

notes

Spotted Horse story - Dundee

Jim - way back - J. Lee, Jurard, Ralph - all at store - ^{inbred} calves ^{Bennet} fellow Jim - ~~inside~~ outsider on porch, stopping by for cold drink - Jim stops with calves (proud) man gets intrigued thinking how he can make money ~~at a show~~ selling them to the fair in Valdosta after

Jim has one of the men go in to truck load a peanut butter cracker + the calf back up to it. Wearing a hat. Train passes & they dance a bit, then gaze up at the sky.

Jim is proud of them

~~one gets on~~ ^{Dundee wanders to the} rail road ^{sound of train} + one of the local men says you better go get him - Jim goes - cow follows him walking backwards with Jim slapping his rump left right to guide him

- calf wearing cap - Dundee - stranger says why is he wearing cap. "Cold," Jim says. "Burn up in this heat without a cap."

notes

notes - insert

~~Here~~

Miss Sloggy's coming. After her marriage
f R.C."

"Integration is on the way." The stranger said it, but couldn't imagine it.
Not here.