

FORTHCOMING PAPERS

The following are some papers that have been accepted for publication in future issues of Clays and Clay Minerals:

- Haojie Cui, Xiangwen Liu, Wenfeng Tan, Xionghan Feng, Fan Liu, and Huada Daniel Ruan. Influence of Mn(III) availability on the phase transformation from layered buserite to tunnel-structured todorokite
- Reinhard Kleeberg, Thomas Monecke, and Stephen Hillier. Preferred orientation of mineral grains in sample mounts for quantitative XRD measurements: how random are powder samples?
- Deb P. Jaisi, Shanshan Ji, Hailiang Dong, Ruth E. Blake, Dennis D. Eberl, and Jinwook Kim. Role of microbial Fe(III) reduction and solution chemistry in aggregation and settling of suspended particles in the Mississippi River Delta Plain, Louisiana, USA
- H. Khademi and J.M. Arocena. Kaolinite formation from palygorskite and sepiolite in rhizosphere soils
- Lynda B. Williams, Shelley E. Haydel, Rossman F. Giese, Jr., and Dennis D. Eberl. Chemical and mineralogical characteristics of French green clays used for healing
- Mohamed Kehal, Laurence Reinert, Fumihiko Ohashi, David Maurin, Jean-Louis Bantignies, Ammar Mennour, and Laurent Duclaux. The trapping of boron from water by exfoliated and functionalized vermiculite
