By Kay Powell

Miss Jesslyn Garbutt, a sophomore from Lyons, Ga., is Miss VSC of 1962-63; first runner-up is Miss Barbara Walker, Valdosta. Other winners are Martine Andrievau, France; Jeannie Hoyle, Valdosta and Sandra Speer, Dawson. The judges of the contest chose Jesslyn on the basis of her beauty, poise and talent.

The pretty Alpha Delta Pi's talent was an original drama entitled "The Alcoholic and the Crisis".

The stage decorations carried out the theme of State Fair. Mrs. Dorothy Carter, mistress of ceremonies, presided from a state fair ticket booth. Tommy Newsom served as pageant chairman. In charge of lights, sound, properties and entertainment were Ronnie Knoll, Hoyt Crosby, G. H. Akin, Jerry Dickson and Gene Greneker.

"The Balladiers Two", of Adel, Ga., Jan Meeks, Paddy Davis, of Lowndes County High School and Linda Walker, Phyllis Giles and Dean Nichols of Valdosta High School provided entertainment.

REW Speaker

SRC Selects Tech Leader To Speak At REW Services

A Georgia Tech church leader has been named as speaker for the annual Religious Emphasis Week scheduled for January 21-25.

E. Warren Woolf, director of the Baptist Student Union at Tech since 1950 was selected by the Student Religious Council, REW sponsors, according to an announcement by council president Louis Sheffield. Woolf, a Baptist Layman, previously served as BSU director at the University of Oklahoma.

Sheffield also said that James Walker, Wesley Foundation president, will serve as general chairman of the week's activities. Each of the five SRC member organizations will take part in the activities.

A lieutenant commander in the active Naval Reserve, Woolf is a graduate of Georgia Tech. He received his masters degree in psychology at Emory University. He has also attended Snead Junior College, Auburn University, and the University of Oklahoma.

Woolf is married and is the father of one daughter and two sons.

His interests include golf, hi-fi, and woodworking.

Other Religious Emphasis Week details will be announced next month, Sheffield said.

Graduate School Exams Scheduled Jan. 19

Graduate school exams will be held from 9 to 11:30, Jan. 19. These exams are considered in conjunction with averages by most graduate schools for those who plan to do graduate work. Therefore, although anyone is eligible to take these exams, it is better to wait until the senior year to take the tests.

The exams are similar to College Board Entrance Exams. The tests consist of two parts: verbal and mathematics. The verbal part is concerned with the ability to read paragraphs and answer questions and the math part is concerned with math through college algebra.

There is also an afternoon exam concerned with the student's major field. Seniors should take both these exams.

Anyone wishing to take these exams should see Mrs. W. M. Thomas, VSC registration, for an application. Students wishing to apply for a fellowship should take the tests as early as possible in their senior year, because most grants are made around January.

The Christmas Story

1: And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2: (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3: And all went to be taxed, everyone into his own city.

4: And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David:)

5: To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6: And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7: And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8: And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9: And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them; and they were so afraid.

10: And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people.

11: For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, which is Christ the Lord.

12: And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger.

13: And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

14: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

DeVane, Powell Picked Class Sweethearts

By Beverly Ingram

In recent elections, the senior class has selected Miss Ann Powell as their sweetheart and Miss Betty DeVane as chosen as junior class sweetheart.

Ann Powell, the senior class' choice, is vice-president of the senior class. A native of Valdosta, Ann is in Alpha Delta Pi sorority and is on Panhellenic Council. She is a member of the Wesley Foundation and is on the Campus Canopy staff.

As a math major and physics minor, Ann asks "Who has time for hobbies?" But she does like swimming and is currently helping with the typing for the magazine that the Wesley Foundation is publishing.

Betty DeVane, the junior class sweetheart, is also from Valdosta. She is vice-president of the junior class and is in Kappa Delta sorority. Betty is majoring in biology. For two years, she was on the staff of the Campus

Canopy as sports editor, and she is a member of Fins and Flippers.

Betty says her hobbies include playing the piano, sewing, and all types of outdoor sports, but her favorite pastime seems to be a senior named Carey Hatcher.

Ann and Betty were presented at the Holly Hop along with Gayle Bazemore, freshman sweetheart and Sunny Gornto, sophomore sweetheart.

Bell Selected As New Regent

Dr. John Bell of Dublin will join the State Board of Regents Jan. 1 and replace Chairman Robert O. Arnold of Covington. The appointment was by Gov. Ernest Vandiver.

Dr. Bell will become the only physician on a board which has under its supervision the Medical College of Georgia at Augusta.

Arnold, 74, a wealthy Covington industrialist, has been Vandiver made the appointment after conferring with Gov. Ernest Carl Sanders.

Bell, 52, has been on an honor-

Program Notes College's 50th Anniversary Year

In keeping with the celebration of the 50th anniversary of VSC, the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia will hold their monthly meeting at the college on Jan. 8 and 9.

The regents and other university system officials will take part in the convocation to be held on Wednesday, Jan. 9, in the VSC gymnasium. This convocation will be held in recognition of the 50th anniversary of the college.

In addition to the 15 regents, members of the chancellor's office will be present. Chancellor Harmon Caldwell, vice-chancellor Walter Martin, executive secretary L. R. Siebert, treasurer J. A. Blissit, Director of Guidance and Testing John Hills, Assistant director Harry Downs and secretary to the chancellor Miss Carroll MacMahon will be among those attending the meeting.

The Board of Regents is the policy-making body of Georgia's state-supported colleges and universities.

This Small Car Isn't Compact

(ACP) -- A Michigan State University student was recently arrested on a charge of reckless driving during a pep rally on campus.

Officials said the student was driving a Volkswagen that had 16 people in or on it.

We Want Your Views

This newspaper not only welcomes but desires letters to the editor. Since The Campus Canopy is the college's student publication, VSC students should take all opportunities to make their views known.

Another avenue of expression is open to you. We have made this offer previously and we are making it again. Space has been allotted for a column entitled "Open Opinion". This is open for any student to write an editorial about a subject of his own choosing. Only two students this year have taken advantage of this opportunity.

Letters to the editor and contributions to "Open Opinion" should be of reasonable length and in good taste. "Open Opinion" editorials should be 350 words or less. Letters should be shorter. All letter contributions to "Open Opinion" must be signed. Two unsigned letters are printed in this issue of the Canopy. They were printed because we had failed to make clear our policy. In the future only signed letters will be printed in the Canopy.

To appear in the next issue of this paper they must be received by the editor by the Tuesday following the last issue of the paper. They may be given to the editor, mailed to the Campus Canopy, or left in the Canopy office.

Congratulations, B. J.

Betty Jo Greene will spend part of her Christmas vacation in the same place she spent her Thanksgiving holidays. She will return to Jacksonville, Fla., to participate in the annual Gator Bowl activities. When she made her earlier try as a contestant for Gator Bowl queen, Betty Jo was named as fifth runner-up, an honor that earned her a position in the Queen's Court.

The high rating given Betty Jo by the judges in Jacksonville came as no surprise to us--B. J. has always been a favorite of ours. From the moment she first appeared on the campus everyone knew she was here. Such a bubbling personality and pretty smile attracts the attention of everyone around. All we can say is that the young lady chosen as queen of the festival must be a beautiful thing to rate above B. J.

Congratulations, Betty Jo. Have an enjoyable vacation in Jacksonville.

A Good Show

The recent production of the "Miss VSC Contest" by Pi Kappa Phi fraternity was a credit to the college and its producers. A well-planned program, built around an interesting theme, proved pleasing to those in attendance.

As always the girls were pretty--this year was quite a beautiful array.

More VSC organizations should plan such productions. We need more such entertaining events.

As We Go

Come Dec. 14 VSC students will be hitting the old trail homeward for Christmas vacation. Eager as we will be to get home, one thing must be remembered: not to become terrors of the highway - human road runners. Our families will wait for us.

A blessing to travel in Georgia is the new Highway 75. But it can be a curse if misused, for with the convenience of it comes temptation: a lead foot. With the loss of common sense comes highway danger. What can be said about the other highways of Georgia, except: be careful.

A major cause of highway accidents is mechanical failure. Don't take the safety of your car for granted. Have it checked before leaving.

We will be getting out of classes in plenty of time to get home in a sensible, sane way. So drive carefully and have a merry Christmas, and I'll see you in 1963.

... And More."

On the next page is a letter written by the brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity in reply to a Campus Canopy editorial which objected to their public use of an objectional cheer.

The letter states that the fraternity was unjustly and irresponsibly discredited, that the fraternity as a whole was falsely accused, and that the chant contains no profane reference to God's name. It also calls for the Canopy to print a retraction on the charges made.

First, we will admit that the editorial in the Nov. 30 Canopy could have been written in a less offensive manner. However, we cannot retract the charges because they are true. We do not deny that the cheer - as it is written - contains no greatly offensive words.

The Sig Eps have admitted that members of SPE, as members of the fraternity, and in a group containing only members of the fraternity have substituted the word "God" for words which were supposed to be used. Their contention is that these words are used by individuals and are not the responsibility of the fraternity as a whole. We realize that most of the brothers are not guilty of the charge; yet, the fraternity is responsible for the actions of its members when they are in a group as Sig Eps.

Cheers are good; they add to fellowship and spirit. But fellows can't you find one less offensive? While the cheer is not offensive to many people, it is offensive to many others. The SPE's should respect the feelings of these.

The Christmas season is upon us. It is a time to lay aside petty feuds and differences of opinion. Let's let friendship and love abide; let peace reign.

Some have asked who writes the unsigned editorials that are customarily placed in the lefthand column of this page. Most newspapers carry unsigned editorials in a similar position. An examination of such papers as The Atlanta Constitution, Florida Times-Union, and Christian Science Monitor will bear this out. In these papers, as well as in The Campus Canopy, these editorials are the responsibility of the editor. His name may be found on the masthead on this page.

Potpourri

Well, Newsom has been rebutted. It is right there on page three in the Canopy's edition, the infallibility of the press, you know. Actually, the head and its accompanying cause us mirth.

The writer of the letter apparently fails that Faulkner's writing is based on an intimate knowledge of the Southern scene, but that the local attitudes of the people involved represent a universality of spirit which may be found anywhere in this troubled world.

The writer makes a second mistake by generalizing to the point of intimating that Faulkner's words and books were alcoholically induced. That, sir, is over simplification of the complex genius of metaphor and myth.

And apparently the writer does not grasp the complexity of integrity. Faulkner and other writers have worked in anguished isolation to pinpoint truth.

The Nobel Prize-winning author spoke solemnly at Stockholm of his "sweat and agony" in the human spirit. Is truth a simple concrete quality, or does it exist in the abstract, in shades and hues?

Was not Faulkner's work with the spirit of man a work of truth?

Permit us one example more. The Pulitzer Prize-winning writer James Agee wrote to Father Time in 1936: "I care mainly about just two things: getting as near truth and whole truth as is humanly possible, which means several sorts of truth, maybe, but on the whole means spiritual life, integrity and growth; and, two, setting that near-truth out in the cleanest possible terms."

VIRGINIA ANDERSON

Which Party Will You Attend?

The beautiful room was filled with laughter and loud boasting as the many guests sat around the long table laden with rich food. It was a time of merriment; for hadn't the lord of the estate's wife had her first son that morning? The entertainment was the best the lord could afford. Why his son would someday rule the entire estate. Such an important event necessitated a big celebration.

On the other side of town, in a crude little stable, another birth had taken place. A son had been born to a carpenter and his wife. No one in town knew of this birth and probably would have thought nothing of it if they had known. But some shepherds on the hillside knew of the birth and came to worship the child. Three Wise Men from the East came to see and worship the newborn babe.

Perhaps both of these groups passed the large estate celebrating the rich man's son. But neither group tarried at this place, for they had their eyes on the star that led to the manger bed. The group in the stable was small and made little noise, but they realized the importance of this babe. They weren't worshipping the future lord of an estate; they were worshipping the Lord of the World.

When the guests left the lord's mansion, they were quiet and tired from the exhausting celebration. When the shepherds and wise men on the birthplace of the Lord Jesus Christ, they praised his name and glorified God. It was all in the difference of entertainment. One kind had been exhaustive and had taken away enthusiasm; the other had been filling and had left the takers with a new strength and love. So it is with our lives. We have a choice to decide which party we will attend; the one that gives us life or the one that only wears us out. Which do you choose?

Letters To The Editor

Sig Eps Refute Article

Editor:
We of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity realize that criticism is unavoidable by any organization, social or otherwise. In many instances criticism may be constructive. Therefore, we do not make a practice of protesting every criticism that comes our way. However, when our fraternity is unjustly and irresponsibly discredited publicly, as was done in the last edition of The Campus Canopy, we must protest.

An article in the above mentioned edition falsely accused our fraternity as a whole, with execrable reflection on the character of its entire membership, of disgracing our school and dishonoring God by using His name profanely in one of its

The Canopy staff had been responsible (and it should be), it would have learned this cheer, as yelled by our fraternity, contains no profanity to God's name. The cheer is as follows: "Hot hot amighty, who the hell we are: Film, flam, by the way, we're the S. P. E.'s."

We agree with the Canopy's statement that each organization on campus has a responsibility to uphold the dignity of our school. Consequently, we feel that the Canopy staff, in order to do its part in this endeavor as an organization, must refrain from further irresponsibly false accusations and must print a full retraction of those made against our fraternity.

The Brothers of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity.

"gentleman" or a "lady" could do would be approach these persons with their complaints and give them a chance to improve their actions to uphold "the dignity of VSC".

Our school is growing by leaps and bounds with every quarter. We as individuals in order to meet this growth must expand our ideas so that our open-mindedness can comprehend the changing times. An education does not consist merely of learning facts in a textbook, but it consists of the ability to learn to live with, respect, and accept all kinds of people. Was this not one of the fundamental factors on which our country was based?

Since religious principles seem to be involved in this matter, there are other religious teachings which should be considered. We realize that the Lord's name is not to be taken in vain, but do you feel that the Sig Eps actually have resentment or evil in their hearts when they are saying their chant? We are not condoning or condemning the chant, for we are mere humans. If any person feels that he has never had an evil thought or done an evil deed, let him condone or condemn them. As far as we know there has only been one perfect soul to ever walk the face of this earth. Even He did not correct a wrong in such an obscure and such an ungentleman-like way. God probably frowns on the profanity in the chant, but I am sure that he frowns even more on the righteous indignation of hypocrites.

If our purpose is to band all people who have used profanity, then there will be no one left on the campus of VSC. If our desired goal is a clean-up campaign concerning profanity, the procedure should be as follows: (1) censor our selfs, (2) censor all textbooks, and last but not least (3) censor our mores.

Those on VSC campus that are offended by this chant should take our advice and head for the hills to become "hermits", because during life they will be exposed to far more uncouth situations. Therefore, we feel that the present situation is very "Mickey-mouse" and unimportant.

From page 52 of the V Book, I quote: "... The SPE's have developed, strengthened, and maintained high moral principles which are essential for the individual as a member of society". And: "The building of individual maturity is the major aim of the select group known as Sig Eps".
With no malice intended I ask the Sig Eps: "Does your practice of publicly rendering your fraternal cheer in the presence of ladies develop or strengthen or maintain high moral principles? Does this fraternal function build individual maturity?"

These questions demand answers. If the fraternities of this campus avoid the inevitable answers, the student body will not. I urge the Sig Eps to correct this situation which degrades their admirable goals and brings shame to their potentially praise-worthy organization.

Why couldn't the student body look forward to a Thursday night Serenade by the SPE's when favorite songs are sung in melodious harmony, instead of the objectionable chants that now exist? Sig Eps, the opportunity is yours to create a tradition worthy of VSC.

Editor:
I would like to comment on your recent discriminatory writing concerning Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity. I thought that the slanderous article was very partisan and in bad taste. There are many much more objectionable situations on campus that you could have selected if you are attempting to launch a "clean up" campaign.

Your article tended to magnify the severity of the situation out of its proper dimensions so that many students have the wrong idea and have made unjust assumptions.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity has contributed a great deal to the over-all campus life at VSC. Your audacity is appalling in suggesting that the fraternity charter be suspended. I'm sure that you are not aware of the seriousness of such a recommendation.

The CAMPUS CANOPY is a fine newspaper, but I hope that it will always strive to maintain the interests of the college community as a whole.

An article entitled "Shame on the Sig Eps", which appeared in the Nov. 30 publication of your periodical, most assuredly demands a rebuke. The author of this harshly condemnatory article launched a vicious attack against the local chapter of Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity, using as a basis for his attack a cheer which he maintained to be ungentlemanly, profane, objectionable, and harmful to the good name of the school. In closing, the author recommended that, if the Sig Eps continued to use such "profanity" in public, the college administration suspend their charter "until they indicate a willingness to be gentlemen".

This attack was canting, ridiculous and unjustifiable. In actuality, the "evil" yell around which the anti-Sig Ep attack was

Andrus Column Assailed

Dear Mr. Andrus,

I would like to take this opportunity to commend you for your most astute appraisal of the obvious. Under normal circumstances I would not be inclined to reply to your article, but events on the national level have caused me to seriously consider your article. I feel a deep compassion for poor old "Josh", but I am not worried about his fate. I trust that you will convey your observations to the NAACP, no doubt they will be relieved to know that their program is successful, and you might also inform the administration. This would possibly be of value on two counts; first the federal government would endeavor to secure a job for "Josh", secondly there would in all probability be occasion to send thousands of troops to the south land, which would boost the economy, and allow the service men to see some of their country. These of course are somewhat trivial in light of your momentous discovery, and I want to urge you do do something about the situation as soon as you can. It has been said that each of us has a cross to bear, I hope that you will bear this cross. It is always heartwarming to see a fellow American seek to advance the embracing qualities of democracy, in the face of private enterprise and ownership. It is most despicable that Americans still cling to that antiquated idea that ownership implies control over what is theirs. I trust that you will see that this idea is removed from the American scene, and replaced by ideas that will allow all peoples to be employed whether the owner wants them or not. Until this is effected you may inform "Josh" that by removing himself to Russia he will experience no discrimination as he does here in America. Of course you may wish to bring their ideas here, and they will aid you in every way.
E. F. Shortt.

centered is a harmless, euphemistic version of a stronger yell, and contains no more odious phrases than "hot toddy", "hot almighty", and "by damn". Is the recitation of such phrases so heinous a crime as to warrant their omission, or to justify the suspension of the SPE charter if they are not omitted? Of course not.

Obviously, the primary purpose of the author of this ludicrous piece of censure was not to preserve the morality of our alma mater by suppressing public profanity, but rather to sling mud on the local chapter of SPE. No matter how hollow the basis for mud-slinging might be. In short, the author's groundless censure of the Sig Eps (who are on social probation) affords an excellent example of kicking a man while he is down. This sort of thing must be highly amusing to a sadist, but can hardly be classified as gentlemanly. And does not the author place a high value on gentlemanly traits?

Canopy Coverage Of "The Tender Trap" Hit By Rudy

Editor:

This is a note of thanks from the cast and crew of "The Tender Trap". Your review of the play was complete, concise, objective and to the point. We felt your effective use of the pause, the epigrammatic use of implied superlatives, and your finesse and subtlety in using a quiet style of complimentary phrasing was superb.

While the cast and crew spent a long six weeks and several weekends on this production, all of us felt it was worth-while when we read your last issue. We did hope your layout people would put this fine review on page one, but at least you didn't put it on page two next to the "Tombstone". We think your placement between "Cartoon Books Can be Bought" and "A Big Blank Space" by Emily Leonard was the best you could do under the circumstances. Isn't it wonderful what the press can do with off-set typing?

Your whole approach was unique and way above and beyond the conventional. Thanks again. Your use of silence was pure journalistic eloquence. We are still breaking up over your new twist to George M. Cohen's famous line, "Don't care what they say about me, as long as they spell my name right". That bit of parody was pure Madison Avenue--or even better.

John H. Rudy
Speech and Drama

(Editor's Note: The Nov. 16 issue of the Canopy commented on the Nov. 15 production of "The Tender Trap". It was a feeble effort as a review, but we will try to do better next time.)

The author also expressed his great concern about the good name of our school. Do not the narrow-mindedness, shallowness of thought, and personal animosity reflected in the anti-Sig Ep article clearly provide more solid grounds for the world's censure of Valdosta State College than does the chanting of any sort of fraternity cheer? Perhaps the author should introspect a little, and try to remove the cross tie from his own eye before attempting to remove the fly-specks from the eyes of the Sig Eps and others.

I'd like to say a word or two concerning the article that you wrote entitled "Shame on the Sig Eps" which appeared in the Nov. 30 issue of CAMPUS CANOPY.

Congratulations to the staff of The Campus Canopy for its stand. When any group on campus starts using the Lord's name in vain, it's time for something to be said. It makes no difference if the exact words were actually used or not. The implication is clear. The aim of the organizations on our campus should be to help strengthen the character of its members, not degrade it. When will we learn that profanity with curse words is not one of the measures of a man.

Is VSC slowly becoming a totalitarian state? Has "Big Brother" become such a friend that we are now being deprived of freedom of expression in our speech and in our social organizations? Was the purpose of the article concerning the Sig Eps to uphold the profanity or was it the beginning of means to revoke their charter?

When a "gentleman" sees a wrong, it is his duty to go to the person or to the persons who are committing that wrong, instead of exposing these persons to the entire student body. The least a

That Greasy Profit Stuff

(ACP) -- William Cole, 19-year-old junior at Emory University, Atlanta, says he expects to become a good doctor. But in the meantime he is willing to give the business world a whirl.

Cole and a friend from the same hometown, Miami Beach, Fla., put together a hair tonic consisting of methycellous, artificial scent and water. They called it, to take advantage of a competing product's TV ads, Greasy Kid Stuff.

They bottled and labelled enough to be in business, and they are conferring with a magazine to see if the company will buy an interest in the product.

The University's newspaper, THE EMORY WHEEL, notes that Cole's inventiveness did not begin with the hair tonic. Last year he designed ties which he sold to department stores in Atlanta and Miami.

Nine Myths About Your Health Habits

1. Middle Age Begins at Age 40.

It doesn't. It begins at about the age of 26. Performance begins to fall off after this age. (physical performance)

2. Hardening of the Arteries is a Natural Part of Getting Old.

It isn't. It can occur at any age. It is often a result of an inactive way of life. The heart is a muscle that improves with use, and its ability to pump blood depends on what chance you give it to work. The best way to keep the blood vessels fit is through regular, rhythmic exercise.

3. As you Grow Older, You Should Exercise Less.

Just the reverse is true. A soft, flabby heart will tire more easily than a strong one; it is less efficient and more susceptible to disease, just as an unfit person is likely to be. A conditioning program in which you exercise just beyond the first onset of fatigue, is best.

4. Rest or Sleep is Always the Best Remedy for Fatigue.

It isn't. Your physical condition affects emotions too.

If you exercise properly your endocrine glands are affected by the stimulated blood circulation and the glands in turn affect your emotions.

5. Diet Alone is the Best way to Lose Weight.

It isn't. You lose weight by dieting, but you also lose fitness. To keep your energy and your sense of well-being you will do best with a regular exercise program plus a moderate restriction of fattening food.

6. Alcohol in Moderate Quantity is a Good Food.

It isn't. It has a high caloric or fattening content, but it has some of such vital nutritive elements as vitamins, amino acids, minerals or traces of the elements of various substances of value.

7. It's Best to Take it Very Easy When You Have a Cold.

It usually isn't. Moderate exercise will improve your circulation and that is one of the important keys to general fitness and elimination of colds.

8. Youngsters Aren't Equipped for Sustained Endurance.

Yes, they are. Their hearts don't have to pump through as many miles of pipes as does the adult heart. Their hearts are like powerful motors in small cars. When they keep fit their physical endurance is tremendous.

9. I Know a Short Cut to Fitness.

No, you don't. There is no short cut for anyone. The secret lies in faithfulness to a continuing program of exercise and activity, sound nutritional habits, a proper combination of rest, sleep and relaxation and adequate health care. (Adapted from Yankee News, Sept. - Oct, 1961).

John Spooner Speaks At Student Assembly

"The Russian people are a friendly people, and they don't want war", stated John I. Spooner, member of the Board of Regents of the University System of Georgia and board chairman of agriculture. Mr. Spooner was guest speaker at assembly on Wednesday, Dec. 5.

Mr. Spooner is from Donalsonville and is a graduate of the University of Georgia. He holds a degree in agriculture.

He was among a group who took a 21 day trip to the Soviet Union last spring. During the stay in the Soviet Union the group was allowed complete freedom with one stipulation: they were not allowed to take pictures inside Lenin's tomb or the airport.

Spooner judges the Soviets to be 20 or 30 years behind the U. S. in agriculture. Despite the rich soil, the growing season is short, there is little rainfall, there is a lack of both technical knowledge and of incentive.

However, Spooner said, the Soviets rank far above the U. S. in the moral standards of the people and in the unlimited education program.

Spooner showed some of the 700 slides which he took while in Russia. Among these were Krushchev's home, the Greek Orthodox church inside the Kremlin, and a Russian department store. Pictures of various landmarks in Moscow were shown also.

The people are supplied with the necessities of life but they do not know luxury. According to Spooner, the Soviet people are friendly but somewhat expressionless; they do not seem happy nor do they appear unhappy.

Georgian Will Be Named National Peach Queen

Some Georgia peach (human variety) will be the nation's Peach (horticultural variety) Queen for 1963.

This title, a natural for a girl from a state with pride in both varieties, will come to Georgia because a Georgia peach grower, H. G. Riggins of Woodbury, early this year was elected president of the National Peach Council. By tradition of the coast-to-coast organization, the president has the privilege of furnishing the National Peach Queen for the following year.

The national queen from Georgia will be selected at the council's annual convention in Atlanta on Feb. 19, 1963.

Prizes for the girl judged first place in the contest include a $50 trophy and a wardrobe valued at not less than $500. Runners-up will receive savings bonds.

To be eligible a girl must have reached her 18th birthday by Jan. 1, 1963, and must not be more than 25 years old by the same date. She must have never been married.

Judgings will be based on beauty, 20 points; posture, 10; poise, 20; personality, 30; and personal interview, 20.

All county and home demonstration agents have copies of rules and regulations and more information about the contest. Riggins said. Entry forms must be in the hands of the national contest chairman not later than Jan. 15, 1963.

OPEN OPINION

Write For A Fish

"Write for a Fish"

By Cleon Phillips Jr.

A very wise porpoise lay reading a current newspaper that accidentally fell into his pool. He flipped through the pages slowly and then thought for awhile as this was the way of the porpoise; to think and ponder very carefully about everything he reads.

It is best, thought the porpoise, that we never learn to write, at least not until we intellectually excell the humans; and above all, until we can discover ideas that are important enough to write down.

Perhaps, thought the very wise porpoise, humans train their young as they train us to perform at their command for a bit of fish as a reward. I must remember this while I am teaching the younger porpoise; I'll not teach the young to think as I do, but let them enjoy the rewards of discovering new ideas for themselves.

Somehow, I must show them that it is far wiser to really have something important to say than to scrawl empty stereotype phrases on blank pages. Why, it would be no time at all before those industrious, little status seekers would be after me to help them organize a "Porpoise Canopy".

The printed words began to fade slowly into the blue-green water as the porpoise watched with unbelieving eyes. What is the meaning of this treachery? He thought, what on ocean could this mean!

For many weeks he thought about this strange incident until one day another newspaper was thrown into the pool. The anxious porpoise hurriedly read every word over and over until they faded into the water. . . finally he grasped the meaning of the trivial, soggy phrases.

Why, it was so simple, he thought, as he looked at the blank pages. The printed words were only to fill the space and attract attention. This must be the human method of teaching their young, he thought with elated spirit. The young humans sit and look at the blank pages for long periods of time--thinking new ideas then choosing only the most original and worthwhile. And before the young humans can be influenced by the meaningless articles, the words fade from the pages leaving them the opportunity to look into their own inner thoughts.

What an ingenious method of eliminating written nonsense thought the porpoise. . . those clever, clever humans!

As well as boys, men as well as women, swear to God almost every other breath. True--this is wrong but we all are guilty of it so if we're going to point a finger at someone, shouldn't we point it at everyone? I say that no one fraternity is any more guilty than the other fraternities or the whole student body as far as that goes. Don't you agree?

"I have no talent. I have no dress. I cannot be a contestant", one of the two said, but her dimples betrayed her and she went on to be a standout in the show.

Would that there were more people of such dedication when the hour is late.

Two of the tests were the same for everyone but for the third test, there was a choice between an algebra test or a quantitative reasoning test.

The examination results will determine the students' eligibility for appointment under the Civil Service Commission's training programs. Larry Andrus, president of the Math-Science Club, says that most of the students are interested in the vacation work-study program which provides work during the months of summer vacation.

REV. RILEY MIDDLETON
New Wesley Director

Riley Middleton Named As New Wesley Director

The Rev. Riley K. Middleton has been named the new director of the VSC Wesley Foundation.

Middleton, who is replacing Rabon Stephens, will also be the minister for the Remerton Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Middleton, a native of Columbus, Ga., attended Young Harris and LaGrange colleges. He attended seminary at Candler Seminary at Emory University in Atlanta.

During his senior year of college he helped organize a new Methodist Church in LaGrange and was for some time its pastor.

Before his appointment in Valdosta Middleton was for two and one-half years pastor of the Fairview Methodist Church in Thomasville, Ga.

As far as using such words as God in the "hot toddy" cheer I'm afraid you're wrong. I suggest that you listen more closely next time.

While we're criticizing each other I'd like to know if you, Mr. Editor, noticed the language used in the article directly below "Shame on the Sig Eps"? How many so called profane words were in this article. Maybe someone should write an article for the CAMPUS CANOPY entitled, "Shame on the Language Used in the Campus Canopy".

Since the author of the article "Shame on the Sig Eps" didn't see the need to sign his name, I don't see any reason for signing my name.

Alpha Chi Inducts 25 VSC Honor Students

Valdosta State College inducted 25 students into Alpha Chi Honor scholarship society in ceremonies Monday night, Nov. 26. The rites were conducted in the Ashley Hall Rotunda on the college campus.

Alpha Chi membership is the highest scholastic award available to VSC students and is limited to juniors and seniors who rank in the top ten percent of their classes.

Admitted to the society are senior members were Alice Peterson of Valdosta; Hilda C. Alderman, Jennings, Florida; Ronald Faircloth, Pelham; Charlotte Hortman, Doerun; Larry Lewis, Cordele; Frances Rigsby, Tifton; Peggy H. Taylor, Thomasville; Earl Wade, Bainbridge; and Wesley Whitfield, Whigham.

Students who became junior members were Sharon B. Lancaster, Patricia Loeb, Jimmy McKinney, Joyce R. Mathis, and Geneva Parker, all of Valdosta; Selina Wisenbaker, Lake Park; Julia Schroer, Ray City; Barbara B. DeVane, Jennings, Florida; Nancy P. Bass, Quitman; Patricia Creed, Nashville; Sandra Lee, Nicholls; Ramona McGlaun, Cataula; Judy Youngblood, Sylvester; and Carole Tucker and Angelyn Webb, both of Waycross; and Jane Johnson, Lumpkin.

Four persons were promoted from junior to senior membership. These were Patricia Herrington, Donalsonville, John Milner Jr., Quitman; and Harvey Roddenberry Jr.; and Noel Wisenbaker, both of Valdosta.

Grady Etheredge of Newton and Rena B. Hamby of Moultrie were admitted to graduate membership.

The ceremony was under the direction of Maurice Lindauer, assistant professor of chemistry at Valdosta State College and Alpha Chi sponsor.

"The Guardian"
Presented By Wesley Group

The Wesley Foundation of VSC presented the play, "The Guardian", at the First Methodist Church on Dec. 9.

This play portrayed the Christmas story from Joseph's point of view and covered from the time that Mary returned from her cousin's until Christmas night. The parents of both Mary and Joseph were included in the play, unlike most versions of the Christmas story. The characters are portrayed more humanly in "The Guardian" than they are usually shown.

Originally the Wesley Foundation had planned to present the play at several churches, but they were unable to do so this late in the quarter.

STARGAZING

with "Frank Lynn" Scharf

We decided on audience participation—so here goes—comments from Valdosta State College male students on their type music: Our first interview was none other than the old "Southern Hillbilly", Johnny Shoemaker from Blakely. Johnny is a Marty Robbins and Johnny Horton fan. He likes El Paso and Don't Worry Bout Me. Olin Thompson also from Blakely likes to hear Marty Robbins too. Freddy Vonier is still and always will be a Sil Austin fan—his favorite record, Danny Boy and The End by Earl Grant. Wayne Buie of Bainbridge remains an avid fan of Ray Charles, having added to his collection all but 10 records by this prominent recording star. The "fox" seems to be leading a pack of Reade Hall hounds who also enjoy the Charles sound, including Johnny Register from Adel, who likes It Should Have Been Me. Johnny also likes Elvis. Also from Adel, Earl Joiner likes Johnny Tillotson's I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry. From North Campus, Gerald Campbell of Decatur informs us he's still a full fledged Johnny Mathis fan. Roger Kelly of Moultrie likes to hear Johnny Mathis sing, but his favorite record is Stranger On The Shore, a "golden record". Kermit Hunnicutt from Moultrie, still enjoys Haji Bab by Nat King Cole.

Of course we couldn't get to everyone, but these are a few opinions from those who were nearby when I went rambling. Next quarter we hope to get the girls. Till next time, Merry Christmas from yours truly and WVLD, fun radio.

Methodist Club Publishes New Magazine FOCUS

The first issue of Focus, the new Wesley Foundation magazine, was published on Wednesday, Dec. 12.

The purpose of this magazine is to bring an awareness of the vitality that can be acquired through religion, but not necessarily through any one church or creed. The magazine seeks to attack the problems of the day, not condemning but bringing understanding.

Focus will be published monthly and sent to Methodist students at VSC, to other Wesley Foundations, and to Methodist ministers. Others may receive the magazine on request.

The magazine is open to all types of literature, and anyone who wishes may contribute. It is not restricted to just Methodist students.

Is There A Santa Claus?

(Adapted from an Editorial published in 1897)

Virginia, your little friends are wrong. They have been affected by the skepticism of a skeptical age. They do not believe except they see. They think that nothing can be which is not comprehensible by their little minds. All minds, Virginia, whether they be men's or children's, are little. In this great universe of ours man is a mere insect, an ant, in his intellect, as compared with the boundless world about him, as measured by the intelligence capable of grasping the whole of truth and knowledge. . .

Not believe in Santa Claus? You might as well not believe in fairies. . .

No Santa Claus! Thank God, he lives and he lives forever. A thousand years from now, Linda, nay, ten times ten thousands years from now, he will continue to make glad the heart of childhood.

Library Makes Survey Of Use By Students

The VSC Library is conducting a survey to find out which major department uses its facilities most. The immediate purpose is to determine the apportionment of book funds to each department. The apportionment is presently decided by a formula based on enrollment in the various departments and on the use made by each department.

The library staff is working in conjunction with a sub-committee of the library committee on this survey. The survey is being made by keeping statistics on books checked out and by circulating a questionnaire at various times to the students in the library. The questionnaire includes these questions: "During any part of his hour, are you using library materials?" "What subjects are you studying?" and "Circle your classification".

The students are asked to participate in the survey as it will affect the objective apportionment of the book budget to each department.

Society

By Roz Sprayberry

FLASH! A new dance is rapidly sweeping the VSC campus. The name of this remarkable dance---the "Finkleheimer". The "Finkleheimer", which was introduced to this campus by the social dance class was very popular at the Holly Hop. Who knows, maybe this will eventually take over the position now held by the "Twist". Have you ever heard of two couples going to the Drive-In, and the boys sit outside on the car while the girls sit inside? Unbelievable as it may sound, this actually happened. What inspired Walt and David to do this? How about it, girls?

Studying at the S and K seems to be quite popular among some students. I wonder just how much studying is accomplished?

Couples seen around campus lately are: Thomas Kretlow and Betty Wilkerson, Bonnie Logue and Roger Kelley, Linda Barker and Lonnie George, H. B. Edwards and Jesslyn Garbutt, Peggy Elliot and John Gale and Vonnie Williams and Lewis Stokes.

With the end of this quarter rapidly approaching, many students find themselves faced with the last minute problems of writing term papers, reading books for reports and preparing psychology experiments. Why are these things left until the last minute? If anyone can answer that question, I know several people who would be interested.

Congratulations to Jesslyn Garbutt who now reigns as Miss VSC for 1962-63.

Merry Christmas to all and a very Happy New Year!

Groups Present Carol Program

The Glee Club and Serenaders presented a Christmas Carol program at Pound Hall on Dec. 9.

Featured as soloists were Joe Allen, tenor, Jane Meeks, soprano and Ed Donaldson, tenor.

The source of the music for the program was vocal literature of the 16th century through the 19th century. Selections from "The Messiah" highlighted the program.

"The Gift of Heaven", a chorale written by director Lavan Robinson, was a special feature on the program.

The audience participated in the program by joining in the singing of some of the traditional Christmas carols.

A Lefty's Problem

Schools Discriminate Against Southpaws

Colleges continue to discriminate against the southpaw. This is despite the fact that the onus is off left-handed writing in grade schools, meaning an increasing percentage of southpaws getting to college.

THE STUDENT MOVEMENT, Emanuel Missionary College at Andrews University, Berrien Springs, Mich., estimates the "lefty" makes up 10 percent of the world population, compared to just three percent 25 years ago.

Reporters interviewed some pretty-unhappy southpaws on the campus. Here are some comments:

"It wouldn't hurt to have three or four chairs made for lefties and placed in classrooms. And how about left-handed pencil sharpeners and scissors?"

"I didn't run into any difficulties until I hit this campus. I wore my watch on my right arm, little realizing that only engaged girls do so, until some campus students clued me in".

"I can't knit. The instructions are for right-handers. By switching left for right, I went through overs, unders, and pearls with a lack of progress than even astonished me".

"I sometimes drink out of my neighbor's glass on my left".

A reporter found one complainer who had turned his "handicap" into an advantage: He was seen at a table in the library taking notes which his left hand and at the same time holding hands with his girl, who was writing a report with her right.

Pine Cone editor John McCarty has announced that the yearbook will not sponsor the annual "Miss Pine Cone" beauty selection.

CAMPUS CUT-UPS

If professors think some of their students are a little off-balance, perhaps they should know whose example students may be following. For instance, have you seen any students recently wearing only half of their glasses--the half that covers the left eye? One faculty member did. And another faculty member went to lunch one day decked out in an Indian war bonnet.

One faculty member was wondering what kind of minds his pupils have because when he wears a hat "which is a sensible head covering to me" his students all laugh. The professor neglected to say that the hat is a golf hat.

A boy asked the Dean of Women if girls could stay out as late as it took to return from the FSU game. The Dean replied they could if everyone drove safely. "Drive safely, and leave the faculty behind", quipped the boy.

Beside a picture of "teacher" drawn on a blackboard were these words of explanation--"Not Dr. Raulerson or Mr. J. They smile".

Oglethorpe Tourney Play Is Next For Rebel Squad

By Thomas Kretlow

December 17 the Valdosta State College Rebels will participate in the Oglethorpe Tournament. Several excellent teams will play in the tournament and the Rebels will have their work cut out for them.

The VSC team will play tough Georgetown, Kentucky in the first round. "Georgetown will definitely have a height advantage", stated VSC Coach Gary Colson. The Kentucky team has three 6-8 performers on the starting five. They also have two small college all Americans on the team, a 6' guard and a 6-8 center.

Georgetown reached the finals of the small college national playoffs two years ago and played in the national playoffs last year. So it is evident that the Rebels will have to give their best performance of the year to be a contender for the tournament crown.

Other teams in the tournament are Newberry, South Carolina and Oglethorpe. Nothing needs to be said of the Oglethorpe team. Garland Pinholster's Rebels have gained national recognition during the past few years.

This tournament will probably furnish the Rebels with the strongest competition they will have all season, excluding Florida State University, of course.

Rebels Topple Fla. Military By 86-53 Score

Valdosta State College's Ram-paging Rebels toppled Florida Military College Friday night by a 86-53 score. The Rebels swished the nets from the floor at a 57.3% clip and connected on 14 of 19 free throw attempts for a 73.7 percent average.

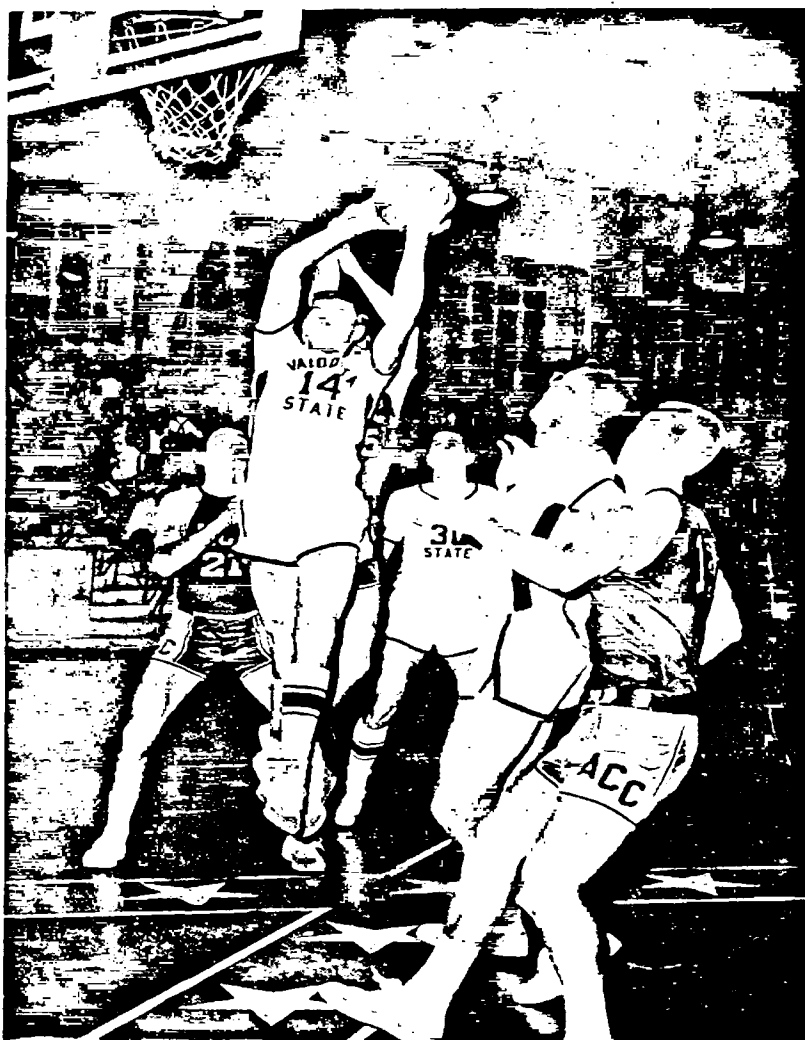

The Rebels grabbed the lead 6-4 early in the game and were never again seriously challenged. By intermission the score had increased to 39-27.

The Rebels really went on a rampage in the second half, increasing the lead to 33 points (86-53).

Coach Gary Colson's charges were paced by Chuck Bonovitch, Wally Summers, Preston Hodges, Mike Perry and Ray McCully; all scoring in double figures. High point men for the Rebels were Bonovitch and Summers, both having 22 points. Bonovitch had 12 rebounds and Summers and Preston Hodges each had 8.

High point men for Florida Military were Harvin Carter with 26 points and Tom Bresnahan with 11.

Others aiding the Rebel cause were Herman Hudson, Bill Brinson, Austin DeLoach, Angie Devivo, Tom Johnson, Bobby Ritch, Bo Spence and Bill Summerford.

Reaching high to get the ball for the Rebels is Preston Hodges. VSC players looking on are No. 30 Wally Summers and Chuck Bonovitch (with glasses).

Florida State Takes Easy Win Over VSC

Florida State University's highly regarded Seminoles defeated a fighting VSC Rebel team 65-42. FSU led all the way, but the Rebels never gave up.

The win was the second straight for coach Bud Kennedy's young Seminoles. The loss gave VSC a 3-3 record.

Coach Gary Colson said, "We lost, but the boys battled all the way. In some respects it was our best game of the season".

FSU hit on 25-48 field goal tries for an amazing 52.1 average.

The VSC student body is to be congratulated for the spirit displayed at our first home game against Alabama Christian College. The student side would not hold the students that attended the game.

This attendance and spirit shown at games gives the Rebels an extra boost in playing a strong team. Any team will play a better game if they know they have the support of the students. The best way that we can let the Rebels know we are behind them is to make some noise at the games.

But we as VSC students and spectators want to set an example to other colleges that we can be proud of. We want to have the reputation of being a school that displays good sportsmanship. I believe that we have this reputation, but we must stop one thing. Drum rolls and the scrubbing of wash boards should be ceased while the opposing team is shooting foul shots. This noise making adds to the school spirit, but it should be used at the proper time. Coach Gary Colson agrees that unnecessary noise should cease while the Rebels' opponents are shooting charity tosses.

Let's back the Rebels in every way possible, but let's make sure we retain the respect of other colleges. If we do this, we can expect the same treatment when the Rebels play away from home.

Rebels Split Pair In Florida Tournament

Valdosta State College's Rebels took third place in the Citrus Tournament held at Lakeland, Florida by toppling Rollins by an impressive 109-70 score. The title went to Mercer of Macon who defeated Florida Southern 95-65 in the championship game.

In the first round of the tournament MacMullis, a 6-5 senior, led Tom Greene's tall Florida Southern team to a 92-64 victory over the Rebels. Mullis was impossible to stop scoring 34 points. Mike Perry with 20 points, Wally Summers with 12, and Bill Summerford with 10 points led the VSC attack.

VSC was unable to compete with the Mocs in backboard strength. The Mocs also cashed in on 21 of 25 charity tosses to add to the Rebels' troubles.

The Rebels hit at a torrid pace from both the floor and the charity line to improve their season record to 3-2.

The Rebels made good on 44 of 74 field goals for a 59 percent average and 17-21 for a 80 percent average from the free throw line.

Four VSC players scored in double figures. Mike Perry scored 28 and earned a position on the all-star team. This was the second straight tournament in which he received this honor. Wally Summers scored 19 points.

The remarkable thing about college reunions, etc., is that your old buddies have got so fat and bald they hardly recognize you.

Chuck Bonovitch threw in 18, and Preston Hodges played an outstanding game contributing 17 points to the VSC effort.

Other Rebels playing were Ray McCully with 7 points, Angie Devivo with 5, Bill Summerford with 3, Herman Hudson with 4, Bobby Ritch with 4, Bo Spence with 4 and Bobby Speck.

Intramural Basketball To Begin

A meeting will be held Jan. 7, to discuss the winter intramural basketball season according to an announcement by intramural director William Grant.

The meeting will take place in the VSC gymnasium at 10:15 the Monday following Christmas holidays.

All organizations interested in sponsoring an intramural basketball team must have a representation at the meeting. Teams, schedules and rules will be discussed.

Coach Grant stated that this year's intramural basketball season should be a good one if the same spirit is shown on the hardwood as was displayed on the gridiron. "This season of intramural football was the best that I've seen since I've been at VSC", commented Grant.

All organizations are looking for another good year of basketball action.

Johnny McIntyre stretches in vain. Johnny and his Sig Ep teammates went on to beat Town 18-0 to win the intramural title.

Sig Eps Down Town For Intramural Title

Sig Eps won the intramural playoff championship in flag football by defeating Town 18-0. The entire game was played in a steady rain. All points were scored in the first half.

Sig Ep and Town reached the playoff finals by beating MCA and North Campus by 14-7 and 12-6 scores.

In the championship game, Sig Ep's defense and offense was overpowering. Town was unable to make a single first down in the first half and never penetrated Sig Ep's 35 yard line during the game. Sig Ep was never forced to punt.

Sig Ep scored their first touchdown in the first quarter on a 30 yard pass from Jack Deavors to Roger Douglas. The intramural champs scored again in the second quarter on a 50 yard pass from Jack Deavors to Johnny McIntyre. Sig Eps scored their final six pointer on a half back pass from Johnny McIntyre to Rusty Deavors. All tries for extra points failed.
