FIFTEEN CENTS

First place fashion winner

Mrs. Larry Webb wins first place in Fashion Show

Young farmers from throughout Georgia met at Abraham Baldwin College in Tifton Friday and Saturday, January 26 and 27, to attend the State Annual Convention of the Young Farmers Association.

Representing the Lowndes County Young Farmers Chapter were Mr. and Mrs. Lamar Kinard, Mr. and Mrs. Elton Redding, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Webb and Price Turner, Lowndes County High School and Hahira Junior High Agriculture Instructor.

A business session was held for the young farmers Saturday morning with Bobby Griner, State president of the Young Farmers Association, as toast master and presiding at the meeting.

The young farmers and their wives enjoyed a luncheon at the noon hour which was held in the cafeteria at the college. Lt. Gov. Lester Maddox was the guest speaker for the event.

Following the luncheon the men boarded buses and toured the Georgia Coastal Plains Experiment Station for the afternoon.

One of the highlights of the day was the Fashion Show and tea given in honor of the wives attending the convention. The theme for the Fashion Show was "Counting Your Pennies Through Sewing."

Participants in the Fashion Show included twenty-one wives modeling self-made fashions.

Mrs. Larry Webb, of Hahira, was named as one of the six top winners in the contest. One contestant was chosen from each category including floor-length dress, maternity dress, street-length dress, two-piece suit, jump suit and pants suit.

The pretty brown-eyed brunette modeled a beautiful floor-length dress featuring a multi-colored patchwork skirt and red polyester bodice. The dress was styled with long sleeves and scooped neckline. Mrs. Webb stated that she designed the material for the skirt by cutting four inch squares from scraps and sewing them together.

The participants were judged on appearance, selection of style or pattern, material and the cost to complete the outfit. Judges included Home Economic teachers from the Tifton area.

The six top winners were presented a 3-piece Corning Ware Bake Set. They also received a knit repair set, along with the other participants in the contest.

Door prizes were won by Mrs. Webb and Mrs. Elton Redding during the Fashion Show. Mrs. Webb was presented a Revlon Bubble Bath Set and Mrs. Redding received a candy dish.

Mrs. Webb is the former Willene Coombs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coombs, Sr. She and her husband, Larry, are the parents of two children, Angelia, 6, and Larry Jr., 5. They reside in the Salem Community and attend the Shiloh United Methodist Church. She is employed at the Carousel Shop in Hahira.

The convention was climaxed with a banquet Saturday night. Guest speaker for the event was Stan Finch, director of Public Relations of Texize Chemical Corp., of Greenville, S. C.

Bingham arboretum gets state funds

After the idea's conception in 1966 and following a bogged-down status since 1970, an arboretum at Reed Bingham State Park here finally came a step closer to existence last Friday with the announcement that $10,000 in State funds had been earmarked for the project.

An arboretum is more particularly described as a large collection of native and exotic trees, shrubs, vines and other plants set aside for study research and for their beauty.

The announcement of the allocation came Friday from Allen R. Coggins, chief naturalist for the State Park System, at a meeting of about a dozen area dignitaries. Coggins said the arboretum is to be the only state-supported one in Georgia and that planting here is to begin immediately.

The idea of a local living plant museum was nurtured in 1966 by Major C. Collins, a Tifton resident and horticulture columnist. Plans were then begun under direction of personnel from Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College (ABAC), but the venture was halted in 1970 until recent interest brought the matter to light again.

An advisory group including three Adel residents was named Friday to help coordinate the park project. R. G. McCranie,

Mrs. Julia Sirmans and James G. Connell, all of Adel, were appointed to the arboretum committee also composed of Dr. Wayne Faircloth of Valdosta State College, Major C. Collins of Tifton, Dr. Earl Parker and Vernon Yow of ABAC, Thomas Barber of Moultrie, Georgia Public Service Commissioner Ford Spinks of Tifton and Mrs. A. L. Webb of Moultrie.

Chief Naturalist Coggins stated that the project here would be divided into regions with flowers common to the locations. The regions named were the Coastal Plain, State of Georgia, Southeastern United States, North America and the world. He said that some exotic plants would be added later from China and other Asian countries, and each individual plant will be labeled for public interpretation.

Park Superintendent C. J. Powell said the arboretum will be developed in conjunction with a nature trail already in use at the park. It will be arranged in loops from the main trail with benches and teaching stations constructed along the way.

Hopefully, area schools, clubs and other groups, as well as the general public and tourists, will make use of the new park facility.

Attending the planning meeting Friday at the park were Dr. Parker, Mr. Yow, Mr. Collins, Mr. Connell, Rep. Grover C. Patten of Adel, Rep. Dorsey Matthews of Moultrie and Commissioner Spinks.

Little Theatre presents "Luv" comedy production

The Valdosta Little Theatre, a division of The Valdosta Recreation Department's Fine Arts Program will present the Adult Comedy production "Luv" written by Murray Schigal at the Mathis Civic Auditorium Friday and Saturday, February 2 and 3 at 8:15 p.m.

The action of "Luv" takes place on a bridge, and the fun is largely in the misery of present troubles, memories of suffering and the tribulations of loves past, current and future.

There are 3 characters in "Luv", Harry Berlin played by Mike Hutton, who wants to jump off the bridge and end all his problems, Milt Manville played by Robin Robinson, who plans to palm his wife Ellen off to Harry so he can marry his dream girl. Ellen Manville played by Eileen Mitchell, won't free Milt to marry again.

As the play progresses more miseries come to the surface and the funnier the situation becomes.

Tickets for "Luv" are on sale for $2.50 adult and $1.25 Children at Zale's Jewelry, The Village Shop, Barnes Drugs in Brookwood Plaza, Patterson Griffins Shoes in Castle Park. Olan H. Lukes and the City Recreation offices in Mathis Auditorium.

The Valdosta Little Theatre will hold Tryouts Monday night February 5 at the Mathis Civic Auditorium for its next production, "Inherit The Wind". The play involves 36 characters, ages ranging from 8 years old to 60 years old. Tryout time is 7:00 and everyone is invited to come. Refreshments will be served at the Tryouts. The Play will be presented March 16 and 17 at the Mathis Auditorium.

Valdosta woman hurt in accident

A 29-year-old Valdosta woman was admitted to Smith Hospital in Hahira with a broken shoulder after the car she was driving went out of control and hit a tree near here Friday, January 26.

Troopers from the Valdosta Patrol Post reported Barbara Ann Bowden of 507 Pinetree Road was taken to the local hospital after the 2:30 p.m. crash on the Wes Scruggs Road, 6.7 miles north of Valdosta.

According to patrolmen, Mrs. Bowden was driving the car south on the rain slickened road when slick tires caused her to lose control. The car skidded off the left side of the road and hit a tree, also damaging a fence belonging to M. W. Kirkland of Hahira.

The mishap did $600 damage to the Mercury and $25 to the fence, troopers estimated.

Malone awarded scholarship

A state scholarship has been awarded to Robert L. Malone of Valdosta for postsecondary education in health fields through the student aid program of the State Scholarship Commission, announced Don Payton, executive director.

Designed to finance the education of skilled health professionals for Georgia, the State Scholarship Commission administers the granting of State and Federal funds to Georgia residents who have been accepted by approved educational institutions and who have agreed to repay the scholarship by practicing their chosen professions in Georgia.

According to Milton Carlton of Swainsboro, Chairman of the Commission, the most critically needed health professionals are registered nurses. Therefore the commission will allocate 70 percent of the total award money to nursing students.

Lowndes County Young Farmers Chapter installs officers

Twenty-three couples, including members of the Lowndes County Young Farmers Chapter, and their wives were entertained at a banquet Tuesday evening, January 23 at Ashley Oaks Restaurant in Valdosta.

Guest speaker for the event was Mr. George Wright, retired druggist and Methodist Layman of Tifton.

During the evening new officers were installed including

Lamar Kinard, President; Gerald Coggins, Vice President; Ronnie Parker, Vice President; Elton Redding, Secretary; Jackie Cole, Treasurer; and Jimmy Shiver, Program Chairman.

Out-going officers are June Strawder, President; Johnny Swilley, Vice President; Johnny Vickers, Vice President; Lamar Kinard, Secretary; Bobby Wetherington, Treasurer; and Jimmy Shiver, who was re-elected to serve again next year as Program Chairman.

According to Price Turner, Agriculture Instructor at Lowndes High School and Hahira Junior High, the Lowndes County Chapter is increasing in membership, having thirty members in the organization, with twenty prospective members in this county. Alternate meetings are held at Clanton's Restaurant in Hahira and Lowndes High School Agriculture Department, the Agriculture Instructor said.

Turner stated that the next meeting is scheduled to be held in a Valdosta restaurant with Jim Hardy, District Manager, of Moultrie, as host and guest speaker.

All members and prospective members in this area are urged to attend, added Turner.

Taxpayers can help insure Revenue Sharing amounts

Taxpayers can help insure that Georgia and its counties, cities, and towns receive their fair share of Federal Revenue Sharing funds by answering accurately two questions appearing on Forms 1040 and 1040A, John W. Henderson, District Director of Internal Revenue for the Atlanta District said.

Mr. Henderson said that one Revenue Sharing question relates to principal place of residence of the taxpayer on December 31, 1972, while the other question asks about dependents who lived elsewhere on that date.

"Because the amount of money that Georgia and its local communities will receive is based on population as well as income amount," Mr. Henderson said, "it is extremely important that taxpayers answer the questions accurately and completely."

"Detailed information on completing the two Revenue Sharing questions appears in both the 1040 and 1040 A instructions," Mr. Henderson said.

"Taxpayers failing to complete lines 33 and 34 on Form 1040, or lines 26 and 27 on Form 1040 A, are not filing a complete return and they may delay the processing of a return," Mr. Henderson said.

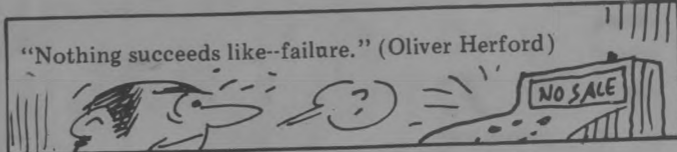

ITEM: A great and gracious way to extend hospitality to favored friends is to serve filet mignon. By sunlight or candlelight, filet mignon leaves a lasting impression. These truly deluxe steaks, cut from the beef tenderloin, have an established reputation as "tenderest of all." Carry on the glamour with a wine sauce.

Hodges of Twin Lakes, Mr. and Mrs. Caulie Futch, Mrs. Emilee Weldon, Henry Gornton, all of Ray City, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gornto of Hahira, and Mrs. Gene Vann of Jacksonville, Fla. Visitors during the afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hattaway of Valdosta.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Clanton returned home Sunday after spending several days in Atlanta due to the illness of her sister, Mrs. Ed Credille. Mrs. Credille underwent major surgery Friday at DeKalb General Hospital and is reported to be doing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Miley were recent visitors of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Grass, in Jacksonville Beach, Fla.

Friends of Mrs. Flora Whitley will regret to learn that she was admitted to Smith Hospital Tuesday of this week after suffering a stroke.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Smith and daughter, Kim, of Enterprise, Ala., spent the weekend here with her mother, Mrs. Leroy McCullers and Joyce and Linda. They came especially to attend the wedding of Miss Karen Ann Webb and the Rev. Barry Lynn Hall which took place Saturday at Bethany Baptist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sorrell and Mrs. T. W. Sorrell of Hahira and Mrs. Mary Alderman of Berlin were guests Sunday of the Grady Sorrell Family of Tallahassee, Fla.

Mrs. Ann Lee and family of Morgan City, La., are here this week due to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Florrie Whitley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jackson of May Day were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Sorrell Wednesday. Mr. Jackson was released from Smith Hospital Wednesday after undergoing a series of tests.

Mr. Lem Copeland of Valdosta is in Hahira this week as an employee at Slocum Furniture Store in the absence of Mrs. Florrie Whitley, who is a patient at Smith Hospital.

Miss Cathy Hensley is inspiration for shower

On Tuesday evening, January 30, Miss Cathy Hensley, bride-elect of Tom Odom, was honored with a lingerie shower at the home of Mrs. Richard Flynt. Co-hostess for the lovely event was Mrs. Roger Powers. Miss Hensley was presented with a beautiful pink and white carnation corsage, which complimented her black and white printed floor-length dress. The dress was styled with long sleeves and a black velvet waistband. The hostesses also presented pink camellia corsages to Mrs.

Rete Odom, mother of the groom, and Mrs. John Hensley, mother of the bride.

The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Roger Powers.

The refreshment table was covered with a pink cloth and centered with a crystal punch bowl which was encircled with pink carnations. Party refreshments were served.

About 15 guests enjoyed the occasion.

The hostesses presented Miss Hensley with a lovely peignoir set. She also received many beautiful gifts from her friends.

Miss White - Mr. Staley marry in Valdosta

Miss Donna Jean White and William Edward Staley were married Saturday, January 20, at Strickland Memorial Chapel by Mike Black, Minister of Morven Church of Christ.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Eugene White and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nelson Staley, all of Valdosta.

The couple spoke their vow before a background of emerald fern trees and an arrangement of white chrysanthemums, pompons and stock.

Raymond Phillips was best man, Larry Staley, brother of the groom of Valdosta, and Rufus Strickland of Quitman were ushers.

Miss Cheri Puckett, cousin of the bride of Valdosta, was maid of honor. She wore a cranberry velvet gown with empire waistline and long sleeves. The u-shaped neckline was accented with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of jackstraws, roses and carnations in varied shades of pink and red.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ivory lace over peau de soi gown fashioned with white scooped neckline, long lace sleeves and lace train. Her veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls, and her bouquet was a cascade of white roses, carnations and lillies of the valley.

A reception in the church social hall followed the wedding.

Miss Linda Staley, sister of the groom, and Mrs. Jerry Wetherington, both of Valdosta served.

Miss Claudette Nestler of Valdosta kept the guest register.

The couple plans to reside in Cairo where the groom is

Farm Bureau holds briefing on National Farm

H. Emmett Reynolds, President of the Georgia Farm Bureau Federation said today that the nation's largest farm organization will seek a national agricultural program climate to enable American agriculture to produce an adequate food supply for consumers and yet provide adequate returns to farmers.

Reynolds made the statement following return from a 14 state meeting of state and national Farm Bureau leaders held in Memphis last week. "There is a storm center in this nation in regard to economic direction", he declared.

The GFBF President said that topics discussed by Farm Bureau leadership included directions of a national farm program, including extension of the Agricultural Act of 1970, involving feed grains, wheat, P. L. 480 authority, Class 1 dairy plans, international trade, EPA guidelines, farm labor relations, agricultural marketing bargaining, limitation of payment, rural development, REA, the REAP program, price-wage controls, and inflation.

Reynolds said farmers through Farm Bureau have established policy position of the federation and that efforts will be made toward implementation of the vast array of programs upon farmer developed recommendations.

He said that conferences have been held by state and national Farm Bureau leaders throughout the nation concerning the current economic and political climate. "Action of Congress will greatly determine the future opportunities of agriculture in America", he said.

Norman Lovein dies of wreck injuries

Norman M. Lovein Jr., 61, Nashville funeral director, died Tuesday afternoon at Tift General Hospital in Tifton of injuries received in an auto collision.

He was returning from delivering flowers for a funeral in Adel and drove the van type truck into the ditch on the right in an attempt to avoid the collision at the Askew farm four miles west of Nashville.

Mrs. Greta Davis of Broxton was trying to pass vehicles in the westbound lane and apparently took to the ditch to miss Mr. Lovein, according to deputy sheriff Robert Swanson.

The two drivers and Mrs. Davis' 15-month-old daughter, Heather, were carried by a Lovein Ambulance to Berrien County Hospital and then moved to the Tifton hospital.

Mr. Lovein was owner and manager of Lovein Funeral Home, coming to Nashville in 1946 after World War II service with the U. S. Marines in the Pacific.

He had been associated with Bowen-Donaldson in Tifton prior to his military service and for a while continued the association here.

Born in Macon, he attended Lanier High School and Cincinnati College of Mortuary Science.

Mr. Lovein was past president of Georgia Funeral Directors Association and past president and member of Georgia State Board of Funeral Service.

He was a Mason, Shriner, member of Otranto Post of American Legion, Post 5978 of Veterans of Foreign Wars and a member of Nashville United Methodist Church.

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Thursday at

THE SCENE- Occupants of the vehicles had been removed before they caught fire. Nashville fire chief W. R. Roberts cools off the car driven by Mrs. Greta Davis of Broxton. The flower van of Norman Lovein Jr. is beyond Roberts on the south embankment, with the Davis car straddling the ditch.

LIVING- AS YOU LIKE IT

During the retirement years you do not have to have special skills to find part-time employment. It can be helpful, but it is not necessary.

There is one part-time job that many women find both pleasant and rewarding, and that is baby-sitting. This is a good way to meet nice people and to make good friends. Telephone answering or telephone selling are a possibility. Cashiers are needed by a wide selection of business firms, such as the movie theatre, department store, and restaurant. They are always looking for dependable part-time workers.

For men, there are a wider range of activities open. The fisherman can make money by raising worms right in his basement. It doesn't require a lot of space or time. The worms are kept in steel drums or other containers, fed periodically, and harvested when they reach marketable size. Some sell their worms to sporting goods stores or bait shops, others sell them at their front door.

The retiree who is a camera enthusiast can turn his hobby into a money-producing venture, particularly if he has his own dark-room facilities. Many times newspapers need photographic help with special events in the community. Most of them will buy quality local photos from a freelance photographer.

These are just some of the many ideas available. If something does appeal to you, be sure to check local laws. You might need a license.

United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Bill Dupree officiating. Burial will be in Westview Cemetery, Nashville.

Survivors are; his widow, the former Alcyone Short of Tifton; a daughter, Diane Lovein, West Georgia College, Carrollton; three sons, Norman Lovein III of Jacksonville, Fla., Robert S. Lovein and John C. Lovein, both of Nashville; father, the Rev. Norman M. Lovein, Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Henry C. Jackson and Mrs. James R. Self Sr., both of Columbus.

Tractor Pull demonstration in Macon February 9-10

If you think you have seen everything, just wait until you see 75 "Demons of the Dirt", start huffing and puffing next week in the Macon Coliseum. This is the only Georgia appearance of these monsters.

This newest of all "Souped up" machines is taking the country like wild-fire. Imagine a 12,000 pound giant tractor with enough power to drag a 70,000 pound load, 300 feet down a dirt track.

Red Georgia clay is hauled into the Coliseum to form a dirt track three feet deep, 30 feet wide and 300 feet long. It is packed as hard as concrete and scraped after each pull.

A giant tractor, geared to as much as 450 horsepower, is hitched to the "sled" on which rides the dead weight. At a signal, the motor revs up to an ear splitting roar, smoke boils to the rafters and the fun begins.

A special "weight transfer machine" on the sled mechanically shifts the load off the back wheels on to the sled. As the tractor moves forward, more load is transferred to the sled being dragged on the ground. Finally, when forward motion has stopped, or the wheels begin spinning, the pull is over and the distance is measured.

The tractor going the longest distance is the winner. Whether you are partial to red paint, green paint, blue paint or orange paint, you will be on your feet all the way down the track.

For the first time, Georgia will have a chance to see the really big pullers. Macon is on the circuit which includes Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Missouri and Texas. This year there will be special classes for Georgia or amateur operators with their own field model tractors. There will also be "garden tractors" souped up to 70 hp.

For something really different we suggest a trip to Macon on February 9-10 at the Coliseum. If you go the first night, we know you'll be back on Saturday, with a larger group of your friends.

Tickets may be obtained from most Farm Equipment dealers at reduced prices for advance sales.

Mrs. Burgess dies in Valdosta

Mrs. Mary Jane Burgess, 60, of 615 N. Ashley St., Valdosta, died at a Valdosta nursing home Tuesday afternoon, January 30, after a long illness.

Born in Madison, Fla., she had lived in Barney for many years before moving to Valdosta nine years ago. She was a member of the Barney Baptist Church and was a nurses' aide.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Elverta Gay of Warner Robins, Mrs. Willie Parker and Mrs. Nell Gay, both of Valdosta; two sons, Wendell Burgess and Franklin Burgess, both of Valdosta; two sisters, Mrs. Mattie Lee Hiers of Barney and Mrs. Rittie Hollingsworth of Williston, Fla.; four brothers, Luke Browning, G. J. Browning, Noah Browning and Epps Browning, all of Berlin, and 14 grandchildren. She also leaves a number of relatives in Hahira to mourn her passing.

Funeral services are to be held at 2:30 p.m. today (Thursday) at Barney Baptist Church with burial in Sardia Cemetery in Colquitt County.

Martin Funeral Home here is in charge of arrangements.

Leading Causes of Death in U.S.A.

SOURCE: Latest available data (1969) from National Center for Health Statistics, U.S. Public Health Service, DHEW.

HEART ATTACK, STROKE and other cardiovascular diseases kill more Americans than all other causes combined. In 1973 these diseases will claim more than one million lives—53% of all deaths. During February, the Heart Fund campaign will seek funds to reduce needless death and disability by telling the public how to recognize the early warning signs of heart attack and stroke and how to reduce their risk of these killer diseases.

Mrs. Rosa Nelson's granddaughters, Mrs. Fannie Bell McCann and Miss Norma Jean Forsham, surprised her with a birthday party Saturday, January 27. Invited guests who appeared were Mrs. Louise Taylor, Mrs. Mary Williams, Mrs. Cora Carter, out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Willie Fordham, and Miss Helen Fordham and children of Florida. Absent guests Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wright, Mrs. Julia Wright, Mrs. Annie Pearl Miller, Mrs. Rosa Thomas, sent gifts. The table was overlaid with a white cloth and refreshments included assorted nuts, potato chips, crackers, candy and assorted dips. The birthday cake was white with white and yellow roses, with "Happy Birthday Mamma". Many useful gifts were received.

Elder Litman and family, along with Mrs. Mamie Hammonds visited Rev. and Mrs. Artice Jones on Saturday.

Sammie Isam and Mary Burney visited in Jacksonville, Fla., recently.

Mrs. Theld Jones' daughter, Mrs. Ernestine Arnold, visited from West Palm Beach, Fla., for a few days.

Mrs. Julia Wright observed her birthday January 25th at her home at 6:30 p.m. Prayer was said by Rev. L. S. Wrice. Mrs. Mammie Hammonds led in singing "Jesus, Keep Me Near the Cross." The table was overlaid with a white linen cloth bordered with blue roses. The cake was white, pink, and red, with "Happy Birthday Julia." A cut-glass dish held the mixed mints and nuts, and sandwiches were served with punch.

For And About Teenagers

THIS WEEK'S LETTER: I am 16 years old and I have a boyfriend who is 17. Sometimes when I go out with him, he treats me as if I were 5 years old. Although, I guess I might act a little like a child when I get mad, but he treats me like that a lot. My mother also gets on my nerves. When my mother gets mad at me she tells me I should be glad that she lets me go out so much with my boyfriend. She thinks I'm not old enough to go out seriously with a guy. I think I am and we both are deeply in love with one another. Isn't my mother being over-protective? Should we elope?

OUR REPLY: Wait a minute!

Hostesses were Effie Lee Wright and Mrs. Flossie Garrison. The honoree received many gifts.

Miss Audry Chandler, Teresa Hawkins and family wishes to give thanks to the many friends who helped them after the burning of their home.

Mrs. Isabella Chandler, Mrs. Gerald Chandler and Mrs. Weldon visited Miss Audra Chandler, her children and grandchildren Thursday. Miss Chandler was unfortunate in that her house and everything in it was destroyed by fire but she now has found a place to live with the help of the many friends, black and white, of which she is very grateful. She is asking for each one's prayer.

The Lucas brothers were together one more time. There are ten brothers: Robert J. Lucas, Mayo T. Lucas, Clifford Lucas of Newark, N. J., Clifford Lucas Clark, N. J., and Arney Lucas; Lawrence Lucas, Seattle, Wash., Curtis Lucas, San Francisco, Calif., Otis Lucas, Cleveland, Ohio, Edward Lucas, Ivory Lucas and Mark O. Lucas, Hahira.

Mrs. Lola Beasley flew in from Philadelphia, Penn., and motored to Hahira from Valdosta, coming especially to visit her sister, Mrs. Sammie Lawson, who was a patient in Smith Hospital. She has been released and is recuperating at her sister's home, Mrs. Eliza Robinson.

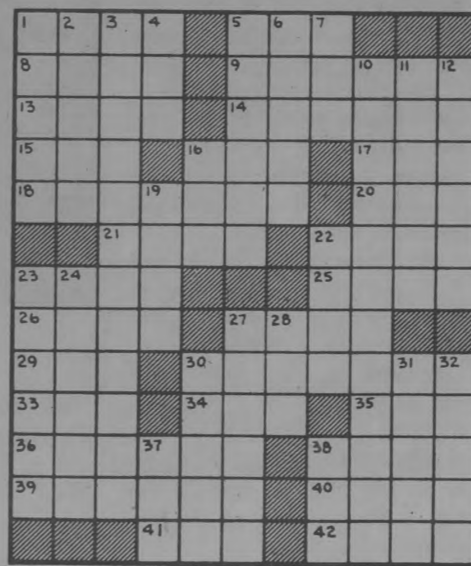

Rev. Artice Jones is still at home and doing fair, but will be going back to the hospital in Augusta.

Georgia Is Ranked 3rd In Removing Billboards

Georgia ranks third in the nation in the number of billboards removed from interstate and other federal-aid highways, according to U. S. Transportation Secretary John A. Volpe.

Under provisions of the Highway Beautification Act of 1965, billboards are prohibited within 660 feet of the rights-of-way of federal-aid interstate and primary highways.

Volpe said Georgia had removed 7,090 billboards as of October, 1972. This represented almost 10 per cent of the 71,441 national total. More than 112,000 small political posters have also been removed from the nation's highways, he added.

Leading Georgia's third place in number of billboards removed were Colorado which has taken down 11,267 and South Dakota with 11,237. Ranking immediately behind Georgia were Wyoming and Montana with 3,444 and 3,327, respectively.

Improve License Program

With a $168,000 grant from the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration, the Georgia Department of Public Safety has launched a $1,168,000 four year program of improving drivers licensing in Georgia. Public Safety Commissioner Col. Ray Pope announced the initial grant today funded through the State office of Highway Safety.

The initial $168,000 will go toward hiring 20 additional typists in high volume locations such as Atlanta, Columbus, Marietta, Macon, Savannah, Albany, Augusta, Athens, and Warner Robins, and purchasing 75 new eye testing devices for all locations. In the Atlanta examining station on East Confederate Avenue automated eye testing devices handling as many as ten applicants at one time are to be installed in the next three months cutting processing time by one-half.

Col. Pope said in the next four years $1 million will be sought for automated examining equipment for the entire state. Almost 20 other states either are using, or have plans to use such equipment.

Driver Services Supervisor Captain J. H. Quarles said the improvements will be instituted just as rapidly as possible so the public might benefit from shorter waits for license renewals or exams.

REPORTS FROM THE UNITED STATES SENATE

EVERY TIME a Supreme Court Justice walks through the entrance of the Supreme Court building he passes under a stone inscription that reads: "Equal Justice Under Law." Either these Justices don't look up, they can't read, or they don't understand what those words mean.

In the past several years, members of the nation's highest court have become more and more arrogant and less and less responsive to the will of the people. They have consistently placed the power of the bench above the right of the individual states, short-sighted interpretation of the Constitution before the health and safety of the public, and vague technicalities of the law before the proper execution of criminal justice.

FOR EXAMPLE, last summer the Supreme Court overturned hundreds of state laws by ruling against capital punishment. A decision such as this flagrantly superseded the Constitutionally-given right of the state to determine for itself whether the death penalty should be established within its own domain and trespassed into areas intended for state legislators.

Another example, and one I have fought for years, is forced school busing. In the Charlotte, N.C., Swann case, the Supreme Court not only defied the overwhelming opinion of the people against busing but they ignored a 1964 act of Congress that forbade the assigning of school children to achieve racial balance. The education, to say nothing of the health and safety, of hundreds of thousands of children across the nation has been jeopardized because of the arrogance of these nine judges in their determining what was best for someone else's children.

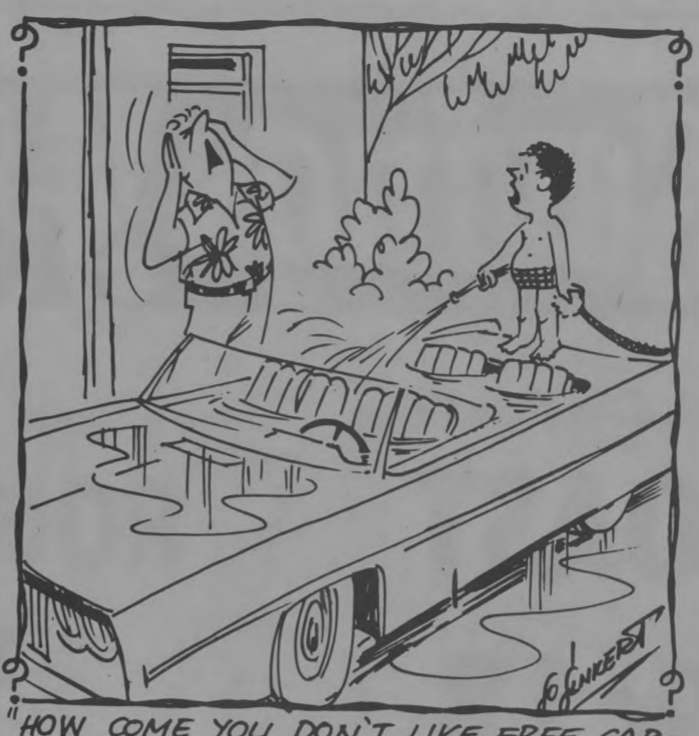

Still another example is this Court's irresponsible tendency to virtually cripple standard law enforcement agency procedures by accenting the technical purity of the law over proper criminal justice.

"EQUAL JUSTICE Under Law" cannot mean, as the Supreme Court seems to believe, making the streets safe for criminals. It does not mean forcing the legislators of our states to be responsible to the national judiciary rather than the people who elected them. It certainly does not mean ignoring the tremendous sentiment of a majority of people who don't want their children bussed.

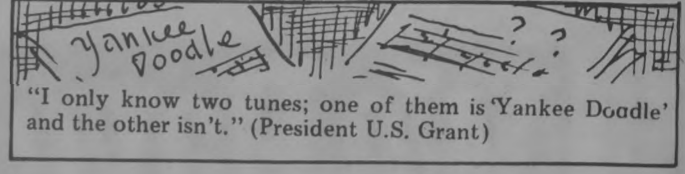

I believe the time has come to have the Supreme Court come down from lofty bench and have their records reviewed.

When whales are washed ashore they are helpless. Without the support of water they cannot move, and their lungs may be crushed by the weight of the body.

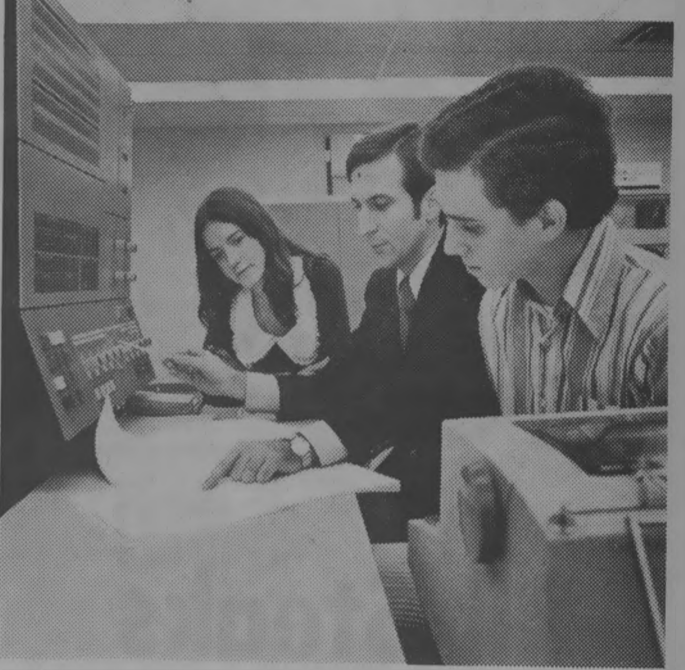

"HOW COME YOU DON'T LIKE FREE CAR-WASH?"

"I only know two tunes; one of them is 'Yankee Doodle' and the other isn't." (President U.S. Grant)

4-H Delegate to Attend Teenage Nutrition Conference
Elaine Sims, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sims, has been selected as one of the 12 4-H delegates to attend the Teenage Nutrition Conference in Atlanta, February 2-3. Representatives from many youth groups and organizations will be meeting together to discuss and make plans for Nutrition programs involving youth in our state. Elaine will bring back information from this meeting which will be shared with 4-H Clubs in our County. She will also assist in co-ordinating a 4-H Nutrition Camp next summer.

CLUB CALVES
Allen Arnold and his sister weigh steer he plans to show in March Beef Cattle Show. The club calves look real good this year but boys and girls have a lot of work to do before March 21st. The main question being asked now is how much will my calf sell for at the show and sale. Calves cost more when they were bought this time and feed cost has gone up so members realize they have a good bit more invested this year than past years. Everyone is looking forward to having a good show this year.

County Council To Meet
The 4-H County Council will meet on February 6, 7:30-9:00 p.m. at Lowndes High School. A film will be shown, "Challenge for Tomorrow" and upcoming 4-H events discussed. All officers are encouraged to attend and other members are also invited. Please note change in meeting place.

Cloverleaf County Project Achievement Set For February 10, 1973
All 5th-6th grade 4-H members are reminded that County Project Achievement for February 10, 1973, 9:00 a.m. at Lowndes High School.

Each Cloverleaf 4-H'er who would like to enter should prepare and present a 3-6 minute demonstration on a 4-H project. First place winners selected in each project will win a trip to District Project Achievement, March 17, in Tifton.

Information was given out at each club meeting in January on this event, but any 4-H member who has a question or would like further suggestions is encouraged to call us at 242-1536.

LEGAL NOTICE
General Telephone Company of the Southeast has filed an application with the Georgia Public Service Commission for authority to issue and sell at par value of $25 per share three hundred, forty-two thousand (342,000) shares of its Common Stock for a cash consideration of $8,550,000 and to sell twenty-five million dollars ($25,000,000) of First Mortgage Bonds at competitive bidding and to apply the proceeds thereof to repay short-term loans and for other purposes.

According to the application, the Common Stock proposed for issuance will be sold to General Telephone and Electronics Corporation, the holder of all of the presently issued and outstanding Common Stock of General Telephone Company of the Southeast, for a cash consideration of $8,550,000. The application further sets forth that the Bonds proposed for issuance will be sold at competitive bidding at a proposed maximum offering price of 102 percent per unit and will bear interest at a rate which will result in the lowest annual cost of money to the Applicant.

This matter has been assigned for public hearing before the Commission beginning at 10:00 a.m. on Wednesday, February 14, 1973, in the Commission's Hearing Room, 177 State Office Building, 244 Washington Street, S. W., Atlanta, Georgia, at which time anyone interested in this matter will be given an opportunity of expressing his views.

This Notice is published at the direction of the Georgia Public Service Commission.
