:30 p.m.

On Thursday, several 4-H'ers will participate in the New Clothing Activity to be held in Tifton. This event will feature 4-H'ers modeling garments that have made or brought, emphasizing their knowledge of consumer education.

On Saturday, March 24, County Project Achievement for juniors and seniors will be held. You should also bring your 4-H recordbook, it does not have to be completed but you can clip in any notes, summaries or pictures you want the judges to know about.

The demonstrations are scheduled for 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 Noon at W. G. Nunn Elementary in Valdosta. County Project winners will attend District Project Achievement at Rock Eagle June 6-8.

The gospel sing at Pineview last Saturday night was an enjoyable event. Thanks, Charlie Edge and The Poole Family, for being with us.

The Joyful Sounds will be singing in revival this week at Hahira Methodist Church. Wayne Boykin and The Youth Choir from Fellowship Baptist Church will also be singing in revival. They were asked to sing at Popular Springs Baptist Church near Nashville, Ga. We wish all a great revival.

Hahira Church of God will hold a Sing Saturday night featuring Eddie Dee and the Gospel Troublers. We've been privileged to work with this group and think they're a great inspiration to all who hear them. Make plans to hear this group, it will be worth your effort!

Homecoming Day is this Sunday at Pineview Baptist Church! Good preaching, dinner on the grounds, singing, and this year we've asked Mike Mullis of Valdosta to give his testimony. Mike tells how the Lord has affected his life and solved his drug problems. I was talking to Mike several weeks ago and it was so inspiring to me to hear him tell about his Lord and our Lord. We're looking forward to Sunday. Hope you plan to pack a lunch and be with us. The Shilohs will have a big day there I'm sure...we always do at Homecomings, at home, or away!

The Revelations will be singing at the Church of God in Poulard, Georgia, this Saturday night. Friday, March 23, they will be in Pelham, at Proctor Chapel Free Will Baptist Church. Have a good sing, Revelations!

The Shilohs will be appearing with the Broadwell Family, The Gospel Four, The Smith Family, Travelite Quartet, The Fender Family and others at the all-night sing in Statenville, Ga., in the school auditorium

Saturday night at 7:00 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door or get in touch with James Scott in Valdosta. The Shilohs, as well as those other groups, need your prayers and support.

The Gospel Four will have their homecoming Sunday with dinner to be served at the residence of James Scott on Green Street in Valdosta, and singing to be at the church in the afternoon in Statenville. The public is invited to be with them in this sing.

Popular Springs will end their revival with Homecoming Sunday also. With all the Homecomings and Gospel Sings this weekend, and revivals during the week, there is sure to be one near you. Go out and support gospel music this week and be in church on Sunday!

To The Rescue

The Philadelphia Skating Club and Humane Society is the oldest ice skating club in the United States. Formed in 1849 as the Philadelphia Skating Club, it changed its name in 1861 when members began patrolling the Schuylkill River with coils of rope to rescue skaters who fell through the ice.

86th birthday

Mrs. Mary Cornelius

Mrs. Mary L. Cornelius of Hahira was honored at a dinner Sunday, March 11 at the home of her grandson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cornelius, in celebration of her 86th birthday. Mrs. Cornelius has a daughter, Mrs. Lynn Day of Smyrna Beach, Fla., and four sons, Elmer, Johnny Mac, Charlie and Lonnie Cornelius, all of Hahira, who were on hand to help her celebrate the occasion. Other family and friends enjoying the affair included Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cornelius and children, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Cornelius and son, Clint, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sheffield and daughters Jeri Jyn and Melissa, Earl Cornelius, all of Hahira; Mrs. Lola Jones of New Smyrna Beach, Fla., Lon Cornelius, Lon Cornelius III and Keri Cornelius of Orlando, Fla., and Annie Lee Garrett of Valdosta. The 86-year-old honoree has 15 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchildren. After the dinner was served the guests enjoyed a luscious birthday cake, which was embossed with red roses and inscribed "Happy Birthday Mama Lizzie." Mrs. Cornelius received many nice and useful gifts.

Retiring

Lula Shirling Courson, attended school in Hahira, while her husband attended a small country school in the Fellowship Community where he was born and grew up. The son of the late Perry L. and Maxie McNeal Simpson, he worked with M & T Cash Store here for 21 years before venturing into the cleaning business. They are members of Friendship Baptist Church near Hahira. The couple have three daughters, Mrs. Norman (Elaine) Rogers of Douglas, Mrs. Edward (Madge) Waller of Madison, Fla. and Mrs. Virgil (Dorothy) Newbern of St. Petersburg, Fla., who have blessed them with 13 grandchildren. "While we're certainly looking forward to getting caught up on our fishing, we never plan to discontinue our interest in and support for Hahira and its wonderful people who have been so friendly and meant so much to us through the years. Although we will not be active in business, we hope to continue each of these cherished friendships," the couple said.

Stanley Cowart scored two fowl shots, with seven seconds left on the clock, to place the Barfield Oil team as winners in the Bob Cat Basketball League Championship in the tournament which began March 6. Undeafated since the tournament began, the Barfield team played CWA of Valdosta for the championship Saturday night at the Lowndes High gym at 7:00 p.m. The score of 27-25 gave the local team an overall record of 11 wins and 5 losses for the year, stated coach Cecil Vincent. Assisting Vincent in coaching this year were Everett Eakins and Tom Goucher. The Citizens Bank team of the Cadel League and Barfield Oil team of the Bob Cat League plan to enjoy a banquet which is scheduled for tonight (Thursday) at the Valdosta City Auditorium to honor all teams of the Valdosta Boys Club, stated the coach.

Most compliments are untruths, and that makes them even more enjoyable.

Notes

A GOSPEL SING is to be held at the Hahira Church of God Saturday night, March 17, at 7:30, according to the Rev. Franklin McDaniel, pastor. Eddie Dee and the Gospel Troublers of Moultrie are to be the featured singers. Everyone is cordially invited to attend, stated the pastor.

Eggcellent Ideas

GEORGIA EGG COMMISSION

Elizabeth Downey, Home Economics Coordinator
Patty Swinford, Assistant

ATLANTA (PRN) - With more emphasis being placed on convenience foods, we tend to forget some of our favorite dishes. One of the Egg Kitchen's favorite dishes is a fluffy soufflé.

Soufflés are about as versatile as omelets; they can be served for breakfast, lunch, supper, dessert, as a vegetable, main dish, or appetizer.

The most unfortunate fact about soufflés is that people have the idea that soufflés are difficult and many times unsuccessful. If the puff went out of your soufflé after removing it from the oven, it is because that is what soufflés do. Soufflés usually stay puffy about five or eight minutes, allowing just enough time to be put on the table and admired.

To insure a delicious, puffy soufflé, be sure that the oven temperature is correct. If you have doubt about the temperature, it is better to be lower than too high. Use spotless utensils; if a little speck of grease gets into the egg whites they will not beat. Be sure to separate the egg whites from the yolks with care. The whites will not beat if you get a speck of yolk in them. As in all recipes, be sure to gather your equipment and ingredients before preparation. This method allows for much more enjoyment, ease, and efficiency when cooking.

Now that you know soufflés are simple, delicious, and appealing to the eye, you may enjoy cooking this one.

CHEESE AND MASHED-POTATO SOUFFLE

- 4 eggs, separated
- 4 servings instant mashed potato, prepared as directed on package
- 1 cup dairy sour cream or yogurt
- 2 cups shredded, grated or finely cut Cheddar cheese
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire
- Dash of hot pepper sauce
- 1 tablespoon finely minced onion

Add egg yolks to potato one at a time, beating well after each. Add next 5 ingredients. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into well-buttered 2-quart casserole and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F). Bake for 50 to 60 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

For more delicious and nutritious recipes, please write the Georgia Egg Commission, State Farmers' Market, Forest Park, Georgia 30050.

Customer Report #1

There's plenty of electricity now. Why does Georgia Power need to build more power plants?

We've been able to keep up with your electric needs so far. But your use keeps growing, and electricity can't be stockpiled for the future. Unless necessary plants can be built on schedule, the electricity you want won't be there.

You have enough for now. But are you building a room, or adding air conditioning to your home? Opening a new business? That's more electricity we must supply.

Why don't you pay for construction out of the money you take in rather than raising rates?

First, increased rates are not for the purpose of paying for construction. That money must come from investors. Rate increases are necessary to cover rising operating expenses due to inflated prices of fuel, taxes, wages and other goods and services which must be purchased to provide you with electric service. The interest we pay on borrowed money for construction is an operating expense, and must be taken into account in rates paid by customers.

Increased rates are necessary also to provide earnings for the investors who put up the money to build plants. Unless earnings are sufficient to attract investors, we won't be able to build. Earnings also determine our credit rating, and a poor rating would cause interest cost to rise which would, in turn, mean increased rates.

Second, even if all our earnings were put back into the company, there wouldn't be enough money to do the job. Each year a part of our earnings is paid out to investors for use of their money, and the balance is put back into the business. The total amount we took in from sales of electricity last year was $503,082,132. But the total money that was needed to pay operating expenses and construction costs was $936,894,584.

If the money for construction doesn't come from customers, then where do you get it? Borrow it, like I did to build my house?

Yes, we do borrow much of the money for construction — in fact, our total obligation is nearly $2 billion. And interest rates have been at an all-time high. Recently, a big drop in earnings lowered our credit rating, so now we'll be forced to pay even higher interest.

Wages? Fuel? Taxes? They've all skyrocketed. Add to that the millions of dollars we spend for environmental protection. Water cooling towers at a cool $4 million each. Precipitators for cleaner air. Extra-tall stacks. None of these things adds to efficiency or produces more electricity.

And efficient operation is one way we've been able to reduce rates. Ten times in 40 years. But pollution-control equipment decreases efficiency and increases operating costs.

How are electric rates regulated?

No matter how critical our financial situation gets, the company can't just raise rates whenever it needs additional revenue. A state commission must approve retail increases and a federal agency controls wholesale rates. When we ask for more money, it's because we must have it to buy fuel and equipment to serve you. To pay wages and high interest charges for the use of borrowed money.

We realize you're more concerned with the dollars and cents you pay for electricity than with the millions we must spend to supply it. But we hope you'll understand the reason for seeking rate increases. Because it's our responsibility to provide you with electric energy.

Just as it's our responsibility to keep you informed about what we're doing to serve you.

Water witching gains real believers

By Carey Cameron

peach branch. Others use a persimmon limb. Orvil Futch uses a pair of cutdown metal clothes hangers.

What Futch uses the clothes hangers for is to find water. He is what some people might call a water witch although he has never applied the term to himself.

Claims that some people can find water by walking over the land with a stick or metal are among the strangest stories of American folklore.

The reason this bit of folklore is so strange is because those making such claims can usually back them up with evidence whereas most folklore claims can't be established as being true.

Futch doesn't pretend to understand why he can find water. He is in the pest exterminating business in Valdosta and water finding is just a free sideline.

Mrs. Irene Horne was ready to pay anything to find water in the yard of her Forest Street home a few years ago. Her husband Bob had gone down 45 feet in two different places in his yard without finding water.

Mrs. Horne had heard about Futch and she called him. Her husband was skeptical at first about the chances of Futch helping, but is now a believer.

"I found it at 32 feet. They went down where I showed them on my first try and there it was," Futch recalls.

"Mrs. Horne said, 'just name your price,' but I wouldn't charge her anything," he added.

About two months ago Austin Godwin on Price Street had worked all day drilling two wells, both around 43 feet down. He called Futch who discovered water 10 feet away from the dry wells at about 32 feet. He has found water many other times, never failing in a quest.

When Futch called Godwin recently to get permission to use his name in print, Godwin told him he has a neighbor who needs water-finding help from Futch.

"I found one in my own yard about four years ago and I've never had any trouble. I've had all the water I need for watering my flowers. I only went down 27 feet," Futch commented.

The wells he has found water for are for lawn and garden watering only. These type wells are legal in the city limits.

Some water finders use a forked branch of one type or another. Futch takes two clothes hangers, cuts the hooks off them and bends them into an "L" shape so as to make handles. He holds the handles lightly in his hands and walks straight up until the hangers start pulling together and cross.

"I heard about other people doing this and I tried it several years ago and it worked. I have seen some who couldn't get the hangers to cross in places where they would cross for me and others who could get them to cross.

I have better luck with the clothes hangers than with wood. I had heard of somebody using welding rods and this gave me the idea of trying it with metal," Futch said.

"I understand there is a cavity in the ground which causes them to cross but I don't know a scientific explanation. I don't know if some people have different chemistry that makes them able to do it or not. I think the reason a lot of people can't find water is because they put too tight a grip on the clothes hangers. You have to hold them loosely for them to turn," he said.

It's pretty easy in Valdosta to get up an argument on the validity of water witch claims. Those who have seen water found with wire or sticks defend the idea with vigor. Those who don't believe it can be done scoff at the believers.

Several persons watched Futch demonstrate his art outside a newspaper office here. He walked a few steps and the hangers crossed. One man declared it was a fake but when this man tried it himself he suddenly dropped the hangers, apparently fearing to tempt unseen powers. Another man said he had found water with the folklore methods.

Finally it came a reporter's time to try the hangers. He held one in each hand and retraced Futch's steps. Suddenly the one in his right hand started pulling toward the other as if attracted to a magnet. It may have been a city water main but there definitely was water of some sort under that spot. The hangers don't lie.

REPORTS FROM THE UNITED STATES SENATE

DEFENDERS of the United States' 60,000 or so draft dodgers and deserters are demanding under the guise of "binding our wounds," that we grant a blanket amnesty to all those Americans who chose not to serve their country during the Vietnam war. They suggest we welcome home with open arms elements of our society who were neither loyal enough nor honor bound to serve their country in time of need.

I cannot agree to any form of amnesty at this time . . . when our prisoners of war are still inhabiting North Vietnamese camps, when thousands of our uniformed men are in the process of disengagement from this conflict, when memories of those who fought and died there are still tragically vivid.

I believe it would be a grave injustice, if we were to have drafted one young man and sent him to Vietnam to fight, perhaps to die, and now grant amnesty to another who fled the country, violated the law, and holed up in Sweden or Canada to avoid the operation of that law. To grant amnesty now would be rewarding those who chose to escape their duties.

AMERICA HAS OFFERED her citizens the necessary right to protest, the right to determine what is good and bad, and to speak up against the bad and to work actively to change it. Our system allows for that change through debate and legislation—but not through anarchy.

Duty to obey laws is one of the obligations that comes with freedom in a democracy, for that freedom cannot survive unless the people are responsible citizens. What would happen, for example, if during another critical conflict every American would desert, or dodge the draft or hole up in a foreign country until it all blew over? Certainly, America could not survive, and certainly orderly government would turn to anarchy. Laws are made for order. No nation can exist without order.

IN THE AFTERMATH of Vietnam it is true that we must regroup and bind our many wounds suffered as a nation. And in this recovery, we must take into consideration those men who felt they could not serve their country. I strongly believe that this can only be done on a case-by-case, individual basis, by weighing the personal factors involved in each man's decision and thus decide what price he must pay for his action.

Joe Sports now with public relations firm

ATLANTA (PRN) -- Joe Sports has been named Director of Governmental Affairs for R. E. Sibley and Company, Public Relations Counselors. Mr. Sports is a former newsman and congressional assistant and was executive director of the Democratic Party of Georgia. In announcing the appointment, Robert E. Sibley, President of the Atlanta based Public relations firm said "Joe Sports is well known throughout Georgia and has an impressive media and governmental background that makes him a most valued addition to our firm."

In conjunction with his association with the public relations firm, Mr. Sports will continue to serve as research and press assistant to U.S. Congressman Dawson Mathis, dividing his time between Washington, D.C. and Georgia.

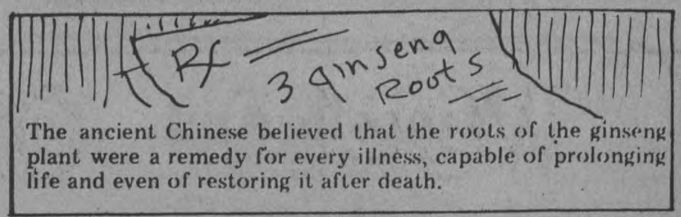

While adding Mr. Sports to the firm, R. E. Sibley and Co. is expanding its governmental affairs division to provide "listening post" service at the national, state and local levels.

Mr. Sports, a native of Douglas, Georgia was associate editor of the Douglas Enterprise and TIO photographer and writer while on active military duty. He spent three years on the staff of former U.S. Rep. Iris F. Blich before going to Albany as a newsman and promotion director of WALB-TV. He became executive director of the state Democratic Party in 1966 and continued there until 1971 when he became head of the staff in Washington of former U.S. Senator David Gambrell.

Mr. Sports is married to the former Dee Plymell of Thomasville. They have one daughter, Susan Wynn. They reside in Decatur.

LIVING- AS YOU LIKE IT

The Golden Years - despite periodic increases in Social Security benefits - often become somewhat tarnished for senior citizens four or five years into retirement. "The principal reason, of course, is inflation," declares Sabino Marinella, president of Continental Investment Corporation, who adds that "perennial increases in the cost of living place fixed-income retirees on a relentless economic treadmill." Continental investment, Boston, is a national financial services and real estate-oriented company.

Marinella notes that Social Security benefits often help recipients to just about catch up with - rarely, if ever, pull ahead of - advances in the cost of living.

"Inflation's effects in the past decade are fairly obvious: the price of sirloin steak, for example, has risen from 68 cents per pound in 1962 to more than $1.40 a pound today - an increase of over 105 percent. Average retirement income - including Social Security benefits - climbed slightly more than 75 percent during the same period.

CONSUMERS' CORNER

Something For Nothing
Creative women concerned with stretching the family budget find great satisfaction in being able to make "something for nothing." So they make good use of fabric leftovers.

One way to use fabric scraps is to make a matching handbag or tote bag. Patterns of various kinds are available, and you can buy handles at craft shops or notion counters. It is possible to buy kits to make tote bags. They include stiffening material and all other supplies, plus instructions. You can use the fabric of your choice and have a professional looking bag for very little money and effort.

Polyester knits make good swim suits. Depending on the style of the suit you prefer, you may have enough leftovers for the whole thing.

"The lesson here is obvious. During working years, it is wise to consider the specter of inflation, plan for a level of monthly income a person or couple will need five or ten years after retirement - not the amount they can get by on comfortably at the time they retire. A well-planned family financial program may be of help in assuring that those sirloins need not stop when you reach 65," Marinella concludes.

Broiler, vegetable prices turn downward

ATLANTA, Ga. - Prices for several farm products in the Southeast continued their upward trend during the week ended March 9, the Agricultural Marketing Service of the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Exception to the upward trend were broiler-fryers, which ranged 3 to 5 cents lower on an unsettled to weak market. But heavy and light-weight hens and eggs showed price increases during the week.

As supplies of Florida vegetables increased, lower prices were reported for green beans, celery, cabbage, radishes and tomatoes, and sharply lower prices for squash and eggplant. Sweet corn, bell peppers and sweet potatoes recorded gains during the week.

Feeder cattle gained another 50 cents to $1, while light-weight feeder calves sold $2 to $4

Choice 200 to 300 pound steer calves sold at $73 to $84, 300 to 400-pound at $63 to $73, 400 to 500-pound at $56 to $64, and 500 to 600-pound steers ranged from $50 and $58.

Prices on barrows and gilts closed unevenly 25 cents to $1 higher at southeastern points and strong to 25 cents higher at eastern Corn Belt terminal markets after late week losses. In the carlot pork trade, most cuts trended higher in price.

POULTRY AND EGGS

The undertone of the southeastern broiler-fryer market was unsettled to weak during the week ending March 9, the Agricultural Marketing Service's Dairy and Poultry Market News Office at Atlanta reports.

Prices were mostly in a negotiating stage for the week of March 12, but limited early

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

Green bean prices weakened during the week ended March 9 as supplies increased from southern Florida, the Agricultural Marketing Service reports. Snap beans brought $4 to $4.50 a bushel; pole beans brought $5.10.

Florida celery prices trended lower as supplies increased. Good quality celery brought $5 a crate of 2 1/2 dozen and $3.25 a crate of 3 to 4 dozen. Sweet corn sold slightly higher as supplies increased, with yellow corn selling at $3.75 and white at $5 a crate of 4 1/2 to 5 dozen ears.

Eggplant prices were sharply lower as supplies increased, with wrapped medium size bringing $3.50 to $4 a bushel. Bell peppers sold slightly higher, with California Wonder type, green, large size, selling at $7 a bushel.

higher and heavier calves $1 to $2 higher. Butcher hogs sold 25 cents to $1 higher.

LIVESTOCK

Prices were sharply higher for feeder cattle and calves under reduced marketings at southeastern points during the week ending March 9, USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service reports.

Expanded outlets and a broad demand over the region resulted in a week of aggressive trade activity. For a dozen weeks now, higher weekly trends on feeder cattle and calves have marked trading around the region. This week was no exception, as prices soared to new highs.

Price advances in the live cattle and carcass beef trade signaled a green light situation and feeder buyers responded favorably to the occasion. Cost frequently seemed to be a lesser consideration as buyers sought to secure numbers.

A major supporting factor in the current price situation is the forward selling of slaughter cattle in the feedlot areas, for as much as four to seven weeks ahead. At most Midwest points, slaughter steers and heifers closed 50 cents to $1 higher while the carcass trade posted gains of $1.50 to $2.50.

At Southeast markets during the week, feeder steers sold 50 cents to $1 higher, heifers strong to $1 higher, and calves 200 to 400 pounds $2 to $4 higher and 400 to 500 pounds $1 to $2 higher.

In representative sales, sales ranged 3 to 5 cents per pound lower than current week values. Preliminary F.O.B. dock equivalent prices ranged from 39 to 40 1/2 cents per pound on U.S. Grade A and 38 1/4 to 41 1/4 cents per pound on plant grade broilers.

Ready-to-cook demand declined sharply from previous weeks and was mostly slow to fair. Live supplies were mostly ample for sales commitments. Average live weights were available in a wide range.

Hen prices continued an upward advance in the Southeast on both heavy and light type. The market tone was mostly firm on heavy type with an underlying trace of unsettledness as processors encountered price resistance on wholesale offering prices. Demand was mostly fair to good for live heavy type birds.

The market structure was very firm on light hens. Supplies decreased to a barely adequate position. Demand was mostly good.

Wholesale cartoned egg values trended higher in the Southeast compared to the previous week reflecting advances in major terminal markets. Egg deliveries to volume buyers in the Southeast ranged from 53 to 58 cents on extra large, 52 to 57 on large, and 48 to 51 1/2 on medium. Supplies of all sizes were generally in good balance with any surplus held with confidence. Mediums were generally well cleared in the Southeast.

Supplies of new potatoes from south Florida increased. U.S. No. 1 round reds size A sold at $3.75 to $3.85 a 50-pound sack, while size B brought $4.50.

Radishes sold slightly lower at 90 cents to $1 a carton of 30 six-ounce film bags. Squash sold sharply lower as supplies increased, with yellow straight neck bringing $4 to $4.50 a bushel and small zucchini bringing $2.50 to $3.

Tomato prices were lower as supplies increased slightly. U.S. No. 1 tomatoes, 6X6 size and larger, brought mostly $7 a 30-pound carton.

Cabbage prices were lower, with round green type bringing $3 to $3.25 a crate.

Eastern North Carolina sweet potatoes, in moderate supply, sold mostly at $5.25 a 50-pound crate of U.S. No. 1 Porto Rico type. Louisiana sweet potatoes moved at slightly higher prices, with U.S. No. 1 centennials and Porto riko types selling at mostly $6.50 to $6.75 a 50-pound crate.

To "burn out" certain types of tumor, doctors at Temple University are injecting tiny bits of steer wire into patients' blood streams, guiding them to the tumors with magnets; then heating the particles in electrical-induction fields.

The proposed tunnel under the English Channel connecting England and France will cost an estimated $1.2 billion.

The Hahira Junior High Band members took a tour to Waycross Saturday, March 10. The purpose of this trip was the yearly Band Festival. This festival was held in the auditorium of Waycross High School.

The Band received a good rating for its performance. The chorus received an excellent rating.

Approximately 90 band members participated. These active members made their performance around eleven o'clock.

After lunch the students watched other bands perform, trying to improve their skill.

Later in the afternoon the members of the chorus did their performance across town.

The chaperones were Mrs. Betty Gornito, Mrs. Betty Mixon, Mrs. Alice Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Brooks, and of course, our band director, Mr. Tom Davis.

Everyone did their best and had a wonderful time.

Baseball time again

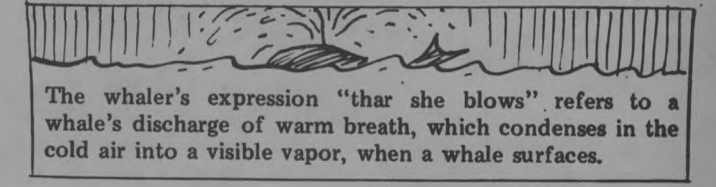

"It's baseball time again and we need players," said Carl Vincent, Little League Baseball Coach.

The coach stated that all boys, ages 9 - 12, who are interested in playing baseball this year, are asked to be at the practice field at 5 p.m. Thursday, March 22 for tryouts. The field is located in front of the H. M. Barfield home off East Highway 122.

"We hope to fill three teams from Hahira including two Little League teams and one Cadet team," stated Vincent. All boys who attend the Thursday try-outs are urged to bring his birth certificate and a baseball glove.

Other coaches working with the boys this year will be Tom Goucher, James Parker, Everett Eakins, J. M. Harris and Bob Schreffler. Additional adult volunteers are needed to assist the coaches and anyone interested should contact Cecil Vincent.

The whaler's expression "thar she blows" refers to a whale's discharge of warm breath, which condenses in the cold air into a visible vapor, when a whale surfaces.

Shiloh news

By Rudene Vickers

No Silent Pulpit starts at the Shiloh Methodist Church March 18—ending April 15th. Time will be 11:00 a.m. each Sunday.

Speakers and dates for each Sunday are as follows:

March 18 - Mr. Dwight Bishop, Valdosta, Ga.

April 1 - W. O. Clements, Quitman, Ga.

April 15 - Carlton Adams, Valdosta, Ga.

Come and support your church. Regular church services will be on second and fourth Sundays. Everyone is extended a WELCOME.

Pineview Baptist Church

The youth group of Pineview Baptist Church were treated to a skating spree on Friday night by Mrs. Raymond Parker, their teacher, and the pastor, Bro. James Monroe and his wife. There were 18 who attended. They all reported they had a wonderful time.

Pineview Baptist Church is having Homecoming Sunday on March 18th and want to extend cordial invitations to everyone. Bring a covered dish if you come for lunch. There will be singing, and testimony after dinner.

The county council for the 4-H clubs met Tuesday night, March 6, 1973. After all business was discussed, Jim Black introduced the guest speaker, Mr. Al Griffin from Fargo, Ga. Mr. Griffin is a school principal, teacher, taxidermist and an authority on the Okefenokee Swamp. He showed many interesting slides and commented on each. The students enjoyed the slides very much and asked many questions and learned many answers. If you want to know more about this beautiful place so near to us, I'm sure you could contact Mr. Griffin at Frago, or contact Mrs. Black at the extension office in Valdosta. Hahira Jr. High had the most members present. We are proud of 4-H members from Hahira. Give them your support when they ask for it.

Mike Brady has been a patient at South Georgia Medical Center for a week but is home now and wants his friends to know he is much better and pneumonia isn't fun. He hopes to return to school soon.

Mrs. Felton Tyson had Mrs. Troy Griffin, Kevin, and Stacy from Marietta, Ga., as last weekend visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyson had a Saturday night dinner guests the Ethridge Tyson's, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sumner, Brandie, and Bryan, from Valdosta, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Zeigler from Hahira.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Felton Tyson, Tim and Todd went to Stephen Foster Memorial and said the azalea's were in full bloom and gorgeous.

Mrs. Jennie Tyson went to Warner Robins last Wednesday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webb were here over the weekend to attend the funeral of Mr. Cone Webb and had supper with Mr. and Mrs. James Hall Friday night.

Russell and Betty Jean Simpson visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Rountree, on Sunday.

Robert and Brenda Coombs, Jr., and Ashley, visited Robert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coombs, Sr., on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Strickland and Mrs. Edna Boyette from Valdosta visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Strickland Saturday.

Mrs. Mary Creech, Denise, and Debbie Fields visited Mr. and Mrs. Wiley Strickland on Sunday.

The Shiloh Homemakers met on Wednesday, March 7, with a few members present. Miss Ted Phelps presented some tips on sewing and making the new patterns fit properly. We did not discuss interior decorating due to the absence of so many members. Mrs. Maurice Redding is on the Program committee and she suggested several themes for our fair booth. One was decided upon and every member is asked to bring a quilt square 16 inches square. Piece together 4 squares of cotton material and be sure they measure 16 inches, when finished. If anyone is real smart and wishes to, they may bring more than one. Bring the squares to our next meeting so we may see how many more we need.

The club has a new cover (paint job) and is to get a new look on the roof soon. Miss Phelps suggested we not do any re-modeling inside since the house isn't used that much.

The next program is to be the Shiloh 4-H'ers presenting their demonstrations in landscaping, horse care, and freezing strawberries. This program will be interesting as well as good practice for the girls.

Please come to our next meeting. If you are a homemaker, you are invited to the Shiloh Homemakers Club. We hope we have something of interest for each of you.

Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Staten spent the weekend with their daughter, Mrs. Bobby Vickers and family. They are from Stateville. While here, they visited Mr. and Mrs. Paul Vickers.

Mrs. Paul Vickers had a quilting bee at her home last Wednesday afternoon and Mrs. Leonard Futch, Mrs. Ezra Simpson, and Mrs. Robert Lindsey all came out and quilted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Grund from Cedarborough, Wisconsin, stopped by on their way to Tampa, Fla., to see relatives and visited Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Taylor. Mrs. Grund and Mrs. Taylor were roommates in Jacksonville, Fla., about 15 years ago at the Y. M. C. A. They had not seen each other since.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Taylor visited Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Weeks and boys of Adel Friday night.

Last year, over 7,000 handicapped Georgians, ranging in age from infants to 90-year olds benefited from Easter Seal services and rehabilitative programs. It's Easter Seal time again. . . time to give to Easter Seals.

Douglas Lions invite pageant entries

Hahira young ladies are invited to enter Georgia's Poultry Princess Pageant Preliminary to be held in Douglas on Friday, April 27, 1973. The invitation was extended today by Roy L. Jones, Jr., Chairman, South Georgia Area Poultry Princess Pageant sponsored by the Douglas Lions Club.

"Three Poultry Princesses will be selected at the Douglas Preliminary Pageant," Mr. Jones said, "to compete in the Georgia Miss Poultry Princess finals in Atlanta in June."

"Contestants are not required to enter a talent competition. They are judged on poise, charm, beauty of face and figure, in evening dress and bathing suit revues."

Young ladies who are 18 years or older -- or will be by August 1, 1973, not married and never been married, are eligible to enter. Entry blanks will be sent by return mail, Mr. Jones said.

The three princesses selected in the district pageant at Douglas will be awarded trophies, other prizes and expense-paid trips to Atlanta in June to compete with other area princesses in the state finals. The young lady selected "Miss Georgia Poultry Princess" in the state finals will be given a complete finishing course by Personally Yours Studio, Atlanta, plus a beautiful Mary Wells Original evening gown, $1,000 and other prizes. Address a postal card or letter to: Poultry Pageant Chairman, P. O. Box 31533, Douglas, Georgia, 31533, for entry blank by April 23, April 25, 1973, is the deadline for entering.

Circus coming to town

The Royal Wild West Circus is scheduled to arrive here Sunday, March 25 and set up the big tent for the one day event which is to take place on Monday, March 26. Sponsored by the Hahira Lions Club, the Circus will open Monday afternoon for a performance at 4 o'clock and 8 o'clock p.m.

Advance tickets are available at all local stores, and are also on sale at Hahira Junior High School. Proceeds will go to the Lions Club fund and a Lions spokesman stated that the Lions will benefit more from advance ticket sales than from tickets purchased at the door. A savings is also realized by the buyer, with $1.00 for children's advance tickets and $2.00 for adult advance tickets. Price at the gate will be $1.50 for children and $2.50 for adults.

Featured at the circus is to be Hoot Hilton and his Wonder Horse from Hi-Caparell; Princess Sharon and her Royal Palace Elephant, plus many other circus stars.

All Lions members will be participating in the preparation for the circus, with Ralph Powell as General chairman; W. R. Salter, publicity chairman and Jimmy Shiver in charge of ticket sales.

PLANT THE PROVEN HYBRIDS—FUNK'S G-4949 & G-5945

Full Season Companion Hybrids

LOOK AT THE RECORD!

GEORGIA FARMERS HAVE FOUND THAT FUNK'S G-5945 AND G-4949 CONSISTENTLY GIVE TOP PERFORMANCE.

PATTERSON, GA.—Jim and Elmon Griner...1972 Georgia winners in the Project: 200 corn yield contest. The Griner Bros. combined 200.5 bushels per acre on 14 acres. "We had the best crop of corn we ever made. G-4949 stood up and we left none in the field. Our competitive hybrid fell down and didn't yield like G-4949. We like G-4949 and will plant more next year."

LESLIE, GA. JACK MILLER said, "G-4949 was the best hybrid I planted in 1972. It stands up and has good grain quality. I will plant more next year. It has been dependable every year."

TIFTON, GA. JIMMY TYSON yielded 125 bushels per acre with G-5945 last year. His comment—"G-5945 does equally as well as G-4949...excellent yields under stress. You can depend on G-5945...no disease, good stalks and good yields in dry weather."

COOLIDGE, GA. COY DEKLE—"G-4949 and G-5945 are the two best hybrids I've ever planted. They stand up...yield and have good drought resistance. A majority of my acreage this year was in G-5945. Best corn I ever made."

CUTHBERT, GA. RICHARD MATHEWS, JR.—"I like G-4949 because it has excellent yields and excellent stalk quality. It yielded 115 bushels per acre. I'll plant all G-4949 again in 1973."

JUST RELEASED...

1972 Georgia Coastal Plain Experiment Station tests show...Funk's G-4949 outperformed all full season hybrids tested with a combine yield of 123.55 bushels per acre. (Combine Yield = Harvested Yield x Standing Stalks)

EDISON, GA. TED McCLENDON said, "In spite of adverse weather conditions, Funk's G-5945 turned out to be the best corn on my farm this past year."

COOLIDGE, GA. MITCHELL SUBER—"For seven years, we've planted the majority of our acreage with G-4949 and G-5945. They are consistently high yielders, stand up and shell easy, too. They produce more at high populations and outyield other hybrids. Our crop is better than last year. We couldn't do without G-4949 and G-5945 and recommend them to all farmers. Our yield was 125 bushels per acre."

The Georgia State Winner in the 1972 FFA 304 Bushel Challenge corn growing project was Eddie Bennett of Patterson, Georgia, shown above with Aswell Smith, FFA Advisor. Eddie planted Funk's G-4949 and produced 225.1 bushels of shelled corn on one acre.

THOMASVILLE, GA. PAUL W. BRYAN, JR.—"I've planted G-4949 for five years. You can plant it thick; it has uniform ear height and it will stand up until harvest. It yielded 114 bushels per acre this year, and I'll plant more G-4949 next year."

BELLVILLE, GA. ROMMIE THOMPSON—"G-4949 is the best producing corn, year in and year out, that I have planted. Funk's corn is still healthy looking and producing a good yield alongside another hybrid that died early...turned black...resulting in poor yields."

MANASSAS, GA. LAMAR HENDRIX—"I feel G-4949 and G-5945 are the best corn hybrids for my purpose. I plant thick and fertilize heavily and will irrigate if necessary. G-4949 and G-5945 work together as companion hybrids better than any others. I have planted G-4949 and G-5945 for years. They are the most dependable hybrids for this area."

MONTROSE, GA. A. L. PARKER—"I planted three different hybrids on my farm this year. Funk's G-5945, G-4949 and G-795W-1. Our overall yield of 160 bushels per acre was the highest yield that we have ever harvested."

FUNK'S G-5945 and G-4949 ARE TWO OF THE HIGHEST YIELDING, BEST STANDING HYBRIDS EVER DEVELOPED FOR THE SOUTH. Ideal for combining and for high tonnage silage.

Straight from the House

By Representative Robert Patten 123rd District

Wednesday, March 7
The House convened this morning at 9 a.m. with a rules calendar to clear nearly 50 pieces of legislation.

Most of the bills appearing on the calendar for today pertain to funds for the operation of various state agencies and will be called up in conjunction with the main Appropriations Bill for 1973-74. Among the bills are also several retirement system changes for teachers, including Disability provisions and Creditable Service.

Also on the bulky calendar are bills to create the Vital Areas Council and legislation for the regulation of bicycles. Scheduled to come before the House in the afternoon is the No-Fault Motor Vehicle Insurance Bill. This bill has been on the calendar several days but is expected to be called to the floor for action today.

The House had the pleasure of a brief address Tuesday by U. S. Representative Bo Ginn. The

In the decade since the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped and the National Easter Seal Society sponsored the development of basic standards to make buildings accessible and useable by the handicapped, Georgia and 39 other states have passed laws making the standards mandatory for public facilities built with state funds.

Congressman was accompanied by his wife. General Assembly meets in 1974.

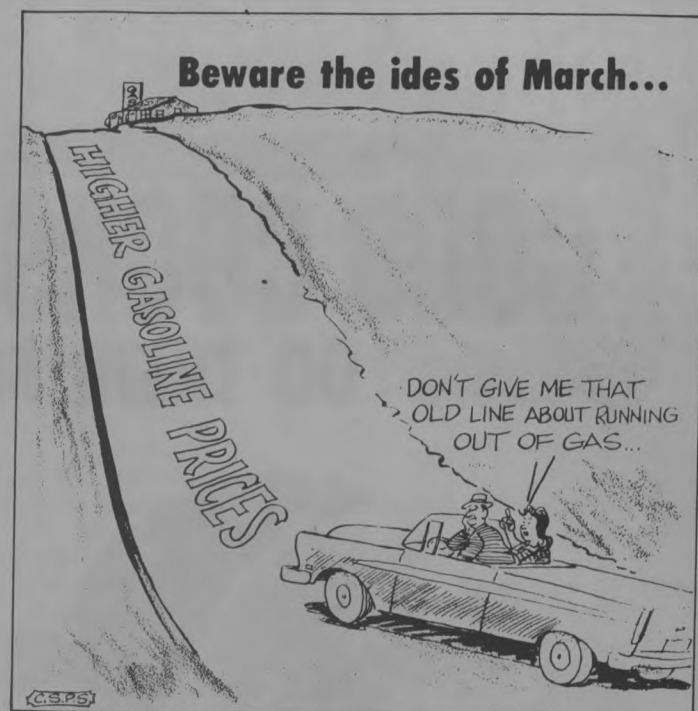

Tuesday, March 13
The House Monday cleared 63 pieces of legislation off its calendar as the Legislative Session draws to a close.

Two bills that were defeated on Monday were H. B. 84, which would have provided a local option income tax as a means of local revenue. The House defeated the bill 97-78. A motion to reconsider the bill on Tuesday was filed.

The other bill defeated by the House was H. B. 1028 which would allow agents of the State Division of Investigation to work statewide across county lines. The Georgia Sheriffs Association was among the groups fighting this measure which lost 89-62.

After several hours of debate the House passed H. B. 504 which would cut off hospital building and expansion unless a Certificate of Need is issued by the Department of Human Resources. Supporters of this bill told House members this would eliminate over-construction which contributes to rising hospital costs. The bill passed the House 102-53.

On the calendar for today is H. B. 706 which would rewrite the State's Sunday closing laws. This bill provides for local referendum for such things as the sale of alcoholic beverages on Sunday. It also permits certain small businesses and sports activities to operate on Sunday.

THANK YOU

We would like to thank our many friends and customers for their patronage during our 22 years in business at Deluxe Dry Cleaners. Effective Monday, March 19, the Deluxe Dry Cleaners will be under the ownership and management of Eddie Simons.

Material gains are in the general scheme of things. Most important, follow through with financial "hunches" that come your way. Apparently, you will be a winner, of sorts!
- GEMINI May 21 - June 20
Devious activities seem to undermine your chart. Meaning? It's likely that you have become a pawn in an associate's treacherous manipulation.
- MOONCHILD June 21 - July 22
Changes, for the better, are indicated by prevailing stellar patterns. One problem! A sense of insecurity could be troublesome, during the transitional period.
- LEO July 23 - Aug. 22
A member of the opposite sex, so it seems, will give you cause to analyze subtle gestures. Which is another way of saying, unexpected overtures are likely.
- VIRGO Aug. 23 - Sept. 22
Those surrounding you will be reflecting your very own mood. So, curb the urge to create a series of minor crises, for the sake of excitement.
- LIBRA Sept. 23 - Oct. 22
There's a difference between opportunity and temptation - a big difference! Many Librians will test their appeal to the other sex. So, stay in bounds.
- SCORPIO Oct. 23 - Nov. 21
We're never treacherous, according to our own light. But, your chart indicates the inner urge to put a member of the opposite sex... through the acid test!
- SAGITTARIUS Nov. 22 - Dec. 21
Your present circumstance might indicate, otherwise. Nonetheless, you are entering a cycle that favors your making a distasteful decision.
- CAPRICORN Dec. 22 - Jan. 19
Hear this well! Financial problems are beginning to develop by imperceptible degrees. It's not a case of plans failing, but rather failing to plan!
- AQUARIUS Jan. 20 - Feb. 18
False starts, interruptions or postponements could, very well, thwart your job, project or tasks. Don't commit yourself to a tight schedule.
- PISCES Feb. 19 - Mar. 20
Back off from a strong personality who is attempting to overpower you. It seems as though you have been relinquishing both your will and opinions.

Grand Jury Presentments

March Term 1973

We, the twenty-three (23) members of the Grand Jury drawn and sworn at the March Term of Lowndes Superior Court, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Three, respectfully submit these presentments:

We appreciate the remarks made in the charge to the Grand Jury by Judge George A. Horkan, Jr. relative to taking a hard look at possible Judicial Reforms.

This Grand Jury feels that Judge Horkan's prayer at the opening of court was very appropriate and subsequently opened this session with a prayer for guidance and good judgment in our deliberations.

Our thanks go to the Assistant Chief A. L. Arnold and Captain Ransom Bass, of the Valdosta Police Department, for the time and effort spent in getting background material and evidence in the cases they presented, and the effective manner in which they presented them.

We also want to thank Lt. A. W. Ganas, Sgt. Henry Selph, Det. David Arnold and Det. Jimmie Norton of the Lowndes County Sheriff's Department for a professional like preparation of their cases before appearing before us.

We commend Warden D. J. Devane for the excellent progress being made in the programs at Lowndes Correctional Institute.

It has been a pleasure to work with our District Attorney H. Lamar Cole and his assistant, William O. Hitchcock. The preparation of the cases presented made a more efficient operation of the Grand Jury in that area.

We recommend that continued efforts be made to enact Legislation restricting the indiscriminate sale of handguns and narcotics.

We, the Grand Jury, have taken note of the presence of certain pornographic material that is available on the news stands in drug stores and convenience food stores. This material is readily available. This condition is very alarming and highly dangerous to the youth of our community. The Grand Jury strongly recommends that the local law enforcement officers lend every effort to rid the shelves of such trashy material. The Grand Jury further calls upon the merchants, themselves, to police their own areas.

We recommend to the Judge of the Superior Court the following names to be considered as Member of the Voters Board of Registrars of Lowndes County to succeed the members whose term expires June 30, 1973: R. H. Bland, Carson Exum, Mrs. John H. May, E. T. Townsend, Tom Wall and E. Frank Wisenbaker.

We recommend that Mrs. Sara Crow be paid $25.00 for stenographic work for this Grand Jury.

We appreciate the many courtesies provided this Grand Jury by the Clerk of Court, Miss Louise Dickinson.

The Grand Jury recommends that these Presentments be published in the Valdosta Times, Hahira Gold Leaf, and copies sent to the members of the Georgia General Assembly representing the Southern Judicial Circuit, to Board of Lowndes County Commissioners, and to the Grand Jury of each county in the Southern Judicial Circuit.

Respectfully submitted,
Howard Dasher, Jr.

PUBLIC RECORDS

The Committee interviewed the people concerned and examined the records with the following result:

Ordinary: In addition to its regular work load this office supervised five (5) elections this year and still we found Judge T. N. Holcombe and his staff managed to keep all records up to date in a very neat and orderly condition.

Tag Office: Tag Agent Bobby Dasher with a vast amount of paper work was well organized allowing for quick service to the public. This office must have additional space in the near future in order to store records and have additional windows to improve its ever increasing business.

Tax Office: Tax Commissioner Billy West Dasher has an efficient up to date operation and his staff can quickly answer any tax question from their excellent records.

Clerk of Court: The outstanding job done by Miss Louise Dickinson and her staff for the two (2) Courts they serve is reflected in the neat and orderly fashion that their records are kept. We found things to be current, efficiently filed and immediately available for use.

County Commission: Inspected the County Commissioner's office and found the records in excellent order and kept in an efficient business manner.

Sheriff's Office: We visited the office after hours and commend the staff for the high quality of record keeping on a great variety of material that must be kept up to date hour by hour.

Respectfully submitted,
George H. Hart, Jr.
Chairman

PUBLIC ROADS

This committee extends its appreciation to Mr. R. E. Patrick for his cooperation in our report.

We inspected the maintenance facilities and found them in good order considering the facilities available. A new modern shop building is needed for better efficiency in maintaining equipment.

Reduction in rain in recent weeks has enabled the road crews to improve the overall condition of the road system.

The problem of garbage and junk that litter our roads and countryside continuously becomes worse. We concur with the previous Grand Jury Committee in urging the Commissioners to provide enforcement for prosecuting those person's who contribute to this problem.

We were encouraged by the report from Mr. Don Brazeal that a plan to improve the garbage problem is expected by July of this year.

Respectfully submitted,
Dan Welch
Chairman

PUBLIC BUILDINGS

This Committee has inspected certain properties owned by the County and finds all in good condition with the exception of the County Jail.

It is noted that previous

Grand Juries for the last six to eight years have recognized this condition and urged the County to do something about it. Therefore, we would like to report the following:

1. Have County Commissioners report to the next Grand Jury with a firm plan of action to begin construction of a new jail.

2. We strongly recommend this new jail be used jointly by the County of Lowndes and the City of Valdosta.

3. With the above in mind, we recommend and urge the City of Valdosta appoint a knowledgeable individual to work as a liasion with the County Officials on joint use of this new jail facility.

We also recommend that the county maintenance department make an inspection of all county buildings and correct all mechanical and structural defects found to exist and do the preventative maintenance necessary. We note the lack of ventilation in the grand jury room and recommend the installation of an exhaust fan before the next Grand Jury Session.

Respectfully submitted,
Walter T. Carter, Jr.
Chairman
