NCAA serves nation's schools

Progress and growth have become familiar companions for the National Collegiate Athletic Association during its first 73 years as the major governing organization for intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

A call for stricter control of college football by President Theodore Roosevelt because of the violence in the game brought together 13 institutions in 1905, formulating the original communications base for college athletics.

This initial body called itself the Intercollegiate Athletic Association and was officially constituted March 31, 1906. In 1910, the name was changed to the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Seven progressive decades have molded this original 13-member body into a membership today of more than 860 colleges, universities, conferences and affiliated organizations.

Administration and rules interpretation occupied early efforts of the organization. Shortly after World War II, the NCAA adopted legislative and executive powers, changing its function into one dealing with virtually all issues concerned with intercollegiate athletics.

Service first

Many things have become associated with the NCAA during its colorful history. Highest priority goes to the service it provides to more than 860 members, acting as the true "voice" of college athletics today.

Each January the NCAA membership comes together at the annual Convention to review, propose and amend legislation. The Convention presents the opportunity for the nation's institutions of higher learning to speak and act on athletic matters at the national level.

Walter Byers
Executive Director

William J. Flynn
President

James Frank
Secretary-Treasurer

Acting in the best interests of its membership, the NCAA strives to perform these specific functions among its many other responsibilities:

- Conducts 41 annual National Collegiate Championships in 18 sports for three separate divisions. Three championships (Division I, Division II and Division III) are held in baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, swimming, tennis, outdoor track and wrestling. Two championships (Division I and Divisions II-III) are staged in gymnastics, ice hockey and lacrosse. Fencing, skiing, indoor track, volleyball and water polo hold single National Collegiate Championships, while football is contested in Divisions I-AA, II and III. The National Collegiate Championship dates back to 1883 in tennis; and during this 76-year history, more than 85,000 student-athletes have competed in these events, with more than 10,000 earning the coveted title of "National Collegiate Champion."

- Maintains 13 rules committees to formulate, copyright and publish rules of play for the government of collegiate sports. Members of these and many other committees are elected by representatives of member institutions at the annual Convention.

- Publishes "Official Guides" annually for nine sports through the NCAA Publishing Service.

- Collects, compiles and distributes the official statistics of college football, basketball and baseball through its NCAA Statistics Service.

Problem solver

- Conducts studies as a means of developing solutions to athletic programs.

- Represents the membership in legislative and regulatory matters on the state and Federal levels.

- Annually selects the College Athletics Top Ten and the Theodore Roosevelt ("Teddy") Award—the Association's highest honor.

- Administers an honors program which annually awards 80 postgraduate scholarships to recognize outstanding senior student-athletes who have excelled in the classroom as well as athletics. This scholarship was increased from $1,000 to $1,500 in 1975-76. The program has provided $1,144,000 to 1,024 recipients since its inception in the 1964-65 academic year.

- Promotes and participates in international sports planning and competition through membership in the United States Olympic Committee, Amateur Basketball Association of the USA, Track and Field Association of the USA, and the United States Baseball, Gymnastics and Wrestling Federations, as well as through NCAA-sponsored competition with Japan.

- Maintains more than 60 full-time staff members at its national headquarters in Mission, Kansas, under the supervision of Executive Director Walter Byers.

NOTES OF INTEREST TO FANS

LANPHIER PARK

Lanphier Ball Park was built in 1923 and served as a 3-1 minor league ball park for a good many years. The Park was renovated in 1953 and came under the jurisdiction of the Springfield Playground and Recreation Commission.

From that time on, Lanphier Park served as a playing field for teams and leagues from the Springfield area, including the four Springfield high schools and the junior colleges.

Lanphier Ball Park is the home diamond of the Springfield Redbirds of the Triple AAA Baseball Association and Farm Club of the St. Louis Baseball Cardinals. It also was the site of the 1978 Illinois High School Association Class A State Baseball Tournament and has served as the site of many youth program world series, including the Pony, Pony Grad, Colt and Connie Mack baseball championships.

Lanphier Park became the site of the NCAA Division II World Series in 1972. The 1979 Series is the eighth consecutive year for the Tournament in Lanphier Park.

Last year a total of 315 baseball games were scheduled at the Lanphier Park facility. Of that number, 292 games were actually played, while the others were postponed because of bad weather.

Lanphier Park is under the jurisdiction of the Springfield Recreation Department.

SPRINGFIELD BASEBALL WORLD SERIES COMMITTEE

The committee is organized under the General Not For Profit Corporation Act of the state of Illinois. It is dedicated to promoting youth activities and baseball in this area.

In the past four years it has contributed $500 toward completion of the Bill Chamberlain Baseball Park. Each of the four local high schools, Griffin, Springfield, Springfield Southeast and Lanphier have received $1200 in baseball equipment. A contribution of $1500 was made toward the purchase of an infield cover for the Lanphier Baseball Park diamond to be used by the high schools and organized youth teams. Proceeds from the 1976 and 1977 Series were used to construct a ticket office at the park to be used by the schools and youth groups. The cost of this project was $3500.

Proceeds from the College World Series is plowed back into Springfield Baseball has helped keep baseball growing in Springfield.

AWARDS

Team trophies and 25 individual awards are presented to the eight teams which compete in the Division II finals. Cost of the awards is paid by the NCAA National Office.

SQUAD SIZE

Each team is limited to 21 eligible players in uniform to be designated prior to the tournament.

TOURNAMENT FORMAT

First Round Pairings have been established by the NCAA Baseball Committee on a Perpetual, Double Round Robin Basis.

The pairings for Round Four will be adjusted as necessary to avoid teams playing each other a second time. If one team has played each of the other three remaining teams, it will play the team it met in the First Round. If more than one set of pairings is possible after three rounds, the undefeated team shall draw for its opponent.

If three teams remain after the Fourth Round, the winner of game eleven will receive a bye.

LENGTH OF GAMES

All games are scheduled for nine innings. A game may be terminated before nine innings have been played only for the reason of rain or wet grounds.

1978 CHAMPIONSHIP

Heavy hitting was the name of the game in the 1978 National Collegiate Division II Baseball Championship, but when the title was on the line it took a stellar pitching performance to sew it up.

Florida Southern's John Lackey scattered nine hits to shut down Delta State and lead his team to a 7-2 win. Delta State had averaged nearly 10 runs a game and batted .370 as a team for the tournament.

The win was Southern's fourth in the tourney, held May 25-31 at Lanphier Park in Springfield, Illinois. It was the Moccasin's fourth national title.

Catcher Mike Schoeller and right fielder Matt Gaglione were the big hitters for Florida Southern in the title game. Schoeller had three hits, driving in two runs; while Gaglione batted home three runs with a double and a home run.

Third baseman Ricky Perkins had two hits for Delta State, but it wasn't enough. Perkins, voted the tournament's most outstanding player, batted .625 in six games. He collected 15 hits and 12 runs batted in.

It was a high-scoring tournament from start to finish with six teams compiling batting averages of better than .300. Delta State turned in the best pitching performance with an earned run average of 4.67.

In the highest-scoring game, Eastern Illinois defeated Southwest Missouri State, 21-11. The Panthers belted seven home runs to tie a Division II record.

Eastern's Cam Kennedy hit three home runs in the game, equaling a record; and he drove in nine runs to set a standard in that category.

Kennedy, selected as the designated hitter on the all-tournament team, joined Perkins and Schoeller on the honor squad.

Other players selected were Steve Walton (1b) and Brian Butterfield (2b) of Florida Southern; Mike Kinnison (ss), Timbo Baird (lf) and Steve Sandroni (p) of Delta State; and Ken Young (cf), Tom Grant (rf) and Steve Bedrosian (p) of New Haven.

Baseball and Language

Baseball has had a powerful effect on the American language. Everyone realizes this to a degree, but a recent study by the Chicago Cubs vividly demonstrates how much baseball affects the everyday conversation of people who may never have attended a professional game. For instance:

What we liked is called A HIT. The man who fails has STRUCK OUT, or at best DOESN'T GET TO FIRST BASE. A person who is indiscreet is WAY OFF BASE, and may end up being CAUGHT OFF BASE. When we are unprepared, we are sometimes CAUGHT OUT IN LEFT FIELD. Our salesmen make PITCHES. When we understand a situation, we GET THE PITCH. Otherwise, we DON'T CATCH. The opponent in an argument who makes an extreme statement to retrieve a lost point is REALLY REACHING FOR IT. An unfortunate mistake is A REAL BLOOPER. A person who behaves eccentrically is A SCREWBALL — one not to be trusted is A FOUL BALL. When we refuse to be discouraged, it's because WE'LL GET OUR INNINGS.

If you're getting pressure from both sides, you may be the victim of a SQUEEZE PLAY. Until you get going, you're just WARMING UP. After that, you're RIGHT IN THERE, PITCHING. When you cover every contingency, you TOUCH ALL THE BASES. But when you compete outside your class, you're NOT IN THE SAME LEAGUE.

The man who is ready to cooperate is WILLING TO PLAY BALL WITH US. The fellow who operates against big handicaps has TWO STRIKES AGAINST HIM. The one who does something purely for effect is making A GRANDSTAND PLAY. And the one who tries to refuse an invitation gracefully, asks for A RAINCHECK.

When you understand quickly, you get it RIGHT OFF THE BAT. When someone asks an embarrassing question, he has THROWN YOU A CURVE. A brilliant and accurate statement is RIGHT DOWN THE MIDDLE. When success is assured, you're HOME FREE. When you are alert, you are ON THE BALL. When you defend someone, you GO TO BAT FOR HIM. A person who is momentarily responsible has THE BALL, and his associates BACK UP HIS PLAY. And that's TEAMWORK.

Do You Have A License To Manage?

The 1979 puzzler for grandstand managers is designed to instill confidence. If you score 75 percent or better on this one, you won't have to bone up after the season.

1. The pitcher should break toward first base on every ball hit to his left, almost without exception. True or false?
2. A baserunner never should attempt to reach third base with two out if there is any danger of being thrown out. True or false?
3. It is generally poor policy to attempt to hit-and-run against a wild pitcher. True or false?
4. Outfielders should time fly balls instead of getting set under the ball as soon as possible. True or false?
5. A runner on first base should take a long look at the third base coach as he approaches second base on balls hit down the right field line. True or false?
6. A baserunner coming from first base should hold up and not allow the second baseman to tag him on the base line after fielding a ground ball. True or false?
7. With the infield playing in, it is generally better to pitch low to the hitter. True or false?
8. The on-deck hitter should use hand signs to advise the runner coming to the plate whether to slide or cross standing. True or false?

9. The pitcher should cover home plate on wild pitches and passed balls. True or false?
10. The catcher generally should call the plays for the pitcher and infielders on the attempted sacrifice. True or false?
11. It is good policy for the runner on first to tag up on a short fly ball when a runner on third tags up. True or false?
12. All infielders should watch base runners to see that they tag all the bases. True or false?
13. With runners on base, the outfielder with the best arm should make the catch if two outfielders can make the catch. True or false?
14. The second baseman and shortstop cheat a little toward second base and in toward the hitter with the possibility of a double play. True or false?
15. It is not necessary for the pitcher to know that the second baseman will take the throw from the pitcher on a batted ball with a runner on first. True or false?

1. True, 2. True, 3. True, 4. False, 5. True, 6. True, 7. True, 8. True, 9. True, 10. True, 11. True, 12. True, 13. True, 14. True, 15. False.

NCAA COLLEGE WORLD SERIES*

JOHN RAPPS FAMILY

We Congratulate the Winners

It's great to be a member of a championship team, but this is a privilege that is denied to most of us. There can be only one champion.

Victory is sweet . . . but defeat needn't be bitter. If you've given the game all you've got and fought for victory with grim determination . . . if you played every inning the very best you know how . . . if you didn't give up even though the odds seemed overwhelming . . . then even though your team came out on the short end of the score, you are a champion among human beings. You may have lost a ballgame, but you achieved mastery over your own self.

To the losers as well as to the winners of this NCAA College World Series, we say: "Well done!"

More positive control. Curvemaster's patented control cranks offer the best precision and most positive control available.

More lasting quality. Our pitching mechanism is engineered for trouble-free performance. And it's mounted on a strong metal cabinet so you can count on Curvemaster to remain sturdy practice after practice.

More hitting practice. That's because there's virtually no set-up time. Just roll your Curvemaster to the mound and aim only once. No need to aim again when you change the pitch. You can be well into your practice in the time it takes some competitor models to get set up.
