FROSH VIE FOR OFFICE

VSC will be the scene of heavy politicking and friendly competition for the next two weeks as some 17-odd freshmen battle it out for the freshman class offices.

The election, sponsored by the SGA, will be held sometime during the fourth week in October.

Posters are already plastered on almost every available wall space and little "propaganda sheets" are being passed out among the fledgling students. Most of them now are thoroughly confused by the sudden influx of capable personalities demanding votes for their leadership.

To be eligible for candidacy, each office-seeker obtained the support of 10 fellow classmates on a signed petition. At present, there is still some time before the petitions are due to be turned in to the SGA.

There are six candidates for the presidency: Bill Moorman, Ike Boyette, Meade Bernard, Jerry Beverly, Choo-Choo Germano, and Butch Kirkland.

Bill Moorman graduated from Lanier County High in Lakeland in three years. (Bill says he was restless for college life.) In high school, he played varsity basketball and tennis.

Ike Boyette is a graduate of Valdosta High School, where he filled in his spare time running on the varsity track team. His first love, however, is water skiing. Ike is a pre-med student.

Meade Bernard, another VHS graduate, transferred from Lanier High in Macon after his junior year. His interests for a major field center around business. Meade spends much of his spare time playing tennis.

Jerry Beverly is a native of Moultrie, Ga. Jerry played varsity football in high school, and says it's his favorite occupation. He plans to major in business administration.

Butch Kirkland, a pre-engineering student at VSC, graduated from Valdosta High School. Butch spent most of his spare time playing varsity basketball and running track.

Richard Germano, better known as Choo-Choo, hails from Waycross, Ga. Choo-Choo likes water skiing, swimming and dancing. He hasn't decided definitely on a major.

Ernie Woodard, Gretchen Schrorer, and Gail Brown are the vice-presidential candidates. Gretchen is a graduate of Valdosta High, where she was vice president of the Student Council, Homecoming Queen, and salutatorian of the '60 class. Her interests include water sports and people.

Gail Brown, a native of Griffin, Ga., is an art major at VSC. Among her favorite extra-curricular activities was cheerleading for Griffin High and working on the Student Council.

Ernie Woodard is a graduate of Blackshear High School. Ernie says he likes to spend his spare time meeting people and making new friends.

The two candidates for secretary, Beth McRee and Susan Branch, are both honor graduates of Valdosta High School.

Beth was assistant editor of the annual at VHS, and is a math major. Susan was president of the Tri-Hi-Y, and her main interests center around vocal trio work.

They Said It Could Not Be Done

The date: one peaceful Sunday October. The place: the Episcopal Church on North Patterson. The scene: congregation was hushed serenely inside the Church singing Hymns... and outside, unknownst to the congregation, a hardened criminal.

The criminal stealthily watched the doors to the church and glanced curiously up and down the street. Inside the voices of the members rang out loud and clearly and one of those voices belong to the beloved professor of History at Valdosta State College, Mr. William Gabard.

As the congregation sang the lovely hymn "Come Walk With Me" the hardened criminal lurking without proceeded to insure that one of those without would do just that, i.e., walk. The one destined to walk was Mr. Gabard for the thief was in the process of stealing Mr. Gabard's sleek 1951 Pontiac. And he did.

When Church ended and the astardly deed was found out, Mr. Gabard notified the local authorities and the slow grinding wheels slowly moved into action. The culmination of this vast, state-wide police action was the recovery of Mr. Gabard's sleek 1951 Pontiac.

The stolen auto was found in Sparks, Ga. but at the time of this writing the police were still bewildered as to who the culprit might be.

When asked about this dreadful crime, Mr. Gabard said, "I can't understand why anyone would steal my car. As far as money is concerned, the car is worth little. But to me it is worth much." (Ed. Sentimental value?)

Incidentally, this reporter knows of several VSC students who live in the Sparks area. I wonder...???

Teke's To Crown Calendar Girl

On October 25 the 1961 Miss VSC Calendar Girl will be crowned--thirty contestants will vie for the title. Alpha Xi Delta, Alpha Delta Pi, and Kappa Delta sororities will each supply seven girls to compete with nine independents.

These thirty campus beauties will appear before the audience in sports clothes and evening gowns. They will be judged on (Continued on Page 3)

Is Boxing Possible at VSC?

Since the momentous year of 1953 when athletics were organized on VSC's campus on the intercollegiate level by Walter Cottingham, a former coach, sports in general have experienced tremendous growth. It takes participation to make any sports program well, and the program at State has done just that.

At the present time there are four major sports on the campus that are competing on the intercollegiate level, and they are: baseball, basketball, tennis and golf. Golf and tennis were added to the sports calendar last year.

The purpose of this article is ascertain if a intercollegiate boxing team could maintain a successful existence on our campus. It is the belief of many that boxing would be a great success on the campus. And it might be added that there is ample proof to defend such a supposition. For instance, last spring the Letterman's Club promoted a bout between two local debutants and the club netted $75 dollars. It was rather singular that the bout received only one day's publicity.

The advantages to be gained from a boxing program at VSC are many. For instance, highly talented pugilists can enter golden gloves tournaments, and win coveted trophies, besides receiving the wonderful discipline that com-

Here we stand: wholesome and clean after a bath of Tide, snuff, cheap perfume, shaving cream, eggs, and that necessity to all baths - water. No, this is not merely a public health campaign--it is the illustrious result of Rat Court, Oct. 12, 1960.

But don't think we're complaining! The cool water was a welcome relief after a hot session with Charles Greene and Johnny McIntyre and their "swinging paddles".

After this, the more lowly rats were brought to face their just deserts in a mock trial. Through the efforts of Ben Force, defense attorney, the condemned freshmen were not left completely undefended to face the mob rule of the upperclassmen. But his noble efforts went unrewarded because of the evident conspiracy of the judge, jury, and prosecutor, Lamar Pearson. (And to think, we work for him!)

Are You Aware?

By Doug Calhoun

I got up early this morning. Before the sun peered over the horizon I left my home and walked into the woods. I sat down and waited for the day. And as before, and as after, the sun appeared and another day in the endless stream of days began. I sat in awe. How many times this wondrous spectacle, so full of beauty and of grace, had taken place, and how few times had I, too busy with more important things, beheld this wondrous scene.

As the scene unfolded, like a film shown on a panoramic screen, I looked about and I was glad. I saw a squirrel poke his nose through the door of his abode. He sniffed the clean, fresh morning air and dashed down the tree and up another in uncontrollable joy. I heard a bird, singing sweetly to the newborn day; a herald to all that all is well. And I was glad.

Glad to be alive and to be a part of a world filled with such beauty; where the birds sing so sweetly; where the grass glistens green; where the trees so tall and majestic grow; where the sky is so blue; where life is so worth living. And I felt humility, for surely all of this was by the hand of One far greater than I.

And then, most of all, I felt sadness. Sadness for a people who have forgotten, apparently, the beauty of a butterfly perched on a throne of flowers. A people who have forgotten the majesty of a pine growing tall and true. A people whose very heritage lives covered by sprawling cities and towering buildings.

We have become so enmeshed by the overwhelming aspirations to amass material properties that we have virtually turned our backs on those natural beauties which afford all men inner peace and understanding. We shun nature and her gifts and with frantic, desperate actions we embrace the race for mediocrity. So snared by secularism are we that we vie on countless fields for the privilege of conforming to false and mundane ideals.

Not only is this evidenced by you and I, individuals, but by nations also. Nations compete for supremacy on the battle fields of production and standard of living and national gross product and great, world destroying weapons; seemingly dedicated to the task of creating a huge monstrous, mechanized civilization which, by its very nature, is destined to fail. For no man nor nation can endure if steeped in materialism and pleased with conformity.

A civilization can survive only if it is aware; aware of Nature in its wondrous glory; aware of Man and his role on earth; aware of the One which brought this all to pass. Needless to say, the paths of materialism and conformity lead only to destruction and remorse-not to awareness.

Editorial

By Emily Leonard

Seeing as this is the Editorial page, and I was invited (?) to write an editorial, I will. Noticing that you are the reader, and knowing that you have such fine taste in picking your reading material, I have arrived at a conclusion (after going through all the rigors of the famed "scientific" method) that this had better be an intellectual masterpiece.

From thence I have also decided that I had better throw in my few worn big words, so you intellectuals will stay with me. But now that I think about it, my poor mustered brain doesn't seem to have any vocabulary monstrosities handy. Well, that ends that.

Looks like I just lost all of my brainy readers, so I must contend with you all middle class folks. Let's see, at least that won't call for too much thinking on my part. Maybe we can just gossip, huh? that ok?

Oh, a little below your dignity. Well, I just lost all my middle intelligence readers, but I do have you few of the cough, cough) lower average group. Hey there, wait a minute 'now what did I say wrong' aw, come on gang'. Oh well I didn't want to write

Rats Are Human

When the freshmen first walked in the doors of VSC, they had no idea that upperclassmen could be so superior. Well, they had an idea; but the upperclassmen soon showed them it was all an illusion.

These underdogs were soon confronted with the difficulties of being well-trained by all the upperdogs. Shall we say? The first important phase of ridding was those precious little "rat hats". Seniors, do you remember when you wore them? Do you recall the effect of those loosely fitting red and black adornments on your

Sock and Buskin

The Sock and Buskin dramatic association held its first meeting recently in the house in the woods. At this time the past members presented a skit called Dr. Kronkwhite featuring George Hubert as the doctor, John Massey as the poor unsuspecting patient, and Cristine Yarbor as the nurse.

Her major is music.

Bobbie Jean Powell and John Powell (no relation) are the two candidates for treasurer. Bobbie Jean is from Tampa, Fla., majoring in elementary education. Her main interests are water skiing and horseback riding.

John is a graduate of Albany High School, where he was an active member of the band for four years. He plans to major in Biology.

Running for girls' representative to the SGA are Nancy Sheffield and Suzanne Brown, both honor graduates of Valdosta High.

Nancy was an outstanding member of the D. E. Club at VHS, and received state-wide recognition for her work. She was chosen as senior representative to homecoming court. Suzanne, a music major, transferred to Valdosta from Savannah. She was chosen "Miss Flame" for the pep rally preceding Homecoming.

Bruce Varnedoe and Jimmy Owens are the candidates for boys' representative to SGA. Bruce, another VHS graduate, likes water sports and "good times". He is majoring in business administration.

Jimmy, a native of Valdosta, graduated from Bolles Academy and is majoring in business administration. He spends his spare time working in electronics.

These may not be all of the candidates to run for election, since this article was written before the deadline for the petitions was due.

Something of Value

By Lamar Pearson

Freshman elections are not too far away and from the display of signs around the campus it appears that State is in for a colorful show of politics. Freshman elections really provide a good deal of enjoyment for me because they are marked with such profound speeches and campaign slogans. I suppose that they should be that way because most of the candidates, fresh out of high school, are uncalloused and unacquainted with hard-nosed politics, such as will be seen in the Student Government elections come spring.

I suppose that you, as well as I, have heard a thousand or more speeches concerning "What I will do if elected" or, "I don't promote you anything if I am elected." Really it gets to be a regular three ring circus. I know, for during my junior year, I was elected on the "Actions Speak Louder than words campaign", and the very next year I was defeated on the same issue.

Being well acquainted with the political situation on the campus, the best advice that any political hopeful can heed is to make a concerted drive among the commuting students and don't worry. The local students are the deciding factors in every election as the dorms generally split down the middle.

Don't be surprised if you are defeated for I have found in the four years that I have been here that only half of the students vote, and that of those voting only half know what they are voting for anyway. Apathetic, well it's true, and if you don't think that it's true, wait until you have been through a few elections and you will see. The crowning example was one year when the student body of VSC elected their homecoming queen and court one cold drizzly morn. Ample notice had been given concerning this important elections for three days before it was to be held. When ballot time came only fifty odd students paid their price and took their choice.

The sequel to this election was when Senior College Macs were chosen, which is an award given for the most outstanding senior college student. They were selected by a runoff before that same small crown. But reflecting back now I wonder does it really conote the same meaning to you that it would have if the run off had been held in assemble when five hundred ballots could have been cast again.

These things may seem trivial to you, but we as conscientious Americans and as sincere students in an academic democracy should question the authenticity of all elections and assure that they be held when a representative group is present.

So Freshmen--look closely, weigh the merits of each candidate, vote for the sincerity of your choice. Vote for sincerity of aim and purpose--don't be misled by a smiling face and a vociferous voice, for chameleon tactics are as old as civilization.

The Latest Word

By Sandra Massey

"Be friendly with the folks you know. If it weren't for them, you'd be a total stranger".

College is one of the best places in the world to make friends that last throughout your lifetime. You may find it hard sometime to get along with everybody especially living as close to them as you do in the dormitory but it never hurts to push your potentialities of friendship. You may find your best friends are those in your fraternity or sorority or your roommate or your classmate, but treasure the wonderful blessing of friendship and never feel that you can do without friends.

Rush Week is over and the excitement is still going strong. Rushees have finally become pledges. In Converse on Sunday afternoon after bids were picked up, there sure was a lot of racket! Already competition was going on among the various groups in singing the favorite sorority songs. A new ornament was obvious on the new pledges as the week after rush began - little ribbons of white, of blue and white, and double blue and gold.

Alpha Xi Delta Sorority held its first party on Monday, October 3, with the theme of a Japanese Teahouse. The rushees were given miniature umbrellas as favors. Devils were seen walking about the dormitories on Tuesday afternoon as the Kappa Delta Sorority prepared to embark for "KD Hades". To remind the rushees of a "helleva" good time, they were given devil beanbags, and "hot seats". The wonderful New Orleans' Mardi Gras was the theme of the Alpha Delta Pi party held on Wednesday afternoon. Amid the gaily of the occasion, the rushees enjoyed a Bourbon Street atmosphere. Gaily decorated masks were given as favors. The formal parties were given the last few days of the week. Hearing comments from the rushees, one would gather that all the parties were very impressive and entertaining.

The Panhellenic Council here on our campus is planning a pledge party for the new fall pledges on October 22. Each sorority will be in charge of a certain phase of the party plus providing some sort of entertainment. It is planned that at the party sorority songs will be exchanged. This get-together will provide a wonderful opportunity for the girls to get to know one another better after the strain of rush.

The week of November 9-12 will be Greek Week. A tradition, or at least the Greeks on campus are trying to make it a tradition, begun only last year, is a very spirit arousing event. During the days of the celebration, there will be a song fest, an informal dance, a Greek Olympics, and a formal dance. To put that last touch on the week will be the crowning of the Greek God and Goddess at the formal dance on Saturday evening. These two are elected by the sororities and fraternities. George Bennett, president of IFC, and Sandra Pattillo, president of Panhellenic, are in charge of making the arrangements for this week.

Martha Sue Bragg, Kappa Delta, was elected by the sorority to serve as pledge trainer for the fall quarter in the absence of Virginia Lamb.

The Sig Eps' held a party at the home of Fred Wilkinson last weekend. According to all reports, the brothers and their guests had a "ball".

The TEKE brothers have chose their official sponsors for the 1960-61 school year. This year the sponsors, headed by Sweetheart, Toni Steele, include Brenda Houston, Snookie Rigdon, Wilda Britt, Ginger Gornito, Gail Brown, Dawn Groover, Charlotte Durden, Kay Domingos, Betty Pace, Kaye Parks, and Faith Polk. This group also served as the official hostesses for the TEKE Rush party.

Sororities and Fraternities Term Rush A Success

A total of 40 girls and 59 mer students were pledged to Valdosta State College's three sororities and fraternities last. According to reports from the fraternal groups on campus and the Panhellenic Council and IFC, rush was carried on in a very orderly and correct manner. Miss Fredeva Ogletree, Dean of Women, who worked with rush for the first time this year, seemed very pleased with the rushing procedures and results.

Thirteen girls were pledged by Alpha Xi Delta. Jean Hooks, president, listed the following girls as being their new pledges: Brenda Houston, Albany; Roz Sprayberry, Griffin; Sybil Freeman, Boston; Rachel Laslie, Attapulugus; Sharon Boatwright, Valdosta; Norm Lee Brown, Camilla; Pat Spooner, Donaldsonville; Andrea Hickman, Lakeland; Martha Hicks, Cordele; and, Carol Knight, Albany.

Patricia Luke, president of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, reported the following girls were received during fall rush: Lizzie Helms, Valdosta; Beth McCree, Valdosta; Gretchen Schroer, Valdosta; Martha McElroy, Quitman; Dawn Groover, Thomasville; Wilda Britt, Ashburn; Snooky Rigdon, Tifton; Jean Nolan, Ocilla; Barbara Whitley, Ocilla; Rosa Waring, Madison, Florida; Patricia Loeb, Valdosta; Charlotte Durden, Albany; Clinton Blackledge, Homerville; and Faith Polk, Bainbridge.

New pledges of Gamma Mu Chapter of Kappa Delta, as reported by Sandra Massey, president, are as follows: Gail Brown, Griffin; Suzanna Brown, Valdosta; Susan Branch, Valdosta; Lila McClenny, Valdosta; Sue Nelle Girardin, Valdosta; Kaye Park, Columbus; Linda Hudson, Lyons; Mimi Collier, Macon; Judy Parker, Woodbine; Bootsie Hartley, Tifton, Marianne Baxter, Moultrie; Lyn Lewis, Griffin; and Punkey Ellington, Marietta.

The Zeta Nu chapter of TKE is returning to the campus with a full strength of 19 brother and 6 pledges from last year. In addition to this TEKE is very proud to announce the recent pledging of 31 new pledges. The new pledges include Ernie Woodard, Black-shear; Bill Gooch, Valdosta; Jerry Beverly, Moultrie; Brian Stone, Waycross; Jimmy Owens, Valdosta; Bob Wagner, Valdosta; Choo Choo Germano, Waycross; Jimmy Hicks, Cairo; Jerry DeMott, Moultrie; Tommy Hill, Thomasville; Johnny McCarty, Attapulugus; Roger Douglas, Valdosta; John Powell, Albany; Mike Rubelin, Albany; Jimmy Culpepper, Albany; Archie Smith, Albany; Gene Goodrum, Thomasville; Gus Gornito, Waycross; George Gray, Jacksonville, Florida; Gary Hertzberg, Bainbridge; Doug Murray, Chili; Bucky Bowles, Moultrie; Buddy Swearington, Valdosta; Butch Kirkland, Valdosta; Bill McKennon, Cuthbert; Jim Harris, Cuthbert; Robert Rish, Valdosta; Pat Tomlinson, Valdosta; James Hall, Adel; Ike Boyette, Valdosta; Lonnie Dinkins, Valdosta. With this new pledge class, the chapter strength now stands at 56.

The fall Pledge Class of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity is composed of 22 men: Danny Poole, Macon; Bill Moorman, Lakeland; Buzz Griffin, Naylor; Randolph Lewis, Salem, Virginia; Bruce Varnado, Valdosta; Jimmy Dewar, Valdosta; Douglas Jones, Valdosta; Sandy Mars, Valdosta; Meade Bernard, Valdosta; Ray Phillips, Valdosta; John Paramore, Valdosta; Charles Davis, Sparks; Kenny Scruggs, Valdosta; Bucky Anderson, Valdosta; Schuyler Blanton, Valdosta; Charles Horrworth, Miami, Fla.; Elton Sharpe, Valdosta; Jack Harrell, Quitman; Jimmy Strange, Quitman; Benny Hassell, Quitman; Lundy Smith, Valdosta; Wayne Wilburn, Valdosta.

beauty, poise, and personality.

The twelve girls chosen as semi-finalists will represent the months of the year. The highlight of the evening will be the crowning of the 1961 Miss VSC Calendar Girl. Miss Diane Higgenbotham, a freshman independent from Valdosta, was chosen as last year's calendar girl. The four runners-up were Nancy Raines, Barbara Walker, Mary Carrell Smith, and Ada Faye Fussell. The twelve calendar girls were Diane Higgenbotham, January; Virginia Lamb, February; Nancy Raines, March; Mary Carrell Smith, April; Penny Williams, May; Jean Phillips, June, Jean Hooks, July; Mary Dickey, August; Barbara Walker, September; Toni Steele, October; Barbara Ann George, Novem-

Fins and Flippers

The Finns and Flippers Club added approximately twenty new members after they passed a rigorous swimming ordeal. These new members were invited to join this swimming club. A meeting was presided over by Hal Worley recently during which all new members were acquainted with the events in which the aquatic club participated. The two most important discussed were the trip to Florida State University in Tallahassee for the Dolphins annual water show and the traditional water show presented by the Finns and Flippers each year. Members for this year are: Hal Worley, Willy Hunt, Martha Sue Bragg, Vonnie Williams, Robin New, Louise Wight, Melony Gray, Betty DeVane, Ginger Anderson, Sarah Greene, Linda Hudson, Kity Royals, Brenda Houston, Bootsie Hartley, Judy Parker, Pat Cochran, Joan Hunter, Sandra Phillips, Joy Collier, Betty Merriet, Lila McClenny and John Powell.

Where there's Lizzy, there's bound to be Ray! It's just natural, that's all.

Lizzy is always seen wearing a big grin and giving a knowing wink to all she meets. What could be better than this? Why, two big grins and winks. Yep, you could have guessed it, there's Ray close behind, following suit.

Both were active in High School Activities. Ray, a graduate of Lowndes County High, was editor of the year book.

Lizzy was captain of the Cheerleaders and President of the Student Council at VHS, and she was an active participant of many organizations.

Even though they are members of the still lowly Freshman class, both are making big names for themselves here at VSC. But then, what else could you expect from such nice people, our kind of folks.

Is Boxing

petitive athletics offer. Floyd Patterson, the current heavyweight champion of the world was a product of a golden gloves program and many of the professional fighters of today received their training either in a college or in a golden gloves program.

Boxing at VSC can and would be a success if a program was launched. The reasons for this are: interest was shown last spring when the Letterman's club promoted a bout and John Baxley, a former fighter would be more than delighted to coach a varsity boxing team, or in fact, to fight an occasional bout himself. Having fought for eight years in the Navy this writer is of the opinion that Mr. Baxley would be extremely well-qualified.

There is more than enough talent on our campus to provide the nucleus for a team. Through a concerted effort funds could be obtained via this program to provide athletic grants to qualified athletes; letters could be granted to participants; VSC would receive excellent publicity, and a boxing program would give sports at VSC an additional boost.

This can be a reality only if you the male students at State are interested. John Baxley is ready to begin a conditioning program now, but the impetus for the program must come from you.

All persons interested in a boxing program please contact either John Baxley or Emory Mobley.

UPPERCLASSMEN STOMP FROSH

In a "Hard" fought football game on Monday, October 10 the freshmen 11 led by Jerry Beverly and line backs connected with the stonewall formed by the upperclass line.

Outstanding players for the upperclassmen were Joe Dixon, John "Scar" McIntyre, Hansel Faulkner and Jan Rogers.

Both teams played their hearts out but the upperclassmen played as a unit, only with more experience. The Freshmen 11 will come through later during the season and become one of the most feared teams on the gridion.

Women's Athletic Association

The Women's Athletic Association wishes to take this opportunity to invite each and every college woman interested in sports to join us in our weekly meetings every Wednesday afternoon at 4:15.

Now that you have been invited to come maybe you would like to know a little bit about the WAA. It is strictly an athletic association designed for girls who wish to participate in sports. A diversity of sports are included on our agenda, among these are: volleyball, softball, tennis, badminton, table tennis and others, these depending upon your choice.

Individual and team tournaments will be held and points given to the winners and to participants. Usually there are four teams; the women who are independents making up one team and the women from the three sororities making up the other three teams. At the close of the school year a plaque will be given to the team and individual who has earned the most points.

We hope this year will be the biggest and best year the Sports Club has ever had. We urge each and every college woman to participate. Come on out girls, it's a lot of fun and a good way to keep physically fit.

IFC Meets With Rushees

On Monday, October 3, the I.F.C. Smoker was held in the gym of Valdosta State College. The purpose of the I.F.C. Smoker was to introduce the fraternity way of life to the men who are interested in joining a fraternity.

There were displays of information set up by the three National Fraternities on campus which are Tau Kappa Epsilon, Pi Kappa Phi, and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

At the Smoker, George Bennett, who is the 1960-61 president, spoke to the rushees about Greek silence, reasons for having Greek silence, and the rules of rushing.

The rush rules are as follows: a rushee must attend all three fraternity rush parties given Tue., Wed., and Thurs. nights to be able to get a bid. Bennett said he was glad to see such a number of rushees out at the Smoker.

There were approximately 109 rushees at the Smoker. We all know that the rushees had a "blast" this week, and that it will never be forgotten.

Letterman's Club Elects Officers

The Letterman's Club held a meeting Oct. 6 during which they set up the rules for the 1960-61 year. One very important rule stressed was no wearing of high school letters on campus. College letters were permissible.

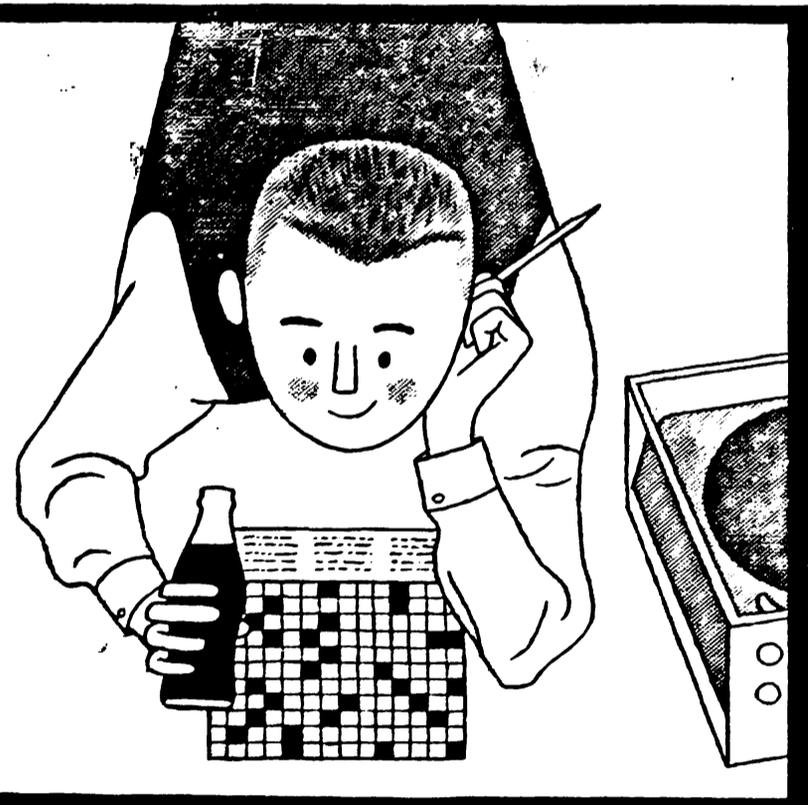

New officers elected were Emory Mobley, president; Charles Greene, vice-president; Gerald Delaney, secretary - treasurer. The members discussed fund raising projects which will further interest in sports at V. S. C. A few of these events were intramural boxing matches and films of the world series baseball games.

The award system for letterman members is a letter, first year; a jacket, second year; a gold ball, third year; and a V. S. C. blanket, fourth year. These awards will be presented in golf, tennis, baseball, and basketball.
