

Good morning everyone,

I did not receive any agenda items for our Spring meeting, so I have put together an e-meeting agenda. Please use this agenda for documentation of your engagement in the committee.

January Faculty Senate Meeting Updates

1. Faculty Classification & Compensation Study - A representative from the Carl Vincent Institute of Government at UGA shared findings from the study. A copy of his powerpoint presentation can be found on the Faculty Senate BlazeVIEW site. If anyone does not have access to that site and would like a copy of the presentation, please let me know.
2. Faculty Members from COEHS shared their concerns regarding the guidelines for student class projects provided by the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs. Several faculty senators expressed similar concerns, and a group will be meeting with Provost Smith.
3. The Annual Faculty Senate/COSA appreciation event has been rescheduled for March 8. More details to come!
4. The full agenda and meeting minutes (forthcoming) can be found on the Faculty Senate Website: <https://www.valdosta.edu/administration/faculty-senate>

Black History Month

1. VSU is celebrating Black History Month with a services of engaging educational events. A full list of events can be found here: <https://www.valdosta.edu/afa/documents/events-poster-2019.pdf> Please encourage your students to attend one or more of these great learning opportunities!

Career Opportunities Events

1. Career Opportunities is partnering with JC Penney for a Spring Suitup Event, Sunday, Feb. 10 from 6:30-9:30pm at the Valdosta Mall
2. They are also hosting several career Career Days throughout the course of this semester. See the full calendar here: <https://www.valdosta.edu/student/student-services/career-services/career-days.php>

Other events

1. As we know, there is a plethora of events on the VSU campus and Valdosta community to keep our students engaged. Please encourage your students to get involved!

Future Meetings

1. At this point, the committee will only meet as needed for the remainder of the 2018-2019 academic year. Please let me know if agenda items arise at any point.

Thank you all for your service to Valdosta State University and Faculty Senate.

Thank you,

Jamie Workman
Assistant Professor, Higher Education Leadership
