

Five New Faculty Members Named

GSWC has five new faculty members in the Home Economics, Physical Education, Education, Music, and Art departments.

Miss Sarah Weems, of Athens, Georgia, has been named Assistant Professor of Home Economics. She attended GSCW at Milledgeville and received both her Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Ga. Miss Weems has taught Home Economics in the public schools at Athens and Thomaston, and at one time did farm service work for the TVA and the Power Co. Later she served with the Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior. Her affiliations include: AAUW, American Home Economics Association, D. A. R., Phi Upsilon Omicron, Honorary Home Economics Society, and Chi Omega, Social Sorority.

Miss Martha Rooks joins the faculty as Assistant Professor of Physical Education. A native of Brownsville, Tennessee, she attended Tennessee College for Women in Murfreesboro, and holds Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degrees from the University of Tennessee. After teaching in the high schools at Lake City, Tenn., and White Hall, Tenn., Miss Rooks instructed in the Physical Education Department of the University of Tenn. last year. She is a member of Phi Kappa Phi honor society, Lambda Theta, Phi Eta Tau, and The American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Miss Lorene Herndon has been appointed Assistant Professor of Education and Residence Counselor in Senior Hall. Miss Herndon is a native Georgian and is a resident of Trion, Ga. She holds the Bachelor of Science degree from the U. of Ga. and the Master of Arts degree with a major in psychology from George Peabody College. She has also done graduate work in guidance at Columbia University and is studying toward her doctorate at Peabody. After teaching in the high schools at Trion, Dalton, and Summerville, Miss Herndon served as Personnel Supervisor in the WAVES at Norman, Oklahoma and for the past year was Residence Counselor at George Peabody College. Eight Freshmen Sisters Former GSWC Girls

In this year's Freshman class, there are several girls who have the distinction of being sisters of former 'WC girls. Some of the upper classmen have already recognized the similarities between the frosh and old students.

Everyone who knew "Boo" Harrington of Fargo when she was the Sophomore "Marga" in '48 will immediately recognize her sister Janice. Most of us have also heard of Betty Jackson, known already as "the freshman with the beautiful voice." Betty a new member of the Glee Club and the Serenaders, is the sister of Martha Jackson, one of the graduates of last June.

Mary Love Steedley is remembered from her visits to her sister Sammie, a member of the Sophomore class last year. Mary Love, who is from Homerville, is now here to carry on the Steedley line. Janice Player of Bainbridge is filling the spot vacated by her sister Annette.

Moultrie has contributed two little sisters in the class of '53. Ann Bryant is the sister of Jean Bryant Tucker and Clara Nell Whelchel is Carolyn's younger sister. From Sylvester, we have Helen Grace Ford, sister of Edwina, one of the members of the Junior Class.

Dot Pindar, of Valdosta, hails from a family of 'WC girls. Her sisters are Florence, now Mrs. James Colyer, a former member of the class of '51, and Mary Catherine, (Mrs. W. Hillhouse) a graduate of '46.

Besides the freshman sisters on our campus, we have two sisters who have transferred here this year, Jeanette and Melba Grogan, from Calhoun. Jeanette is a Junior this year, and Melba is a Soph.

These new students have a lot to live up to if they expect to attain the records set by their sisters. However, the upperclassmen would like to take this opportunity to welcome all the little sisters.

Seniors to Have Carnival Tonight Parade Scheduled in Town at 3:30 Annual Trip Planned For Cuba

By MARGARET SMITH

From the time the parade moves away from Senior Hall at GSWC tomorrow afternoon, the Seniors will be "Queens for a Day". This is the day of the annual Senior Carnival.

Preparations were started weeks ago and after the parade of cars loaded with the 1950 graduates winds its way through the streets of Valdosta, the campus will be full of activity. There are lights to go up, crepe paper to decorate the poles and booths, signs to be tacked up, concession stands stocked with hot dogs, Cokes, and do-nuts, the side-shows set up, and last, but far from least, the last minute touches added to the House of Horrors.

All these things and many more will be opened to the students, faculty, and friends of the Senior class tomorrow night. Starting at 7:30 P. M. the crowds will begin to wander down to the back campus between the tennis courts and the swimming pool behind the gym.

At the gate to greet all the fun-seekers will be Miss Rene Herndon and Miss Martha Rooks, resident heads of Senior Hall. Passing down the midway, on either side can be found stands for fishing, operated by Lavara Jones, Sue Belloff, and Margaret Traynham, bingo tables, capably run by Patsy Sutherland, Maxie Warren, and Eloise Yancey, and penny boards, watched over by Ellen Odum and Gaye Hemmingway.

Also to be found at the carnival will be a hula-dancer with Marion Hayes in charge of the "swings." Cakes will be given away at the cake walk by Jo Anne Story and apples are there to be "bobbed" for with Margie Newell and Frances Paine in charge.

For finding about the future, also past and present, Barbara Clark will direct all daring to learn the answers to Mary Owen, unique fortune teller. There will be ten pins to pitch at with Anne Bone and Irene Wilson passing out the prizes.

When the smell of food begins to drift around among those enjoying the fun, the concession stand attendants, Regina Geiger, Anna Kennedy, Mary Anne McLendon, Margaret Smith, and Louise Godbee, will be very much in demand.

For the men, there can be found a stand "For Men Only," guarded by Jean Mullis and Faye Hemmingway.

Before leaving the Carnival, the House of Horrors will add the final Halloween taste. This spine-chilling establishment is operated by Mary Duncan, Joyce Childs, Miriam Girtman, and Claire Mobley with all the Seniors contributing their special horror to the House.

All during the evening, two very active clowns will be roaming around to add to the festivities. These are Seniors Iris Moore and Jane Gibson.

When things are beginning to drift, they will lead to the GSWC Auditorium where at 9:45 a floor show will begin. Mildred Manley, and Judy and Frankie Briggs are the directors of the show.

There will be two skits, the first, "A La Carte," starring Ellen Odum, Patsy Sutherland, Lavara Jones, Irene Wilson, Anna Kennedy, Iris Moore, Mary Anne McLendon, Margaret Traynham and Nancy Thornton. "Sixty Miles From Home" will feature Mary Duncan, Miriam Girtman, Jane Gibson, Anne Bone, and Sue Belloff.

The chorus line which will perform before and after the show is composed of Jackie Norton, Mildred Manley, Judy Briggs, Maxie Warren, Frankie Briggs, and Barbara Clark.

There will be a monkey and accordion player, Mildred Manley and Joyce Childs, seen at various spots during the night.

Margie Nowell, Mary Anne McLendon, Ruth Templeton, Patsy Sutherland and Margaret Smith have been working on the publicity committee.

A street dance will close the big event. It will be in the street in front of the gym on south campus.

The money made by the Seniors will be used on a trip to Cuba to be made in the Spring. The prizes were contributed by the merchants of Valdosta.

White Chosen Soph. Chairman

Miss Sue Nell White of Cairo, has been chosen to head the Sophomore Council for the school year of 1949-50 by the YWCA Cabinet.

Included to assist Miss White are Misses Barbara Green, Fleta Lou Williamson, Joanne Gilmer, Luceil Bauer, Greta Weathers, Blount Trammell, Betty King, Mary Jo Lott, Dot Stover, Martha Daniel, Leila Harmon, Lydia Story, Betty Jerrigan, Flo McCall, Edith Bassett, Carleen Newell, Jackie Bryan, Elaine Boatwright, Ruth Miller, and Betty Hughes.

Their duties are to chaperon the House in the Woods on Sunday afternoons and nights, to keep the halls quiet in Ashley during the Y services, to assist with the Freshman Taps and to decorate the Christmas tree.

Artist Series To Feature Top Performers Here

The Artist Series performances scheduled for this school year will feature many top-flight performers in several fields of the fine arts.

On October 27, the Bakaleinikoff Sinfonietta will be presented with Vladimir Bakaleinikoff conducting. The American soprano, Marina Koshetz will be the featured soloist with the group. Miss Koshetz may be remembered by her appearance in such movies as "Luxury Liner."

The second performance will be given by the Chicago Opera Ballet on November 10. The directors and star performers are Ruth Page, and Bentley Stone. Miss Page has toured the world for several seasons, and her co-star is one of America's leading classical dancers. The program will feature the full length ballet, "Beauty and the Beast," the score of which was written by Tschai-kowsky.

The third presentation on the Series will be the duo-pianists, Luboshutz and Nemenoff. These pianists are a renowned husband and wife team who have been heard not only from coast to coast throughout the United States but also in every music center of Europe. They have appeared for successive years in Jacksonville, and are greeted with much acclaim. December 10 is the date of their appearance in Valdosta.

For the last group to be presented by the Artist Series will be the Barter Theatre of Virginia. In previous years the Barter has presented either a Shakespearean or modern play. They will deviate from that this year by presenting the "Imaginary Invalid" by Moliere.

Fall Quarter House Council Take Office

House Councilors for the first quarter of school have been announced by Miss Polly Mann, First Vice President of SGA and in charge of House Councils. "These Councilors have a very important job to fill. They are the ones who check on all the girls in the dormitories," Miss Mann states.

In their list of duties, these girls serve as Fire Lieutenants, check light extensions, and rooms, comprise the student court in the event of court warnings and check cards.

Freshman House Councilors are appointed by the Student Council for the first quarter and thereafter are elected by their own classmates. Sophomores, juniors and seniors elect their Councilors at the beginning of each quarter.

Freshmen named by the Student Council this quarter are Misses Helen Grace Ford, Barbara Ann Smith, Bob (Ida Jane) Hatcher, Jean Jordan, and Jean Whaley.

The Sophomores include Misses Joan Scarboro, Mary Otho Efrid, Virginia Chandler and Nancy Sellers.

In Senior Hall the Council members are Misses Sue Fletcher, Dot Keefe, Maxie Warren, Mary Duncan, and Sally King.

In addition to these the members of the Student Council assist in the duties of checking at night.

HOUSE COUNCIL—Girls selected on the Fall Quarter House Council groups from all dormitories are: Misses Helen Grace Ford, Barbara Ann Smith, Bob Hatcher, Jean Jordan, Jean Whaley, Joan Scarboro, Mary Efrid, Virginia Chandler, Nancy Sellers, Sue Fletcher, Dot Keefe, Maxie Warren, Mary Duncan, and Sally King.

"Make the Most of Your Time"

You have often heard the saying "Make The Most Of Your Time." This is the beginning of a new quarter and a new year. For the Freshmen it is the beginning of a new life.

There are many adjustments in a new life of any kind and a life away from the ones you love the most and who love you may be hard but soon you may begin to realize that the ones here might "just" happen to love you as much as they, before it is all over.

So there is no time for sitting around and moping over those minor things in your life now. This might be the only time you ever have to come to college—to take advantage of the things a higher education may offer you.

It may be harder to study here at college but the effort is repaid more. It may be difficult to get use to the life of routine but routine can be a game and sometimes helpful. There may seem almost too much to do at times, but of course, that depends on how much you may take upon yourself to do.

The Point System is here to keep you from doing too much and to keep you in line for graduation. The library is here to help you keep up with your studying. The routine is there to help you get use to the idea of having rules and regulations.

What does this have to do with the saying "Make the Most of Your Time?" Well, if things were done when they are supposed to be done and not put off there might be more time to do the things you want to do afterwards. There is another saying, "Don't Put Off Until Tomorrow What You Can Do Today." That applies to the same rule of wasting time.

When you think that there is too much to do, try looking back at a few days before or even a few hours and see if there was any time in which you could have been doing something constructive. If so, you might remember that the next time you know something is coming up that you want to do.

There will probably be times when things do pile up but it might be helpful to be on the lookout for just such times and be prepared for them.

Social Calendar

The Fall Quarter has started with a BANG! and we are off to a fine start. The ball of activity is again rolling around GSWC and we find our Social Calendar for October 16-29 action packed with all the different club meetings and outings and of course, the Artist Series!

Trading Post

One of the classic "pep-talks" stories is told on Michigan's great football coach, "Hurry Up Yost. Yost, as well as being a brilliant strategist, was a firm believer in dressing room oratory.

During half time of one important game, he pulled out all the stops in a fervent plea for victory. The players sat enthralled as Coach Yost poured it on.

"Go out that door to victory," the fiery coach screamed. So carried away was he that Yost pointed to the wrong door.

The Michigan players, fired to a fever pitch, dashed headlong into the swimming pool, and encumbered with heavy football gear, narrowly escaped drowning. —"Niagra Index"

Guess Who?

By GLORIA JOHNSON

A big organization this girl heads,
And does it very well;
Who "gets what for doing what",
She can surely tell.

Her hair is light and rather long
Her eyes are surely not brown.
When she starts on abstractions,
She really "goes to town."

This one is a redhead
Who lives in Senior hall;
Sometimes she wears glasses,
And is mediumly tall.

When she completes her major,
She'll know how to run a house.
She has a distinctive laugh,
And when sleeping is quiet as a mouse.

Campus Scenes

Have you noticed anything unusual happening on campus in the past few weeks? Well, we have.

You may have missed the treat that Nancy Thornton gave some members of Senior Hall one night in the parlor with her imitations. She does everything from playing a trumpet to giving out with the "Smiling Snow Man's" theme song.

Were you in the Ad building Did anyone see Clara Nell Whelchel during the playing of the World Series and yelled "Hurray for the Dodgers", and then walked quietly back into his office?

If you could have seen the expression on Mr. White and Dr. Thaxton's faces when Anna Marangos walked along the Ad building hall in her painting smock, you would have laughed, too.

chel and Helen Grace Ford learning to Charleston in the downstairs hall of Converse?

We hear that Mr. Gabard is having trouble with the gnats of South Georgia.

On Thursdays the north end of the hall in Senior is impossible due to all the furniture that goes into ONE room, 303. In case you don't know, the room is that of Jackie and Margaret.

Some people have more worries on wash day than just the washing of clothes. Ask Betty Henderson why she was standing on her head fishing her belt out of the drain.

NO! The building isn't falling down. It's just the seniors practicing the can-can. And those hill-billys you heard the other night weren't on the radio. They are part of the surprised on the Senior Carnival show in the auditorium.

If you see or hear anything out of the ordinary just drop by Senior Hall or let Anna Marangos know.

See you next time.

Senior Lament

We have returned,
Our tassels turned,
And all around we see
A score of freshman fashion plates.

With clothes fit to-a-tee,
We smile sweetly,
See them bleakly,
Then think with utmost glee,
"Three more years of classroom wear,
And, honey, you'll look like me."

ANN SMITH

Help Wanted—Inquire Below—

The thought of having to write a column article always strikes fear into the heart of a poor individual. In trying to alleviate this situation I enlisted the aid of several people. I suggested that I go out and derive inspiration from the wonderful "harvest moon" which was peep over house-tops and through the trees. She said that it should help in some way at least because it was almost pretty enough to make you a poet."

Moon gazing is a very nice experience but might be a little more timely to consider another subject—the CAMPUS CANOPY.

The CAMPUS CANOPY is the official publication of the Student Government Association GSWC. SGA is made up of each of us, so in turn we determine the fate of the CANOPY—we can make it a vital organ of the school, or let it be a dead shell.

It is the desire of the staff to encourage student participation in the CANOPY as much as possible. If you have an idea which you think is good, interesting, useful or practical don't be hesitant about submitting it. Or if you feel that you do not have a "literary flair" (no comment please) tell somebody about your brain storm so that they can make good use of it.

Most publications have some space devoted to letters from the readers, and we of the CANOPY hope to have such a provision this year. In this way only can we know your opinions on pertinent matters, or perhaps those which are not so important, but just interesting. This is one of the ways to get your ideas before the most people with a minimum of effort. And if you are a shy lady who doesn't like to see her name in print, it will be alright not to sign letters. One contribution was signed by "Ann Anonymous", so you may follow suit if you wish. No matter what method you use, take advantage of your opportunity to suggest any improvements, corrections, or give constructive criticism.

The last request I have to make is that you read your CANOPY. It is paid for by you from your Student Activities fee, so why not check and see just how the good old "filthy lucre" is being spent.

Life Could Be Beautiful

Life could be a lot more beautiful if women would stop their bickering and mutual tripping-up and just give one another more of a chance.

So says author Florence Howitt, who writes of woman's inhumanity to woman in the October issue of Good Housekeeping magazine. "The melancholy fact," she writes, "is that we are not as kind to one another as we could be. We cause one another a lot of mental anguish."

Of friendship, Miss Howitt charges her sex with "not seeming to bring to friendship the compassion and tolerance it must possess if it is to survive or have meaning." She says the reason is because women are so vulnerable and hence can't give themselves wholeheartedly to friendship for fear of being hurt.

The author chides womanhood for "the great pleasure we derive from belittling one another", the "tacit understanding between women that as soon as a man enters the picture, the rules of fair play are abandoned," and their extreme susceptibility to jealousy.

"Building mountains out of molehills is another little feminine talent that keeps the fair sex reaching for sleeping pills," she writes, "and how helpful are groups of women, as a whole, to the newcomer trying to get a social foothold?"

As for the women bosses, Miss Howitt says: "The plain fact is that women do not enjoy working for each other. . . . Women bosses, say the girls, are too jealous of one another, lack a sense of fair play, enjoy exploiting their powers."

Lest she be accused of nurturing a phobia against her own sex, the author states in her article: "I want to make it clear that I think women are wonderful. We're smart and tough and have guts and ability and must be pretty heroic to have survived in this strong man's world. . . . And that, ladies, is just the point. We're too good to treat one another the way we do. We deserve better."

'MADEMOISELLE' To Form College Board In June

NEW YORK — (Special)—MADEMOISELLE magazine has opened its annual contest for College Board members during the 1949-50 college year.

Membership in the College Board is the first step in becoming one of MADEMOISELLE'S twenty college "Guest Editors," who will be brought to New York City next June to help write and edit the annual August College issue of the magazine.

While in New York City, each Guest Editor takes part in a full calendar of activities designed to give her a head start in her career. She interviews a celebrity in her chosen field to get advice on the education and training needed and to ask about tips and shortcuts in reaching the top. She also takes field trips to newspaper offices, fashion workrooms, radio stations, stores, advertising agencies and printing plants.

The twenty Guest Editors are selected from the College Board on the basis of three assignments given by the magazine during the year. They are paid a regular salary for their month's work, plus round-trip transportation to New York City.

The rules for the contest are:

1. Contestants must submit a report of two typewritten, double-spaced pages on any phase of campus life: a new academic course, a fashion, a fad, an activity, a college trend or anything else that might interest other college students.

2. Contestants must submit a snapshot plus complete data on college and home address, class year, college major and minor, other interests and activities and paid or volunteer jobs held.

3. All material must be mailed to the College Board Editor, MADEMOISELLE, 122 East 42 Street, New 17, N. Y., postmarked no later than midnight November 1, 1949.

4. Only undergraduates at accredited colleges and junior colleges, available to work as Guest Editors from June 30, 1950 are eligible.

Krazy News

By ELINOR JONES

Miss Lucy "Suntan" Bush has opened her new "resort" on the coast of Daytona Beach, Florida. This pleasant place is named "Lucy's Luxurious Lounging Lodge for Lazy Ladies". It will include recreational eating, sleeping, sunbathing, eating, sunbathing, sleeping, and more eating. (By the way—this way of entertaining will be co-recreational!!) Miss Bush hopes to feature a "Stetson Day" in her program for the year.

"Honey Hill" and her friend, "Candy Mountain" announce the opening of their "Tasty Pastry" shop on the corner of "Ooley" and "Drooley" streets.

"Dingling Bros. Circus" regret that they must lose their most famous trapeze artist "Madame Martha Muscles McKemie" who is afraid her husband might "catch her in the act."

Miss Nancy Sellers, Miss Ruth Miller with their flock of girls with eight and nine size feet, have done a wonderful job in the stomping out the forest fires in cooperation with the Georgia State Forestry Association. As you know, their slogan is "Keep Georgia Green for the Sake of Our Shoe Leather."

Our beloved "Happy Harold Gulliver" went down in tears today when one of our brightest students asked: "Dr. Gulliver, what made Edipus, the king, Euripides pants off Homer?"

It is easy in the world to live after the world's opinion; it is easy in solitude to live after our own; but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps with perfect sweetness the independence of solitude.

Sellers Chosen 'Y' Vice-Pres.

Miss Nancy Sellers has been named the Associate Vice-President on the YWCA replacing Miss Silvia Johnson, according to Miss Eloise Yancey, president.

Others added to the Y Cabinet are Misses Doris Gothard, Sacristar, Mary Holder, Morning Watch Co-Chairman, Lucy Bush, Organizer, and Billie Cliett, Deputation Co-Chairman.

These girls take the places left by Miss Betty Norton, Miss Jeanne Gaillard, Miss Sammie Steedley and Mrs. R. L. Summers (Miss Doris Mims.)

Miss Yancey also announces that Mrs. John Jenkins will serve as advisor to the Y this year.

The story hour at the Carnegie Library which is sponsored by the YWCA here on campus will begin again soon. Stories are told to children from grades one, two, and three each Tuesday afternoon. Anyone interested in helping with this and who has not been contacted is asked to see Miss Emmie Kenny who has been chosen Chairman of the Story Hour Committee.

On October 20 a new type of Vesper program is to be presented—Faculty Vespers—at which time members of the faculty will present the entire program.

'Canopy' Editor Announces New Staff Members

Miss Margaret Smith, editor of the CAMPUS CANOPY, has announced the new members to the college newspaper.

With the beginning of a new year, the staff of the CAMPUS CANOPY has added many new members. With this, the first edition of 1949-50 series, the new members began their work.

Miss Gloria Johnson, of Quitman, has been named the new Feature Editor and Miss Anna Marangos of Valdosta, and Miss Eleanor Jones of Quitman, have been added to her staff.

Miss Doris Gothard was selected by the Sports Council as the Sports Editor. Miss Mary Claire Duncan of Leslie, and Jane Gibson of Donaldsonville, have been appointed to the position of Exchange Editors.

Misses Vallie Staten, Eleanor Bowman, and Mattie Lou Wilson have been selected as the Make-up Editors. Misses Thad Pitt and Gloria Johnson have been added to the staff of Columnists.

The Business Manager, Miss Betty Henderson, has named her Advertising Staff as Misses Mickey Newton, Kathleen Meeks, Mary Duncan, Amarylese Steedley, Jane Benton, Margaret Warbinton, Mary Ann Dykes, Anna Marangos, Jackie Sikes, Blount Trammell, Betty Ann Bishop, Mattie Lou Wilson, Vallie Staten, Elaine Boatwright, and Pat Owens.

On the News Staff, working under Miss Betty Waters, News Editor, there are Misses Doris Gothard, Mary Ann Dykes, Iris Moore, Sarah Parker, Pat Owens, Jane Benton, Jane Krumrine, Jean Jordan, Peggy Phelan, Jackie Mathis, Vallie Staten, Anne Bryant, Lydia Story, and Eleanor Bowman.

Miss Ann Smith is the Associate Editor.

Have Your Pictures Developed In 24 Hours Take Advantage of SENIOR FILM SERVICE

'Pine Cone' Staff To Begin Work Monday

On Monday, the pictures for the PINE CONE will begin to be scheduled. The individual class pictures will be made in a room in the Administration Building which will be selected before Monday.

This year the pictures will be taken by Larry Bookman and Dale Wallace. Both men have worked with the annual staff before. With the agreement to work on campus for the individual pictures, the problem of getting everyone to the studio on time has been eliminated.

However, Miss Margaret Traynham, Editor, asks that all remember when they have agreed to appear for their picture and be there on time. This also applies to the club pictures which will be taken this quarter also.

Others on the 1949-50 staff are Misses Polly Mann and Jackie Norton, Associate Editors, Misses Edwina Ford, Anna Kennedy, Mary Anne McLendon and Mary Duncan, Photo Editors, Misses Mary Owen and Mary Brand, Layout Editors, Miss Barbara Clarke, Business Manager, Miss Patsy Sutherland, Club Write-ups, Miss Jackie Ramsey, Art Editor, and on the advertising staff are Misses Mary T. Tullis, Elaine Cheshire, Betty Buckner, Lucy Bush, Ellen Odum, Louise Godbee, Iris Moore, Jane Gibson, Anne Bone, Irene Wilson, Jean Mullis, Frankie Briggs, and Gaye Hemmingway.

Paper Receives Honor Rating

In a recent rating service by the Associated Collegiate Press the CAMPUS CANOPY was given a Second Class Honor Rating. This is one of the many times the paper has received the Second Rating in the past few years.

Copies of each edition are sent to the Press offices where they are closely examined for classification as to coverage, balance, creativeness, treatment of subject, news stories, style, features, copy-reading, headlines, front page make-up, printing, column writing, and sports coverage.

Constructive criticism is given and suggestions as to how the paper could be made better during the next year. The CANOPY received high credit under most of the subjects.

The first meeting of the club will be held Oct. 18 at the House-in-the-Woods, at which time the new members will begin initiation procedure.

Officers of the Sock and Buskin Club which is sponsored by Miss Louise Sawyer, Professor, of speech, are: Ann Smith, president; Gloria Johnson, vice-president; Ruth Dinkins, secretary-treasurer; and Anna Marangos, historian.

What Is Your O. Q.?

By Gloria Johnson

Perhaps you know something about your I. Q., but what about your O. Q.? (Observance Quotient)? This will be a test of that type.

How many of these questions can you answer without looking for the answers?

1. How many front doors does the Little Griffin Hospital have?
 2. How many windows are there on the library entrance wings?
 3. How many chairs are there in this reading room in the library?
 4. How many radiators are there in the book store and where are they located?
 5. There are two plants in the upstairs hall of the Ad Building. What kind are they?
 6. What is exhibited in the glass case outside the business office?

English Club Elects Officers At First Meet

Nineteen new members were welcomed into the English Club on Tuesday night at the first meeting of the new year. It has been decided that English minors may be allowed to join the club along with the majors.

Miss Mary Claire Duncan was in charge of the program. She presented several records of Judith Anderson's "Medea." After the program refreshments were served by Misses Jane Gibson and Anna Kennedy.

Miss Kennedy was also elected the new vice president and Miss Louise Godbee was chosen the secretary-treasurer. Miss Patsy Sutherland is the president of the club.

The new members include Misses Ann Smith, Lucy Bush, Elaine Cheshire, Monteen Strickland, Dot Keefe, Marianne Seigler, Louise Godbee, Sue Fletcher, Gerelda Riggins, Marian Hayes, Mary Singletary, Emily Justice, Margaret Ruffin, Barbara Clarke, Betty English, Joyce Childs, Mildred Manley, Eleanor King and Martha Jean Boatwright.

Plans were discussed of attending the concert to be given by Oscar Levant in Thomasville on January 27.

Cotton Queen To Be Selected In Memphis

The Southern Belles of GSWC have been invited by Ole King Cotton to participate in the annual Maid of Cotton carnival at Memphis, Tenn.

Announcement of the 1950 Maid of Cotton contest by the National Cotton Council marks the beginning of the search to find the cotton industry's twelfth good will and fashion ambassador.

The '50 Maid will succeed Sue Howell of Bakersfield, California, who in 1949 carried cotton's message to thirty cities in the United States, and across two oceans to England, France, and Hawaii.

More than thirty-five thousand miles of interesting travel, an all-cotton designer wardrobe slated to be the year's top collection of fashions, and many other thrills are in store for the lucky young lady named to the title in Memphis early in January.

Any single girl who is between the ages of 19 and 25, at least five feet five inches tall, and a native of a cotton-growing state may enter. The Maid of Cotton contest places equal emphasis on background, personality, and appearance.

Approximately twenty finalists will be selected to appear in Memphis on January 3 before the seven-member board of judges, composed of prominent cotton men and representatives of the sponsoring organizations. Sponsors are the National Cotton Council, the Memphis Cotton Carnival, and the Cotton Exchanges of New York, New Orleans and Memphis.

The day after her selection the new cotton Maid leaves for New York to prepare for the tour, which opens at Burdine's in Miami, early in February. During her month's visit in New York, the young ambassador is introduced to the nation's foremost designers, who present her with originals for her all-cotton wardrobe, including costumes for every occasion and every season.

She receives training in make-up and modeling at a well-known studio, learns the art of fashion photography as she poses for her publicity pictures, appears on national radio programs with top performers, and attends the season's theatrical hits and name dining places.

The 1950 Maid of Cotton will take her place in cotton's hall of fame with an impressive procession of brunettes, blondes, and redheads whose services to the industry have contributed significantly to its progress for more than a decade.

Seniors Open Over-Night Picture Service

The Seniors are offering a new service on the campus at GSWC. An over-night photo finishing service is being started with Bookman's Studio handling the developing. Films can be left at Senior Hall anytime before 4:30 in the afternoon and at the 4:30 the next day the developed pictures will be returned to the campus.

The cost will be the same as that of the drug stores in town. This service will save time and actually give quicker service.

The purpose of this new convenience is to raise additional money for the Senior trip planned for the Spring. The Seniors are trying to raise enough money to finance a week's stay on the island of Cuba.

The films can be left with Margaret Smith in room 307 Senior. If desired, rolls of film can be purchased.

Molly Pitcher was the first woman sergeant in the American Army.

Kappa or Lambda?????
The Freshmen received their bids to the Sports Club at the annual club hike. As of yet, few new faces have appeared for the Soccer and Volley Ball Teams. Come on out! Learn the game. Support your team! Coaches are on both fields to help you learn the game.

Do you have your rat cap? You'll be needing them soon—come "rat day".

In a few days representatives will be around to all the dormitories to sell sweat shirts. These shirts have your team name written across the front in purple and red. Be sure and get one as they feel good on cold, winter afternoons on the sports field.

Student Council Decide Fate Annual Members

At the meeting of the Student Council Monday afternoon, membership on the staff of the PINE CONE has been made a seasonal club and therefore does not count as one of the clubs counted in the Point System.

Other business included naming Miss Frances Paine, Town Girl Representative, Chairman of the drive for adopting a war orphan. Miss Mary Owen, President of SGA, asked the Presidents of the classes to be in charge of collecting the money and turning it over to Miss Paine. It was decided by the student body at an assembly that the orphan be adopted by the school.

The Council decided that two Juniors or Seniors may go to town at night. The rule in the handbook stated that there must be at least three. This change will take affect immediately.

Dean's List Freshmen and Sophomores will be granted an extra light extension.

Miss Betty Waters was selected a checker of seats in assembly in addition to the three already named.

It was decided that any Town Girl not passing the SGA test will be barred from joining any club on campus.

The Council members discussed having a party sometime during the quarter and also talked of the speaker for the SGA assembly program to be had when the SGA cup is given for the class having the least number of court warnings.

Home Ec Club Plan Project For Quarter

Miss Maxie Warren was elected the new vice-president and Miss Doris Gothard secretary at a recent meeting of the Home Ec. Club. Miss Mary Anne McLendon is the president and Miss Nancy Sellers is treasurer with Miss Gayle Croome, historian.

The new advisor of the club is Miss Sarah Weems, new instructor of the Home Economics Department.

At the meeting it was decided that for their project for this quarter, the members would sell Velvet-touch creme shampoo in the dormitories. The money will be used to purchase a coffee-maker for the Log Cabin.

The SGA Cup

Freshmen Lead SGA Cup Race

With the Freshmen leading the college in number of court warnings according to class percentage, the race for the Student Government Association cup is on. The cup is to be given at the end of the quarter to the class that has had the best record in court warnings during the previous three months.

The cup was first awarded last Winter Quarter to the Sophomore class, now the members of the Junior class. It is to be a quarterly event here on campus. The classes, that lose must entertain the winners with a party.

The percentage at the present time has the Freshmen leading with 13 court warnings and 15 percent. The Sophomores are second with 24 court warnings and 27 percent. The members of the Senior college bring up the end of the record with the Seniors having third place with 30 percent for nine court warnings and the Juniors having 50 percent for 15 court warnings.

Miss Mary Owen, president of the Association, has urged that everyone cooperate with their classmates in keeping the number of court warnings down.

A few pointers given by the Student Council are: The first and most important is to read and know your student handbook. It is yours to keep or break. Second, when going out set your watch by the clock in general office so that you may sign in at the right time. Don't forget to sign out on the monitor's sheet when going to the library or other dormitory. Keep your number of dates and late leaves according to rule. Be sure your sign out card is accurate. Have your applications for week ends in on time.

67 Glee Club Members on Roll

This year, 25 students have been added as new members of the GSWC Glee Club, making a total of 67 members in all.

The Glee Club, directed by Clayton Logan and accompanied by Miss Billie Cliett, is one of the most outstanding organizations on the campus, presenting a number of varied programs and concerts during the year.

Miss Betty Waters, president of the Glee Club, says that it is hoped the club will be even more active and successful this year than has ever been the case before and that the Glee Club will be able to give concerts in several of the surrounding cities and towns.

These students who are accepted as members of the Glee Club are a select vocal group, having to pass difficult voice try-outs before being invited to join.

Nine Transfers

GSWC has nine new students who have transferred from various schools.

Emily Reichert studied at Emory University last year. Her home is Boston, Ga.

From Barnesville, Georgia comes Pat Askins. Last year she attended Gordon Military College.

Melba and Janelle Grogan of Calhoun transferred from Montreat College in North Carolina.

Martha McKemie from Bluffton, and Judith Ann Moore from Valdosta transferred from Andrew at Cuthbert.

Mrs. Ann Patterson Harris from Nashville, Ga. formerly studied at GSCW and Emory University.

Mrs. N. R. Haworth comes to us from Middle Tennessee State Teachers College.

Nancy Thornton has previously been a student at the University of Georgia in Savannah, Grady Hospital for Nurses, Armstrong Junior College, and GSCW.

The total enrollment of the college amounts to 303 students.

Methodist Form Organization

Approximately thirty Methodist students met at the House-in-the-Woods on October 6 to discuss plans for a Methodist Student Organization on the campus. Mrs. Bennett Owens and Miss Mary Hogan of the Valdosta Methodist Church participated in the discussion.

A nominating committee was appointed to present a slate of officers at the next meeting, which is to be held on September 20. The name of the organization is to be decided upon then.

The student plan to meet twice monthly and considered forming a similar union to the Emory Jr. campus.

On the week-end of October 21-23, Methodist students from both campuses will go to GSWC in Milledgeville to attend the annual Georgia Methodist Student Conference. A large delegation is expected to be on hand from colleges and universities all over the South.

Dance Club Selects Nine New Members

With the beginning of a new year, the Dance Club, on the basis of tryouts held last week, took into its organization the following new members: Marie Wellmaker, Aspasia Panos, Jackie Mathis, Betty Mitchell, Ann Camp, Helen Grace Ford, Mary Ann Dykes, Sara Clyde Alford, and Elaine Cheshire.

The club is under the leadership of Mrs. Phyllis Valente, advisor, Barbara Green and Elaine Ryals, co-chairmen. The meetings of the club are held every Monday and Wednesday afternoons in the gymnasium.

Besides giving recitals at the end of each year and dancing at the Christmas festival, the Dance Club is in charge of the Gala May Day festival. In the past such themes as Gods and Goddesses and dances from different countries have been used.

The National Safety Council says there is a slight difference between a drivers license and a hunting license. There is no open season on pedestrians.
