Scenes of my early days, of hope's bright years !
 Oft shall I mourn for thee in silent tears :
 Tears for thee each day will bedew my cheek,
 And lonely sighs my fervent passion speak
 Would my sad soul e'en now might wing her flight—
 'Twere bliss, sweet France! to perish in thy sight!
 Take me, some kindly breeze, some friendly wave—
 Scotia I view but as a living grave.
