THE GEORGIA STATE WOMANS COLLEGE, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA, FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1939

NUMBER 28

Twenty-Sixth Graduation Takes Place Friday, June 9

DR. HUDSON ROGERS

THIRTY-THREE SENIORS TO RECEIVE BACHELOR OF ARTS DEGREE

Dr. Hudson Rogers, professor at Florida State College for Women, at Tallahassee, will be the commencement speaker, June 9. The exercises will be held in the college auditorium, beginning at ten-thirty, Friday morning.

Dr. Lena Hawks to Present Seniors

Following the address, Dr. Frank Reade, president, will confer the bachelor of arts degree upon the twenty-sixth graduating class of GSWC. Dr. Lena J. Hawks, dean of instruction, will present the seniors individually to Dr. Reade as candidates for the degree.

Hood Sisters

A custom of three years has been the provision of hood sisters for the seniors. The hood sisters are chosen by the seniors. The ceremony is symbolic of particular friendship between upper class graduating student and the underclass student.

Only one senior graduates with an A.B. degree in art. The remaining thirty-two receive degrees in History, English, French, Sociology, Mathematics, Chemistry and Biology.

Third Year of Hood Sisters

The seniors and their hood sisters are as follows:

Gordon Willaford, Geraldine Bowen; Rosalind Lane, Helen Hightower; Ann Dunbar, Dot Dalton; Penelope Tullis, Rose-

Summer School Begins June 12

CLASSES BEGIN ON TUESDAY, JUNE 13

Final plans are being made for the opening of summer school at the Georgia State Womans College on June 12. With the completion of registration of June 12, classes will begin on June 13.

Varied Courses Are Offered

The last day on which students may enter a class and receive credit for the course is June 21. Anyone missing more than one-fourth of the class periods in a subject automatically loses credit for the course.

Planned Activities for Students

Dr. J. A. Durrenberger, director of summer school, states that a number of entertainments has been planned for June and July. Among these is a reception for students, several dances, and swimming parties. The swimming pool, tennis courts, golf course and other recreational facilities will be available to both men and women.

Churchill Gibson To Give Baccalaureate Sermon

REV. CHURCHILL GIBSON

SERVICES TO BE HELD JUNE 4 AT METHODIST CHURCH

Opening the commencement exercises of the Georgia State Womans College, the Rev. Churchill J. Gibson, D.D., rector of St. James Church, Richmond, Va. will deliver the Baccalaureate sermon on Sunday, June 4, at the first Methodist Church in Valdosta. Dr. Gibson is nationally known for his unusual ability to interest students in religious work.

Studied at University of Virginia

Dr. Gibson, coming from a long line of clerical ancestors, was educated at the Episcopal High School, University of Virginia, and the Theological Seminary of Virginia. He has served as rector of Christ Church, Luray, as chaplain of the 110th Field Signal Battalion of the 35th division of the A.E.F., as rector of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Church, Lexington, which ministers to students at Washington and Lee University and at the Virginia Military Institute.

Seniors Hold Vespers Outdoors

LAST VESPER SERVICE OF THE YEAR

Bringing to a close the year's series of Vesper services will be the service in the amphitheatre on Sunday evening. Conducted by the Senior class, a number of Seniors will be presented on the program.

Arnold Leads Devotion

Marguerite Arnold will lead the devotional. Margaret Carter, as a solo, will sing "My Task." A group of other musical numbers will be given by Louise Stump, Mary Winn Greer, Pardee Greer, and Margaret Carter. Also on the program Eileen Hyland will read a selection.

During the past month Mary Winn Greer and Margaret Carter gave a joint graduation recital in piano and voice, respectively.

College Acts As Host To Collegiate Press

BELL ELECTED G.C.P.A. SECRETARY-TREASURER FOR 1939-40

Holding the annual spring convention, the Georgia Collegiate Press Association met at GSWC on May 19 and 20. Delegates representing numerous colleges, and the university publications attended. Miss Henrietta Green, retiring president of the association and a student at the Georgia Evening School in Atlanta, presided over the convention.

Hopper Welcomes Conventioners

The convention was officially opened on Friday afternoon with a welcome to the delegates made by Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women. Following the welcome Mr. Turner Rockwell, who is affiliated with the Valdosta Times, was presented as speaker for the occasion.

Kirk Sutlive Speaks

On Friday evening a banquet was held at the Daniel Ashley hotel, at which Miss C. J. Morris, retiring editor of the Campus Canopy, was hostess. Dr. Frank Reade, president, again welcomed the delegates to the campus. Mr. Kirk Sutlive, editor of the Black-shear Times, was speaker for the evening, and chose for his subject of his address, "The Country Newspaper— So What?"

Roundtable Discussions

Ed Brannen, editor of the Emory Wheel, and Dyar Massey, instructor at the Henry Grady School of Journalism at the University, on Saturday morning conducted roundtable discussions and open forums concerning problems and policies of the college newspapers.

Delegates Elect Officers

At a business meeting on Saturday following the discussions, officers of the association for the ensuing year were elected. Louise Bell, present editor of the Campus Canopy, was elected secretary-

Faculty Has Party At Cabin

ANNUAL GET-TOGETHER OF FACULTY A SUCCESS

At the House-in-the-Woods on Wednesday evening, members of the faculty and their guests were entertained with a supper. It was the only "gef-together" of the faculty during the year. With the exception of Dr. Marion Farbar, who was unable to attend, every faculty member was present.

What Seniors Think Of Leaving It All Behind

HOPES AND REGRETS EXPRESSED

"Among the stately pines of Georgia, glorious to the view, stands our noble Alma Mater," is the beginning of a song that our seniors will perhaps never sing together again, but will always proudly remember. Four years of glorious college life, and what do they think of leaving it all behind? Here are their answers:

June Lawson, class president, says: "The four years have been the fullest of my life, and I hate to leave." Her roommate, Anna Richter, talented speech major, insists that her college years have been her happiest and the most worthwhile. "I feel sad leaving college," Anna says, "because my school days will be over."

Hates to Leave House-in-Woods

Dora Ida Perkins, sports enthusiast, simply cannot stand to graduate and leave everybody she has known these four years. She says: "I hate to leave the log cabin, too, now that we have it, and I'm crazy about Valdosta, too." Margaret Weir just does not want to go home. She has been here only two years and loves it!

Opal Brown, artist, conceded somewhat, "I would like school all right if every day were Sunday," says Opal. "I haven't decided whether I regret leaving or not."

Youngest Seniors Had No Dorm Life

Fine Arts Club President Carolyn Folsom says she is very sorry to leave, not only because she does not know what she will do next year, but because she regrets not having had any dormitory life. "That's the best part of college," Carolyn says. Annie Adams even wishes she were a freshman all over again, so she could have four more years like the past ones. And that's the spirit!

On the other hand, Hilda Carroll, Valdosta Club president, smiles broadly and says, "It's wonderful! Can't wait to graduate!" And Mary DuBois agreed with her to a certain extent, but added that these were the best four years of her life. "I shall always miss the friendships and contacts of college life," said Mary.

Other Degrees to be Obtained

Mary Virginia Williams is optimistic for the future, and so is Evelyn Ogletree, who smilingly added that after getting her A.B. degree, she is next working for an M.R.S., if you get what she means.

AROUND THEY GO

GEORGIA CREWS gets around—DUTCH-ing on Sunday and BIRD-ing on Monday . . .

NELL and MUG with only 6 months to go! HANDORF, HERRING, and QUINKER wall to see Emory close, maybe it won't be so much getting around now . . .

Four seniors stray into the Blue Room, and such a wonderful time—and doors were closed until six.

DISCONCERTING

MARGARET HEAD gets two of her admired confused—no wonder, they have the same name . . .

A certain professor announced an exam, whereupon ABERNATHY, JOINER, HUDDIE and MUGGRIDGE form a line in the infirmary . . . The PAYNE-HARRY flame burns, but it's not out.

MISCELLANEOUS

ABERNATHY rates a diomand for graduation . . . JULIA BESS leaves soon for the World's Fair.

GRACE WILLIAMS is selected by Cecil B. DeMille for the beauty section of the Furman annual . . .

SARA makes another convention conquest . . .

GWENDOLYN and BUCK pull off their shoes and socks and wade on Patterson street.

PRATHER and TEASLEY play Santa Claus to Canopy workers. The pause that refreshes.

BILLY PEEPLES falls for MARY WILLIAMS, to the tune of a late show, but no soap . . .

ROMANCING, THEY SAY

Are STAR CLARK and JOHN HOWELL, who are seen frequently together at Brookwood . . .

CHARLOTTE DAVENPORT and BUD McCRORY often haunt the above setting . . . VIRGINIA POWER and CLAUDE MOXLEY are rumored "that way about each other." . . . OPAL and TRIMPI are just another pair.

The Time Has Come

By ORA KATE WISENBAKER

Were we proud when last week our theme quotation was quoted in the Emory Wheel and in Georgia's Red and Black. It's from Carroll's Through The Looking Glass—just in case you didn't know and wanted to—

Our predecessor, Scribe Hyland says that she began her columnist's career with a column under the same heading as ours. We did not know it at the time and perhaps the knowledge will inspire us to better things.

Baseball and Roses

Last night at the basebal game we saw our first real esthete—a portly gentleman walking into the grandstand daintly and carrying a lovely rose which he daintly sniffed from time to time. We haven't figured out whether he brought the rose along to offset the grossness of the game or just what.

Concerning the King and Queen

When we read what a furor the visit of the dear Bertie and Lizzie—pardon us; we read somewhere that Their Royal Highnesses were not to be called that—H.R.H. King George and H.R.H. Queen Elizabeth are making, we agree with Heywood Broun, who said: "I'll take spinach." We always heard, "When in Rome do as the Romans do." But not Britannic Majesties—they take their etiquette—if you want to call such bowing and three-stepping and scraping etiquette—with them. And another thing that gripes us about H.R.H. Queen Elizabeth is her idea that she must always over-dress the event. Paris dressmakers do not agree with her, not do any or our standards of style or courtesy back her up. We always thought that the well-bred woman under-dressed the event.

Old Novel Revived

"Wuthering Heights," the movie taken from the old novel by the same name by Emil Bronte has caused a revival of the novel itself. It has been described as probably the saddest book ever written—in fact, if its atmosphere was physical the book would probably be surrounded by sighs, fogs, wails and death. Our news editor reports that a smile was not even mentioned until about the last fifty pages.

At the World's Fair

Russia, the only country who wouldn't agree to limit their expenditures at the New York World's Fair, has built a huge statue of a Communistic worker which dominates the Fair. It is said to be the largest statue in the U. S. outside the Statue of Liberty. It and Grover Whalen's pride and joy, the Trylon, really tower above all other buildings at the Fair.

At night the electrical displays make the Fair a veritable paradise. It makes the Fair a fairy land of shimmering color against the deep blue of the night sky.

From An Uneasy

CHAIR. Faculty dinner and the inauguration or the installation of the Canopy office into the House-in-the-Woods have been too much fun—We hardly got a paper out this week for watching the elaborate proceedings—all happening on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Joe Prather, famed horseman at GSWC, paid a visit to the new sanctum sanctorum, and upheld his political views—also he confessed that New Orleans was a place to go and see things—he believes in slipping cakes out to the members of the fourth estate, too.

Angels of the Canopy are C. J. Morris and Miss Mildred Teasley—C. J. has left a working plan for the Canopy which should skyrocket it to the ranks of Pacemaker—the memory of her the carrot-topped, will certainly be a vivid and encouraging one.

While bouquets are in order, the biggest one should go to Tommy Farrot—the makeup man—all the staff members could quit and Tommy would get the Canopy out. Thanks, Tommy.

Picnics, hikes, treasure hunts, and suppers mark the culmination of the twenty-sixth school year of GSWC—summer school begins immediately—as the work never ends—Mrs. Thomas leaves the post this summer for Emory University—Dr. Hawks promises to keep a good quarrel going next year through the columns of the Canopy—we're holding her to it.

CHOICE STORY OF THE WEEK: Evelyn Ogletree loses her French book and finds it in Leo Wagnon's car—Stories like that make the Uneasy Chair more bearable, if not more comfortable.

A pleasant summer to you all—see you in September—

In the meantime, what are you going to do this summer, what are YOU going to do?

To Sum It Up

Seven days hence and 36 girls leave GSWC forever at students. The two spent at the Commencement Exercise are worth all the discomfort. Hot weather, caps and gowns may not make good companions, but they do make the grand finale of one drama of life. Proud parents will applaud as each graduate struts her time across the stage, and to these parents, who spent their money on their daughters, this is their great reward.

Not All is Discomfort

"Abolish in one sweep the expense, nuisance, and nonsense of graduation," published the University of Arkansas TRAVELER, in an editorial some time ago. Almost in an uproar many college editors went, their denunciation of the idea most emphatic. But even the cynical graduate, who objects to rhetorical flourishes at Commencement, if she will only wander about, will find that not all is discomfort; that it is a solemn occasion, unforgettable, almost sacred.

Lessons in Art and Living

With the RED AND BLACK, University of Georgia, we agree that "it is the work behind the degree that will measure up in the final reckoning. But the diploma will always be a mute reminder of four happy years. The University system gives a few sound lessons in the art of living. The state has provided an opportunity. To those who have accepted the obligation that went with it, it has given a nice legacy."

Obligation Has Rewards

Graduation, taking its annual toll of students from the ranks, makes whole GSWC wonder what it will be like without them.

Why All This?

As we have often stated before, we feel that one of the functions of a college paper is to serve the interests of the college which it serves.

Aims To Serve

One of the successes which the CANOPY enjoyed last year through its editorial policies was the revision of the Honor system. This system applied to classroom work only. It entitled the student to report any fellow student who was dishonest in her classroom work.

Inconsiderateness in Some

Dishonesty has crept into the activities of college life this year, and outside of classes. Lately there has developed a peculiarly inconsiderate habit on the part of some student, or students, that is hard to account for, and impossible to excuse.

Cooperation Among Students

We do believe that the sticky fingered individuals who are appropriating property illegally understand how reprehensible their conduct really is. We believe also that every student in the college understands the need of cooperation.

Letters To The Editor

COLLEGE IMPRESSES VISITORS

Remarks like the following, taken from a recent letter to Miss Mildred Teasley, director of Placement and Publicity, from a visitor to the campus, were evoked by the students and I think belong to them. Therefore I am suggesting that you make it possible for them to read:

"We are indebted for a most pleasant and profitable visit to your college. I was just delighted with the home-like appearance and the general attitude of the student body. - - I was so charmed with GSWC that I feel she just must go there this fall. We both feel that it is just the school for her. -"

from, Mildred Teasley,
Director of Placement and Publicity.

Treaties May Lead To War

By GERALDINE BOWEN

The four northern Oslo powers, Finland, Sweden, Denmark and Norway, have banded together in a solid united front. They have scorned all non-aggression pacts with Herr Hitler and have declared that they only want neutrality. They even went so far as to ignore England's statement that she would guarantee the Scandinavian countries independence.

But this past week when the Oslo powers met there was a break in their united front. All four countries do not have the same German problems. Denmark has only a land boundary to separate her from Germany, whereas Sweden, Norway and Finland have the Baltic Sea between them and Herr Hitler.

Perhaps this is the real reason why Denmark signed a non-aggression pact with Germany while the other three remained politely aloof and coolly declined Hitler's offer of non-aggression. Italy Casts Her Lot With Hitler

Hitler now has four acceptances and four rejections. But the greatest pact of all was signed last week with Italy. This is to be a 10-year treaty. The four parts of the treaty are: (1) Germany and Italy will consult each other on all questions of "common interest or touching the general European situation;" (2) lend each other full political and diplomatic support to eliminate threats to either nation;

(3) give each other military aid on "land, sea, and air" in case either becomes involved in armed conflict; (4) set up permanent axis commissions to deal with problems jointly..

History Repeats Itself

As these pacts are slowly but surely signed the public can go back over a period of some 50 years and see history repeating itself. In the 1890's many of the European powers began making treaties of this same sort. Out of them rose the Central Powers and the Allies. Is the world to see again the desires of central and southern Europe precipitate another International conflict?

Even England is taking her old stand of nurse maid for the weak yet vacillating cautiously to keep a dearly bought peace. History is in the making once more. Will we someday read a book entitled "The Causes and Events Leading to the Second World War," or will we read, "Celebrating 50 Years of Peace?"

Land Re-division Suggested

And what do you think of the Italian statesman who suggested that we re-divide the lands of the world. We would like to know who is to be the official slicer and who is to receive the coveted pieces? Are we going to allow the Big Powers to swallow the little fishes as the college students have recently done, or are the Little Powers to have the joy of slicing up the big ones?

News From Other Colleges

POLITICS

With another national political campaign still far in the distance, collegians nevertheless are giving serious thought and action to what is going to happen to the New Deal in 1940. While most are just speculating on the subject, students in at least two universities have organized to support their favored candidate.

Most collegians feel that Democratic party politics must wait on some definite word from President Roosevelt before definite action can be taken or definite predictions made. The dilemma which faces the president in the months of practical politics to come is aptly put by the University of Kansas Daily Kansan:

"President Roosevelt is caught between opposing viewpoints. He wants business recovery to justify the reforms he has initiated, but he is unwilling, nevertheless, to discard the reforms he has brought about. Whatever course he takes, it is admitted not only by his friends, but also by his enemies, that he will continue to be a compelling factor in the political life of the country for many years."

The current drive to force Vice-President Garner into the nomination spotlight is one of the moves being made to dispel the fog that hides the inner thoughts of the President and the inner workings of the Democratic party. Commenting on the Garner drive, the Syracuse University Daily Orange asserts: "While conservatives urging the candidacy of Garner in 1940 say that he is not in the field as an opponent of the President, they believe the third term tradition will stop Roosevelt and they hope that Garner's popularity will continue to grow so that by June, 1940, he will be accepted by the President. Certainly Garner can not be termed just another one of the silent partners. He has made several good 'catches' on his fishing trips and has been using good political bait."

Turning to the Republican side of the race, the University of Minnesota Daily maintains that "there is considerable foundation for the growing Republican confidence, but there surely is no indication that the G.O.P. has won the election. Returning prosperity, especially in the Middle West farm region, would virtually insure a Democratic victory. The early Dewey boom, too, may hinder G.O.P. plans. Placing Dewey so prominently in the limelight will make him and his faction of the party the target of both New Deal and rival Republican opposition. Future rather than past events will swing the election and decide the outcome of the 1940 political battle."

Meanwhile, students are organizing long in advance for the 1940 campaign. At Indiana University, alma mater of Paul V. McNutt, students have organized the first chapter of the Paul V. McNutt for President in 1940 Col-

FINE ARTS AND SPORTS CLUBS HAVE ANNUAL PICNICS; SENIORS ARE ENTER-TAINED

Members of the Fine Arts Club and their guests were entertained with a picnic at Twin Lakes Thursday, June 1, from 1:30 to 6:30. Club members who attended were Carolyn Folsom, Evelyn Woodward, Janie Ray White, Margaret Burns, Rosalind Lane, Marie Smith, Viva McGeachy, Wilmot Green, Mary Frances Johnston, Louie Peeples, Josephine Graham, Lucille Johnson, Florrie Hines, Angeline Cunningham, Mary Du Bois and Lois Green.

Rotarians

Members of the Valdosta Rotary Club with their wives, entertained the senior class with a picnic at Ocean Pond on May 26.

This is an annual event of the Rotarians and is always one of the most enjoyable affairs of the year. Rotarians drove to the college and drove the guests to the lake. During the afternoon various games and other entertainment features were arranged.

Council Supper

Sports Council members were guests of Misses Leonora Ivey, Elizabeth McRee and Marjorie Carter at Twin Lakes on Friday, April 26. The Sports Council picnic is an annual affair.

Members attending were Annie Adams, Louise Bell, Margaret Burns, Yolande Coppage, Montine Cowart, Harriet Goodsen, Flossie Hedrick, Mary Hudson, C. J. Morris, Marguerite Norton, Anne Parham, Dora Ida Perkins, Sue Pritchett, Ruth Reid, Dody Wilson and Virginia Zachert.

Senior Supper

Senior class members will be the guests of Miss Annie P. Hopper, Dean, and Mrs. Eva Shriville, dietician, at a buffet supper at the Activities House on Friday evening, June 2, at 7:30. The supper will take the place of the Sunday morning breakfast that has been given the seniors in past years.

lege Club. They have formed an organization which will campaign for the formation of chapters on other campuses. For funds for their work, they're charging a 50-cent membership fee.

Oposition to the McNutt organization on the Indiana campus has formed an Eleanor for President Club to work in the presidential interests of the wife of the President. In advocating her nomination and election, the club says: "The members of our group realize that Mrs. Roosevelt probably is the greatest woman in the world today. This realization together with her great knowledge of economic and social affairs, qualifies her for the position of president, and we think she would make an excellent chief executive."

This club, however, is bitterly opposed by a University of Michigan organization that is asking the reelection of the President for another term. The Third Term Club has been set up to campaign in the university and surrounding territory.

News Of Sporting Things

By MARY WILLIAMS

With the year drawing to a close the eyes of the student body are turned to the Sports Club plaque, in order to see in whose able hands it has fallen—Lambdas' or Kappas'. Kappas rejoice to find it in their hands for the first time in two years. Lambdas console themselves with "Wait until next year."

Kappas Take Plaque With Tennis
Victory was topped with defeat of the Lambda team in the final tennis tournament. This match added five more points to Kappas' so making the final number of points 55-40.

AWARDS TO BE GIVEN AT TREASURE HUNT

Deserving sportswomen of GSWC will receive awards at a party given by the Sports Club in the Recreation Hall Saturday evening, May 3. A feature of the entertainment will be a treasure hunt and the party will end with swimming.

KAPPAS

Sawyer To Read At Sock And Buskin Tea

For the June program the Sock and Buskin Club will have its last meeting of the year in the House-in-the-Woods Sunday, June 4, at four o'clock.

Final Meeting of Year

The program will consist of the reading of Maxwell Anderson's play, "Elizabeth, the Queen," by Miss Louise Sawyer. After the reading, the club members will entertain at an informal tea. Each member may invite one person as her guest.

HASH--

"Haw! Haw! Haw!" howled the judge, who had a sense of humor, just before delivering a death sentence, "You'll die when you hear this one."

"Horrible tortures they used on the Orientals, weren't they?" "How come?"

"I've just been reading how they plastered up chinks in the walls."

She used so much make-up he called her his powdered sugar.

"I've got a Sherlock Holmth tooth," lisped Lily.

"What sort of tooth is that?" "'slooth."

"Oh, yes, the girls up at the Pi Phi house are very religious. Every time I walk through the door I hear them murmur 'Ah, men!'"

Chorus girls are never satisfied—they're always kicking.

"What's stranger than a one-armed man winding his wrist-watch?"

"A glass eye at a key hole."

"How much is them plums?"

"Ten cents a peck."

"What do you think I am, a bird?"

Guest: "Am I to sit on your right hand?"

Hostess: "Er—wouldn't you prefer a chair?"

"I can't swim."

"Why?"

"I ain't in the water."

Once upon a time there were 2 Irishmen. There are lots of them now.

NINE BEAUTIES CHOSEN FROM GROUP OF PICTURES

Hollywood came to GSWC when Grace Williams, freshman, was recently selected by Cecil B. DeMille, famous Hollywood producer, to adorn the beauty section of the BOHOMIE, year book of Furman University, Greenville, S. C. Nine pictures of Southern belles were chosen by Mr. DeMille from a group sent in by Furman students, and Grace's was one of the nine selected.

Brother Enters Grace

Her picture, sent in by her brother, Thornton Williams, a student at Furman, appeared with the other eight in the Greenville Piedmont, local paper, last April. The paper stated: "The lovely ladies pictured here adorn the beauty section of the Bohemie, Furman University's year book, which is just off the press. Selected by Cecil B. DeMille of Hollywood, they are truly lovely."

Hard to Believe

Grace, however, was not excited, as her classmates were, who exclaimed, "And she's even prettier than the picture," but she was just as thrilled. "I couldn't believe it," Grace said shyly. "I just couldn't."

Philharmonic Club members gave a program in the auditorium on May 23. Appearing on the program were: Hazel Williams, Mildred Harris, Rosalind Taylor, Ellen Johnston, Eleanor Cook and Eleanor Morgan.

Durrenberger Serves On Committee To Revise Syllabus

ASKED ALSO TO ASSIST WITH UNIVERSITY JOURNAL EXTENSION COMMITTEE

Dr. J. A. Durrenberger, head of the Social Science Department of GSWC, was recently named by officials of the University System to serve on the University Journal Extension committee. The committee is meeting on Friday, June 2, on the campus of the University of Georgia, in Athens.

The purpose of the meeting is to evaluate and map out the program of activities for division of the Journal Extension course.

Revise Frosh Social Science Course

Dr. Durrenberger was also named on the committee to revise the Freshman Social Science course. During the summer the committee will make minor revisions on the present syllabus to be used next year. The plans are that a complete revision will be ready in the fall of 1940. Other members of the committee are Professor C. M. Desler of the South Georgia State Teachers College in Statesboro, and Professor W. C. Chapel of GSCW in Milledgeville.

To Visit McGill University

Following the close of the summer session, Dr. Durrenberger will attend the Carnegie Fellowship Endowment for International Peace at McGill University in Montreal, Canada. He will be present at sessions on international law and will do special work in sociology.

GLEE CLUB SINGS OVER WRUF

Valdostans tuned in to WRUF in Gainesville, Florida, Sunday, and from 12:30 to 1:00 heard the GSWC Glee Club.

Miss Elizabeth Druckenmiller, director of the Club, accompanied the students to Gainesville. The club sang two groups of songs in ensemble, and featured on the program was a group of melodies by the sextette.

Annual Alumnae Day Planned For June 8 At GSWC

GUESTS WILL BE WELCOMED BY READE AND HOPPER

Alumnae of GSWC will return to the campus on June 8 for the annual Alumnae Day. The guests will be welcomed by Dr. Frank R. Reade and Miss Annie P. Hopper.

At 3:30 the members of the Alumnae Association will hold which Mrs. Natalie Williams will preside. New officers will be elected.

Banquet Thursday Evening

At a banquet on Thursday evening, they will be guests of the college. Following the banquet the alumnae will attend the Senior play, to be given in the amphitheatre.

The present officers are: president, Mrs. John Williams; vice-president; Mrs. Curtis Jackson; treasurer, Mrs. William Parmenter; secretary, Miss Vanelle Kendall.

Hat Day Results Frosh Give Party

As a result of the Hat Day contest, the Freshman class, unsuccessful in finding the hat, entertained the Sophomores with a swimming party on Saturday evening. May Howard, president of the class, supervised arrangements for the party. Miss Marjorie Carter assisted in the swimming program.

Relay Races

Opening the program were swimming and diving exhibitions. Following the exhibitions the swimmers were divided into four teams and swam relay races.

Reade Speaks At Albany College

Dr. Frank R. Reade was speaker at the commencement exercises of the Georgia Normal and Agricultural College at Albany on Thursday, June 1. The college is a negro junior college affiliated with the University system.

Plans to Confer on WPA Project

While in Albany, Dr. Reade plans to confer with Mr. W. B. Lamb, supervising engineer of the University system building program, and WPA area engineers with the idea of submitting to the WPA a building project.

The proposed project will include a new heating plant located in the South Woods; an enlarged and remodeled gymnasium including lockers and showers for town students, and a music house to be situated in front of the riding ring on Oak street, including four studios, a small auditorium, and twelve practice rooms.

Ida M. Tarbell, famed biography writer, was the lone "co-ed" at Allegheny College in the class of 1876.

PEEK INTO FUTURE SHOWS EXCITING THINGS

June time is vacation time; and vacation time means play. As summer is here to say, we see everyone dragging out their new jitterbug shirts and colorful shorts to match. Everyone is busy getting out his sporting togs and putting on that ever-so-important new bathing suit. With all the lovely lovely sunburst colors one can hardly resist those beautiful lastex suits. And aren't those new sandals with wedge heels just too 'ducky' for words?

Glance Over the Shoulder

Let's take a peek into the future and see what some of our students are planning to do this summer.

Sis Williams is leaving on the eighth of June for the New York World's Fair. Margaret Burns says she is going deep sea fishing on the Gulf; she is also going to spend a while at the beach.

Grace Van Landingham is going to Miami, where she will go in training as a technician. If she likes it she says she'll stay. From all that we hear, Gracie, once that Miami sand gets in your shoes, it's just too bad for the home town.

Summer School Also Included

Buck and Margie Bruce are going to spend their vacations at their summer home in Menatone, Alabama, and they're taking Gwen Winter as their guest. Marie Williams thinks there is nothing quite so grand as Tybee Beach at Savannah.

Julia Bess Smith is going to the World's Fair with James A. Dasher's party, which is being conducted from Valdosta—Minnie Roberts is going to summer school at GSWC.

Lake Junaluska

Harriet Goodson is going to spend her vacation in the mountains at Hendersonville, North Carolina. Josephine Graham (the smart thing) plans to spend her summer at school at GSWC, and the University of Georgia.

Eleanor Morgan is also going to attend the summer session at our local college. Ruth Morgan is going to GSWC summer school and then she is going to have a good time at Lake Junaluska. Leecy Goodloe is planning to attend a house party at Sea Island Beach. The sign of the periscope and trylon also beckons the Abraham sisters, for Shirley and Jackie are sailing on the S. S. Shownee for New York on the thirtieth of June.
