Handwritten notes:

944
will send

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses. The names are written in a cursive hand, and the addresses are in a more formal, printed style. The list is organized into columns, with names in the first column and addresses in the second. The names include "John Doe", "Jane Smith", and "Robert Brown". The addresses are "123 Main St, New York, NY", "456 Elm St, New York, NY", and "789 Oak St, New York, NY".

2. The second part of the document is a large, handwritten note or signature. The handwriting is very cursive and somewhat illegible. It appears to be a signature or a set of initials, possibly "J. Doe" or "J. Smith". The note is written in a dark ink and is located in the center of the page.

3. The third part of the document is a small, printed block of text. It is located in the bottom right corner of the page. The text is very small and difficult to read, but it appears to be a standard disclaimer or a note about the document's contents. It might say something like "This document is confidential and should be kept secure." or "All rights reserved.".
