

Feb 22, 1936

Freshman-Junior Dance Was Most Delightful Affair

The Freshman-Junior formal, at which the members of the Junior class of G. S. W. C. are honored by the Freshmen, was held last evening at the Country Club, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

In the receiving line were Miss Matilda Tillman, president of the Junior class, Miss Anna Ritcher, president of the Freshman class, Miss Annie P. Hopper and Miss Leonora Ivey.

The dance was led by Miss Tillman and Mr. Billy Lastinger and Miss Ritcher and Mr. Jack Jennings, of Waycross.

An orchestra from the University of Florida furnished music throughout the evening.

A large number of out of town guests were here for the occasion.

Chaperones were Dr. Lena Hawks, Miss Frances Carpenter, Miss Gladys Warren and Miss Janie Bush.

Activities At The Womans College

A program "The Ideal College Girl" was given at Assembly Wednesday, Feb. 19, by the Student Government Association. The girls who spoke were: Clara Louise Driskell, Irwinville; Josephine Daniels, Ludowici; Amanda Barksdale, Blakely; Virginia Tuck, Thomasville; Leonora Dufour, Albany, and Nettie Johnson, Valdosta.

Charm week and Heart Sister week were held together at G. S. W. C. this year. Talks on "How to be Charming" were given by Miss Gertrude Gilmer, professor of English, Miss Leonora Ivey, professor of physical education and Miss Matilda Calloway, professor of home economics. The charm program began Monday, Feb. 10. A theatre party to see Lilly Pons in "I Dream Too Much," was given the students Wednesday, Feb. 12, by Mr. Hugh Martin, manager of the Ritz theatre. On Thursday, Feb. 13 "Miss Charming of G.S.W.C." was elected by the student body. Misses Virginia Ziplies of Savannah and Priscilla Kelley, of Savannah were chose jointly to portray "Miss Charming." Friday afternoon, February 14 Miss Kelley and Miss Ziplies, with the other nominees for "Miss Charming" acting as attendants were honored at a tea in the Ashley Rotunda. The nominees included: June Lawson, Anna Richter, Elizabeth Kelley, all of Savannah; Evelyn Whitmire, Griffin; Kitsie Smith and Ruth Williams, Waycross; Ethel Stallings, Newnan.

"Heart Sister Week" began Tuesday evening February 11, when each girl drew the name of her heart sister. The week closed Friday with a Valentine dinner when the girls discovered who had been their "sisters."

Miss Margaret Hudson of Newton, was Major Bowes at the Amateur Program of the junior class. It was given Saturday, February 15, in the gymnasium. Misses Chappie Bragg, Savannah; Margaret Bennett, Jesup, and Jo Joubert of Savannah, won first place singing "You're the Tops." Second place was given to Linelle Lang of Omega, who played the accordion. Lorene Johnson of Thomasville, won third honors with a humorous reading.

Tryouts for the annual 3 act Sock and Ruskin club play have recently been announced. "From Nine Til Six," by Aimee and Phillip Stuart is the play selected. The cast includes: Broun Hutchinsom, Valdosta; Mildred Turnbull, Moultrie; Ames Watkins, Metcalf; Frances Fluker, Quitman; Anna Richter, Savannah; Matilda T. Tillman, Quitman; Bobby Cochran, Camilla; Chappie Bragg, Savannah; Virginia Tuck, Thomasville; Ruth Williams, Waycross; Mary Perry, Valdosta; Theresa Graham, Jesup; Kathryn Morgan Pembroke; Elizabeth Kelley, Savannah; Clara Davis Adams, Moultrie; Josephine Joubert, Savannah. Miss Louise Sawyer, professor of Speech, is directing the play with Miss Lorene Johnson as assistant director.

Miss Lorene Johnson, of Thomasville and Miss Elizabeth Green of Jacksonville represented the Campus Canopy, G. S. W. C. publication at the press convention in Athens this week.