Garbutt, Ogletree Reign Over May Day Program, "Spring Time In The South"

ELIZABETH GARBUTT

EVELYN OGLETREE

Y And S G A Plan Retreat For May 12-13

Elizabeth Garbutt, president of the Y.W.C.A., announces that the annual Y retreat will be held next week end, beginning Friday and continuing through Saturday, May 12 and 13. Details of the retreat have not been completed, but will be announced during the week.

Members of the old and new cabinets will take part in the retreat. They will discuss the work of the past year, and on the basis of this experience, formulate plans for the coming year. Meeting in conjunction with the Y.W.C.A., officials of the Student Government Association will discuss plans for orientation of freshmen next fall.

Last year, the "Y" and S.G.A. held their first joint retreat. Through their work at this time, plans were presented to the student body for a Planning Council, for the purpose of unifying all the activities on campus towards one aim.

At this time also was worked out the present system of class officers, there being three for each class. To insure representation of the town students, it was decided that the vice-president of each class must be chosen from among the non-dormitory students.

FOURTEEN SENIORS TO BE LADIES OF THE COURT

With Elizabeth Garbutt as May Queen, ruling over the festivities, the annual May Day celebration will start tomorrow afternoon at five o'clock. The theme of the program is "Springtime in the South."

The blonde queen will wear bridal pink and carry pink carnations. Carrying her train will be Mary Ermine Griffin and Peris Clark.

Court in Blue, Chartreuse, and Coral

Evelyn Ogletree, Maid of Honor, wearing cornflower blue and carrying talisman roses, will precede the Queen and follow the Ladies-in-Waiting and the flower girls. The court dresses will be in chartreuse and coral, and the flower girls and train bearers will wear blue. Flower girls are Katherine Zeigler and Patsy McDermont.

Fourteen seniors have been chosen as Ladies of the Court. They are Margaret Abernathy, Annie Adams, Hilda Carroll, Parlee Greer, Margaret Carter, Helen Joiner, June Lawson, C. J. Morris, Hazel Muggridge, Ruth Rhymes, Anna Richter, Penelope Tullis, Margaret Weir and Mary Virginia Williams.

Queen is Outstanding Student Miss Garbutt, in her three years at GSWC, has taken an outstanding part in campus activities. She served this year as president of the Y.W.C.A. and formerly held the position of treasurer of the organization. She is a member of the Sock

Richter To Give Recital On Monday Evening

TO READ "JOHN BROWN'S BODY"

On Wednesday evening in the auditorium, Anna Richter, major in speech, will be presented by the speech department in her graduation recital. A pupil of Miss Louise Sawyer, Miss Richter will read "John Brown's Body," by Stephen Vincent Benet.

Throughout her four years at GSWC, Miss Richter has been outstanding in campus affairs. A member of the Sock and Buskin Club for four years, she served as secretary-treasurer her second year and as president of the club during the past year. She has served as president of her class during her freshman year; president of the Freshman Honor Society, treasurer of the Senior Honor Society, and vice-president of the Y.W.C.A. As a sophomore, she was a member of the "Y" cabinet, and for two years was a member of the Lambda team of the Sports Club. She is a member of the French Club and of the English Club.

The recital will be held in the auditorium at eight-thirty p.m. The student body is invited to attend.

SGA Installs Whisonant And Parham Tonight

MISS HOPPER TO ADMINISTER OATH OF OFFICE

Ruth Whisonant, recently elected president of the Student Government Association for the ensuing year, and Ann Parham, vice-president, will be installed at the last monthly meeting of the association, Friday evening, May 5. Mary Hudson, retiring president, will preside over the meeting, which will be held in the auditorium.

Hopper Gives Oath

The oath of office will be administered to the new officers by Miss Annie Powe Hopper, Dean of Women. Handing over the cap is significant of the handing over the duties of the office.

The new president will speak on the relationship between the Student Government Association and the student body. Miss Hudson will at this time make her formal farewell speech. Both Miss Whisonant and Miss Hudson were delegates to the Southeastern Student Government Conference held at Old Salem College, Winston-Salem, N.C., last month.

Experience of Officers

Miss Whisonant, during the past year served as vice-president of the Student Government Association. The preceding year she was elected house president of Ashley Hall. The incoming vice-president, Ann Parham, has during the past year served as S.G.A. monitor. She is also manager of the Kappa team of the Sports Club.

Class presidents will be recognized as officers of Student Government at a meeting of the association in the early fall. Election of the freshman class president will take place in the early part of November.

Reade Will Dedicate Log Cabin May 6th.

KEYS TO BE PRESENTED TO S.G.A. PRESIDENT

First among the new projects of GSWC for the year 1938-39 to materialize, is the student activities house, which will be dedicated at a special ceremony on Saturday May 6. President Frank R. Reade will dedicate the house, and turn the keys over to Ruth Whisonant, Student Government president.

Construction of the building was started early in November as a WPA project, under the supervision of Mr. L. D. Bacon, area engineer of Albany, Ga. Materials used in construction were logs on the site where the house was torn down earlier in the year.

Furnishings for the house were paid for through an appropriation of $450 from the Student Activities fee and through contributions by campus organizations. Furnishings were selected by a special committee of faculty members and students.

The main room of the house is the general assembly room in the front. It has two fireplaces, will be equipped with game tables, piano and radio. Furniture will be in maple with upholstery in blue, burgundy and coral.

Also in the house is a dining room, electrically equipped kitchen, offices for both the publications and a general committee room. Upstairs there is a large room which will be used as a recreation or browsing room.

Dances Will Feature Phases Of Southern Life

ANTE-BELLUM, GAY NINETIES AND MODERN SOUTH PRESENTED.

Following the crowning of the queen, the subjects of the court will present a festival, Saturday afternoon, with Springtime in the South as the theme. The program will be divided into three parts.

The first episode is called Springtime in the Old South. First dance group will be the Dixie group. The dancers will wear hoop skirts and pantalets, and will bring out the Confederate flag. The flag will be raised to the tune of Dixie and will remain up during the entire first episode.

Dancers in the Dixie Group are Edith Allen, Mary Alice Baldwin, Lucille Bedgood, Payne Brown, Rachel Crittenden, Annie B. Croft, Margie Drake, Louise Edwards, Rite Evans, Virginia Fryer, Margaret Fryer, Lois Johnson, Daisy Jones, Raye Lazarus, Grace Lineberger, Betty Logan.

Also Mary Lovett, Gay Martin, Hazel Mixon, Viva McGeachy, Jewell Miller, Mary Perdue, Alberta Plemmons, Eunice Rowe, Gwendolyn Thomas, Delene Thomas, and Mary Ellen Turner.

Crinoline Days, the next dance number on the program, will feature couples of the old South. Dancing in this group are Mary

Bell Announces Canopy Staff For '39-40

TO TAKE OVER PUBLICATION WITH NEXT ISSUE ON MAY 12th.

With the next issue of the Campus Canopy on May 12, Louise Bell will assume her duties as editor for the year 1939-40. Curtis Whatley has been re-elected to the position of business manager, which office she has filled during the past year.

Miss Bell has been a member of the Campus Canopy staff for three years. As a freshman she served as reporter and Sports Editor; last year she was News Editor, and this year she has been Assistant Editor. She was unanimously elected by the student body to the editorship, succeeding C. J. Morris in that position.

Complete Staff

Announcement is made by the new editor of her staff. Virginia Zachert will be managing editor, Rosemary Baker assistant editor, Marjorie Howard news editor, Louie Peeples and Susie McKey feature editors, Gwendolyn Hendricks and Marie Ambos headline writers, Louise Macfie exchange manager and Frances Middleton circulation manager.

Miss Whatley will continue for the remainder of this year with the present advertising staff. New appointments will be announced in the fall.

Miss Zachert, newly-appointed Managing Editor, will succeed in position. She has served during

Outgoing Officers State That Office Holding Is Work

"What price glory?" say you. And to this, previous or outgoing officers can answer readily. The price "oh best beloved," to quote Kipling, is high indeed. All that glitters is not gold. That too is a quotation, lifted from Shakespeare, just to prove that some of us college women are educated.

Presidents of campus clubs take part in the Firelighting Ceremony. That is one of the honors attached to office holding, you know. Eileen Hyland was president of the Sock and Buskin Club last year, and maintains that this is a dubious glory. One can just as easily cover herself with confusion should she arrive late and still be puffing and panting when her turn comes to step forward and talk about "quips and wanton wiles."

Mary Virginia Williams problem has been unique. It was only this year that the Sociology Club was formed, and M. V. had the honor of being the first president of the organization. Honor? Well, yes; but trouble too.

Drawing up Constitution

"Nothing is worse," she stated, than drawing up a constitution for a club. We had what we thought was a good one all worked out, and when it was presented to the club, they tore it apart."

The Franch Club president, Helen Joiner, wailed and moaned when the interviewer questioned her.

"Experiences?" she asked. "Trouble? French Club? Why, I almost went mad when Professor Wolfe was here."

Let this near fatality be as a warning to other club officers. Use great caution, and deliberation before deciding to invite a speaker to campus. This is all in the spirit of friendly advice, based on experience, and experience is said to be the best teacher. Bear with us and learn more.

Y Presidents Worry

Serving as Y president seems to carry with it some sort of obligation to watch out for your roommate. And the roommate seems to expect it. Elizabeth Garbutt says that every Student Government meeting adds wrinkles to her brow and grey hairs to her head.

"Huddie never knows what she's going to say at Student Government meetings," she revealed, "until almost the moment before she goes on the stage. The thing that worries me is that she tortures me for days beforehand telling me that I simply must think up something for her to say. Of course, she got along without me, but I worried for her all along. She said I was supposed to."

And then the S.G.A. president spoke up for herself. Her greatest trouble hasn't been with her speeches, but with the court room.

"If you want to do a good turn for Student Government presidents for all time to come," she pleaded, "tell them to for heaven's sake, wear the board room key around their necks. Even if it does make them look like jailors, it's worth the effect, so much effort and energy may be spared. I ran off a thousand

Ben Gibbs Presents Books And Maps To IRC

Presentation was made on Wednesday, May 3, of a set of the Reports of the American Historical Society, a gift of Ben W. Gibbs, eighth district Congressman now in Washington. The books were presented to the International Relations Club by Mr. Gibbs; they in turn presented them to the college. There are some nine volume in the reports which include the years 1932, 33, 34, and 35.

Also presented at the same time, as a gift to the history department was a set of maps showing the United States at the time of the ratification of the Constitution. These were also a gift of Mr. Gibbs.

While in Washington on a recent trip, members of the club were met by Mr. Gibbs, who showed them around the Capitol and the city.

pounds this year hunting up that key to open the room for court."

Elect Stout S.G.A. President

Perhaps this statement will be encouraging to any future S.G.A. leaders who may be on the plump side. It seems to be a safe and sure way to reduce. Do one of your stoutish sister students a good turn sometime and elect her to Huddie's office.

Both Louise Bell and June Lawson have served time as Manager of the Lambda team of the Sports Club, and it was serving time, they both agree, checking the charts.

"Why, I feel like a criminal, filling out a practice slip," said June, "when I stop to think of all the slips Louise has to check up on."

However, serving on the Sports Club Council has its compensations. There is a grand supper at Twin Lakes at the end of the year that is worth a whole year's work.

Country Store Advice

As managers of the Country Store, Marguerite Arnold and Annie Adams have quite a bit to say. On reconsidering however, they melted their statements down to this simple maxim:

"If you're thinking of doing it, don't!"

This recounting of experiences cannot be complete without a word or two from some club treasurer. We pounced upon Dody Wilson, past treasurer of the Sports Club.

Sad Plight of Treasurers

Dody's story was a sad one. She never, never could bring a perfect set of books to Miss Larsen for checking. She had invariably added one and five and gotten the grand total of eighteen. Then one final day, late in the fall, she overheard Mr. Dusenbury, suggesting her to Miss Ivey for the fool at the Christmas festival.

Isn't all this proof enough! Oh ye newly elected officers, we do wish you luck and a fine year, but we caution you, don't look for glory.

Carpenter, Brink Poppell Heads International Relations Club

Attending the twelfth annual State Conference of the A.A.U.W. on April 28 and 29 in Columbus were Dr. Eleanor Brink and Miss Frances Ruth Carpenter. Registration headquarters were at the Ralston Hotel.

Friday evening the Executive Board dinner was given at the hotel. Report and business meetings were held on Saturday. The delegates attended a luncheon at the Officers Club of Fort Benning and later toured Columbus and the Fort.

Honorable T. Hicks Ford of Columbus spoke on 'The Position of the College Woman Today.' Dr. Elizabeth Fuller Jackson gave an address, "Adventurers All," which dealt with the encouragement given to learning by the A. A. U. W. and the scholarship awarded by that organization.

Dr. Brink, president of the Valdosta branch of A.A.U.W., and Miss Carpenter went as members of the State board. Miss Carpenter was elected treasurer of the state organization for the ensuing year and Dr. Brink was selected to serve on a committee of three to determine the state project for the next year.

A prize was awarded the Valdosta branch for having the largest percentage increase in membership for this year and for having the largest per capita contributions to the Fellowship Fund. Miss Elizabeth McRee is chairman of the membership committee and Miss Annie P. Hoper of the committee to secure contributions to the Fund.

Miss Louise Anne Sawyer took over the duties of president of the Valdosta branch at a meeting held on Thursday in the Rotunda. Other new officers are Miss Elizabeth McRee, secretary; and Mrs. F. C. Mixon, treasurer.

Dalton, Bowen Club Nominees

Geraldine Bowen and Dorothy Dalton were nominated for the post of president of the Valdosta Club for the ensuing year.

Announcement of the nominations was made at the meeting of the club on Tuesday at Chapel period.

Sara Garbutt and Leecy Ann Goodloe are candidates for the vice-presidency. Helen Duncan and Catherine Young Graham were named for the position of secretary. Nominated for treasurer are Annabelle Davis and Kathleen Campbell.

Miss Bowen is past vice-president of the I.R.C. and a former member of the Freshman Honor Society. She is a member of the Senior Honor Society and a reporter on the Canopy. She will hold the position of columnist on the 1939-40 Canopy staff. Miss Dalton is a member of the Fine Arts Club.

Election of officers will be held in the lower hall of the Ad. building on Tuesday, May 9.

On Friday, May 5, the club will entertain the members of the senior class of the Valdosta High school. Such an entertain-

Glee Club Elects Officers

Jacqueline Abrahams, at the April monthly meeting of the Glee Club, was elected president of the organization for the year 1939-40. Frances Middleton and Eleanor Cook will serve as secretary-treasurer and librarian, respectively, of the club.

Miss Abrahams is a member of the Philharmonic Club, the Valdosta Club, and a featured vocalist of the Glee Club. Miss Middleton is a member of the Sociology Club, of the Vesper Choir, and treasurer of the Y.W.C.A. Miss Cook is a member of the Vesper Choir and the Sports Club.

The Glee Club is engaged at the present time in rehearsals for the Baccalaureate service, to be held June 4 at the First Methodist church of Valdosta.

Juniors Make Plans For Formal

On Saturday evening, May 13, the Juniors will entertain the Seniors with an annual formal dance at the Country Club. The receiving line will form at eight o'clock, and dancing will last until twelve. Curtis Davidson and his orchestra will furnish the music for the evening.

Heading the leadout will be Mary Catherine Abernathy, president of the Junior class, and June Lawson, president of the Senior class, with their dates. Immediately following them will be the other officers of the two classes.

The decorations will carry out the theme of spring, featuring spring flowers. Chairman of the decorations committee is Sara Garbutt.

On Saturday afternoon the Juniors will sponsor a tea dance at which Curtis Davidson will also play. The dance will last from 4 to 6, and the admission is to be 15 cents.

Ohio Wesleyan's first co-ed never spoke in class during her undergraduate career.

Verna Poppell was elected president of the International Relations Club in an election held Tuesday. Other officers named at this time were Virginia Parrish, vice-president, and Frances Van Brackle, treasurer.

Running against them were Geraldine Bowen for president, Josephine Graham for vice-president and Marjorie Jones for treasurer. Installation of the new officers will take place at the regular monthly meeting to be held on Tuesday, May 9.

Miss Poppell now holds the position of Student Government Recorder of Points. During her sophomore year, she acted as treasurer of her class. Miss Parrish was this year member at large of the I.R.C. Miss Van Brackle is exchange manager of the Canopy.

Outgoing officers of the organization are Ora Kate Wisenbaker, president; Geraldine Bowen, vice president, and Mildred Wilson, treasurer. The offices of member-at-large and secretary will be filled in an election to be held next fall. Penelope Tullis holds the secretaryship and Virginia Parrish is member at large.

Nominations were made by the executive board of the club. This body is composed of the officers and faculty advisor.

Wayne University has received a special grant to finance research work into the causes of peptic ulcers.

Barnard College next year will offer a special course on the history, economics, and arts that characterize democracy.

Elizabeth McLin, Leah Yarborough, Eleanor Cook, May Howard Betty Mae Hodges, Charlotte Davenport, Lois Beaty, Star Clark, E. J. Milligan, Flossie Hedrick, Melba Blanton, Hilda Sikes.

Also Catherine Young Graham, Betty Franklin, Elizabeth Garbutt, Frances Parks, Eleanor Turnbull, Margaret Head, Virginia Power and Sue Pritchett.

The third number in the first episode is known as Little Gossips, in which the dancers show how news is carried. They are entertained at tea, and while they are sipping the tea, Over the Teacups is presented. This is a dance of three Dresden figures who have just stepped from a teacup. The Dresden figures are Carol O'Neal and Marie Smith, the boys, and Louise Blanks, the girl.

Dancing as the gossips are Mary Martha Burnette, Mary Williams, Hilda Ward, Grace Williams, Kathryn Thrift, Ruth Sessions, Harriet Miller, Aileen Brim, Laverne Cook, Margaret Copeland, Janet Tillman, Sarah Belot, Ruth Dixon, Carolyn Newberry, Doris Dickson, Mary E. Rogers, Mary Lanier, and Doris Childs.

Also as gossips are Betty Haywood, Ione Quinker, Mildred Martin, Mary Alice Tumlin, Carolyn Roberts, Margaret Coleman, Minnie Roberts, as the hostess, Pattye Patterson as the colored butler and Gladys Parrish and Charlotte Delach as the colored maids.

Shadow Over the South is the next number. Mary Catherine Abernathy will do an interpretive dance depicting bondage.

De White Folks' Darkies is the next dance group. Barnie Lou Gornto will take the part of Uncle Mose. Other slaves will be Ruth Reid, Edna Sneed, Evelyn Hay, Inez Taylor, Virginia Zachert, Georgia Crews, Margaret Burns, Lois Quinn, Harriet Goodson, Edith Wilson, Josephine Graham, Annie Heald, Billie Bruce and Dorothy Thomas.

In accompaniment to the dance which is done by this group, the Glee Club sings a medley of southern tunes.

Last in the first group of dances is that depicting the Confederate soldiers and their sweethearts come down from the house to watch the negroes. Then the old plantation horse, Dobbin, is brought in from the fields and dances. The negroes move off and the Southern sweethearts dance. The soldiers then lower the flag and the entire group moves away.

The sweetheart group is composed of Marie Ambos, Mary Jean Rockwell, Katherine Mundy, Virginia Passmore, Richmond Martin, Alleen Bartlett, Louise Paulk, Shirley Abrahams, Jane Culpepper, Maxwell Williams, Betty Tomberlin.

Also Christine Wiggins, Evelyn Bozeman, Winifred Ruffin, Carol Adams, Henrietta Tillman, Frances Ashley, Laura Hamilton, Jane

Stanaland, Katherine Handorf, Jerry Hill, Sybil Coleman, Audrey Jenkins, Elizabeth Bowen, Alice Wisenbaker, Mary Elizabeth Johnson, Irene Lott, Marnell Parker, Mary Frances Patrick, Kathleen Groover and Elizabeth Nicholson. The part of Dobbin is played by Virginia Fletcher and Ruby Lilly.

GAY NINETIES, SECOND EPISODE

Springtime in the Gay Nineties is the theme of the second episode. It is opened with The Gay Ninety Revue, a fantasy of the dances of that period.

Also, Mary Bundrick, Mary Frances Burke, Margaret Clay, Elizabeth Lyons, Ruth Morgan, Marie Farrish, Kathryn Raynor, Janie Ray White.

Also Ruth Mason, Elizabeth Cook, Sara Johnson, Sara Lacy Angeline Cuninghgam, Ella Sue Trayham, Virginia Jenkins, Marjorie Dekle, Frances Williams, Elvita Anderson, Kathryn Scott and Ann Bland.

Courtship on Bicycle

Opal Brown, and Carolyn Folsom, in the next dance, depict Courtship on a Bicycle Built for Two. Following this is a skit, Wild Nell of the Plains.

The characters of Wild Nell are as follows: the vamp, Nell Zipper; Wild Nell, Martha Sue Griffin, Handsome Harry, Ruth Burroughs; Sitting Bull, Marjorie Howard; other Indian braves, Louise Bell, Frances Hug, Christine Poss, Reba Mangham and Ann Parham.

Machine Age Episode

The last episode is known as Springtime in the Modern Age. The Machine Age, the first dance of the group, is done in the modern manner, depicting machinery, monotony and precision.

Dancers in The Modern Age are: Wilma Adams, Rosemary Baker, Marion Orr, Geraldine Bowen, Evelyn Brim, Mary Alice Brim, Helen Quarterman, Kathleen Campbell, Sara Garbutt, Doris Harper, Curtis Whatley, Frances Williams, Marie Williams, Irwin Smith, Aline Lanier, Frances Middleton, Margie Jones Ruth Whisonant, and Mildred Wilson.

In A City Park is the next number on the schedule. A policeman and a nursemaid show romance up to the minute. Mary Winn Greer is the policeman and Mary Catherine Abernathy is the nursemaid.

Reappearing once more, the girls who do the machine age dance appear in The Modern Miss At Sports.

Completing the dance groups is The Tie That Binds. All the Queen's subjects dance together winding the May Poles. This dance is followed immediately by the recessional.

HASH--

Classmates are folks you borrow pencils from if they haven't borrowed all your paper.

Soup is the same as hash, only loser. (Should we change the name of this column?—we are loose constructionists.)

To quote Mr. Kraft in music class: "They're putting a tax on sin now. You've heard of it—SYNTAX." Another Kraft cutie is the one about the man who married the wrong girl—evidently a mistake.

Love is the only game that they say isn't postponed on account of darkness.

Steam is water gone crazy with the heat.

Senior Hall discovery—After answering the phone, the time-saving phrase to use if the call wasn't for you is "Is Hazel there? Tell her phone."

And of course you've heard of the cow who ate blue grass and Mood Indigo.

From the Los Angeles Collegian: "Will you marry me?" "I'm afraid not!"

"Aw, c'mon, be a support." Suggestion for those who hear and have answered the call of spring. Parking in front of the court house might not be a bad idea.

If your hair has electricity in it, keep it to yourself. Could be that it's attached to a dry cell.

From the George Anne—we've been saving this one for a long time:

Dean: "You're charged with habitual drunkenness. What excuse have you?" Student: "Habitual thirst, sir."

Hug Named Sociology Head

Officers of the Sociology Club for the year 1939-40, elected at a recent meeting of the club are Frances Hug, president; Dorothy Dalton, vice-president, and Emily Cumming, secretary-treasurer.

Other nominees for these offices were Virginia Parrish, Frances Middleton and Reba Mangham. Mary Virginia Williams is the outgoing president. Miss Hug is a member of the Sports Club and president of the Freshman Honor Society.

The club was newly organized this year. Under the direction of Drs. Eleanor Nims Brink and J. A. Durrenberger, club members have carried on an extensive study of social problems and their relationship to those seeking positions in the field of Social Service.

The two new feature editors, Louie Peeples and Susie McKey, succeed Carolyn Folsom and Margle Jones. Miss Peeples has been on the staff of reporters for the past year and as a freshman, during her spring quarter wrote a special feature column for the paper. Miss McKey has been a reporter for the past year.

Gwendolyn Hendricks and Marie Ambos are both new to the Canopy staff this year. Miss Hendricks has served as a reporter and Miss Ambos as Circulation manager, succeeding Linda Summer in that position. In their new positions as headline writers, they are filling positions formerly held by Louise Macfie, Frances Rogers and Lois Green.

Having held the positions of reporter and headline writer, Louise Macfie, with the next issue of the paper will assume her duties as exchange manager. The post was filled this year by Frances Van Brackle.

Frances Middleton, newly appointed circulation manager, succeeds Marie Ambos in that position. During the past year Miss Middleton has been a reporter on the staff.

Columnists Announced

Besides the regular staff, Miss Bell has announced two new columnists. Geraldine Bowen will write a regular weekly feature on current events. Miss Bowen is past vice-president of the International Relations Club and has served as a reporter on the Canopy staff for two years.

Ora Kate Wisenbaker, who formerly wrote this column, will under the editorship, take the column written formerly by Eileen Hyland. This is principally a commentary on the theatre, radio, screen, and literature.

The new staff will edit the Canopy for the remainder of the year and will resume work again in the fall. At this time tryouts will be held for the reporter staff of the paper, the vacancies being filled chiefly by the incoming freshman class.
