

TAPE LOG

Name of person(s) interviewed: Ethel Ruth Baldwin

Event: N/A

Fieldworker: Kuanita E. Murphy

Date of interview: Tuesday, April 15th, 2003

Location of interview: at her home in Randolph Heights in Cuthbert, GA

Other people present: Arthur James Knighton, her brother, and her nephew, "Maurice"

Brand of tape recorder: Sony Stereo Cassette-Corder TC-D5PROII

Brand and type of tape: Maxell Audio Cassette Position IEC Type II High Bias XLII 90 Minute Tapes

Number of tapes Used for this event: ONE tape-recorded on one-sided

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF TAPE QUALITY (background noise, etc.):

Good;

SUMMARY DESCRIPTION OF TAPE CONTENTS:

Her experience and recollections about shape note singing in Randolph County

TAPE INDEX COUNTER NO.

SUBJECT

004	Her story of how she learned to sing
027	Demonstrates shape notes
053	"Serving My Lord and King" sung by Mrs. Baldwin
072	Another demonstration of notes
087	Singing schools

*Ethel Ruth Baldwin Interview
Randolph County, Georgia
April 15th, 2003
Page- 1 -*

- 097 #30 in Sparkling Song Book (accompanied by her brother)
- 126 Participation in conventions and when they were held
- 178 Grandpa Simon started conventions in Randolph Co., GA
- 184 Order of Service of Conventions
- 211 Practicing the tradition
- 240 Instruction and Practicing the tradition
- 265 Current churches in convention
- 280 When the tradition began to fade —
- 321 Her thoughts on revitalizing the tradition
- 351 Benevolence Baptist Church's Pastor
- 366 Her knowledge of shape notes/rulerments
- 416 Tape END rudiments