McDonald Elected Student President

Junior-Senior Frolics Sponsored By Junior Class

At last, the big event of the year is fast approaching. Friday and Saturday, April 24 and 25 and the annual Junior-Senior Frolics will be sponsored by the Junior Class.

The festivities begin Friday night with an informal preliminary hop to be held at the Country Club from eight until midnight.

The frolicking will resume Saturday morning when everyone adjourns to Twin Lakes for swimming, boating, sunbathing, eating and whatever else that can be arranged into a picnic. This gala affair will last from ten o'clock Saturday morning until four o'clock that afternoon.

At approximately eight-thirty Saturday night everyone will reassemble at the Country Club for the formal dance. This dance will be accompanied by an orchestra, The Stardusters from Albany.

The last but not the least of the activities is a breakfast to be held in the House in the Woods from one until two Sunday morning.

Now that the program has been summed up, a word of advice to those who plan to attend, especially those who have never attended before. Between now and Friday night get as much sleep as possible, get a good grip on your nerves and be prepared for a full weekend of hilarious enjoyment.

College Girls Are Injured In Auto Collision

Seven students from Valdosta State College were injured Friday afternoon in a collision of two automobiles.

The most seriously injured was Mary Lou Bruce, Valdosta, three others were admitted to the local hospital and three were admitted to the VSC Infirmary.

The other students involved were Rebecca Crawford, Mary Brownlee, Betty King, of Blakely, Nancy Coile, Cuthbert, Kate Childree, Donaldsonville and Marion Kelly, Rochelle. Of these, King, Kelly and Childree were returned to the Infirmary.

According to reports, the Station Wagon, driven by Miss King, failed to make a required stop and collided with an automobile at the corner of Williams and Ann Street. The driver of the automobile was injured. The impact pinned most of the girls in the wreckage. Miss Bruce was thrown clear, according to reports, and received a fractured skull, leg and pelvis; Miss Crawford, severe lacerations of the head and body, Miss Brownlee, a fractured thigh and pelvis, and Miss Coile, a slight concussion, fractured ribs and a fracture of both collar bones.

Officers said an investigation was underway. Pending outcome, no charges have been placed.

Seven Students Join Honor Society

Seven Valdosta students are among those students elected to membership in Sigma Alpha Chi honorary scholastic society at Valdosta State College.

Eligibility for membership is determined by superior academic achievement. A student must maintain a B average in order to be considered for selection.

The local students named were Frances Jackson, Van Ferguson,

Plans Underway For Honors Day Program

President Merritt Hoag, head of North Georgia College at Dahlonega, Georgia, will be the guest speaker at the Honors Day program on May 1. Honors Day will be observed in conjunction with the May Day festivities, as has been the custom since last year when the plan was initiated.

The Processional begins the Honors Program at 11 o'clock, in the V. S. C. auditorium. In the Processional will be Dr. Ralph Thaxton; President Hoag; Miss Luceil Bauer and Miss Rebekah Culbreth, the outgoing and incoming presidents of the Sigma Alpha Chi Honor Society, respectively; our faculty, in their academic gowns; and finally, the other members of the Sigma Alpha Chi Honor Society.

The program will begin with the Invocation, after which Miss Bauer will outline the activities of the honor students and explain the changes made his year by converting the former Freshman and Senior Honor Societies into the present Sigma Alpha Chi Honor Society. Miss Culbreth, the incoming president, will then introduce the honor students to the assemblage. The speaker will be introduced by Dr. Thaxton. After the main address, the awards will be presented by Dr. Thaxton to the eight most outstanding students, voted on by the student body earlier in the year. The chemistry award will be presented to the outstanding student in the beginning chemistry class. The Secessional will close the program.

The parents of the honor students will be the special guests of the college on this day. After the program, the professors will hold open house in their respective classrooms, and the students and their parents will have lunch together in the dining hall.

At 2:30, the Fine Arts program will be presented in the auditorium, and at 5 o'clock, the May Festival will be held at the amphitheatre in Drexel Park. This program consists of the presentation of the May Queen and her court, and the performance of the Sleeping Beauty Ballet by the Dance Club under the direction of Mrs. Phyllis Valente. In case of rain, this program will be held in the Valdosta High School auditorium.

Education Club Met on April 3

The Education Club of Valdosta State College met on April 3rd at the House in the Woods.

New officers for the next year were elected. They are: President, Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Valdosta; Vice-President, Glenice Daugherty, Fargo; Secretary, Doris Smith, Doerun; Treasurer, Gloria Peters, Cairo; Reporter, Rosa Margaret Jones, Sylvester.

The program consisted of a panel discussion by the student teachers of last quarter who elaborated on the following subjects: The methods of discipline found successful and unsuccessful; Methods to change drills into a more learning experience; the subjects or activities enjoyed most; Providing for the individual differences; and the most unforgettable experience encountered during student teaching.

Mary Hill Douglas, James Palmer, Bill Roberts, Lois Sewell Wilson, and Bill Fogg.

DEAN OF WOMEN

Mrs. Wisenbaker New Dean Of Women

President J. Ralph Thaxton of Valdosta State College announces the appointment of Mrs. Joe Wisenbaker as dean of women effective July 1.

She will fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mrs. John Jenkins, present dean of women, who will leave the college July 1, after serving since 1948 in that capacity. Mrs. Jenkins will spend next year traveling in Europe and will then return to her home in Athens.

Dean of girls and councillor at Valdosta High School for the past ten years, Mrs. Wisenbaker has been prominent in educational, civic, religious and social circles in Valdosta.

A native of Madison, Ga., she was the former Mary Alice Jones. After graduating from Georgia State College for Women, she came to Valdosta and began her educational career as a critic teacher at the training school of South Georgia Normal College. She later received her degree from VSC.

In August Mrs. Wisenbaker expects to receive her M. S. degree in education at the University of Georgia.

Commenting on her appointment, Dr. Thaxton said that "her successful background in working with young people splendidly qualifies her for work at VSC."

Long identified with community activities, Mrs. Wisenbaker is a member of the First Methodist Church where she has taught a Sunday school class and is a member of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She is a member of Readers Forum.

Her professional memberships include the Georgia Association of Deans and Advisors of Girls, Georgia Association of Counsellors, Delta Kappa Gamma, and Georgia Educational Association.

She is the mother of two children, Mrs. Lamar Harrell of Emory University, and Mrs. Leighton Dudley of Washington, D. C.

Junior Class Elects Officers

The Senior Class of this year has elected new officers who will serve during the year 1952-53 when the current class becomes Seniors.

As a result of the election held Wednesday, April 16, Barbara Smith of Columbus, Georgia is the new President. For their Vice-President, the class elected Sara Bolin who is also from Columbus. Pat Heath from Leesburg, Georgia is to be the Secretary-Treasurer for the coming year.

MISS AT-FA

Sara Bolin Judged Miss AT-FA

Miss Sara Bolin of Columbus, Georgia was elected "Miss Turpentine" of 1952 by the American Turpentine, Farmers Association. The contest was held in Valdosta and Sara was chosen "Miss Turpentine" from nine other contestants from Georgia, Florida, and Alabama. The AT-FA covers all of the southeastern states and all of the states were eligible to send representatives to the contest. Mr. Jim Gillis of Soperon, Georgia served as sponsor for Miss Bolin. Miss Ann Durham also was entered in the contest. Ann is from Bainbridge, Georgia.

Sara attended Georgia Southwestern College last year where she was very active in the campus life. She was a member of the Education Club, Dramatic Club, worked on the "Y" worship committee and was a member of the May court for the May festivities of G. S. C. Sara continued her activities on campus by being a member of the A. S. U. Sorority.

She worked on the annual staff and was active in the Cotillion Club. Sara transferred to V. S. C. in September as a Junior. This year, she was selected as class beauty and served as Maid of Honor for the Emory Junior College Homecoming Events. Recently, she was elected Vice-president of the forthcoming Senior class of 1952-53. She is also a member of the Social Science Club.

Sara received many gifts from the various merchants of Valdosta and she was presented a silver cup by the AT-FA as well as a silver bracelet inscribed "ATFA, 1952". Many events will take place in the following week in which "Miss Turpentine" will participate. She will serve as Rodeo Queen on the 18th of April and will ride a float as Queen of the ATFA in Swainsboro on April 25th. Sara's picture will appear on the cover of the ATFA yearly calendar and the winners of the contest will be presented on a T. V. show in the near future.

The VHS band furnished the music for the main events of the contest.

Opdenbrow Second In Light Polling

Mary Virginia McDonald of Valdosta, jumped off to a fine lead and retained her advantage to defeat Van Opdenbrow for President with 141 votes to 80. Opdenbrow will serve in the capacity of vice-president.

Marilyn Peacock received twenty-two votes and Phelps Matthews, who was ineligible, polled seven write-in votes.

In the race for secretary, Marianne Joiner rolled up a huge Freshman class vote to defeat Marie Wellmaker 140 to 114.

Cleon King leaped off to a big lead and held on doggedly to defeat Jerry Brown in the closest school-wide race 134 to 117, for treasurer.

Helen Grace Ford edged past Martha Barrs 49 to 44 in the Female Dormitory Representative race. Susan Tullis defeated Barbara McElvey 70 to 26 and Phelps Matthews squeaked past Bill Roberts for the town positions, 44-40.

Rosa Margaret Jones and Wilbur Oglesby were victors over Grace McCord and Webster Carter, 29 to 24 and 31 to 24, respectively, in the Senior Class races. Barbara Smith defeated Kathleen Meeks 36-25 for Senior class pres.

Harold Wisenbaker defeated Van Ferguson 29 to 19 for Men's Junior Representative. In the closest race of the day Winnie Mae Chandler eked out a win over Babs Thraette by a single vote 25 to 24. Wisenbaker was defeated by Carolyn Gaines 28 to 25 in the class president race.

Barbara Stahl and Jobie Oglesby will be Sophomore class representatives by virtue of easy victories over Liz Clarke and Bob Greene 42 to 27 and 47 to 28. Jane Anderson rolled over Lucy Patillo 52 to 28 to be elected class president.

The turnout was disappointing in that only two hundred and fifty three people voted out of an enrollment of over four hundred.

New Officers Of W. S. G. A. Installed

The new officers of the W.S.G.A. (Womans Student Government Association) were installed in their new positions on Wednesday, April 2 in the Rotunda. Jo Dekle, the outgoing President, expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the students during the past year.

Martha Barrs from Quitman then took the oath for her office of President from Mrs. Jenkins. Following this, the other new officers repeated the oath for their offices after her new President.

The other officers for the new year are as follows: First Vice-President, Laura Ann Bowen, from Tifton; Second Vice-President, Jeannette Grimes from Quitman; Secretary-Treasurer, Rheda Blackwell from Monticello; and Social Chairman, Jane Burdette from Moultrie.

Martha Barrs then said a few words in regard to the coming year's work saying she knew if the students cooperated half as much as last year, the Association will continue to be successful.

The first of May will soon be here. This is one of the outstanding dates of the school year. On this occasion, we do honor to the students who have made outstanding scholastic records. We have had a very fine group of students in the student body this year, and many members of the senior class and other classes have achieved notable success in their scholastic work.

President Merritt Hoag of North Georgia College will be our speaker on Honors Day. President Hoag is one of the State's outstanding educators, and he should bring us a very worthwhile Honors Day talk. I hope that the parents of many of the honor students will be with us for his occasion.

In the afternoon, we will have the annual May Day pageant, which is one of the high points of the school activities here on the campus. I trust that all of the students will attend the activities of May Day.

of interest taken in the recent election, and I believe the student body has elected a very fine group of young people to lead and direct student activities for the coming year. My congratulations to you all.

As I See It—

By KEITH DAME

Because I see it is certainly no qualification for greatness, but the small turnout for voting is indicative that the students are again losing interest. It is quite possible that the quiet "fireside" campaign of the candidates was partially to blame, but not entirely.

There are many aspects of VSC elections that are not plain, but about the most vague is the reason for graduating Seniors voting. It is somewhat of a shock to see people voting for officers who will, in no way benefit them next year. Then there is the aspect of incoming Freshmen having no voice, whatsoever, in the government that governs them, save representatives. Truth is certainly stranger than fiction.

It seems to me that there is no reason why elections shouldn't be held early in the Fall quarter. Of course, one will say that a nucleus has already been formed and the work will be easier if elections are held in April. Well, as I see it, October will serve just as well and the entire slate of officers can begin work at the same time. Might as well give all those involved a voice and weed out others. Taxation without representation is tyranny.

V. S. C.'s tennis squad is making some headway in its endeavor. It's true that they have won no matches and few sets, but they are improving. It is possible that the squad will beat some squad before the year is out. If they do, it's a great accomplishment. If not, no one will be hurt. After all hope springs eternal in the human heart.

This is personal and it comes from my heart. I want to thank all those, both student and faculty, who were so kind after the passing of my mother. To the organizations which sent flowers, I say "Thank you, too."

It's Up To The Students

COPELAND

So ends the first year under the new constitution and student government. Much praise could go and does go to the members of that body that have given of time and toil to accomplish much more than meets the eye. True credit will never come to the public in its rightful size. But now we must turn to the new government and the new year. The past is gone. The present is here for action and the future for planning.

Unless things change soon the biggest let down and drag on this campus is the students. The board of regents control the purse strings certainly but they do not control ambition and initiative. The faculty must give advice and consent but they can not force any program on the part of the students. The students hold the balance of power in making his one of the best known and most popular colleges in this area.

The college may boast of the best faculty and in a year or so strut about its beautiful campus, but this does not act as sole drawing card for new students nor does it encourage to a hundred percent old students to stay and complete their education. Education not only in books but that which is also a great part of college and of life itself.

Work will begin this year on a couple of new buildings for the campus. One of them will be a gym. Upon its completion we would bow to no visiting team in any sport which was held in or in connection with it.

This article can not be a beginner for all sports which are possible nor can it mention all possibilities of action that will greatly improve the life of the students. Of course sports will move more slowly than the social activities but move they must. There has been ample time for fraternities and sororities to gain the rightful and respectful position on this campus. There will be some opposition to them as well as to other things, but then no progress has ever been made that someone didn't close their eyes to the future welfare of the majority. Dr. Thaxton and the faculty as a whole have cooperated to the fullest extent in the past and if given the opportunity will continue to do so.

Anyone with ideas or desire for more improvement in any way for the college should step up and be heard. Interest, ideas, and big talking plans are great but they lead inevitably to sweat of the brow. So without this last, science is the greatest you can give.

Now is the time for students with get up and get to rise head and shoulders above the rest and lead to a better college and better life on campus.

This is the time to build or blunder. The decision is yours.

Students Rebel — A Farce

Seven automobiles, bearing Moody Field stickers, were practically demolished by a wild rampage of two students of Valdosta State College. After consuming two-fifths of fire water and one gallon of OKOAE HAO (Hawaiian Beverage), Phelps Mathews and George Abood set forth to demonstrate their unquestionable power to a group of terrified on-lookers.

According to reports from witnesses, Abood was first to act. He supposedly kicked the tire of a late model Buick with such force that it blew out. Mathews immediately retaliated by bursting the other three. Abood, not to be outdone, set forth to bust tires on six other late model cars. Eye witness accounts said he kicked, hit with either fist and twice, lifted the rear end of cars and slammed them down with great force busting both rear tires at the same time. In the meantime his accomplice was tearing off doors, trunk lids and prying the spare tire off a 1952 Lincoln Continental. By the time their rampage was over all cars were damaged beyond recognition.

Neither of the boys suffered any cuts or bruises. An investigation is underway to determine where the students got the OKOLE HAO. According to one source of information Okole Hao is a very potent beverage made only by the Hawaiians and the formula for it is a closely guarded secret.

A Unicycle, owned by Keith Dame, parked near the scene was apparently undamaged.

SCHOLASTIC ODE

The Florida Flambeau, Florida State University, knows of some faculty types familiar to just about everyone:

The Politician: Everybody's friend, he gives you the same bland smile when an "F" comes out of the blue.

The Smiler: Shows all 32 on blue Monday morning thinking of all the work ahead. To him, life is a glorious adventure. Probably does setting up exercises.

Old Stone Face: To say hello to a student would obligate him. Operates on the "divine right" theory that an MA makes you God's right hand man. Rates students with untouchables.

The Dreamer: Breaks off in the middle of sentences with that faraway look in his eye. He's supposed to be thinking of deathless prose.

Condescending Charlie: Has abiding faith in the basic stupidity of students.

Ten Years Hence

Bille Clett being influenced by her musical background at Valdosta State College is now in Musicland Mo. working with Harry Truman. They have received many honors from their outstanding work together. They call themselves the "L. S. Piano Two-o. In Bille's spare time she has an orchestra better known as "Messie Meretricious and her Messie Music Making Madmen." Soon they will present The Interneelne Interlude or The Duet by Dalryman. This opera presents and overwrought detailed show of a cowpuncher and his experiences in the acquittal of fluid from the mammary glands. His motto is, "Don't always think of yourself—be kind o' udders."

Joanne Gilmer is now having her comeback. After working with the skit at the Senior Center between carnival in 1951 she is now appearing with the local U. S. O. or the "United Strippers Organization." She is on stage with a new name, Joanne Geeltscol. Her erotic personality has won the attendance of many. Tonight she is featuring a new song, "I Like white, but black suits me better."

Doctor Luceil Bauer better known in her college days as just "Pain Luceil" is now working with the National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Ulcerated Stomachs. After receiving her PHD, HIC, COOH, and BVD, she started working on the theory of Bacillus and its effect on stagnant wells. That fell through and ended up being nothing but a deep subject. So, now she is writing a history on the growth of ingrowing toenails and why they ingrow when they should outgrow during their growth. However, Dr. Bauer does not spend all her time on research. She is very interested in hobbies. Her present hobby is sailing. She just christened her new boat with an outstanding name called, The Blood Vessel.

Blount Trammell now known as "T. T." Trammell has her own radio station. This station called WACKY works on a frequency of two and a half whys, three killomotorcycles and five killochills. Following in the footsteps of WCKY she has in her programs, commercials of great interest. For instance, "No sex or breed, guaranteed." This program sponsors a contest called "National Step in Baby Chick Week." "T.T." stresses the point that everyone should join in this contest and says that the man that won last weeks prize ran through a chicken hatchery with snow shoes on. Next week she will feature "National Run Over Children Week." Once before the person that won the first prize went through an orphanage on a bulldozer.

Jimmy Copeland, after working with the International Air Lines for twenty years has finally decided to become a pilot. He calls himself Roger Will Doger or else end-up with a crack-up. Before conditioning himself to the ways of the air he always kept one foot on the ground while flying to insure the safety of his passengers. He is working out a way to pick air pockets and hopes he will make this research favorable to all able-bodied pilots who are suffering from air sickness.

Elaine Windham, Ann Murray and Joe Pember have spent a good bit of their time in Alaska and have really made a name for themselves. Elaine and Ann have been working with Social Work and rendered a great service to cold feet Alaskans. Mr. Pember has continued his art work through teaching Eskimos the art of underwater ice carving.

V. S. C. Merry-Go-Round

By GNU FERGUSON

Lovable kindly gregarious Gregarina Flosspound, discharged last week on the charge of book-making by Anthrax Flotsom, VSC Morality Commissar, has determined to fight her case to the bit end.

Interviewed this morning at the Flosspound 4-Horses Bar ranch where she has taken to drink and philosophy, she mused: "Book-making, eh? Listen, Bud, I've already finished the first three chapters of VSC Confidential, and when it hits the campus bookstore . . . deleted . . . so there"

Mass reaction stormed over the campus this week, as students waded the sewers in protest of Miss Flosspound's dismissal. Flotsom, with a militant corps of Student Socialist Association members, failed to break the demonstration. The students bombarded Flotsom and his forces with wet breakfast food boxes and other odd bits of debris the students picked out of the water.

During the barrage, Flotsom was heard to mutter:

Teachers Organize Pok(er) Ah Coffee Club

JIMMY COPELAND

At great risk to life and limb your reporter was able to smuggle this from behind the crockery curtain, or as it is known to the unsuspecting public, the faculty coffee hour. Little did we realize that they have a secret organization in effect. The Thank God It's Friday Oh Hell It's Monday Club. It seems that Mr. Spear was elected as president at the first meeting. They felt he deserved it because he had to pay a babysitter more than anyone in order to get to the meeting. Miss Ivey went in as first Vice-president. She ran on a good platform and also had a four iron to back her up. (Wonder how that tennis racket stood up under it.) Miss Rooks had a three iron too but she didn't want a post with responsibility so they made her a member at large with Miss Herndon. Good Will Ambassadors you might say. Got plenty of good will—now we need some protection from the results.

Dr. Gulliver was made the official atmosphere creator. He can grin the largest on Friday and moan the loudest on Monday. Thatta boy. Dr. Phelan was drafted as treasurer. You know he has a daughter working in the largest bank in Chicago. Hmmm. No need for schemes, eh Doc? Miss Thomas was made historian. Said she had a record of everyone else so she wanted to complete her gallery. Yeah, her and J. Edgar you know.

Only one time did the meeting get out of hand. Mr. Logan kept trying to sing his song he composed, "Mary had a little lamb, her father killed it dead. And now it goes to school with her between two hunks of bread." But Mr. Mosely, sgt. of arms, threatened to man handle him if he didn't shut up, so peace was made once again. Miss Sawyer pouted most of the time because Charlie refused to play the part of a butler in a play. Mr. Gabard resigned because he felt he had more work on the week-end than during the week. The boys kept having guests. He couldn't understand it 'cause the end door to the street was locked.

Miss Weems was put on probation membership because she kept pouring cold coffee down Dr. Thaxton's pipe bowl. Dr. Durrenberger resigned as secretary because of the extra work. Said he knew how to handle those young fools that came to learn...

The meeting was to continue awhile but then someone brought up the fact that it was Friday. Those hat were about to get to he door first should be out of their bandages before long... we hope.

Well if you happen to pass through Alabama next year drop in at Tuskegee insti. I've already inquired about a position as first class agitator.

Math-Science Club Elects Officers

The Math-Science Club held its first meeting for Spring Quarter on April 9, 1952 at 7:30 in room three of the Administration Building.

After the roll was called and minutes were read, the business session was begun. At this time the new officers for the coming year were elected. They were as follows: President, Grace McCord from Sylvester who has served as the Secretary-Treasurer for the club the past year; Vice-president, Nancy Coile from Cuthbert; and Secretary-Treasurer, Jeanelle Wilbanks from Atlanta. These officers will preside at the next meeting which is in May.

The Chemistry Division of the club was in charge of the program which was a very interesting movie shown us by Dr. Phelan. It was entitled "Green Gold" and about the many pine trees of Georgia and the products made from them.

Refreshments were served by the Math Division and the meeting adjourned.

The Census Bureau reports that the average value of land and buildings of Georgia farms increased from $2,896 per farm in 1945 to $5,336 per farm in 1950. The average value per acre increased from $27.63 to $43.28 during the same period.

Philharmonic Club Met On April 16

The Philharmonic Club had its monthly meeting on Wednesday night, April 16. The meeting was held in the auditorium and a varied program of vocal and piano selections was presented. The public was invited to hear this program. The president, Billie Cliett, announced the new officers for the coming year. They are: Dolores Barry, President; Rebekah Culbreth, Vice-President; Peggy Jones, Secretary-Treasurer.

The program which was presented by the members was as follows:

Arioso (Bach)—Dolores Barry. Morgenguiss; Das Wandern (Schubert)—Barbara Hill.

Prelude and Fuge in B Flat (Bach); Intermezzo in E (Brahms); Prelude in G Sharp Minor (Chopin)—Billie Cliett.

O Mio Babbino Caro (Puccini); When Love Is Kind (Old English)—Barbara Hill.

Etude in F Sharp (McDowell)—Billie Cliett.

Valse Brilliante (Mana Zucca)—Rebekah Culbreth.

"Students should find something better to do than to wade around in messy old open sewers."

As a result of the Flosspound scandal, Flotsom and dissident elements of the student body were under State investigation later this week for suspected red herrings. The inquiry so far has discovered herrings in the dining hall pantry, although Charles Darwin, VSC student of abiogenetics has reported some guppies in the lab aquarium.

Quipped Gertrude Stigma, doctor of Parapsychology on behalf of Gregarina: "A pink is a pink is a pink." While it is too early to fully evaluate the Flosspound crisis, it is certain that leftish Flotsom will make all efforts to suppress her sensational forthcoming VSC Confidential.

You are reminded that this is "Be Kind to Insects Week". Yes, we are all one big happy animal kingdom. This week and very week, do your part to help make it a better, more democratic one.

Fine Arts Club Met Monday Night

The Fine Arts Club met Monday night at 7:30 at the House in the Woods for its regular meeting.

Plans were made for the Student Art Exhibition which will be held June 4th in the Art Lab. Committees were appointed by the President.

Officers for the coming year, 1952-53 were elected. They are as follows: President, Iris Riger, Hahira; Vice President, Carolyn Gaines, Fitzgerald; Secretary-Treasurer, Dot Bush, Decatur; and Reporter, Anne Petrey, Barwick.

After the meeting, refreshments were served by the refreshment committee.

"Hello, Police? Look, there's a mystery going on around VSC."

"What's the mystery?" said the night-duty officer (graveyard shift).

"That's the mystery", said Rhonda Klondike. "The mystery is that I don't know what the mystery is."

Newsy Notes From V. S. C.

Miss Gladys Warren, head of the music department, was a judge at the recent district literary and music meet for high schools held recently at Sylvester.

Members of the Sock and Buskin Club, dramatic group, will spend this weekend at Jacksonville Beach, Fla. They will go especially to see the pday, "Joan of Lorraine", to be presented by the Jacksonville Little Theater Group. Miss Louise Sawyer, club advisor, and Miss Leonora Ivey and Miss Margaret Deavor will accompany the club members.

The Glee Club and Serenaders will present a concert tonight at the Ochlochnee High School. Clayton Logan directs the two musical groups.

Miss Louise Sawyer, head of the speech department, reviewed the play, "I Remember Mama," at a program held Tuesday night at the Willacoochee High School.

Barbara Hill, vocalist of Valdosta, was one of those students who took part on the Philharmonic Club program held Wednesday night. She sang a group of songs by Puccini, Shubert and Danady, and two folk songs.

C. H. White, associate professor of fine arts, was the speaker at weekly assembly Wednesday. His subject was "Humor in Teaching."

Ten Women Students To Attend Play-Day At The U. of Ga.

Ten members of the Womans Sports Club will attend the alpyday of the G.A.F.C.W. to be held on the University of Georgia campus, April 26.

Those attending will compete with girls from other schools throughout the state in such sports as tennis, swimming, archery and badminton. There will be team competition in volleyball and softball.

The program will include various demonstrations in the field of sports.

This play day is the first to be sponsored by the Georgia Athletic Federation for College Women and if this one proves to be successful it will be continued as an annual event.

Those planning to attend are: Rheda Blackwell, Peggy Stewart, Leland Branch, Martha Hall, Louise Blankenship, Billie Wages, Barbara Tankersley, Shirley Tomlinson, Susan Tullis, Pat Carson, and Miss Ivey, faculty advisor for the V. S. C. Womans Sports Club.

Serenaders; Glee Club Present Programs

A busy week faced the Serenaders and the V. S. C. Glee Club beginning April 16.

On April 16, the Serenaders entertained the Daughters of American Revolution at the Woman's Building here in Valdosta. The subject of the program was the well-loved Stephen Foster and the girls sang the Stephen Foster Medley to conclude the program.

On Thursday, April 17, the entire Glee Club journeyed to Ochlochnee, Georgia to give their first program of the year. The P.T.A. of Ochlochnee sponsored the concert. The program was given there which will be given at the V.S.C. auditorium on the evening of April 24.

The concert consisted of four groups. The first group of selectives were done by the club and contained "Gloria in Excelsis", "Cherubs Song", "Come, Sweet Death", "Beethoven Prayer", and the "Lord's Prayer." A Mendelssohn number, "Hear My Prayer" was the second group. The third group was filled by the Serenaders and several soloists. To conclude the program, the entire Club came back to do "What a Lovely Day" and a "School Medley."

The Glee Club, under Mr. Clayton Logan's direction has done fine work this year. They produced special music at Thanksgiving and other occasions. A concert in Jasper, Florida and another in Lakeland will complete their schedule.

The Serenaders visited the Kiwanis Club in Moultrie, Georgia on April 10. Early in May, their bookings will take them to Jacksonville, Florida for several engagements before this quarter is ended.

Acquacade Is Near

Real practice has begun for the annual aquacade.

Tryouts have been held and groups are being formed for the various numbers. If you were not able to go for tryout, see Dolores Barry to be signed up.

A number is being scheduled for the men students who wish to participate. So, men, if you are interested give your name to Dolores Barry.

Above all if you are participating in the aquacade cooperate with your group leaders and attend all practices if possible and be as prompt as possible. The cooperation of others who are swimming in the pool at the time of a practice would be greatly appreciated.

The Census Bureau reports that other income of the family of 64,411 of Georgia's 198,191 farmers was greater in 1949 than the value of farm products sold off their farms during that year.

Tennis Team On The Rise

Valdosta State College's tennis team went down to defeat for the fourth straight time Friday, bowing to a superior Florida State University squad. The score was 9-0.

In its first venture into Inter-collegiate competition, the team fell before the University of Florida's fine squad, 9-0. At that time the men showed a definite lack of practice and the same was evident when Mercer took them into camp, 9-0. The matches against Emory were close, the local boys finally bowing 4-3 after the No. 1 doubles team lost a heartbreaking two hour struggle.

While the squad is winless, thus far, it has shown improvement with each outing. The lower men seem to be showing up much better with the added practice.

The next matches are against the University of Fla. in Gainesville. The results of the F. S. U. matches were: Berry (F) over Fogg (V) 6-0, 6-2; Andy (F) over Sapp (V) 6-0, 6-0; Kennedy (F) over Hackett (V) 6-0, 6-0; Boda (F) over Myddleton (V) 6-0, 6-1; Harris (F) over Joiner (V) 6-1, 6-4; Eagan (F) over Welch (V) 6-0, 6-1. Doubles scores were: Berry-Eagan over Sapp-Myddleton 6-1, 6-3; Kennedy-Harris over Hackett-Fogg 6-1, 6-2; Boda-Babo line over Joiner-Cox 7-5, 6-3.

Barry, New Womans Sports Club President To Be Installed

The Womans Sports Club will install the officers for the incoming year on Tuesday, April 22, at 7:15 p. m. at the pool.

The installation will include the traditional sailing of wish boats by all attending the service. There will probably, also, be a "dunking" of the new president to conclude the program.

The incoming president is Dolores Barry who has served as vice-president for the past year. The other officers are: vice-president, Rheda Blackwell; secretary, Jean Van Landingham; treasurer, Leland Branch; historian, Martha Barrs.

Everyone is invited to attend. It will be a short service and will not interfere with the plans anyone has for the evening.

test, there will be a parade in Tifton on the morning of the rodeo, featuring high school and military bands, floats representing all the schools with entrants in the rodeo, and many other colorful attractions, all featuring the safety theme.

The driving contest will begin in the early afternoon, with Florida and Alabama troopers acting as judges in deciding the state's best teen-age drivers. All contestants must be between 16 and 19 years of age, hold a valid driver's license with no offenses against them, and must be a driver-training student.

District winners are being presented beautiful engraved trophies, and the top state winner will receive a new 1952 Pontiac with all accessories. This prize is being donated by the Pontiac dealers of Georgia.

Winners in the state meet will be announced at the end of the Tifton rodeo, one of many projects sponsored by the Safety Education Division of the Georgia State Patrol in its program to promote greater safety and better driving practices throughout the state.

Tifton Rodeo To Select Best Teen-Age Driver

ATLANTA, Ga. — Plans have been completed for the Fourth Annual Teen-Age Driver Rodeo to be held in Tifton on May 14th, according to Lt. Col. E. S. Burke, head of the Safety Education Division of the Georgia State Patrol. This year's rodeo, sponsored by the Tifton Lions Club, is expected to draw a record crowd as high school driver-training students from all over the state compare driving skills in this unique contest.

The two top winners from seven safety districts in Georgia will be on hand to drive the difficult course in automobiles loaned by local dealers for the contest.

District rodeos have already been held in Waycross, Dublin and Thomson. During the next two weeks, others will be held in Gainesville, Cedartown, Perry and Thomasville.
