Dedication to the State of Georgia

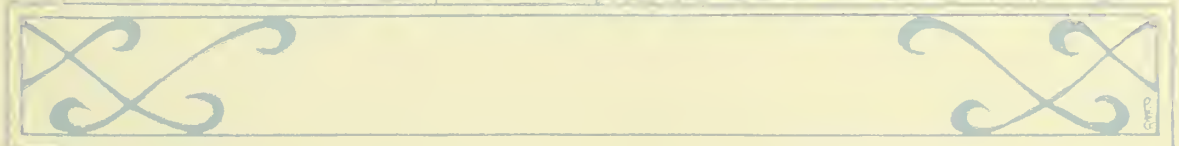

The Class of 1930 wish to give further emphasis to a tribute paid to their Alma Mater by the late Chancellor Barrow that the Georgia State Womans College is "Georgia's fairest gift to her daughters" which we prefer to interpret as an Anglo-Saxon heritage.

By the strength of every thigh
That touched a spindle,
By the birth of all men's hopes
That live or dwindle,
We all
Call;
By every yard of silk
Falling from a knee,
By every axe of battle
Making knowledge free,
We call
All;
Upon the faint horizon
Of all receding past,
And constant revolution
Making first the last,
To witness this, . . .
O giver of laws and bread
By whose giving
We are fed, . . .
That we
Dedicate this script to thee!

Foreword

Vear by year our daughters are thankful
For the gift of a heritage to them,
For the shining courage of Celts,
And the glory of Angle and Saxon.
No more lovely pearl in the hair,
No braver sword in the scabbard;
More beautiful gold in the blood
Than gold that is beaten.
Regal in massive halls
Is a woman of queenly tradition,
In her hand is the cup of the State,
And we are her daughters.
Kind administering mother,
We growing seed of the Saxon
Drink the mead of the great
With the full white loaves of your leaven;
We are the heirs of the dead
Fed by the food of the living.

Largesse, Liege,
A stool by thy herthe,
Largesse, a boon,
And a share of thy wirth,
That from a cold sea
No weird may ever
Us from thee
And peace dissever.
Then let-be winds
Forever howling,
And let-be ghosts
Forever prowling,

Dead are thy foes
Sword silenced ever,
Vanquished they
And still forever.
Proud are thy stones
Where love is the mortar;
Open thy doors
Where peace is the porter.
Largesse, Liege,
That no weird may ever
Us from thee
And peace dissever!

But for your gifts
Our kindly mother,
We would sterve
As any other;
But for thy aid
We faint y-wis
Such sufficient
Food is this.
There is an herb,
Highte Thyme,
But not as potent
Name as thine;

The fame of magic Feverfew
Is not equal
To thy due.
But for your gifts,
Our kindly mother,
We would sterve
As any other;
Gratefully
And willing free
We are ever
Churl to thee!

The President's Greeting

From time to time characteristic and catching phrases about the College have been coined and have entered the life of the institution somewhat as slogans. One cold day during the first week of the school, the bookkeeper hung on his door a sign "Don't knock, push." The phrase was taken up by the students and served an excellent purpose in formulating permanently the spirit of the College. Someone else coined the phrase to describe the College, "The right kind of a college for the right kind of a girl". But of all the phrases that have entered into the life and growth of the institution none perhaps has sunk so deeply, or expressed so happily the relation of the school to the commonwealth and of the commonwealth to the school as one coined many years ago by Chancellor Barrow,—“Georgia's fairest gift to her daughters”. It is with a distinct sense of pleasure that I learn that the editors of the PINE CONE have selected this phrase as the keynote of the present annual; for I am sure the annual will be a true evidence of the effect of the spirit of this phrase in the life of the College.

Those in flowing
Robes of scarlet
Mingle here
With churl and varlet;
Alderfirst,
With alderlast,
Everyone
May break his fast.
The master carving
Neat and fairly,
Maidens waiting
Debonairly:

Lenten days
Have ceased to be,
These new days
Are full and free.
Here is mead
And gay franchise;
Here strength is good
And song is wise
Where those in flowing
Robes of scarlet
Mingle with
The churl and varlet!

My dress is cut of fine samite,
My wimple neatly folded,
My hair is yellow, twined with gold,
And my limbs are fairly moulded.
I sit in state upon my throne,
Wisest, comeliest to the eye,
Most benignant, always kind,
First in rank, then who am I?

Sororian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Treasurer Valdosta Club, '26-'27; Associate Editor-in-Chief PINE BRANCH, '28-'29; President Senior Class, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; Honor Roll, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

Catherine, an outstanding student, combines brains with beauty, and yet she lets neither affect her. She was especially busy on the campus when she was looking for flowers for the feature section. Catherine never forgets us at class meetings or chapel.

EMILY TILLMAN
A.B., English
 Valdosta, Georgia

Entered, '29; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Treasurer Senior Class, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Emily came to us in the spring of '29 and has proved a worthy member of our class. As treasurer of the class of '30 she has managed the finances with much skill. Emily is always ready to offer constructive suggestions to further the activities of the class.

Seniors

MARY ALEXANDER
A.B., Music
 Nashville, Georgia

Secretary-Treasurer, Philharmonic Club, '26-'27; Secretary-Treasurer Sororian Literary Society, '27-'28; Vice-President Philharmonic Club, '27-'28; Vice-President Junior Class, '28-'29; Vice-President Sororian Literary Society, '28-'29; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Sororian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Philharmonic Club; President's Club, '29-'30; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '28-'29; President of Student Government Association, '29-'30; S. G. A.

The student body has recognized Mary as a representative of G. S. W. C. Her size does not make her less capable, for, as Student Government President this year, she has proved a most efficient officer. She wields the English language and snappy comebacks as fast as she moves her fingers when she plays Balade in A-flat.

OLA BARBER
A.B., Art
 Valdosta, Georgia

Sororian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; S. G. A.

Ola is always with us in our struggles — backing us to the limit. She is a diligent student and conscientious in her work, taking everything she reads seriously. Her place in the library is well known and she is generous in giving us information on current topics.

"Here, if you want to read something interesting!"

Seniors

EVELYN BLANTON
A.B., Home Economics
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Glee Club, '27-'28; Fine Arts Club; Secretary-Treasurer Fine Arts Club, '29-'30; Home Economics Club; President Home Economics Club, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.

At the second table on the left as one enters the library is to be found our Evelyn Blanton—an earnest and efficient worker. In her quiet, unassuming manner, she has been a leader in Home Economics, and has done much for the art work of the Annual.

MARY KATE BURROWS
A.B., English
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Sororian Literary Society, '26-'27, '27-'28; Fine Arts Club; President Fine Arts Club, '28-'29; Presidents' Club, '28-'29; International Relations Club, '28-'29; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

We could not do without Mary Kate; that is a recognized fact. She can do anything well from discoursing on her philosophy of life to writing short stories and poetry which have found a ready place in the PINE BRANCH. By her literary and art work she has done much to make our Annual a success.

Seniors

NELL CROCKER
A.B., Home Economics
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Sororian Literary Society; Valdosta Club; Home Economics Club; Secretary Home Economics Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Nell has shared the fortunes of our class for four years. She is quiet, amiable, and friendly. Each year she has learned how to make a finer sauce, and has made one yard of cloth serve for two. She has had much practice in carrying out her Home Economic principles.

EVELYN DEARISO
A.B., Latin
 Sylvester, Georgia

Y. W. C. A.; Sororian Literary Society, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Vice-President Sock and Buskin Club, '28-'29; PINE BRANCH Staff, '28-'29; Recording Secretary Alumnae Association, '29-'30; Senior Council Representative, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Evelyn in an unassuming way is our wittiest Senior. Every object that her eye catches, her wit turns to jest. She spends much of her time with books. We can't say she studies them all, for she is too busy giving them to the other students.

"Well, you know, it's just like this."

Seniors

MRS. W. W. EVERETT
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Entered, '29; Fine Arts Club, '29-'30; Honor Roll, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Mrs. Everett is the newest member of the class of '30, but in a year she has shown herself closely allied to the class interest. Mrs. Everett has had a varied college career, coming to us from Duke University and Wesleyan. Another's loss is our gain.

LILLIAN EXUM
A.B., Home Economics
 Walstonburg, N. C.

Y. W. C. A.; Sororian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Home Economics Club; Vice-President Home Economics Club, '29-'30; Sophomore Play, '28; Athletic Cup, '29; PINE BRANCH Staff, '28-'29; Sock and Buskin Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

Exum, coming to us from North Carolina, is the friendliest girl of our student group and also our happiest Senior. We wonder what Exum's secret is, and we hope to have acquired some of it unconsciously by association. Whether we have or not we cannot say, but at least she will not be forgotten.

Seniors

LOUISE FORBES
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Sororian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Athletic Numerical, '28; Producing Staff Sophomore Play, '28; Associate Editor-in-Chief, PINE BRANCH, '27-'28; Editor-in-Chief PINE BRANCH, '28-'29; Honor Roll, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30; S. G. A.; Editor-in-Chief PINE CONE, '29-'30.

Louise is one of the girls who enables the faculty to raise standards. We fear for the advisability of raising standards when she leaves. To have the title of being a good student is valued above everything else in College. We appeal to the ones who have been there and know.

DOROTHY HARPER
A.B., English
 Ocilla, Georgia

Entered, '27; Valdosta Club; Sororian Literary Society; Inter-Society Debater, '29; President Sororian Literary Society, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Athletic Cup, '29; Honor Roll, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30; S. G. A.; Business Manager PINE CONE, '29-'30.

Dorothy is one of the wheels that makes the machine run, and she has the characteristic of never being out of order. It is a good thing to be dependable; Dorothy is. But that is not all, she is wise, and she has understanding.

Seniors

LOUISE HOLCOMBE
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Sororian Literary Society; Valdosta Club; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; President Junior Class, '28-'29; Presidents' Club, '28-'29; International Relations Club; S. G. A.

"Slue," as she is known to her best friends, has made her mark at G. S. W. C. during the four years of her sojourn on the campus. Wherever she goes she takes music with her. She is ever ready to make others come and trip it as they go "on the light fantastic toe."

"Well, sir, how 'bout that?"

MARIAN LAING
A.B., Education
 Glennville, Georgia

Sororian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Sock and Buskin Club; Student Recorder of Points, '28-'29; Y. W. C. A.; Chairman Bible Study Y. W. C. A., '28-'29; Religious Chairman Y. W. C. A., '29-'30; Vice-President Y. W. C. A., '29-'30; Blue Ridge Delegate, '28-'29; S. G. A.

Marian's tall, graceful figure has distinguished her among the Seniors as a most unusual girl. Her enthusiasm in Y. W. C. A. work has placed her in the responsible position of religious chairman of the organization, and no pageant on the campus would be complete without some part successfully impersonated by Marian.

LOUISE LASTINGER
A.B., English
 Valdosta, Georgia

Entered, '28; Sock and Buskin Club, '28-'29, '29-'30; President Sock and Buskin Club, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; Phi Lambda Athletic Association, '28-'29, '29-'30; Honor Roll, '28-'29, '29-'30; S. G. A.

The first we knew of Louise was in the fall of '28. She is almost too busy to attend school, especially every class, but in spite of her outside activities, Louise has made a good student. She has distinguished herself in dramatic club work, being President of the Sock and Buskin Club, '29-'30.

DOROTHY ARNOLD LILE
A.B., Education
 New Philadelphia, Ohio

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Vice-President Valdosta Club, '29-'30; Sororian Literary Society; President Sororian Literary Society, '28-'29; Presidents' Club, '28-'29; Sock and Buskin Club; PINE BRANCH Staff, '27-'28; International Relations Club, '29-'30; Honor Roll, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

Dot proved a wonderful addition to our class when she came to us from Ohio four years ago. As a foremost volleyball player she has brought glory to the red and white of the Kappas. As our advertising manager, she has learned how many times to approach hard-boiled business men.

"We had more fun than a circus."

Seniors

KATHLEEN LITTLE
A.B., English
 Ocilla, Georgia

Entered, '29; Sock and Buskin Club, '29-'30; Phi Kappa Athletic Association, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Kathleen, coming to us in our last year, has been a charming addition to our class. We have been glad to have her with us! Kathleen, in her quiet but efficient manner, has taken an active interest in dramatic work.

"Well—let me give you an example."

JULIA MAYE MURRAY
A.B., English
 Waycross, Georgia

Argonian Literary Society; Fine Arts Club; Phi Lambda Athletic Association, '27-'28, '28-'29; Philharmonic Club, '27-'28, '28-'29; Chairman Program Committee Philharmonic Club, '28-'29; S. G. A.; Art Committee PINE CONE, '29-'30.

Julia Maye has the amazing ability of doing one thing at a time well. Everyone knows this makes a good sum total. Often naive and always interesting, she makes an important member of our class. It is said that to know a person is to like her.

Seniors

RUTH NORMAN
A.B., History
 Norman Park, Georgia

Y. W. C. A.; Sororian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Cheer Leader Phi Kappa Athletic Association, '26-'27; Glee Club, '27-'28, '28-'29, '29-'30; Song Leader Sophomore Class, '27-'28; Song Leader Senior Class, '29-'30; International Relations Club, '29-'30.

A typical blonde! It is to be remembered that gentlemen prefer blondes! Ruth is one of our Seniors who never lets her books interfere with her education. Clowning and carefreeness are Ruth's chief characteristics, yet Southern charm was never better exemplified than in her personality.

CAROLINE PARRISH
A.B., English
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Sororian Literary Society; Secretary-Treasurer Sororian Literary Society, '28-'29; Inter-Society Debater, '28-'29; Chairman Program Committee Sororian Literary Society, '27-'28; Sock and Buskin Club; President Sock and Buskin Club, '28-'29; Sophomore Play, '28; Presidents' Club, '28-'29; Secretary-Treasurer Alumnæ Association, '29-'30; Honor Roll, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29.

Caroline, our cutest Senior, is not only cute. She has plenty of sense—not the kind stored away for future use, but the kind she uses now. Although Caroline is one of the most business-like students on the campus, she is never too busy to be one of the most likeable.

"I just wanted to say—of course I don't know—but I think—"

Seniors

NANNIE POPE
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Valdosta Club; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Sororian Literary Society, '28-'29, '29-'30; Inter-Society Debater, '29-'30; International Relations Club; Chairman Program Committee International Relations Club, '28-'29; President International Relations Club, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.

While other girls are tooting their own horns and telling what they can do, Nan is getting things done. She overcomes all difficulties in a quiet manner—relieving many situations by her characteristic dry wit. With her major interest in history she has made an excellent President for the International Relations Club.

KATHRYN SAWYER
A.B., English
 Albany, Georgia

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Y. W. C. A.; Sororian Literary Society; Sock and Buskin Club; Vice-President Sock and Buskin Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

Kathryn has made a perfect man since she became a member of the Sock and Buskin Club. Besides her impersonation of men in her dramatic club work, she has always pleased us with some unexpected dance at an entertainment—from being a gypsy dancer to that of a policeman.

Seniors

CHESLY BOSTWICK SHARPE
A.B., English
 Vidalia, Georgia

Argonian Literary Society, '28-'29, '29-'30; Y. W. C. A., '28-'29, '29-'30; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '29-'30; Valdosta Club, '28-'29, '29-'30; Phi Kappa Athletic Association, '29-'30; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

C. B. has won many friends by her quiet, conscientious manner. One can always turn to her for help, for she is always dependable and willing to do her part—a trait noble and rare. In fact, she is our most dependable Senior—a loyal student who is appreciated by the class.

HAZEL TAYLOR
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; International Relations Club, '28-'29, '29-'30; Valdosta Club; President Valdosta Club, '29-'30; Presidents' Club, '29-'30; S. G. A.

Hazel has become known through her many friends made in the Training School where she lends a willing hand at all times. Her interest promises to make her an outstanding teacher. This year she is busy leading the Valdosta Club along the road to success.

"Hey, Dot! Where are you going?"

Seniors

MYRTLE VICK
A.B., Chemistry
 Hartsfield, Georgia

Sororian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; Y. W. C. A. G. A., '29-'30; S. G. A.

For two years "Vick" was our most athletic girl—so athletically inclined that most of us thought all she could do was kick soccer balls, hit baseballs, and intercept basket-balls. But we have learned that she likes science, can even cook, and is wide awake in her education courses.

LUCILE WOOD
A.B., Education
 Valdosta, Georgia

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Glee Club, '28-'29; Sororian Literary Society, '26-'27, '27-'28, '28-'29; S. G. A.; PINE CONE Staff, '29-'30.

Lucile, the last person on the class roll, is by no means the least, for she is active in the class work. This year she has been many times seen with a contract book assuring the tired business man that he could do no better advertising than in the PINE CONE.

"I just haven't had time yet."

I am the youngest in this house,
And I must bide my time.
I cook and serve and dust, withal
My dress is not so fine,
I have not age or learning,
But I hope for better fame;
This my plight, and this my hope,
Now you can guess my name?

Wanhope, we will
Have naught of thee
Of peril high
Nor vilanye,
As long as joy
May have a reason,
As long as youth
May be in season;
While Soothfastness
Will lead the nose of grief,
Wanhope may pipe
An ivy leaf.

We play the harp,
We dance the pole,
We'll chase the mongrel
To his hole.
So hail, wassail!
And apples red and rare,
Hail, wassail!
And merry cheer to spare,
While Soothfastness
Leads the nose of grief,
Wanhope goes piping
In an ivy leaf!

CAMPUS LIFE

HERE AND THERE

Scenes at Random

etc.

Our castle lies
Upon a hill
For those who can
Or those who will.
Around its base
In a moat of dew,
Forget-me-nots are flowing
Of newest blue;
The palisades of poppies
Are galant, free,
When the donjon rises
In an almond tree.

Some flowers fade
Weclaway, alas,
That any rose
Should ever pass.
But these reddest roses,
Ever being bled
For beauty's kindly sake,
Are never dead.
This castle lies
(Or lies not)
Upon a hill
For those who can
Or those who will.

As the minstrel plays
Upon his rote
The maiden's praise
In every note,
So the miller must grind
His meal, pardee;
And a sailor must sail
His ship at sea;
And the lettered monk
Shall toil and write
In holy-writ
By candle-light.

As a lover deals
In flowerettes
And sweetly mouen
Amorettes;
So every poet
Lives to write,
And every fighter
Lives to fight.
As every jester
Lives by punning,
So each man does
His special cunning.

Organizations

Presidents' Club

The Presidents' Club, a new organization now advancing upon its second year of existence, has supplied a long felt need on the campus, the need of having an organization through which every club on the campus may be reached and brought into closer harmony with campus activities. The club meets once a month and discusses the ways and means of each organization, bringing out by contrast and comparison the best means of handling club activities. When a new movement is to be presented to the campus, it is first presented to the Presidents' Club for a hearing.

Student Government Association

MARY ALEXANDER
President

The S. G. A. is by far the most influential association on the campus,—it may be added in the later life of the students. This organization has for its purpose the promotion of the highest standards of honor and integrity in all matters of personal conduct and the strengthening of cordial relations between the faculty and students. After a brief training course in which the handbook of the association is studied, every student of the College becomes a bona fide member upon the signing of a pledge.

Student Government Association

The Court functions in the maintenance of discipline among the students. It emphasizes fairness and personal responsibility in the performance of its duty. The four class presidents together with the President of the S. G. A. form the judicial body. The Council, a deliberating body composed of representatives from the student body and faculty, has charge of all serious disciplinary problems, and solves all the serious problems of administration for the S. G. A.

Pine Cone

LOUISE FORBES
Editor-in-Chief

The PINE CONE—a review of the year 1929-30 spent by the students—is the yearbook published by the Senior Class. The activities as well as the name of the Annual are taken directly from the College campus. The PINE CONE Staff of 1930, with an outstanding aim and ideal, has attempted to give to the student what she hopes and expects to receive—something specific and concrete to which in later years she can turn, glance over the pages, forget time and space, and live again those pleasant memories which were once real at her Alma Mater.

Pine Cone

The season has come at last and now the fruit is ripe—not the fruit of the pine tree but the PINE CONE, the fruitage of G. S. W. C. For three successive years the PINE CONE has received First Honor rating and last year an even greater rating—the All-American Honor rating. This year the staff has worked conscientiously to make this fruit win more honor.

Editor-in-Chief

The PINE BRANCH is the monthly publication on the campus. It is directed by the editor elected by the student body, and the staff selected by the editor. The chief aim is to serve as an expression of the literary phase of our College life, and to reflect the accomplishments of the students in literary courses. In addition to the literary efforts of the students, the PINE BRANCH publishes news of general interest to the students, news of each organization existent on the campus, and the work of the Alumnae.

The PINE BRANCH has been in existence for many years,—almost as long as the College itself. At first only a small news sheet with the circulation confined to the small number of students, it has developed into a magazine with real literary flavor and valued accomplishment. Furthermore in proportion as the publication itself has increased in worth, the circulation has grown; beginning with less than one hundred copies, it has increased to three thousand copies per month.

Argonian Literary Society

MARGARET JENNINGS
President

"Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you" is the motto of the Argonian Literary Society. All students who graduate in the odd years are eligible for membership. The purpose of the organization is to create and develop an active interest in worthwhile literature. Each year a unit of study is selected and organized which will develop and uphold a high standard in literary art. During the year 1929-30 a series of programs and exhibits on American art and literature were presented which added much to the cultural atmosphere of the college.

MARGUERITE LANGDALE Vice-President
EVELYN N. BLANTON Secretary

Argonian Literary Society

In addition to the regularly systematized course of study, the Literary Society engages in several annual affairs, one of which is the Valentine Party at which the two Societies are joint hostesses. The Inter-Society Debate is another annual event which arouses much interest and spirit among the members of the Society. A subject of timely interest is chosen for the debate. The debaters are selected after a series of preliminary debates within the Society.

“Building for Character, not for Fame,” is the motto of the Sororian Literary Society, which consists of those who graduate in the even years. The purpose of attaining high standards and ideals in literary art is maintained through readings, essays, debates, plays, and reviews, all organized into a systematic course of study. For the year 1929-30 the programs were centered around American art and literature with especial emphasis upon Southern writers and artists of note.

At the beginning of each scholastic year, the Literary Societies strive in friendly rivalry for the possession of the handsome silver loving cup offered by the PINE BRANCH during its annual subscription drive. This past year, 1929-30, the Sororians succeeded in securing the cup which has been in possession of the Argonians for several years. The Literary Societies, in addition to their study of literary art, bring the sister classes into closer understanding, and at the same time sponsor a spirit of sportsmanlike rivalry.

ΦΚ LOVER OF THE BEAUTIFUL

The Phi Kappa Athletic Association and the Phi Lambda Athletic Association are more than sisters. They are twins—the kind that bears a striking resemblance to each other. They love one another with the result that they play together in a friendly way. They not only promote an effort for physical attainment, and stimulate an interest in games and all forms of athletics, but they also encourage a spirit for good sportsmanship and a growth of high ideals together with a co-operation of the other campus organizations to promote and maintain the highest standards of the college. The keen, friendly, wholesome rivalry which exists between the two Associations is seen in their competition in American Ball, Volley-Ball, Soccer, Tennis, and Basketball Goal Tournaments. It is always hard to foretell a winner—the teams are so evenly matched.

- GRACE CHASTAIN Vice-President
DELIA BONNER Secretary-Treasurer

Phi Lambda Athletic Association

Φ Λ A LOVER OF WISDOM

The Phi Lambda Association with its twin the Phi Kappa Association, at the beginning of each year, has a joint party for the purpose of issuing bids to the girls who have not become members. During the first few weeks of school the new girls can be heard wondering, "What will I be—a Kappa or a Lambda?" Few of them dare to say which they had rather be, and when they receive their bids they immediately begin to boost their association. After becoming a member, each one works for her association, at the same time working for individual points, whereby the athletic numerals, letters, and Honor Loving Cup may be won. Points are given for athletic ability and achievement, athletic interest and sportsmanship, participation and leadership, and health.

Both associations strive for the Plaque awarded to the association winning the most points during the year. The associations differ only in their names, Phi Kappa meaning a lover of the beautiful, and Phi Lambda—lover of wisdom.

Alumnae Association

EDITH PATTERSON
President

The Alumnae Association is the largest organization on the campus. Its most worthwhile purpose is to keep the former students of the college in close contact with the College activities, and with each other. All students, who have been the recipients of a diploma or a degree, are eligible for membership. The organization, although its members are for the most part widely scattered, is most active. Every month the Alumnae Association makes a contribution to the PINE BRANCH. Letters concerning the activities of the College are sent out by the officers of the organization, and the students of the College are kept in touch with the alumnae. Although the College is visited throughout the year by various former students, the Alumnae Banquet held at Commencement is the official homecoming of the Alumnae. At this banquet the newcomers are greeted by the old.

International Relations Club

The International Relations Club, affiliated with the National Carnegie Foundation, has for its purpose the creation of a friendly feeling and understanding of the nations of the world. The Carnegie Foundation sends yearly one speaker who has a wide contact with the world. This year, Sir Herbert Brown Ames, formerly a member of the Canadian Parliament, and for seven years Financial Director of the League of Nations, gave a series of lectures, describing the Peace Conference, the establishment of the League of Nations, and the accomplishments of the League during its ten years existence. Such is the type of valuable information the International Relations Club strives to incorporate into college life.

Philharmonic Club

JOYCE ROBERSON
President

The Philharmonic Club, composed of the members of the Music Department, is held in high esteem on the campus. It derives its importance chiefly from the benefits that the College receives through the musical programs that the club sponsors during the year. In the year 1929-30 the club sponsored Lee Pattison, the well known pianist, in concert; the Schultz quartet; and the Russian Symphonic Choir,—all of which were of excellent musical value and highly enjoyable to the true music lovers of the College and of Valdosta.

LAVANNE WATSON Secretary-Treasurer
MISS GLADYS E. WARREN Faculty Adviser

Glee Club

The G. S. W. C. Glee Club, composed of those students who are interested in singing, has always taken a great part in the College activities, including Thanksgiving, Christmas Festival, Commencement, and appearances at Civic banquets. The aim of the club is to put on some worthwhile program, either an operetta or a concert during the year at a local theatre. This year a regular concert program with an added feature of dancing was given. Among the features of the social calendar for the year was a welcome party for the new members and a picnic in the Spring.

Fine Arts Club

PAULINE GRIFFIN
President

One of the most interesting organizations of the campus is the Fine Arts Club. It is an outgrowth of the Art department, and closely allied to it. The primary aim of the club is to furnish an opportunity for those interested in art to study and discuss the actual construction of different phrases of art in a systematic and authentic manner. The basis of the program for the year 1929-30 was the study and actual manufacture of decorative masks. The members of the club are selected from those most interested in art. The club exists not only for the benefit and enjoyment of the individuals, but of the entire campus group. Each year the club sponsors exhibits of Modern Art, Soap-Sculpturing, pottery, and the like, which are cultural and educational.

MARGARET PARRISH Vice-President

EVELYN BLANTON Secretary-Treasurer

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin Club is an organization which concerns itself, as the name indicates, with comedy and tragedy in dramatic art. Tryouts for which any student is eligible are held semi-annually by the Expression Department. The students who pass the tryouts successfully become active members of the club. Throughout the year, the club, in addition to its regular course of study in the one-act play, presents productions to the public. These public performances, which contain for the most part productions of real merit and of current interest, are accorded an enthusiastic response on the campus. In fact the entire student body is proud that the purpose of the Sock and Buskin Club is akin to that of the Little Theatre Movement, the creation and maintenance of a National Drama.

HAZEL TAYLOR
President

The Valdosta Club of G. S. W. C. is, as its name indicates, a club of the day students of the College. The purpose of this organization is to keep the day students in close harmony with the College activities and to conserve the strength of the group for the College. The membership of the club is limited in order to secure a more active group. Semi-annually members are selected by vote of the club from the eligible day students to fill out the prescribed quota. The social life of the College is emphasized by the club. It sponsors many social affairs, monthly luncheons, manless dances, and every spring the club entertains the Senior Class of the Valdosta High School at a banquet.

The Home Economics Club is affiliated with the State and American Home Economics Associations. The purpose of this organization is to stimulate and interest the students in the different phases of Home Economics. At the beginning of the year a series of programs were prepared which included a study of the past and present leaders in the field of Home Economics. As a practical demonstration of the principles studied a tea room was periodically conducted during the year.

MODERN AS YOUTH ITSELF!

Within the space of a score of years, the scope of Southwestern Engraving Company has increased from the parent plant in Fort Worth to an organization of nine plants.

Pioneering the field in the introduction of modernistic art, a personal service bureau composed of former college annual editors and managers, the budget and dummy system, and field service men, the name "Southwestern" has become synonymous with art motifs that are distinctive, an understanding, helpful service, and printing plates that "print right."

Many new staffs turn each year to SWECO'S corps of artists, personalized service, and engraving technicians for fresh ideas, newer layouts, and modern methods in year book production.

FORWARD

Today's perfection is beyond the one of past years-- behind the one of years to come.

With study and experiment, maintenance of proven processes, vigilance in sales, service and manufacture, we are seeking an Ideal--an Ideal that we move ahead with the progress of our industry.

Thirty years' experience in Annual printing and binding is our background. Our restless urge is ever FORWARD.
