Scenes around Campus

The girls of Ashley and Constance Halls coming in at 11:30 on Tuesday night (last Wednesday). They had all been and no doubt enjoyed the very wonderful performance of "La Traviata".

The leading lady, Ethel Waldson, was a very fine singer in addition to being a very good actress. She played the role of the tragic Violetta who gives up her lover Alfredo because of his fever with Valdosta took her into their hearts and she was called back for numerous curtain calls. She was presented a bouquet of white roses during one of her final curtain calls.

Opera Guild spokesmen said this was the first time a city they had played in had presented the leading lady with flowers. The father, Giorgio, played by Richard Collins who is an assistant professor of voice at FSU, showed a very fine characterization as well as a splendid vocal performance.

The tenor, Walter James who is an associate professor of voice at FSU was much liked in his role of Alfredo who returns to his love, Violetta as she is dying.

The sets were tremendous, especially the last one which took the audience into Violetta's bedroom. When the curtain parted an audible sigh went up from the audience.

We must not forget one of the most essential if not the most important parts of the production, the orchestra. They also did a fine job with Verdi's score. Some of the overtures were very dramatically played and did much in creating the atmosphere that was desired. They, as well as the other singers and also the dancers are to be commended on a job well done.

From opera we turn to drama. It seems all I have done in the last few weeks is go to rehearsals. But tonight and tomorrow night are the big nights and if all goes as planned we should have a very good performance for you.

Congratulations to all the fraternity and sorority groups on campus for a very enjoyable and well planned Greek Week. I think it added much to our campus.

Well I will close out now. See you on stage.

NEWS FLASH

The winners of the song fest were Alpha Delta Pi sorority and Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Winner of the fraternity skit competition also was Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The Greek god and goddess were Tommy Sessions and Virginia Lamb.

Greek Week Termed A Success

The first Greek Week ever to be held at Valdosta State College began Friday Nov. 13.

Greek Week opened Friday afternoon with a mass meeting of all Greeks in the gymnasium. The plan of events was a song fest in the gymnasium with all sororities and fraternities participating; in the competition. Friday night there was an informal dance in the student center with the fraternities present skits.

Saturday afternoon, there was an olympic contest, with sororities and fraternities participating in Sandspur Stadium. Saturday night, there was a semi-formal dance. Paul Fisher and his band provided the music. At this time all awards were made and the crowning of the God and Goddess took place.

Culminating the week on Sunday morning, there was a church service in Pound Hall for all the Greeks. The Rev. Saunders Garwood was the speaker.

Greek Week was for all Greeks on this campus and in the community. Its purpose was to unite all Greeks and to better their relations in campus activities in the community.

Angel Street To Open, Tickets Still Available

Tickets are going quite rapidly for the two performances of Patrick Hamilton's suspenseful "Angel Street". In fact most of the seats are sold but there are still a few choice ones left.

"Angel Street" was first presented under the title "Gaslight" by Gurdner Davis, on Dec. 5, 1938 in Richmond Theatre, London, England. In 1942, Patrick Hamilton's adaptation "Angel Street" was presented at John Golden Theatre in New York, and it ran until June of 1944 with a total of 1,295 performances.

Some of the reviews given it by the critics at that time are:

"You must take my word for it that this is a play worth going to" - Newsweek Magazine.

"'Angel Street' comes off the top part of the theatre's top part of the theatre's top shelf" - New York Times.

I would like to echo this last one - don't miss it tonight or tomorrow night at 8:15 p. m. in the North Campus auditorium - tickets $.75 and $1.00.

Miss Louise A. Sawyer, director of "Angel Street", expects an excellent performance during each of the two nights. The Sock and Buskin Club is producing and the Play Production Class 300 is assisting.

Bennett

The Sophomore class held an election for president on Monday, Nov. 9. George Bennett and Charlie Greene were the two candidates for the office. George Bennett was elected to fill the office of class president.

The other officers who will be working with George are: Sue Wright, Vice-President; Betty Pace, Secretary; and Sandra Massey, Treasurer.

NOTICE! All Seniors

Mr. Battle of the Herf-Jones company will be here this morning Nov. 18 immediately after assembly to take orders for class rings. You are asked to come by Room 121 at that time and after that period to the Publicity office. -- Jerome Clegg, Senior Class president.

Mullin, Steele, Moses, Byrd And Whorton To Assist

Freshman class officers were elected on Wednesday, Oct. 28. Approximately one hundred and fifty Freshmen voters turned out. The newly-elected officers are:

Charlie Norwood, Valdosta, president; Diane Mullin, Albany, vice-president; Toni Steele, Moultrie, secretary; Joe Moses, Valdosta, treasurer; and Judy Whorton, Brunswick, Robert Byrd, Valdosta, S. G. A. representatives.

The Freshman Class is looking forward to a good year this year. They have several activities planned for this year.

Miss VSC 1959, Mary Shadburn

Miss VSC Pageant Slated November 24

The annual Miss VSC Beauty Pageant will be sponsored by Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity, Tuesday night, Nov. 24, in the college gymnasium at 8 p. m.

Seventeen girls are seeking the title. They are:

Penny Williams, Vonnie Williams, Robin New, Sue Wright, Marilyn Hughes, Carol Lee, Margaret Davis, Toni Steele, "Sugie" Carroll, Molly Coleman, Gloria

Reagan, Joyce Ann Thomas, Barbara Jean Walker, Nancy Raines, Joy Kennedy, Lysbeth Brooks and Barbara George.

The winners are chosen for beauty, talent, and personality.

The program is under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Carter. Ernie Cortez and the Crescendoes will furnish music throughout the evening. Ray Mercer, of WGOV. (Continued on Page 3)

Quitter Or Winner?

This time of the school year always brings to my mind the proverb, "A quitter never wins, and a winner never quits." It seems that every year we have a large number of quitters and just a handful of winners. Of course I'm referring to those students who join an organization just to get their picture in the Pine Cone.

These inconsiderate people are not helping the school or themselves. There are many, narrow-minded juveniles at VSC who say that they cannot find an organization that can hold their interest.

These people ought to organize and form an "Idots' Club", then maybe they will find themselves in a group where all the members have something in common. All joking aside, it would be nice if everyone would take more interest in what's going on around himself or herself.

Every club on this campus needs active membership badly, so don't fall along the wayside after your picture is taken for the annual. Be a winner.

What Do You Want?

By Sandra Pattillo
Homecoming will be here in a short time, so it is time to be thinking about what we want for the theme. Here is what I found out when I asked these students.

Jeannie Posey: I'd like to have an underwater theme.

Beverly Green: I think that it would be fun to go back to Civil War days.

Jim Stevens: Oh, I think that I'd pick the Space Age.

Johnny McIntyre: There is so much that you could do with an underwater theme, that I think that would be a good one.

Gayle Luke: I'd like to have a Beatnik theme.

Wayne Welch: The Civil War would be a good theme.

Martha Price: I'd love to see the Mardi Gras. We should have one.

Bob King: It would be nice to recreate the Old South.

John Jackson: The roaring 20's would be fine with me.

Lyda Ferguson: The Civil War would be a theme that could be worked up nicely.

Ann Quattlebaum: I think that the Beatnik theme would be a good one.

Margaret Cook: I like the roaring 20's. Can't you just see me in one of those dresses?

Whatever the theme is I am sure that Homecoming will be a success if all of the students want it to be, and will work to make it so.

On A Play

"The woman is mad!" I heard him say.

But is it not just part of a play? Miss Sawyer wished to know who was speaking.

(I'd like to know just what she was thinking.)

The play must go on! But why right now.

First tell me the who and wherefore and how.

I never saw a drooper cast. (If they keep up this rate, they'll never last.)

Jerome was acting like this Czar.

(If he keeps this up he'll be a star.)

Marilu was shouting, raving out loud.

(Look out below. She's up on a cloud.)

George was a kind and helpful man. (He'll help you too, if ever he can.)

Joe was stout, but actually this. (In casting a play, you don't always win.)

Nancy was young and coy, quite ture.

(If she will only remember her cue.)

The play goes on. The dye is cast.

(Two performances is all it will last.)

Canopy Policy

All copy for the canopy must be turned in on the appointed date or else it will be held over for the next issue of the paper. All copy must be typewritten and double spaced. If you cannot type the typists for the paper will type it for you if it is turned in two days before the copy deadline.

SGA Met

OCTOBER 19, 1959
The meeting was called to order by the President, Jimmie Broxson. He announced that Freshmen class officers will be elected October 28. Lamar Pearson, chairman, and all other S. G. A. members will be in charge of the poll, which will be open from 9 o'clock a. m. to 3 o'clock p. m. in the lobby of the Administration Building. The President of the Sophomore Class will be elected on that date also.

Wayne Studdard, boys' dormitory representative, and Brinkley McNeal, senior class rep. will be replaced before the next meeting.

The possibility of evaluating the various clubs on campus was introduced by Jimmie Broxson. This was put into the form of a motion by Lamar Pearson, seconded by John Jackson; motion was

WHY

By Stephen W. Sevits

One morning recently, I witnessed a phenomenon of great wonderment and beauty. I woke up just at the first light of dawn and chanced to see the first rays of the rose tipped aurora creep over the edge of the earth. As the darkness disintegrated, shapes of familiar objects took their proper prospective.

Just a moment or so later, these silhouettes took on glorious colors and the whole world seemed to reveal in the glory of another day.

Once in a while, we get to think of ourselves in a way that magnifies our own importance carried. The evaluation will consist of investigating the operation of each club, who the officers are, who the members are, and what it actually does for the campus and surrounding community. The following committee were set up for this project:

- S. G. A. Evaluation: John Jackson, Chairman; George Bennett; Barbara Monk; Lamar Pearson.
- Dance Club, Fins and Flippers, Photography Club, Serenades: Glee Club, Theispaicians: Patricia Luke, Chairman; Tony Corso; John Baskin; Dot Harrell.
- Sorority and Fraternity Evaluation: Lamar Pearson, Chairman; Patricia Luke.
- IRC, Circle K, Sock and Buskin, Honor Society Evaluation: Jimmie Broxson, Chairman; Jean Hooks.

Lamar Pearson will also be responsible for an evaluation on hazing, which will be presented to the faculty to determine whether it should be continued.

There was a discussion on getting students to understand and feel that they are a part of S. G. A. The Student Government Association represents the student body (Continued on Page 4) and neglects the fundamental truths that confront us in every facet of our daily lives. Being able to accept in their true prospective without prejudices or personal feelings is one of the hardest tasks that man has to face in this modern, electronic, atomic, mobile, interplanetary age.

With the prospect of interstellar travel staring us in the face, we have not yet learned to suppress the petty differences between men, and on a larger scale - nations. The question is not whether we can reach the stars, but rather can we live long enough to reach the stars.

As space scientists, (ours and others), reach for the sky the intellectual and political leaders sit around polished conference tables and squabble about territory, dogma, and economic differences. How long will it take them to learn that the freedom of the individual is the only way to survive at all? How many of these "great men" have watched the wonder of a sunrise?

You Alone Can Answer That

As I write this it is the morning after one of the best performances I have ever seen by a college student group. I mean Florida State University's Opera Guild's performance of Verdi's La Traviata.

The packed house proved that Valdosta can and will support a student performed production and I think that enough of the college students from VSC supported it to say that they can and will come out also.

But if you will come to support a production from another university why not one that is put on by our own students. "Angel Street" opens tonight and has a very fine cast as the opera did, but will you come out and support it?

The tickets are the same price and the production is costumed in the Victorian period. It has a tragedy and suspense. It has a trio of leading characters. But will you support it; as Mr. Manningham says in the play, "YOU ALONE CAN ANSWER THAT."

The Latest Word

If you have heard some groans around campus, maybe they're actually sighs of success after mid-term. I know it could be nothing else. I hope that there were very few of those little unwelcome notices sent out from the office during these past few weeks. You know the old saying "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again."

Greek Week was an occasion of the fraternal organizations on VSC campus during the week-end of Nov. 15. As this paper goes to press, we have only the plans, but we will let you know the details later.

Beginning with a kick-off Friday afternoon, Nov. 13 at 4:15 and ending with a Greek-wide church service Sunday morning at Pound Hall Auditorium on North campus; a big time is planned.

At the mass meeting on Friday, the candidates for the Greek God and Goddess will be introduced and will be named at the formal dance to be held Saturday night. Each sorority and fraternity will participate in an informal song fest Friday night in the gym.

It will be competitive and will be judged by fraternal men and women from here in Valdosta, but not associated with our campus in any manner. Olympics will be an event of Saturday afternoon. There will be sport contests between the pledges and members of the organizations. We wish this new event on our campus all the success in the world.

The fall pledge class of Delta Theta Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi have elected their officers for their time of pledgedom. Those which have been chosen are:

Joy Kennedy, president; Kitty Coppage, secretary; and Ann Powell, treasurer.

A surprise was in store for the sisters of ADPI when they came to the sorority room last Thursday night. The pledge class had been busy painting the chairs for the room.

Gamma Mu Chapter of Kappa Delta Sorority had as their guest over the week-end of Nov. 8, Mrs. Genevieve Morse, who is the national president of Kappa Delta. Mrs. Morse is a resident of Charlottesville, Va. and this week is attending a meeting of the National Panhellenic Conference at Boca Raton, Fla. The sisters entertained Mrs. Morse at a dinner Saturday night at the Green Turtle Restaurant.

Brown's Pond was the scene of a real "beat" party Wednesday night, Nov. 4. The Sigma Epsilon fraternity and Kappa Delta Sorority held a joint party there. In the latest thing in "beat" styles the group enjoyed an evening of dancing and

Alpha Xi Deltas were feted by their alumnae members on Tuesday night, Nov. 3, with a delicious supper party.

Alpha Xi Delta is also participating in the panhellenic campaign to bolster student interest in cultural events and helped sell tickets to the opera, "La Traviata".

Very welcome to the Alpha Xi ranks is Patricia Hunter from Clyattville, who is a new pledge.

Inter-mural points were captured for Sigma Epsilon by John Baskin who won a recent ping-pong tournament. The Sig Ep's also won the game between themselves and the town students held on Nov. 9.

The real importance that is felt in a pledge class is never quite at its peak until the class has elected its leaders. The fall pledge class of the Sig Eps have elected their officers for this year. Filling the place of president is John Fountain; assisting him as vice-president is Charlie Norwood, who is also president of the Freshman Class, and in the secretary-treasurer place we find Joe Moses. The group has chosen Diane Higgenbotham as their sweetheart.

The Dance Club meets on the stage each Thursday morning at 10:15. If you are interested in dancing or at least learning how, please come and join. The group is a great asset to the campus so it will be an asset to you to join.

Patricia Luke and Penny Williams have been elected by the Alpha Xi Delta Sorority to serve on the Panhellenic Council for the incoming year. Penny was elected secretary of the group at the meeting last month.

Georgia Baptist Convention

The Georgia Baptist Student Convention was held at the First Baptist Church in Augusta, Oct. 23 through 25.

The theme of the program was "Toward Maturity in Christ." It was lead by an unusually effective team of leaders including:

Dr. W. F. Howard, state secretary of student work in Texas; Georgians and B.S.U.ers, who are missionaries to Nigeria; Dr. Robinson, former olympic basketball star and pastor in Augusta; Dr. David J. Evans, pastor, Georgia Street Baptist Church, in Atlanta; and Mr. Edmond S. Keith, associate-secretary, Georgia Baptist Music Department.

Several special features were: A gripping dramatic presentation, a Swiss Hand-bell choir from First Church, Augusta; Summer missionaries, Student fellowship.

We were proud of the Valdosta State B.S.U. representation and know each one of our group received a blessing.

Education Club Meeting

The Education Club held its first meeting of year Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m., in the House-in-the-Woods. The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Martha McKey, the vice-president, in the absence of the president Charlotte Chapman, who is student teaching this quarter.

There were thirty six persons present, including Mrs. Knight, the faculty advisor.

A business meeting followed. Carolyn Garner was elected acting secretary as Terry Meeks, the regular secretary is also student, teaching this quarter. Chairmen who were appointed are as follows:

Project, Peggy Crew, social, Priscilla Busby; program, Sandra Ford; publicity, Pat Herrington; scrapbook, Jane Sammons; educational bulletin board, Becca McGraw.

Several projects were also discussed. Among these were a minstrel as a money making project, storytelling at elementary schools, decorating the Ad Building at Christmas, and a Chapel program during National Education Week. Also a discussion was led by Mrs. Knight on ways to observe this important week.

Becca McGraw gave a short talk on the use of the dues. The meeting was then adjourned. A song session and delicious refreshments were enjoyed by all.

Famed Tenor To Sing Here

On Nov. 23, Guiseppe Campora, a tenor from the Metropolitan Opera Company will present a concert sponsored by the Civic Music Association.

Campora made his debut in 1955, at the Metropolitan Opera House. He was in the role of Rodolfo in the opera "La Boheme."

Before coming to America he made appearances in Rome, Florence, Naples and Paris. He also sang in his hometown of Tortona, Italy which is known for its musical tradition.

After his sweep to musical fame, he made appearances in Cuba, Mexico, Puerto Rica, Brazil, Canada and Argentina. Besides singing in the Met, he has been with the New Orleans, San Francisco, and Miami Opera Companies.

As a child his parents wanted him to be an architect while he wanted to be a concert pianist. He enjoyed singing, but he never thought or considered being a singer.

He spent his childhood days in Tortona and later married Italian whom he had met in Italy, Mexico and New York.

Phillip Dillard And Sue Kemp Very Interesting People Of The Week

By Sandra Pattillo

This week our two very interesting people are Sue Kemp and Phillip Dillard.

Sue, a transfere from Middle Georgia College, is a 20 year old junior from Ferandina Beach, Fla. While Sue was a student at Middle Georgia, she was a member of the Ensemble. This group made several singing tours, some of which were to Florida, Georgia,

He collects gold coins and enjoys watching cowboy movies, reading western books and watching people.

Guiseppe Campora has reached unattainable standards and is highly praised by critics and audiences. He is considered one of the best tenor singers in the world.

Be sure and circle this date on your calendar and remember that your I.D. card will admit you free.

will act as master of ceremonies. Hansel O'Steen, a PI Kapp pledge will pantomime during the intermissions.

Miss VSC of 1959 is the former Mary Shadburn, now Mrs. Gibb Dean. She now resides in France and will be unable to appear in the production.

La Traviata

When the FSU Opera Guild presented "La Traviata" last Wednesday evening the house was packed. There were no seats left in the Ritz when the Curtain went up on the four act Opera by Verdi.

A very fine performance was given by Ethel Donaldson who sang the leading role of Violetta.

She was extremely popular with the audience and received thunderous applause every time she appeared for a curtain call. She was presented with a bouquet of red roses at the close of the performance.

Other notable performances were presented by the other prinand Washington D. C.

Sue's main interest are music—playing the piano and singing, dancing and recording. She is a member of the Glee Club, Education Club, and the annual staff.

Philip also is a junior. He is from Thomasville. When Philip finishes college he would like to teach English and Spanish.

Philip enjoys playing the violin and the piano. Classical music ranks high in his collection of records. His favorite pastime is reading while listening to records. The clubs in which he finds special interest are the I. R. C. and Sigma Alpha Chi.

cipals the tenor, Walter James, who played Alfredo and The baritone, Richard Collins, who sang the role of Giorgio, Alfredo's father.

With the rest of the excellent cast, a company of singers and dancers, the performance can only be termed fabulous.

MUSICAL

NOTES

Some very interesting work is being done in our music department now. In Mr. Logan's counterpoint class five students are making original music compositions. Kay Domingos, Jim Varnner, Don McHan, Sue Kemp, and Stephen Vaughn are setting poems to music. These poems are either original or by well-known authors.

Mr. Logan thinks they are doing good and invites any of these students' friends in to hear them.

This is a reminder to all students that the Hi-Fi Set and record collection of the music department is still available to all who want to use it. If you are interested, check with Mr. Logan so that he can set up a schedule that is convenient for you.

A good time was had by all the members of the glee club who participated in the glee club party Friday, Nov. 6

On the schedule for the Glee Club this month is a program which will be presented to a group in Thomasville. We wish them good luck in this quest.

FROM THE BENCH

By Lamar Pearson

At long last cold weather has arrived. The chill of winter is upon us and its quiet natural that V. S. C.'s students should begin to eye rather quizzically the strange occurrences in the Rebel Gymnasium. Basketball season is rapidly approaching and practice sessions are being conducted with intensity in order to get ready for the Rebel opener.

You can tell from a glance that VSC is playing a tough schedule this year. I know of no pansies in the conference; they all put up a good fight last season, and it can be said with much truthfulness that any of the GIAC teams on any given night can defeat any other team in the GIAC.

Students, as well as local basketball fans really have a lot in store for them this year. Potentially, the Rebels are much stronger this year even considering the loss of versatile Jerry Studdard. The Rebels of 1959-1960 have more height and weight; four of the players are 6'5".

This year I expect with a reasonable amount of security to see them win the GIAC conference championship and to remove Garland Pinbolster from his precious pedestal.

So fans come on out and watch the Rebs perform, better still, come down and watch them practice. Let the men know that you are really behind them this year, and lets make 1959-1960 the best year athletical wise that VSC has ever seen.

TKE Down Sig Ep

Tau Kappa Epsilon in a return engagement with Sig Ep quickly ran up a 12-0 score in the early minutes of the game and coasted to an easy 24-0 victory.

In the first half Lamar Pearson passed to Joe Webb, Bernie Brown, and Wendell Anderson for touchdowns, and the Tekes left the field at half-time leading 18-0.

Bernie Brown took over the quarterbacking duties during the second period and really moved the ball well. Brown scored his second touchdown of the day on an end run from about twenty yards out.

Sig Ep played a fine game but suffered some bad breaks. On two occasions men were in the open on pass plays only to drop the ball. Brooks and Herndon were outstanding for Sig Ep.

Teke had only nine players; and, consequently, they were forced to play without the benefit of substitution. No one particular player could be singled out for personal credits because they all did a good job.

One player, Rat Harrington, offensive center, missed the game because of a sprained ankle and wrist; he is expected back in action soon.

Referees Duncan and Hart did a very outstanding job.

Dorm Defeats Town

The powerful dorm team won once again Nov. 4 by defeating the town team 18-6. Doodle Hall, Sonny Duncan and Weyman Vickers scored touchdowns for the dorm. Richard Hall scored for town.

Blood Bank

A blood bank program for VSC has been announced. The program will be conducted and administered by the local hospital blood bank in cooperation with the college's health department along with a faculty and a student advisor.

If a college student gives blood he gets credit against the time when he, his family or another student might need a transfusion. Through the national blood credit system, credits are transferable to other hospitals.

Some contributions have been made but the demand is still acute. For detailed information you may contact the health office, or Pineview Hospital.

Table Tennis

John Baskin defeated Ken Ferrell in the finals of the men's singles ping pong tournament. Doubles are rapidly reaching their conclusion.

TKE Defeats Pi Kapp

For the second time this year Tau Kappa Epsilon has defeated Pi Kappa Phi in the round robin intramural football league. The first half was a defensive battle and Teke was really pressed on several occasions. They made a determined goal line stand late in the first quarter and from there on they contained Pi Kapp's offense.

Bernard Brown took command of the potent Teke offensive attack in the second half. Teke drove down to the Pi Kapp four-yard line and from there Quarterback Brown ran around his left end for the touchdown.

In the final quarter Teke obtained a safety.

Sig Ep Wins

The Sigma Epsilon Colony defeated the town team by the score of 6-0 when the town was unable to field a team.

This is the second time that the town has been unable to field a team.

GIAC FINAL RELEASE

Three baseball players at Valdosta received acclamations in the Georgia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference results this year. Hansel Faulkner, the lead-off man for the Rebels, blasted a cool .452 to not only lead the Rebels, but also to win the conference batting crown.

"Garmish" Mobley, the G.I.A.C. second team second sacker, stroked a neat .375, and "Seppie" Tarpley rounded the group out with a .335 batting average.

Joe was voted the catching position for the G.I.A.C.'s first team. Also V.S.C. captured fourth place in the conference

NEW TOURNAMENTS AT STATE.

Broxson. He welcomed the freshmen representatives, Judy Whorton and Robert Byrd, and introduced all other members of the SGA. He also gave the members a "pep talk" on their duties in respect to their understanding of them when they accepted their positions.

It was announced that Ernie Cortez would play for the Holly Hop, which will be December 5.

The minutes were read and a call meeting was announced for November 23, during activity period, the place to be announced later.

To make plans for homecoming, the following committees were appointed:

Band, John Jackson; theme, Jean Hooks, Jimmie Broxson, Lamar Pearson and Patricia Luke; Publicity, Dorothy Harrell and John Baskin; table reservations; Lamar Pearson and Robert Byrd; Float; Kay Domingos, Patricia Luke, Robert Byrd and Judy Whorton.

Barbara Monk made the motion that we get opinions of students on the homecoming theme; seconded by Lamar Pearson; motion carried.

After a discussion concerning a parade marshall during homecoming, a motion was made by Patricia Luke and seconded by Kay Domingos that we ask Joe Webb to act as the marshall. Motion was carried.

Lamar Pearson appointed Dorothy Harrell, Kay Domingos, Tony Corso and Judy Whorton to serve on the committee on hazing, of which he is chairman.

The meeting was adjourned.

REBEL PERSONALITIES OF THE WEEK

Rebel personalities for this issue are Al Armstrong and Jim Melvin. This is their first year at Valdosta State and it is believed that they are going to be of great value in Coach Colson's plans this year for the Rebels.

Al, a freshman, graduated from West Jefferson High School in New Orleans, La. He is twenty years old and is majoring in Secondary Education with a minor concentration in Physical Education. His hobbies are all kinds of team sports and hunting and fishing.

Jim is a Junior this year. Prior to his coming to VSC he attended Georgia Southwestern Junior College at Americus. He is a pre-med major. Jim likes to play the Ukelele in his spare moments and he also likes to dance.

From all observations this year it appears that these men are really going to help the Rebels.
