

The Campus Canopy

VOLUME IV. z127

THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA, APRIL 9, 1938

NUMBER 17

Citizenship Institute Closes Today

Citizenship Institute Closes Today At Emory Junior

Sessions of the Institute of Citizenship being conducted in Valdosta under the sponsorship of Emory Junior College, The Georgia State Womens College and the Valdosta High School will end this morning at Emory Junior auditorium.

Saunders, Purks, Gosnell
Speakers today will be Dr. A. F. Saunders, Valdosta physician, who will discuss "Health Problems in Georgia," Dr. J. F. Purks, who will talk on the "Objectives of Education," and Dr. Cullen B. Gosnell, who will speak on "County Government in Georgia." All three of these men are outstanding in their fields.

At GSWC
Speaking last night at the GSWC auditorium, Mr. D. B. Lasseter, Georgia director of

See CITIZENSHIP Page 4

Thirty-Four Students Make Dean's List

Thirty-four students have been placed on the Dean's List for the winter quarter, according to a report released Friday by Mrs. Caroline Thomas, registrar.

Nine of the thirty-four have a straight "A" academic average for the past ten weeks work.

Ten Are Seniors
Ten of the group are seniors, three are juniors, fourteen are sophomores and seven are freshmen.

Those students making all "A" are: Anne Brooks, and Catherine Wilson, seniors; Carolyn Askew, junior; Montine Cowart, Mary Jane Jones and Rosalind Taylor, sophomores, and Frances Hug, Louise McFie and Ruth Reid, freshmen.

Last Quarter
In the fall quarter, thirty students made the Dean's List and nine had all "A's."

The following made the required average last quarter:

Seniors: Ruth Bunn, Martha Jones, Treacy Long, Frances McLain, Sarah Anne Pryor, Sara Martha Pyle, Kathryn Toole, Carolyn Whipple.

Juniors: Carolyn Askew, Mary Winn Greer, Ruth Rhymes.

Sophomores: Rosemary Baker, Catherine Black, Geraldine Bowen, Helen Duncan, Sara Garbutt, Virginia Parrish, Elizabeth Rhymes, Ruth Whisonant, Caroline Williams and Mildred Wilson.

Freshmen: Evelyn Brim, Sara Gibbs, Wilnot Green, Carolyn Williams.

Speaks Friday

Dr. W. B. Baker, of Emory University faculty, who discussed "Conservation of Natural Resources" yesterday afternoon at the High School auditorium.

Morris Announces Supporting Staff

In announcing the supporting staff of the CAMPUS CANOPY for 1938-39, C. J. Morris, recently elected editor, has named Rosalind Lane as managing editor, Louise Bell, Ora Kate Wisenbaker and Rosemary Baker, assistant editors and Opal Brown news editor.

Held Positions This Year

Lane is retiring editor of the paper, Bell is retiring news editor and Wisenbaker and Baker were feature editors this year.

The tentative staff will edit the paper following the May Day issue on May 7.

Other Appointments

Other appointments to the staff include Linda Summer, circulation manager; Frances Van Brackle, exchange manager, Daisy McNeal, sports, and Lois Green, Eileen Cox, and Carolyn Folsom, feature editors.

A new position as picture editor will be taken by Cornelia Coker.

Eileen Hyland will write the movie column. Jeanette Johnson will write a "gossip" column. Frances Rogers and Louise McFie will help with make-up.

Students

... who are interested in taking typhoid vaccination, either for immunity or as a help for "Spring Fever," may secure the shots from the office of Dr. Marion Farbar for a very nominal fee.

Graham And Kelley Give Senior Recital

The Georgia State Womens College presents Johnnie Mae Kelley, pianist, and Theresa Graham, reader, in graduation recital in the college auditorium, Monday evening, April 11.

Miss Kelley is a pupil of Miss Gladys E. Warren; Miss Graham received her training from Miss Louise Sawyer.

The program includes: "For Winter, For Summer,"—Nancy Boyd.—Theresa Graham.

(a) "Preludio from Partita in E Major," Bach-Slencznski; (b) "Pastoral," Scarlatti; (c) "Fugue in D Major," J. S. Bach.—Johnnie Mae Kelley.

"The Bank Account," Howard Brock.—Theresa Graham.

(a) "Rhapsody in C Major," Dohnanyi; (b) "Etude Op. 10-3," Chopin; (c) "Etude Op. 10-12," Chopin.—Johnnie Mae Kelley.

(a) "La Petite Naive," George O'Neill; (b) "Mrs. Mole," H. P. Herbert.—Theresa Graham.

"Concerto in G Major," Mendelssohn. Molto allegro con fuoco. (Orchestral parts on second piano.)—Johnnie Mae Kelley.

Delegates Attend SGA Convention

Mary Hudson, Ruth Whisonant and Virginia Zipplies will leave April 13 for Williamsburg, Virginia to attend the annual convention of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government.

The convention convenes April 14-16 at the College of William and Mary.

The purpose this year is to consider student government as a preface to society. Interesting discussion groups along this line and other lines pertaining to student government will be considered.

May Day Theme Features Snow White And The Dwarfs

Walt Disney's famous "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" will furnish the inspiration for this year's colorful May Day festival, which has been set for Saturday, May 7.

Virginia Zipplies will reign as Queen of the occasion, Ruth Bunn will be Maid of Honor and Opal Brown will take the role of "Snow White."

Students of the physical education department will present in dance and pantomime the story of the beautiful princess and her strange little friends.

Poll Reveals Students Will Fight To Defend The United States

Voters Favor Naval Appropriations

In a student poll held this week by THE CAMPUS CANOPY, 73 percent of the voters declared they would fight for their country if Continental United States is invaded. Twenty-five percent of the voters would also fight in defense of American rights abroad.

Seventy-five percent of the votes recorded favored the policy of making the ROTC optional in all non-military schools and colleges. Twenty-four percent voted to make the ROTC compulsory in state land grant colleges.

Favor Appropriations

Students definitely favor passage of the present billion dollar naval appropriations bill, according to the poll tabulations. The surprising thing is, however, that most of those who were against the appropriations bill were favorable to progressive disarmament. There were few in-betweens.

League of Nations

One-third of the voters desired entrance of the U. S. into a revised League of Nations with provisions for peaceful change and revision of treaties greatly strengthened. One-third voted for unqualified neutrality in all foreign wars.

Favor Neutrality Act

More than half the voters favored application of the Neutrality Act. Students also favored withdrawal of all American forces in China and application of a popular consumer's boycott against Japan.

Eighty-five students voted in the poll which was sponsored by the Brown College DAILY HERALD.

Dickinson Speaks On The Road To Improvement

Taking as his subject, "The Road To Improvement," Rev. Hoke Dickinson, pastor of First Christian Church, spoke Wednesday morning at chapel.

Illustrations pointed out the high ideals of the young person and how he could better the world. The next picture was that of despair when the young person had decided improvement is impossible.

Through false assumptions the idea is conceived that progress is inevitable and that improvement is impossible. Contrary to this statement improve-

See DICKINSON Page 4

Notice Seniors!

Fee for cap, gown, collar and hood must be paid on or before April 18th.

The fee is $2.50.

Mr. Dusenbury's Office.

Clubs Elect Officers

French Club members on Thursday evening elected Helen Joiner president of the club for 1938-39.

At the same meeting, Dora Ida Perkins was named vice-president and Hazel Muggridges secretary-treasurer.

June Lawson is the retiring president. New officers will assume their positions at the first meeting of the club held next fall.

Ora Kate Wisenbaker was elected president of the International Relations Club for 1938-39 at a meeting held Tuesday evening. Geraldine Bowen was chosen secretary and Mildred Wilson treasurer. The new officers will be in charge of the next meeting.

After the routine business, a program of events of international interest was given. The following topics were discussed: "The New Regime in Brazil," Jessie Lambert.

"Hitler's Ten Million," Geraldine Bowen.

"Italy: the Bluffer State," Jeannette Cox.

"Mexican Challenge," Mildred Wilson.

The Campus Canopy

Published Weekly by the Students of The Georgia State Womans College, Valdosta, Georgia.

1937 Member 1938

Associated Collegiate Press

Distributor of Collegiate Digest

Rosalind Lane Editor-in-Chief
Katherine Moore Managing Editor
C. J. Morris Assistant Editor
Lois Hafford Business Manager

Louise Bell News Editor
Eileen Hyland Feature Editor
Rosemary Baker Feature Editor
Ora Kate Wisenbaker Feature Editor
Martha Jones Exchange Editor
Frances Van Brackle Circulation

Reporters: Carolyn Folsom, Clara Mae Sasser, Eileen Cox, Lois Green, Frances Rogers, Marjie Jones, Marjorie Howard, Louise McFie, Opal Brown, Jeanette Johnson, Ruth Loughridge, Linda Summer.

Business Staff: Dora Ida Perkins, Ruth Whisonant, Mildred Wilson, Montine Cowart, Mary Dugger, Leona Strickland, Evelyn Ogletree, Margaret Carter, Millie Weitman, Curtis Whately, Sue Coppage, Mary Lee Rogers, Leonora Lanier.

REPRESENTED FOR NATIONAL ADVERTISING BY National Advertising Service, Inc.
College Publishers Representative
420 MADISON AVE. NEW YORK, N. Y.
CHICAGO - BOSTON - LOS ANGELES - SAN FRANCISCO

Weren't You Proud

..... of your college when Mr. De Gray commended us on our encouragement of the fine arts? In over fifty colleges that Mr. De Gray had visited during his tour, sponsored by the American Association of Colleges, we were outstanding among them as giving academic credit for the study of music, art and drama.

The liberal arts education that is offered at GSWC is perhaps the nearest approach there is to that offered under a system of progressive education, such as Bennington College and others of that type offer. Although our college does not even pretend to be progressive, in the strictest sense of the word, it offers advantages superior in many respects to those of colleges throughout the country...

BEST COLLEGE FOR US

A truly progressive system of education would not in all probability, be the best thing in the world for us. As it is now, we have struggle enough keeping up with studies to which we are more or less pinned down. Imagine the chaos that would result if we were left to our own devices. Admirable though the system is, we are not yet educated up to that point.

WE HAVE GOOD OPPORTUNITIES

And so, taking everything into consideration, we may well be satisfied with the opportunities that are ours. Through the requirements of the Junior College division we receive a foundation in fundamentals, such as mathematics, English, the social sciences and biology and physical science. It is after these requirements are filled that each student is given the opportunity to broaden her study with a wider selection of electives.

No student has to leave GSWC feeling inadequate to the needs of our cosmopolitan world. No student goes from here without some knowledge of the fine arts as well as rudimentary factual information.

Taking into consideration the ideals of a liberal education which is creative rather than to drill, it is easily seen that it depends entirely upon the individual, how liberal her education will be. If the drilling is done outside the lecture room, the creative part of a course may be capably directed by the instructor during class.
—C.J.M.

Kampus Kaleidoscope

Since Juunior Hall must eat, Dody plays the martyr—wonder if she carried out her threat? ? ? How about some lessons, Dot? We learn quickly—Loyalty plus—Imagine Rosemary's surprise when she asked M. V. "What would you wish for if you could have anything you wanted, right now?" !—The Freshmen have a new model. This time it's Di Maggio

Success is the reward of toil, Evelyn—and yellow goes with Black! ! ! Three refusals for Gainesville's spring House Parties—these cute but unfortunate Juniors ! ! ! Seems Little Walt kept Uncle Sam rich for a bit, a bit ago—while Dr. Reade is the perfect notester—Did Fanny and Leotha take Emory by storm? ? ? Dither of the week—Riley minus a man for Friday night at the Kountry Klub! ! !

And who would think the day would come when Coca-Cola bottles would be a source of wealth—and candy seems to keep flowing in for Marguerite N.—It was Jim this time—and "Chubby" takes care of the date problem in Ashley—Nice going! ! ! Verna and Laura Hazel, what was so funny last Sunday night? ?—Hit of the week—"The Awful Truth"—E. Bennett even sat through it three times and Turnbull said her sides most split! ! !

ABAC seems to take the campus by storm on Sunday night—It makes it interesting for Whatley and Wilson it seems ! ! and Mary A. Joiner had shoe trouble last week! ! !

Stump Oratory

..... is not encouraged on this campus. As a matter of fact, if anyone took a stand on a tree stump or soap box and started spelling off lines of poetry and such, we would definitely place her in the same class with an inmate of an institution for the mentally deficient.

Nevertheless, far be it from us to repress the much praised freedom of speech—one of the most cherished of American ideals. Everyone on this campus has been given the opportunity to express their innermost feelings without being referred to as being "off their top."

English Club Booklet

How about the creative writing contest that is being sponsored by the English Club? What has been done about it? To date, ONE contribution has been received. What's wrong with the other 300 students? ?

Good, bad or indifferent—something is better than nothing. It is not very encouraging to any organization to sponsor something in which no interest is shown.

Plenty of Talent

We know for a fact that there is talent on campus. But what will become of this talent if it is not encouraged? If you "have something there"—as the expression goes—develop it.

The English Club hopes to edit a sort of anthology, toward the end of this quarter, containing the best literary work done here during the year. Prizes are to be awarded for the best of the accepted articles. A good publication will not only recognize you as a contributor, but will give your college added recognition among other colleges and universities with which it may be exchanged.

Not To Make Money

This is not a money-making proposition. The idea of the magazine is purely altruistic, in giving you a chance to develop your ability by trying to write and gain recognition and encouragement by having your work printed.

Are you dumb? Can't you express yourself? Don't you have anything worth expressing?

THIS IS A CHALLENGE! ! !
—C.J.M.

MacDonald, Eddy, Sing Folksongs Love Melodies, Spanish Airs

By Carolyn Greene

Music of Liszt and Gounod, old folk songs of the days of '49, dreamy love melodies by Sigmund Romberg and sprightly Spanish airs all went into the picture of pioneer California in the music of THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST. The songs include "Soldiers of Fortune," a stirring march number sung by Nelson Eddy and the bandits on horseback, and composed by Romberg with lyrics by Gus Kahn. These writers also wrote

"Shadows on the Moon," a ballad sung by Miss MacDonald in an Indian baby in the picture; "Who Are We To Say," the MacDonald-Eddy duet; "Senorita," the Spanish love song which Eddy sings in Spanish and later to Miss MacDonald in English; the "Mariachie," a lavish dancing spectacle with hundreds of dancers and mounted vaqueros, with the song lyric sung by Miss MacDonald and Eddy in the Monterey fiesta sequence, and "The Wind in the Trees," Miss MacDonald's coloratura number.

Classroom Cowards

THE EMORY WHEEL had a discerning editorial last week entitled "Classroom Cowards." As the problem equally applies to us, we are reprinting part of the article here.—Ed.

We hear gripes every day. Gripes about certain courses, about professors and schedules—and they are not all gripes for griping's sake, either. But the fact still remains that students do not voice their opinions in public.

What's the matter? Is the curriculum flawless, and are courses perfect? Or are students scared to say anything?

We think this silence is due to one of two things:

- (1) Students don't care enough about their studies to speak out when things go wrong; or
- (2) Students lack the guts to speak their mind and run the risk of getting their professors "down" on them.

If they blindly sit by and take every dose of canned tommyrot without protesting (if they're unfortunate enough to be in a class where it's dispensed), they are facing intellectual suicide.

If you, as a paying student, take everything and anything that comes your way in a classroom, are afraid to question our professor, and gripe only in private, you are little more than a curriculum sop and a classroom coward.

This is not an appeal for "letters to the editor." But the fact remains that students are too lazy or too scared to show their feelings and thoughts (we're being optimistic) about their academic life.

Your professors—most of them, anyway—want to know what you think of their courses. If you think their courses stink, tell them. If you don't want to hurt their feelings, go to the head of the department, or to the Dean. And if you think your gripe is sufficient, let us hear from you.

After Hearing

..... Rev. Hoke Dickerson's chapel address on improvement, we're decided that most anything can be accomplished.

However, if Rev. Dickinson doesn't mind we'd like to add the attribute "energy" to his list of points essential for progress.

If you've heard a professor on this campus mention "wishful thinking" every day or three months like we did one time, you'll know what this refers to.

You can desire something very much, determine in your mind to accomplish that end and still do nothing active about it.

That's why we'd like to add "energy", though we do concede it can be called akin to "discipline." Maybe Rev. Dickinson would include "energy" under that category.

From An Uneasy

chair—this isn't an ad for the Ritz, but have you noticed the coming movie attractions—"Snow White," "Girl of the Golden West," "Lost Horizon," and more 'n' more swellelegant ones?—we have a special little name for people who never cooperate on anything—for instance in student polls—campus mermaids and golfers and red-haired girls minus southern drawls will break out in brown in "The Atlanta Constitution" ere many Sundays roll by—we'd like to steam some about the non-contributions of students to the English Club booklet—however, Miss Morris will have to do that—someone might remember that "practice what you preach—etc." gag—sports club is waking up interest in baseball and literally waking the Babe Ruths at 6:45—more fun—what with nominations and elections flurrying in, we're all agog—the dwarfs don't have a thing on the physical ed groups!!! —Dr. Farbar is graduating her first "Health Class"—GSWCites have been going places—like to Emory formals and Georgia hops and Florida week ends—and Florida's been to Valdosta, too—parting query: Who blew up the town for an invitation to a waltz? ? ? ?

Mexico Promises Compensation For Oil Wells

By Katherine Moore

With European politics in such an upheaval it is a comfort to know that the countries on the American continents have usually been able to handle their difficulties comparatively calmly.

An example of this was seen last week in Mexican President Lazaro Cardenas' reply to American and British requests for compensation for expropriation of foreign oil wells. He stated that Mexico would honor its obligations of today and yesterday.

With that reply the countries involved can probably work out a solution to this crisis in a manner satisfactory to all concerned.

Judgment Is Passed on War

It is encouraging to see so much in the newspapers and magazines valuing peace so highly. Even in the face of the rumblings in Europe.

If the opinion of M. Caillaux, 75 year old French statesman, is worth anything, the last war was not necessary. In a recent statement he said "war could have been avoided had Poincare known how to wait."

As for the results of the war, the former premier who lost most of his prestige because of his stand, before and after the war, for what he believed to be right, said, "The horrible war was followed by a peace cooked up under the auspices of the debater Lloyd George, the dreamer Wilson and the impulsive Clemenceau, none of whom knew how to respect economic laws."

If the press encourages free statements of that kind, it seems that war can be shown in a light other than that of a glorious struggle.

Speakers at the annual meeting of the Georgia Collegiate Press Association, to be held at Brenau College, Gainesville, April 29-30, will include Austin Dean, editor of the Gainesville EAGLE, and Ed. Dodd, nationally known Gainesville cartoonist.

The CANOPY will send two delegates to the convention which opens at noon, Friday, April 29.

Social events will include a luncheon, a reception, an al fresco supper, the annual Brenau May Day pageant, an Open House, a banquet and a dance.

BETTER SHOE REPAIRING

Al's Shoe Shop

PHONE 150 116 N. ASHLEY

COMPLIMENTS

W. T. GRANTS CO.

"Known For Values"

Girl Of The

... week will be a new addition to the Kampus Kaleidoscope.

Students are asked to hand in votes each week (in a box near the bulletin board) for the girl whom they think has been outstanding in any organization or club or social activity during the past week.

Please tell WHY you think your choice should be the "Girl of the Week" and sign your name.

The persons who win the most votes each issue will crash the Kaleidoscope.

Students Attend Meet

Attending the Georgia Conference of Social Work in Macon on April 6, were three prospective social workers. They are Katherine Thompson, Anna Matthews and Ruth Loughridge, of Dr. Brink's sociology class. The conference, held April 4, 5, 6, was the thirteenth annual meeting and was held in cooperation with the Georgia Probation Officers' Association.

Dr. Brink and her three students arrived in Macon at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning and went immediately to the Mulberry Street Methodist Church where the meetings were held. Miss Louisa deB. Fitz-Simons, president of the conference, had just opened the day's program. After hearing reports from several committees and an address from the president, Miss Gay B. Shepperson was introduced. Miss Shepperson, who spoke at the commencement day exercises of this college last year, and who is Georgia WPA Administrator, discussed the "Works Progress Administration Contribution to Georgia's Resources."

In the afternoon at 2 o'clock, the girls heard an address "Resources for Health," by Dr. M. V. Zeigler, of the U. S. Public Health Service. Dr. Zeigler said, "A public health program should be the concern of the federal, state and local governments. While we have made progress, there is still much to be done."

FOR MOTHER'S DAY
GIVE HER YOUR PHOTOGRAPH
BLACKBURN'S STUDIO

SOUTHERN STATIONERY
&
PRINTING CO.

OVER 30 YEARS
IN VALDOSTA

Campus Diamond Enthusiasts Limber Up For Serious Training

By Bell

With one week of spring practice campus diamond enthusiasts are already limbering up stiff arms and sharpening the batting eye, preparatory to getting down to serious training.

Over forty girls assembled on the diamond for the opening practice of the baseball season, the largest gathering for a sport practice this year. Messrs. Charlie Joiner and "Skinny" Vinson, and Miss Elizabeth McRee received the applause of the entire crowd when they appeared for early morning practices to assist with the training.

Close Race

On first glance, it looks like a close race this season. Seniors and Freshmen are expected to line up together with juniors and Sophomores as a rivaling team. Although the Seniors have not shown promising material, the Freshmen are expected to make up for the deficiency.

From the Junior and Sophomore combination great playing is expected. Annie Adams and Mary Hudson, pitchers for the Juniors, are picked to supply plenty of punch which will be strengthened by the addition of Dora Ida Perkins and June Lawson as topnotch basemen.

Sophomores Not So Bright

Prospects for the Sophomores are not quite so bright, but the second-year players may be a dark horse, with Edith Wilson, Laura Duncan, and Daisy McNeal as a nucleus.

Despite their three practices, the Freshmen are still an unknown quantity. Ruth Reid, a pitcher and all around athlete, looks promising, and Gwendolyn Bush, fly catcher, should show up well for the first year players. Dorothy Smith and Anne Harrell are expected to add plenty of punch in the batting position. Winelle Lance, Freshman, quickly named "One-Arm" because of her one-handed batting, is hoped to turn in spectacular performances in tight spots in games to come.

English Members Review Stage Personalities

At the English Club meeting Tuesday, members presented a sort of parade of outstanding stage personalities. Mgr. Abernathy, Ethel Stallings, C. J. Morris and Mgr. Cannon took part on the program.

Hazel Muggridge told about tricks actors play on each other during performances, substituting cold cream sandwiches for the regular "prop" food, making cross-eyes at a player who is making a serious speech, connecting stage telephone to a real one and making ridiculous remarks to a person on stage who is having trouble trying to carry on intelligent monologue under strain of such unforeseen interference.

"Hold Everything"

PENNIES WILL BE WORTH
DOLLARS NEXT WED-NESDAY THRU SAT-URDAY AT THE
REXALL 1c SALE

BENNETT'S
Drug Store

"SAVE with SAFETY"
at your Rexall DRUG STORE

Shop For Your
Easter Attire
At

C. C. Varnedoe
& Co.

DRINK

Coca-Cola

IN BOTTLES

Enjoy
Foremost
Ice Cream
It's Healthful

Thompson & Girardin
JEWELERS

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware and Clocks
Expert Repairing
120 N. Patterson St. — Valdosta, Ga.

Students Name Their First Wish

By Rosemary Baker

If you could have anything in the world you desired at this moment, what would you want? Ruth Rhymes: Three more hours of sleep.

Nell Zipperer: To go to the picture show.

Nelle Pope: A Coca-Cola about three feet high.

Mary Hudson: A car to go to Williamsburg instead of a bus.

Kitty O'Neal: A husband. Ruth Garbutt: A ride.

Lylburn Warren: Money to pay for the degree that I have been working for so long.

Jacqueline Abrahams: Happiness.

Leona Strickland: S L E E P.

Ruby Lilly: A car at school and more money.

Mary Lovett: To be able to go out more than three times a week.

Hazel McLeod: A trip to Canada.

Sara Ann Pryor: "My Sugar" it's 500 miles away.

Helen Duncan: A hot dog.

Geraldine Bowen: A diamond ring and what goes with it.

Billie Patten: An angel food cake.

Mary Virginia Williams: A trip to Atlanta.

Camille Clements: Money.

Virginia Parrish: A tour of Europe.

Mildred Turnbull: I'd want it to be June.

Elizabeth Garbutt: Other people to come get their mail so I would not have to search for the owner of every letter.

VALDOSTA, GA.

TODAY ONLY

Bobby Breem

— IN —

Hawaii Calls

MONDAY — — TUESDAY

JEANETTE

McDonald

NELSON

Eddy

— IN —

"THE GIRL OF THE GOLDEN WEST"

— WEDNESDAY ONLY —

JOE E.

BROWN

— IN —

"WIDE OPEN FACES"

APRIL 16—17—18—19

SNOW WHITE
AND 7 DWARFS

Goin' To Town

By Louie Peeples

Miss Sawyer is one of those people who believe in living life to the fullest. Followed her across the campus the other day and watched her stoop to rave over the blackest dog, then saunter on to inquire about Judge's (the janitor's) latest spring planting. That's what we call a heart of genuine interest, and, incidentally, there's a particularly Dashing somebody that thinks she's tops, but who would not? Eleanor Morgan leads the list in future hopes. "We knew her when"—well, when Banny worried consistently about her voice education—and tomorrow she's destined to be in grand opera! She really pays the part of the prodigal vocalist! Groans and giggles: when "Miss Janie" in math class suddenly believed that Mary Anne Paulk was the non-lesson-getter culprit of ye olde English class first quarter. Unsolved mystery: Katie's "um pagh, um pagh!" Florence Tharpe gets ahead with Ed Kirk, and Dot Fudge (darling hair-do) gets escorted none too little places by Louie Hearn. Rumors have it that she's really taking somebody else's place. Met "Chink" McCondi- chee in a vale of tears the other night in the library—and no confession! Only mutterings of some breaking up! Our votes for the most sincere smile: Margaret Cannon. From those dramatically-read words in French class we foresee another Katherine Cornell in the personage of Louise Blanks. Remind me of each other: Judy Garland and the lady who lives for her shoes, Miss Gardener. Frances Myddleton has some pull! Clyde insists on hearing her voice—even from Macon. Cute, all-around girl: Eileen Cox. Biggest heartbreaks of last week: When C. O. D.'s returned C. O. D. and girls turned out to be April fools instead. Know why our Martha Aida looks so contented? Just surmised that she has no "date" worries that do beseech the best of us! Our enthusiasm faded somewhat when Martha, after proudly announcing she had cooked supper the other night shyly confessed the supper consisted of bacon and eggs! Admired independence: Susie McKey. Unusual sight from the window upstairs: Miss McRee in a flopping hat on a windy day pattering about the baseball diamond! All's quiet on the Sophomore front. Looked swell at church last Sunday: Laura

Measurements Are Laid For Log Cabin

Floor plans for the proposed "Log Cabin" Student Activities House, have been selected and college officials will send for the blue prints immediately.

Meanwhile, measurements are being laid out for the "Log Cabin" which it is hoped will be erected with WPA labor, behind Senior Dormitory.

50x62

The house will be 50x62 feet. There will be a long front porch, a lounging or living room, 16x50, with two stone fireplaces and chimneys one at each end, a dining room, kitchen, a formal committee room, an office for the CAMPUS CANOPY and an office for the PINE CONE.

The present plans are to cut out some small trees behind the Senior Dormitory, to dismantle the present "House in the Woods", and to construct most of the new cabin from material from these two sources.

Some WPA projects are available which would offer labor on the house and officials hope to have the project approved by the close of the quarter.

Work would then begin in the summer and the house would be ready for use in the fall.

To educate an ROTC student so that he can receive a reserve officer's commission when he graduates from college costs $739 where such training is compulsory.

College and university students compose 15 percent of the youth of the U. S. of college age.

Approximately 80 per cent of higher education is co-education.

Students spend more money for meat, fish, eggs and poultry than for any other group of food.

Duncan and Carolyn Kay. Fantastic imagination: Mary Hudson with the measles. Good style bet: Eloise Ogletree. "And another thing": Elizabeth Larisey and Mildred Larsen vie for honors in looking so trim every day! The pajama party planned by Ashley schemesters proved embarrassing for all except two. Flash! Beatty and Harper break headlines but refuse to squeal! And the park goes unmolested save for the far off flashing of a lone flash light!

Dickinson

(Continued from Page 1)

ment is possible, and if planned for will bring forth good fruit.

Three points were listed as being essential for making improvement possible. First: A great desire for improvement is essential. There is no hope for those who desire improvement and who do not want to pay the price. If improvement can be attained at bargain prices we accept it.

Second: Determination. In the words of Paul: "I am determined to know nothing among you save Jesus Christ." Natural ability means nothing. You must have determination to win.

Third: Discipline. Life is so full of it and it is so necessary. There is no way to real improvement without long years of discipline. And in the words of a poet: "Happy are they who have thy discipline."

Without these three, improvement is impossible and the man of tomorrow will say, "Well, after all, what's the use."

Citizenship

(Continued from Page 1)

NYA, spoke on the Chinese and Japanese war and Dr. J. Sam Gay, of the Emory University faculty, delivered an address on the "Progress of Chemistry."

Mr. Lasseter, a former consul to Manchuria, expressed the opinion that should Japan finally conquer China, she would not be able to hold the country under her control.

Dr. J. Sam Guy, who is a recognized authority on the subject of chemistry, traced the progress of chemistry and explained that through the proper application of science, man is entering on a new and better era in industry and agriculture.

Opening Session

Dr. Heywood J. Pearce, Jr., opened the Institute Thursday evening with a speech on "Georgia's Past and Present."

Friday afternoon at the High School auditorium, Orville A. Park, tax authority, discussed "The Tax Problem in Georgia," D. B. Lasseter discussed the "Far Eastern Situation," and Dr. W. B. Baker, of Emory University faculty, discussed "Conservation of Natural Resources."

Could Not Attend

James S. Pope, assistant managing editor of the Atlanta Journal, was scheduled to speak Friday evening, but was unable to be here.

Activities

Shorthand Class

Second quarter shorthand class is being taught by Catherine Wilson.

The class meets at 2:15 o'clock on Monday, Wednesday and Friday in Room 15.

THIS COLLEGIATE WORLD

By Associated Collegiate Press

The secretary of this department who has charge of things statistical has just completed his yearly survey of new collegiate organizations, and makes the following report of undergraduate institutions that have been chartered in the last month:

1. Future Slackers of America, founded by Lehigh University undergraduates who believe there can be no war if nobody attends.
2. Anti-Corsage League—place of founding is undetermined but it has chapters on countless campuses.
3. Shirley Temple Club, founded at Yale University by admirers of the famed child movie star.
4. Woman Haters' League, founded at Harvard College to give students more time for study during examination periods.
5. Organized Cassanovas of America, inaugurated at University of Wichita with no plan of action but a contemplated parody of European politics.

Graduation exercises, each June represent an annual turnover of approximately $20,000,000 in direct expenses.

Ten different races have been represented in the University of Hawaii at one time.

The AAUW held its April meeting at the home of Dr. Lena Hawks on Brookwood Drive. Dr. Hawks and the hostesses assisting her, Dr. Brink and Miss Gardner, served tea as the guests arrived.

The president, Mrs. Hoke Dickinson, called the meeting to order with the reading of the minutes, and the treasurer's report. Miss Hopper, chairman of the nominating committee was asked for her report which named Dr. Elinor Brink, president; Miss Janie Bush, vice-president; Miss Elizabeth McRee, secretary and Miss Louise Sawyer, treasurer, as the officers for the coming year. Dr. Brink, the chapter's new president was then elected as delegate to represent the Valdosta branch at the State meeting in Augusta, Ma 7. Mrs. Dickinson spoke of the Institute of Citizenship to be conducted under the auspices of Emory Junior College, GSWC, and the Valdosta high school, as an opportunity for all members to hear some stimulating addresses.

Miss Gladys Warren announced a piano solo by Mary Winn Greer, who played Sous Bois by Barratt, and two vocal numbers by Edith Bennett, with Miss Greer accompanying. A Memory, by Gouz and Singer of Songs by Hibbs.

Mrs. Dickinson introduced Mr. Ward Pafford, instructor of English at Emory Junior, who spoke on Child Workers in Literature.

GEA Meet

Dr. Frank R. Reade and Miss Thryza Perry will attend the GEA meeting in Atlanta April 14-16.

Students who plan to teach next year and who are interested in attending the meeting are asked to see Dr. Reade.

IRC Gave Dance

The International Relations Club gave a dance Saturday evening in the Recreation Hall.

FRY'S ALWAYS VISIT FRY'S FOR SANDWICHES AND DRINKS
FRY'S DRUG STORE

COMPLIMENTS
OF
Whittington's

GIFTS THAT LAST
ROBERT F. BARR
CREDIT JEWELERS
Daniel Ashley Hotel Bldg.

ADLER'S
HOLIDAY
COLLECTION OF FROCKS
LINGERIE
HOSIERY
BAGS
IS NOW COMPLETE
ADLER'S
VALDOSTA

• •
Georgia Power & Light Co.
• •
BUILDING IN GEORGIA FOR GEORGIA
• •

DON'T FORGET TO STOP AT VINSON'S
AND
TRY OUR STRAWBERRY
SHORTCAKE
AND SEE OUR LINE OF COSMETICS

GET A NICE NEW WAVE TO GO WITH YOUR NEW EASTER OUTFIT
COWART'S BEAUTY
PARLOR

RITZ
Soda Shop
POPCORN
DRINKS
—AND—
CANDIES
THOSE DELICIOUS
SANDWICHES

LINDBERGH RESTAURANT
FAMOUS FOR
WESTERN STEAKS
BEST COFFEE IN TOWN

HELLO!
BROOKWOOD
PHARMACY