

G. S. Woman's College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Members of the alumnae of Georgia State Woman's College who were guests at the college last week were: Miss Annie Lou Stanolon, of Thomasville; Miss Lillian Drake, of Bainbridge; Miss Bobby Booth, of Cordele; Miss Anne Talbert, of Brinson; Miss Edna Durham, of Sycamore; Miss Jewel Drake, of Donaldsonville; Miss Virginia Fraser, of Hinesville; Miss Kathleen Robinson, of Albany; Miss Kate Johnston, of Basser; Miss Willie Belle Sumner, of Poulan; Miss Jane Quarterman, of Moultrie; Miss Myrtle Freeman, of Ogeechee; Miss Lucile Wood, of Bemis; Mrs. M. P. Shingler, of Donaldsonville; Miss Kathryn Sawyer, of Pelham; Miss Lavanna Watson, of Lakeland; Miss Sara Thomas, of Jesup; Miss Jessie Mae Prescott, of Lake.

Mrs. B. C. Gardner, of Camilla, was the guest of her daughter, Miss Annie Lois Gardner, Monday.

Mrs. Bullard, of Nashville, was the guest of Miss Caroline Bullard Monday.

President R. H. Powell, Mrs. R. H. Powell, Miss Augusta Rentz, registrar, and Miss Caroline Parrish, secretary of the Georgia State Woman's College, spent the past week in Atlanta, where they attended a meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the South at the Billmore Hotel.

Dr. H. S. Gulliver, of the English department of the Georgia State Woman's College, gave an interesting talk to the faculty and students Wednesday on "The Abundant Life," and the material and idealistic aspects of it.

The second games of the American ball and volley ball series, between the Phi Lambda and Phi Kappa Athletic Associations, were played on the college campus Thanksgiving morning.

The volley ball game was a victory for the Phi Kappa team, the score being 35 to 19. The line-up for the Lambda team was: Miss Martha Harton, Rome; Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross; Miss Sara Nicholson, Amsterdam; Miss Mary Glover, Valdosta; Miss Pauline Forbes, Valdosta; Miss Blanche Parker, Statesboro; Miss Louise Jackson, Valdosta, and Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Ochlochnee.

Those playing on the Kappa team were: Miss Carolyn Reddick, Polkston; Miss Virginia Clarke, Tampa, Fla.; Miss Lillian Hopper, Euclidale, Miss; Miss Elsie Quarterman, Valdosta; Miss Sara McEachen, Nashville; Miss Modesta Dukes, Coolidge; Miss Mildred Morris, Brinson; Miss Beatrice Willis, Quitman; Miss Joyce Roberson, Jesup; Miss Buford Williford, Moultrie, and Miss Reba Harrison, Boston.

The American ball game again proved a close match, the Kappa team kept a slight lead throughout the game, and won with a score of 14 to 5.

Those playing on the Phi Lambda team were: Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel; Miss Louise Manley, Barwick; Miss Helen Bishop, Unadilla; Miss Sara Emily Ward, Rome; Miss Florence Powell, Griffin; Miss Cleo Griffin, Ochlochnee; Miss Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Miss Louise MacNair, Ashburn, and Miss Sara Wadley, Waycross.

The line-up for the Phi Kappa team was: Miss Ernestine Baker, Pavo; Miss Ruby Swain, Vidalia; Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Miss Carolyn Smith, Albany; Miss Gusie O'Quinn, Jesup; Miss Winona Patterson, Alamo; Miss De Belle Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Alice McCall, Thomasville; Miss Elvira Crosby, Pavo; Miss Mary Dozier, Morven; Miss Ruth Dozier, Morven; Miss Kathleen Gilson, Bainbridge; Miss Josephine Hightower, Jonesboro; Miss Frances Mullins, Baconton; Miss Katherine Stovall, Bainbridge; Miss Frances Taylor, Tampa.

The Home Economics Club held its regular monthly meeting Saturday evening. The following program was given: "Value of Home Economics," Miss Dorothy Lang, of Woodbine; "Broadcasting Home Economics," Miss Ruby McSwain, Vidalia; Reading, Miss Mildred Minchew, Baxley; "Notes of Interest," Miss Winifred Blaum, of Valdosta.

Vesper services were held Sunday evening in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Helen Steele, of Savannah, was leader, and Miss Helen Brasington, of Waycross, spoke on the God-filled life.

Miss Mary Pearson, of Brookhaven, led vesper services Thursday evening. Miss Emiliza Swain, of Rome, gave a very interesting discussion of the life of Mahatama Gandhi, a Nationalist leader in India, working in the interest of world fellowship.

The Fine Arts Club met Tuesday evening, December 2. The various phases of the famous Sophie Newcomb pottery were discussed at the meeting. The club has for sale and display pieces of this pottery, ranging from the lowest in price to the highest.

Instruction was also given on Japanese prints. A handsome Japanese wood block print made by Miss Ruth Carpenter, the sponsor of the club, was displayed. Directions for this type of work were given.

The American Association of University Women held its meeting Thursday afternoon in the rotunda of Ashley Hall, with Mrs. L. R. Scott, Mrs. Joe Holmes, Miss Annie Belle Weaver, Mrs. Earl Phelan, as hostesses. After the business meeting was completed an interesting program was given. "The Fiddle and I," a solo by Mrs. W. M. Oliver, accompanied by Mrs. W. A. Pardee and Miss Gladys Warren, instructors of violin and piano at G. S. W. C. "The Ten Best Plays of 1930," by Miss Lucile Jenkins. "The Ten Best Short Stories of 1930," by Miss Clarice Ivey. After the program a social hour was enjoyed.

The Student Government Association of the Georgia State Woman's College, of Valdosta, Ga., held its regular meeting Friday evening, December 5. Besides the regular routine of the meeting, the feature of the evening was a most challenging presentation of the question "The Importance of Leadership Among Women," by Professor G. W. Beswick, of the education department of the college.

A benefit bridge party, sponsored by the Valdosta Club, was given at the Daniel Ashley Hotel Friday afternoon.

Mr. James Dasher, of the music department, will give an organ recital Sunday afternoon at the First Baptist Church.

The Argonian Literary Society held its regular meeting Saturday, December 6, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. The program, which was based on famous actors, was held after the meeting had been called to order by the president, Miss Quinnie Cormack, of Hawkinsville. The program was as follows: "Life of Moliere," by Miss Frances Mullins, of Baconton; "Life of Edwin Booth," by Miss Pauline Forbes, of Valdosta; "Life of Joseph Jefferson," by Miss Frances Hughes, of Glenville.

The first December meeting of the Sororian Literary Society was held in the Rotunda Saturday evening. Continuing the last program a study was made of noted actors. Miss Mary Dozier, of Morven, told something of the French writer and actor, Moliere. The American actor Edwin Booth, was sketched by Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross. Miss Mary Poole, of Bahoa, told of the life and career of Joseph Jefferson, also an American actor, who became famous as "Rip Van Winkle."

May 24, 1930

ROTARIAN PICNIC FOR THE SENIORS

A Large Crowd Attended the Enjoyable Outing at Ocean
Pond Friday Evening

A PLEASANT PROGRAM

The picnic which was given Friday evening at Ocean Pond for the seniors of the Georgia State Womans college by the Rotary club was probably the most successful outing of the kind the club has ever had, and it was generally agreed that the dinner was the best.

There were about 175 people present, and the dinner was served on long tables under the trees.

Mrs. Joe Holmes was chairman of the committee having the dinner in charge, and she was assisted by quite a large group of "Rotary-Anns".

On account of the indications of rain, the committee had the tables prepared a little earlier than was expected, and the dinner was served at about half past six o'clock.

Beside the members of the senior class and the Rotarians several of the teachers of the college were on hand. The crowd left the college about five o'clock though some of the later cars did not leave until five-thirty.

The invocation was made by Rev. H. M. Fugate, a member of the Rotary club, and the feast began, many of those in attendance getting their plates and finding seats on the running boards of the cars and other places to enjoy it. The largest part of the crowd remained at the tables and enjoyed the repast there. There was plenty of lemonade, and members of the committee kept the cups well filled throughout the evening.

About the time the feast ended, the thunders began muttering and it was apparent that rain was not far off, so the crowd repaired to the club house and a program was given on the wide veranda of that building.

President Dan Breedlove made a short talk to the crowd, explaining the object of the occasion, and made many witty references to the members of the Rotary club. He had his committee of inspectors on hand, and also the entertainment committee. The program was turned over to Rotarian Maxwell Oliver, who was chairman of the entertainment committee, and Maxwell announced the different entertaining features, the first being a most enjoyable reading by Miss Mildred Minchew, one of the college girls.

Then the double quartette sang two or three numbers, and when Jack Lockhart was found, after a long search, he led the singing of a negro melody which convulsed the crowd.

Then came some group singing by the college girls, led by Miss Flannigan. The first was "to the Rotary-Anns", and it was not only original, but it possessed all of the elements of excellence and pep.

As an encore, this group sang a song to the Rotarians, which, like the other, was enjoyed to the fullest extent.

About that time the lightning became so ominous that the crowd went in the club house and dancing and other features were carried on. The committee served ice cream cones during that time and kept the evening's entertainment going until about nine o'clock.

There was not a dull feature of the evening, and there was not a moment when something was not going on to keep up the interest and enliven the crowd.

President Dan Breelove was very happy in the selection of his committees to look after the entertainment, and those committees did their work in a most pleasing manner.

President Dan introduced Mrs. Holmes to the crowd as being chairman of the dinner committee, but she pushed aside the honors and gave them to the other ladies who had helped her. The fact is that all of the "Rotary Anns" sent baskets full of good things to add to the feast.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Field Day Merged Into Play Day

The physical education department and the athletic associations are sponsoring "Play Day" to be held on the college campus March 26. Six girls from the senior classes of fifty neighboring towns have been invited to attend. These girls will be divided into teams, in which they will remain during the competition of the day. Organized games will be held in the morning, followed by a picnic lunch. In the afternoon there will be freshman drill, races, relays, and demonstration American ball and volley ball games, after which the winning team will be announced and its award will be presented.

Sock And Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, March 18. Doctor Buka, of the modern language department talked. She told of her experience as a play goer, and the club enjoyed her discussion very much. A short business meeting was later held.

Student Government President

Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, was elected president of the Student Government association for the year 1930-31, at the election held last Friday. Miss Bullock is a member of the junior class and has always played an important part in extra curricula activities. During her sophomore year she was president of the Argonian Literary society, secretary-treasurer of the Phi Lambda Athletic association and secretary of the Glee club. She was also a member of the council during her sophomore year. This year Miss Bullock is president of the Phi Lambda Athletic association.

International Relations Club

The International Relations club of the Georgia State Womans college held its regular monthly program meeting on Friday evening. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. Miss Louise Holcombe, of Valdosta led a discussion on Reparations. Miss Lillian Patterson, of Cordele, discussed the situations existing in Italy. Miss Dorothy Lile, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, discussed the Naval Conferences, and Miss Louise Johnson, of Valdosta, and Miss Hazel Taylor, of Valdosta, reported on International Current Events.

Vespers

In the vesper services on Sunday evening Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalf, spoke on The Woman of No Importance as one of the Biblical types. Miss Evelyn Deariso, of Sylvester, spoke on the Self Important Woman.

Training School Field Day

The sophomores and seniors were busy the past week with training school field day, which was held on Wednesday. A program of relays, races, and singing games included the boys and girls of the entire training school was given. Each class was represented by its colors in the form of balloons and streamers which added much color to the occasion.

Guest Of College

Mr. F. M. Green of the state department of vocational rehabilitation was a guest of the college Tuesday. He called upon the girls who have received aid from this department. Mr. Green has been a member of the state senate, and is an old friend of G. S. W. C.

Assembly Speaker

Doctor R. H. Powell was a guest of the Adel-Sparks high school at assembly Tuesday morning, March 18.

State Athletic Conference

Miss Margaret Brabham, president of the Phi Kappa Athletic association and Miss Margaret Bullock, president of the Phi Lambda Athletic association attended the state athletic conference held at Agnes Scott college, Atlanta, Georgia, March 22. This is the first conference of this kind that has ever been held in Georgia.

Glee Club At Thomasville

The Glee club presented their excellent concert to an enthusiastic audience in Thomasville, Wednesday, March 19, at the Rose Theatre.

March Issue Of The Branch

The March issue of "The Pine Branch" is off the press. The poetry in this issue is exceptionally good including several poems by Julia Maye Murray, of Waycross, and poems by Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, and Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta. Short stories were contributed by Margaret Bullock, of Adel, Katherine Harrison, of Bluffton, Eunice Seagraves, of Hawthorne, Florida, and Kate Jones, of Riceboro. Essays were contributed by Eunice Seagraves and Kate Jones.

Assembly

Reverend Calhoun, who is holding a revival at the Church of Christ, spoke to the student body and faculty in assembly Monday morning.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The annual picnic of the Georgia State Woman's College and Emory Junior Glee Clubs was enjoyed by the members of these organizations and their faculty directors on Wednesday at Twin Lakes Beach.

The final edition of the Pine Branch came off the press this week. The poetry for this month is especially good, and was contributed by Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta; Miss Julia Maye Murray, of Waycross; Miss Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta; and Miss Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta. Short stories were contributed by Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Helen West, of Gulfport, Miss.; and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro. A very original essay by Miss Marguerite Langdale and three editorials by Miss Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta; Miss Katherine Harrison, of Bluffton, and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, completed the prose work.

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies held a joint meeting Saturday evening, May 17. A play, "The Adding Machine," was given, directed by Miss Mary Jane Littlefield, Folkston. The characters were Miss Margaret Jennings, Waycross; Miss Elizabeth Chance, Quitman; Miss Elma Butler, Donalsonville.

The officers of the year 1930-1931 were installed; the Argonian will be: President, Miss Katherine Harrison, Bluffton; vice president, Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville; secretary, Miss Leta Mac Stripling, Reidsville; treasurer, Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Lilla Alexander, Nashville.

The Sororian officers will be: President, Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, Pelham; vice president, Miss Linnie Mae Hall, Waycross; secretary, Miss Helen Steece, Savannah; treasurer, Miss Phara Elarbee, Calvary; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Mary Jane Littlefield, Folkston.

The new officers for the Phi Kappa Athletic Association are: President, Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; vice president, Miss Jean Loughridge, Odum; secretary-treasurer, Miss Alice McCall, Cairo.

For the Phi Lambda Athletic Association the new officers are: Miss LaVanne Watson, Lakeland, president; Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin, vice president; Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross, secretary-treasurer.

The 1930-1931 officers for the Sock and Buskin Club are: President, Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah; vice president, Miss Mildred Minchew, Baxley; secretary-treasurer, Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville.

The freshman class had charge of the vespers program on Sunday evening. Miss Emily Jennings, Dawson, president of the class, had charge of the program. Miss Emelita Swain, of Rome, talked on the "Heritage of Woman." Miss Frances Mullins, of Beconton, talked on the "Famous Mothers of the Bible." Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, read a poem, "To Mother."

The Valdosta Club of G. S. W. C. gave a banquet in honor of the seniors of the Valdosta High School, Thursday evening, May 15, in the dining room of Ashley Hall.

The guests were informally received in the rotunda by Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club; Mr. T. B. Carroll, president of the senior class; Miss Hopper, faculty adviser of the club; Miss Dorothy Stroud, president-elect of the club; Miss Dorothy Davis, secretary of the club, and Miss Louise Johnson, treasurer.

Miss Hazel Taylor extended a greeting to the guests, which was answered by Mr. T. B. Carroll in behalf of the seniors.

During the banquet, a delightful program was rendered. Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman, and Miss Virginia Mathis, of Ashburn, directed by Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, presented a one-act play, "A Midnight Fantasy." Miss Louise Lastinger gave a reading which was followed by a piano solo, "The Witches Dance," by MacDowell, given by Miss Dorothy Davis. The concluding number was a dance, "Columbine," by Miss Louise Lastinger, Miss Louise McMichael and Miss Myrtle Vick.

The Alumnae Reading Club was pleasantly entertained by Miss Elizabeth McRee at her home on Williams Street Tuesday evening. Individual reports made at this meeting included Pulitzer prize winners, recent biography and travel books, by Miss McRee and Miss Frances Dekle, who will soon leave for Europe to spend the summer.

The Euclidians, the recently organized Math Club, had an enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday evening.

The Home Economics Club meeting had their last meeting of the year on Wednesday evening.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Student Government

The Student Government Association of the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta held its regular monthly meeting in the Rotunda of Ashley Hall on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association of Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments, held at the North Carolina State Woman's College in Greensboro by Miss Mary Alexander, president, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president-elect. After the program Miss Alexander administered the oath of office to Miss Bullock and she will assume her duties at the next meeting of the association.

Awarding of Emblems

At the meeting of the Student Government Association on Friday evening, Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college, awarded G. S. W. C., Emblems to 33 girls. These emblems were awards of merit in extra-curricula activities. The following girls received emblems: Seniors: Evelyn Blanton, Valdosta; Mary Kate Burrows, Valdosta; Evelyn Deariso, Sylvester; Louise Forbes, Valdosta; Dorothy Harper, Ocilla; Marian Laing Glennville; Dorothy Lile, New Philadelphia, Ohio; Catherine McRee, Valdosta; Kathryn Sawyer, Albany; Hazel Taylor, Valdosta; Myrtle Vick, Hartsfield; Lucile Wood, Valdosta. Juniors: Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Margaret Bullock, Adel; Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Bertha Ferrell, Quitman; Katherine Harrison, Bluffton; Roselle Hatcher, Donaldsonville; Margaret Jennings, Waycross; Kate Jones, Riceboro; Jean Loughridge, Odum; Lillian Patterson, Cordele; Joyce Roberson, Screven; Eunice Seagrave, Hawthorne, Fla.; Leta Mac Stripling, Altamaha; Dorothy Stroad, Valdosta; Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Ann Talbert, Brinson; Mary Winn, Savannah. Sophomores: Agnes Jones, Brunswick; Linnie Mae Hall, Waycross; Lillian Lively, Savannah; Annie Lou Stanaland, Thomasville.

Vespers

The Vespers Service on last Sunday evening was the installation of the new cabinet. The processional was "Father of Lights".

During the program the cabinets, old and new, stood to form the Y. W. triangle. The old cabinet member passed her light on to the new member by lighting her candle. "Follow the Gleam" was sung as the recessional.

Assembly

The student body and faculty were entertained in assembly on Monday morning by Miss Ruth Carpenter of the art department. Miss Carpenter told of her trip to Europe, describing in detail the museum at Chantilly and the "Book of Hours."

Literary Societies

The Sororian Literary Society will meet Saturday evening, May 3rd. The following program will be given with Miss Helen Steele of Savannah as leader. "Green Pastures" by Marc Connelly, adapted from Roark Bradford's "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun" will be discussed by Mary Winn, Savannah. Dorothy Chapman, Savannah, will give an interesting discussion of Savannah poets. Joyce Roberson, Screven, will render a piano solo, "Irish Tune from County Darry" by Percy Grainger. Atlanta poets: Earnest Hartsock and his work with the "Bozart" magazine will be discussed by Lillian Lively, Savannah. The concluding number will be a report on the poetry by Alice Brent Whiteside by Nowlan Sirmans, Waycross.

The Argoniah Literary Society will hold its regular meeting on Saturday evening, May 3rd. Grace Chastain of Thomasville will be leader for the evening and a most enjoyable program will be given. "Green Pastures" by Marc Connelly as adapted from Roark Bradford's "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun" will be given by Kate Jones, Riceboro. Atlanta poets: Ernest Hartsock and his work with the "Bozart" will be given by Emily Jennings, Dawson. Leta Mac Stripling, Reidsville, will give a discussion of the poetry by Alice Brent Whiteside. A piano solo, "Irish Tune from County Derry" by Percy Grainger, an American concert pianist, will be played by Joyce Robinson of Screven. Grand Opera in the South, "Cavalliera Rusticana" by Quinnie Carmack, Vienna; "Pagliacci" by Ann Talbert, Brinson.

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the Georgia State Woman's College, gave a talk in chapel Monday on the meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, which met in Atlanta last week.

The Philharmonic Club met in the rotunda Monday evening for its regular monthly meeting. After the minutes of the last meeting were read, the roll was called, to which the first twelve girls whose names were called answered by giving a few significant remarks about some outstanding musicians whose birthdays come in the same months that theirs do. Some composers mentioned were Beethoven, Verdi, Hayden, Chaminade, Mozart, Dvorak and Paderewski.

Miss Margaret Morrison, of Valdosta; Miss Margaret Williams, of Douglas; Miss Madge Ingram, of Cairo; Miss Annie Lois Gardner, of Camilla; Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross; Miss Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines; Mr. K. D. Rentz, of Lakeland, and Mr. Billie Pardee, of Valdosta, were on the program.

The International Relations Club of the Georgia State Woman's College had a program at their meeting on December 9. Miss Mattilu Doss, Valdosta, spoke on several current topics. The imperial conference in Great Britain was discussed by Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross. Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie, gave a book review.

A Christmas tea was given by the senior class of the Georgia State Woman's College Wednesday afternoon. Miss Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, received the guests at the door. Tea was served by Miss Jean Loughridge, of Odum, president of the senior class, and Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross. Others assisting were: Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie; Miss Joyce Roberson, of Screven; Miss Dorothy Stroud, of Valdosta; Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, of Pelham; Miss Evelyn Blanto, of Columbus; Miss Lillian Patterson, of Cordele, and Miss Leta MacStripling, of Reidsville.

The Euclidian Club held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday. After the regular business of the club was finished, Dr. Earl W. Phelan gave a talk on mathematics as applied in the field of science.

A Latin Christmas play, "Christus Parvulus," was given by the members of the Latin classes Sunday evening in the rotunda of Ashley Hall.

Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester, announced the play and gave a brief sketch of each act. Miss Janet Hall, of Sparks, compared Christmas and Roman Saturnalia. The play opened with the prologue which was given by Miss Phara Elarbee, of Calvary. The cast was as follows: Kate Jones, Riceboro, Mary, mother of Jesus; Sara McEachin, Lakeland, first magi; Winona Patterson, Alamo, second magi; Eve Hadden, Valdosta, third magi; Frances Howell, Talladega, Ala.; Frances Mullins, Baconton; Virginia Clark, Tampa, Fla.; K. D. Dentz, Lakeland, and Mary Sue Neal, Cartersville, were shepherds. Florence Smith, Valdosta; Nancy Gill, Valdosta; Virginia Carswell, Waycross, Inez Hatcher, Donalsonville; Velma Miller, Boston; Loyless Williford, Hopeful, and Lois Eubanks, Social Circle, were the angels. Miss Janie Bush, professor of Latin, directed the play.

The Christmas spirit was ushered in at G. S. W. C. last week by the annual ceremony, "The Hanging of the Greens." Miss Margaret Bullock, of Nashville, represented the spirit of Christmas and led the ceremonial. Christmas songs and carols were sung by the Y. W. C. A. choir. Candles were lighted and placed in the windows and wreaths placed above the lights in the rotunda by the following girls:

Miss Harriet Shepherd, Savannah; Miss Mildred Talley, Rome; Miss Evelyn Kennan, Poulan; Miss Margaret Smith, Quitman; Miss Joan Talbert, Colquitt; Miss Sara Nicholson, Amsterdam; Miss Mary Hagan, Valdosta; Miss Mary Poole, Panama Canal Zone; Miss Elnita Culpepper, Fort Gaines; Miss Margaret Bischoff, Savannah; Miss Louise Heath, Quitman; Miss Margaret Easterlin, Thomasville; Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Homerville and Miss Elizabeth Johnson, Surrency. The choir then sang and other wreaths were placed by Miss Reba Harrison, Boston; Miss Dorothy Bryant, Moultrie; Miss Martha Horton, Rome; Miss Lillian Sumner, Poulan; Miss Elizabeth Pardee, Thomasville; Miss Pauline Parrish, Thomasville; Miss Adair Lanford, Tampa; Miss Willie Lee Ray, City; Miss Ruby Nell Wall, Ellaville; Miss Jessie Norman, Waycross; Miss Elizabeth Smith, Quitman; Miss DeDelle Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Carolyn Ward, Jacksonville.

The last games of the American ball and volley ball series were played on the campus of G. S. C. W. Wednesday afternoon. The Kappas won both games, thus winning the series in both sports. The score in the volley ball game was 38 to 17. The Lambdas playing were: Miss Blanche Parker, Statesboro; Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross; Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Ochlocknee; Miss Sara Nicholson, Amsterdam; Miss Louise Jackson, Valdosta; Miss Pauline Forbes, Valdosta; Miss Rosalind Bieller, Valdosta; Miss Mary Glover, Valdosta; Miss Ila Poppell, Homerville.

The Kappa line-up was: Miss Carolyn Readdick, Folkston; Miss Virginia Clarke, Tampa, Fla.; Miss Joyce Roberson, Jesup; Miss LaVerne Arams, Coolidge; Miss Modesta Dukes, Coolidge; Miss Beatrice Willis, Quitman; Miss Elsie Quarterman, Valdosta; Miss Sara McEachin, Nashville; Miss Mildred Morris, Brinson.

The score for the American ball game was 7 to 2, also in favor of the Kappas. The line-up for the Lambdas was: Miss Louise Manley, Barwick; Miss Helen Bishop, Unadilla; Miss Sara Emily Ward, Rome; Miss Florence Powell, Griffin; Miss Louise McNair, Ashburn; Miss Cleo Griffin, Ochlocknee; Miss Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Miss Sara Wadley, Waycross; Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel; Miss Bernice Leggett, Unadilla; Miss Emily Burney, Boston; Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin; Miss Elizabeth Wheeler, Homerville.

Those playing for the Kappas were: Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Miss Ernestine Baker, Pavo; Miss Ruth Dozier, Morgan; Miss Gussie O'Quinn, Jesup; Miss Carolyn Smith, Albany; Miss Winona Patterson, Albany; Miss Ruby McSwain, Vidalia; Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Alice McCall, Thomasville.

One of the most amusing events of the past week was a volley ball game on Saturday afternoon, to which a group of students were challenged by the men of the faculty. Instead of playing by time, as in a regular game, the players decided to specify 100 points as a game, which almost transformed it into an endurance contest.

The girls challenged were: Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Miss Louise Manley, Barwick; Miss Ila Poppell, Homerville; Miss Ruby McSwain, Vidalia; Miss Ernestine Baker, Pavo, and Miss Elsie Quarterman, Valdosta.

The opposing team was Mr. James R. Stokes, Dr. Earl Phelan, Mr. W. W. Everett, Dr. J. A. Durrenberger, Mr. George Beswick and Miss Alice McCall, of Thomasville, who played as substitute, for the only faculty member on the team who failed to arrive on time.

After nearly an hour and a half of hard, exciting playing, the faculty won with a score of 100 to 45. The students, however, were well repaid for their defeat by the laughs afforded by the game.

Nov. 23, 1930

The Journal Cover

Georgia S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Miss Clara Bancroft, of Jacksonville, was a visitor last week at the Georgia State Woman's College and rendered a number of vocal solos.

The International Relations Club met at the House-in-the-Woods on November 13. Miss Dorothy Harris discussed the revolt in Brazil.

Miss Gertrude Gilmer, of the English department, spent Wednesday in Albany on an educational mission.

Miss Janie Bush, of the Latin department, gave a talk Wednesday on "Virgil." Miss Bush spent the past summer in Italy.

Dr. F. C. Quarerman, Valdosta, has been appointed by Governor Hardman to succeed the late Mr. J. R. Dasher on the board of trustees.

Miss Ruth E. Scott, soprano, and Mrs. Frances B. Pardee, violinist, were heard in recital Monday. Miss Scott opened the program with an Italian group of folk songs.

The Sororian Literary Society, which met Saturday, had a program on the life sketches of prominent actresses, living and dead. Mrs. C. K. Beale, of Valdosta, gave a sketch of Eleanor Duse, the famous tragedy actress. Miss Helen Clark, Ashburn, told of the career of the "divine Sara Bernhardt," the story of the Barrymore family, which is supposed to be portrayed in George Kelly's play, "The Royal Family," was given by Miss Katherine Wall, of Ellaville. Miss Clarice Worsham, Meigs, told of the world of Eva Le Gallienne in her New York Repertory Theater.

The Arzonian Literary Society held its meeting Saturday. Miss Quinnie Carmack, of Hawkinsville, presiding. Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, was program chairman. Miss Wylene Whitley, of Fitzgerald, gave an account of Sara Bernhardt's life and career as a world-renowned actress. Miss Minchew gave an account of the famous Eleanora Duse's experiences.

A bazar sponsored by the Fine Arts Club and the International Relations Club was held last week. The exhibits included pieces of the famous Rookwood pottery and American pottery; Japanese and Chinese prints and novelties; costume jewelry, foreign tops and puzzles and games; Russian peasant wood-carvings and other Russian novelties. An interesting exhibit was a table of Russian dolls. These dolls dressed like the people in Russia, every class included, from the peasant to the aristocrat.

The proceeds from the bazar are to be used for the benefit of the clubs. The International Relations Club plans to send a delegate to the International Relations conference at Duke University. The Fine Arts Club gives gifts to the college from the proceeds.

The Sock and Buskin Club had as its speaker last Tuesday evening Dr. Gulliver, of the English department. He spoke on the recent theatrical season in New York, basing his talk on the drama year book, "Ten Best Plays of 1929-30," by Burns Mantle. Illustrating the four main types of drama, he selected "Green Pastures," "The Last Mile," "Strictly Dishonorable," and "Lysistrata."

The Georgia State Women's College is co-operating with the civic clubs and the Carnegie library in observing national book week November 15-22. Over 100 new books for the library have been received. Posters and reading lists of the new books and famous authors have been posted. Miss Lucile Jenkins, of the expression department, had charge of "story hour for children" at the Carnegie library Thursday.

Vesper service, based on world fellowship was the last of a series of talks on this subject. Dr. Durrenberger, professor of history, gave a talk on world peace.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, national traveling secretary for Y. W. C. A., spoke Thursday at vesper. Miss Smith told of the need of a Y. W. C. A. in connection with campus life. Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, was leader.

Dr. W. A. Smart, dean of the School of Theology at Emory University, is the weekend guest of the Georgia State Woman's College. He is holding a series of services in the rotunda of Ashley Hall.

May 24, 1930

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Commencement Plans

The seventeenth annual commencement of the Georgia State Womans College will extend from May 31st to June 4th. The many alumnae of G. S. W. C. who are anticipating a return visit to their Alma Mater during commencement activities will be interested to know that Saturday, according to the established tradition, will be Alumnae Day with the annual business meeting of the Alumnae Association on Saturday afternoon, May 31st in West Hall, and the Alumnae Banquet Saturday evening at the Hotel Daniel Ashley.

Alumnae Day will be followed by the Baccalaureate service on Sunday morning, June 1st, with the sermon by Rev. J. P. Dell at the First Methodist church.

Two one-act plays, The Little Shepherdess by Rivoire and The Slave with Two Faces by Davies, will be given by the senior class on Monday evening, June 2nd, on the Green in front of Converse Hall.

The annual Commencement dinner for the Board of Trustees, the faculty and the students will be in Ashley Hall on Tuesday.

The activities of the week will conclude with the awarding of degrees at the Commencement exercises on Wednesday morning June 4th, at ten o'clock at the Ritz Theatre. Superintendent Ralph Newton of Waycross, one of the most distinguished superintendents of the state, will be the speaker of the occasion.

The summer session of the Georgia State Womans College at Valdosta will open on June 9th.

Valdosta Club Benefit

The Valdosta club of G. S. C. W., gave a benefit bridge party, Monday afternoon, May 19th, at the Daniel Ashley Hotel. Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club, and Miss Dorothy Stroud, president elect, received the guests on the terrace. High score prize a hand painted bridge cover, was won by Mrs. Ed Oliver. Miss Lucile Huey received low score prize a lovely chiffon danced handkerchief. Among the tea guests was Miss Helen Knox Spain of Atlanta and New York.

Recital

Tuesday afternoon the music and expression departments presented the final student recital of the year. The program opened with a quartet, Marche Militaire, Schubert, by Misses Louise Clifford, Valdosta, Marguerite Powell, Griffin, Grace Mitchell, Valdosta, and Carolyn Patrick, Quitman.

day evening May 22nd, and was entertained by Miss Leonora Ivey and Miss Elizabeth McRee of the physical education department. The new council, elected for the year 1930-31 was present. As this was the last meeting of the year it was social and not business.

Seniors Guests of Rotarians

The Annual Rotarian picnic was given for the Sophomore and Senior classes at Twin Lakes Beach on Friday afternoon May 23rd. Outdoor sports, an impromptu program and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. The young ladies of the college feel very grateful to the Rotarians for the entertainment they give each year.

Athletic Association Party

On Saturday evening, May 24th, the Phi Kappa and Phi Lambda Athletic Association will give their final dance in the form of a "barn party." The dining hall will be a merry scene of maidens dressel in over-alls and gingham dresses dancing the Virginia reel and other famous old dances. Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the Physical Education department, will award the Athletic Plaque to the winning association, the Phi Kappa. Miss Ivey will also present Athletic awards to the following: Phi Lambda numerals to Misses Louise Manley, Barwick; Sara Wadley, Waycross; Frances Maddox, Douglas; Lavaine Watson, Lakeland.

Letters to Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross; June Fulcher, Savannah, Eunice Seagrave, Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel; Miss Eunice Seagraves, Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Milwee Minich, Statesboro.

Phi Kappa numerals to Misses Ernestine Baker, Pavo; Ruth Dozier, Morgan; Dorothy Courtney, Valdosta; Ruby McSwain, Vidalia; Buford Williford, Moultrie; Alice McCall, Thomasville. Cups to Dorothy Harper, Valdosta; Margaret Brabham, Moultrie, Elsie Quarterman, Ray City; Virginia Clark, Louisville.

International Relations

The International Relations club of the Georgia State Womans College held its last monthly meeting of the year on Friday evening. Miss Mannie Pope, Valdosta, president for the past year, presented, in behalf of the club, a key of the club to Miss Mildred Price, professor of history and faculty adviser to the club. The oath of office was administered to Miss Margaret Parrish, Valdosta, president-elect, and she assumed her office and led a discussion concerning the plans of the club for next year.

Miss Miriam McMillan, Ochlocknee, sang Belle Bayou, Strickland, which was followed by two piano selections from MacDowell, The Lover and The Witch by Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin.

The first number from the expression department was a reading Witches Loaves, O Henry, by Miss Mildred Minchew of Baxley. A duo, Norwegian Dance, Grieg, by Miss LaVanne Watson of Lake land and Miss Mary Mansfield of Arlington, followed.

Miss Lois Ford of Abbeville gave a voice number, Serenade, Reginald de Koven. A violin selection, Fairy Sailing, Cecil Burleigh, was next, given by Miss Margaret Pardee of Valdosta.

Another piano number was Irish Tune from County Derry, Grainger, by Miss Joyce Robertson of Screven, which was followed by Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan of Waycross with a voice solo, The Brook, Dolores.

A reading, A Pair of Shoes, Hermann Hagelorn, by Miss Louise McMichael of Quitman, and a duo, The Blue Danube Waltzes, Strauss-Evler-Chasins, by Miss Mary Alexander of Nashville and Miss Helen Ryon of Hinesville.

Sock And Buskin

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening. Two one-act plays were given. "Confessions" by A. Conon Doyle, was directed by Miss Myrtle Vick of Hartfield. The characters were: He—Elizabeth Chance of Quitman; She—Lillian Lively of Savannah. "Modesty" was directed by Miss Elizabeth Chance. The characters were: Albert, Margaret Brabham of Moultrie; Henrietta, Mildred Lucas of Cairo; Jack, Myrtle Vick of Hartfield. This was the last meeting of the year. Officers for the year 1930-31 were installed.

Studio Recital

Miss Alimae Temple, instructor in voice, and Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, gave a joint studio recital on Wednesday afternoon, May 31st. The members of Miss Ivey's advanced dancing class who gave individual interpretative dances included Misses Myrtle Vick, Moultrie; Louise Lastinger, Valdosta; Kathryn Sawyer, Albany; Caroline Parrish Valdosta.

The voice numbers on the program were contributed by Misses Miriam McMillan, Ochlocknee; Mary Elaine Flanagan, Waycross; Avrylea Burch, Valdosta; Dorothy Ford, Valdosta; Sara McLeod, Savannah; Lois Ford, Abbeville.

Athletic Council

The Athletic council met Thurs-

Georgia S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Going to college is a matter of giving as well as getting, according to a statement made by President R. H. Powell in a speech to the students of the Georgia State Womans College Monday.

Dr. Lipscomb, pastor of the Valdosta Church of Christ, gave a talk on his trip to Palestine.

Because of the crowded condition of the Georgia State Womans College biology classes, Professor Everett, of the Emory Junior College biology department, will assist Professor James Stokes with his work.

President R. H. Powell spoke Wednesday to the Valdosta Rotary Club on "The League of Nations and Its Relation to the United States."

Mr. Stipe, registrar of Emory University, paid a visit to the Georgia State Womans College while attending to registration at Emory Junior College recently.

The Valdosta Club entertained the faculty, mothers, and student body at a tea Wednesday in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. The guests were received at the door by the reception committee, Miss Marguerite Langdale, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Dorothy Courney, and Miss Louise Johnson. Miss Ruth Scott and Mr. Dasher sang, accompanied by Miss Gladys Warren. Miss Dorothy Davis gave several piano selections. Refreshments were served by Miss Louise Jackson, Miss Pauline Griffin, Miss Pauline Forbes, Miss Laura Lee Jones, Miss Louise Clifford, and Miss Pearl Strong. Miss Dorothy Stroud presided at the tea table.

A meeting of the Fine Arts Club was called Thursday morning. Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd, the president, presided. The purpose of the meeting was to appoint committees. The club has a number of tentative plans for the year. The members have as one of their aims to interest the student body as a whole in fine art work being done in various nations.

Plans are now being formulated to have a speaker at an early date who has made a study of Japanese woodcuts. The Club will have during the year several other interesting speakers and lecturers. There are plans for at least three exhibits for the benefit of the student body. Among the exhibits will be soap sculpture, etchings, and modern pottery. The International Relations Club and the Fine Arts Club will sponsor an international bazaar some time before the Christmas holidays.

Vesper services were held Thursday evening on the campus in front of Converse Hall. The program, led by Miss Mave Winn, of Savannah, was in the nature of a song service.

The first meeting of the Sororian Literary Society was held Saturday evening. A study was made of the 1930 Pulitzer prize awards. Phara Elarbee, of Calvary, gave an interesting account of "Laughing Boy," by Lafarge. Miss Annie Hopper gave a sketch of "Green Pastures," the prize-winning play by Marc Connelly, which she saw in New York last summer. Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester, read some of the poems of Conrad Aiken.

The Argonian Literary Society held its first meeting in the rotunda of Ashley Hall, Saturday evening. The new members took their pledges, after which an interesting program was given on the Pulitzer prizes of the year.

Miss Mildred Jordan, of Quitman, former student of G. S. C. W., was a visitor on the campus Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jennings and Miss Marecee Jennings, of Waycross, were visitors at G. S. W. C. Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brabham, Miss Frank Brabham and Mr. Vernon Brabham, Jr., of Moultrie, were among the Sunday visitors at G. S. W. C.

Judge and Mrs. B. C. Gardner and children, of Camilla, visited their daughter, Miss Annie Lois Gardner, during the week-end.

Oct. 3, 1930

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The fall semester has concluded with very satisfying results, and registration for the spring semester was accomplished more quickly and with less confusion than ever before.

Several new students have registered for the spring semester, and several former students have returned to complete their work. Among the former students who have returned are Miss Margaret Warfield, Savannah, Ga.; Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, Waycross, Ga.; Miss Blanche Prescott, Lake Park, Ga.; Miss Doris Nicholls, Screven, Ga.

Mrs. Induct Kim, of Korea, was on the campus for several days during the past week. Mrs. Kim met several informal discussion groups. The relation of some of her experiences, both in her native country and in America, brought a broader understanding of the peoples of other lands to the student body as a whole.

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies gave a Valentine party Saturday evening, February 1. The dining hall was skillfully decorated with hearts. Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross, president of the Argonian, and Miss Dorothy Harper, Valdosta, president of the Sororian, planned the party. Miss Della Bonner, Vienna, and Miss Quinnie Carmack, Vienna, were on the decorating committee, while Miss Elizabeth Chance and Miss C. B. Sharpe had charge of the entertainment. Throughout the evening the guests enjoyed games and contests. Miss Nancy Rowland won the prize for the prettiest ladies' Valentine costume, and Dr. Gulliver won the prize for the best man's costume.

The Russian Symphonic Choir appeared in concert Friday evening at the Emory junior auditorium. The concert was sponsored by the Philharmonic Club of the Georgia State Woman's College. The concert, of course, was splendid, and received an enthusiastic welcome, as this is the second appearance of the choir in Valdosta. The Philharmonic Club is to be congratulated upon securing such a treat for the music lovers of the city.

The Valdosta Club, of the Georgia State Woman's College entertained the student body and faculty at a "manless" dance Monday evening, February 3, in the dining hall. Mrs. Horn's Orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion. The attendance was splendid.

The President's Club held its monthly meeting at the home of Miss Louise Lastinger, who is president of the Sock and Buskin Club. The purpose of the meeting was the revision of the hand book.

Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, spoke at the council of Home Economics Clubs in Nashville, Ga., Saturday afternoon. Her subject was, "What College Means to the Rural Girl."

The Women's Clubs in Valdosta honored Mrs. W. S. West, Sr., by planting a tree on the grounds of the club house. The students of the Georgia State Woman's College attended en masse.

On Tuesday evening the two athletic associations presented the following:

A loving cup to Miss Lillian Hopper, of Lucedale, Miss., a star member of the Kappa Athletic Association.

A letter to Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta, Kappa, and to Millee Minick, of Statesboro, a member of the Lambda Athletic Association.

Numerals to Miss Mary Morris, of Columbus, Lambda, and Miss Mary Winn, of Savannah, Kappa.

NEWTON SPEAKER AT EXERCISES AS SCHOOL ENDS TERM

Diplomas and Certificates Awarded Today to Graduating Class

Before an audience that filled almost to capacity the auditorium of the Ritz Theatre, diplomas were awarded today to the members of the graduating class of the Georgia State Womans College. The principal address of the occasion was made by Hon. Ralph Newton, and a briefer speech was made, at the presentation of the diplomas, by President R. H. Powell of the college.

Mr. Newton's speech, one of the most effective delivered here in many years, presented the theme of transition in manners and morals, and sought to distinguish between those things that could be altered by a system of society or education and those things which, in their nature, must remain unalterable. The theme of Mr. Powell's speech was the desirability of liberty, and he took occasion to warn the members of the graduating class not to lend themselves to propaganda.

The exercises themselves were unusually beautiful and impressive.

IMPRESSIVE RITES MARK SCHOOL CLOSE

Impressive exercises marked the close of the school and the awarding of the diplomas. Entering the auditorium to the strains of "Alma Mater" as a procession, the young ladies ranged themselves before the platform where the members of the faculty sat.

Following the invocation by Rev. L. R. Scott and a song, "America," by the audience, Miss Dorothy Lile read the class essay.

Miss Lile's essay was a thesis on modern advertising and was thoroughly interesting. Miss Lile who is closing her work here, has been one of the outstanding students of the institution for the four years that she has attended school, and on the eve of graduation was offered a most flattering business connection in Cleveland, O.

Following the presentation of the Rotary medal and two musical numbers, Hon. Ralph Newton was presented as the speaker of the occasion.

(Continued on page Two)

Newton Speaker At Exercises Here

(Continued from Page One)

MR. NEWTON'S SPEECH OF WIDE INTEREST

Declaring that the world was now in a state of transition, when, to the average eye, it seemed that everything was shifting and that those things which in the past had seemed immutable were proven to be mere mutations, Mr. Newton declared that three phases of education and of a civilized life, which should yet be stressed, remained unchanged.

Courtesy, he said, was one. Manners change with the generation, he pointed out, but courtesy remains the most important outward and visible sign of true greatness, and objectively is the aim of education.

Honor, he observed, was the second essential. It was the epitome of things of the spirit and the most essential phase of modern education. True conscious honor, he observed, was to feel no sin, and quoted "He's armed without that's innocent within." Continuing, he observed that a sense of honor was developed. Quoting the great Roman, Cato, he said that it was better "to die ten thousand deaths than wound my honor."

Third in the essentials, he placed a sense of verity. Truth, Mr. Newton declared, was absolute and invariable, and to see the truth and hold to it, wherever it led, was the final goal of an educated life.

PLEA FOR LIBERALISM MADE BY PRESIDENT

In awarding the diplomas to the graduating class, Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college, made a splendid plea for a true liberalism.

Murray, Waycross Ruth Norman, Norman Park; Caroline Parrish, Valdosta; Nannie Pope, Valdosta; Kathryn Sawyer, Thomasville; C. B. Sharpe, Vidalia; Hazel Taylor, Valdosta, Emily Tillman, Valdosta, Myrtle Vick, Moultrie; Lucile Wood, Valdosta.

Professional Diplomas were presented to the following:

Clifford Arline, Cairo; Julia Katherine Bowden, Waycross; Elma Butler, Donalsonville; Virginia Carswell, Ashburn; Elizabeth Chance, Quitman; Vivian Clements, Lumber City; Sara Coachman, Donalsonville; Dura Connell, Nashville; Willie Mae Fletcher, Fitzgerald; Lois Ford, Abbeville; Grace Griffin, Milford; Janet Groover, Boston; Linnie Mae Hall, Waycross; Bertha Hays Camilla; Agnes Jones, Brunswick; Elizabeth Kirkland, Jasper, Fla.; Mary Jane Littlefield, Folkston; Lillian Lively, Savannah; Mildred Lucas, Cairo; Martha McArthur, Valdosta; Mary McCorvery, Elko; Lois Merritt, Ochlochnee; Mildred Muggridge, Cairo; Jorris Nichols, Scrgeven; Emma Peele, Valdosta; Jane Quarterman, Valdosta; Frances Rimes, Ludowici; Martha Rimes, Ludowici; Kathleen Robinson, Albany; Annie Lou Stanaland, Thomasville; Neva Stewart, Valdosta; Nina Treadway, Quitman; Mary Ella Wiley, Cordele.

Non-professional Diplomas were presented to the following:

Annie Louise Beane, Colquitt; Eloise Blitch, Homerville; Sallie Kate Bozeman, Shingler; Catherine Brown, Cloudland; Ethele Castleberry, Ashburn; Virginia Clark, Louisville; Alda DuPriest Sylvester; Myrtice Ford, Abbeville; June Fulcher, Savannah; Mabel Jackson, Alma; Virginia Matris, Ashburn; Milwee Minick, Statesboro; Catherine O'Brien, Lakeland; Mamie Phillips, Quitman; K. D. Rentz, Naylor; Nowlan Sirmans, Waycross; Lavanne Watson, Lakeland.

Personal liberty and loyalty, declared, were the all-controlling policies of the college and principles which it desired to still into the minds of the young ladies of the graduating class.

In the course of his speech Powell made a strong plea the young women never to allow themselves to become the channels for propaganda.

"In every civilization there has been a tendency for self-seeking individuals and interests to rest upon the prejudices and the spirit of the unenlightened," declared. "During the great war we took the undeveloped art of propaganda and developed its sources into a titanic engine. When we look back now to many of the devices used—when we read the statements of many propagandists of how they played upon our passions—we are humiliated that we were such poor and gullible prey."

"But as we are humiliated by the propaganda of war time, what shall we say?" he queried. "of the same devices transferred to a world of peace?"

He cautioned the young women, regardless of the worthiness of the cause, not to be entangled in the net of propaganda, which he said, was beginning to control every phase of national existence and abolishing free speech, free government and a free electorate.

GRADUATES ARE GIVEN DIPLOMAS

Following Mr. Powell's address the young ladies received their various degrees and certificates. The list of those awarded degrees or certificates follows:

The Bachelor of Arts degree was conferred on the following:

Mary Alexander, of Nashville; Olabelle Barber, of Valdosta; Evelyn Blanton, of Valdosta; Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta; Nell Crocker, of Valdosta; Evelyn Deariso, of Sylvester; E. Anthony, Valdosta; Lillian Exum, Walstonburg, N. C.; Louise Fikes, Valdosta; Dorothy Harper, Ocilla; Louise Holcombe, Valdosta; Marian Laing, Glennville; Louise Lastinger, Valdosta; Dorothy Lile, New Philadelphia; Kathleen Little, Ocilla; Catherine McRee, Valdosta; Julia M...

Dec. 22, 1930

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Old English Christmas Festival at the Georgia State Womans College

The Annual Old English Christmas Festival of the Georgia State Womans College was held in Ashley Hall on Friday evening, December 19th. As soon as the guests arrived a jolly group dressed as English peasants brought in the Yule log singing "Ye Yule Song," after which the guests formed in the processional singing "Adeste Fideles." The Lords and Ladies then assembled at the great banquet board, but before the feasting started the boar's head was presented, and the "Boar's Head" carol was sung by "Ye Singers." This was followed by the asking of a blessing pronounced by Dr. R. H. Powell. After the feasting started "Ye Companye" sang "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen."

With colorful decorations, revelry, and all the company in costume, Ashley Hall was the embodiment of a Christmas spirit which the guests and student body will long hold dear in their memories.

The Lord of Misrule, Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, and the one who so successfully trained the students for their parts in the festival, opened the program of activities and directed them by clever old English verse prologues. "The Fool," Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, with jesting ways helped to divert the revels with the Lord of Misrule.

The activities opened with "Frollicksome Funsters," by Certayne Mummings. These grotesque maskers dressed as animals danced and frolicked to the direction of the fool for the amusement of the guests; those taking part were: Misses Winona Patterson, of Alamo; Ruth Dozier, of Morgan; Sara Wadley, of Waycross; Helen Bishop, of Unadilla; Elizabeth Pardee, of Thomasville; Lillian Lively, of Savannah; Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross; Helen Steele, of Savannah; Eva Belflower, of Tifton; Margaret Booth, of Cordele; Frances Mullins, of Baccanton; Eunice Walker, of Brunswick; Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville; Margaret Littlefield, of Folkston; Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, and Carolyn Readdick, of Folkston.

"Ye Singers," the College Glee Club under the direction of Miss Ruth Scott, followed this number with "Hail Old Father Christmas."

bore; Glen Blackwell, of Quitman, Old Dr. Ball; Josephine Lashley, of Vienna, Little Jack; Carolyn Smith, of Albany, Old Dragon.

An Old English Festival would not be complete without "A Morris Dance" by Morris Men with flaunting kerchiefs and jingling bells. The dancers were: Misses Elizabeth Scheider, of Tampa, Marjorie Sessions, of McRae; Sara Nicholson, of Amsterdam; Margaret Smith, of Quitman; Lillian Henderson, of Manor; Ruth Jones, of Adel; Jewel Wurst, of Ochnocknee; Adair Lankford, of Tampa; John Corn, of Valdosta; Florence Powell, of Griffin; Elizabeth White, of Cordele; Mary Poole, of Balboa, Canal Zone; Polly Walker, of Patterson; Maude Hiers, of Lake Park; Helen Carswell, of Waycross; Elizabeth Hiers, of Lake Park; Jessie Norman, of Waycross; Emily Elkins, of Waycross.

Maidens in snowy white depicted the joys of youth in winter with their skating and snowballing. Those taking part in the winter sport were: Misses Essye Alligood, of Cairo; Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Roselle Hatcher, of Donaldsonville; Jean Loughridge, of Odum; Joyce Roberson, of Screven; Leta Mae Stripling, of Reidsville, and Maye de Lois Summerlin, of Pelham.

After the carol, "What Child Is This," there came certain favorites in "The Loves o' Columbine" in which the traditional favorites Harlequin and Pierrot vied for the love of Columbine, who chose neither but flirted with both impartially. Miss Elizabeth McRee was Columbine; Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, Harlequin, and Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, Pierrot.

Certain lords and ladies in powdered wigs, and rich costumes of royal hues, danced the minuet. With smiles and eyes that vied with their sparkling gems the following dancers made a spectacular climax: Misses Frances Johnson, of Surrency; Mattie Allen, of Lenox; Pearl Strong, of Valdosta; Ila oPpell, of Homerville; Aline Tyson, of Ashburn; Myrtice Johnson, of Vidalia; Elwyn Sparks, of Valdosta; Pauline Parrish, of Metcalfe; Anna Frances Ham, of Valdosta; Laura Lee Jones, of Valdosta; Wylene Whitley, of Nashville; Vera Parker, of Waycross; Louise Clifford, of Valdosta; Mary Pearl House, of Homerville; Inez Webb, of Bronwood; Emily Jennings, of Dawson.

don Times" carried a two column write-up with generous excerpts from Thackeray's reviews, found in "The Times" in the 1830's, reprinted in Dr. H. S. Gulliver's book "Thackeray's Literary Apprenticeship," which will be published next year. The recognition of "The Times" given to the identifications of Dr. Gulliver speaks highly for his recent piece of research.

Faculty Who Will Spend Vacation Out of City

Faculty members who will spend the holidays out of the city are: Miss Antoinette Westborn in Washington, D. C.; Miss Janie Bush at her home in Barnesville; Miss Leonora Ivey at Boston; Dr. H. S. Gulliver in Miami; Miss Nellie Gill at New Orleans; Miss Lillian Johnson in Nashville, Tenn.; Miss Mildred Larsen at Menlo, Ga.; Miss Annie P. Hopper, Miss Lillian Hopper and Miss Iva Chandler, a motor trip through Florida; Miss Helen Board, to Bowling Green, Ky.

Miss Elizabeth Pugh Carr, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Carr, of Greenville, S. C., will be the house guest of Miss Camm Campbell at her home on Williams street during the holidays.

"Gifte Surprises" by "Certayne Young Gyrls and Boyes," was the next feature dance. The dancers were three little boys of long ago who brought gifts each to his sweetheart. They teased the girls by taking back each gift after presenting it, but finally made up by giving their own hearts; those taking part were: Misses Margaret Sumner, of Poulman; Dorothy Davis, of Valdosta; Emily Hallyburton, of Griffis; Louise Jackson, of Valdosta; Mattie Lou Doss, of Valdosta, and Margaret Williams, of Waycross.

"Certayne Mummings" arrived dressed in costumes of the Lutterworth Players and gave as their production the "Lutterworth Christmas Play." Miss Louisa Heath, of Quitman, was the King of England; Sara Emily Ward, of Rome, Prince George; Ge Delle Brabham, of Moultrie, Captain Slasher; Clarice Worsham, of Meigs, Turkish Champion; Helen Clerk, of Ashburn, Noble Doctor; Willene Roberts, of Valdosta, Beelbeub, and Lonie Shingler, of Donalsonville, a clown. The beautiful Old English Carol, "Good King Wincelas," was sung by "Ye Syngers." The solo parts in the carol were sung by Misses Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, and Margaret Williams, of Douglas.

Shepherds and sheperdesses in "Ye Olde English Pastorale" tripped into the Feast Hall and gave a merry dance. Those taking part were: Misses Margaret Warfield, of Savannah; Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester; Virginia Carswell, of Waycross; Dorothy Chapman, of Savannah; Helen Harrell, of Valdosta; Pauline Griffin, of Valdosta; Evelyn Blanton, of Columbus; K. D. Rentz, of Naylor; Blanche Prescott, of Lake Park; Dorothy Harris, of Valdosta; Alice Hicks, of Metcalfe; Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta; Mrs. Carrothers, of Valdosta, and Minnie Richardson, of Valdosta.

"Ye Syngers" gave another Christmas Carol, "We Three Kings of Orient Are." The solo parts were taken by Misses Dorothy Ford, of Valdosta; Margaret Morrison, of Valdosta, and Madge Ingram, of Vienna. "Certayne Maskers" then entered and ably produced the well known play "Saint George and the Dragon." Miss Louise McNair, of Ashburn, was Old Father Christmas; Berenice Leggett, of Unadilla, was St. George; Elnita Culpepper, of Fort Gaines, King Alfred; Katherine Stovall, of Bainbridge, King Alfred's Queen; Josephine Hightower, of Clayton, King William; Margaret Easterlin, of Thomasville, Old King Cole; Dorothy Patterson, of Moultrie, Giant Blunder-

The young ladies who danced in the various groups were trained by Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, and Miss Elizabeth McRee, assistant and the students showed exceptional grace and charm.

With "Ye Companye" singing "Silent Night," the guests formed in the impressive Candlelight Recessional. After this came a general exchange of Christmas greetings and wishes for the New Year before the students left for their homes.

This Old English Festival dates from the first Christmastide of the College, and was instituted in the desire to enrich the life of the students by leading their emotions to flow in the deep channels of social customs which come from the joyful infancy of our people; the festival has come to be one of the most enjoyable and characteristic events on the college calendar at the Georgia State Womans College at Valdosta.

Christmas Pageant at Vespers

A Christmas pageant was presented Sunday evening in the Rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Essye Alligood, of Cairo, religious chairman, directed the play. Miss Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville, was the narrator. Miss Dorothy Lang, of Woodbine, was Mary, the mother of Jesus, and Miss Blanche Parker, of Sylvania, Joseph. Shepherds and angels were: Misses Emily Hallyburton, of Griffin; Margaret Littlefield, Folkston; Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Virginia Clark, Tampa; Verda Vandalingham, Cairo; Elizabeth Scheider, Tampa; Carolyn Smith, Albany; Margaret Williams, Cordele; Madge Ingram Vienna; Kathleen Hurst, Cairo; Mary Elaine Flanagan; Waycross; Josephine Lashley, Vienna; Glen Blackwell, Quitman; Emily Burney, Boston, and Pauline Ryon, Hinesville.

Dr. Powell at Assembly

There are three types of students who go to college, according to President R. H. Powell, of the Georgia State Womans College, in a talk made to the student body recently. There are the students who wish to obtain a cultural education; those who are studying for a profession; and the "super-kindergarteners." The latter, said Dr. Powell, are those who go to college for a good time, and for nothing else. "We hope that we have none of that type here," he concluded. "This school is for the student with a purpose—for the student who earnestly desires a cultural or professional education, or both."

Dr. Gulliver's Research Reviewed

A recent number of "The Lon-

Shingler-McArthur Marriage Oct. 25th

Nov. 3, 1930

Many friends in this city and section will be interested in the announcement of the marriage of Miss Martha McArthur to Mr. Morrison Shingler in today's Times.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. McArthur, and is a most attractive young woman, possessing many womanly qualities. She is a graduate of the Georgia State Womans College and for some months has been engaged in teaching.

Mr. Shingler is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Shingler, of Donaldsonville. He attended Trevecca Academy at Nashville, Tenn., and Emory University, Atlanta, and is prominent in business and civic affairs. He is engaged in diversified farming and also in mercantile business.

After spending a few days in Savannah with their sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Pinckney Shingler, Mr. and Mrs. Shingler will be at home to their friends in their apartment on West Cranford street, Donaldsonville.

The G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The October issue of the Bulletin of the American Association of University Professors notes the election to membership in this organization of the following members of the faculty of the Georgia State Woman's College: Professor James R. Stokes, Dr. Lena J. Hawkes, Professor Gertrude Gilmer and Miss Lucile Jenkins. This association, now including over 8,000 members from 341 universities and colleges, aims to promote the interests of higher education, to increase its usefulness, and to advance its standards and ideals. A local chapter has been formed at the Georgia State Woman's College and these officers elected: President, Dr. H. S. Gulliver; secretary, Professor Gertrude Gilmer.

After highly competitive try-outs by a large majority of the Glee Club members, the following girls were chosen for the double quartet: Miss Hazel Allen, of Valdosta; Miss Mary Flanagan, of Waycross; Miss Margaret Williams, of Douglas; Miss Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines; Miss Ethel McSwain, of Lyons; Miss Mary Poole, of Balboa, Canal Zone; Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome; Miss Elizabeth Pardee, of Thomasville. The quartet will make several public performances during the year.

The first regular meeting of the Fine Arts Club was held in the clubhouse on Tuesday evening. Informal dancing was enjoyed the early part of the evening. This was followed by the initiation of the new members. One feature of the initiation was a caricature drawing contest. Each new member proved herself a desirable member of the club by drawing some other member as the world sees her.

Another difficult, yet amusing contest, was a soap sculpture test. Each candidate for membership was asked to carve some piece of "art work" from a small piece of soap. Following the initiation of new members, a regular business meeting of the club was held. The constitution was read and the new members pledged their allegiance to abide by it. The general program for the year as outlined by the president of the club, Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd.

Vesper services were held Sunday evening in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, was the leader for the evening. Miss Mary Flanagan, of Waycross, gave a song, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," by Sparks. An inspirational talk on the singing towers of Europe was made by Miss Annie F. Hopper, dean of women.

Thursday evening vesper services were led by Miss Blanche Prescott, of Lake Park. Dr. Fugate, pastor of the First Baptist Church, gave an inspirational talk to the group.

SOC SUN ADD COLLEGE ... .. 9%—1.

The Student Government Association, of G. S. W. C., entertained with a tea Wednesday afternoon, October 29, in the rotunda.

The Valdosta Club was entertained Friday evening by Miss Dorothy Stroud, president of the club, at her home on Foombs Street. During the earlier part of the evening social and business plans for the year of '30-'31 were discussed; the duties of each member, and of the club as a whole, was explained by Miss Stroud. Miss Sue Pendleton, Miss Hazel Allen and Miss Dorothy Courtney assisted.

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies held their first joint meeting of the year Saturday evening. The class in play production from the vocal expression department presented a modern one-act comedy, "Poor Aubrey," by George Kelley. This was the first of a series of plays to be presented during the year illustrating the four main types of drama, tragedy comedy farce, melodrama. Aubrey, the husband, was played by Anna Francis Ham, of Valdosta. Amy, the wife, was taken by Margaret Littlefield, Folkston. The mother-in-law, Mrs. Fisher, was played by Margaret Williams, Waycross. Mrs. Cole, a friend, by Kathryn Wall, of Ellaville. The play was directed by Elizabeth Kirkland, Sylvester.

Miss Kathleen Robinson, of Albany, former student at G. S. W. C., was a visitor on the campus recently.

Miss Mary Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., who attended G. S. W. C. last year, spent the week-end in Valdosta.

Miss Myrtle Mae Head, of Douglas, was the guest of friends at G. S. W. C. last week-end.

Miss Frank Brabham, of Moultrie, was the guest of her sisters, Miss Margaret and Miss Gedella Brabham during the past week.

Miss Kathleen Little, of Ocilla, member of the class of 1930, was in Valdosta for the week-end.

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The Presidents' Club, a club composed of presidents of organizations on the campus, held its first meeting of the year 1930-31, Friday, October 17, in the "House in the Woods." The meeting was called to order by the president of the Student Government Association, Miss Margaret Bullock. The presidents representing their organizations were: Student Government Association, Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel; senior class, Miss Jean Loughridge, of Odum; junior class, Miss Virginia Carswell, of Waycross; sophomore class, Miss Virginia Clark, of Tampa, Fla.; Argonian Literary Society, Miss Quinnie Carmack, of Hawkinsville; Sororian Literary Society, Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, of Pelham; Phi Lambda Athletic Association, Miss Lucius Bedell, of Woodbine; Phi Kappa Athletic Association, Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie; Y. W. C. A., Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan; Philharmonic Club, Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross; glee club, Miss Kathleen Hurst, Cairo; I. R. C., Miss Margaret Parrish, of Valdosta; Valdosta Club, Miss Dorothy Stroud; Sock and Buskin Club, Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah; Fine Arts Club, Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd, of Valdosta; Pine Cone, Miss Roselle Hatcher, of Donaldsonville; Pine Branch, Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin; Math Club, Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville; Home Economics Club, Miss Margaret Littlefield, of Folkston. After a short business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed.

As a result of the Dramatic Club try-outs held last week, the following girls were elected members of the club: Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross; Miss Wynona Copeland, Miss Willene Roberts, Miss Mary Virginia McKey, Miss Winona Parrish, Valdosta; Miss Katherine Stovall, Bainbridge; Miss Myrtice Johnson, Vidalia; Miss Margaret Smith, Quitman; Miss Katherine Wall, Americus; Miss Frances Howell Tifton, and Miss Helen Steele, Savannah.

The seniors and sophomores of G. S. W. C. at last have had the poor freshmen and juniors at their command. Having won the drive for subscriptions to the college monthly, the Pine Branch, by a percentage of 78 to 48, the sophomores and seniors were dictators for one whole day, Friday, October 10. The juniors were forced to give way to the sophomores, and were requested to appear in uniform again. Numerous other activities were exacted of the freshmen and juniors during the course of the day.

Vesper services were held Sunday evening, October 12, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Virginia Clark, of Tampa, was leader for the evening. Miss Jean Loughridge, of Odum, talked on "The Love Life." Miss Emily Hallyburton, of Griffin, led vesper services Thursday evening, October 16. The program was as follows: Solo, by Miss Madge Ingram, of Vienna; talk on "The Prayer Life" by Miss Lucius Bedell, of Woodbine.

The Euclidian Club had its first meeting on Friday. A nominating committee was appointed by the president, Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, to nominate officers for this year. Members of the club are: Miss LaVerne Adams, Coolidge; Miss Carolyn Bullard, Nashville; Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Miss Pauline Forbes, Valdosta; Miss Martha Horton, Rome; Miss Alice McCall, Cairo; Miss Sara McEachin, Nashville; Miss Lillian Patterson, Cordele; Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin; Miss Nelle Robinson, Nichols; Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Ochlocknee; Miss Elizabeth Wright, Rome; Miss Grace Donahue, Valdosta.

The Sororian Literary Society, which met Saturday evening, had a very interesting program based on the life and works of the British poet laureate, John Masefield. Miss Frances Howell, of Tifton, gave an account of "Chaucer's Influence on Masefield's Poetry." One of his most outstanding poems, "Everlasting Mercy" was read by Miss Florence Powell, of Griffin. "The Tragedy of Nan," one of his prose plays, was given by Miss Virginia Carswell, of Waycross.

The Argonian Literary Society held its meeting Saturday evening in the rotunda. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Quinnie Carmack, of Hawkinsville. The program was based on John Masefield, poet laureate of England. Miss Blanche Parker, of Ogeechee, gave "Chaucer's Influence on Masefield." Two poems were reviewed: "Everlasting Mercy," by Miss Elizabeth Wright, and "The Dauber," by Miss Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville. The prose play, "The Tragedy of Nan," was reviewed by Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome.

The October meeting of the Philharmonic Club was held in the rotunda Monday evening with the president, Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, presiding. After a few words of welcome by Miss Flanagan to the new girls. The minutes were read and the program plans for the coming year discussed. Following the election of Miss Jeannette Hall, of Sparks, for vice president for the year three musical numbers were rendered, "Witches' Dance" (MacDowell), Miss Louise Clifford; "Morning" (Oley Speaks), Miss Mary E. Flanagan; "Autumn" (Chaminade), Miss Helen Ryon. New girls who officially became members of the club at this meeting were: Miss Hazel Allen, Valdosta; Miss Dorothy Crocker, Valdosta; Miss Dorothy Ford, Valdosta; Miss Carolyn Bullard, Nashville; Miss Louise Heath, Quitman; Miss Margaret Morrison, Valdosta; Miss Mildred Minchew, Baxley; Miss Elizabeth Thompson, Ochlocknee; Miss Jimmie Arnold, Fort Gaines; Miss Clarice Worsham, Meigs; Miss Lillian Henderson, Manor; Miss Annie Lois Gardner, Camilla; Miss Adair Lankford, Tampa, Fla.; Miss Madge Ingram, Vienna; Miss Margaret Williams, Douglas; Miss Mary Poole, Balboa Canal Zone; Miss Madge Swain, Pinehurst.

The student finance committee of the Georgia State Woman's College, made up of the president and treasurer of each student organization, held a meeting Friday to discuss financial problems and the keeping of the books of the various organizations.

Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the Georgia State Woman's College, has been attending meetings of various high school conferences in south Georgia during the past week. These meetings were held in order that school officials might have an opportunity for discussing problems. Dr. Powell attended a meeting of the Eleventh District at Blackshear on October 11, a meeting of the Second District in Quitman on Monday, where he was accompanied by Dr. H. S. Gulliver, of the English department; and made a visit to Nashville High School on Oct. 14. Miss Gertrude Gilmer, of the English department, accompanied Dr. Powell on a visit to Cordele High School on Wednesday.

Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, attended a school rally at Stockton, Ga., on Saturday.

The International Relations Club, of the Georgia State Woman's College, held a meeting on October 14, in the House in the Woods. The topic under discussion was "Our Interests Abroad," and the chief speakers for the occasion were Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, and Miss Antoinette Westborn, of the modern language department.

The D. A. R.'s of Valdosta met Friday, October 17, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, in the Woman's Building. Miss Ola Barber was leader for the afternoon. The program was taken from the subject, "Savannah, the Mother Colony." Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women at G. S. W. C., gave a most interesting talk on "The Historical Sketch of Savannah." Miss Roselle Hatcher, of Donaldsonville, a student of G. S. C. W., chose as her subject, "Historic Spots in Savannah." Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah, and a student at G. S. C. W., gave an interesting account of the historic churches of Savannah.

Miss Rahael Blackwell, of Quitman, was the week-end guest of her sister, Miss Glen Blackwell, at G. S. C. W.

Miss Emily Fluker, of Quitman, was a visitor at G. S. C. W. Sunday.

Miss Bertha Ferrell, who is teaching school at Perry, Fla., was the guest of Miss Evelyn Blanton, of Columbus.

Miss Milred Lucas, who is teaching the first grade in Cairo, was a visitor on the campus Sunday.

Mrs. G. S. Sumner, of Poulan, was the guest of her daughter, Miss Margaret Sumner, at G. S. C. W. Sunday.

Mrs. W. Bryant, of Moultrie, spent Sunday on the campus.

Old English Festival At Woman's College

The students and faculty of the Georgia State Woman's College are making preparation for the old English festival which will be given next Thursday evening, December 19, at the college. This feature of the college calendar will close the school work for the holiday vacation.

The old English festival, which is a reproduction of Christmas events in the old days in merry England, is one of the prettiest events of the kind that it is possible to reproduce, and it is one of those classics that usher in the Christmas season with a spirit that is both charming and lasting.

It is not only an event of inspiration for the young ladies who participate in it and who witness it, but it is an occasion that brings a better feeling to the older people of the college faculty and the friends who are fortunate enough to enjoy it.

May 28, 1930

Board Of Trustees In Annual Meeting

The Board of Trustees of the Georgia State Woman's College began its annual meeting on Tuesday, May 27th, by having dinner with the students of the College in Ashley Hall.

The members of the Board who were present included, Chancellor C. M. Snelling of Athens, Georgia; Judge W. E. Thomas, Mr. J. Y. Blitch, Mrs. A. J. Strickland, Mr. J. Robert Dasher, Mr. E. E. Dekle, Mr. J. F. McCrackin, of Valdosta; Mr. B. D. Purcell of East Point, Ga.; Mrs. J. L. Walker of Waycross; Mr. S. Morton Turner of Quitman, and T. B. McDowell of Blakely.

After an enjoyable hour with the students, the board settled down to business in the board room of West Hall. The annual meeting this year was a week in advance of the regular meeting in order to the better consider conditions brought about by the state being in arrears with its payments to the College; but so thoroughly was the board in accord, and in such fine condition were the affairs of the College, that the board was able to come to an understanding in regard to the affairs pertaining to the institution and dispense with the regular meeting next week.

The new committees from the boar were elected for the next year as follows: The executive committee: Jas. F. McCrackin, J. R. Dasher, Mrs. A. J. Strickland, Louis S. Moore and S. M. Turner.

The finance committee: E. E. Dekle, J. Y. Blitch and Jas. F. McCrackin.

The board of trustees of The Georgia State Woman's College, as a board, and the individual members, were very cordial in their praise, both of the general administration, and of the finance committee which has so well served the College during this trying year.

Georgia State

VALDOSTA.—There was an all-but-perfect return of the students after the Christmas holidays for all except one had returned by Monday morning. The girls returned to work with renewed zest after their pleasant vacations.

The Christmas holidays were employed this year, as usual, in making all necessary repairs in the college. Major repairs were made in the heating department.

The Pine Cone, the college annual, won an All-American honor rating in the National Scholastic Press Association which just concluded the grading of books at Minneapolis, Minn. This is the highest honor an annual can win, and the news was enthusiastically received by students and faculty.

Dr. R. H. Powell attended the memorial exercises for ex-Chancellor Barrow in Athens on Saturday, January 11.

Rev. Richard W. Wallace spoke to the student body at chapel Wednesday, January 8. His talk might be called a farewell talk as Rev. Wallace is leaving for Lynchburg, Va., in the near future.

The Student Government Association held its first meeting of the new year Friday evening, January 3, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall.

The meeting was opened with the singing of "The Pine Branch," after which the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Miss Lillian Hopper, of Lucedale, Miss., gave a talk on "Woman and Citizenship." This was followed with a talk by Miss Kathryn Sawyer, of Albany, on "Women in Government."

The meeting was closed with a plea for citizenship through student government, made by Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the Student Government Association.

Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross, was leader of vesper service last Sunday evening. Miss Anne Talbert, of Brinson, president of the Y. W. C. A., was the speaker of the evening. Her talk was on ways in which college girls could make the year worth while.

The Presidents' Club held a business meeting Wednesday evening in the English room of West Hall.

The sophomore class entertained the faculty and the student body at tea on Wednesday afternoon in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Agnes Jones, of Brunswick, and Miss Ethel Castleberry, of Ashburn, presided over the tea table. Miss Nellie Kate Bozeman, of Shingler; Miss Jean Stokesbury, of Savannah; Miss Trixie Willey, of Cordele, and Miss Mary Jane Littlefield, of Folkston, assisted in serving. Miss Janet Groover, of Boston; Miss Mary Mansfield, of Arlington, and Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, of Jasper, received the guests.

The two athletic associations began practice this week in soccer and basketball.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. A class in make-up was conducted by Miss Lucelle Jenkins, head of the expression department.

The Valdosta Club of the Georgia State Woman's College held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday, January 7, at the "House in the Woods." After the luncheon, which was served by Miss Marguerite Langdale, Miss Lucile Wood, Miss Dorothy Lile and Miss Dorothy Stroud, Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club, called the meeting to order. Miss Dorothy Davis, secretary, called the roll, and read the minutes of the previous meeting. Miss Louise Johnson, treasurer, gave a report on the finances of the club, which proved satisfactory. The president announced that the club would sponsor a dance February 8. Miss Mary Wyche McRee, Miss Louise Jackson and Miss Louise Clifford were appointed on the dance committee. In conclusion Miss Hopper, faculty adviser, read a new year's message to the club.

letic As. . . . . chapter on Monday for the purpose of electing a president to fill the vacancy left when the president-elect did not return. Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, vice president of the association, called the meeting to order and explained its purpose. The report of the nominating committee, selecting Miss Lucius Bedell, of Woodbire, was given, and unanimously accepted by the members of the association.

Technique practice in American ball and volley ball was held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of last week in order that the new girls might gain some knowledge of the games before organized practice begins this week.

Miss Quinnie Carmack, of Hawkinsville, has been elected president of the Argonian Literary Society for the year 1930-1931.

The Pine Cone staff for 1930-1931 met Tuesday afternoon. Work for the annual was planned and discussed. Miss Roselle Hatcher, editor-in-chief, appointed the following staff: Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross, business manager; Miss Kate Jones, Riceboro, literary editor; Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, Pelham; feature editor; Miss Evelyn Blanton, Columbus, snapshot editor; Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville, activities editor; Miss Mary Winn, Savannah, and Miss Dorothy Stroud, Valdosta, advertising committee; Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd, Valdosta, Miss Margaret Parrish, Valdosta, Miss Pauline Griffin, Valdosta, and Miss Etta Giddens, Arlington, art committee.

Friday evening the Sendent Government Association, of the Georgia State Woman's College, held its regular meeting in the rotunda. The outstanding part of the meeting was an interesting discussion of the Passion Play, by Mrs. A. J. Strickland, of Valdosta, who attended the play during a recent visit in Europe.

The party given by the Phi Kappa and Phi Lambda Athletic Associations, in honor of the new girls and new faculty members, was held on Saturday evening. All members of both associations, together with those not yet members, met in the rotunda.

The state owes the Georgia State Woman's College in Valdosta, $56,250 in unpaid appropriations for 1929, according to a bulletin from the University of Georgia on the fiscal position of Georgia. The college enrolls its capacity of students every fall. If it were possible to obtain the appropriations owing this school, it could develop and improve its capacity of students every fall. If it were possible to obtain the appropriations owing this school, it could develop and improve its service.

In an informal talk made to the student body of the Georgia State Woman's College Monday, President R. H. Powell urged the students to take good sportsmanship as their ideal to carry them through school and life. Dr. Powell compared good sportsmanship to the old ideal of knightliness and the ideal of Christianity.

The executive committee of the Georgia State Woman's College, at Valdosta, held a meeting on Wednesday.

A number of the faculty members of the Georgia State Woman's College attended the meeting of the Valdosta Wymodausis Club at the Woman's Club Wednesday afternoon.

A large number of the student body of the college attended the Valdosta Church of Christ Sunday evening, where Dr. Lipscomb showed slides of his trip to Palestine, and scenes taken from the Passion Play in Oberammergau.

Oct. 12, 1930

Field Day Merges Into Play Day At G. S. W. College

Field Day will be merged into Play Day and will be a characteristic part of the activities at The Georgia State Womans college on Wednesday afternoon March 26. The public is invited to see the mass demonstration work including folk dances, drills, marches and relays, which the young ladies of the college will give at 3:30 o'clock.

The physical education department under the direction of Miss Leonora Ivey and her assistant, Miss Elizabeth McRee, and the athletic associations are introducing a new feature, Play Day, into the college calendar this year. Play days are comparatively new in the field of physical education, and especially in this section of Georgia.

The guests of the college for the entire day will include six outstanding girls from the senior class of some fifty high schools in motoring distance of the college. These high school guests will be accompanied by the superintendent of the high school and the woman coach or a faculty member.

In the morning of the Play Day the high school girls and the students of G. S. W. C., will be divided into teams, with no two girls from the same town or school playing on the same team. Various sports will be played, including basketball, tennis, and clock golf.

In the afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock, there will be the mass demonstration to which the entire public will be guests of the college.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

College Annual Distributed

The Georgia State Women's College annual The Pine Cone, came from the press the first of the week and were distributed by the staff at assembly period on Wednesday morning. The theme for the annual this year is an interpretation of a phrase about the Georgia State Woman's College used by the late Chancellor Barrow, "Georgia's fairest gift to her daughters." The senior class in the art and literary work interpreted this gift as an Anglo-Saxon heritage.

The staff under the direction of the Editor-in-Chief, Miss Louise Forbes of Valdosta, deserve much credit for the artistic book which in many respects is the best one published, and the annual of last year won All-American Honor Rating. The following students assisted Miss Forbes in the successful publication: Miss Dorothy Harper of Ocilla, business manager; Miss Lois Sharpe of Vidalia, assistant editor; Miss Mary Kate Burrows of Valdosta, literary editor and chairman of the art committee; Miss Catherine McRee of Valdosta, feature editor; Miss Dorothy Lile of New Philadelphia, Ohio, and Miss Lucile Wood of Valdosta, advertising managers; Kathryn Sawyer of Albany, activities editor; and Miss Lillian Exum of Walstonburg, N. C., snap shot editor.

Philharmonic Club

The Philharmonic Club of G. S. W. C., met Monday evening, May 5, in the Rotunda for the first meeting of the year. The public was invited to the program, which began with a piano solo by Miss Marguerite Powell of Griffin, who gave The Witch by MacDowell. Miss Gladys Fouche of Poulan, presented current events, which was followed by a voice selection, Roses Softly Blooming, by Spoke, rendered by Miss Mary E. Flanagan, of Waycross. A current event followed by Miss Nowlan Simons of Waycross. Miss Ora Johnson of Valdosta, from the violin department gave The Swan, by St. Saens. A current event by Miss Lavanne Watson of Lakeland was followed by the concluding number, Ballade in A Flat by Chopin, given by Miss Mary Alexander of Nashville.

Valdosta Club

The Valdosta Club of G. S. W. C., met Tuesday, May 6, for lunch in the "House in the Woods," the final meeting of the year. After a luncheon served by Miss Louise Jackson, Miss Pauline Griffin and Miss Laura Lee Jones, Miss Hazel Taylor, retiring president, installed the officers for the year 1930-31, Miss Dorothy Stroud, president, Miss Louise Clifford, secretary, and Miss Dorothy Courtney treasurer. Plans were completed for a benefit bridge party to be given Tuesday, May 13, at the Daniel-Ashley hotel, and a banquet for the Seniors of Valdosta High school to be given Thursday, May 15th, at the college.

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening May 7th. Dr. H. S. Gulliver of the English Department entertained the club with a review of recent plays on Broadway. The business of the meeting was to elect officers for the year 1930-31.

Tennis Tournament

The tennis ladder tournament for singles has ended with Virginia Clark of Louisville tipping one ladder and Ila Poppell of Waycross the other. Grace Chastain of Thomasville and Mary O'Connell of Patterson held second place in the respective ladders. The final will be played in the near future. The doubles tennis ladder tournament will begin immediately after the finals are run off.

Juniors and Seniors at Jacksonville Beach

The Junior class are entertaining the Senior class with a weekend trip to Jacksonville and to the Beach. They will spend part of the weekend in Jacksonville and the remaining time at Hotel Casa Marina at Jacksonville Beach. Among the forms of entertainment will be sightseeing, a theatre party, swimming and a dinner party.

Vespers

Dr. H. S. Gulliver of the English department, spoke in Vespers on Sunday evening. He used as the scriptural basis for his inspirational talk the Twenty-third Psalm and the Thirteenth Chapter of First Corinthians.

On Friday evening the members of the Freshman and Sophomore Latin classes gave a one-act play, "In Honor of Virgil." This program was in keeping with the bi-Millennium Virgilian celebration sponsored by the Classical League of America. Miss Janie Bush, professor of Latin, directed the play.

May 4, 1930

OLD ENGLISH MAY DAY FESTIVAL, AT GEORGIA STATE WOMAN'S COLLEGE, AT VALDOSTA. Left to right, front row: Aline Tyson, Ashburn; Louise Tippins, Reidsville; Pauline Griffin, Valdosta; William Giddens and Mary Woore Jackson, Valdosta; Ruby Dowling, Jesup; Jenny Williams, Cordele; Catherine Maxwell, Calvary; Mary O'Quinn, Patterson. Back row: Ethel Castleberry, Ashburn; Helen Harrell, Valdosta; Caroline Parrish, Valdosta, Maid of Honor; Catherine McRee, Valdosta; Queen of the May; Virginia Carswell, Waycross; Martha Caudle, Valdosta, and Margaret Warfield, Savannah.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Assembly

Miss Mary Sayward of the Latin department entertained the student body and faculty at assembly on Monday, December 9, with a reading, "A Dialogue Between a Young American Man and a Marble Maiden of the Parthenon." This reading was taken from "The Glorious Adventure," by Richard Halliburton.

Pine Branch

The December issue of the Pine Branch is off the press. This issue is one of the most characteristic and literary of the year.

The introductory page carries the good news to the students and alumnae that the Georgia State Womans College has been admitted to the Southern Association.

Miss Julia Maye Murray of Waycross, Ga., contributed two poems, one a Christmas poem and the other on "Lost Love." One free-verse satirical poem, "Consolation," by Mary Kate Burrows, suggests the poetry in the number.

Short stories were contributed by Miss Lillian Hopper of Lucedale, Miss.; Miss Margaret Bullock of Adel, Ga.; Miss Eunice Seagraves of Tifton, Ga.; Miss Annie Lou Stanaland of Thomasville, Ga., and Miss Kate Jones of Riceboro, Ga.

Another type of writing found in this issue are essays written by Miss Elsie Quarterman of Valdosta, Ga., and Miss Kate Jones of Riceboro, Ga.

A very instructive editorial on the origin and description of the old English Christmas traditions and customs, which are manifested each year in the Christmas festival at the college, appears in this issue.

Athletics

The Phi Kappa and Phi Lambda athletic associations divided honors last week. On Tuesday the Lambdas won the last of the volley ball games with a score of 22-27. This made them volley ball champions.

On Wednesday the Kappas defeated the Lambdas 4-0 in a game of American ball. This gave the Kappas the championship in this sport.

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin Club takes pleasure in announcing that the following girls successfully passed the dramatic tryout and are now active members of the club: Lillian Exum of Walstonburg, N. C.; Laura Lee Jones of Valdosta, Katherine Harrison of Bluffton, Nancy Rowland of Wrightsville, Lillian Lively of Savannah, Mildred Minchew of Baxley, Grace Donahue of Valdosta, Marguerite Powell of Griffin, Mary Leverette of Quitman, Ruth Dozier of Morven, Mary Jane Littlefield of Folkston and Maxine Purdy of Valdosta.

Vespers

On Sunday evening the vesper service was led by Miss Margaret Bullock of Adel.

The main feature of the program was the talk made by Mrs. J. L. Newbern of Valdosta on "Woman's Relation to the Home."

Thursday evening, December 12, the ceremonial, "Hanging of the Christmas Greens," was held. Miss Marian Laing of Glennville, representing the Spirit of Christmas, entered from the west side of the rotunda. While the Y. W. C. A. choir sang "O Little Town of Bethlehem," girls of the freshman class lighted candles from the candle held by the Christmas Spirit and placed them in the windows and on the mantels in the rotunda.

After giving the origin of the custom of hanging Christmas greens, the Christmas Spirit handed to eight girls of the sophomore class garlands. Then while the choir sang "Come, All Ye Faithful," they hung the wreaths in Ashley hall.

Fires were lighted in the fireplaces on each side of the rotunda. The Christmas Spirit concluded by saying, "May there burn brightly tonight in each heart a light that shall welcome the Christ child home." Then the choir sang "Silent Night."

Sunday evening, December 15, a pageant, "The First Christmas," will be held in the rotunda. Miss Marian Laing of Glennville is directing this pageant. Miss Jean Stooksberry of Savannah is taking the part of Mary, the mother of Jesus, and the part of Joseph is taken by Miss Margaret Jennings of Waycross. The shepherds are Jean Loughridge of Odum, Leta Mae Stripling of Reidsville, Myrtle Vick of Moultrie and Maye De Lois Summerlin of Pelham. The angels are Essye Alligood of Cairo, Margaret Sumner of Poulton and Margaret Bullock of Adel. Kings are Miriam McMillan of Ochlochnee, Kathleen Hurst of Cairo and Madge Ingram of Vienna. The children's parts will be taken by girls of the freshman class.

Distinguished Guests

Dr. Adelaide S. Baylor, chief

MORE ENTRIES*IN RACES HERE

Odum Announces Candidacy For Representative; Live Race For Commissioner

TWO SEEK SENATE PLACE

The time for entering the Democratic primary in this county closed today. A few minutes before the close there was one more candidate to qualify for the post of representative, bringing to three the number in the race. The new entrant, who paid his fee three minutes before the closing hour, was John B. Odum, Valdosta attorney.

The incumbents, H. B. Edwards and J. D. Ashley, are seeking reelection.

In the senate race, only two candidates qualified. Both are former members of the lower house. Will H. Stanford and Elmer E. Dekle will go to the voters seeking the post.

In the race for county commissioner the incumbents, H. G. Moore, W. D. Martin and Jack Staten, are opposed by C. E. Zipperer, W. B. Conoly and Ivey S. Wisenbaker. Mr. Conoly and Mr. Wisenbaker are both former members of the board, while Mr. Zipperer is a well known resident of the Lake Park district.

The entrance of Mr. Odum into the race for representative was unexpected, and promises to make the race for that office a stirring one.

ALUMNAE MEETING*OF G. S. W. COLLEGE

Many of Former Graduates of the Institution Are in the Association

OFFICERS WERE NAMED

The Alumnae Association of the Georgia State Woman's College held its annual business meeting in the lecture room of West Hall on May 31st. The new members eligible this year were unanimously voted into the association.

Dr. R. H. Powell greeted the association with a short address of welcome. Miss Edith Patterson, president of the association, gave a very enthusiastic talk on alumnae work and then called for reports from the various classes and the reports were given by:

Mrs. James Stump of Valdosta, secretary for the classes of 1914, 1915, and 1916 gave a report of all members of the first three classes; Mrs. L. J. King, Valdosta, reported for class of 1917; Mrs. John Williams of Valdosta reported for the class of 1919; Mrs. W. E. Lester of Valdosta reported for the class of 1924; Miss Flor-Sharpe of Vidalia reported for the class of 1921; Miss Inez Sharpe of Vidalia reported for the class of 1922; Mrs. E. G. McCall, nee Mae Gibson, of Rockhill, S. C., for the class of 1923; Mrs. W. M. Ottemeier, nee Mildred Williams for the class of 1924; Miss Florence Breen of Jesup for the class of 1925; Miss Ora Mae Biles of Jacksonville for the class of 1926; Miss Eunice Chute of Unadilla for the class of 1927; Mrs. Velma Sirmans Potter of Green Cove, Fla., for the class of 1928; Miss Grace Chastain of Thomasville for the class of 1929.

The officers for the year 1930-31 were elected as follows: President, Miss Edith Patterson of Valdosta; vice-president and alumnae editor, Miss Iva Chandler of Cordele; secretary and treasurer, Miss Caroline Parrish of Valdosta; corresponding secretaries, Miss Evelyn Deariso, Sylvester, and Miss Lillian Patterson of Cordele.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The student body and faculty are very busy this week getting ready for the approaching examinations and registration for the second semester on February 3.

The college had as its guests for dinner Saturday, Mr. Ralph Newton, superintendent of the Waycross High School, Mr. Yaden, superintendent of Moultrie High School, and Mr. Saxon, superintendent of the Quitman High School. During the visit they discussed with Dr. Powell the plans for the "All Day Play-Day" which Dr. Powell and Miss Ivey, head of the physical educational department, have planned for this spring.

Miss Annie F. Hopper, dean of the Georgia State Women's College, returned on Sunday from Macon where she attended the sixth annual breakfast of the Macon Writers' Club on Saturday at the Hotel Dempsey. While in Macon she was the guest of Mrs. Frances M. Burghard. The honor guests at the meeting were Julian Harris and Julia Collier Harris. The outstanding features of the program were "An appreciation: Julia Collier Harris," by Mr. Joseph Robinson; "Julian Harris: Journalist," by Mark Etheridge; "Joel Chandler Harris: Father," by Julia Harris; "Cinda's Funeral," by Harry Stillwell Edwards, and "The Harises," by the brilliant American author, Sherwood Anderson.

Dr. Lena Hawks, head of the department of mathematics, entertained the faculty and student body in assembly Monday morning. Dr. Hawks chose as her subject, "Signs," developing it with a subtle suggestiveness which was most pleasing to the group.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening. Miss Leonora Ivery, of the department of physical education was the speaker for the evening. Her subject was "Pantomime and Dance."

The cool, fair weather of the past few weeks has greatly increased interest in sports. From 4 to 6 o'clock every afternoon girls are to be seen on the athletic fields. Besides the regularly organized practices in basket ball and soccer, the students are enjoying competing with the faculty and students in tennis, croquet, tether ball, horseshoes and clock golf. Clock golf is of special interest, for the opening of the new four-hole golf course will be soon.

On Sunday evening, January 19, the vesper service was conducted by members of the alumnae who visited the campus during the week-end. Miss Emma Moore, former president of the Phi Kappa Athletic Association, led the devotional, the prayer was given by Miss Mary Alice Sineath, president of the Y. W. C. A. in 1927-1928. Miss Margaret LaFar, who was president of the Y. W. C. A. in 1926-1927, gave a most interesting talk. Her subject was: "What It Meant to Be President of the Y. W. C. A." Miss Ruth Folger, former world fellowship and religious chairman, talked on the duties of this office of the "Y." Miss Martha Youngblood, former member of the G. S. W. C. faculty, closed the service with a brief talk, "My Work As a Leader of Girl Reserves."

On Thursday evening Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, a member of the junior class, was the speaker at vesper services. Her subject was, "Making the Best of Things."

The college was delighted to have a number of alumnae members on the campus for the week-end. Miss Martha Youngblood, Miss Margaret LaFar, Miss Emma Moore and Miss Ruth Folger, who teach in junior high school in Savannah, Miss Mary Alice Sineath, who teaches in the Adel, Ga., High School, and Miss Annie Maude Ferrell, who is working in Moultrie, Ga.

Miss Florence Breen entertained for Miss Martha Youngblood, Miss Emma Moore, Miss Ruth Folger and Miss Margaret LaFar, of Savannah, and Miss Mary Alice Sineath, of Adel, at the "House in the Woods" Sunday night.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The annual picnic of the Georgia State Woman's College and Emory Junior Glee Clubs was enjoyed by the members of these organizations and their faculty directors on Wednesday at Twin Lakes Beach.

The final edition of the Pine Branch came off the press this week. The poetry for this month is especially good, and was contributed by Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta; Miss Julia Maye Murray, of Waycross; Miss Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, and Miss Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta. Short stories were contributed by Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Helen West, of Gulfport, Miss., and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro. A very original essay by Miss Marguerite Langdale and three editorials by Miss Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta; Miss Katherine Harrison, of Bluffton, and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, completed the prose work.

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies held a joint meeting Saturday evening, May 17. A play, "The Adding Machine," was given, directed by Miss Mary Jane Littlefield, Folkston. The characters were Miss Margaret Jennings, Waycross; Miss Elizabeth Chance, Quitman; Miss Elma Butler, Donalsonville.

The officers of the year 1930-1931 were installed; the Argonian will be: President, Miss Katherine Harrison, Bluffton; vice president, Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville; secretary, Miss Leta Mac Stripling, Reidsville; treasurer, Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Lilla Alexander, Nashville.

The Sororian officers will be: President, Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, Pelham; vice president, Miss Linnie Mae Hall, Waycross; secretary, Miss Helen Stee-e, Savannah; treasurer, Miss Phara Elarbee, Calvary; sergeant-at-arms, Miss Mary Jane Littlefield, Folkston.

The new officers for the Phi Kappa Athletic Association are: President, Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; vice president, Miss Jean Loughridge, Odum; secretary-treasurer, Miss Alice McCall, Cairo.

For the Phi Lambda Athletic Association the new officers are: Miss LaVanne Watson, Lakeland, president; Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin, vice president; Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross, secretary-treasurer.

The 1930-1931 officers for the Sock and Buskin Club are: President, Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah; vice president, Miss Mildred Minchew, Baxley; secretary-treasurer, Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville.

The freshman class had charge of the vespers program on Sunday evening. Miss Emily Jennings, Dawson, president of the class, had charge of the program. Miss Emmetta Swain, of Rome, talked on the "Heritage of Woman." Miss Frances Mullins, of Baconton, talked on the "Famous Mothers of the Bible." Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, read a poem, "To Mother."

The Valdosta Club of G. S. W. C. gave a banquet in honor of the seniors of the Valdosta High School, Thursday evening, May 15, in the dining room of Ashley Hall.

The guests were informally received in the rotunda by Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club; Mr. T. B. Carroll, president of the senior class; Miss Hopper, faculty adviser of the club; Miss Dorothy Stroud, president-elect of the club; Miss Dorothy Davis, secretary of the club, and Miss Louise Johnson, treasurer.

Miss Hazel Taylor extended a greeting to the guests, which was answered by Mr. T. B. Carroll in behalf of the seniors.

During the banquet, a delightful program was rendered. Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman, and Miss Virginia Mathis, of Ashburn, directed by Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, presented a one-act play, "A Midnight Fantasy." Miss Louise Lastinger gave a reading which was followed by a piano solo, "The Witches Dance," by MacDowell, given by Miss Dorothy Davis. The concluding number was a dance, "Columbine," by Miss Louise Lastinger, Miss Louise McMichael and Miss Myrtle Vick.

The Alumnae Reading Club was pleasantly entertained by Miss Elizabeth McRee at her home on Williams Street Tuesday evening. Individual reports made at this meeting included Pulitzer prize winners, recent biography and travel books, by Miss McRee and Miss Frances Dekle, who will soon leave for Europe to spend the summer.

The Euclidian, the recently organized Math Club, had an enthusiastic meeting on Wednesday evening.

The Home Economics Club meeting had their last meeting of the year on Wednesday evening.

The G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Organized practice in volley ball and American ball has been enthusiastically entered into by the students of G. S. W. C. for two weeks. Both the Phi Lambda and the Phi Kappa Athletic Associations have good squads out for sports.

The manager of the Lambda American ball team is Miss Emily Burney, of Boston, Ga.; for the Lambda volley ball team, Miss Mildred Talley, of Rome, Ga., is manager. The Kappa American ball manager is Miss Winona Patterson, of Alamo, Ga., and for Kappa volley ball, Miss Virginia Clark, of Willow, Florida.

New members were welcomed into the Sock and Buskin Club at its regular meeting Tuesday evening. A one-act comedy, "The Little Bluffer," was given by the former members of the club. Miss Maxine Purdy, of Valdosta, played the part of Maxine Barrie; Miss Roselle Hatcher, of Donalsonville, was Miss Pringle; Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, was Sylvia Winthrop. Norman Winthrop, the hero, was taken by Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah. Miss Laura Lee Jones, of Valdosta, played the part of Zibrowsky.

A Home Economics Club meeting was called Monday by the vice president, Miss Nelle Robinson, of Nichols, to elect new officers for this year. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Margaret Littlefield, of Folkston; secretary and treasurer, Miss Saily Faircloth, of Pitts. The constitution of the club was discussed and new plans were made for the year. The club had tea room at the house in the woods Saturday afternoon. This activity was decided on by the club to help finance the organization for the year.

The A. A. U. W. held the October meeting in the rotunda of Ashley Hall, Thursday, October 24. The hostesses for the afternoon were Miss Annie P. Hopper, Miss Mary Worcester, Mrs. E. Y. Frye and Miss Lena Hawks. Miss Leonora Ivey and Miss Anna Belle Weaver gave an interesting discussion on "The Organization and Activities of the A. A. U. W." Miss Elizabeth Havenkotte gave a report on "The Carnegie Library and How the A. A. U. W. Might Help to Further Its Program." Dr. Lena Hawks reviewed the last A. A. U. W. Journal.

Sunday's vesper service was held in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Frances Hughes, of Glennville, was leader for the evening. Miss Caro Horne, of Vienna, sang a solo and Miss Phara Elarbee, of Calvary, gave a helpful talk on "The Consecrated Life."

Miss Lucius Bedell, of Woodbine, led vesper Thursday evening. Rev. Lipscombe, pastor of the Church of Christ, gave a very impressive talk.

An informal "manless" dance, given by the Valdosta Club in the dining hall Saturday evening, was enjoyed by the faculty, the student body and their friends. Music was furnished by Carl Simmons and his orchestra.

Oct 26, 1930

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The Department and the Athletic Associations are sponsoring "Play Day" to be held on the college campus March 28. Six girls from the senior classes of fifty neighboring towns have been invited to attend. These girls will be divided into teams, in which they will remain during the competition of the day. Organized games will be held in the morning, followed by a picnic lunch. In the afternoon there will be freshman drill, races, relays and demonstration, American ball and volley ball games, after which the winning team will be announced and its award will be presented.

At a benefit program given by the Y. W. C. A. on Saturday evening two plays were given. "A Minuet," by Lewis N. Parker, portrayed life in France during the last century. The play was ably directed by Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman. Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross, played the part of the baller. Miss Mildred Lucas of Cairo, was the marchioness, and Miss Margaret Warfield, of Savannah, was the marquis. "In 1999," by William de Mille, was directed by Miss Marion Lains, of Taylor's Creek. This play was modernistic and gave a humorous speculation on what life will be by the end of this century. Miss Virginia Mathis, of Ashburn, took the part of the wife. Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah, was the husband, and Miss Kathleen Robison, of Albany, was the friend. The character dancing class added several numbers to the program. Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, and Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, did a rag doll dance.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting on Tuesday evening, March 18. Doctor Buka, of the modern language department, gave an interesting talk. She told of her experience as a play goer, and the club enjoyed her discussion very much. A short business meeting was then held.

Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, was elected president of the Student Government Association for the year 1930-31 at the election held Friday. Miss Bullock is a member of the junior class, and has always played an important part in extra curricula activities. During her sophomore year she was president of the Argonian Literary Society, secretary-treasurer of the Phi Lambda Athletic Association and secretary of the glee club. She was also a member of the council during her sophomore year. This year Miss Bullock is president of the Phi Lambda Athletic Association.

The International Relations Club, of the Georgia State Woman's College, held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. Miss Louise Holcombe, of Valdosta, led a discussion on reparations. Miss Lillian Patterson, of Cordele, discussed the situations existing in Italy. Miss Dorothy Lille, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, discussed the naval conferences, and Miss Louise Johnson, of Valdosta, and Miss Hazel Taylor, of Valdosta, reported on international current events.

In the vesper services on Sunday evening, Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalf, spoke on "The Woman of No Importance" as one of the Biblical types. Miss Evelyn Deariso, of Sylvester, spoke on the self-important woman.

The sophomores and seniors were busy the past week with training school field day which was held on Wednesday. A program of relays, races and singing games including the boys and girls of the entire training school was given. Each class was represented by its colors in the form of balloons and streamers which added much color to the occasion.

Mr. F. M. Green, of the state department of vocational rehabilitation was a guest of the college Tuesday. He called upon the girls who have received aid from this department. Mr. Green has been a member of the state senate and is an old friend of G. S. W. C.

Dr. R. H. Powell was a guest of the Adel-Sparks High School at Assembly Tuesday morning, March 18.

Miss Margaret Brabham, president of the Phi Kappa Athletic Association, and Miss Margaret Bullock, president of the Phi Lambda Athletic Association, attended the State Athletic conference held at Agnes Scott College, Atlanta, Ga., March 22. This is the first conference of this kind that has ever been held in Georgia.

The Glee Club presented their excellent concert to an enthusiastic audience in Thomasville, Wednesday, March 19, at the Rose Theater.

The March issue of "The Pie Branch," is off the press. The poetry in this issue is exceptionally good, including several poems by Julia Maye Murray, of Waycross, and poems by Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, and Louie Lastinger, of Valdosta. Short stories were contributed by Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Miss Katherin Harrison, of Bluffton; Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Hawthorne, Fla.; and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro. Essays were contributed by Miss Eunice Seagraves and Miss Kate Jones.

Rev. Calhoun who is holding a revival at the Church of Christ, spoke to the student body and faculty in assembly Monday morning.

June 8, 1930

SUNDAY

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The seventeenth annual commencement of the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta came to a close with the exercises held at the Ritz Theater on Wednesday morning when seventy-six students were presented degrees and diplomas by Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college. The majority of the students left the campus after the exercises, but a large per cent will return for summer school, which opens on June 9.

The commencement address was made by the superintendent, Mr. Ralph Newton, of Waycross, who had as his timely theme the principles which graduates should use in this age of changing manners. Mr. Newton gave special emphasis to courtesy in manners, to honor in things moral, and to seek absolute truth in all things spiritual. The address was not only timely, but one of the best ever delivered at the Valdosta commencement.

Dr. R. H. Powell spoke briefly before presenting the degrees on the propaganda in the country which threatens the very characteristics, personal liberty and loyalty, on which a state college like the one at Valdosta is built.

Other features of the commencement program were: Miss Dorothy Lile, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, read the senior essay; Dr. Dan H. Breedlove, president of the local Rotary Club, presented the modern foreign language medal of the Valdosta Rotary Club to Miss Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta, and the College Glee Club sang two numbers.

The Alumnae Association of the Georgia State Womans College held its annual business meeting in the lecture room of West Hall on May 31. The new members were unanimously voted into the association. Dr. R. H. Powell greeted the association with a short address of welcome. Miss Edith Patterson, president of the association, gave a very enthusiastic talk and then called for reports from the various classes and the reports were given by Mrs. James Stump, of Valdosta, secretary for the classes of 1914, 1915 and 1916; Mrs. J. L. King, of Valdosta, for the class of 1917; Mrs. John Williams, of Valdosta, for the class of 1919; Mrs. W. E. Lester, of Valdosta, for the class of 1920; Miss C. B. Sharpe, of Vidalia, for the class of 1921; Miss Inez Sharpe, of Vidalia, for the class of 1922; Mrs. E. G. McCall, nee Miss Mae Gibson, of Rock Hill, S. C., for the class of 1923; Mrs. W. M. Ottemeir, nee Miss Milgred Williams, for the class of 1924; Miss Florence Breen, of Jesup, for the class of 1925; Miss Ora Mae Biles, of Jacksonville, for the class of 1926; Miss Eunice Chute, of Unadilla, for the class of 1927; Mrs. Velma Sirmans Potter of the class 1928; Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, for the class of 1929.

The officers for the year 1930-31 were elected as follows: President, Miss Edith Patterson, Valdosta; vice president and Alumnae editor, Miss Iva Chandler, of Cordele; secretary and treasurer, Miss Caroline Parrish, Valdosta; corresponding secretaries, Miss Evelyn Deariso, Sylvester, and Miss Lillian Patterson, Cordele.

The annual Alumnae banquet of the Georgia State Womans' College was given at the Daniel Ashley Hotel on Saturday evening, May 21. The alumnae have never responded in larger numbers or more enthusiastically in the history of the institution than they did on Alumnae Day Saturday. All classes from 1914 to the present class were well represented.

After dinner Miss Edith Patterson, who was reelected president for 1930-31, gave a greeting to the members of the Alumnae Association. Miss Birdie Van Bracle, of Adel, sang. Mrs. May Gibson McCall, of Rock Hill, S. C., gave a talk. Miss Mary Alice Sineath, of Adel, played a violin solo. Miss C. B. Sharpe, of Vidalia, spoke.

The seniors presented two one-act plays on the green in front of Converse Hall on Monday evening. The first play was the Little Shepherdess, a beautiful pastoral sketch by the well-known French poet and dramatist, Andre Rivoire. The action of the play centered about a princess, played by Miss Dorothy Lile, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, who had been given a magic ring by her fairy godmother.

The part of the shepherd was played by Miss Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, and that of the shepherdess by Miss Ruth Norman, of Norman Park.

The second play was an allegory. The Slave with Two Faces, by Mary Carolyn Davis. The slave was played by Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, and other parts were taken by Miss Louise Lastinger, Miss Emily Tillman and Miss Hazel Taylor, of Valdosta.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The college presented Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, and Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta, in their graduation recitals Thursday evening, May 10, in the rotunda. This recital was the college's contribution to the activities during Music Week.

Miss Alexander, a pupil of Miss Gladys E. Warren, head of the music department, showed marked artistic abilities in the numbers that she presented.

Miss Louise Lastinger, a pupil of Miss Lucile Jenkins, director of the vocal expression department, showed unusual versatility in the interpretations of her various numbers.

Miss Lastinger gave the first number, a one-act play, "At the Sign of the Clef Heart," by Theodosia Garrison. Miss Alexander's opening number consisted of three selections, "Romance," by Chaminade; "Claire de Lune," by Debussy, and "Mexican Serenade," by Mowry. The third presentation was "My Last Duchess," by Robert Browning, given by Miss Lastinger. "Polonaise in C Sharp Minor" and "Ballade in A Flat," both by Chopin, were well interpreted by Miss Alexander. Miss Lastinger's concluding number was the "Ballad of the Harp Weaver," by Edna St. Vincent Millay. The concluding number, by Miss Alexander, assisted by Miss Ryan, was "Blue Danube Waltz," by Strauss-Euler-Chasins.

The Georgia State Woman's College annuals, the Pine Cone, came from the press the first of the week and were distributed by the staff at assembly period on Wednesday morning. The theme for the annual this year is on interpretation of a phrase about the Georgia State Woman's College used by the late Chancellor Barrow, "Georgia's fairest gift to her daughters." The senior class in the art and literary work interpreted this gift as an Anglo-Saxon heritage.

The staff under the direction of the editor in chief, Miss Louise Forbes, of Valdosta, deserves much credit for the artistic book which in many respects is the most artistic one published, and the annual of last year won All-American honor rating. The following students assisted Miss Forbes in the successful publication: Miss Dorothy Harper, of Ocala, business manager; Miss Lois Sharpe, of Vidalia, assistant editor; Miss Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, literary editor and feature editor; Miss Dorothy Lyle, of New Philadelphia, Ohio, and Miss Lucile Wood, of Valdosta, advertising managers; Miss Kathryn Sawyer, of Albany, activities editor, and Miss Lillian Exum, of Walstonburg, N. C., snap-shot editor.

The Philharmonic Club of G. S. W. C. of the Pine Cone, of Valdosta, was invited to the program. The program began with a piano solo by Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, who gave "The Witch," by MacDowell. Miss Gladys Fouche, of Poulan, presented a current event, which was followed by a voice selection, "Roses Softly Blooming," by Spoke, rendered by Miss Mary E. Flanagan, of Waycross. A current event followed by Miss Nowlan Sirmans, of Waycross. Miss Ora Johnson, of Valdosta, from the violin department, gave "The Swan," by Saint Saens. A current event by Miss Lavana Watson, of Lakeland, was followed by the concluding number, "Ballade in A-Flat," by Chopin, given by Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville.

The Valdosta Club of G. S. W. C. met Tuesday, May 6, for lunch in the "House in the Woods" for the final meeting of the year. After a luncheon served by Miss Louise Jackson, Miss Pauline Griffin and Miss Laura Lee Jones, Miss Hazel Taylor retiring president, installed the officers for the year 1930-31, Miss Dorothy Stroud, president, Miss Louise Clifford, secretary, and Miss Dorothy Courtney treasurer. Plans were completed for a benefit bridge party to be given Tuesday, May 13, at the Daniel Ashley Hotel, and a banquet for the seniors of Valdosta High School to be given Thursday, May 15, at the college.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 7. Dr. H. S. Gulliver, of the English department, entertained the club with a review of recent plays on Broadway. The business of the meeting was to elect officers for the year 1930-31.

The singles tennis ladder tournament has ended with Miss Virginia Clark, of Louisville, tipping one ladder and Miss Ila Poppell, of Waycross, the other. Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, and Miss Mary O'Quinn, of Patterson, hold second place on the respective ladders. The finals will be played in the near future. The doubles tennis ladder tournament will begin immediately after the finals are run off.

Dr. W. L. Hoff, of the chemistry department, entertained his chemistry classes with a picnic at Twin Lakes, Wednesday afternoon.

The junior class entertained the senior class with a week-end trip to Jacksonville and to the beach. They spent part of the week-end in Jacksonville and the remaining time at Hotel Casa Marina at Jacksonville Beach. Among the forms of entertainment were sightseeing, theater party, swimming and a dinner party.

The Georgia State Woman's College entertained the motorcade from Fort Gaines, Ga., with an informal reception in the rotunda of Ashley Hall Wednesday evening, May 7. A dance, "Columbine and the Two Clowns" was given by Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta; Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, and Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman. "The Spirit of Night," a classical dance, was given by Miss Helen Ryan, of Hinesville, Miss Louise Lastinger, Miss Caroline Parrish and Miss Lucile Wood, of Valdosta. Members of the junior and senior class acted as hostesses.

Dr. H. S. Gulliver, of the English department, spoke in vespers on Sunday evening. He used as the Scriptural basis for his inspirational talk the Twenty-third Psalm and the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians.

On Thursday evening the members of the freshman and sophomore Latin classes gave a one-act play, "In Honor of Vergil." This program was in keeping with the bi-millennium Vergilian celebration, sponsored by the Classical League of America. Miss Janie Bush, professor of Latin, directed the play. The characters were: Dorothy, a college girl, Miss Ethel Castleberry, of Ashburn; Ruth, her sister, Miss Phara Elarbee, of Calvary, the Cumaen Sibyl; Miss Edmonia Beck, Valdosta; Creusa, the Trojan wife of Aeneas, Miss Winona Patterson, Alamo; Camilla, the maiden queen of the Volscians, Miss Mary Morris, of Columbus; Dido, Queen of Carthage, Miss Virginia Carswell, of Waycross; Anna, Dido's sister, Miss Linnie Mae Hall, of Waycross; Lavinia, the Italian wife of Aeneas, Miss Mary Frances Smith, of Valdosta; Amada, Lavinia's mother, Miss Frances Mullins, of Baconton; the Pharmaceutia, K. D. Rentz, of Naylor, Amaryllis, her maid, Miss Phara Elarbee, of Calvary.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womens College

Dr. Powell at Assembly

Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college, gave a talk in chapel Monday on the meeting of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the Southern States, which met in Atlanta last week. The chief note struck at the meeting, according to Dr. Powell, was the element of culture in education. Educational institutions should not forget that it is the student rather than the subject which is taught. It is not sufficient to teach people to make a living; they must be taught to live.

* * *

Philharmonic Club

The Philharmonic Club met in the rotunda Monday evening for its regular monthly meeting. After the minutes of the last meeting were read, the roll was called, to which the first twelve girls whose name were called answered by giving a few significant remarks about some outstanding musicians whose birthdays come in the same months that theirs do. Some composers mentioned were Beethoven, Verdi, Hayden, Chaminade, Mozart, Dvorak and Paderewski.

Margaret Morrison, of Valdosta, opened the program by singing "There Are Fairies at the Bottom of My Garden," by Lehman.

Rubenstein's "Romance" was played by Margaret Williams, of Douglas.

"My Love's An Arbutus," by Stanford, and "Ho, Mr. Piper," by Curran, were sung by Madge Ingram, Cairo.

"Prelude, C Minor," by Rachmaninoff, was played by Annie Lois Gardner, of Camilla.

Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, sang Giordani's "Caro Mio Ben" and Cameron's "The Lavender Gown."

The remainder of the program was devoted to the study of German composers.

* * *

The first composition presented was Shubert's "Scherzo," in A minor, played by Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines.

K. D. Rentz, of Lakeland, gave an interesting report on "Intimate Glimpses In the Life of Shubert."

As closing numbers, Billie Pardee, of Valdosta, played two violin solos, "The Bee," by Shubert, and "Hungarian Dance No. 1," by Brahms. These violin selections were especially appreciated by the audience, as Mr. Pardee is one of the city's most talented young artists.

Glee Club

Two numbers given by the Glee Club for chapel on Wednesday were "Honey Chile," by Lely Strickland, and "Come to the Fair," by Easthope Martin.

* * *

Euclidian Club

The Euclidian Club held its regular monthly meeting Wednesday. Dr. Earl W. Phelan gave a very interesting talk on mathematics as applied in the field of science.

* * *

Vespers

A Latin Christmas play, "Christus Parvulus," was given by the members of the Latin classes Sunday evening, in the rotunda of Ashley hall. Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, Sylvester, announced the play and gave a sketch of each act. Miss Janet Hall, Sparks, compared Christmas and Roman Saturnalia.

The play opened with the prologue, which was given by Miss Phara Elarbee, Calvary.

* * *

Christmas Ceremony

The Christmas spirit was ushered in last week by the annual ceremony, "The Hanging of the Greens." Miss Margaret Bullock, Nashville, represented the Spirit of Christmas and led the ceremonial. Christmas songs and carols were sung by the Y. W. C. A. choir. Candles were lighted and placed in the windows and wreaths placed above the lights in the rotunda.

* * *

Athletics

The last games of the American ball and volley ball series were played on the campus Wednesday afternoon. The Kappas won both games, thus winning the series in both sports. The score in the volley ball game was 38 to 17, and in the American ball game the score was 7 to 2.

An amusing event of the past week was a sort of endurance volley ball game between the men of the faculty and a picked girls' team, 100 points being the goal instead of the usual playing time. The contest lasted nearly an hour and a half and was won by the faculty, 100 to 45.

The Phi Lambda and Phi Kappa Athletic Associations together have started a ladder tournament in basketball goal shooting. Both associations have a good number out, and it remains to be seen which will prove the best goal shooters.

* * *

International Relations

The International Relations Club had an interesting program on Dec. 9. Miss Mattilu Doss, Valdosta, spoke on several current topics; Miss Margaret Jennings, Waycross, discussed affairs in Great Britain, and Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie, reviewed "The Ordeal of This Generation," a book by Gilbert Murray.

Senior Class Tea

A delightful affair was the Christmas tea given by the senior class Wednesday afternoon. The table held untapered red candles and holly, and other Christmas decorations helped to carry out the motif. Misses Marguerite Langdal, Valdosta, and Margaret Bullock, Adel, received at the door. Tea was poured by Misses Jean Loughridge, Odum, and Margaret Jennings, Waycross. Serving were Misses Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Joyce Roberson, Screven; Dorothy Stroud, Valdosta; Maye de Lois Summerlin, Pelham; Evelyn Blanton, Columbus; Lillian Patterson, Cordele, and Leta Mae Stripling, Reidsville.

A delightful program of music and readings was given.

Superlative Contest

The superlative contest of the Pine Cone, the college annual, was held at chapel Wednesday.

Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel, was voted "Miss G. S. W. C.," and Miss Jean Loughridge, Odum, was a close second.

Miss Mary Dozier, Morgan, was voted the prettiest. Miss Mary Virginia McKey, of Valdosta, and Virginia McKey and Miss Sue Pendleton, both Valdosta, were on the ballot.

Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie, was chosen as most popular. Other contestants were Miss Mary O'Quinn, Patterson, and Margaret Powell, Griffin.

Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville, was voted most attractive. Miss Emily Hallyburton, Griffin, and Miss Miriam Mixon, Valdosta, were on the ballot.

Miss Ruby McSwain, Lyons, was voted the best sport. Other contestants were Miss Maye de Lois Summerlin, Pelham, and Miss Margaret Sumner, Poulan.

Miss Essye Allgood, Cairo, was chosen most ingenue, with M. Helena Durham, Savannah, and Miss Frances Howell, Tifton, being considered.

Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah, was chosen as most versatile, and Misses Mary Elizabeth Boyd and Dorothy Stroud, Valdosta, in the balloting.

Dec 21, 1930

SUNDAY MORNING.

G. S. W. C.

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The annual Old English Festival of the Georgia State Woman's College was held in Ashley Hall on Friday evening.

The Lord of Musrue, Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, and the one who so successfully trains the students for their parts in the festival, opened the program of activities and directed them by old English verse prologues. "The Fool" was Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin.

The activities opened with "Frolicsome Funsters," by Certayne Mummies. Those taking part were: Miss Winona Patterson, of Alamo; Miss Ruth Dozier, of Morgan; Miss Sara Wadley, of Waycross; Miss Helen Bishop, of Unadilla; Miss Elizabeth Pardee, of Thomasville; Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah; Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross; Miss Helen Steele, of Savannah; Miss Eva Belflower, of Tifton; Miss Margaret Booth, of Cordele; Miss Frances Mullins, of Baconton; Miss Eunice Littlefield, of Folkston; Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, and Miss Carolyn Readick, of Folkston.

"Ye Singers," the college Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ruth Scott, followed this number with "Hall Old Father Christmas."

"Gifte Surprises," by "Certayne Young Gyrls and Boyes," was the next feature dance. Those taking part were: Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan; Miss Dorothy Davis, of Valdosta; Miss Emily Haliburton, of Griffin; Miss Louise Jackson, of Valdosta; Miss Mattie Lou Doss, of Valdosta; Miss Margaret Williams, of Waycross.

"Certayne Mummies" arrived dressed in costumes of the Lutterworth Players and gave as their production the "Lutterworth Christmas Play." Miss Louisa Heeth, of Quitman, was the King of England; Miss Sara Ward, of Rome, Prince George; Miss GeDele Brabham, of Moultrie, Captain Slasher; Miss Clarice Worsham, of Meigs, Turkish Champion; Miss Helen Clark, of Ashburn, Noble Doctor; Miss Willene Roberts, of Valdosta, Beele-bub, and Miss Lonie Shingler, of Donaldsonville, a clown. The beautiful old English carol, "Good King Wincelas," was sung by "Ye Singers." The solo parts in the carol were sung by Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, and Miss Margaret Williams, of Douglas.

Shepherds and shepherdesses in "Ye Olde Englis Pastorale" tripped into the feast hall and gave a merry dance. Those taking part were: Miss Margaret Warfield, of Savannah; Miss Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester; Miss Virginia Carswell, of Waycross; Miss Dorothy Chapman, of Savannah; Miss Helen Harrell, of Valdosta; Miss Pauline Griffin, of Valdosta; Miss Evelyn Blanton, of Columbus; Miss D. Rentz, of Naylor; Miss Blanche Prescott, of Lake Park; Miss Dorothy Harris, of Valdosta; Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalfe; Miss Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta; Mrs. Carrothers, of Valdosta; Miss Minnie Richardson, of Valdosta.

Rho Chapter of Sigma Sigma held its annual Christmas wedding linking the pledges and the members of the sorority as one of the events celebrating the Christmas festivities on the campus. The pledge bride was Miss Virginia Crenshaw, of Coleman. The bridegroom, who is chosen from the active members, was Miss Rebecca Stevens, from Sanford. Miss Parke Davis, from Jacksonville, was ring bearer. The ceremony was followed by a Christmas program and a party.

Delta Phi Epsilon Sorority announces the pledging of Miss Loblah Lovitz.

Three students from Florida State College for Women were sponsors at the football game in Jacksonville recently between University of Florida and the University of Tennessee. Miss Betty Brownlow, of Jacksonville, and Miss Ruth McEwen, of Wauchula, were sponsors for Florida while Miss Dorothy Grout, of Jacksonville, sponsored the Tennessee team.

Miss Lillian Kocher, DeLand, made more hours in "A" than any other member of the student body, according to the probation list which has been compiled recently by the registrar of the college, Mr. R. A. Doyle. Miss Kocher received sixteen hours "A." Miss Jeanette Brady, Leesburg, made the highest average in the senior class; Miss Lillian Kocher in the junior class; Miss Elizabeth Steffee, Kissimmee, in the sophomore, and Miss Martha Menendez, from Tampa, in the freshman class.

Florida State College for Women adjourned December 19, for the Christmas vacation. Students will return on January 5.

After the carol, "What Child Is This?" there came certain favorites in "The Loves O' Columbine." Miss Elizabeth McRae was Columbine; Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, Harlequin; Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, Pierrot.

Following dancers made a spectacular climax; Miss Frances Johnson, of Surrency; Miss Mattie Allen, of Lenox; Miss Pearl Strong, of Valdosta; Miss Ila Poppell, of Homerville; Miss Aline Tyson, of Shaburn; Miss Myrtice Johnson, of Vidalia; Miss Edwyn Sparks, of Valdosta; Miss Pauline Parrish, of Metcalfe; Miss Anna Frances Ham, of Valdosta; Miss Laura Lee Jones, of Valdosta; Miss Wylene Whitley, of Nashville; Miss Vera Parker, of Waycross; Miss Louise Clifford, of Valdosta; Miss Pearl House, of Homerville; Miss Inez Webb, of Bronwood; Miss Emily Jennings, of Dawson.

The young ladies who danced in the various groups were trained by Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, and by Miss Elizabeth McRee, assistant, and the students showed exceptional grace and charm.

This Old English Festival dates from the first Christmas tide of the college.

Miss Ruby McSwain, Lyons, was voted the best sport. Miss McSwain is secretary and treasurer of the International Relations Club, and an officer of the Phi Kappa Athletic Association. Other contestants were: Miss Maye de Lois Sumnerlin, of Pelham, and Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan. Miss Essye Allgood, Cairo, was chosen most ingenue. Miss Allgood is vice president of the Y. W. C. A. Miss Helena Durham, Savannah, and Miss Frances Howell, Tifton, were also considered.

Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah, was chosen most versatile. Miss Lively is president of the Sock and Buskin Club. Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd and Miss Dorothy Stroud, both of Valdosta, were also in the balloting.

There are three types of students who go to college, according to President R. H. Fowell, of the Georgia State Woman's College, in a talk made to the student body recently. There are the students who wish to obtain a cultural education; those who are studying for a profession, and the "super-kindergartners."

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The seventeenth annual commencement of the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta will extend from May 31 to June 4. The many alumnae of G. S. W. C. who are anticipating a return visit to their Alma Mater during commencement activities will be interested to know that Saturday, according to the established tradition, will be Alumnae Day with the annual business meeting of the Alumnae Association on Saturday afternoon, May 31, in West Hall, and the alumnae banquet Saturday evening at the Hotel Daniel Ashley.

Alumnae Day will be followed by the baccalaureate service on Sunday morning, June 1, with the sermon by Reverend J. P. Dell at the First Methodist Church.

Two one-act plays, "The Little Shepherdess," by Riviere, and "The Slave with Two Faces," by Davies, will be given by the senior class on Monday evening, June 2, on the green in front of Converse Hall.

The annual commencement dinner for the board of trustees, the faculty and the students will be in Ashley Hall on Tuesday.

The activities of the week will conclude with the awarding of degrees at the commencement exercises on Wednesday morning, June 4, at 10 o'clock, at the Ritz Theater. Superintendent Ralph Newton, of Waycross, one of the most distinguished superintendents of the state, will be the speaker of the occasion.

The summer session of the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta will open on June 9.

The Valdosta Club of the G. S. W. C. gave a benefit bridge party Monday afternoon, May 19, at the Daniel Ashley Hotel. Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club, and Miss Dorothy Stroud, president-elect, received the guests on the terrace. High score prize, a hand-painted bridge cover, was won by Mrs. Ed Oliver. Miss Lucile Huey received low score prize, a chiffon dance handkerchief. Among the tea guests was Miss Helen Knox Spain, of Atlanta, and New York, who was a guest of the music department of the college.

Tuesday afternoon the music and expression departments presented the final student recital of the year 1929-1930. The program opened with a quartet, "Marche Militaire," Schubert, by Miss Louise Clifford, Valdosta; Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin; Miss Grace Mitchell, Valdosta, and Miss Carolyn Patrick, of Quitman.

Miss Miriam McMillan, Ochlocknee, sang "Belle Bayou," Strickland, which was followed by two piano selections from MacDowell: "The Lover" and "The Witch," by Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin.

The first number from the expression department was a reading, "Witches' Leaves," O. Henry, by Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley. A duo, "Norwegian Dance," Grieg, by Miss L'Anne Watson, of Lakeland, and Miss Mary Mansfield, of Arlington, followed.

Miss Lois Ford, of Abbeville, gave a violin number, "Serenade," Reginald de Koven. A violin selection, "Fairy Sailing," Cecil Burrell, was next, given by Miss Margaret Pardee, of Valdosta.

Another piano number was "Irish Tune," from County Derry, Grainger, by Miss Joyce Robertson, of Screven, which was followed by Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, with a voice solo, "The Brook," Dolores.

A reading, "A Pair of Shoes," Hermann Hagelorn, by Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman, and a duo, "The Blue Danube Waltzes," Strauss-Erler-Chasins, by Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, and Miss Helen Ryan, of Hinesville.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting Tuesday evening, May 20. Two one-act plays were given, "Confessions," by A. Conan Doyle, was directed by Miss Myrtle Vick, of Hartsfield. The characters were: He, Miss Elizabeth Chance, of Quitman; She, Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah. "Modesty" was directed by Miss Elizabeth Chance. The characters were: Albert, Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie; Henrietta, Miss Mildred Lucas, of Calro; Jack, Miss Myrtle Vick, of Hartsfield. This was the last meeting of the year. Officers for the year 1930-1931 were installed.

Miss Alima Temple, instructor in voice, and Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, gave a joint studio recital on Wednesday afternoon, May 21. The members of Miss Ivey's advanced dancing class who gave individual interpretation dances included Miss Myrtle Vick, Moultrie; Miss Louise Lastinger, Valdosta; Miss Kathryn Sawyer, Albany; Miss Caroline Parrish, Valdosta.

The voice numbers on the program were contributed by Miss Miriam McMillan, Ochlocknee; Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, Waycross; Miss Avrylea Burch, Valdosta; Miss Dorothy Ford, Valdosta; Miss Sara McLeod, Savannah; Miss Lois Ford, Abbeville.

The athletic council met Thursday evening May 22, and was entertained by Miss Leonora Ivey and Miss Elizabeth McRee, of the physical education department. The new council, elected for the year 1930-31 was present. As this was the last meeting of the year it was social and not business.

The annual Rotarian picnic was given for the sophomore and senior classes at Twin Lakes Beach on Friday afternoon, May 23. Outdoor sports and impromptu program and dancing were enjoyed during the evening. The young ladies of the college feel very grateful to the Rotarians for the entertainment they give each year.

On Saturday evening, May 24, the Phi Kappa and Phi Lambda Athletic Associations gave their final dance in the form of a "barn party." Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the physical education department, awarded the athletic placque to the winning association, the Phi Kappa. Miss Ivey also presented the athletic awards to the following: Phi Lambda numerals to Miss Louise Manley, Barwick; Miss Sara Wadley, Waycross; Miss Frances Maddox, Douglas; Miss Lavanne Watson, Lakeland.

Letters to Miss Helen Brasingame, Waycross; Miss June Fulcher, Savannah; Miss Eunice Seagraves, Hawthorne, Fla. Cups to Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel; Miss Eunice Seagraves, Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Milwee Minick, Statesboro.

Phi Kappa numerals to Miss Ernestine Baker, Pavo; Miss Ruth Dozier, Morgan; Miss Dorothy Courtney, Valdosta; Miss Ruby McSwain, Vidalia; Miss Buford Wilford, Moultrie; Miss Alice McCall, Thomasville. Cups to Miss Dorothy Harper, Valdosta; Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Elsie Quarterman, Ray City; Miss Virginia Clark, Louisville.

The officers for the year 1930-1931 were installed, after which the association songs were sung, and a grand march concluded the entertainment for the evening.

The International Relations Club of the Georgia State Woman's College held its last monthly meeting of the year on Friday evening. Miss Nannie Pope, Valdosta, president for the past year, presented, in behalf of the club, a key of the club to Miss Mildred Price, professor of history and faculty adviser to the club. The oath of office was administered to Miss Margaret Parrish, Valdosta, president-elect, and she assumed her office and led a discussion concerning the plans of the club for next year.

The sophomore class had charge of vespers Sunday evening. Miss Agnes Jones, of Green Cove Springs, Fla., president of the class, had charge of the program, which had as its subject, "Effective Living." Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, sang "Open Ye Doors" by Mrs. Joseph Knapp. Miss Bertha Hayes talked on "Making the Best of One's Ordinary Abilities." Miss June Fulcher, of Savannah, talked on "Improving One's Self-Control." Miss Lois Merritt, of Ochlocknee, talked on "Utilizing One's Reserve Powers."

May - 1930

VALDOSTA TIME

MAY DAY FETE ATTRACTS MANY GUESTS TO WOMAN'S COLLEGE AS FESTIVAL QUEEN IS CROWNED

Play Day-May Day, May the second, was a gala day at the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta. By ten-thirty in the morning, guests from high schools in all sections of the southern half of the state had arrived and been organized into teams for Play Day. The first hour was given over to competitive games of various kinds. One of the most unique events of the morning was a half hour of stunts when any member of a team could challenge any other girl to compete with her in doing one of a group of specified stunts.

The faculty and students of the college played a demonstration game of volley ball for the benefit of the visiting girls. Both teams played with skill and spirit, and furnished much amusement for the gallery.

Another college group demonstrated archery, using not only the regulation target, but also artificial animals and balloons dotted over the athletic field as targets. Many tried their skill with the bow and arrow after the demonstration was over, but none proved a William Tell.

At one o'clock the whole group had a picnic lunch in the pines, after which the ribbons were awarded to the team winning the competition for the morning. Then the girls scattered to various parts of the campus to take part in social games in the dining hall, attend short plays produced by the Sock and Buskin Club, or participate in various other amusements.

In the afternoon a foursome of Valdosta's star golfers played a match on the college golf course. Then came a half hour for relaxation while the college group made preparations for their annual May Festival, which was directed by Miss Leonora Ivey, head of the department of physical education, assisted by Miss Elizabeth McRee.

May Day opened with Robin Hood and his men prancing across the green playing horse with a group of girls; they raced and frolicked, then discarded the characters of horse, to play skip the rope. The girls tired of this, and began to dance. The men soon joined the maidens, and picking up the most petite girl in the group, placed her on a convenient stump to serve as a Maypole while they danced around her.

ing school. Some strolling players then came by and performed a "romance of marionettes" to delight the villagers and children.

An English sword dance by the Morris men was followed by the gay dance of a colorful gypsy group with their tambourines. The lords and ladies of the court then danced the stately Sir Roger de Coverly, after which the varied groups danced on the green and wound the numerous May poles, the last festivity in honor of the Queen of the May.

Several hundred guests, including many alumnae, and many senior high school students in South Georgia, enjoyed the observance of the charming old custom of "bringing in the May," and were most extravagant in their praise.

When this unique Maypole was wound, other revellers came on the green. The May queen, Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, wearing a beautiful Elizabethan gown, was borne in a sedan chair on the shoulders of ten lords of her court, preceded by the heralds, Misses Grace Holcombe, of Valdosta, and Katherine Stovall, of Waycross. She was closely followed by the maid of honor, Miss Evelyn Blanton, of Columbus, and the ladies of the court, who, in their costumes, gave greater emphasis to the Elizabethan atmosphere. The queen and maid of honor were chosen from the senior class, the ladies of the court from the junior, senior and sophomore classes, and the heralds from the freshman class, thus having each class represents in the queen's court. The ladies attending the queen were Misses Essye Alligood, of Cairo; Emily Hallyburton, of Griffin; Sallie Kate Bozeman, of Sylvester; Emily Burney, of Boston; Helen Brasington, of Waycross; Delia Bonner, of Vienna; Mattilu Doss, of Valdosta; Virginia Clark, of Tampa, Fla.; Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester; Mary Virginia McKey, of Valdosta; Louise Johnson, of Valdosta, and Miriam Mixson, of Valdosta.

The lords of the court were Misses Dorothy Chapman, of Savannah; Margaret Williams, of Waycross; K. D. Rentz, of Lakeland; Pauline Griffin, of Valdosta; Dorothy Harris, of Valdosta; Mary O'Quinn, of Patterson; Margaret Warfield, Savannah; Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville; Eunice Walker, of Brunswick; Mary Virginia Paulk, of Valdosta; Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta, and Mary Dozier, of Morgan.

The train bearers were Master Jack Corbett and little Miss Eloise Plowden, both of Valdosta. When the queen stepped out of her chariot, the lords formed an arch of glittering swords, under which the queen and her ladies passed to the throne. The entire court was a gorgeous illusion of the Elizabethan period.

After the crowning of the queen a group of villagers thronged onto the green and gave a country dance. The country dance was heartily concluded when a group of children appeared with their own little queen and court, dressed in small replicas of the May queen's court, and proceeded to crown their queen and have their own festivities. This formed a charming miniature of the ceremony just preceding.

The organ grinder with his wife and monkey then took the center of the green. Their group of trained animals performed marvelous feats for the entertainment of the audience.

A bit of Erin was brought to the scene of festivities by a group of boys and girls from the train-

Oct. 4, 1930

VALDOSTA TIMES, VALDOSTA, GEORGIA.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Dr. Powell Speaker at Assembly

Going to college is a matter of giving as well as getting, according to a statement made by President R. H. Powell in a speech to the students of the Georgia State Womans College Monday.

"Every student has something to give that no one else has, and it is up to her to give the best that she has if she wishes to get the most out of her college life," said Dr. Powell. He then told of some of the customs of the college, and asked that all students be honest and square with themselves and their associates. "Even if you have to do something that will make you unpopular with other people, do not do anything that will make you unpopular with yourself," Dr. Powell continued.

He urged that no girl ask or expect special privileges for someone else always has to pay for such privileges by giving up something. According to Dr. Powell, if each girl in college plays the game, and observes the rules and customs of the school, the college authorities will consider individual wishes as far as possible if they are not harmful to the group.

In conclusion Dr. Powell suggested that each student make the most of the opportunities so generously provided by the state.

Dr. Lipscomb at Assembly

Dr. Lipscomb, pastor of the Valdosta Church of Christ, gave a talk on his trip to Europe to the student body and faculty of the college Wednesday. Dr. Lipscomb's personal experiences and his telling of them was delightful entertainment for the group.

Biology Department Crowded

Because of the crowded condition of the Georgia State Womans College biology classes, Prof. Everett, of the Emory Junior college biology department, will assist Prof. James Stokes with his work.

after which an interesting program will be given on the Pulitzer prizes of the year.

Guests

Miss Mildred Jordan, of Quitman, former student of the G. S. W. C., was a visitor on the campus this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Jennings and Miss Marecee Jennings, of Waycross, were visitors at G. S. W. C. last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brabham, Miss Frank Brabham and Vernon Brabham, Jr., of Moultrie, were among the Sunday visitors at G. S. W. C.

Among visitors on the campus during the past week were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Dozier, of Morgan.

Judge and Mrs. B. C. Gardner and children, of Camilla, visited their daughter, Annie Lois, during the week-end.

Valdosta Club

The Valdosta Club entertained the faculty, mothers and student body at a tea Wednesday in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. The guests were received at the door by the reception committee, Miss Margureite Langdale, Miss Dorothy Davis, Miss Dorothy Courtney and Miss Louise Johnson. Miss Ruth Scott sang, accompanied by Miss Gladys Warren. Miss Dorothy Davis gave several piano selections. Refreshments were served by Miss Louise Jackson, Miss Pauline Griffin, Miss Pauline Forbes, Miss Laura Lee Jones, Miss Louise Clifford and Miss Pearl Strong. Miss Dorothy Stroud presided at the tea table.

Fine Arts Club

A meeting of the Fine Arts Club was called Thursday morning. Mary Elizabeth Boyd, the president, presided. The purpose of the meeting was to appoint committees. The club has a number of tentative plans for the year. The members have as one of their aims to interest the student body as a whole in fine art work being done in various nations.

Plans are now being formulated to have a speaker at an early date who has made a study of Japanese woodcuts. The club will have during the year several other interesting speakers and lecturers. There are plans for at least three exhibits for the benefit of the student body. Among the exhibits will be soap culture, etchings, and Modern Pottery. The International Relationships Club and the Fine Arts Club will sponsor an International Bazaar some time before the Christmas holidays.

Vespers

Vesper services were held Thursday evening on the campus in front of Converse Hall. The program, led by Miss Mary Winn, of Savannah, was in the nature of a song service.

Literary Societies

The first meeting of the Sororian Literary Society will be held Saturday evening. A study will be made of the 1930 Pulitzer Prize Awards. Phara Elarbee, of Calvary, will give an account of "Laughing Boy," by Lafarge. Miss Annie Hopper will give a sketch of "Green Pastures," the prize-winning play by Marc Connally, which she saw in New York last summer. Elizabeth Kirkland, of Sylvester, will read some of the poems of Conrad Aiken.

The Argonian Literary Society will hold its first meeting in West Hall Saturday evening. The new members will take their pledges.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The charming old custom of "Ringing in the May" was observed in the traditional old English May Day Festival presented by the physical education department at the Georgia State Woman's College on Thursday afternoon under the direction of Miss Leonora Ivey and her assistant, Miss Elizabeth McRee.

The prologue to the festival this year poetically suggested the dawning of a May morn. The spirits of night, Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta; Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie; Miss Helen Ryon, of Hinesville, and Miss Lucile Wood, of Valdosta, in black Grecian robes and silver scarfs, did a classical dance which banished the night and ushered in Aurora, Miss Ruth Norman, of Norman Park. Miss Norman and her hand-maidens, Miss Essey Allgood, of Cairo; Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Miss Evelyn Deariso, of Sylvester; Miss Louise Forbes, of Valdosta; Miss Katherine Harrison, of Bluffton; Miss Marian Laing, of Glennville; Miss Joyce Roberson, of Screven; Miss Mary Mansfield, of Arlington, in costume with the colors of spring flowers and with lyric rhythms told the awakening of the earth.

After ushering in the May with the lyrical prologue, there followed the great processional of students as English folk on the green to crown the queen of the May, Miss Catherine McRee, of Valdosta, a blond of unusual beauty and charm, who was elected to her honored place by her college friends. She was exquisitely gowned in a 15th century costume which was adopted in pastel shades, featuring the hennin and worn by the maid of honor, Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, and the ladies in waiting: Miss Catherine Maxwell, of Calvary; Miss Louise Tippins, of Reidsville; Miss Ruby Dowling, of Jessup; Miss Virginia Carswell, of Waycross; Miss Martha Caudle, of Valdosta; Miss Ethel Castleberry, of Ashburn; Miss Helen Harrell, of Valdosta; Miss Jenny Williams, of Cordele; Miss Pauline Griffin, of Valdosta; Miss Margaret Warfield, of Savannah.

The queen's other attendants were two heralds, Miss Mary O'Quinn, of Patter-son, and Miss Aline Tyson, of Ashburn. Two children, Mary Moore Jackson and William Giddens, served as trainbearers. The lords of the court were Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie; Miss Ayrilea Burch, of Valdosta; Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville; Miss Dorothy Harper, of Ocella; Miss Roselle Hatcher, of Donaldsonville; Miss Alice Hicks, of Thomasville; Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross; Miss Jean Loughridge, of Blackshear; Miss Leta Mac Stripling, of Reidsville; Miss Mary de Lois Summerlin, of Pelham.

The festivities in honor of the May queen made a pageant of unusual grace and beauty. Village youths and maidens gave an old English county dance, "Sweet Kate." Visitors from Mother Goose Land made a most pleasing interlude as given by the training school children. Miss Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville, acted as Mother Goose. Betty Edge and Billy Edge ushered the characters into the May Day festival. The childhood favorites, which appeared on the green, were Mistress Mary and flowers, Little Boy Blue, Fine Ladies Riding Cock-Horses to Banberry Cross, Humpty Dumpty and the King's Soldiers, and Queen of the Hearts and many Knaves.

A strolling gypsy and his sweetheart, Miss Kane Jones, of Riceboro, and Miss Kathryn Sawyer, of Albany, entertained the court with a characteristic gypsy vasabond dance. The lords joined the ladies of the court and did a "stately measure" on the green. An energetic talented group of Morris men, freshman group, gave a stick dance, "Bean Settling." Certain mummers held forth with festival in masks and grotesque frohes. Village youths and maidens joined in groups to play the old English country dance of "If All the World Were Paper." Columbine, Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta, carried on a daring yet coquettish flirtation with two clowns, Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, and Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman. This flirtation was continued by milk maids and members of Robin Hood's band.

The festivities in honor of the queen of the May were concluded with the windings of the numerous May poles which brought to a close one of the most delightful fetes ever held on the college campus.

The Student Government Association of the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta held its regular monthly meeting in the rotunda of Ashley Hall on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association, presided. The program consisted of reports on the conference of Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Governments, held at the North Carolina State Woman's College in Greensboro, by Miss Mary Alexander, president, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president-elect. After the program Miss Alexander administered the oath of office to Miss Bullock and she will assume her duties at the next meeting of the association.

At the meeting of the Student Government Association on Friday evening, Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college, awarded G. S. W. C. emblems to thirty-three girls. These emblems are awards of merit in extra-curricula activities. The following girls received emblems: Seniors, Miss Evelyn Blanton, Valdosta; Miss Mary Kate Burrows, Valdosta; Miss Evelyn Deariso, Sylvester; Miss Louise Forbes, Valdosta; Miss Dorothy Harper, Ocella; Miss Marian Laing, Glennville; Miss Dorothy Lille, New Philadelphia, Ohio; Miss Catherine McRee, Valdosta; Miss Kathryn Sawyer, Albany; Miss Hazel Taylor, Valdosta; Miss Myrtle Vick, Hartsfield; Miss Lucile Wood, Valdosta. Juniors, Miss Margaret Brabham, Moultrie; Miss Margaret Bullock, Adel; Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; Miss Bertha Ferrell, Quitman; Miss Katherine Harrison, Bluffton; Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donaldsonville; Miss Margaret Jennings, Waycross; Miss Kate Jones, Riceboro; Miss Jean Loughridge, Odum; Miss Lillian Patterson, Cordele; Miss Joyce Roberson, Screven; Miss Eunice Seagraves, Hawthorne, Fla.; Miss Leta MacStripling, Altamaha; Miss Dorothy Stroud, Valdosta; Miss Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Miss Ann Talbert, Brinson; Miss Mary Winn, Savannah. Sophomores, Miss Agnes Jones, Brunswick; Miss Linnie Mae Hall, Waycross; Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah; Miss Annie Lou Stana-land, Thomasville.

The vespers service on Sunday evening was the installation of the new cabinet. The processional was "Father of Lights." During the program the cabinets, old and new, stood forming the Y. W. triangle. The old cabinet member passed her light on to the new member by lighting her candle. "Follow the Gleam" was sung as the recessional.

The student body and faculty were entertained in chapel on Monday morning by Miss Ruth Carpenter, of the art department. Miss Carpenter told of her trip to Europe, describing in detail the museum at Chantilly and the "Book of Hours."

Miss Mildred Price, professor of history, and faculty adviser to the International Relations Club, entertained the members of the club at her home on Williams Street at bridge on Saturday afternoon.

The Sororian Literary Society met Saturday evening, May 3. The following program was given with Miss Helen Steele, of Savannah, as leader. "Green Pastures," by Marc Connelly, adapted from Roark Bradford's "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun," was given by Miss Mary Winn, of Savannah. Miss Dorothy Chapman, of Savannah, gave an interesting discussion of Savannah poets. Miss Joyce Roberson, of Screven, rendered a piano solo, "Irish Tune from County Derby" by Percy Grainger. Atlanta poets: Ernest Hartsock and his work with the "Bozart" magazine was cleverly given by Miss Lillian Lively, Savannah. The concluding number was "Alice Brent White-side," by Miss Nowlan Sirmans, Waycross.

The Argonian Literary Society held its regular meeting on Saturday evening, May 3. Miss Grace Chastain, of Thomasville, was leader for the evening and a most enjoyable program was given. "Green Pastures," by Marc Connelly, adapted from Roark Bradford's "Ol' Man Adam an' His Chillun," was given by Miss Kate Jones, Riceboro. Atlanta poets: Ernest Hartsock and his work with the "Bozart" was given by Miss Emily Jennings, of Dawson. Miss Leta Mac Stripling, of Reidsville, gave a discussion of the poetry by Miss Alice Brent White-side. A piano solo, "Irish Tune from County Derry," by Percy Grainger, an American concert pianist, was rendered by Miss Joyce Robinson, of Screven. Grand opera in the south, "Cavaliere Rusticana," by Miss Quinnie Carmack, of Vienna; "Pasliacci," by Miss Ann Talbert, of Brinson.

The freshman class entertained with a tea in the rotunda of Ashley Hall Sunday afternoon, April 27. Miss Lilla Alexander, of Nashville, and Miss Mary O'Quinn, of Blackshear, presided at the tea table. Miss Ruth Dozier, of Morgan; Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, and Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, assisted in serving.

Prize Winners For Best College Poetry

The annual poetry prizes offered by the Pine Branch of the Georgia State Woman's College each year were announced this week. The first prize went to a senior, Miss Julia Mae Murray of Waycross who has contributed much of her poetic and artistic talent to student activities on the campus. The particular poem as judged the best published during the year was:

FREEDOM

Life being built on platitudes—

There can be no altitudes;

No altitudes,
No ecstasy —

No wings above
a sodden sea.

My hand must clutch
an altar rail,

My heart must search for Holy Grail;

My knees must bend
to pray at night

That soul may reach its utmost height.

Maxims break
like silken strands—

My life must wear
no prisoning bands.

Miss Mary Kate Burrows of Valdosta, another senior, was awarded second prize for her contribution:

BIRTHRIGHT

Ever and ever

I've had fears

Of goat-like feet
and pointed ears;

It seems to me

There's always been

An occasional race
of satyr-men,

Who pick the grapes
and leaf the vine,

Who dash the pulp
and gulp the wine.

Such a man was Esau then,

Who lived with beasts
and loved not men,

Since in Canaan's
Garden grew

Some slender reeds
For blowing through,

By strange mutation
Of his hide,

He seemed as Pan
Re-deified.

Ever and ever

I've had fears

Of charming men

With pointed ears,

For when satyrs are born
In the form of men,

Birthrights have
No value then.

Miss Burrows has contributed her talent generously to the various activities on the campus; she has been president of the Fine Arts Club and literary and art editor for the annual which came from the press recently.

Miss Elsie Quarterman of Valdosta, and a sophomore at the college, won the third prize with:

"EYES FOR THE VISION"

Down long white ladders of moonlight,

Out of the kingdom of starlight,
Vapor-white, silver-bright moon-
mist and stardust

Circling and swirling, evermore curling,

Whirled by the wind into figures
ecstatic,

Magic-wrought batik of diamonds
and dewdrops;

Long lanes of lightness, luminous brightness

Filtered through azure and silvered by star-nymphs,

Wrought iridescency, opal transparency

Woven with stars into crystalline dreams;

Then dropped by Queen Mab with a careful precision

Only on those who have eyes for the vision.

D

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The characters in the sophomore play, "The Arrival of Kitty," to be given on February 28, at the Ritz Theater, are:

William Winkler—Louise McMichael, of Quitman, a prominent member of the Sock and Buskin Club.

Bobby Baxter—Elizabeth Chance, of Quitman, another active member of the Sock and Buskin Club.

Benjamin Moore—Agnes Jones, of Brunswick, president of Sophomore Class and secretary of Sororian Literary Society.

Ting—Edmonia Beck, Valdosta.
Aunt Jane—Helen Steele, Savannah.
Jane—Mildred Lucas, of Cairo, poster chairman for Y. W. C. A.

Suzette—Helen Brasington, of Waycross.
Sam—Linnie Mae Hall, of Waycross.
Kitty—Mary Mansfield, of Arlington.

The catalogue for 1930-'31 is now in press and will be out soon. Many new features will be included.

The executive committee of the college met Wednesday, February 12, and arrangements for the summer school session were made.

With the arrival of spring days the clock golf, tether ball and golf course are becoming very popular with the students and faculty.

The student group is greatly indebted to Mrs. Beck, dietitian of the college, for the delightful Valentine dinner Saturday evening. Songs, informal readings and dancing were enjoyed throughout the meal.

Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, will leave Monday for Atlantic City, N. J., to attend the National Association of Deans of Women. Miss Hopper is hostess for the southern delegation.

The alumnae held its annual Valentine party at the home of Miss Clare Bray, Friday evening, February 14.

Many of the students attended the Emory Glee Club performance Thursday evening, February 13.

The freshman class entertained the faculty and student body at tea Friday afternoon, February 14. Miss Emily Jennings and Miss Lilla Alexander presided at the tea table. Miss Marguerite Powell and Miss Mary O'Quinn assisted in serving.

The February issue of the Pine Branch, the college magazine, has gone to press. The contents include poetry by Miss Julia Mae Murray, of Waycross; Miss Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta; essays by Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, and short stories by Miss Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta, Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro.

The Argonian Society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. "Resolved, That Emergence of Women From Home Is a Depressing Feature of Modern Life." Affirmative, Miss Elizabeth Boyd and Miss Frances Mullins. Negative, Miss Roselle Hatcher and Miss Marguerite Powell. "Resolved, That a Thirteen Month Calendar Should Be Adopted." Affirmative, Miss Grace Chastain and Miss Nancy Rowland. Negative, Miss Margaret Bullock and Miss Emily Burney. "Resolved, That the Plea of Temporary Insanity as a Defense in Crime Shall Be Abolished by Law." Affirmative, Miss Jean Loushridge and Miss Mildred Minchew. Negative, Miss Margaret Brab-ham and Miss Louise Johnson.

The Sororian Literary society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. The debates were: "Resolved, That the practice of installment buying be drastically curtailed." Affirmative, Miss Dorothy Chapman and Miss Phara Elarbee. Negative, Miss Lillian Lively and Miss Mary Jane Littlefield.

"Resolved: That national advertising as now carried on is both socially and economically harmful." Affirmative, Miss Mary Winn and Miss Janet Groover. Negative, Miss Virginia Mathis and Miss Annie Lou Stanaland.

"Resolved, That the chain store system is more harmful than beneficial." Affirmative, Miss Nannie Pope and Miss K. D. Rentz. Negative, Miss Elizabeth Kirkland and Miss Myrtle Vick.

There was a call meeting of the International Relations Club of the Georgia State Woman's College on Saturday morning. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. The new constitution was read and adopted. Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie, was elected to represent the club at the annual conference of the International Relations Clubs of the Southeastern States in Macon, February 27 and 28. Miss Jean Loushridge, of Odum, was elected as alternate. Miss Mildred Price, of the history department and faculty adviser to the club, and Miss Nannie Pope, president of the club, will also attend the conference.

The Student Government Association of the Georgia State Woman's College held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association, presided. Mr. J. F. Wood, of the department of education, was the speaker. His talk centered around the individual as the source of all law.

Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalf; Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton; Miss Mary Let Sumner, of Poulton, and Miss Ann T. Dent, of Brinson, represented the Student Volunteer Group of the Georgia State Woman's College at the conference of the Georgia State Volunteer Union held at Agnes Scott College during the week-end of February 14.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Nov 22, 1930

International Relations

The International Relations Club of the Georgia State Womans College held a meeting at the House in the Woods on November 13th. Miss Louise Johnson, Valdosta, spoke on several current topics, among which were: The 11th assembly of the League of Nations, London's naval treaty of 1930, the British conference on the Indian question, the U. S. tariff revision, and the project for a federation of European states. Miss Dorothy Harris discussed the revolt in Brazil, giving its causes, incidents of interest that occurred, and its probable significance.

Assembly

Miss Janie Bush, of the Latin department, made an interesting talk in chapel Wednesday on "Virgil." Miss Bush spent the past summer in Rome, Italy.

New Member of Board

Dr. P. C. Quarterman, Valdosta, has been appointed by Gov. Hardman to succeed the late Mr. J. R. Dasher on the board of trustees of the Georgia State Womans College.

Literary Societies

The Sororian Literary Society, which met last Saturday evening, had a very unusual program on the life sketches of some of the most prominent actresses, both living and dead. Mrs. C. K. Beale, of Valdosta, gave a sketch of Eleanor Duse, the famous tragedy actress. Miss Helen Clark, Ashburn, told of the glorious career of the "divine Sara Bernhardt"; the story of the Barrymore family, which is supposed to be portrayed in George Kelly's play, "The Royal Family," was given by Miss Katherine Wall, of Ellaville. Miss Clarice Worsham, Meigs, told of the work being done by Eva Le Galliene in her New York Repertory Theatre.

The Argonian Literary Society held its regular meeting in the lecture room of West Hall Saturday. The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss Quinie Carmack, of Hawkinsville. Miss Mildred Minchew, of Baxley, was in charge of the program for the evening. The program was based on a study of two of the world's greatest actresses of all times—Sarah Bernhardt and Eleonora Duse. Miss Wylene Whitley, of Fitzgerald, gave an interesting account of Bernhardt's life and career as a world renowned actress. Miss Minchew gave an account of the famous Duse's experiences.

school of theology at Emory University, will be the week-end guest of the eGeorgia State Womans College. It is with a great deal of pleasure that the student body looks forward every year to Dr. Smart's visit. He is holding a series of services in the roundtable of Ashley hall during his stay. The first will be at 11:00 Sunday morning, followed by a service Sunday evening at 7:30, and Monday at 7:30. The public is invited to hear Dr. Smart.

Vespers

Vesper service which was held Sunday evening was based on World Fellowship and was the last of a series of talks on this subject. Dr. Durrenberger, professor of history, gave a very interesting talk on World Peace.

Miss Elizabeth Smith, national traveling secretary for Y. W. C. A., spoke Thursday evening at vesper. Miss Smith told of the need of a Y. W. C. A. in connection with campus life. Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, was leader for the evening.

Bazaar

A bazaar sponsored by the Fine Arts Club and the International Relations Club was held last week in the dome of the administration building. It opened Monday night, and continued throughout the week, closing Saturday night.

The exhibits included pieces of the famous Sophie Newcomb pottery, Japanese and Chinese prints and novelties, costume jewelry, foreign tops, puzzles and games, Russian peasant wood carvings and other Russian novelties. Among one of the most interesting exhibits was a table of Russian dolls. These dolls were dressed like the people in Russia. Every class was included, from the peasant to the aristocrat.

This exhibit was interesting and instructive. The student body of G. S. W. C. is indebted to the Fine Arts and International Relations Clubs for their effort and work that made this bazaar possible. Many Christmas gifts were purchased during the week. The proceeds of the bazaar are to be used for the benefit of the clubs. The International Relations Club plans to send a delegate to the International Relations Conference at Duke University this year. The Fine Arts Club gives some gift to the college every year from a portion of the proceeds from the bazaar.

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin Club had as its speaker at their regular meeting last Tuesday evening, Dr. Gulliver, of the English department. He spoke on the recent theatrical season in New York, basing his talk on the drama year book, "Ten Best Plays of 1929-30," by Burns Mantle. Illustrating the four main types of drama, he selected "Green Pastures," "The Last Mile," "Strictly Dishonorable" and "Lysistrata."

G. S. W. C. Observed Book Week

The Georgia State Womans College is co-operating with the civic clubs and the Carnegie Library of the city in observing National Book Week from November 16 to 22. Over 100 new books for the library have been received. Posters and reading lists of the new books and famous authors have been posted. Miss Lucile Jenkins, of the expression department of the college, has charge of "story hour for children" at the Carnegie Library on Thursday.

Dr. Smart to Conduct Services

Dr. W. A. Smart, dean of the

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

G. S. W. C. at State Meeting of Educators

Miss Annie P. Hopper, Dean of Women, gave a report on the National Association of Deans held in Atlantic City earlier in the year at the State Educational meeting in Macon on Friday of this week.

Miss Leonora Ivey of the Physical Education Department appeared on the program of the State Physical Education program in Macon this week.

Several college girls, Misses Marion Lundy of Tallahassee, Nell Robinson of Douglas, Evelyn Blanton and Nell Crocker of Valdosta are attending the state home economics meeting in Macon.

Assembly

The student body and faculty were entertained in assembly Monday morning by Miss Janie Bush of the Latin Department. Miss Bush chose as her subject "Roman Humor," which she developed with humorous quotations and jokes from Cicero and Martial.

On Wednesday morning the Rev. Mr. Fugate of the First Baptist church conducted the devotional.

G. S. W. C. Representatives

At Greensboro

Miss Mary Alexander<sup>a</sup> of Nashville, president of the Student Government association, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president-elect, attended the Southern Inter-Collegiate association of Student Government association at the North Carolina State College for Woman at Greensboro the past week.

Alumnae Guests

The following alumnae were visitors on the campus during the past week-end: Miss Catherine Trulock of Whigham; Miss Gladys Butler of Whigham; Misses Eunice and Mildred Cassels, Whigham; Miss Louise Causey of Moultrie; and Miss Opal Thornton of Climax.

Vespers

Mrs. J. A. Durrenberger spoke in Vespers Service on last Sunday evening. She described the work of the Y. W. C. A. on the various campuses she visited. Mrs. Durrenberger gave many suggestions to the new cabinet for carrying on the Y. W. C. A. work for next year. Miss Marian Laing of Glennville, chairman of the religious committee, led the service. On Thursday evening the choir of the Saint Paul's African Methodist church, under the direction of W. H. Lissimore, sang. The program consisted of negro spirituals.

Sock and Buskin Club

The Sock and Buskin club held its regular meeting April 15th. A one-act play, "The Conflict," was given, directed by Kathryn Sawyer of Albany. Those taking part were Katherine Harrison, Bluffton, as Emelie; Mary Leverette, Quitman, as Bobs; Margaret Sumner, Poulan, as Bess; Nancy Rowland Wrightsville, as the mother. After the play a short business program was held.

Saturday Society Debate

The Argonian and Sororian Literary societies will meet on Saturday evening, April 19th. At this time the annual formal debate will be given. The question for debate, Resolved: "That installment buying should be drastically curtailed." The Argonian will have the negative side and those debating will be Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville and Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin. For the Sororian, the affirmative will be Miss Nannie Pope, Valdosta, and Miss Annie Lou Stanaland, Thomasville.

Tea on Thursday

The program at the tea given in the Rotunda Thursday afternoon, April 17, opened with a piano solo, "The Butterfly," by Grigg, given by Miss Myrtice Ford of Abbeville. Miss Miriam McMillan of Ochlochnee sang "Southern Moon" by Strickland. A reading "The River of Stars," by Alfred Noyes, was given by Miss Edmonia Beck of Valdosta. The concluding number was a piano solo "Three Preludes," by Chopin rendered by Miss Louise Clifford of Valdosta.

Glee Club

The Glee Club held a called meeting to elect officers for the year 1930-31. Miss Myrtice Ford of Abbeville was elected president, Miss Kathleen Hurst of Cairo was elected vice-president. Miss Jenny Williams of Cordele was elected secretary. Miss Mary O'Quinn of Blackshear was elected treasurer.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Sophomore Play

The characters in the Sophomore play, "The Arrival of Kitty," to be given on February 28, at the Ritz Theatre are:

William Winkler, Louise McMichael, of Quitman, a prominent member of the Sock and Buskin club.

Bobby Baxter — Elizabeth Chance, of Quitman, another active member of the Sock and Buskin club.

Bejamin Moore—Agnes Jones, of Brunswick, president of Sophomore Class and secretary of Sororitan Literary Society.

Ting—Edmonia Beck, Valdosta. Aunt Jane—Helen Steele, Savannah.

Jane—Mildred Lucas of Cairo, poster chairman for Y. W. C. A. Suzette—Helen Brasington, of Waycross.

Sam—Linnie Mae Hall, of Waycross.

Kitty—Mary Mansfield, of Arlington.

New Catalog

The catalogue for 1930-31 is now in press and will be out soon. Many new features will be included.

The executive committee of the college met Wednesday, February 12, and arrangements for the summer school session were made.

Sports

With the arrival of spring days the clock golf, tether ball, and golf course are becoming very popular with the students and faculty.

Dinner At Ashley Hall

The student group is greatly indebted to Mrs. Beck, dietitian of the college, for the delightful valentine dinner Saturday evening. Songs, informal readings and dancing were enjoyed throughout the meal.

Miss Hopper Honored

Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, will leave Monday for Atlantic City, New Jersey, to attend the National Association of Deans of Women. Miss Hopper is hostess for the southern delegation.

Alumnae Valentine Party

The Alumnae held its annual valentine party at the home of Miss Clare Bray, Friday evening, February 14. There were more than one hundred guests present including Alumnae members from Waycross, Quitman, Thomasville, and other surrounding towns.

Many of the students attended the Emory Glee club performance Thursday evening, February 13.

Freshman Tea

The Freshman class entertained the faculty and student body at tea Friday afternoon, February 14. Miss Emily Jennings, of Dawson, and Miss Lilla Alexander of Nashville, presided at the tea table. Misses Marguerite Powell and Mary O'Quinn assisted in serving.

The Pine Branch

The February issue of "The Pine Branch," the college magazine, has gone to press. The contents include poetry by Julia Mae Murray, of Waycross, Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, essays by Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Kate Jones, of Riceboro, and short stories by Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta, Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Kate Jones, of Riceboro.

Argonian Literary Society

The Argonian society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. Resolved: That emergence of women from home is a depressing feature of modern life." Affirmative, Elizabeth Boyd and Francis Mullins. Negative, Roselle Hatcher and Marguerite Powell. Resolved: "That a thirteen month calendar should be adopted." affirmative, Grace Chastain and Nancy Rowland. Negative, Margaret Bullock and Emily Burney. Resolved: "That the plea of temporary insanity as a defense in crime shall be abolished by law." Affirmative, Jean Loughridge and Mildred Minchew. Negative, Margaret Brabham and Louise Johnson.

Sororian Literary Society

The Sororian Literary Society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. The debates were: Resolved: "That the practice of installment buying be drastically curtailed." Affirmative, Dorothy Chapman and Phara Elarbee. Negative, Lillian Lively and Mary Jane Littlefield. Resolved: "That national advertising as now carried on is both socially and economically harmful." Affirmative, Mary Winn and Janet Groover. Negative, Virginia Mathis and Annie Lou Stanaland. Resolved: "That the chain store system is more harmful than beneficial." Affirmative, Nannie Pope and K. D. Rentz. Negative, Elizabeth Kirkland and Myrtle Vick.

International Relations Club

There was a call meeting of the International Relations Club of the Georgia State Womans college on Saturday morning. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. The new constitution was read and adopted. Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie, was elected to represent the club at the annual conference of the International Relations clubs of the Southeastern states in Macon, February 27 and 28. Miss Jean Loughridge, of Odum, was elected as alternative. Miss Mildred Price, of the history department and faculty adviser to the club, and Miss Nannie Pope, president of the club, will also attend the conference.

Student Government Association

The Student Government association of the Georgia State Womans college held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association, presided. Mr. J. F. Wood, of the department of education, was the speaker. His talk centered around the individual as the source of all law.

Y. W. C. A. Representatives At Agnes Scott

Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalf, Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, and Miss Ann Talbert, of Brinson, represented the student volunteer group of the Georgia State Womans college at the conference of the Georgia Student Volunteer Union held at Agnes Scott college during the week-end of the 14th.

Honors For Valdosta Girls

Valdosta girls making honors at the Georgia State Womans college during the fall semester were: High honors—Mrs. W. W. Everett and Miss Marguerite Langdale; senior honors—Louise Forbes, Louise Lastinger, Nannie Pope, and Catherine McRee; junior honors—Margaret Parrish, and Dorothy Stroud; sophomore honors—Dorothy Davis, and Pauline Griffin; freshman honors—Rosalind Bleiler, Dorothy Courtney, Pauline Forbes, and Laura Lee Jones.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Sophomore Play

The characters in the Sophomore play, "The Arrival of Kitty," to be given on February 28, at the Ritz Theatre are:

William Winkler, Louise McMichael, of Quitman, a prominent member of the Sock and Buskin club.

Bobby Baxter — Elizabeth Chance, of Quitman, another active member of the Sock and Buskin club.

Bejamin Moore—Agnes Jones, of Brunswick, president of Sophomore Class and secretary of Sororian Literary Society.

Ting—Edmonia Beck, Valdosta.

Aunt Jane—Helen Steele, Savannah.

Jane—Mildred Lucas of Cairo, poster chairman for Y. W. C. A.

Suzette—Helen Brasington, of Waycross.

Sam—Linnie Mae Hall, of Waycross.

Kitty—Mary Mansfield, of Arlington.

New Catalog

The catalogue for 1930-31 is now in press and will be out soon. Many new features will be included.

The executive committee of the college met Wednesday, February 12, and arrangements for the summer school session were made.

Sports

With the arrival of spring days the clock golf, tether ball, and golf course are becoming very popular with the students and faculty.

Dinner At Ashley Hall

The student group is greatly indebted to Mrs. Beck, dietitian of the college, for the delightful valentine dinner Saturday evening. Songs, informal readings and dancing were enjoyed throughout the meal.

Miss Hopper Honored

Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, will leave Monday for Atlantic City, New Jersey, to attend the National Association of Deans of Women. Miss Hopper is hostess for the southern delegation.

Alumnae Valentine Party

The Alumnae held its annual valentine party at the home of Miss Clare Bray, Friday evening, February 14. There were more than one hundred guests present including Alumnae members from Waycross, Quitman, Thomasville, and other surrounding towns.

Many of the students attended the Emory Glee club performance Thursday evening, February 13.

Freshman Tea

The Freshman class entertained the faculty and student body at tea Friday afternoon, February 14. Miss Emily Jennings, of Dawson, and Miss Lilla Alexander of Nashville, presided at the tea table. Misses Marguerite Powell and Mary O'Quinn assisted in serving.

The Pine Branch

The February issue of "The Pine Branch," the college magazine, has gone to press. The contents include poetry by Julia Mae Murray, of Waycross, Mary Kate Burrows, of Valdosta, essays by Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Kate Jones, of Riceboro, and short stories by Marguerite Langdale, of Valdosta, Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, and Kate Jones, of Riceboro.

Argonian Literary Society

The Argonian society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. Resolved: That emergence of women from home is a depressing feature of modern life." Affirmative, Elizabeth Boyd and Francis Mullins. Negative, Roselle Hatcher and Marguerite Powell. Resolved: "That a thirteen month calendar should be adopted." affirmative, Grace Chastain and Nancy Rowland. Negative, Margaret Bullock and Emily Burney. Resolved: "That the plea of temporary insanity as a defense in crime shall be abolished by law." Affirmative, Jean Loughridge and Mildred Minchew. Negative, Margaret Brabham and Louise Johnson.

Sororian Literary Society

The Sororian Literary Society held the yearly informal debates on Saturday evening, February 15. The debates were: Resolved: "That the practice of installment buying be drastically curtailed." Affirmative, Dorothy Chapman and Phara Elarbee. Negative, Lillian Lively and Mary Jane Littlefield. Resolved: "That national advertising as now carried on is both socially and economically harmful." Affirmative, Mary Winn and Janet Groover. Negative, Virginia Mathis and Annie Lou Stanaland. Resolved: "That the chain store system is more harmful than beneficial." Affirmative, Nannie Pope and K. D. Rentz. Negative, Elizabeth Kirkland and Myrtle Vick.

International Relations Club

There was a call meeting of the International Relations Club of the Georgia State Womans college on Saturday morning. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. The new constitution was read and adopted. Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie, was elected to represent the club at the annual conference of the International Relations clubs of the Southeastern states in Macon, February 27 and 28. Miss Jean Loughridge, of Odum, was elected as alternative. Miss Mildred Price, of the history department and faculty adviser to the club, and Miss Nannie Pope, president of the club, will also attend the conference.

Student Government Association

The Student Government association of the Georgia State Womans college held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association, presided. Mr. J. F. Wood, of the department of education, was the speaker. His talk centered around the individual as the source of all law.

Y. W. C. A. Representatives At Agnes Scott

Miss Alice Hicks, of Metcalf, Miss Eunice Seagraves, of Tifton, Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, and Miss Ann Talbert, of Brinson, represented the student volunteer group of the Georgia State Womans college at the conference of the Georgia Student Volunteer Union held at Agnes Scott college during the weekend of the 14th.

Honors For Valdosta Girls

Valdosta girls making honors at the Georgia State Womans college during the fall semester were: High honors—Mrs. W. W. Everett and Miss Marguerite Langdale; senior honors—Louise Forbes, Louise Lastinger, Nannie Pope, and Catherine McRee; junior honors—Margaret Parrish, and Dorothy Stroud; sophomore honors—Dorothy Davis, and Pauline Griffin; freshman honors—Rosalind Bleiler, Dorothy Courtney, Pauline Forbes, and Laura Lee Jones.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—The students of the Georgia State Woman's College returned the first of last week from their homes where they spent the spring holidays.

Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin, editor in chief of the freshman editor of the Pine Branch, and her assistant, Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, deserve much credit for the excellent edition. The staff for this issue was: Editor in chief, Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin; associate editor, Emeliza Swain, of Rome; business manager, Miss Doris Zittrouer, of Savannah; assistant business manager, Miss Mildred Talley, of Rome; alumnae editor, Miss Florence Breen, of Jesup; athletic editors, Phi Lambda, Miss Emily Burney, of Boston; Phi Kappa, Miss Ruth Dozier, of Morgan; exchange editor, Miss Anna Frances Ham, of Valdosta; joke editor, Miss Helen West; local editor, Miss Pauline Forbes, of Valdosta; society editors, Argonian, Miss Frances Mullins, of Bacconton; Sororian, Miss Elizabeth Wright, of Rome; Y. W. C. A. editor, Miss Virginia Clark; art editor, Miss Mabel Williams; mailing department, Miss Lois Wilson, Miss Ethel McSwain, of Lyons, Miss Mary Hagan, of Valdosta. The contents of the freshman issue includes poetry by Miss Mary A. Smith, of Valdosta; Miss Lois Wilson, of Bradenton, Fla.; Miss Grace Donahue, of Valdosta; Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, and Miss Elizabeth Wright, of Rome. Prose numbers were contributed by Miss Emily Burney, of Boston; Miss Anna Frances Ham, of Valdosta; Miss Mary A. Smith, of Valdosta; Miss Helen West, of Shreveport, La., and Miss Agnes L. Caldwell, of Thomasville.

The Philharmonic Club, of Georgia State Woman's College, met Monday evening, April 7, in the rotunda. As the opera season in Atlanta is approaching, the club devoted the hour to a study of the operas to be presented by the Metropolitan Opera Company. Miss Evelyn McGough briefly gave a synopsis of "La Boheme," by Puccini, supplementing her discussion with a record. "Mussetta's Waltz Song," from the opera. The opera, "Louise," by Charpentier, was outlined by Dura Connell, of Nashville, who also presented the selection, "Depuis le Jour," from the opera. Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, in her discussion of the opera, "Pagliacchi," by Leoncavallo, presented the record of "On With the Play." The synopsis of "Cavalleria Rusticana," by Mascagni, was briefly given by Miss Frances Maddox, of Douglas. The selection from this opera was "Ave Maria," adapted from the famous intermezzo. Verdi's opera, "Il Trovatore," with the selection of "Miserere" from the opera, was the last opera discussed. In addition to this excellent program, the following officers for the year 1930-31 were elected: President, Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross; vice president, Miss LaVanne Watson, of Lakeland; secretary-treasurer, Miss Marguerite Powell, of Griffin.

The Valdosta club, of Georgia State Woman's College, entertained the faculty, the student body and the mothers of the club members at an alfresco tea in front of Ashley Hall Tuesday afternoon. Wistaria graced the tea tables on the lawn. Miss Hazel Taylor, president of the club, and Miss Dorothy Lile, vice president, presided at the tea tables. Miss Dorothy Stroud, Miss Dorothy Davis, secretary of the club; Miss Louise Johnson, treasurer; Miss Mary Wyche McRee and Miss Dorothy Courtney served as a reception committee.

The Student Government Association of the Georgia State Woman's College held its regular meeting on Friday evening. Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the association, presided. Dr. Wilbur L. Hoff, of the chemistry department, spoke on loyalty as applied to student life.

At the business meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Friday evening, Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, was elected president for the year 1930-1931. Miss Sumner served on the Y. W. C. A. cabinet during her sophomore and junior years. Miss Essye Alligood, of Cairo, was elected vice president. Miss K. D. Rentz, of Naylor, was elected treasurer. Miss Rentz is the treasurer this year. Miss Nancy Rowland, of Wrightsville, was elected secretary.

At a benefit program given by the Y. W. C. A. on Thursday evening two plays were given: "A Minuet," by Lewis M. Parker, portrayed life in France during the last century. The play was ably directed by Miss Louise McMichael, of Quitman. Miss Margaret Jennings, of Waycross, played the part of the jailer. Miss Mildred Lucas, of Cairo, was the marchioness, and Miss Kathleen Little, of Ocilla, the marquis. "In 1999," by William de Mille, was directed by Miss Marion Laing, of Taylor's Creek. This play was modernistic and gave a humorous speculation on what life will be by the end of this century. Miss Virginia Mathis, of Ashburn, took the part of the wife. Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah, was the husband; and Miss Margaret Brabham, of Moultrie, was the friend. The character dancing class added several numbers to the program. Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, and Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, did a rag doll dance.

The Alumnae Reading Club met Tuesday evening with Miss Virginia Hightower. The next meeting will be on April 22 with Miss Iva Chandler and Miss Florence Breen in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. A comparison will be made of Thornton Wilder's novel, "The Woman of Andros," and Terence's play.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—In assembly at the Georgia State Womans College on Monday morning, April 20, Dr. R. H. Powell, president of the college, made an announcement concerning another honor the college won when the Southern Architectural and Industrial Arts Exposition, which was held under the auspices of the southern chapters of the American Institute of Architects, in Memphis, Tenn., awarded to the architects, Edwards & Sayward, honorable mention for the plans of the Georgia State Womans College, the best example of educational architecture submitted to the jury.

A certificate giving these facts and carrying the signatures of the committee was presented to the trustees of the Georgia State Womans College.

The buildings and campus have always been a source of much pride to the students, faculty and officials. In fact, the physical appearance of the college was so gratifying to the first board and administrative staff that a special pictorial bulletin was issued. The recent honor confirms the judgment of the first officials.

Soon after West Hall was completed a beautiful picture of the facade was included in the official catalog of the Southern Architectural and Industrial Arts Exposition.

Miss Annie P Hopper, dean of women, gave a report on the National Association of Deans held in Atlantic City earlier in the year at the state educational meeting in Macon on Friday of this week.

Miss Leonora Ivey, of the physical education department, appeared on the program of the state physical education program in Macon this week.

The student body and faculty were entertained in assembly Monday morning by Miss Janie Bush, of the Latin department. Miss Bush chose as her subject, "Roman Humor," which she developed with humorous quotations and jokes from Cicero and Marshal.

The student body, under the supervision of the physical education department, is busy completing plans for the old English May Day festival, which will be held May 1.

Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the Student Government Association, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president-elect, attended the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government Associations at the North Carolina State College for Women at Greensboro the past week.

The following alumnae were visitors on the campus during the past week-end: Miss Catherine Trulock, of Whigham; Miss Gladys Butler, of Whigham; Miss Eunice Cassels and Miss Mildred Cassels, Whigham; Miss Louise Causey, of Moultrie, and Miss Opal Thornton, of Climax.

Mrs. J. A. Durrenberger spoke in vesper service on Sunday evening. She described the work of the Y. W. C. A. on the various campuses she has visited. Mrs. Durrenberger gave many suggestions to the new cabinet for carrying on the Y. W. C. A. work for next year. Miss Marian Laing, of Glennville, chairman of the religious committee, led the service. On Thursday evening the choir of the Saint Paul's African Methodist Church, under the direction of W. H. Lissimore, sang.

The Sock and Buskin Club held its regular meeting April 15. A one-act play, "The Conflict," was given, directed by Miss Kathryn Sawyer, of Albany. Those taking part were: Miss Katherine Harrison, Bluffton, as Emelle; Miss Mary Leverette, Quitman, as Bobs; Miss Margaret Sumner, Poulan, as Bess; Miss Nancy Rowland, Wrightsville, as the mother. After the play a short business program was held.

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies met on Saturday evening, April 19. At this time the annual formal debate was given. The question debated was: "Resolved, That Installment Buying Should Be Drastically Curtailed." The Argonian had the negative side and those debating were Miss Roselle Hatcher, Donalsonville, and Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin. For the Sororian, the affirmative, were Miss Nannie Pope, Valdosta, and Miss Annie Lou Stanaland, Thomasville.

The program at the tea given in the rotunda Thursday afternoon, April 17, opened with a piano solo, "The Butterfly," by Grieg, given by Miss Myrtice Ford, of Abbeville. Miss Miriam McMillan, of Ochokechnee, sang "Southern Moon" by Strickland. A reading, "The River of Stars," by Alfred Noyes, was given by Miss Edmonia Beck, of Valdosta. The concluding number was a piano solo, "Three Preludes," by Chopin, rendered by Miss Louise Clifford, of Valdosta.

The Glee Club held a called meeting to elect officers for the year 1930-1931. Miss Myrtice Ford, of Abbeville, was elected president. Miss Kathleen Hurst, of Cairo, was elected vice president. Miss Jenny Williams, of Cordele, was elected secretary. Miss Mary O'Quinn, of Blackshear, was elected treasurer.

A number of girls from the Georgia State Womans College appeared on the program of the Wymodausis Club Wednesday afternoon, April 16. Miss Mildred Minchew, from Baxley, gave a reading. Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, sang a solo, and Miss Annie Lou Stanaland, of Thomasville; Miss Margaret Nixon, Abbeville; Miss Miriam McMillan, Ochokechnee; Miss Ruth Norman, Norman Park; Miss Elieliza Swain sang a group of songs.

The Parent-Teacher Association held its monthly meeting in the rotunda of Ashley Hall Friday afternoon, April 18. Miss E. Camm Campbell, director of the training school, spoke on "Factors of General Environment Influencing Character Development."

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Double Quartet

After highly competitive try-outs by a large majority of the glee club members, the following girls were chosen for the double quartet: Hazel Allen, of Valdosta; Mary Flanagan, of Waycross; Margaret Williams, of Douglas; Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines; Ethel McSwain, of Lyons; Mary Poole, of Balboa, Canal Zone; Emeliza Swain, of Rome; Elizabeth Pardee, of Thomasville. The quartet will make several public performances during the year.

Fine Arts Club

The first regular meeting of the Fine Arts Club was held in the club house on Tuesday night, October 28th. Informal dancing was enjoyed the early part of the evening. This was followed by the initiation of the new members. One feature of the initiation was a caricature drawing contest. Each new member proved herself a desirable member of the club by drawing some other member as the world sees her. Another difficult yet amusing contest was a soap sculpture test. Each candidate for membership was asked to carve some piece of "art work" from a small piece of soap. Pen knives and finger nail files were used, and the feat was performed in ten minutes. The other details of the initiation are to be kept a secret, and are only known by those present. Following the initiation of new members, a regular business meeting of the club was held. The constitution was read and the new members pledged their allegiance to abide by it. The general program for the year was outlined by the president of the club, Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd. At the close of the business meeting, there was a social half hour.

Vespers

Vesper services were held Sunday evening, October 26th, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, was the leader for the evening. Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, gave a song, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," by Speaks. An inspirational talk on the singing towers of Europe was made by Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women.

Thursday evening vesper service were led by Miss Blanche Prescott, of Lake Park. Dr. Fu... pastor of the First Baptist church, gave an inspirational talk to the group. A special song was given by the choir.

Tea On Wednesday

The Student Government Association of the G. S. W. C. entertained with a tea Wednesday afternoon. There are so many repairs needed here that it would seem, however, that particular, is growing in this state suggested by Mr. Patten in particular, and the one specifically general, and the one specifically in sentiment for consolidations in...

Helen Ryon, of Hinesville.

Valdosta Club

The Valdosta Club was delightfully entertained Friday evening by Miss Dorothy Stroud, president of the club, at her home on Toombs street. During the earlier part of the evening, social and business plans for the year of '30-'31 were discussed; the duties of each member, and of the club as a whole, were explained by Miss Stroud. After the short business meeting, dancing and bridge were enjoyed. At the close of the evening, tea was served by Misses Sue Pendleton, Hazel Allen and Dorothy Courtney.

Literary Societies

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies will hold their first joint meeting of the year Saturday evening. The class in play production from the vocal expression department will present a modern one-act comedy, "Poor Aubrey," by George Kelley. This will be the first of a series of plays to be presented during the year illustrating the four main types of drama—tragedy, comedy, farce, melodrama. Aubrey, the husband, will be played by Anna Francis Ham, of Valdosta. Amy, the wife, will be taken by Margaret Littlefield, of Folkston. The mother-in-law, Mrs. Fisher, will be played by Margaret Williams Waycross. Mrs. Cole, a friend, by Kathryn Wall, of Ellaville. The play will be directed by Elizabeth Kirkland, Sylvester.

Miss Kathleen Robinson, of Albany, former student at G. S. W. C., was a visitor on the campus recently.

Miss Mary Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., who attended G. S. W. C. last year, spent the week-end in Valdosta.

Miss Myrtle Mae Head, of Douglas, was the guest of friends at G. S. W. C. last week-end.

Miss Frank Brabham, of Moultrie, was the guest of her sisters Misses Margaret and GeDelle Brabham, during the past week.

Miss Kathleen Little, of Ocilla, member of the class of 1930, was in Valdosta for the week-end.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Double Quartet

After highly competitive try-outs by a large majority of the glee club members, the following girls were chosen for the double quartet: Hazel Allen, of Valdosta; Mary Flanagan, of Waycross; Margaret Williams, of Douglas; Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines; Ethel McSwain, of Lyons; Mary Poole, of Balboa, Canal Zone; Emeliza Swain, of Rome; Elizabeth Pardee, of Thomasville. The quartet will make several public performances during the year.

Fine Arts Club

The first regular meeting of the Fine Arts Club was held in the club house on Tuesday night, October 28th. Informal dancing was enjoyed the early part of the evening. This was followed by the initiation of the new members. One feature of the initiation was a caricature drawing contest. Each new member proved herself a desirable member of the club by drawing some other member as the world sees her. Another difficult yet amusing contest was a soap sculpture test. Each candidate for membership was asked to carve some piece of "art work" from a small piece of soap. Pen knives and finger nail files were used, and the feat was performed in ten minutes. The other details of the initiation are to be kept a secret, and are only known by those present. Following the initiation of new members, a regular business meeting of the club was held. The constitution was read and the new members pledged their allegiance to abide by it. The general program for the year was outlined by the president of the club, Miss Mary Elizabeth Boyd. At the close of the business meeting, there was a social half hour.

Vespers

Vesper services were held Sunday evening, October 26th, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, was the leader for the evening. Miss Mary Elaine Flanagan, of Waycross, gave a song, "Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled," by Speaks. An inspirational talk on the singing towers of Europe was made by Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women.

Thursday evening vesper service were led by Miss Blanche Prescott, of Lake Park. Dr. Fugate, pastor of the First Baptist church, gave an inspirational talk to the group. A special song was given by the choir.

Tea On Wednesday

The Student Government Association of the G. S. W. C. entertained with a tea Wednesday afternoon, October 29th, in the rotunda. A delightful program was given by members of the vocal expression and music departments. Miss Elizabeth Arnold, of Fort Gaines, played "Norwegian Bridal Prologue," by Grieg. "I Know a Lovely Garden" by Guy d'Hardelot, and "Kentucky Babe," by Adam Gerbel, were sung by Dorothy Ford, of Valdosta. Miss Louise Clifford, of Valdosta, played "Witches' Dance," by MacDowell. Miss Myrtice Johnson, of Vidalia, read "The Beau of Bath," by Constance Mackay. "Autumn" by Chaminade was played by Miss Helen Ryon, of Hinesville.

Valdosta Club

The Valdosta Club was delightfully entertained Friday evening by Miss Dorothy Stroud, president of the club, at her home on Toombs street. During the earlier part of the evening, social and business plans for the year of '30-'31 were discussed; the duties of each member, and of the club as a whole, were explained by Miss Stroud. After the short business meeting, dancing and bridge were enjoyed. At the close of the evening, tea was served by Misses Sue Pendleton, Hazel Allen and Dorothy Courtney.

Literary Societies

The Argonian and Sororian Literary Societies will hold their first joint meeting of the year Saturday evening. The class in play production from the vocal expression department will present a modern one-act comedy, "Poor Aubrey," by George Kelley. This will be the first of a series of plays to be presented during the year illustrating the four main types of drama—tragedy, comedy, farce, melodrama. Aubrey, the husband, will be played by Anna Francis Ham, of Valdosta. Amy, the wife, will be taken by Margaret Littlefield, of Folkston. The mother-in-law, Mrs. Fisher, will be played by Margaret Williams, Waycross. Mrs. Cole, a friend, by Kathryn Wall, of Ellaville. The play will be directed by Elizabeth Kirkland, Sylvester.

Miss Kathleen Robinson, of Albany, former student at G. S. W. C., was a visitor on the campus recently.

Miss Mary Smith, of Jacksonville, Fla., who attended G. S. W. C. last year, spent the week-end in Valdosta.

Miss Myrtie Mae Head, of Douglas, was the guest of friends at G. S. W. C. last week-end.

Miss Frank Brabham, of Moultrie, was the guest of her sisters, Misses Margaret and GeDelle Brabham, during the past week.

Miss Kathleen Little, of Ocilla, member of the class of 1930, was in Valdosta for the week-end.

G. S. W. College

VALDOSTA, Ga.—Plans for annual English May Day Festival, which will be held this year on May 1, have been completed by the physical education department under the supervision of Miss Leonora Ivey. Miss Catherine McRee, of Valdosta, will be crowned queen of the May. Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, will be her maid of honor. The pageant of unusual grace and beauty will feature this year the fifteenth century. After the folk dancing and other features, there will be the winding of the numerous May poles on the green. Friends and alumnae of the Valdosta college from all sections of Georgia assemble at the campus each May Day to witness the observance of the charming tradition as presented at the Georgia State Woman's College at Valdosta.

Miss Mildred Price, of the history department of the Georgia State Woman's College, took a party of young ladies last week on an educational tour to Washington, D. C., in a special Pullman by the Atlantic Coast Line. They left Valdosta Sunday morning, April 20, to spend three full days in Washington. The party stopped at the Cairo Hotel, one of the principal hotels in the city. The young ladies took special sight-seeing tours daily in the Blue Sight-seeing cars, which have served Washington for fifty years. Mr. L. P. Green, district passenger agent, accompanied the party. The members of the party were: Miss Mattilu Doss, Valdosta; Miss Marguerite Langdale, Valdosta; Miss Catherine McRee, Valdosta; Miss Mary Wyche McRee, Valdosta; Miss Carolyn Patrick, Quitman; Miss Doris Zittrower, Savannah; Miss Eloise Blitch, Homerville; Miss Edna Jarrett, Boston; Miss Marina Burnett, Sale City; Miss Carolyn Readdick, Folkston; Miss Catherine O'Brien, Lakeland; Miss Miriam McMillan, Ochlocknee; Miss K. D. Rentz, Naylor; Miss Zylpha Bowman, Thomasville; Miss Elizabeth Davis, Valdosta; Miss Margaret Touchton, Valdosta; Miss Matilda Plowden, Valdosta; Miss Elizabeth Larissey, Valdosta; Miss Virginia Jones, Valdosta; Mrs. J. Catledge, Valdosta, and Miss Mildred Price, chaperon.

The freshman class of the Georgia State Woman's College entertained the sophomore class with the annual pre-reception on Saturday evening, April 26. Miss Emily Jennings, from Dawson, Ga., president of the freshman class; Miss Agnes Jones, of Brunswick, president of the sophomore class; Miss Annie P. Hopper, dean of women, and Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Powell made up the receiving line. Palms, ferns, lavender, larkspur and pink roses were used in profusion in the rotunda. Members of the sister class, juniors, presided at the punch bowls on the terrace. The lavender and pink color scheme was further carried out in the decoration of the pergolas on the campus with pink and lavender lights and wisteria.

During the evening members of the play production class presented a one-act play, "Not Quite Such a Goose." Miss Helen Ryon, of Milledgeville, and Miss Louise Lastinger, of Valdosta, did a balloon dance. A grotesque character dance was given by the dancing class, and Miss Caroline Parrish, of Valdosta, and Miss Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie, did a humorous doll dance.

The annual Argonian-Sororian Intersociety debate was held Saturday evening, April 19, in the rotunda of Ashley Hall. The subject for discussion was: "Resolved, That Installment Buying Should Be Drastically Curtailed." Miss Nannie Pope, Valdosta, and Miss Annie Lou Stanaland, Thomasville, and Miss Marguerite Powell, Griffin, had the negative. The judges: Mrs. R. A. Peoples, Valdosta; Mr. Joe Almand, of Emory Junior College, and Judge McCracken, Valdosta, voted unanimously for the negative.

The tennis ladder tournament has opened and all the students are very enthusiastic about it. The matches have been very close and will continue to produce a great deal of interest until April 28, when the tournament closes. The managers are: Miss Ruth Dozier, of Morgan, and Miss Ila Poppel, of Waycross.

Baseball has started and the first game is to be played soon. The managers are: Miss Blanche Parker, Sylvania, and Miss Delia Bonner, Vienna.

"Christus Triumphator," an Easter morality play, by Dwight Nelson Robinson, was presented by the Latin department in vespers Sunday evening. Those taking part in the play: Prologue, Miss Louise Forbes, Valdosta; Spirit of Religion, Miss Kato Jones, Riceboro; Spirits of the Gospels, Miss Bertha Ferrell, Quitman; Miss Emily Burney, Boston; Miss Reba Harrison, Boston; Miss Sarah McEachin, Nashville; Miss Eve Hadden, Valdosta; Miss Virginia Clark, Tampa, Fla.; Mary Magdalene, Miss Eunice Seagraves, Hawthorne, Fla.; Angel at the Tomb, Miss Katherine Harrison, Bluffton; Chorus of Angels, Miss Mary Morris, Columbus; Miss Edmonia Beck, Valdosta; Miss Ethel Castleberry, Ashburn; Miss Phara Elarbee, Calvary; Miss Virginia Carswell, Waycross; Miss Winona Patterson, Alamo; accompanists, piano, Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, and violin, Miss Janet Hall, of Sparks. Miss Janie Bush, of the Latin department, directed the play, and it was given in the original Latin.

Miss Mary Alexander, of Nashville, president of the Student Government Association, and Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president-elect, returned from the conference of the Southern Intercollegiate Association of Student Government, held at the North Carolina College for Women, at Greensboro, on Monday. They will give a report of the activities of the conference at the next Student Government Association meeting.

The International Relations Club of the Georgia State Woman's College, held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening. Miss Nannie Pope, of Valdosta, president of the club, presided. The program consisted of reports on the Washington tour.

Miss Margaret Sumner, of Poulan, president of the Y. W. C. A. for 1929-1930, has appointed the following girls as her cabinet for next year: Miss Alice Hicks, Metcalf, chairman of Bible study committee; Miss June Fulcher, Savannah, chairman of world fellowship committee; Miss Mary Winn, Savannah, chairman of music committee; Miss Carolyn Bullard, Nashville, pianist; Miss Lillian Norman, St. George, chairman of room committee; Miss Helen Brasington, Waycross, chairman of membership committee; Miss Alida DuPriest, Ashburn, chairman of bulletin board committee; Miss Etta Giddens, Arlington, chairman of poster committee; Miss Lillian Patterson, Cordele, librarian; Miss Margaret Jennings, Waycross, chairman of entertainment committee; Miss Virginia Clark, Tampa, Fla., chairman of club house committee.

Happenings of the Present Week at The Georgia State Womans College

Dr. Smart Guest of G. S. W. C.

Dr. Smart, professor of Biblical theology at Emory University, gave the last of a series of lectures Monday evening in the rotunda of Ashley hall. On Sunday morning Dr. Smart spoke in a very interesting and forceful manner on "The Complexities of Religion." Sunday evening Dr. Smart spoke in a most helpful manner on "Prayer." On both Sunday and Monday afternoon "open forum" was held in which Dr. Smart talked personally with the students.

Dr. Smart's talks proved very educational as well as inspirational and it is with a great deal of anticipation that the student body looks forward to his visits each year.

Thanksgiving at G. S. W. C.

On Thanksgiving morning services were held in the rotunda of Ashley hall. Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro, was leader. A Thanksgiving story was very effectively told by Miss Katherine Wall, of Ellaville. The service throughout was simple, yet quite impressive.

Thanksgiving at G. S. W. C. was observed in a most fitting manner. The program of the day opened with an inspirational devotional service which was followed by games between the Phi Kappas and Phi Lambdas. At noon a course dinner was served. The various classes had their tables decorated in class colors, autumn leaves, chrysanthemums and poinsettias. Between the courses class songs and yells were given. A delightful program was also given. A play, "Turkey Red," was quite enjoyable. Those taking part were Misses Margaret Jennings, Waycross; Nancy Rowland, Wrightsville; Margaret Sumner, Poulan; Myrtice Johnson, Vidalia; Mildred Minchew, Baxley, and Marguerite Powell, Griffin.

A dance, entitled "Autumn Trio," followed. Those in the dance were Misses Essye Allgood, of Cairo; Margaret Bullock, of Adel; Roselle Hatcher, of Donalsonville; Kate Jones, of Riceboro; Jean Loughridge, of Odum; Joyce Roberson, of Screven; Mayde Lois Summerlin, of Pelham; Leta Mae Stripling, of Reidsville, and Caroline Parish, of Valdosta.

The Thanksgiving "manless" dance, which was sponsored by the Junior Class in the dining hall Thursday evening, was enjoyed by many of the college students and their guests. Green and gold, the class colors, were effectively used for the decorations. Music was furnished by Carl Simmons and his orchestra.

Presidents' Club Entertained

The Presidents' Club was entertained at the home of Miss Dorothy Stroud Wednesday evening, November 26th. The meeting was called to order by Miss Margaret Bullock, of Adel, president of the Student Government Association. The topic under discussion was Parliamentary Procedure. After the business meeting a social hour was enjoyed.

President R. H. Powell and Miss Augusta Rentz, registrar of the college, attended a conference of the teachers of Turner county at Ashburn Monday. They were guests of Miss Nina Cox, superintendent of schools. Dr. Powell made a speech at one of the meetings.

Miss Gertrude Gilmer, of the English department, and Miss Caroline Parish, secretary to the president, visited Thomasville high school Monday.

Assembly

Supt. A. G. Cleveland gave a talk in chapel Wednesday on the late Mr. J. R. Dasher, who was a member of the board of trustees of the college.

Dr. R. H. Powell attended a conference Saturday of the various State institutions, called by Chancellor Charles Snelling in Athens. Miss Leonora Ivey, of the physical education department, accompanied him and visited her sister, Miss Nan Ivey.

November Pine Branch Issued

The Pine Branch, magazine of the college, has just come from the press in its second edition for the year. The November number is even more interesting, if possible, than the first. The whole issue seems to have been dedicated to the essay, some of which were contributed by Mrs. Mary J. Pence, of Valdosta; Miss Lillian Lively, of Savannah, and Miss Elsie Quarterman, of Valdosta, who also contributed a poem. There were several other poems by Miss Hazel Allen, of Valdosta; Miss Emeliza Swain, of Rome, and one poem and a very clever story by Miss Kate Jones, of Riceboro. There was interesting news of the alumnae; of several organizations and associations, of the campus life, and some very witty jokes.

Math Club

The Euclidian Club had a called meeting Friday night for the purpose of electing officers for the year and discussing the business of the club. The following officers were elected: President, Miss Grace Chastain, Thomasville; vice-president, Miss LaVerne Adams, Coolidge; secretary-treasurer, Miss Sara McEachin; news reporter, Miss Alice McCall, Thomasville. The club decided to hold its regular monthly meeting every second Wednesday night. After the business meeting, Dr. Hawks, head of the mathematics department, gave a very interesting talk.

Group of History Students In Savannah for Week-End

Misses Jean Loughridge, Odum; Dorothy Stroud and Louise Johnson, Valdosta, and Alice Hicks, Metcalf, accompanied by Miss Mildred Price, of the history department, are in Savannah this weekend. The object is to visit historical places of interest, particularly the library of the Georgia Historical Society, where the girls will find material to complete papers they are writing on Georgia history. During their visit they hope to spend some time in the Wormsloe Library and the library of Telfair Academy, where there are some excellent old maps.

"THE MINUET." Danced by sophomores, at the annual old English Christmas festival given at Georgia State Woman's College, at Valdosta, Ga., during the Yuletide season. Ladies of the ensemble were Kate Johnston, of Sasser; Evelyn Noell, of Valdosta; Virginia Sineath, of Valdosta; Lois Ford, of Abbeville; Pauline Griffin, of Valdosta, and Ethel Castleberry, of Ashburn. Lords in waiting: Vera Nelson, of Vienna; Helen Brasington, of Waycross; Dorothy Chapman of Savannah; Myrtice Ford, of Abbeville; Aida Du Priest, of Sylvester, and Eloise Blich, of Homerville.

—Photo by Blackburn, Valdosta

DAINTY DANCERS WHO TOOK PART IN THE ANNUAL OLD ENGLISH FESTIVAL held during the holidays at the Georgia State Woman's College, Valdosta, Ga. Left to right, top row: Mary Small, Valdosta; Emily Tillman, Valdosta; Lucile Wood, Valdosta, and Myrtle Vick, of Moultrie. Bottom row: Elizabeth McRee, of Valdosta; Caroline Parrish, Valdosta; Louise Lastinger, Valdosta, and Helen Ryon, of Hinesville.

—Photo by Blackburn, Valdosta, Ga.