75 Cadogan Square
S.W.
July 3/95.

My dear Sir Edwin Arnold,
If you should happen to be disengaged, will you kindly give my daughters & me the pleasure of your company at lunch at 1.30 tomorrow, Wednesday, July 4.th
He has got the eloquent & poetic Bishop of Derry & his wife, who has written some fine hymns — also Palgrave, the Professor of Poetry, & Lady Gregory, the widow of the late Sir W. Gregory — a clever woman, — also Lord & Lady Colchester. To you

w. be with some better poets, though none of them has written any thing to be compared to "The Light of Asia."

Ever Yrs

G. J. Bowen
