Valdosta Area Show

Reserve Champion from Hahira

$600.00 a month savings here

General Telephone rate ordered cut

The state Public Service Commission (PSC) has order General Telephone Co. to trim some $679,000 from a $4.1 million rate increase it was granted last January by Fulton Superior Court.

Hahira City officials voiced their opinions at the rate hearings last month. When learning of the latest PSC decision, Mayor Gene Webb said, "We didn't get all we ask for in Atlanta, for instance the EAS service to Valdosta, but we were instrumental in helping get the rates cut back. This should be a savings to the Hahira community of $600.00 per month or $7000.00 per year."

In recent hearings before the PSC, General Telephone said the $4.1 million annual rate hike was not enough and it actually needed another $2.6 million to meet its "financial requirements" statewide.

However, the PSC's action Tuesday directed that the rate reduction for General Telephone be retroactive to last Jan. 12. It was on this date that Fulton Superior Court Judge Jack Etheridge permitted the company to put new rates into effect pending a show-cause hearing before the commission.

Approving the rate reduction was the entire PSC membership consisting of Ben T. Wiggins, chairman, Bobby Pafford, W. H. Kimbrough, Ford B. Spinks and Mac Barber.

Because of the effective date, some rate refunds will be required by General Telephone, according to a PSC staff members.

The PSC will decide later how to schedule the refunds to either or both residential and commercial customers after "price-out" data is submitted by General Telephone, said a commission accounting specialist.

General Telephone is second to Southern Bell in the number of customers served in Georgia.

The Reserve Champion of the 32nd Valdosta Area Beef Cattle Show and Sale was an Angus Limousine and it sold for a "limousine" price too - $1.27 per pound, $.22 higher than last year. The steer was bought by the First National Bank of Valdosta.

The proud owner of the 975 pound steer was Hahira 4-H member Ricky Flynt, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Flynt of Rt. 2, Hahira.

This was Ricky's second time in the Valdosta Show.

It was Lanier County, though, that took the 32nd Annual Valdosta Area Beef Cattle Show yesterday (Wednesday) when the judge picked 13-year-old Donnie Patten's Hereford-Angus cross steer as the Grand Champion of the show.

The young FFA'er's steer was the best of the 59 entries in the three-county area of Lowndes, Echols and Lanier.

Last night this same steer sold at the sale for the record price of $1.51 per pound. The steer weighing in at 1065 pounds was purchased by the Farmers and Merchants Bank of Lakeland.

Donnie won $50 prize money for champion and $50 prize money from Flynt River Mills in addition to ribbons and trophies.

Best in Showmanship went to Lowndes County FFA'er Marvin Chapman. His 720 pound steer sold for $.70 per pound.

The D. K. Hollis, Sr. Memorial Award went to Varina Zipperer for the best heifer. She received a trophy and $25.00. A second place prize of $25.00 went to Gilbert Zipperer. This award is made by D. K. Hollis, Jr. in memory of his father, who was a charter member of the committee sponsoring the Original Youth Cattle Show.

The Valdosta show is open only to FFA and 4-H members from the three-county area.

The show began at 10:00 a.m. and the selection of Grand Champion came at 12:30. The sale was last night at 7:30.

The animals were shown in three classes, light, medium and heavy on an open-breed basis.

Designed to promote quality beef raising in South Georgia, the show was originally sponsored by the Valdosta-Lowndes County Chamber of Commerce as the Valdosta Fat Cattle Show. In later years judges decided that fat was not necessarily a prerequisite for having a good animal so the name of the show was changed and now the livestock association sponsors it instead of the Chamber of Commerce.

your week ahead

BY DR. A.W. DAMIS

ARIES
 Mar. 21 - Apr. 19

Your chart shows a possible provocation. More than likely, there will be a conflict of interests between you and a relative, business associate or member of the opposite sex.

TAURUS
 Apr. 20 - May 20

Excellent stellar patterns are forming for members of your sign. Employment or business ventures look good. Actually, the economical area of your life should soar upward.

GEMINI
 May 21 - June 20

This week's cosmic cycle might trigger a chronic problem. Meaning? You will be confronted with a decision that cannot be postponed, any longer.

MOONCHILD
 June 21 - July 22

This happens to be the one period, during the year, when you must guard against gossip, absolutely. Otherwise, there's a possibility of legal involvement.

LEO
 July 23 - Aug. 22

Listen well. Avoid giving advice to an associate who has become confused by a member of the other sex. Bluntly, you'll have your own problems to solve.

VIRGO
 Aug. 23 - Sept. 22

Affairs of the heart look good... too good, in fact. It seems as though, this week, romantic overtures will have strings attached.

LIBRA
 Sept. 23 - Oct. 22

A bad case of wanderlust; the grass looks greener on the other side, will affect most members of your sign. So, see that you stay in bounds.

SCORPIO
 Oct. 23 - Nov. 21

It's been a long time coming, but, suddenly it's here - problems with the opposite sex. Keep a check rein on those explosive emotions. You might do things that good taste doesn't permit.

SAGITTARIUS
 Nov. 22 - Dec. 21

Don't leap to conclusions about what you will hear about someone... who is a better friend than you believe them to be. Half truths and rumors are heading your way.

CAPRICORN
 Dec. 22 - Jan. 19

Your going to be a winner, this week. The point? Don't rest on your laurels, Capricorn. Keep going full speed ahead!

AQUARIUS
 Jan. 20 - Feb. 18

You face a "bitter sweet" event that will affect the social department of your life. In other words, a disappointment is, in reality, good fortune in a strange package.

PISCES
 Feb. 19 - Mar. 20

It might not seem important, but, most members of your sign have neglected a minor repair that will parlay into a major expense.

About your Social Security

Area residents who waited too late to enroll for Supplementary Medical Insurance coverage now have a new chance to obtain this important protection. The Social Security law had required that an individual enroll for this part of Medicare during his individual enrollment period or during a general enrollment period that begins no later than 3 years after the end of his individual enrollment period. This meant that he had about 3 years after age 65 to enroll for this part of Medicare or he could not obtain this coverage at all. The new law eliminates this time limitation. Now an individual may enroll during any prescribed enrollment period. There is a General Enrollment Period during the first 3 months of each year. This means that those eligible persons who previously chose not to take Supplementary Medical Inurance coverage may now enroll during January, February, or March of 1973. Their coverage would begin in July 1973. It is important to enroll as soon as possible. The longer a person waits, the higher his premium will be. Premium is increased 10 percent for each 12 months of delay between the time he has enrolled and actually enrolls.

I REMEMBER

From John J. Kling, Eatontown, NJ: When I was a boy I eagerly looked forward to a Saturday afternoon at the local theatre and the latest thrilling episode of the current serial. I remember in these serials all heroes were tall and silent with curly hair and broad shoulders. All heroines were blonde, shy creatures, with snapping eyelashes and fully dependent on the character and strength of the hero. A must was an old professor who had invented some kind of device or formula, that if ever in the hands of the villain would probably mean the end of the world. The villain also fit the established pattern. He had to be dark and have a small black mustache. He always hated the hero with a passion and showed it by his sneers and gestures. His life's work was to get the professor's device and formula and then turn it over to a foreign power.

Boy Scout News

The top officer of the Boy Scouts of America in this area will head a group of BSA leaders who will attend the National Council annual meeting in May in Minneapolis.

One of the major features of the annual meeting program, Chisholm said, will be a report on the achievements of BoyPower '76, the 200th anniversary of the United States.

Dr. Lewis F. Chisholm of Homerville, who is president of the Alapaha Council, expects that at least ten persons will attend the national meeting from here.

"In order to get the latest information and know-how for the benefit of our 2700 members, our delegation will be involved in a variety of learning meetings during the 3 days we're in Minneapolis," Chisholm said.

The Alapaha Council serves 12 South Georgia counties.

Chisholm said that the men and women who attend the meeting from this area will be getting information about Cub Scouting, Scouting, exploring, finance, camping, public relations, volunteer training, advancement, health and safety, and council activities.

The National organization will also hold its annual business meeting in May. Members of the National Council from this area are I. Harmon Boyette of Valdosta and E. William Mann of Fitzgerald.

Because of its successes, the Alapaha Council has been asked to take part in the program. The camping committee with Bill Strickland of Valdosta as chairman will lead a discussion group on year-round camping and outdoor activities.

MANAGING MONEY

To get the most out of your money today, you must be as skillful as a banker, advise specialists at the Cooperative Extension Service. You can sharpen money managing skills by polishing up on your grade school math and making price comparisons. Ask yourself how many "necessities" are actually luxuries. At the grocery, see if in-season produce is cheaper. And, remember, a pressure sauce pan is the answer for cooking less tender and—less expensive—cuts of meat.

Mrs. Lewis Duggan's brother, Mr. C. R. Taylor, and wife have recently moved here from Orlando, Fla., and are making their home in Adel. They visited the Duggan's Sunday afternoon.

Among some of our young people showing steers on Wednesday morning at the Livestock Auditorium in Valdosta were Wesley Webb and Tim Brown. The judging was Wednesday morning and the sale was Wednesday night at 7:30 p.m.

Lowndes County walked away with 14 winners in 4-H Saturday in Tifton at D. P. A. Among some were Theresa Yeomans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Yeomans, niece of Mrs. Hollis Courson, in Automotives (the highway safety signs); Amy Tyler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carol Tyler, in Breakfast Snacks or In-Between Meal Snacks; and Diane Flythe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Flythe, in Housing and Equipment.

We had a great number who placed 2,3,4, etc., and our youth have proved they can do something, if it's only to get up before people and talk. How many of you can do the same?

Debbie Wetherington, Sandra Webb, and Amy Tyler spent the night together at Amy's house Friday night and went to Tifton on the bus Saturday.

Mrs. Carolyn Brady and boys, Johnny and Kenny, went to the Boys Club Basketball Banquet on Thursday night. Barfield Oil Co. team was honored for being the Bobcat Champions, Hoorah for them!

For those who wish to get birthday and anniversary dates in the paper they must call by noon on Tuesday because we print from Thursday to next Thursday. Thank you.

I apologize if anyone called this past Tuesday and missed me. I was out with a sick calf. He thanks you for your patience. Anytime you miss me during the day, call at night.

Ashley received many nice gifts. They had cake, ice cream, potato chips, and punch for refreshments. Little party hats of Indian feathers were given as favors. They played games under the carport because of the high wind and dust.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Simpson and Robi visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coombs, Jr., Saturday night. While they were here Saturday they also visited Mr. and Mrs. George Rountree and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Simpson and Michele.

Card of thanks

We wish to take this opportunity to say "Thank You" to all friends of our parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cone Webb.

First, we would like to thank Dr. Parrott and all employees of Smith's Hospital for their professional service and kindness shown our Dad in November and December and to both our parents in March while they were patients there. Each one certainly went beyond the call of duty.

Thanks to all the wonderful ladies that brought food, drinks and other necessary items and to those who served the food and washed dishes, ed dishes.

Thanks to all for the beautiful flowers, every smile, handshake and prayer, and for attending our Dad's funeral.

The death of our Dad was the first in our immediate family; having so many friends in our time of grief was a great help. God bless each of you.

Lowndes County Cloverleaf 4-H'ers returned from the Southwest district project achievement meeting at Abraham Baldwin Agricultural College in Tifton with 14 first place honors.

The local delegation joined several hundred other 4-H champions from 20 area counties for the 1973 achievement meeting. The one-day event gave Lowndes County's 5th and 6th grade 4-H'ers an opportunity to offer their educational demonstrations in competition with other county champions in the various projects.

Well presented demonstrations earned district honors for 14 Lowndes County 4-H'ers, according to Mrs. Sally Black, County Extension Agent and R. Douglas Durham, County Extension Agent.

District Cloverleaf winners from Lowndes County include: Debbie Beard, Plants & Soils; Linda Allen, Clothing Demonstration; Tammy Stephens, Dress Revue; Teresa Yeomans, Automotive; Denise Underwood, Bicycle; Brian Atkins, Safety; Marla Myers, Woodworking; Jeff Shierling, Entomology; Amy Tyler, Between-Meal-Snacks; Lorraine Hughes, Dairy Foods; Georgia Mae Hargrett, Canning; Gina Wisenbaker, Health; Diann Flythe, Home Management; and Billie Jo Sims, Pecan.

Second place district winners and their projects are: Donna Lowery, Recreation Talent; Scott Holton, Woodworking; Donna Tyson, Landscaping; Sherry Rentz, Human Development.

Third place honors went to: John Flythe, Bicycle; Linda Thomas, Electric; Debbie Wetherington, Safety; Jeri Simmons, Forestry; David Earnest, Public Speaking; and Kathy Easters, Recreation Demonstration.

Other 4-H'ers participating were: Dale Bradford, Dress Revue; Loretta Sims, Photography; Isabella Chandler, Entomology; Sandra Webb, Frozen Food; Laura Barrett, Public Speaking; David Folsom, Dog Care & Training; Cindy Sprott, Dog Care & Training; Suzanne Taylor, Veterinary Science; Crisp Wilkerson, Fruit & Vegetable; and Scott Nichols, Beef.

On March 24, 1973 there will be a Junior and Senior County Elimination. It will be held at W. G. Nunn Elementary School in Valdosta.

This will be a very exciting day for many 4-H'ers. We are hoping that everyone will do a good job and place in their project. This year I am doing my project on Woodworking. I have been working on it about two months. I am a student at Lowndes Junior High and am in the 8th grade. Any 4-H'er needing help please contact Mrs. Black or Mr. Durham. We are looking forward to seeing many 4-H'ers on this date.

Tips for Homemakers

By Ted Phelps, Home Economist

Only 50 percent of us -- that's just half -- have diets with adequate amounts of nutrition, minerals and vitamins. One reason cited for this is our decreased intake of vegetables and fruits.

Now that spring is here and summer is not far behind, we ought to be able to do a little better. In fact, studies indicate that we will. As expected, summer consumption of fresh produce is considerably higher than in any other season. During their peak production season, fresh vegetables are consumed at a rate almost 50 per cent greater than the annual average.

While these products are in plentiful supply, why not can or freeze enough to take you and yours through fall and winter with an adequate diet, too? Our office has easy-to-follow information on how it's done. Come by or call. We are located in the Federal Building in Valdosta, 2nd floor, room 236, telephone 242-1536.

Bathing Beauty

You will soon be shopping for a swimsuit. Many of us who thought we could make it with last year's model discovered that we can't. We just aren't "bathing beauties" in last year's "bathing suit". Even if "bathing beauty" is a blanket title given to all who wear swimwear, it just doesn't for us, so we're going out to look for something that does.

Try these tips on swimwear shopping. They may help you make a wise choice.

First, don't underrate your figure. But don't kid yourself into thinking you can wear a certain style just because you love it. Try to focus on and play up your figure's good points. Take along a friend and ask her to evaluate how you look in various styles. Oh, tell her to be perfectly honest.

Try on all styles in order to satisfy your curiosity.

And don't buy a suit which you plan to "learn to like." Remember, there's no exchange or return on swimwear. Finally, ask yourself, "Am I really comfortable in this suit? Does it make me feel confident in how I look?"

If your answer is an honest "yes", then you've found the suit for you. You are as much of a "bathing beauty" as it's possible for you to be.

New eyes for the needy

What do you do if you're eight-years-old, have no old eyeglasses to give, but feel strongly you want to help other people see better?

For Harriet, a third-grader in a suburban school, the solution was simple...she sold some of her toys.

That's how "New Eyes For The Needy", a volunteer Short Hills, N. J. organization, wound up with $13.75 in the mail one day.

What makes the happening even more unusual is the fact that in its 40-year history, "New Eyes" has never had a fund drive. It solicits, instead, old eyeglasses, precious metal scrap, silverware, dentures with bits of gold and silver, and antique and costume jewelry.

The glasses, almost a million pairs received last year alone, are graded and sorted and bring new sight to impoverished people all over the world.

The precious metal scrap is melted down, and the money from the reclamation, plus the sale of usable jewelry and silverware, goes to "New Eyes" funds established in 80 hospitals all over the country, Canada and Puerto Rico to pay for new prescription glasses, or if needed, artificial eyes.

That's where Harriet's $13.75 went.

The plastic framed glasses are used to fill orders from medical missions in such far off places as the Philippines, Guam, and Africa.

Though "New Eyes" has an international reputation, few know it is run by a small group of about 250 persons -- mostly housewives. When the organization was incorporated in 1947, its entire treasury consisted of 47 cents.

Nobody can really say how many lives have been brightened because hundreds of thousands of strangers have thoughtfully sent their old eyeglasses to "New Eyes". But every now and then the mailbag provides a clue:

"You have made this a beautiful new world for me. Again I thank you and all who made this wonderful miracle available."

Maybe the next miracle will come from you. The address is New Eyes For The Needy, Short Hills, N.J. 07078.

THIS WORLD OF OURS

A Brown-Out occurs as the demand for electricity approaches the available supply, forcing power companies to cut the supply of electricity to their customers. The reduction plan, used as an emergency measure to prevent a runaway total blackout, follows a predetermined, step-by-step procedure. First industry and residents are asked to cut down their use of electrical power. If these measures don't relieve the problem, the company then cuts the voltage supplied to its distribution lines. These cuts usually run from three to eight percent. When this reduction is made, a "brown-out" is said to exist. Since power distribution systems can be damaged by too low a voltage, the next step, after power reductions, is to begin selective blackouts.

The Chattooga — 54 miles of wild river. Georgia Power's land exchange agreement with the National Forest Service means that 6,000 acres along that thundering white water will remain untamed and unspoiled. Preservation of such rivers is vital.

In 1972 we also donated 15 miles of land along the Chattahoochee River for development into a public park by Fulton and Cobb counties. An additional 150 acres were given to the State of Georgia for a wilderness park and access to the river.

Beginning with Georgia Power's land management programs back in the 20s, we've been working to preserve and protect the environment. When it comes to conservation, you won't find us clinging to the shoreline. We plunge right in.

Prefer to apply nitrogen separately?

Here are 2 quick-acting corn boosters with high P and K combinations.

ORTHO UNIPEL®

16

Both excellent for plowdown or at planting

...especially where soils are low to medium in phosphorus and potash. Unipel 16-16-16 and Unipel 10-20-20 provide a sound base of all 3 major plant food elements, yet allow for adding supplemental nitrogen to fit the needs of individual fields.

High-analysis, potent ingredients

Every pellet of Unipel 16-16-16 and Unipel 10-20-20 contains nitrogen and phosphate in both fast-acting and longer-lasting forms. Phosphorus is 100% available to plants. Both have a low calcium carbonate equivalent, which can reduce future liming costs. That's mighty important if your soil is acidic.

Bonus nitrogen, phosphate interaction

Both Unipel 16-16-16 and Unipel 10-20-20 contain quick-acting nitrate nitrogen to give seedlings a quick kick. And because each Unipel pellet contains precisely the stated ratio of N, P, and K, an important side-effect occurs: Plants' uptake of phosphate is boosted by up to 50% compared with separate N and P application. Your plants will show the difference!

Save handling, hauling

Unipels' extremely high percentage of available nutrients lets you treat more acres with each fill than with other fertilizers. And that alone can be worth plenty when every moment of spring fieldwork counts.

1,350 pounds of beef per acre?

It's possible with the Ortho Pasture Program!

20·10·10

Good profits from tired pasture ground

The best opportunity for increased profits on your farm may lie in little-used pastureland. Brome, bluegrass, trefoil, orchard grass, fescues, or other cool season grasses may produce incredible beef gains.

Amazing 1,352 pounds of beef an acre!

One Ortho customer in Iowa applied 700 pounds of Unipel® 20-10-10 on 25 acres of brome and trefoil in early spring. It grew so well he was able to pasture 230 head of yearling dairy heifers on the tiny plot throughout the year... hand feeding about three pounds of ground corn daily. Result: An astounding 1,352 pounds of beef per acre! (Grower's name on request.)

800% more protein output possible

The Ortho Pasture Program helps pastures pay off in other ways: You can turn your cattle out earlier in the season, saving labor needed for fieldwork. Extra nitrogen can double protein level and quadruple dry tonnage, giving you up to eight times more protein production per acre than you may now be achieving! Extra nitrogen makes grass taste better to cattle, too.

Your pastureland can be much more productive, but it needs help. That's why a visit with your Ortho dealer is the best place to start.
