

1933-1934

Virginia Hutchinson,
the president, was unanimously elected ^{as} one official delegate to the conference to be held in Hattiesburg, Miss. and it was moved and seconded that the executive ^{board} appoint two members for the club to vote on for the second official representative to the D. R. Conference.

1934

Miss Price and Rachel Colwell gave reports on the D. R. C. Convention which was held in Hattiesburg Miss.

The President announced that the club would continue to sell candy and rummage for the scholarship fund.

At Miss Price suggestion it was voted that we extend an invitation to ^{the} Department of International Relations of the Wymodauss Club to our December meeting.

A discussion was held in regard to sponsoring a picture show in an effort to continue the scholarship fund. The club decided that each member should sell tickets and arrangements were made for selling the tickets in various places. The picture to be sponsored was "Nans" on May 7, 8, 9.
