NUMBER 12.

Russian Cathedral Quartet First Artist Series Choice

Will Appear On January 16.

Sent to this country by the Russian Government, the Russian Cathedral Quartet will appear at G. S. W. C. on the evening of January 16. This organization, recognized as one of the most colorful and artistic groups ever to be heard has in addition one of the largest repertoires on record.

Their first tour of this country was with John Barrymore in The Redemption. In 1929, the Russian Cathedral Quartet was put on the air by the National Broadcasting Company, and due to their popularity the four men began personal appearances.

Appearing in native costume, the spirit and emotion of the singers interpret the world of Russian folk and church music.

Nicholas Vasilieff, second tenor of the quartette as well as the famous Siberian Singers. The basso, Michael Bataeff, has the lowest register of any human voice at the present time. Leonid Pavloff, first tenor gained fame as a soloist with the Ukrainian Chor and Nicholas Antonoff, baritone, was soloist of St Alexander Cathedral at St. Petersburg.

Comments from the press attest to the singers talent. One newspaper affirms that, "Each is a gifted soloist—their quartet singing something to hear and enjoy profoundly."

Women of Today Is Theme of Honor Societies Program

As its special project for the Winter Quarter, a program will be presented by the Freshman and Senior Honor Societies at chapel on Wednesday. Hazel Muggridge, president of the Senior Honor Society will preside.

Outstanding Women in World To-Day

Louie Peebles, representing the Freshman Honor Society, will speak on Outstanding Women in the World Today. The personalities about whom she will

Juniors Lead In Scholarship In Fall Quarter

Juniors led in high scholastic rating for the Fall Quarter with three students making all "A's". These students are Rosemary Baker, Ruth Whisonant, and Mildred Wilson. The freshman class had the largest representation of students to make the Dean's List.

In the Junior College a student must achieve an average of 2.3 quality points in order to be placed on the Dean's List. The minimum points required for Senior College Work is 2.6.

Dean's List

Preliminaries Held For Feature Section Thursday

Stanford Will Speak At Vesper On Chino-Jap Scene

Dr. Henry Stanford, Professor of Language at Emory Junior College will be the speaker at Vespers on Sunday evening. He will speak on the Chino-Japanese situation, dealing chiefly with the people themselves rather than the immediate conflict and its causes.

Y president, Elizabeth Garbutt said that the lecture was planned primarily to interest students in the Far Eastern Service Fund. This fund has been carried on since the beginning of the war and is a project of the international YM and YWCAs.

Out of the 114 colleges and universities in China, eighty-two are in the war zone or occupied areas. Fifty four colleges have been partially or completely destroyed.

The aim of the fund is to enable colleges in the danger zones to move to safer places. $50,000 is the goal set for contributions and to date only $750 has been collected.

Of the money which is donated, only two percent is devoted to the relief of Japanese students. This is done because this group is not in the area of destruction.

Miss Garbutt stated that the program is carried on in a pacifist way, and its aim is by no means the perpetuation of the conflict. A donation of as little as five cents will buy three meals for a Chinese person and a dollar will take care of three weeks board.

In illustrating the usefulness of the fund, the Y president quoted Chiang Chi Shek who when asked what Chinese students could do for their country, stated that the most worthwhile thing would be to continue their educations. Miss Garbutt announced that the voluntary contributions will be taken up next week by the class presidents.

Did You Make Any New Year's Resolution Jan. 1?

"I hereby resolve not to make any New Year's Resolutions." Did you write this in your diary January 1, 1939? Maybe you were like Opal Brown and didn't have time to make any resolutions. She came in at 5:00 A. M. New Year's Day. The attraction? The Shawn dancers. But the prize goes to Frances Rogers—she forgot it was a new year.

Irwin Smith has resolved to act "grown-up", and her roommate, "Chubby" Brandon has resolved to add a few inches (upward, not outward.)

Mildred Harris resolved not to fall in love more than once a week.

Georgia Baisden says, "I resolve not to buy anymore ten cent jewelry. In that way, I'll economize, stop "fibbing", and save my friends from trying to discover if I have anything real."

Sixteen Seniors Chosen.

For the feature section of the 1939 Pine Cone, scheduled to appear the latter part of May, sixteen girls were chosen on Thursday, January 12. The girls were chosen on the following qualifications: personality, leadership, ability, scholarship, friendliness and participation.

A committee composed of representatives from the Freshman, Sophomore and Junior Classes selected the girls on the above qualifications. Three girls from each of the named classes, consisting of a town girl, dormitory girl and class president, made up the committee.

Committee Chooses Sixteen

From the sixteen girls, eight will be chosen by the student body. The election day will be announced in the near future by Clara Mae Sasser, editor of the Pine Cone.

The girls chosen by the committee are: Annie Adams, Margaret Abernathy, Margaret Carter, Carolyn Folsom, Elizabeth Garbutt, Mary Winn Greer, Mary Hudson, Eileen Hyland, Rosalind Lane, June Lawson, C. J. Morris, Hazel Muggridge, Dora Ida Perkins, Anna Richter, Clara Mae Sasser and Maudelle Wilson.

Girls Represent College

Each year, the editors of the Pine Cone devote a section to those girls deemed worthy of recognition by the student body. The photographs of the eight selected girls appear in a special section.

The eight seniors are selected because of their participation and interest in activities through their entire four years. "They were chosen to represent G. S. W. C. at its best," said the committee.

ALL STUDENTS —

Remember the standard rings and pins! Anyone opposed to their adoption must vote not later than 6 P. M. Wednesday. The ballot box is at the bulletin board in the Ad Building.

Aline Lanier has resolved to stay on the Dean's List, "now that I've finally gotten on it."

Eliza Peebles resolved to quit "clowning". Believe it or not!!

Ora Kate Wisenbaker's resolution is "Athens or bust."

Clara Mae Sasser said that she didn't make any resolutions, but is keeping one for somebody else.

Leona Strickland is saving pennies to go to California. She keeps them in a pig (bank, of course).

Margaret Abernathy says, "I made so many resolutions, I can't think of a one of them."

Florrie Hines resolves to answer letters more promptly—the object, to get more mail.

Here's hoping there'll be no broken resolutions, and 1940 will find you ready to resolve all over again!

All Students

... are asked to notice the ring and pin on display on the bulletin board in the Administration Building. They are the types ordered by the senior class this year.

The choice of a ring and a pin was made to satisfy those who preferred one type of ensignia above the other. The ring is the same as that which has been used by senior classes for several years.

Vote On Rings

We propose that the ring and pin on display, be adopted by G. S. W. C. as the standard college ensignia. Anyone who objects to this move, will signify such by writing a statement to that effect signing her name, and placing it in the box at the bulletin board, placed there for that purpose.

It is most important that students sign their names to the votes they place in the ballot box. Votes which are not signed cannot be counted as official.

Advantages Outlined

Earlier in the year we have outlined the advantages of adopting a standard ring. They are more easily recognized and through them alumnae will be easily identified. After twenty-six years, it is time that G. S. W. C. got over her growing pains and settled down to making her mark in the world.

We promise you that these are the last words we will write relative to standard rings and pins — unless we congratulate ourselves on a successful campaign. We feel sure you will allow us that. Announcement of the result of the poll will be printed in next week's Canopy.

Dr. Reade

... brought this on himself. We have been requested to say something about the asphalt tennis court. It is said to blight the life of many a tennis fan.

A repair job might not be a bad idea. If it can be managed, we suggest that at least the holes be filled up.

Sunny days in winter quarter are rare, and when they come and the courts are filled, it is neither a pleasure nor a privilege to try your skill on that particular court. It is more a trial of wits.

So now, Mr. President, we have published what we hope will not be the last of student demands for campus improvements. As much as we think of our college most of us are conscious of an occasional fault here and there.

An invasion from Florida left a few startled girls and after the retreat—a letter for Bell.

"Dip" Perkins is living up to her nick-name in the case of "Frankness".

Have you heard? Wilke's "Guy" is back.

Christine Wiggins gets a phone call every night and it isn't phooee — It's just Hule.

Live and learn, Frankle, that thrice late means not a date — for two weeks.

The "Doll—Payne" romance still has quite an ache and from the looks of it, it will stay that way.

What is wrong? Foozy dates Lacy, Leah, and Wier all in the same week-end.

There's another mix-up. This time it's between Norton and Jolly and it might be "Blood-worth-y".

Rufus sent Helen "Page Boy" Duncan a Dopey doll. Reminds him of her on account of she's so different.

Chocolate seems to be quite an important flavor in the life of four upper classmen. Opal pays no attention, however, for she's interested in the career of "Henry Ford".

Bang! What, no one shot?! No, merely a firecracker exploding in Freshman Dorm! !

Huddie needs advice as to whether to write Bill or not. Do something quick, Huddie, you've got the whole campus worried.

Something is wrong with the "Davenport" for a "Frat" pin that was there is no more.

Mildred Wilson was rather popular Monday night for she went to the movies with two boys. It was a mix-up, for she "Wimp-ly" forgot one date and made plans for another.

What certain four girls are already packing for Little Commencement at Georgia? Why the hurry, girls? You still have two more months to wait.

Did the staff gloat over the pitcher of the Blockhouse editor in the Collegian — "We knew him when —"

Clara Mae has a dee-vine one — Larry is the name —

Ruth sees deah ol' Annapolis again and receives her second invitation to June week. Cheer up, old fellow, they say the third time's a charm.

Toledo came south to see the managin ed — and instead of the Sunny South he gets a cold wave — But anyway, he got to go swimming on New Years.

Looks like Helen Quarterman is Fisher-ing around these days And Ernestine Girardin gets his pal Bob Symonette.

Leona saw her "luve" at Christmas and its all smooth nowadays.

Mary Helen Pullen is nominated as the most popular gal at Senior Hall — 3 telephone calls per night! ! Break down and give us a hint how you do it, Mary Helen.

E. is now practicing up on that well-known two-step and getting out her cook book in preparation for a June ceremony.

And Rita Evans says she's Jasper-bound and then oh, for the life in a bouncing trailer!

Sybil Coleman wants to go home just for a minute to make up with the donor of an engagement ring.

And Mary Lib is Clemson-bound for sometime in the future.

Letters To The Editor

Not long ago, Dr. Reade asked us to express ourselves as to whether or not we wanted the library to buy copies of the condensed Bible. I, for one, would like to say that I think its a grand idea. Most all of the students would like to read the Bible in its entirety, but are not able to find time to sit down and do so. This book will help to give us a broader vision of Biblical history at the same time giving us valuable spiritual needs. I think most of the girls feel as I do, so perhaps the college will see fit to honor us by granting this wish.

Here And There

Back to the old grind again, merry makers! In the field of artistic amusements (no snickering now) your correspondent suffers with two decidedly conflicting emotions. Let's get the gripe over with quickly. A certain cinema opus starring two luscious looking males and a fairly personable, tho little known, female takes the cake. The Wright Bros. gave a great thing to American transportation. Why belittle it by surrounding it with a series of such boring scenes that sleep was the only way out? Frankly, I was, for the first time, longing for Mr. MacMurray's death. If they'd only killed him off during the War or even in Morocco and let the whole plot die a natural death, perhaps one could have at least forgotten the thing. But no, he lived on for at least another lethargic hour so that now it rankles as a deep seated, spiteful nuisance in the mind. The entire affair closely resembled the red-tape in a Government office, — pointless! ! !

A play has to glow brightly in a seer's mind to outshine that last harangue. But "Spring Meeting" was thoroughly equal to the task. For acting, plot, staging, technique, and else such dither, that production holds the spotlight here. Gladys Cooper was bewitchingly annoying to the delightfully trying N. E. Mathews but as we all know, "all's well that ends well" — So — well! ! !

By the time we go to press, all will already know that Jack Benny was a bad boy in a glittery way. So forgive me. It's good filler.

Some one should tell Charlie McCarthy he's an angel. He'd probably protest that his face wasn't dirty. But then we all know what that bit of fence post really is even if it does come back with — "But I'm cute, ain't I?"

—By Eileen Hyland.

Things Have Been

... pretty busy in Washington since the opening of the 72 Congress on January 2. Commentators and folk "in the know" are agreed that this session of Congress in going to be a memorable one.

Roosevelt's opening speech was called the most outstanding one of his career. Even anti-Roosevelt papers conceded that the speech was much beter than the ordinary.

Congress was somewhat staggered at the enormous sum demanded of it by Roosevelt in order to complete his plans — Wednesday the House lopped $150,000,000 from the $875,000,000 requested by President Roosevelt, in order to carry the W. P. A. through June 30.

Durling the next week President Roosevelt will confer with Chairman Wheeler (Dem. S. C.) of the Senate Interstate Commerce Committee on the proposed changes in railroad legislation. The Southern states are fighting for lowered freight rates. This question will soon come before the Interstate Commerce Commission. Southern states accuse the ICC of favoritism and anti-Southern prejudices in the matter of freight rates.

Objections to the nomination of Felix Frankfurter, Vienna—born Austrian Jew, now a Harvard professor, to a seat on the Supreme Court bench were heard by a Senate judiciary sub-committee Tuesday.

Frank Murphy, ex-governor of Michigan has recently taken over his duties as Att.-General of the United States succeeding Homer S. Cummings, resigned.

Harry Hopkins' appointment as the new Secretary of Commerce to succeed Roper who recently resigned is now under fire of a Senate approval committee.

Resolutions

... are like the best laid plans of mice and men. But since misery likes company, perhaps the best way to avoid blunders would be to make some resolutions in common.

Lets all at least assume an attentive expression at chapel. It's surprisig how many passed notes and open books can be observed from the stage. Incidentally, our speakers are of such caliber that once your attention is gained you don't have to pretend interest.

Why don't girls who have G. S. W. C. emblems wear them? Student Government never intended them to be tucked away in desk-drawers.

Three times daily — the bulletin board habit. Let's make a practice of reading it and make a conscious effort to keep up with our appointments and meetings. It is unreasonable of any student to expect club presidents and campus officials to remind her of notices that were posted expressly for her convenience.

As a final resolve — let's not talk about these any more — Let's do something.

In An Effort

... to help Canopy reporters improve the style of their writing, and offer a better paper to our readers, arrangements are being made for regular bi-monthly social and business meetings. A meeting of this type, held before the holidays was received enthusiastically by reporters.

That the paper may more nearly meet the demands of its readers, suggestions for the improvement of the paper will be appreciated. Since this is a newspaper for the students, the Canopy staff is always glad to give them what they want, if it is at all possible.

From An Uneasy

... chair. When will people learn that anonymous Letters to the Editor cannot be published in the Canopy? The editors will not reveal the authors name, if so requested, but must know the authors of all copy printed in the paper.

And another Artist Series program is coming up. How proud of ourselves we will be if the audience is attentive and courteous. There is always the fear of squirming and whispering by those who go fully expecting to get nothing from the performance.

We liked what Dr. Punke said at Student Government meeting about biting off more than you can chew. Then you have to chew it or choke.

Our pet gripe — the person or persons who steal the light bulb from the office. How can genius burn if the light doesn't? Please, please leave us our guiding light.

"Women Should Take More Part In Public Affairs" Says Dr. Punke

"Green freshmen" and 'jittery seniors' are terms which might bear similar relationships," said Dr. Harold Punke, at the first meeting of the Student Government Association on Friday evening, January 6.

Quoting Professor Hutchings of the University of Chicago, he said that children should be taught to think. Thus, one of the main roles of a professor should be to help the student develop independence and to assume responsibility.

Following this line of thought, Dr. Punke stated that woman's lack of participation in public affairs is due mainly to her lack of interest in these matters. Voluntary ignorance often leads over into compulsory ignorance. In conclusion, Dr. Punke stated that "although the Freshmen may be green, there is still hope of a ripe harvest by the end of the senior year."

Japanese Articles Barred At Recent Bazaar

In order to express its disapproval of Japan's present oppression of China the Fine Arts Club boycotted all Japanese made goods in its recent bazaar. In former years the club has bought a great many articles from the Japan Company, a Japanese firm dealing with small novelties. This year the club voted to cancel its order with the company and to buy American and European made novelties entirely for the bazaar.

"I believe that worthwhile novelties and articles that are just as easily sold can be purchased from firms other than Japanese ones. The opinion of the student body seems to uphold our position in this matter also," said Carolyn Folsom, president of the Fine Arts Club, when questioned by a Canopy reporter.

Work Begins On New Library

Ground was broken on Saturday, December 31, for the laying of the foundation of the proposed new $72,000 library. The site of the building is north of West Hall and when completed the library will face south.

The building will consist of two stories. Blue-prints show that the library itself, offices, and reading room will be on the first floor. On the second story will be a projection room for movies and assembly rooms.

Plans for completion of the building have not yet been announced.

Harrell Speaks At Chapel Period

Dr. Luther A. Harrell, pastor of the First Methodist Church of Valdosta, spoke to the student body at chapel Wednesday morning on the subject "Fullness of Life". In his address, he stressed the fact that religion is for every day use, and should not be brushed aside during the week and brought out only on Sunday. In order to live life to its fullest, one must have an active religious life.

French Club Will Sponsor Dr. Lucien Wolff

Sandwiches will be sold in the dormitories by the French Club on Monday and Wednesday nights at 10:30. On Tuesdays and Thursdays during assembly period candy will be for sale in the administration building. On February 25th the club is giving a dance.

These plans were made at the regular monthly meeting of the French Club on Monday, January 9.

The club will also sponsor Dr. Lucien Wolff, one of the features of the Artist Series on March 2. Dr. Wolff is an eminent French scholar and well-versed in the problems of French youth.

Annual Well Under Way

Clara Mae Sasser, annual editor announced that all the class pictures for the Pine Cone have been completed and that group pictures for the activities section are under way. Sketches of page arrangements for the greater part of the book have been sent to Foote and Davies, printers, but the dummy has not yet been returned.

"The Pine Cone this year is going to offer the students some entirely new features," Miss Sasser said. "Most startling perhaps, will be the page arrangements. We are also attempting to put more life into the writeups."

Further than this, the editor would reveal nothing preferring to keep the color of the book a secret. She did say however that the staff was enthusiastic about it and that it would fit in well with the preceding books of the series.

Students Hear Famous Symphony

Tuesday night the members of the Philharmonic Club attended a concert given by the Philadelphia Symphony orchestra conducted by Eugene Ormandy in Jacksonville, Florida.

This one hundred piece orchestra is one of the most noted musical organizations of America and Europe. It has been organized for eighteen years.

The orchestra has had 3 conductors prior to the present time. Eugene Ormandy, brilliant young conductor now shares the leadership with Stokowski. Ormandy conducts from memory without any score.

At a meeting of the club held during chapel period on Tuesday a talk was given by Mr. Kraft. Suggestions were offered that helped the members to interpret and enjoy the program.

Painting Exhibit Presented By FAC

Sponsored by the Fine Arts Club, the Aqua Chromatic Exhibition of Water Colors is on display in the library. This exhibit has been listed by the American Federation of Arts as one of the

GSWC Displays Clothing Exhibit

The Home Economics department of this college is displaying an exhibit of clothes for children, sent out by the Bureau of Home Economics, Washington, D. C. through Friday, January 13. The garments have been designed for self-help, comfort, and convenience by the Bureau of Home Economics.

The exhibit stresses especially the clothing needs of infants and pre-school children. Careful study of designs, fabrics, and colors has been used in the selection of clothes being shown and the examples on exhibit are both attractive and suitable for the growing child.

Mothers and other interested persons are invited to see the exhibit.

Seniors Plans Discussed Tuesday

At the meeting, Tuesday of the Senior Class plans to raise money were discussed. Plans were not final, when and where the faculty take-offs and fashion show will be held. Arrangements to sponsor a Glee Club, preferably Emory are being made. Engraved visiting cards can be bought from any member of the class. Why not help and purchase yours from the class?

Plans for the Senior trip have only been vaguely discussed, nothing is definite.

At the last meeting, Clara Mae Sasser conducted a discussion on the feature section of the annual, the class voted Tuesday. The section is to be the same type as the one of last year. Three students from the Freshman, Sophomore, and Junior classes will compose a committee to select 16 seniors from which number 8 will be chosen by the student body for the section.

Dramatic Club To See Barrymore

At a meeting Friday afternoon, members of the Sock and Buskin Club discussed plans for attending the famous play, "White-oaks of Jalna" starring Ethel Barrymore.

It has been sometime since Miss Barrymore has made a trip this far South. Several Southern actors will also take part in the play.

On Saturday, February 11, the members of the club will motor to Atlanta for this famous production. No definite plans have been made as to where they will stay.

Anna Richter, president of the Club says, "It will probably be the Ansley Hotel".

University of Toledo collegians voted 81 per cent against the new 'up-sweep' hair-dos for women.

accredited series of art exhibitions available to Museums, Art Schools and Art Organizations throughout the country.

The group includes such painters as Edna Hibel, Edward Brodne, E. O. McMullen and Charles Curtis Allen. The subjects range from sunshiney atmosphere to somber snow scenes. This group of paintings will be on display until January 21.

Sketching The Seniors

— BY LOUISE BELL —

GARBUTT —

Elusive — defying description — Elizabeth Garbutt is one of those stimulating persons on campus to be around. Some say it is her restlessness, others her high ideals, that finally "get you", but at any rate, "Libba" is the queen of dependability, hard work, efficiency.

One of Elizabeth's profoundest regrets is her inability to laugh deeply — envies Dody for that reason — claims she had the making of a delinquent, but her mother's tender care averted the disaster — declares she'll discontinue keeping Huddie's waves in place if Huddie doesn't stop saying there's no truth in her.

Elizabeth finds time in her busy life to worry about finances, making announcements in the dining room, and planning programs. She doesn't want to teach school, but mournfully sighs, "It's a case of having to —"

Coming to G. S. W. C. from Milledgeville to enter the sophomore class, Elizabeth immediately became a recognized leader. From the treasurership of the Y. W. C. A. Elizabeth became the president of the organization. On being asked about the "Y", Garbutt replied that she would like for it to reach more of the students, to widen its scope.

Elizabeth feels she could have been another Isadora Duncan if tap-dancing hadn't proved so discouraging — wishes she had read all good books, as Little Women.

Renowned and glorified for her interpretation of Lady Vere de Vere, Elizabeth is a member of the Sock and Buskin Club. She is a member of the Sociology Club, and tried to be a Kappa — claims she's not the athletic type.

Delights in going up town at night for cream-of-tomato-soup — is Margaret Abernathy's Jonah when she borrows anything —

GREER, M. W. —

Calm, tactful, full of life, Mary Winn Greer is president of the Philharmonic Club, vice-president of the Valdosta Club, Glee Club accompanist all four years, member of the French Club, and in her freshman and sophomore years a member of the Sports Club.

Mary Winn is secretary of the Presbyterian Students Association, of Valdosta, organized this year.

She wants to be a studio accompanist after graduation, but says her real ambition is to get so thin that people will beg her to eat her carrots.

Possessing a sense of humor, Mary Winn once got written up in the Valdosta Times for her pranks on Halloween, which consisted of stealing milk bottles off a neighbor's doorsteps.

Majoring in piano, Mary Winn says she wants to marry a preacher, and that she'll play the organ in church. In future years she would like to live in Atlanta — has nightmares, but proclaims they are fun — used to walk in her sleep — dislikes cats, and those people who get dithering over nothing.

"Naughty Marietta" is Mary Winn's choice of the best movie she's ever seen, and declares if she could have one wish fulfilled it would be to sing and look like Jeanette MacDonald.

Thinks Roosevelt and his policies are good for another term — that Talmadge would be worth watching once he got in Washington.

Studious, but never unamusing, Mary Winn was one of seven seniors for Who's Who of American Colleges and Universities.

One of those few girls who think objectively — Elizabeth says she'll miss most, on leaving college, her friends.

News From Other Colleges

EVANSTON, ILL. — (ACP) — "The dollars and cents value of the college degree, is, on the average, between three and four times greater than a high school diploma."

This note of encouragement to those struggling for a college education comes from Dr. Samuel N. Stevens, dean of the university college of Northwestern University, who has just completed a survey of the economic status of some 14,000 college graduates.

The vast majority of those surveyed, Dr. Stevens said, are still increasing their earning powers after being out of college ten years.

BUFFALO, N. Y. — (ACP) — Smart though today's wise-cracking collegian may be, he's not as inventive as he thinks he is if you believe the researches of University of Buffalo librarians.

Among the modern wise cracks that are not so modern, according to their discoveries, are the following:

"I'll tell the world" was first used by Shakespeare 315 years ago.

"Not so hot" is from the same author's "Winter's Tale."

"Beauty is but skin deep" was Philip James Bailey's description of a woman in 1861.

"I'm no angel" was coined by Thackeray about 1848.

So, before you cliché inventors lay claim to a new word combination, you'd better check the classics first.

GAINESVILLE, FLA. — (ACP) — They don't pass around medals to people who do things like Ed Waszak did some two weeks ago, but when they do, this 21 year old college man who hoped to be an outstanding football player, at the University of Florida this season ought to get one.

Ed was one of 288 Sophs on coach Josh Cody's Gator football squad when September 1 rolled around. He hoped he could be a sophomore linesman who learned rapidly and acquire the necessary skills to meet the competition of college football today.

Because he was on the varsity squad, Ed was provided, in accordance with conference rules, room and board. Though he dreamed of being a star, Ed Waszak came to the realization a fortnight ago he simply did not have the abilities and the talents necessary to make him the kind of player Florida needed.

Texas Christian University statisticians have figured out that the Horned Frogs' game average 140 plays each.

First Tennis Day Staged Between Kappas and Lambdas

Meeting of Entire Club Planned For Saturday.

This afternoon, the first Tennis Day in the history of the college was held. Sponsored by the Sports Club, teams were picked by members of the council to play in the singles and doubles matches.

In the singles, Dora Ida Perkins, Lambda and runner up for campus championship last year, opposed Mildred Wilson, Kappa. Ruth Reid, Kappa, and winner of last spring's tournament, played opposite Lambda, Sara Garbutt.

For the doubles game, the Lambda team was composed of Margaret Abernathy and Marjorie Dekle. The Kappa opposition was upheld by Marion Smith and Maxwell Williams.

System Of Public Address Bought By Herbert Kraft

During the Christmas holidays, the college purchased through Mr. Herbert F. Kraft of the music department, a complete system of public address. The system which provides for both long and short wave reception is to be installed as soon as the engineers in Atlanta are able to complete the assemblage of the parts.

Through use of the instruments, it will be possible to record programs as they are received as well as to record local programs. In addition to the recording instruments, the system will have connections for a microphone. Announcements made from the central office may be received in the dormitory rooms.

As an aid to the speech department Miss Louise Sawyer plans to use the system as an aid in pointing out to students defects in speech and diction. It will also be used by the music department as well as for amusements purposes.
