DEDICATION

"... If man read little, he need have much cunning to know that he doth nat."

Thus reads the inscription over the door of the Richard Holmes Powell Library of Valdosta State College. To this library we students in our time of doubt turn. To the two women who, as librarians, assist us in our efforts, guide our steps in the right paths, and greatly increase our knowledge of the world about us, we gratefully dedicate the 1956 Pine Cone.

"Y" CABINET

The Young Woman's Christian Association helps to create a religious atmosphere on the college campus. Every girl is given the opportunity to join this organization and many take advantage of it. The "Y" Cabinet furnishes leadership and guidance to help with the girls' daily problems. The traditional services sponsored by the "Y" are:

Big Sister-Little Sister Candle-Lighting Service
 Morning Watch
 Compline
 The Fire-lighting Service
 The Hanging of the Green
 The Week of the Heart Sister

This club is made one of the most active and popular ones on campus by such influence.

SOCK AND BUSKIN CLUB

"TIME OUT—FOR GINGER!" This is the cry that brings out the best in us. The producing of the play is hard work, but we revel in the grease paint, the muffed lines and the many things that go into the production of a play. The applause of an audience is our only reward, but we love the lines on the program beginning: "The Sack and Buskin Club Presents . . ."

THE DANCE CLUB

Ah, to dance is to really live. To dance is to live anew, to express with movement that which cannot be expressed with words. By dance we do not mean just the waltz or rhumba, we mean them all. At the May Festival or our Spring recital, you can see all our talents on display.

The Serenaders, a double mixed quartet, sing music with popular appeal, as well as operatic and more serious selections. Appearing before educational, civic, military, radio and television audiences, they present thirty to forty programs in Georgia and Florida each year. All participants are voice students and each receives academic credit for participation.

SERENADERS

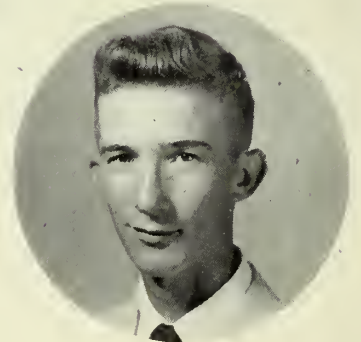

Jesslyn Parker, Emilie Doss, Jeanne Connell, Carol Keene.

Carl Duren, Fred Wilkinson, Wayne Fowler, Charlie Hancock.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club is rapidly going in numbers and strength. We have been exceptionally active this past year. We have presented many concerts in Valdosta and surrounding cities. The highlight and main event this past year was our Spring Tour. We took our tour to many of the major cities of Georgia where we were met with much enthusiastic response. This year has been a year of success and our hopes of more and continued success are very bright.

WOMEN'S RECREATION ASSOCIATION

On our campus, there is always competition between two teams — the Kappas and the Lambdas. It is a friendly rivalry but never let it be said that one team is better than another; they are both tops. These two teams make up the "Rec" club. Our Physical Education Department advises us and supplies the equipment with which we try to bring to the campus pleasure and enjoyment through sports. All this leads to healthful living and helps to make a well rounded college student.
