OTHER STAFF MEMBERS WILL BE CHOSEN IN FALL

The remaining members of the staff have not yet been appointed but will go into office very early next fall. Plans for next year's Pine Cone are already taking shape and it is hoped that beginning next year, publication can go back on regular schedule with the annuals being delivered sometime in May.

Recently elected to edit The Campus Canopy for 1946-'47 was Marguerite Storer who came to us as a Junior this year having completed her Junior College work at Armstrong Junior College at Savannah. This year she has been Managing Editor of The Canopy and has had previous experience

Regents Allocate $21,000 for West Hall Repairs

The Board of Regents has allocated $21,000 for extensive repairs on the roof of West Hall. There will also be renovation of the building itself, such as lighting and class room improvements.

R. H. Strong, consulting engineer for the University system, has recommended to the Board of Regents that the dining hall and kitchen be rebuilt as soon as material is available. A sum of $75,000 has been allocated for this purpose. When the new building is erected, the dining hall will be replaced with dormitory rooms, providing space for approximately thirty more students.

Mr. Strong also recommended that the Board allocate $3,000 for the erection of a reasonably fire-proof riding stable.

Serenaders Will Sing for Georgia Bar Association

The Serenaders of the Georgia State Womens College at Valdosta who are singing for the Georgia Bar Association Dinner at the De-Soto Hotel Friday, May 24, will be heard over radio station WSAV the same evening.

Though they have sung for local audiences in various South Georgia towns, and for a national audience in Atlantic City this year, this will be their first audience with state-wide representation. Now the home folks will have an opportunity to hear this all-Georgia group which was so warmly acclaimed by the National Convention of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce and all other audiences for whom they sang on their recent trip to New York, Atlantic City and Washington.

Under the direction of Raimonde Aubrey, head of the College voice department, and accompanied by Martha Carrington Aubrey, the Serenaders have developed a unique style of singing that has been described as talented, charming, pleasantly informal, vivacious and poised. They have the enviable faculty of being able to carry the audience with them thru the mood of the song.

The Serenaders will remain overnight in Savannah to spend at least part of Saturday visiting points of interest in the city. They are: sopranos: Ruth Reynolds, Blakely; Nicky Williams, Gainesville; Charlotte Goodwin, McRae; mezzos: Georgia Smith, Valdosta; Glynn Hill, Moultrie; Betty Gelders, Fitzgerald; contraltos: Sylvia Gelders, Fitzgerald; Betty Rentz, Columbus; and Jean Martin, Fitzgerald.

G. S. W. C. Loses Six Faculty Members

The students and faculty of GSWC deeply regret the loss to our campus of six of our faculty members, and at the same time welcome the return of a former faculty member.

Mrs. Laura Joost, assistant librarian, is not returning. Her place will be filled by a graduate of GSWC, Miss Thera Hambrick. Miss Aileen Schoeppe, associate professor of Education and Resident Head of Senior Hall, is among those leaving the faculty. Our associate professor of Secretarial Science, Miss Olen Majors, is another faculty member who is not returning. Dr. and Mrs. Robert Talbot will create two vacancies in the Social Science Department. Miss Kathryn Gross and Miss Dot Averill, members of the Physical Education Department, will not be back with us next year. Mr. William Henry Spragens, who is associate professor of Physics and Mathematics, completes the list. To each of these teachers, the students send "good luck" and happiness wherever they may go.

A former faculty member, Dr. Earl W. Phelan, will be welcomed back to GSWC next year. Professor of Chemistry, Dr. Phelan has been on a leave of absence for several years in connection with the atom bomb.

Listen For Announcements Concerning Graduation

Dr. Bland Tucker And Dr. Craven Will be Speakers

The graduation address of June 9th will be given by Dr. Avery Craven, head of the Department of History at the University of North Carolina. Dr. Craven is an outstanding authority on Civil War history.

Dr. Wade Gives Honors Day Address May 22

To the familiar strains of "The War March of the Priests," forty white clad girls marched down the aisle and took their seats at Assembly on Honors Day, Wednesday, May 22. Dr. John Donald Wade was the speaker.

Following the processional, Jean Martin, outgoing president of the Senior Honor Society, welcomed the audience and explained the qualifications for membership in the Freshman and Senior Honor Societies. Freshmen must maintain an average of "B" for their first two quarters of work to be eligible for the Freshman Honor Society, Upperclassmen must have an average of "B" at the end of five quarters of work to be eligible for the Senior Honor Society and again at the end of eight quarters work.

Jean introduced the in-coming and out-going officers of the two societies and then recognized each of the members.

After these introductions had been made, Jean introduced the speaker, Dr. John Donald Wade, English professor at the University of Georgia. Dr. Wade, a graduate of the University, received his masters degree from Harvard and his doctor's degree from Columbia.

At the conclusion of Dr. Wade's interesting address, Jean thanked him on behalf of the Honor Societies.

Dr. Wade was entertained by the societies at lunch in the dining hall.

So Long . . .

As the last Canopy of this year goes to press the staff says so long for awhile. We've enjoyed our work this year although at times it seemed almost impossible and we hope that in some way we have brought you a better Canopy.

Next Fall a new editor and a new staff will take over. We're sure they will do a better job and with them go our best wishes for a successful year.

So with these few words we'll say "thirty" and bow out of the picture.

Say It Once . . .

We know you get tired of us harping on the same old thing time time, after time, but when it is something as important as voting we don't much care.

You saw for yourselves last week that only a small per cent of those eligible to vote have taken the one necessary step to do so. And it is so simple. All you have to do when you go home is go to the tax collector and tell him you would like to register to vote. He will do the rest.

Are we going to be too lazy to do this when thousands of Americans have died in war after war that we might maintain that privilege?

This year's election for governor of the state is an important one so don't let ourselves and your state down by not voting.

We're Going To Miss You

Another class is graduating from G.S.W.C. Maybe it's a little small but then there's the old saying that it's quality that counts not quantity. Anyway, to you who are leaving us in June we want to extend our congratulations and best wishes for all the years to come.

Collins Says Discard Prejudice

We would like to recommend to you this week a small book of about fifty pages which can be found in our library, and which is well worth the few minutes it would take each of us to read it. The title is PROBING OUR PREJUDICES, and the author is Powdermaker. It is written in a very readable manner, and presents to us thoughts which we should have realized for ourselves long ago, but which it is sometimes necessary for someone else to point out to us.

The book discusses some of the prevailing prejudices of the day, and how we develop them. With the governor's election, among other elections, coming up soon, it behooves each of us to examine our prejudices, and try to discover how we acquired them, and if they are worth keeping.

There is a difference in a prejudice and a conviction. A prejudice is not based on actual fact, whereas a conviction is arrived at after more or less careful deliberation of the facts. Convictions are certainly worth-while things. The person without convictions is like the proverbial ship without a rudder, wandering aimlessly around wondering where he should go and what he should do next. We should stick to our convictions with firm resolution, but at the same time we should be sure that they are convictions, not prejudices.

Our prejudices are frequently played upon by office-seekers to gain votes, and that is only natural. If we harbor these prejudices, then we fight for them, and readily join forces with one who seems to hold the same one we do. However, we should realize at the same time, that, while a prejudice may be helpful at times, such as when you dislike a certain food because it has once made you sick, prejudices against those around us because of class, race, or religion, can only be harmful.

Through The Keyhole

By GRANTHAM and CARSON

CHARLENE BOWEN and BIM ANSLEY, among others, were seen at the Lakes Saturday . . . having quite a time in spite of the rain, etc. P. S. There were men along.

No wonder JANE stays happy so much of the time . . . seems that Bouncer is around quite regularly . . . as often as possible that is . . . once a week. Hold on, Jane, you won't always be a freshman.

Those cute and amusing letters from Guam seem to be coming in quite often now to VIRGINIA BRAY.

ANN ADAMS has been very busy lately. Who is the young man, Ann? Seems to be somewhat of a mystery.

The "eternal triangle" or something like that could be the term used in connection with what happened lately to MARY WEBB, some men from ABAC, and another man.

Bob and Al are monopolizing BERNICE PACE'S thoughts these days. Watch out, Bernice! That can run into complications.

Those two, long weeks without a word from Carlton were pure agony for ANN BARBRE, but at last on Wednesday her broken heart was mended by the long hoped for broken silence from "Cecil."

At least you have that life-sized picture of Carlton, CHARLOTTE, when he isn't around, but then with a letter a day, little else is needed.

BETTY ELDERS is going home the week-end before exams and we think that is pretty serious. What's the strong attraction, Betty?

Have you heard about BARBARA WREN, Well, just ask her. Better watch out, Barbara.

WELCOME HOME! And what a welcome that was that VIRGINIA gave her boyfriend . . . right in the middle of the softball game . . . right in the middle of the campus. She finally left the game for good!

ANNE WHITTLE had a couple of dates with Buck Welch . . . she seems to be getting in the groove with the big crowd.

That jitterbugging Ed Puckett is off for Colorado 'til September. He's gonna be missed around here by a lot of people . . . 'specially that jitterbugging partner—DOT HIGHTOWER.

Strange things happened last week-end. People sort of got mixed up. Some of the girls were asked to their roommates home town by their roommates dates and other dates decided to come back this week-end but not to see their dates. Complicated ain't it?

COLLEEN GEIGER is stepping high again with another "motor-cycle" man. She is really sold on that means of transportation.

Wonder who the certain someone is that DOT FUTCH wants her brother to bring down the last week-end of school.

We are wondering who Millie and Easy are planning to see this week-end in Jax!

Sketching The Seniors

By JOYCE BURCH

MARY ANN FINKLEA

Mary Ann is the attractive brunette you have seen around campus and she is a Valdosta girl.

Mary Ann is a Humanities major with emphasis on art. She especially likes to draw people. After she graduates she hopes to get a job doing some kind of art work. She is a member of the Fine Arts Club, Valdosta Club, and Sports Club.

Mary Ann particularly likes sport clothes but she'll take dressy clothes on special occasions. Her favorite foods are steak with french fries, and sea foods. In the way of music, she'll take semi-classical and popular numbers. Her favorites are "Clair de Lune," "All Through the Day," "Gypsy" and "Prisoner of Love."

Her ideal man must be tall, have blue eyes, and have blonde curly hair. She hasn't met this guy yet and when the right man comes along she's sure he'll be short, have dark hair, and have one green eye and one black eye.

With her drawing ability and desire to paint people, Mary Ann is sure to go far in the Art world.

DOROTHY DAVIS AND MARY RATLIFF

Dorothy Davis is the first of the seniors we're sketching this week. She is better known as "Dottie" or sometimes as "Gug". Dottie, a busy campus worker with a pre-professional course in social work, hails from upstate, specifically, Marshallville, Georgia.

In the line of clothes Dottie likes them all, naturally, but pinning her down she chose the suit as her favorite.

Dottie likes sports and especially riding, despite the broken limb she acquired as a result of said sport not long ago.

"Bring on the food and plenty of it," quote Dottie. Give her shrimp cooked in any shape, form or manner. She loves 'em.

Dottie likes good reading but has little time for outside reading. She's not partial to any author.

For the favorite music, Dottie said sacred music, hymns and the like. Music by Gounod is a favorite, the kind that fills the room and "swells" out everywhere. Dottie is an active member of the Episcopal church. She has some interesting experiences with the choir, I hear.

Edith says Dottie's best liked (by Dottie) past time is having nightmares. Dottie objected to that statement but grinned guiltily. Dottie's most intense dislike is radios. She'd like to tear one apart.

As for Dottie's future, you can draw your own conclusions from the following. She entered GSWC as a freshman January '44 and is graduating August '46. In September she's Tulane bound for two years and her master's degree in social work. From there on she's not sure but child welfare holds her interest at present.

Hats off to Dottie and may all the success she truly deserves, be hers.

Our next senior is Mary Ratliff or just "Red." Although "Red" has lived in Atlanta and has taught for a while, her home is in Valdosta.

Red is getting an A. B. degree in Humanities with emphasis on English. She intends to teach after graduation but just what she doesn't know.

Mary likes all music except the "hill billy", Grand Ole Opry sort. She is partial to sport clothes. Her favorite foods are sea foods. Oh, yes she likes airplanes and any other vehicle with speed to it.

She distinctly dislikes the dumb athlete who talks of nothing but sports. Other dislikes are people who pry around into her business and she doesn't like her name in the paper. Consequently I checked out but fast.

We all wish "Red" the best of luck and success now and in the future.

Hutchinson Discusses State of Affairs

Secretary of State Byrnes recently returned to the United States from the Paris meeting of foreign ministers with a report on what had been accomplished at the meeting and will have to be accomplished when the meeting reopens in June.

Mr. Byrnes was very disappointed with the results of the meeting, and held Russia responsible for the outcome. One of the main issues on which no agreement could be reached by Russia and the United States was the new bipartisan foreign policy, but on his recent broadcast Mr. Byrnes made it perfectly clear that he expects conferences between Mr. Molotov and Premier Stalin during the recess of the meeting to help the differences.

On his broadcast Mr. Byrnes further stated that progress on the peace settlements in Europe was "disappointingly small," but that some points had been cleared up, and that with close co-operation between the foreign ministers some settlement could be made in June.

Some of the many problems which will be discussed and decided on are:

1. The holding of a peace conference.
2. Solution of the problem of Trieste.
3. Future economic arrangements in the Balkans.
4. Long range suppression of Germany.
5. A German peace treaty.
6. The evacuation and restoration of Austria.

In speaking of the conference past and future, and of what has been accomplished and what must be accomplished Mr. Byrnes said, "Our problems are serious, but I am not discouraged. Our offensive to secure peace has only begun."

To finish up his broadcast Mr. Byrnes stated that "We must not forget that if we fail to co-operate in a peace which is indivisible we may again find that we will have to co-operate in a war which is world-wide."

Here again enters the old policy of tolerance. All the nations of the world must practice tolerance, and as one of the leaders in the United Nations the United States must "practice what they preach." We must take the lead and at times give in to the other nations when we might not agree, but all of us are going to have to make sacrifices, but in the final end our sacrifices will be worth the price.

Acquacade Is Success

By CAROLYN MATHIS

Friday night, May 24th, the Sports Club presented the year's final sports event which was divided into three parts. The first part was the aquacade which included both competitive and exhibition swimming. After the swimming demonstration, awards were given. These honors were awarded to those individuals participating in the sports on campus and also to the most outstanding team of the sports club for the past year. After the awards were given, everyone was invited to a party given by the Sports Club in the Rec Hall. Many spectators were present and all agreed that the program presented by the Sports Club Friday night was one of the most enjoyable and outstanding events of the year.

The first part of the aquacade was competitive swimming which included three events . . . Back crawl, breast stroke, and free style. First place counted 5 points, second 3 points, and third 1 point. The Kappa team, having the highest total score, was the winner for the whole event.

Kappa BACK CRAWL

1. Anne Knepton
2. Betty Efird
3. Sherla Miller

BACK CRAWL Lambda

2. Pat Gainey
3. Laura Converse

Sherla Miller, Kappa, splashed in first to give the Kappas an early lead in the first event.

BREAST STROKE Kappa

1. Betty Keene
2. Carolyn Carter

3. Ray Jean Norman BREAST STROKE Lambda

FREE STYLE Kappa

1. Mary Chastain
2. Nell Kenny
3. Morris Smith

FREE STYLE Lambda

1. Phyllis Wade
2. Marion Newsom
3. Nancy Campbell

Nell Kenny, paced the free stylers giving the Kappas three first places in competitive swimming.

Superb time was kept by Miss M. E. Carter.

The second part of aquacade was a game of water softball played by teams of Kappas and Lambdas.

The third and one of the most beautiful events of the aquacade was a water ballet by Sherla Miller, Bet Alderman, and Morris Smith. All of the lights except the underwater pool lights were turned off and the swimmers were accompanied by soft waltz music.

Along more practical lines, the life saving class gave as fourth event in the aquacade, a demonstration and some points on life saving.

The fifth event, formation swimming, was demonstrations including three large impressive rotating circles.

The cleverest part of the aquacade was a stunt relay performed by Sara Roberts, Martha Ann Morgan, Martha Jackson, Frances Castleberry, Joyce Hill, Betty Efird, Betty Moore and Martha Jane Thompson. The race divided the girls into two groups . . . four on each side of the pool.

There were four teams made up of the two girls facing each other. The four on one half of the pool wore odd clothes, and the object was to jump in, swim the pool, put the clothes on the partner, who then jumped in and swam back across the pool, trying to get there first. Just for the record, Castleberry and Thompson were the winning team.

The seventh event, diving, proved to be one of the most spectacular exhibitions of the evening. The dives were superbly executed by Mary "Chase" Chastain, and Sherla Miller.

Chastain: Back jack, pike one and a half, back flip and half twist.

Miller: Jack knife, back dive, swan, and one and one half.

The last event of the aquacade was a number called the Grand March and as the name implies, was a formation done in the water, swimming.

The second main event was the giving of the awards by Miss Ivey, who made a short introductory talk on the purpose of the Sports Club.

The first group of awards were as follows:

Seashore Swank

Brand new seashore fashion, the sea shirt, shown above as pictured in the May issue of Junior Bazaar, is certain to be popular on the beaches this summer. Made in blue and white striped cotton twill, it buttons from the convertible collar right down to the hem. Has two big front pockets.

LOOK'S RECORD REVIEW

TOPS IN WAX—Black, Brown and Beige—two 12-inch Victor record Showpiece No. SP-9. Here is the most pretentious and significant work from the pen of Duke Ellington. This is music for listening, and in its repetition, an understanding of the Negro's position in American culture is to be gained. It traces the life of the Negro through three hundred years—through slavery, the wars, their religious fervor, their sorrows and joys, and their philosophies. Starred are the saxes of Otto Hardwicke, Johnny Hodges, Al Sears and Harry Carney; the trumpet of Taft Jordan; Tricky Sam Nanton's trombone; Ray Nance, violin; Junior Raglin, bass; and Joya Sherrill at her vocal best.

Duke Ellington

VOCAL TRIO—The Dinning Sisters, Jean, Ginger and Lou of the tricky harmonies, sing a pair of commercial, but good sides: Wave To Me, My Lady and Do You Love Me? The former is a railroad novelty chant which sticks in the mind, and the latter, a ballad, is taken from the Twentieth Century Fox picture of the same name (Capitol).

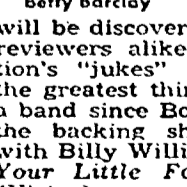

Betty Barclay

VOCAL STANDOUT—I'm A Big Girl Now. This may have been intended for dancing, but Sam- my Kaye's new chirper discovery, Betty Barclay, steals the show with her vocals. She's a new singing sensation "stylist," (and will be discovered by press and reviewers alike when the nation's "jukes" catch on), and the greatest thing to happen to a band since Bonnie Baker. On the backing she joins vocals with Billy Williams to sing Put Your Little Foot Right Out, (Victor).

Tommy Tucker

JAZZ FOR COLLECTORS—Brunswick issues another album in their "Collectors' Series" titled Johnny Dodds. This album contains four 10-inch discs, among which are these bests—Weary Blues, After You've Gone, Joe Turner Blues and Piggly Wiggly. The immortal Dodds' clarinet, played in traditional New Orleans style where the one reed instrument serves as an entire reed section, runs the complete range from subtone to harmonics. Here is a must for collectors!

Nat Cole

INSTRUMENTAL TRIO—Nat Cole, with The King Cole Trio, does a groovy waxing on the Capitol label in, It Is Better To Be By Yourself. This is played as they perform it in the picture, Breakfast in Hollywood, with the group singing a solid, driving chorus that is topped only by fine piano-guitar choruses. Dig this for a collector's item. On the back the boys display their wares—Oscar Moore's guitar, (he's the "Esqy" winner this year), Johnny Miller's fine bass work, and Nat Cole's piano in the instrumental, Sweet Georgia Brown.

DANCE—If you like your music easy on the ears, if you want a beat for dancing, if you like a ballad melody, then Take Care—it's Tommy Tucker's newest and his best for a long time. Don Brown and The Three Two Timers sing it, a subtone clarinet carries the melody with a guitar filler and Tommy Tucker's band gives you the beat with background music. On the reverse, the band plays, the same vocalists sing When The One You Love (Simply Won't Love Back), (Columbia).

JAZZ FOR COLLECTORS—Brunswick issues another album in their "Collectors' Series" titled Johnny Dodds. This album contains four 10-inch discs, among which are these bests—Weary Blues, After You've Gone, Joe Turner Blues and Piggly Wiggly. The immortal Dodds' clarinet, played in traditional New Orleans style where the one reed instrument serves as an entire reed section, runs the complete range from subtone to harmonics. Here is a must for collectors!

International Students Conference to Meet in Prague

An International Student Conference is to take place in Prague this summer from the 17th to the 31st of August.

The main purpose of the Conference has been stated in the appeal sent to all student organizations:

"We consider that the main problem confronting the World Student Congress will be that of establishing a representative international students' organization uniting in its ranks all the democratic student organizations of the world with the aim of insuring a lasting and stable peace, of promoting friendship among all peoples and of defending the rights and interests of students."

A call to the Conference has been issued by the International Preparatory Committee to student groups in every country. This Preparatory Committee is composed of representatives of student organizations of twelve countries and is a development of the experiences of the five hundred delegates from fifty-one countries who attended the International Student Conference at Prague in November, 1945.

At this first Conference the problems involved in the fields of student exchanges, student relief and student responsibility for keeping the peace were considered. There was a strong feeling that much closer cooperation was needed between student organizations of different countries if these problems were to be successfully solved. The Conference called for this summer will have as its main task the establishment of an international student organization to approach these problems.

Support for this Conference is widespread and comes not only from student groups but also from many of our leading educators and legislators. In her letter to the executive secretary of the American Preparatory Committee, Helen Ganagan Douglas, Representative from the 14th district of California, says:

"I have learned with a great deal of interest of the International Student Conference that it to take place in Prague this summer. Those of you who go will have an opportunity to sit down with foreign students to discuss mutual problems and to deepen your understanding of one another. Building understanding in the world is helping to lay a firm foundation for peace."

An American Preparatory Committee has been set up composed of representatives from the following organizations; National Intercollegiate Christian Council (Student YMCA and YWCA), B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundations, United States Student Assembly, Intercollegiate Youth for Democracy, Student Federalists, Association of Internes and Medical Students. The American Preparatory Committee has decided that 25 delegates shall be sent to Prague. Approximately 17 of these will represent the organizations on the Committee. The rest shall be delegates-at-large, students representing the organizations on a particular campus or group of campuses, and who shall be approved by the American Preparatory Committee. All campus groups or individuals who are interested in having their campus represented at this Conference are urged to get in touch with Alice Horton of the American Preparatory Committee, Room 912, 8 West 40th Street, New York City.

This Is My Problem

By ETHEL BENTLEY

Dear Mr. Anthony,
I have a problem, honest I do . . . that's why I'm writing you 'cause you're just the one who can help me. You probably have the same problem, in reverse order, of course.

You see, Mr. Anthony, my principal trouble is the great shortage of time, particularly night time, during the week and the great number of men in my life. Being very precocious, intellectually speaking, time for studying is of minor importance to me but as I am not so wise in other matters, I can never figure how to fill nine dates a week when the inventor of the calendar only included seven nights in that space. What I'm begging you to do, sir, is to make a new calendar with more nights per week.

Of course you may say that nine dates a week are comparatively few, but being so completely in agreement with the consensus of opinion that I'm a natural for spinsterhood, you'll probably congratulate me on doing even that well.

Another thing that bothers me is that so many men want to marry me, and they're all such wonderful people . . . there just couldn't be another like any of them (for which we are truly grateful!). Being so uneducated about such things, I can't decide which is the best catch . . . and someone says it's against the law to have four husbands at once. What am I going to do, Mr. Anthony? They're all unique.

First, there's "Raincoat," who is a very fascinating person . . . His most obvious personality trait is his love for wearing only a raincoat, stormy weather or no, and prowling dark streets. George is "Raincoat's" protege, only he wears a few more clothes . . . probably his training hasn't reached the advanced stage yet! George II is almost tall enough for me (he's 7'2") but his feet are so big we can't both walk in the same block at the same time. And then there's Mac, who has a beautiful car, the only sad thing being that to ride in it you have to listen to him sing . . . but cowboy songs are so romantic, don't you think?

As you can see, Mr. Anthony, all these gentlemen are very attractive, but I'm not happy . . . for some strange reason I wish I could hear from a tall, handsome indifferent blond at Ga. just once in a while. So please, won't you work on that deal or else give the other guys a lesson or two?
Yours hopefully

Lab Work Is New Addition To Language

South Hadley, Mass. (I. P.)—Beginning students in all modern languages at Mount Holyoke College next year will have two hours of laboratory work each week in addition to their regular class recitations, Academic Dean Harriett M. Allyn announced here.

Similar to the Army's language-teaching program which provided frequent drill periods with "informants" who had spoken the language from childhood, the plan will be worked out with the help of foreign students holding scholarships for advanced study. The number of special scholarships awarded for 1946-47 has almost doubled, Dean Allyn reported, commenting on "the sudden rise in numbers of excellent applicants from all over the world."

Laboratory work will be provided for all first and second year courses in French, German, Spanish and Italian, Miss Allyn explained, and it is hoped that the same procedure may be used with the beginning course in Russian, which in response to students request, will be offered for the first time next year.
