Foreword

Hearken, O, ye inhabitants of this earth!
Will World Friendship e'er exist?
The fool replies, "It cannot be."
The wise man answers, "Persevere!"
The student of G. S. W. C. rejoins:
"It sends its very roots into our campus soil;
It sips its sustenance from our slogan
"Character First"—
That far-sighted founders first instilled
In the original plan of the college;
That a wary faculty e'er enkindles
In the curriculum and ideals;
That we, the students, incorporate
In our activities and organizations."
The PINE CONE Staff of '29 concludes:
"Since Character is the fundamental Characteristic of World Friendship;
Since "Character First" is the slogan
Of the Georgia State Woman's College;
Then all the purposes of our Alma Mater
Are centered in World Friendship;
Hence let us draw our theme—
"World Friendship through Character"
For this, the fifth volume of our annual—
The PINE CONE."

Dedication

*To thee, Spirit of World Friendship,
Coveted by the hearts of this age,
We dedicate this volume of the PINE CONE
As an expression of our hope—
That there might be good-will among nations;
That color, race, and breed might join hands
on this earth;
That war, with its horror and bloodshed,
might lose its stronghold;
That World Friendship might be for this and future generations!*

The College

*Love-inspiring Alma Mater!
Thou lendest Beauty to Character,
With thy stately pines,
The pride of Georgia;
With thy graceful palms,
The gift of a warmer clime;
With thy fragrant roses,
The redolence of each day;
With thy beauteous buildings
Resplendent—with red-tiled roofs,
And with flower-embowered arches,
And with the many-eyed dome
That captures the moonbeams by night
That ensnares the sun-rays by day—
In line and handsome simplicity,
Replicas of a Spanish mission.
Thou givest Beauty to be the hand-maiden
Of World Friendship!*

Administration

*Ye wise of the wise!
Who molds these upright characters?*

*The Faculty, vigilant and learned,
Molds these upright characters;
Inspires a search for Truth—*

*By living example,
By wise counsel,
By high ideals and standards,
By words of encouragement;*

*Thus keeps aflame the slogan
"Character First"—that fundamental
Of World Friendship.*

The President's Greeting

Five years ago the PINE CONE started its career as an experiment. The first issue was an admirable success. Succeeding issues have added to the honors gained by the first. The PINE CONE has become a part of our College life. Like all student activities it reflects the plane of thinking, the plane of action, the plane of living of the students of the College. As President of the College, I am proud to have the student life of the College so honorably represented. There is every reason to believe that the 1929 edition of the PINE CONE will be a worthy companion of its predecessors. My best wishes are with the staff.

R. H. POWELL,

President.

Ye Classes

The student-body of G. S. W. C.!

Thou art learning to be:

*Loyal to the slogan of the college,
"Character First"*

*Loyal to the atmosphere of the college,
"Beauty"*

*Loyal to the ideals of the faculty,
"A Search for Truth"*

*Thou art using this mode of expressing
A desire for World Friendship!*

Ye Senior Class

*Thy love has been as a plant
That has its roots embedded in ideals;
That has gained in its growth, the leaves—
Loyalty to self, Courage, and Faith;
That has been nurtured
By the tender care of the faculty;
That has fruited into love of human-kind—
May its seeds of love produce World Friendship!*

CORA BURGHARD
A.B., Liberal Arts
 Macon, Ga.

Entered '26; Argonian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Glee Club; Presidents' Club; International Relations Club; Student Council, '27-'29; Secretary Glee Club, '26-'27; PINE BRANCH Staff, '26-'27; Corresponding Secretary Alumnae Association, '28-'29; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29; President Junior Class, '27-'28, President Senior Class, '28-'29; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '27-'29.

Cora is one of the most talented girls on the campus. The student body recognizes her as "the gift of the gods" to G. S. W. C. She does everything well from dancing the Minuet and writing short stories to drawing intricate designs for the PINE CONE. Truly, she is representative of G. S. W. C.

HELEN RYON
A.B., Liberal Arts
 Hinesville, Ga.

Y. W. C. A.; Secretary-Treasurer Philharmonic Club, '25-'26; Secretary-Treasurer Senior Class, '28-'29; Philharmonic Club; President Philharmonic Club, '27-'28; Glee Club; Chairman Program Committee Philharmonic Club, '26-'27; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29; Vice-President Philharmonic Club, '28-'29.

Helen is now Miss Ivey's and Miss Warren's shadow. At almost any hour of the day or night, one can hear strains of music from the Rotunda, the Dining Hall, the Gym, or even from back campus. At the rate she is going now, Helen is sure to succeed in the musical world.

IVA CHANDLER
A.B., Liberal Arts
Cordele, Ga.

Entered '26; Sororian Literary Society; Student Council, '27-'29; President Sororian Literary Society, '27-'28; International Relations Club; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Home Economics Club, '26-'27; Y. W. C. A.; Presidents' Club; Treasurer Home Economics Club, '26-'27; Secretary Y. W. C. A., '26-'27; President Student Government Association, '28-'29.

As Student Government President, Iva has won all hearts with her sympathy and understanding. She is never too busy to smooth the path of some poor Freshman, or to give words of encouragement to the young Sophomore teachers.

EUNICE CHUTE
A.B., Education
Unadilla, Ga.

Entered '26; Y. W. C. A.; Home Economics Club; Argonian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Inter-Society Debate, '28; President, Y. W. C. A., '28-'29; International Relations Club; Presidents' Club; Student Volunteer, '27-'28; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '27-'28; Student Council, '28-'29; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29.

Since "Chute" entered in '26, she has been one of the busiest people on the campus. She has a record for being the super-salesman of the College as evidenced by her wonderful ability in selling Annuals. She has also done some very effective and constructive work as President of the Y. W. C. A. this year.

EMILY DALTON
A.B., Liberal Arts
Valdosta, Ga.

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Home Economics Club; Valdosta Club; Argonian Literary Society.

Emily has been taking such courses in College that will help her to know the way to a man's heart. With ease, she can plan the simplest menu, and also one that will appeal to those who go on the Junior-Senior picnic. She is one of our unassuming Seniors, but she is also one of our most capable.

DOROTHY DASHER
A.B., Liberal Arts
Guyton, Ga.

Y. W. C. A.; Argonian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Philharmonic Club; Glee Club; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29; Chairman Program Committee Philharmonic Club, '28-'29; Secretary-Treasurer Philharmonic Club, '27-'28.

The Senior Class expects Dorothy to become a concert singer of note. She has contributed much to college life by appearing on the programs of the various clubs, of the music recitals, and by taking a very active part in the performances of the Glee Club.

MARY EVA FAMBROUGH

A.B., Liberal Arts

Boston, Ga.

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Argonian Literary Society; Y. W. C. A.; President Philharmonic Club, '28-'29; Presidents' Club; Philharmonic Club.

Mary Eva possesses no little part of the musical ability of the Senior Class. The music students have recognized her ability, for this year she is President of the Philharmonic Club. It will not be an idle thought to picture Mary Eva, a few years hence, as playing before large and appreciative audiences.

MARGUERITE FORD

A.B., Education

Valdosta, Ga.

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Vice-President Valdosta Club, '27-'28; Argonian Literary Society; President International Relations Club, '28-'29; Presidents' Club; International Relations Club; Valdosta Club; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29; Inter-Society Debate, '29.

Marguerite's extra-curricula and scholastic record speaks for itself. She is one of the most capable girls on the campus, and great things are expected of her in the way of intellectual attainments.

CATHRYN GIDDENS

A.B., Liberal Arts

Arlington, Ga.

Y. W. C. A.; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Argonian Literary Society; Home Economics Club.

Cathryn is one of the many conscientious girls in the class. She is another whose main interests are in home economics, and she has shown much enthusiasm in this work. She is always willing to co-operate in class or college activities.

HELEN HIGHTOWER

A.B., Liberal Arts

Valdosta, Ga.

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Home Economics Club; Argonian Literary Society; Secretary Home Economics Club, '27-'28; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29; Vice-President Home Economics Club, '28-'29.

Helen is now able to speak with authority on the subject of "How to Approach Hard-boiled Business Men and Secure Large Ads." In other words, she is the Advertising Manager of the Annual. Her business ability does not prevent her from being one of the most successful culinary experts in the College. She is successful in all she does.

VIRGINIA HIGHTOWER

A.B., Liberal Arts

Valdosta, Ga.

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Home Economics Club; Argonian Literary Society; Valdosta Club; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29.

Virginia will be remembered as "the girl with the camera," for she spent part of the year in painlessly shooting Seniors, Faculty members, and campus scenes. She is also interested in other extra-curricula activities, such as "closet drama."

ANNETTE ISBELL

A.B., Liberal Arts

Valdosta, Ga.

Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Valdosta Club; Argonian Literary Society; Home Economics Club.

Here is another Senior who is very interested in Home Economics. She will soon be one of the very enthusiastic teachers who is daily instructing the younger generation in the values of vitamins and calories.

MILDRED LARSEN

A.B., Education

Valdosta, Ga.

Argonian Literary Society; Valdosta Club; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; President Valdosta Club, '27-'28; International Relations Club; Student Council, '27-'28; Editor-in-Chief PINE CONE, '28-'29.

Mildred may be remembered as "The girl behind the bars" in the Bookkeeper's Office, but most of all she will be remembered for the active interest she has taken in all College activities—May Day, Field Day, Christmas Festival, and in the Clubs. In recognition of her varied interests and her qualities as a true product of G. S. W. C., the students have chosen her for their May Queen this year.

MARGARET LAWSON

A.B., Education

Valdosta, Ga.

Argonian Literary Society; Chairman Program Committee Home Economics Club, '27-'28; Valdosta Club; Home Economics Club; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; President Home Economics Club, '28-'29; Fine Arts Club; Presidents' Club; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29.

"Capability Plus" is a description of Margaret. Anything she takes a part in is sure to be a success. For example, the Feature Section of this book is a product of her work. She is a hard-working, deserving student, and one who is going to succeed.

CATHERINE LEE

A.B., Education

Dawson, Ga.

Y. W. C. A.; Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Valdosta Club, '25-'26; Treasurer Argonian Literary Society, '27-'28.

Although Catherine is not one of the most conspicuous characters on the campus, she is one of the most likeable. She has not spent much of her time in many activities, for numerous hours of her time are spent in pursuit of the mysteries of Physics, Chemistry, and Biology.

MARY LOUISE MAXWELL

A.B., Education

Calvary, Ga.

Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Argonian Literary Society; Student Recorder of Points, '27-'28; Sock and Buskin Club; Field Day Honors.

In the years to come, Max will be remembered as the girl who won almost all the individual points on Field Day. It is predicted that the students will grieve her absence as an athletic star, and as the attraction that brought a certain blue roadster on the campus.

ROSE MORRISON

A.B., Education

Waycross, Ga.

Entered '28; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Sock and Buskin Club; Argonian Literary Society; Chairman Program Committee Sock and Buskin Club, '28-'29.

Versatility is the keynote of Rose's character. She makes the ideal hero for the Dramatic Club plays; she is equally effective as a basket-ball player, as a globe trotter, and as a linguist. Rose has not been at G. S. W. C. long, but she has quickly made her place in campus life.

LOIS MULLINS

A.B., Liberal Arts

Baconton, Ga.

Entered '28; Y. W. C. A.; Sororian Literary Society; Sock and Buskin Club; Phi Kappa Athletic Association.

Though Lois has been at G. S. W. C. only a short time, every one has been quick to recognize her abilities. Probably Lois' greatest interest lies in dramatic endeavors, as evidenced by the active part she has taken in the Sock and Buskin Club.

LUCILE NIX
A.B., Liberal Arts
Jesup, Ga.

Y. W. C. A.; Argonian Literary Society; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Philharmonic Club, '25-'26; Fine Arts Club; Sock and Buskin Club; Inter-Society Debate, '26; Y. W. C. A. Cabinet, '25-'26, PINE BRANCH Staff, '26-'27; Secretary Phi Kappa Athletic Association, '26-'27; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29.

If there is any question up for debate, Lucile will be sure to sponsor one side or the other. She has shown her ability in this as an Inter-Society Debater. Lucile has also been an active member in a great many of the campus clubs. Though she sometimes sighs for "the University," Lucile has been a loyal G. S. W. C. girl.

ILA SPOONER
A.B., Liberal Arts
Donalsonville, Ga.

Entered '27; Sock and Buskin Club; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Secretary-Treasurer Student Government Association, '28-'29; PINE BRANCH Staff, '27-'28; Vice-President Senior Class, '28-'29; Argonian Literary Society; PINE CONE Staff, '28-'29.

As a pursuer of the elusive ad, Ila shows her ability. She, too, has spent part of this year in expounding the benefits derived from putting a large ad in the Annual. She ought to make a good spokesman for some worthy cause, for she can furnish very good arguments for the interests she favors.

MARY STEWART

A.B., Education

Dixie, Ga.

Sororian Literary Society; Phi Lambda Athletic Association; Chairman Program Committee Home Economics Club, '25-'26; Valdosta Club, Home Economics Club; President Home Economics Club, '27-'28.

Because of her active interests in home economics, Mary has been Chairman of the State Home Economics Clubs this year. After completing her courses here, Mary probably will be going over the state organizing clubs in the various schools, or be the Home Economics teacher in one of them.

BESSIE YOUNG

A.B., Education

Valdosta, Ga.

Entered '26; Glee Club; Phi Kappa Athletic Association; Argonian Literary Society; Valdosta Club; Chairman Program Committee Argonian Literary Society, '27-'28; PINE BRANCH Staff, '27-'28; PINE COXE Staff, '28-'29.

One student has been quoted as saying, "Is there anything Bessie can not do?" It is true that Bessie can dance, sing, play, write stories, and even produce all the literary work in the Annual. In other words, she can do anything she wishes.

Ye Organizations

Thou hast those building stones of Character—

Loyalty to Self;

Loyalty to Truth;

Courage, and Faith;

Beauty, and Love.

Without thee, these stones buildeth naught,

They are as stumbling blocks;

With the hand of thee, the master-carpenter,

They are as units

Of Character's foundation.

Alumnae Association

The Alumnae Association is one of the most worthwhile organizations on the campus. All the students who receive either the diploma or degree are eligible for membership. The purpose of this organization is to keep former students of the college in touch with each other and with the activities of their Alma Mater. All Alumnae are urged to be present at the Thanksgiving Dinner, a home coming event, the Valentine Party, and are extended a cordial invitation to the annual Alumnae Banquet held during Commencement Week at one of Valdosta's leading hotels.

Pine Cone

MILDRED LARSEN
Editor-in-Chief

The PINE CONE is the year book published by the Senior Class of G. S. W. C. This title is derived from the tall, stately pine trees, native to South Georgia, that are on either side of the campus. The PINE CONE is a composite expression of all the student activities—physical, mental, spiritual. The main purpose of the PINE CONE Staff is to produce an Annual that every student would be proud to possess because it is reminiscent of life on the campus of G. S. W. C. and a reflection of the inspiring and friendly atmosphere that pervades the college campus.

Pine Cone

Every year the PINE CONE is entered in the inter-collegiate year book contests. For three successive years the PINE CONE has received First Honor rating. As the cone is the fruit of the pine tree, so the PINE CONE is the fruitage of G. S. W. C.; every year the Staff strives to make this fruit, the PINE CONE, better than that of the previous year.

At graduation time, the Y. W. C. Pine Branch

LOUISE FORBES
Editor-in-Chief

The PINE BRANCH is the monthly magazine of G. S. W. C.; this publication is edited by the students on the campus and is published under the direction of a staff, composed of students selected by the two Literary Societies. Its chief aim is to serve as an expression of the literary phase of college life, and to give an outlet for the accomplishments of the students in the literary courses. One of the main purposes of the PINE BRANCH is the publication of news of general interest to students, accounts of social activities and organizations and of the work of the Alumnae.

Pine Branch

The PINE BRANCH has a wide distribution among the students and especially in South Georgia. The number of subscriptions is increased yearly and always surpasses the two thousand mark. The annual drive for subscriptions among the student body by the Literary Societies, the Argonian and the Sororian, creates much rivalry and excitement during the fall semester. The winning Society has its name engraved on the silver loving cup. The PINE BRANCH is probably the voice of the college best known by the outside world.

Argonian Literary Society

MARGARET BULLOCK
President

The Argonian Literary Society holds aloft the motto: "Give to the world the best you have and the best will come back to you," and proudly displays her colors—purple and lavender; and invites all students who will graduate from G. S. W. C. in an odd year to join the society, to lend their talents, to share its motto, and to wear its colors.

- EUNICE SEAGRAVES Vice-President
ROSELLE HATCHER Secretary
MARY STOKES Treasurer

Argonian Literary Society

The Argonian Literary Society maintains the purpose of attaining high standards in literary art—both humorous and aesthetic—through the presentation of readings, talks, essays, debates, plays, and illustrated lectures.

"Building for character, not fame" is the motto adopted by the Sororian Literary Society. Its colors are brown and gold. The Sororian Literary Society derives its membership from the classes of even years. In its general purpose, the attainment of high standards in literary art, the society is similar to the Argonian Society.

MARY ALEXANDER Vice-President

CAROLINE PARRISH Secretary-Treasurer

Sororian Literary Society

Most of the meetings for the year have been joint-meetings, both societies contributing talent. Interesting studies have been made of: modern music, literature, dance, art, and drama of France, England, Russia, Germany, and America.

I'm a Phi Kappa bred,
And when I die I'll be a Phi Kappa dead.
So it's Rah, Rah, Kappa,
Kappa, Rah, Rah, Kappa,
Kappa, Rah, Rah, Rah."*

That is the spirit of the Phi Kappa Athletic Association; they sing it and they mean it. The purpose of the association is to promote an effort for physical efficiency; to stimulate an interest in athletics and games; to foster high ideals and a spirit of good sportsmanship; to co-operate with the other campus organizations in promoting and maintaining the highest standards of the college. All students are eligible for membership in one of the associations; the bids are given in the fall at a joint athletic association party. Keen but friendly rivalry exists between the Phi Kappa Athletic Association and the Phi Lambda Athletic Association; both associations strive for the Plaque awarded to the winning association for the year.

This is the spirit voiced by the Phi Lambda Athletic Association in competition with its rival association, the Phi Kappa, in volley ball and soccer games; in tennis and basket-ball goal tournaments. Its purpose is similar to that of the Phi Kappa Association and competes with this organization in the Point System, whereby individuals may win athletic numerals, letters, Honor Loving Cups because of points won for every phase of College life: athletic ability and achievement, athletic interest and sportsmanship; participation; leadership and health. The program for the year is composed of both social and competitive events.

Philharmonic Club

MARY EVA FAMBROUGH
President

Among those organizations that add to the musical life of the college, is the Philharmonic Club which endeavors to stimulate interest in the best music, and to bring noteworthy musical attractions to the college. It is to the Philharmonic Club that music-lovers on the campus this year are indebted for the concert of Segi Borowski, Russian baritone, and the informal concert of Foster, the Italian tenor and pupil of Caruso. All the students of the music department are eligible for membership and make the club one of the most popular on the campus.

HELEN RYON Vice-President

OLIVE RYON Secretary-Treasurer

Glee Club

'Tis the G. S. W. C. Glee Club, composed of a limited number of girls who are selected by a competitive test as to excellence of voice and ability to read music at sight, that lends a musical charm to all holiday and festive occasions, such as—Thanksgiving Dinner, Civic banquets, the Christmas Festival; that gives honor to the college by the presentation of their annual concert. Among the features of the social calendar for the year is the party at Twin Lakes Tavern in the fall, and a picnic in the Spring.

Fine Arts Club

MARY KATE BURROWS
President

Closely allied to the Art Department is the Fine Arts Club which was organized for the benefit of those who have artistic ability or are interested in Art; to give these art-lovers the opportunity to study and discuss actual constructive phases of Art. During the year, the club sponsored art exhibits, both portrait and sculpture, and a bazaar in the fall.

MARGARET WARFIELD Vice-President

ELIZABETH BOYD Secretary-Treasurer

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin Club is an organization which concerns itself, as the name implies, with tragedy and comedy in dramatic productions. Its purpose, closely akin to the Little Theatre Movement, is the creation and maintenance of a National Drama; the one-act play is the basis of study; and the club delights the college with numerous productions during the year.

CAROLINE PARRISH

ERMA COWART Secretary-Treasurer

Valdosta Club

MARGUERITE LANGDALE
President

The Valdosta Club was organized by the Students from Valdosta for the purpose of keeping themselves in closer contact with the campus life and college activities, to conserve the strength of the group for the college. The social phase is a large factor; they hold their regular monthly business and social hour in the form of a luncheon at the House-in-the-Woods. In the spring, they entertain the Senior Class of the Valdosta High School with an enjoyable reception; and at least once a year, they entertain the student-body with a "manless dance." The club often entertains its members with hikes to Joe Jones' Pond.

DOROTHY STROUD Secretary-Treasurer

MISS HOPPER Faculty Advisor

Home Economics Club

Although not very old in years, the Home Economics Club, which was organized in 'Twenty-seven, is very wise in its purpose: to stimulate interest in the work of the Home Economics Department of the college; to give valuable information; to combine work and play. Among their social activities are their program meetings. One of the projects of the year was the bazaar held in December.
