John Hulett And Dixie Weger Win Titles Of "Mr. And Miss V.S.C. Talent Of 1958"

On February 18, beneath glittering lights, Miss Dixie Lee Weger and Mr. John Hulett were presented the titles of "Mr. and Miss VSC Talent of 1958" by last year's "Miss VSC Talent", Jeanne Connell, at the annual TEKE TALENT REVUE sponsored by Mu Alpha Colony of Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity in the VSC gym.

The two winners were selected from ten contestants by a panel of judges.

Dixie, a junior from Quitman, was named winner in the woman's division for her presentation of an original dramatic monologue, "The Curse of the Witch". Acting and teaching are the selected careers of Dixie who is majoring in speech. She will play a featured role in the forthcoming Sock and Buskin production "Death Takes a Holiday."

John, who looks very much at home behind a microphone, sang two vocal selections, "One Alone" and "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing". A junior and majoring in Biology, John is a member of the "Serenaders" and is featured vocalist with Ernie Cortez's orchestra, "The Creschendos". He hails from McRae, Georgia.

Winning titles is not new to John who was named first place winner in the 1955 state soloist contest and also first place in the state quartet. He also has television appearances in Atlanta and Macon to his credit. However, popular music is not the only type of music in John's repertory. He also sings religious songs and has directed the music of several religious revivals.

Dramatics and the stage are not new to Dixie either. Her interest began in grammar school and has lasted ever since. She made her college debut as Ginger in the play "Time Out for Ginger" presented at VSC several years ago. Besides the many small plays and monologues she has given for various organizations she also appeared in "Family Portrait".

Runners up in the contest were Penny Williams of Valdosta and Wayne Fowler of Live Oak, Florida.

Cast Chosen For "Death Takes A Holiday"

The cast for "Death Takes a Holiday" to be presented by the Sock and Buskin Club has been rehearsing for the past three weeks.

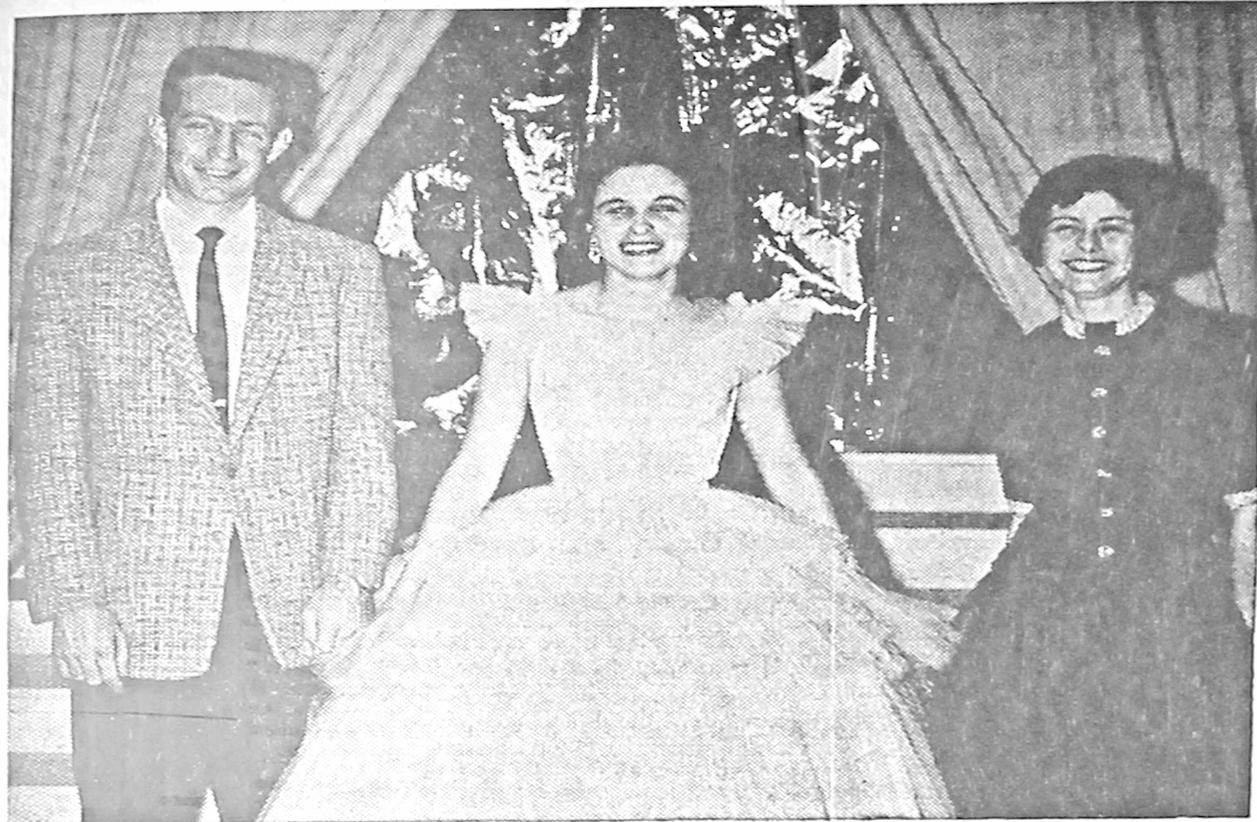

The cast is as follows: Cora, Rena Hanahan; Fedele, Raymond Wilson, Duke Lambert, Fred McDonald, Alda Jo Rabun, Duchess Stephanie, Margie Brooks, Princess of San Luca, Beth Croom, Baron Cesarea, Benny Mitchum, Rhoda Tenton, Mary Lou NeSmith, Eric Fenton, Alan Pendleton, Corrado Joe Webb, Grazia, Dixie Lee Weger, Prince Sirki, Jerome Clegg Major Whitread, Rudy Baxter.

The cast will present the play to the visiting seniors on Senior Weekend as one of their dress rehearsals. It will be presented to the students and public on March 5 and 6 in the auditorium of Pound Hall on the North Campus.

This striking drama has established itself among the important plays of our time. It is based on the poetic conception of death suspending all activities for three days during which period he falls in love with a beautiful girl, and through her realizes why mortals fear him.

Here is a quota taken from the New York Times; "—an exotic tale—travels an unfamiliar land and touches the imagination royally."

If all the cars in the nation were placed end to end, some fool would pull out and try to pass'em.

V. S. C. Rolls Out Mat To High School Seniors

By James Stanley

Senior Weekend comes around once a year. This year it will take place on March 1st and 2nd. The purposes of Senior Weekend is to get high school students familiar with college life, and the routine manner in which college students carry out their daily work. The high school students will be given a full explanation of how the college is run.

There will be approximately 70 high school seniors from all over Georgia present for the week end. The high school students who will be participating in the activities will start arriving between 4:00 PM and 5:00 PM Friday. The high school students will check in at Ashley Hall. They will be given instructions as where to stay.

They will have "Briefing Session" at 6:30 PM where they will have friendly talks. At 7:00 PM they will be treated to the VSC Student Talent Show sponsored by the Tau Kappa Epsilon Fraternity. For the second treat for the night they will have the pleasure of attending a Square Dance at the gymnasium at 8:30 PM, sponsored by the Girls Sports Club and the Education Club.

Saturday will be filled with no time to lose. From 8:30 AM to 10:00 AM the high school students will tour the campus. The high school students will have the privilege of meeting the professors and discussing college careers with them at 11:00 AM. For a break they will be served coffee at the "House in the Woods", sponsored by Delta Xi Sorority and the Filii Fortunae. At 2:30 PM the high school students will go to a panel discussion on "What is college really like?" sponsored by the Student Government Association. Representatives of different clubs are participating.

Saturday night the students will see a play entitled "Death take a Holiday" sponsored by Sock and Buskin Club, which will take place in the Auditorium, Pound Hall, North Campus. By the way, only the visitors are to attend. For the last activity of the day the student will engage in a "House Party" in the appropriate dormitory.

There will be a bus out in front of Ashley dormitory to take the students downtown to church services Sunday morning. For the last thing of the day, faculty members will be present in Ashley Hall Rotunda to meet parents who have come for their sons and daughters, which will be around 2:00 PM.

S G A is officially the sponsor for the weekend event.

Alumni Ass'n. Establishes Gift Scholarship

The VSC Alumni Association has established a gift scholarship, amounting to $58.00 a quarter, beginning with the spring quarter 1958. The committee of alumni members appointed by Mrs. Virginia Tuck Parrish, president, to award the scholarship is composed of the following: Mrs. Caroline Parrish Thomas, chairman, Miss Marguerite Ford, Miss Thera Hambrick, and Miss Mildred Price.

This committee is now receiving applications for the scholarship, and would be glad to have applications from students who meet the qualifications of scholarship, contribution to campus life, financial need, and seriousness of purpose as evidenced by efforts toward self-help. Interested students may get in touch with any member of the committee not later than March 10, for consideration for the spring quarter.

FIRST PLACE WINNER IN HOMECOMING PARADE—Winning the best float award in the 1958 Homecoming Parade was the Education Club's entry, "Snow White", pictured above. Mu Alpha of TKE and the Sock and Buskin Club tied for second place honor. Mu Alpha's entry was "Playboy in Fantasy Land" and the Sock and Buskin entry was "Alice in Wonderland."

Here and There . . .

Today marks the beginning of one of V. S. C.'s annual events — Senior Weekend. This activity is primarily to acquaint high school seniors, who are interested in attending V. S. C. with the facilities of the college.

A special program has been planned and includes a repeat performance of excerpts from the T. K. E. Talent Revue sponsored by Mu Alpha of Tau Kappa Epsilon to be presented tonight, a coffee to be given by Filii Fortuneau Fraternity, and a dress rehearsal of "Death takes a Holiday" to be presented by the Sock and Buskin Club Saturday.

The "Campus Canopy" extends a most cordial welcome to visiting seniors.

UNCOOTH?

Homecoming dance was a grand affair and afforded a good time for many, even at the expense of others. The fraternities reserved tables for couples at a minimum fee and many couples arrived with the expectation of finding a table reserved for them. Tables reserved bore a name card and some couples searched for their tables only to find none reserved. The fraternities were not to blame. Who then? Some students who find it more convenient to simply remove the place cards and destroy them and take the table even though they had not reserved one. In my opinion, a person guilty of committing such an act is not only damaging his reputation but also showing characteristics of a thief!

College For Those Over 21?

By Joe Patterson

Recently, in the Georgia Legislature, a bill was introduced which would prevent anyone 21 years old or older from matriculating in any college in the University of Georgia system.

This bill was not passed but perhaps the idea behind it should be investigated. Who introduced it? Against whom was it aimed? Your editors do not have the answers, but we have developed an hypothesis.

This bill was aimed directly against veterans, since they are usually the only students over 21 years of age. The author of this bill may encounter our argument by saying, that it is aimed against Negroes, but this argument does not hold water, since more veterans than Negroes would be affected.

Our Army today is filled with young men who plan to attend college after completing military service but most of them will be over 21 years of age when they are separated from service. Suppose that this bill had been passed and many of these young men returned to Georgia to find that they could not attend college in their own state. Would this not affect other men who had planned to complete their active duty military obligation before attending college?

Conceivably, the passage of this bill could have caused a chain reaction which would eventually affect the national government. The number of volunteers would decline rapidly, and would necessitate a sharp rise in the number of draftees.

This bill could also have a decided effect on Georgia's population. At the present time, Georgia's losing many of its youths who are migrating to the north and west. Would not the passage of such a bill have caused many more to leave Georgia?

It has been shown definitely that after most veterans leave college, their income is increased sufficiently to soon enable them to repay the government, in increased taxes, for their education. Would not the State of Georgia profit by collecting on these increased taxes but would she not suffer by not being able to collect the increased taxes?

As has been stated above, this bill did not pass, but it could conceivably be reintroduced and passed at the next session of the State Legislature. Just in case it is reintroduced why not sit down and write your representative in the State Legislature and let him know your feelings on the matter.

Parade of Opinion

What do you think is most important, excellent grades and no participation in extra curriculum activities, or average grades and participation?

Dick Leverette—Average grades and participation in activities are more important.

Marilyn Hughes—Participation in extra-curriculum activities are the things that forms a students personality.

Rene Barnett—It's not the grades you make, but your relationships with other people that counts.

Penny Williams—A student in my opinion would lead a very dull life without outside activities.

Troy Spicer—The employer of today has become more interested in the employees extra-curricula activities than his high grades.

Linda NeSmith—Grades and extra-curricula activities should be on an even par.

John Jackson—Good grades are fine, but we must remember that we go to college to develop more than our intellectual talents.

Carolyn McGee—For a student to become well adjusted to college life they must have activities other than studying.

DRAFTEE'S CONFIDENTIAL GUIDE

(How to get along in the Army)
 By Levy, Krisher, and Cox
 Published by Indiana University Press, $1.95.

A brief glance through this book reveals a wide assortment of "helpful" information for any "Probable Draftee." The order of material begins with the "low-down" on the Selective Service and ends with the return to role of civilian life.

The chapter on YOU AND THE DRAFT explains the regulations of the draft and tells the individual how to make the most of them. BASIC TRAINING gives a cross-section of what may be the grimmest—and possibly the funniest—eight weeks of a draftee's life. It contains the master schedule of training activities, with an explanation of each.

Other chapters include sections on OVERSEAS DUTY, MARRIAGE OR THE BARRACKS?, WHO CAN HELP YOU?, and ARMY LINGO. There are also chapters on RECREATION and—AH!—CULTURE, WHAT YOU CAN GET FROM THE ARMY, and discussions on KP, guard duty, inspections, pay call, and all the other regular activities so well known to all service-men.

One of the best sections in the book is the one devoted to ARMY LINGO. Such terms as POE, Recon, PX PRI and OD as well as the more familiar ones such as AWOL, are defined to the tee. The book is a hilarious account of "what every young man should know!" For very good reading, why not try DRAFTEE'S CONFIDENTIAL GUIDE.

A M.A.F.B. color squad followed by a blaring local high school band signaled the beginning of the annual Homecoming Parade, Feb. 14.

The array of bands, beauties, floats funsters dignitaries and all in the parade that followed were tops. The parade represented much hard work by many. I commend them. Especially to Joe Patterson, parade marshal, and the man behind the scenes on the planning, my compliments.

The parade certainly set the mood for the successful weekend that followed.

ONE SPECIAL DAY

The occurrence of a natural phenomenon, rarely seen in these parts, sent studious students out onto the campus on Feb. 13 to engage in childhood games.

Snowballs flew everywhere. The white stuff was poked down collars, into red faces and over the clothes of people who are more used to plenty of sunshine.

Several snowmen had ephemeral existence during the day.

In the duration of this period of joy in the snow, it was allegorically reported that a ranking male professor in the history department was throwing snowballs. Who knows, what evil lurks in the minds of teachers?

ENTERTAINMENT

VSC students had access to a big lineup of varied entertainment in the last fortnight. The fare: a fired-up rock 'n' roll band, a fraternity talent show, a ballet group plus several mediocre movies.

Review: The ballet group, professionals from New York, performed here on campus with a sprinkling of VSC students in the audience. The rock 'n' roll band climbed up on a local theater stage and dished out a raucous conglomeration of music to a "packed house" of frenzied teen and old agers. The talent show, on campus, presented a varied format of explicit talent in several categories brought out the "hidden hand" in some of the brothers who performed, and also—most important — fattened the coffers of TKE.

The movies, most not as good as TV's Late Show, were built up big in advertisement and admission. (Average price: 6 bits.)

SOCIAL SNUB

Our Republican president flew from Washington to T-Ville, Ga. this month in hopes of curing his cold and sniffles in warm Georgia sunshine. His efforts were in vain. The day he landed in our rival city, three inches of snow was on the ground. For two weeks, the chief of all the land sat by the fire. To top this, he was given a social snub at a big nearby social event.

Yes, he was not invited to the VSC Homecoming Dance. He and Mamie might just have come this year — it's election year, you know!

But for him, no invite.

Lo, how thin doeth the stream of Republican sentiment in these parts trickle.

Hats Off To S. G. A.

By Sandra Stanfield

Soft lights and sweet music was the true theme for the Homecoming Dance on February 15. Many of the students came at eight o'clock to a beautifully decorated gym, found their proper places to sit, then relaxed and enjoyed themselves. If they were real thoughtful, they asked, "Who planned the dance and who decorated it?" And, if they were kind they commented on how nice they thought the gym looked.

Take it from me, and lots more went into the Homecoming Dance than just going and enjoying it. The real work began many weeks before when the first ideals were discussed in a meeting of the S.G.A. After the theme was chosen, Horace Chitty was named as chairman for decorating the gym. Time, money, and patience was put into the pre-planning.

Then the day came Saturday, rainy and cold. Hours were spent in stringing wire and crepe paper. After lunch, the patterns began to fall into place. Tables were set up, the throne was fixed, and the entrance built. Not one hour, not two hours, but the entire day was spent in placing the proper decorations in the correct place.

When dusk came tired but happy S.G.A. members (and a few friends they were able to bribe into helping) turned toward their dorms with one hour to dress for the most important dance of the year.

So the canopy says, "HATS OFF TO THE MEMBERS OF S.G.A. FOR SUCH A FINE JOB, NOT ONLY ON THE HOME-COMING DANCE BUT THE ENTIRE WEEKEND OF HOME-COMING."

What's Wrong With V. S. C.?

by Gene W. Deal
Vice-President
Thispaclians

Lately it has become increasingly apparent that something is wrong at V S C. Even the citizens of Valdosta have noticed this. Many explanations have been offered, of which the most common is that there is a lack of school spirit, I believe that this lack of spirit is a symptom rather than the cause. What then is wrong?

I think the answer could be found at the recent concert given by Carl Palangi in the VSC gymnasium. The college students made a very poor showing there. Even though the concert took place on this campus it looked as if the college students were badly outnumbered by those from high school. There is no excuse for this!

Every student of this college who possibly could should have been there. Some will say that they don't care for that kind of music. So what! No one ever died from exposure to it, or became fully educated without such exposure.

What do the students think they are here for? To make high grades? If that is so they might as well go home now. High grades never educated anyone. In fact this college—or any school—cannot educate anyone. It can only help a person to educate himself, that is its only excuse for existence.

An educated person is not someone who knows everything in the

Holton And Yeomans Voted "Big Wheels" Title By The Staff

By Miriam Barnes

Among the most outstanding seniors here on campus are Carolyn Holton and Babe Yeomans. Both Babe and Carolyn have proved to be leaders among their classmates. Carolyn holds the high honor of past president of the Filii Fortunae Fraternity.

Carolyn is a native of Thomasville, Georgia, where she was born on June 21, 1936. Upon graduation from Thomasville High, Carolyn attended Huntington College in Montgomery Alabama, for two years before transferring to V.S.C.

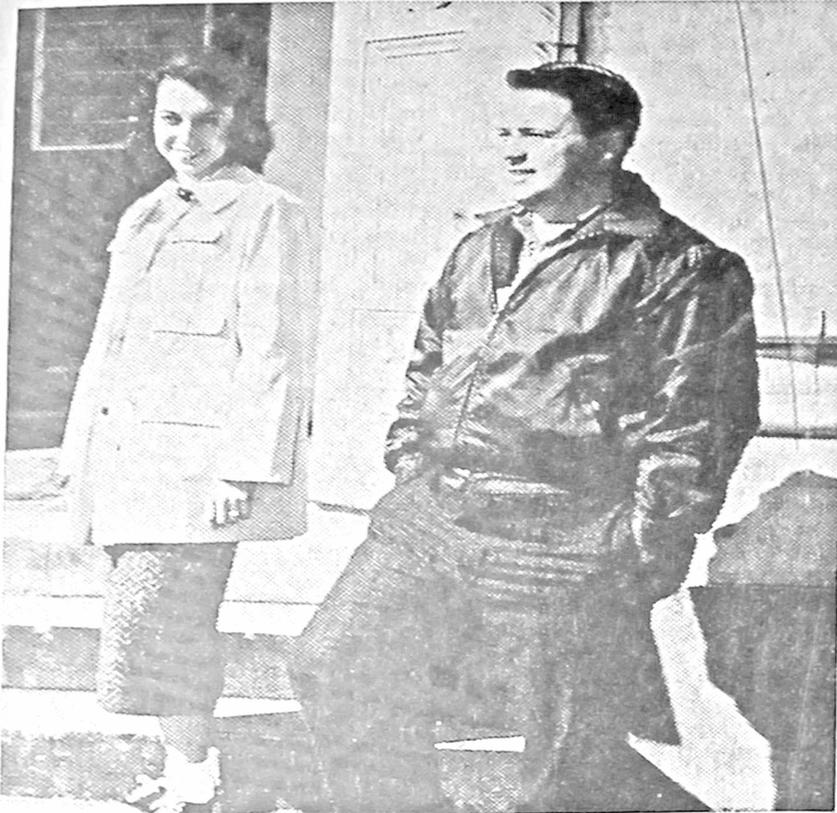

Here at V.S.C. Carolyn has been active in many college activities. She is a member of the Sock and Buskin Club, the Education Club and the English Club. In addition to holding the office of president of the Delta Xi Sorority, Carolyn also serves as secretary on the Panhellenic Council. She attended the national Alpha Xi Delta Convention this summer where she was initiated into the Alpha Chapter.

Carolyn is studying secondary education with an emphasis upon Speech and English. Her plans after graduation are uncertain, but she confides that one of her secret ambitions is to become an airline hostess. High on Carolyn's list if like's rank sports cars and beaches. Her pet peeve is an undependable person.

Babe Yeomans made his debut to the city of Valdosta at about six o'clock in the afternoon on January 8, 1933. He attended school in Valdosta and graduated from V.H.S. in 1951. Upon graduation he entered V.S.C. Babe played with the V.S.C. basketball team during the years of '53 and '54, then in 1955 he received a personal invitation from Uncle Sam. Babe served ten months in El Paso, Texas and eleven months in Mainz, Germany. After serving in the Army for two years Babe returned to Valdosta State and is majoring in Business Administration with a minor in history. He plans to try his hand in the business world after graduation.

As for sports, he likes all kinds, both indoor and outdoor. Babe likes nothing better than a session of good jazz music.

Babe's dislikes go right along with the season — he doesn't like too much cold weather. How about snow, Babe?

S. A. O. Is Accepted In National A. D. P.

The Sigma Alpha Omega sorority has been accepted as a chapter of the national sorority, Alpha Delta Pi.

The pledge service was held Sunday night, February 23, at the House-in-the-Woods. Miss Maxine Blake national president of the Alpha Delta Pi sorority, installed the S.A.O. members as the ninety-first chapter of Alpha Delta Pi.

The V.S.C. chapter will be known as the Delta Theta chapter, and has twenty-two pledges. The pledges are expected to be installed as members some time within the next few months.

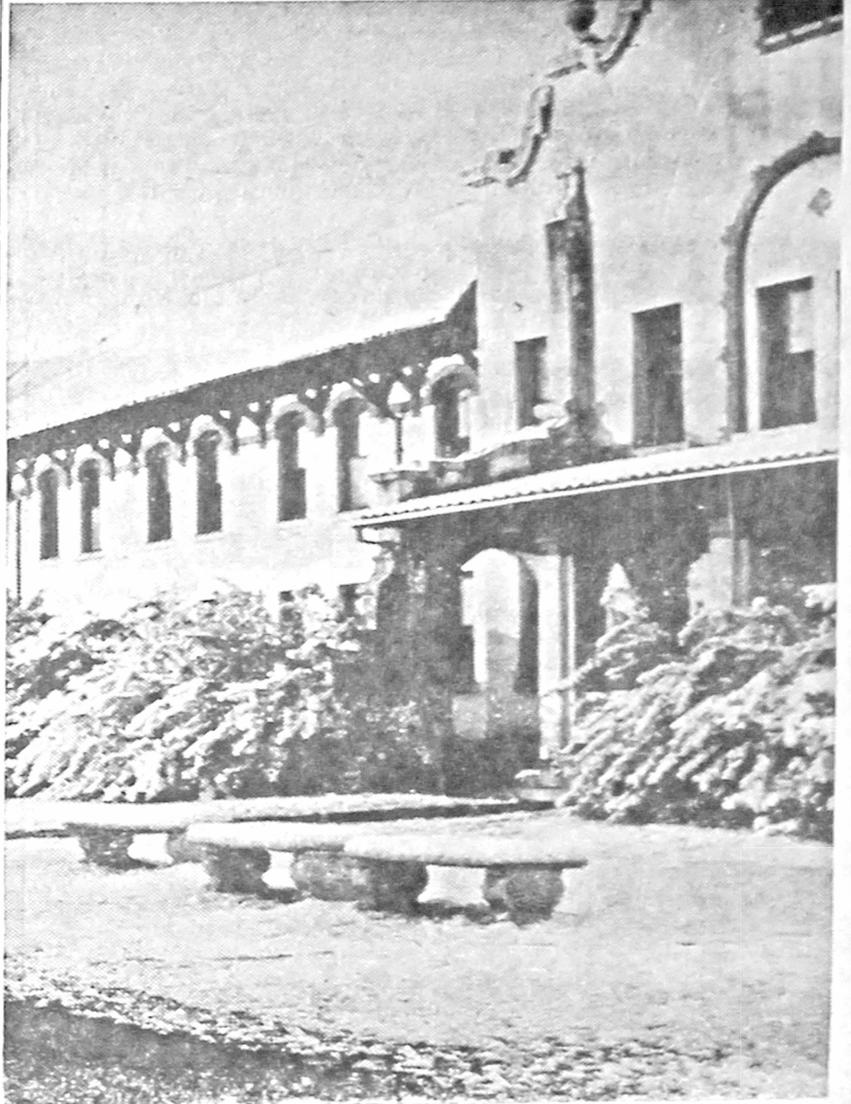

Jane Purvis, president of the S.A.O., said, "I think I speak for all of the new Alpha Delta Pi pledges when I say that we are very proud to become the first national sorority on the campus of Valdosta State College. Every girl in the sorority is going to do her part to make Delta Theta chapter the best."

Wild With Snow

By Sandra Stanfield.

A college campus in the deep South was a place of excitement on February 12. It all began about 10:30 that Wednesday night; some people said, "It is rain, most paid no attention at all, but a few said it is snow!" "Snow?" All wondered how it could be in February? In Valdosta? But it was true, real live snow for everyone to see.

The boys really enjoyed themselves, throwing snowballs, making snowmen, or just stending watching the unbelievable white stuff fall. After hours of ramping around in the snow the boys went to bed not expecting to see anything in the morning but a mess of mud.

Someone woke the next morning, whether by accident or planned, and upon looking out of the window set off a chain reaction of excitement that lasted throughout the day. What they saw was the campus of VSC in the early morning light covered with a blanket of beautiful white snow.

Classes meant little to anyone that day. Professors, students, and people who just came to look enjoyed the entire riot — cause how many times in ones life is he able to make snowmen on the campus of V.S.C.

TALENT CONTEST—

Mrs. Ralph Williams of Valdosta, is a freshman at VSC, and is majoring in Elementary Education. She won in the competition with her dance selection.

Wayne, who is a junior at VSC, is majoring in Business Administration. He won in the competition with his vocal selections.

Other participants in the contest were Mary Lou Martin, Richmond Hill, pianist; Dwaine Skiles, Valdosta, vocalist; Erroll Sewell, Valdosta, vocalist and impressionist; Marjorie Brooks, Climax, dancer; Marilyn Hughes, Valdosta, baton twirler; and Jo Rabun, Valdosta, vocalist.

Jeanne Connell was unable to present her production number due to a sudden illness that affected her voice. Some comic relief was supplied at that time in the program. However, Miss Connell will appear in that number in the "Follies" presented over Senior Weekend.

While the judges were making their decisions, the brothers of Mu Alpha, along with some dancers and singers, presented a short musical entitled "Hernando's Hideaway" which featured three production numbers.

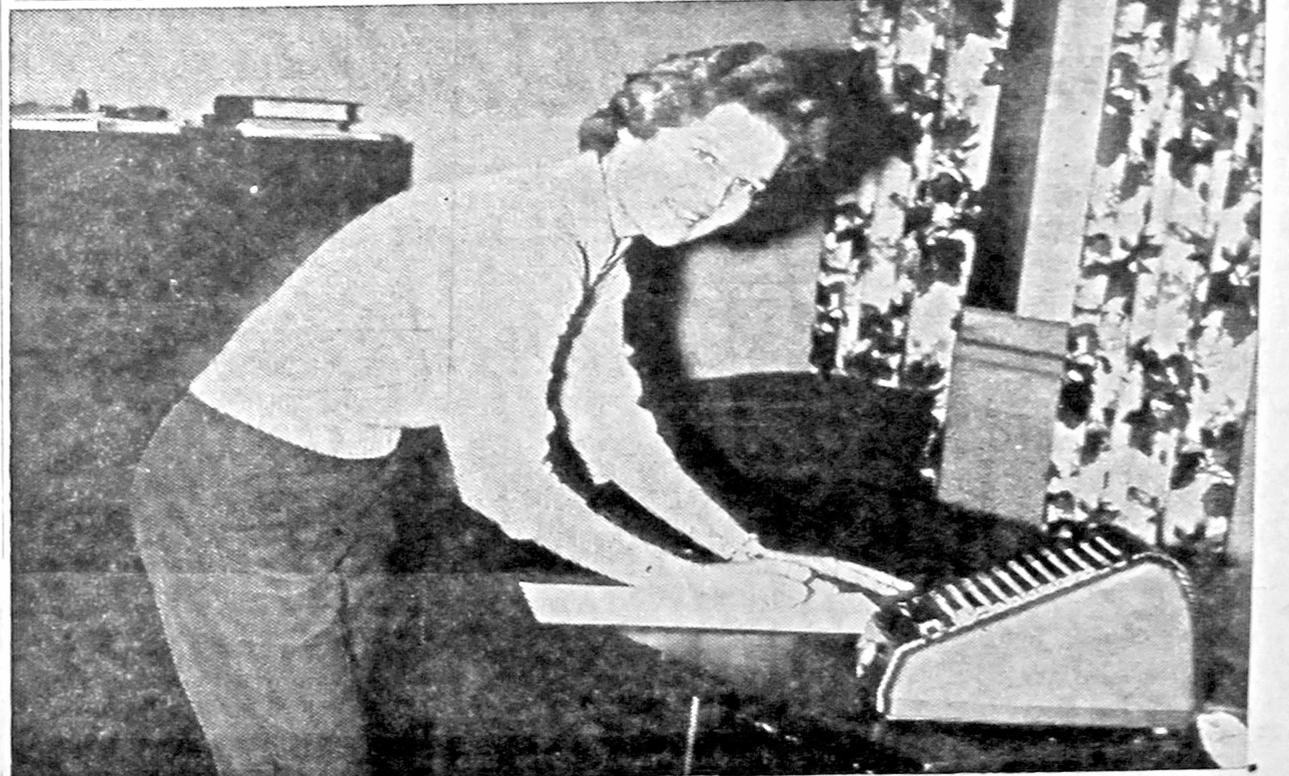

The show was directed by Jerome Clegg. Alan Pendleton of WGAF was master of ceremonies. Stephen Vaughn supplied the organ music.

After the show Delta Xi Sorority and the Brothers gave a congratulatory party in honor of the winners in the House-in-the-Woods.

Glee Club Entertains New Members

January 23, the Glee Club entertained its new members at a spaghetti supper at Mrs. Beth McRae's cottage at Twin Lakes. The new members present were Beth Croom, Elizabeth Brooks, Jimmy Lineberger, Jim Varner, Leslie Brown and Lyn Touchton. President, Fred McDonal, read two chapters from Old Man Adam and His Chillen.

The Glee Club is now busy preparing for its annual tour, which will take place during spring vacation.

CANOPY QUEEN — Versatile and pretty Jeanne Harrell, signs out for an evening of entertainment on a hay ride. Jeanne is a sophomore majoring in Biology and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Harrell of Waycross, Georgia.

Sporting Around

by Sidney Futch

I understand that there is a petition going around to get the indoor swimming pool at north campus open and in use for those people who desire to swim.

If enough people are interested and would show their interest, I see no reason why the pool could not be opened. One student remarked to me last week that the VSC catalog stated that there was an indoor pool that was maintained during the fall and winter quarters. The student went on to say that since it was in the catalog, he thought that the pool should be opened or either not include the false information in the catalog. I checked in the 1957-58 catalog and I found that it said nothing about an indoor pool and nothing about the pool being operated during the fall and winter

Just about everytime I pass by the tennis courts, one of the ground keepers here at VSC is working on the courts. I wonder how many hours a week he spends working on them? If the money he draws each week working on the courts this quarter and the preceeding quarters was added up, the college would probably have enough to go a long way on pouring asphalt or concrete courts.

I know that last quarter class dismissals resulted due to wet courts. If concrete or asphalt courts were constructed, classes could play more, they would have a more suitable place to play, and some expense on the up keep of the courts could be cut out.

Many high school basketball tournaments have been played last week and the week before and the best teams are finally being singled out. I just said that the best teams were being singled out, but in some instances that I know of the best team or a potential championship team has had to return home from the tourney beaten and a weak team going ahead in the finals. The fault many times is the system of seeding a team in the tournament. For instance, last week the Valdosta Wildkittens had to play powerful Berrien County in the first game of the region 2AA-south tournament. Both of these teams boast good season records and both have the qualities of state champions. Waycross, the other team in the region, drew a bye and automatically got a chance to play in the region 2-AA tourney since there is only three teams in region 2-AA south. I think that Valdosta and Berrien County should have been the teams to go ahead and try for bigger stakes, but since Valdosta was defeated, she had to return home, and Waycross the weaker team, went ahead.

That's sports for you, but I do think that the system of seeding should be investigated and revised if authorities see fit. quarters.

Jerry Studdard Receives Most Valuable Player Award

By Sidney Futch

Jerry Studdard Rebel forward and high point maker, won the most valuable player award last week during homecoming activities.

The twenty year old junior was born in Alabama, but moved to Tifton, Georgia in 1952 where he attended high school. He graduated in 1955. Jerry lettered in basketball for four years at Tifton High School and was all state during his junior year. While in his senior year in high school, he was named to the south all-star team. Jerry also lettered in baseball two years at THS playing an outfield position.

After graduating, Jerry received a small athletic scholarship to Abraham Baldwin Junior College in Tifton where he lettered in basketball and averaged about twenty points per game.

Jerry attended Georgia Teachers College last quarter but did not play basketball. He came to VSC at the beginning of this quarter and joined the Rebel team. Since then he has led them in scoring and is now leading the state in point average per game among players of four year colleges. At present time he has a fantastic 25.6 average.

Jerry remarked that he came to VSC because it was an excellent college and it was close to his home. Jerry also stated that this was the best basketball season he has ever had. He is majoring in history.

WHAT'S WRONG—

book. He is a person who knows how to live and enjoy life in ALL its many facets. He must experience as many phases of life as is possible, even those which he dislikes, so that he will be able to know, to understand, to sympathize, to help others, to make this world a better place in which to live. He does not become educated by shunning those things which he dislikes, in hopes that they will go away. They won't. He has to learn to live with them.

Every person on this campus needs to ask himself why he is here. If he can honestly say he is here to help further his education then his absence from that concert was inexcusable. He failed himself.

If he cannot honestly say that he is here to learn, how to live and adjust to this modern world, to understand its every expression, then he has no business being here. Besides, being a detriment to the school he may be keeping a person who truly wants to learn from entering college. By so doing he not only hurts himself but hurts our civilization as well, by denying it a well-educated person—a leader.

What is your answer?? Why is there no school spirit at VSC? Perhaps it is because the primary function of this college, to help the students in their education, has been subverted—by the students themselves. It is up to the students who are attending this college to correct this situation, for no one else can. When they realize that a college does not exist for the purpose of giving them four more years to be children before they are thrown out on the mercies of "this cruel world", they will be in a position to improve the standards—and the esprit-de-corps—of this college. If he is unwilling to use the facilities of this college to gain an education, the student should free these facilities for those who do want an education. Not to do so would be unfair to him and to his society.

This is the situation facing us today. It must be improved to ensure our existence as a nation in the world of tomorrow.

When hubby came home at 3 a.m., an irritated wife asked: "So home is the best place after all," to which he replied, "I don't know about that, but it's the only place open."
