Seniors Lead SGA Cup Race; Freshmen Second

The Seniors have taken over the lead in the Student Government Association cup race. Every member of all four classes is working to meet the requirements to prevent receiving court warnings.

However, this week, the class of 1950 have moved into first place with a 37 percent average. Last week the Seniors were in third place with 30 percent but the other classes have increased to bring down the upperclassmen average.

The Frosh, who were leading last week, have been moved back into second place. The average changed from 15 percent to 45. The Juniors have advanced from last into third position with the same percentage they had in the last count—50 percent.

The Sophomores have dropped from second to last in the line for the cup. The percentage was 27 but now is 51.

The cup is to be given to the class having the lowest percent of the court warnings during the quarter. Polly Mann, vice-president of the S. G. A. urges all to remember the rules and keep them so that everyone may have a part in putting their class in first place. This is to be given every quarter with the awards growing each time the same class wins the cup. The cup was purchased and presented to the Sophomores last winter for the lowest number of court warnings.

Little Symphony Presents Concert

On Thursday night, October 27 the Valdosta Concert Association presented the Bakaleinikoff Sinfonietta with Vladimir Bakaleinikoff conducting at the Valdosta High School Auditorium. Miss Marine Koshetz appeared on the program as soprano soloist. The Bakaleinikoff Sinfonietta was founded recently by Vladimir Bakaleinikoff, one of the nation's foremost symphony conductors. All twenty members of the orchestra are principal players in the renowned Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra. The orchestra has had favorable comments from many well-known critics. Olin Downes said of Dr. Bakaleinikoff that "he interpreted throughout with a dramatic fire and authority that made the orchestra a center of pulsing vitality."

Miss Koshetz, who was featured as soloist on the program, has been praised for her poise, warmth of temperament, intensity, and beauty. She is known as a star of radio, motion pictures, and opera, and is now making a place for herself on the concert stage. An interesting and varied program was presented by this group, often called the Pittsburgh Little Symphony. It consisted of: Overture, "La Gazza Ladra," Rossini; Ballet Suite No. 2 from "Dardanus," Rameau; Symphony No. 1 in C Major, Beethoven; Aria from the Opera, "The Tsar's Bride," Rimsky-Korsakoff; Minuetto, Leo Arnaud; Kiss in the Dark, Victor Herbert.

NEWS BRIEFS

The International Relations Club under the direction of Miss Mildred Price, observed United Nations Day on October 24 by sponsoring a display of posters and pamphlets in the Ad. Building.

Plans for the year were made at a recent meeting of the old members. Jean Mullis and Iris Moore are to have charge of the year-book which the club plans to publish this year.

The new members of the club have been invited to attend the next meeting which is to be November 1st in the House in the Woods.

The first meeting of the Business Club was held Tuesday night at the House in the Woods. The pictures were made for the annual and the business was discussed.

Miss Margaret Deavor gave a very interesting talk on a trip she made this summer.

Refreshments were served by Margaret Vonier and Greta Weathers.

Tentative plans are being made by the Junior Class to sponsor a Student-Faculty basketball game sometime soon. Announcements will be made later as to the definite time and teams.

The Student Council had a supper party Tuesday, October 24. The supper at Arthur's Inn preceded an evening movie. This is to be a quarterly event.

Among the faculty attending GEA meeting this week were Dr. J. Ralph Thaxton, Dr. Harold S. Gulliver, and Dr. Earl Phelan to Fitzgerald; Miss Louise Sawyer, Miss Leonora Ivey, Miss Lorene Herndon, Miss Elizabeth Fink, Miss Betty Gunter, and Miss Lillian Patterson to Waycross; and Miss Fink, Miss Patterson, Mrs. J. W. Jenkins, and Miss Mildred Price to Albany.

These meetings were held on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

Dr. J. R. Thaxton Announced Head '50 Polio Drive

Dr. J. Ralph Thaxton, president of GSWC, will head the 1950 drive for funds to fight infantile paralysis in 20 southeast Georgia counties.

The announcement was made Thursday in Atlanta by Fred J. Turner and E. B. Emrey, State Co-chairmen for the 1950 polio fund appeal. Dr. Thaxton will select county campaign directors throughout the Eighth Congressional District and will guide them in developing plans for their local campaigns in January.

Dr. Thaxton will be the director for the following counties: Appling, Atkinson, Bacon, Berrien, Brantley, Camden, Charlton, Clinch, Coffee, Cook, Echols, Glynn, Irwin, Jeff Davis, Lanier, Lowndes, Pierce, Telfair, Ware and Wayne.

Classes To Be Held on Nov. 19

Mrs. Caroline Thomas, Registrar, announces that the Saturday of November 19 will be day of classes. These will take the place of the periods that come after assembly on the following Wednesday.

After the assembly program on November 23, the student body will be allowed to leave for the Thanksgiving Holidays. This is in order to lengthen the holidays for those who live at such a distance that they have to take longer to reach home.

The schedule for Saturday will be as follows: 8:40 to 9:35, third period classes; 9:35 to 10:30, fourth period; 10:30 to 11:15, free period; 11:15 to 12:10, fifth period; and 12:10 to 1:05, sixth period class.

On Wednesday, November 23, the absences will be counted as double cuts. However, no one will be allowed to leave the campus until after the assembly program.

Fire Lighting Service Nov. 10

One of the annual services of the YWCA is the Fire Lighting Service. This service will be held on Thursday, November 10 instead of the usual vesper service.

At this time the first fires will be lighted in the large fireplaces in the Rotunda. The service is a very impressive one in which the presidents of all the organizations on the campus add their fagot to the fire of fellowship.

The program is under the direction of Miss Betty Buckner, Vice President of the Y.

The Fire Lighting Service is one of the old traditions of the school, and everyone is invited to attend.

Owen, McDonald, Lott Cast As Bronte Sisters; Production "Moor Born"

Miss Louise Sawyer, head of the Speech Dept., recently announced plans for a play to be held early in December. The play is "Moor Born" by Dan Totheroh. This is the story of the Bronte family, Charlotte, Anne, Emily, Branwell, and their father who is a minister in a small Yorkshire town.

In casting the parts for the play Miss Sawyer has chosen Miss Mary Virginia McDonald as Charlotte, Miss Mary Jo Lott as Anne, and Miss Mary Owen as Emily. Miss Patsy Sutherland and Miss Catherine (Honey) Hill will take the parts of Tabby and Martha, the maids in the Bronte family.

Miss McDonald is a freshman this year. She has done very excellent dramatic work in plays presented by Valdosta High School and is one of the very promising new Sock and Buskin members.

Cut Recorder Announces New Regulations

We have a very liberal cut system here on our campus, and every girl should know the regulations concerning absences from class and assembly.

It is the responsibility of each student to keep herself informed regarding her absences. All absences are recorded in the Registrar's Office and the absence recorder, Miss Betty Gunter, will be in the Registrar's Office to check absences with students from 2:00-3:00 P. M. Monday through Friday.

Absences from class on the first and last days of any week will constitute a double cut. Also, absence from class on November 23, the day beginning Thanksgiving holidays, will constitute a double cut. Three tardies are equivalent to one cut. Absences on the last day of classes before final examinations are not considered double.

Any girl who uses an absence or tardy more than the maximum number allowed for any class is placed on cut probation, and will remain on cut probation during the succeeding quarter. A student who violates cut probation automatically loses credit for the class she originally overcut and her parents will be notified.

Any excuse from class is not valid unless the cut recorder receives a notice from Dr. Farbar, Dr. Thaxton, Mrs. Jenkins or a member of the absence committee before the class meets.

No cuts are allowed for Assembly. If a student is absent she must leave a written excuse in the Registrar's office. All students should check the bulletin board after each assembly for her name.

The new absence regulations enacted last spring are:

All students on academic probation are automatically placed on cut probation.

All seniors not in line for graduation will have Junior College cut privileges.

All juniors whose quality points do not equal their credits will have Junior College cut privileges.

"And this gives life to thee"

Are you one of the limited few to whom the public points and accusing finger and with a quizzical expression murmurs, "She likes poetry."

Is it so hard to believe? To understand why people who are romantically inclined could put their very hearts into rhyme schemes and thrill others for centuries to follow with their "idle wanderings?" I think not. Then why, we ask, do people not like the works common to certain individuals—the odes, sonnets, verses—whose very meanings stir within our hearts, the desire of self-expression more beautiful than that we know already.

Let's not completely ignore the toils of the masters by complacently sitting around grumbling because, "we can't understand . . . the words don't make sense . . ." or more horrible than any . . . "I've never tried to understand poetry."

One might conclude from the afore said that I am fond of poetry—and a very rare conclusion, my friend, I adore poetry. Do you?

Can you express love more beautifully than did Elizabeth Barrett Browning when she said, "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways." Or, if you can—excell Paul Hamilton Hayne's expression of complete serenity and peace, when he composed,

"I think that it's over, over,
I think that it's over at last."

Joyce Kilmer in his poem, "Trees," shows to us his humbleness to God, and, if you please, offers apologies for his masterpiece, and, I quote,

"Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree."

If it's fun you want—then with so little effort you can laugh with Lewis Carroll as he tells "The Gardener's Song".

Yes, there is much to be found in poetry; solitude, gaiety, grief, remorse, love, and—yes, relief.

James Elroy Flecker in one of his poems said, "Since I can never see your face,
And never shake you by the hand,
I send my soul through time and space
To greet you. You will understand."

Yes, I'm sure we will. Let's try.

Campus Scenes

Strolling around campus you are likely to see many unusual things. This week was no exception.

Did you happen to see Miss Rooks pulling Mr. G. and Mr. P. on the bike the other day? Just goes to show which sex is the stronger.

If anyone wants an explanation to Doc Bauer's odd noises, she is trying to master the German language.

Speaking of German, just speaking of it, because we can't speak it, you should hear the conversations carried on in Senior Hall upstairs. The conversationalists are none other than Nancy Thornton and Lydia Kost.

That streak of a girl running around with a man and a camera is Mary Duncan trying to get the right people in the right places for the right pictures at the right time. But it doesn't always turn out—you guessed it—right.

We hear that Thad Pitt likes horses. Could be since she was seen trotting to and from the library.

On the subject of horses, we might mention that the two Seniors named Margaret who are practice teaching this quarter have had plenty of practice with horses. Nothing like pony rides at a carnival.

HAS EVERYONE SEEN THE OFFICE OF THE WEEK? WE MEAN DR. D.S. WONDER IF HE CAN FIND EVERYTHING NOW THAT IT IS IN THE RIGHT PLACE.

Nomination for the most absent-minded Senior of the week. Barbara Clarke goes to home-coming with no clothes.

Home-coming! Must be wonderful for some people. About half of the dormitories left this weekend. Are they all going? Gonna be a crowd there. Lucky people.

Betty Waters has been accused of some things, but this we couldn't believe. It seemed she had been working on a poster in art class for three days, having used an impossible amount of paper on it same as much energy, and all her patience. Finally she completed one, which, although too inky, was accepted by the teacher. It is said that with tears in her eyes, Betty made a low reverent bow before the instructor and said, "Thank you. Thank you, Sir." She then left the class to hurry home and pack for a trip to Milledgeville!

Here's one Home Ec class which will stick to Home Ec in the future. Seems that the other day in the absence of their teacher, they proceeded to form a Spike Jones band with the cooking utensils. They were beating on colanders, pans, pots, turning egg beaters, etc., just having the time of their lives, when—guess who entered. Their teacher? Oh, no, the president. There was surely some fast "disbanding"!

With the Survey Committee on campus yesterday, there were many rooms looking their best, the campus couldn't have been better and the students or faculty finer. But from what we hear there were some faculty members who were tired after those "one million" questions were asked.

Mary Anne McLendon shared her birthday with a great lady of the nation who celebrated her 63rd birthday yesterday. This lady of the land is none other than the Statue of Liberty.

Could Be—

It wouldn't be . . .

Mary Ann McLendon without that laugh;

Dr. Thaxton without his pipe;
Betty Henderson without her mouse;

Doris Gothard without dimples;
Theta Booth without being late to class;

Dr. Farber without "Buddy";
"Coota" without that walk;

Judy without Frankie;

Dr. Guilliver without his smile;
Jackie Mathis without a man;

Blount without dry-cleaning;

Ann Smith with hair.

Your Inquiring Reporter

Question of the week: If there were an extra hour in the day, how would you spend it?

Answers: Sara Parker: "Sleep thirty minutes and eat thirty minutes."

Pat Aubrey: "Save them all up till the end of the week and go somewhere."

Doris Gothard: "Study."

Dorothy Drexel: "Go play."

Lydia Kost: "I would sleep."

Mary Owen: "I'd probably waste it. I wouldn't want to but I probably would."

Mr. Pember: "Paint."

Sister Griffin: "Listen to the radio."

Lily Starling: "Write letter."

Ruth Denkins: "Read something I want to read."

Mr. Gabard: "Sleep, sleep."

Otelle Templeton: "Do all the little things I'm always wanting to do."

Mrs. Jenkins: "Oh, my goodness! I'd have a fit."

Gloria Johnson: "Try to catch up on some of the things I stay behind on during the other twenty-four."

Judith Moore: "Study, study, study."

Miss Carter: "Browse around in the library."

Jo Ann Story: "Just sit and rest, I think."

Emmie Kenney: "Wouldn't do me a bit of good. I have too many hours as it is."

Blount Trammell: "If I had some letters to read, I'd read them."

Dr. Gulliver: "Save them all up and then take a plane trip around the world."

Sara Tillman: "Sleep, if I didn't have anything else to do. But I can't imagine that!"

Bunker Hill: "Play bridge."

Helen Grace Ford: "Wash all those clothes hanging out of my laundry bag."

Laura Bowen: "Rake out my room so Mrs. Myers can open the door."

Time—

(With apologies to Sergeant Joyce Kilmer)

By Gloria Johnson

I'm sure that I shall never find
A thing elusive as is Time

It always rides on swiftest steed,
And stays ahead of any speed.
It has its play with everyone;
The rich nor poor, it does not shun.

It likes to play with jumpy nerves,
Which suffer with its wicked curves.

It causes pain when most away
But can never be made to stay.

Time was made for wise to use—
Too bad it suffers much abuse!

Trading Post

Maybe it's that allergy
She was just about to get a kiss.
This old and lonely, love-spared miss.

Her dying hopes in her rose,
Emotion trilled her to her toes.
She yearned for it. Oh her-ven please!

And now about to get that kiss,
And revel in celestial bliss—
She had to pause and stop, and sneeze.

Deborah.

I love you from the top of me
head to the bottom of me heel.

There ain't no proper words to tell you 'zactly how I feel,
But if I finds I'se been a fool,
and you don't love me too,
I know darn well, I just can't live.

Do I'll turn into a Shmoo.
Furman University HORNET

"Don't Worry" is a better motto
If you add the word, "others."

To err is human, but when the eraser wears out before the pencil, beware.

Time for Thought—

The time has come for the Freshmen election of officers. From the beginning of school, thought of who might represent the '53 class at the Student Council, who would direct the many Freshmen events, and who would be the first officer ever to head this group of girls, has probably been running through the minds of the Freshmen.

Now the moment has arrived. Campaign managers — will begin their work and discussion profit by her decisions?" "Can she get along with and cons will probably change decisions many times until finally, the candidates are voted upon.

The things which might enter into these discussions are: "Where is she from?" "Does she have many dates?" "What did she make on the biology test Tuesday?" "Have you ever seen her dance?" "Do her clothes fit me?"

But there are many questions which should be asked. "Is she a good leader?" "Will everyone profit by her decisions?" "Can she get along with everyone?" "Is she a hard worker?" "Will she be someone we can be proud of?" "Does she work hard in her courses?"

There are usually differences of opinion, but the final answer comes as the result of the election. These elections are secret ballot elections with members of the Student Council holding the polls. The votes are counted by the officers of the Student Government Association in the presence of a faculty member. If a tie results, usually the two candidates who have received the most votes are voted on again.

So far, the comments have seemed to concern only the Freshman president. However, the questions might also be applied to the vice-president, and the secretary-treasurer.

The difference would come with the fact that the vice-president is a Town Girl, but the requirements are the same. In this case she should have the same leadership qualities, the same working ability, and the same general all-round qualities. She might have to take over the presidency sometime.

The last office should be filled by someone who can record the business of the class and capable of handling the money which might be earned during the year.

The Freshmen officers serve a shorter term of office than do the others on campus, but they form a very important part of the S. G. A. organization. To the Freshmen, the election is the first active part they have played in one of the major organizations.

So it is easy to see it is no matter to be thought about casually. The facts should be weighed and discussions should be held in each room so that the best officers possible may be elected.

Consider each girl with some of these questions in mind. Ask if voting for her is merely because she is in a certain English class or lets girls borrow her best skirt, or because she will make a good president, vice-president, or secretary-treasurer.

After the final decision has been made, vote!! All the effort will have been wasted if everyone doesn't take part and vote. Watch for election day and take part!

The time has come. Consider, ask questions, discuss, nominate, campaign, and vote!

Then the results will be seen in the cooperation each and every Freshman gives the newly elected officers of 1949-50.

Ballet Group To Present Next Artist Series

On November 10 the Valdosta Concert will present the second program in its series for this year. This program is the Chicago Opera Ballet, headed by Ruth Page and Bentley Stone.

Miss Stone has danced in many countries of the world and danced the leading roles in many noted dance productions. She became the director of the Chicago Grand Opera in 1934, and in 1938 formed her own ballet group.

Mr. Stone has been dancing professionally since 1930 and has gained much prestige in the theater world. He joined Miss Stone in 1938 as co-director of her dance group.

Accompanying the Page-Stone group will be approximately twenty dancers who will form choruses and background interest.

The program is made more interesting by the fact that much of the music to be used is modern and familiar. In the past the music of Ravel, Gershwin, Stravinsky and others has been used.

One of the leading critics of today has said "The simple fact is that Ruth Page and Bentley Stone are two of the bright stars in our dance firmament, American to the core, from whom we shall continue to demand and expect solid accomplishment, and from whom we may one day receive the triumph of our native genius."

Four Ways How Not to Sniff; Need A Kleenex?

(Editor's note: The following is dedicated to the few on campus who have not as yet caught something commonly known as a cold.)

We would not discourage anybody who thinks he has discovered a cure for the common cold, but, so far as science is concerned, there is not yet a vaccine or serum that will prevent an individual from, at some time or other, "catching cold."

About the best defense for the individual, anxious to prevent colds, is to avoid those who have one, dress warmly and avoid becoming chilled or wet, eat in good appetite, get enough fresh air, exercise, and rest.

Of course, the above rules constitute sound advice, whether one wants to dodge a cold or not. They represent common sense applied to the job of living well. The advice will tend to prevent one from getting sickness of any kind. About all that it will not help prevent is an accident or the unexpected visit of an unwelcome relative.

The average person is apt to overlook the possible serious consequences of the ordinary cold. If taken in hand, a slight cold may not be dangerous, but, if neglected, can develop into a more serious malady. The experts suggest, if you get a cold:

1. Don't hesitate to take plenty of rest, and if at all possible, stay in bed.

2. Eat rather lightly and drink plenty of fluids.

3. Avoid mingling in crowds as nearly as possible, stay in an even temperature. By keeping away from others, you also protect them.

4. If the cold continues and you develop fever, call your doctor. There may be some other cause for the fever.

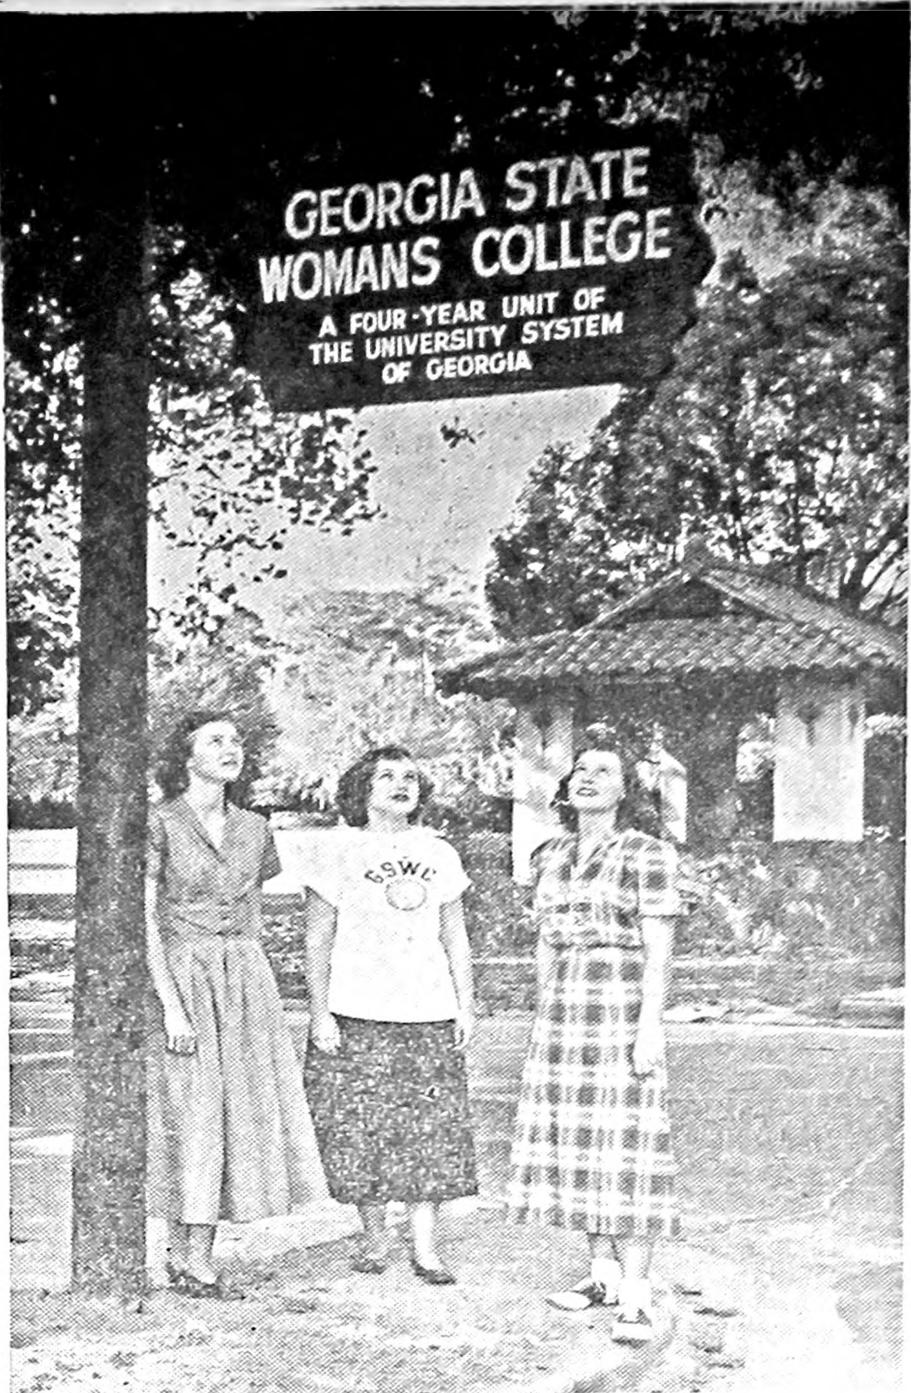

(It is a known fact that all these rules can't be carried out to the letter, but the closer that they are adhered to the better off the individual will be.)

'WCers Attended Meth. Conference At GSWC

Eight students of G.S.W.C. represented this college at the annual Methodist Student Movement Conference in Milledgeville on the G.S.C.W. and G.M.C. campuses this past weekend. They were: Ruth Dinkins, Jean Mullis, Eloise Yancy, Emily Justice, Margie Smith, Blount Trammell, Margaret Smith, and Betty Waters.

At the conference were approximately 300 students who represented 21 colleges in the state of Georgia. The Methodist students have recently organized on this campus and next year it is expected to have a large delegation to attend the conference to be held sometime in October at G. T. C. In Statesboro.

Sociology Club Plans Projects

The first meeting of the Sociology Club was held Monday evening, October 17, at the House in the Woods. Mildred Manley, president, presided.

Plans were made by the members for projects and social events of the year, including a dance, selling peanuts and sweaters, and a weiner roast at the Barbeque pit at the House in the Woods.

No definite dates have been set for these events.

After the business meeting refreshments were served.

This year there are twenty-one members of the Sociology Club. Claire Mobley is the vice president, and Lavara Jones, the secretary-treasurer.

The new members include: Betty Ann Bishop, Theta Booth, Lucy Bush, Muriel Cauley, Elaine Chesire, Jo Carroll Guhrie, Ann Murray, Jackie Sikes, Betty Jean Spell-Olleta Templeton, and Mary Talbot Tullis. Members of the Sociology Club are those students who are majoring or minoring in sociology and desire to join the club.

"Y" Announces Chapel Choir; Frosh Lead Taps

The Y. W. C. A. announces that the Freshmen have now taken over "Taps" in Converse Hall. In charge are Dot Ogletree, Betty Connell, and Barbara Smith.

The Chapel Choir, under the direction of Sue Belloff, is composed of Mary Jo Lott, Jo Ann Story, Ellen Odom, Joan Dekle, Betty Waters, Betty Henderson, and Patsy Suhteland. This group sings at Vespers on Thursday night and at some other special "Y" service.

Town-girl Vespers were held Thursday night in the Rotunda. The service was under the guidance of Joyce Long. Ruth Dinkins gave a talk and Virginia Massey sang.

A deputation team will go to Emory Junior Tuesday night. Nancy Sellers will speak on the subject "Christian Living." Jackie Norton is to lead the service and Sue Belloff, Joan Dekle, Betty Waters, and Ellen Odom will sing. Lucy Bush will play the piano.

The difference between you and other people and you is that their money looks bigger and their troubles smaller.

As soon as ole Jack Frost gets here (if he ever does) you will certainly want one of the heavy sweat shirts on which is stamped, Phi Kappa in red, and Phi Lambda in purple. They will soon be on sale in all dormitories by the dormitory representatives. Get yours and be ready for that cold weather just around the corner.

As Miss Ivey says, "We all like co-rec dates, but let's all take care of our equipment and play-fields." Remember no heavy basketball shoes on the tennis courts and always sign out equipment taken from the gym and return it to its proper place.

Check the requirements for archery. You must be a qualified archer before you are allowed to use the archery equipment. Archery practice is held four times a week—so come on out all you Robin Hoods. A coach will be there to help you at every practice.

How didja like the match games last Wednesday? There was a good clean spirit of competition. Come on out and support your team. If you aren't able to play, you can certainly yell. Don't forget team spirit plays the major part.

Have you played your tennis match? Watch the bulletin board and play it off as soon as possible.

Nearly everyone has an idea that the forwards are the star players in speedball or any other sport. But the players in the backfield are just as important. They are the ones who keep the opposite team from scoring.

Only one mishap occurred during the match games last week. Sylvia Zeigler, star Lambda play-

Programs Given By Dance Club

Wednesday of this week the Dance Club gave its first actual performances.

This first of these programs was presented at the high school assembly. Two numbers were given by the folk dance class of this quarter. They were "The Three Little Pigs" and "Varsovienne". The remainder of the numbers were presented by members of the Dance Club. Included in this section were "Harmonica Player", "Spanish Gypsy Dance", "Ritual Fire Dance", and The History of Dance".

The second performance was given for the Newcomers Club of Valdosta. This program featured Mrs. Phyllis Valente, head of the dance department, in two solos. There were "Ball", a study in rebounds and "Dies Irae", or "Day of Judgement". Mrs. Valente was assisted by members of the club who did several group dances.
