Miss Madeline Race
Judson College
Marion, Alabama

Dear Madeline:

So glad to hear that you have decided to be with us this summer at Glenrochie. Must go to Atlanta for several days this week, but will write to you when I get back and sort of "talk over" what we want you to do this summer.

You will be glad to hear that one of our students, Ruth Reid, has been elected president of the Georgia Womans Athletic Association, --- which is to have its annual meeting here next year. You will also be pleased to know that Miss Sawyer has been elected president of the Southern Association of Teachers of Speech.

While I am pleasing you so much, I should tell you that Anita Oliver wants to go to Glenrochie, --- and that I am urging Dad to ask Ruth Reid also.

Hastily and sincerely,

Dr. Hudson Rogers
Florida State College for Women

Dear Hudson:

In case your maid may tell Mary that Valdosta has been trying to reach her today, please explain that I was making a noble effort to locate your Dr. Kathryn Abbey,- and nobody at the College seemed to be able to find her. Long Distance also reported trouble in locating her residence telephone,- but I finally got in touch with Dr. Abbey and cancelled the call to Mary. I had already tried you, but learned that you were gallivanting about the country!

Jean and I plan to drive to Tallahassee on Sunday afternoon, March 3, to hear the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra. Hope we shall be able to see something of you all at that time.

Sincerely,

1 October 1940

Miss Madeline Race
Tusculon College
Greenville, Tennessee

Dear Madeline:

Entirely too many things have been going on for the past two weeks! I haven't done a thing about next year's camp booklet, nor have I had time to do more than glance through your report. Just as soon as I can, however, I will write you about the report and send it back to you for your files. A glance or two at it convinces me that the report is quite thorough. I did read what you said about the infirmary situation, and it seems entirely fair and logical.

I shall send Dad a list of the girls who won the various medals, so that he can attach that information to your report.

So glad you like Tusculon better and better as time passes. Nita Oliver, as you doubtless know, went to New York with Gertrude Brooks, --- and, so far as I know, is still there. I presume that the Tusculon fellowship fell through.

Everything here seems to be getting off to a good start. Dormitory rooms all filled, library lovely, and so on.

Jean joins me in love.

Sincerely,

Dear Sirs:

When I was in Atlanta last week, I bought your edition of "The Constitution, the Declaration of Independence, and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address", --- for a dime. I should like each of our students and faculty members to have a copy of this little book, and shall appreciate it a great deal if you will tell me at what price colleges can buy the book in lots of 100.

Very truly yours,

Dear Oscar:

It has been a long time since I have spelled your name; so forgive me if I have done a poor job of it.

An application for a teaching position here next year has come to me from a Mr. C. C. Jarrard, now apparently a member of your faculty. It so happens that we shall probably have a vacancy here next year in which Mr. Jarrard might be interested, but I am writing to you first to ask your opinion of him, how long he has been with you, and why he is leaving V.E.S.

It has been a long time, --- but I still remember you as one of the only two men I ever saw coordinate a stiff-arm so that the knee, the butt-end of the hand, and the opposing tackler's head all meet together at the same instant. The other man was Jim Thorpe, and you are in mighty good company, my friend!

With best wishes for your continued success at V.E.S., I am

President Frank R. Reade
Georgia State Womans College
Valdosta, Ga.

Dear President Reade:

The postwar years will bring increasingly serious governmental problems. The citizen and student of government must give more thought to these if our democracy is to survive.

Members of the Southern Political Science Association are professionally concerned with improving citizens' competence to deal with these problems. Most of them are, or have been and expect again to be, teaching youth in our colleges and universities how to handle these emerging problems. Before they can determine the full nature and scope of their responsibility as teachers they need to learn what progress has been already made in teaching political science and in research in this field by educational institutions of the region.

This information can only be obtained by asking you, and every other person to whom this inquiry is addressed, to give us the requested data pertaining to your respective institution. When this has been assembled, we feel confident that a criterion can be formulated which will aid us to realize our potentialities in the field.

Of particular importance are the plans you have made, or are making, for the postwar expansion and revision of course work, enlargement of the teaching staff and improving its quality (if this is deemed desirable or necessary), establishment of a governmental research bureau and, through provision of facilities for publication, getting the research of political scientists into the hands of interested citizens.

Truly yours,

Robert S. Rankin

My dear Dr. Reade:

When I began the task of quoting from all the letters which we have written to Mrs. Joiner, I decided that it was entirely too hot to do this much work, and so I am sending you the carbon copies by registered mail. If you lose these, be it on your head. We must keep them in the files. I am at the present time waiting for a reply to my last letter to Mrs. Joiner.

I have done a good job for the summer school by requiring summer school work of a large number of freshmen. We have increased the enrollment to such an extent that I think we should get full salary this summer. At any rate I think I should get the salary for being of so much service.

Anna is doing very nicely, but she has to work all day and some evenings. We had a very lovely reception for the students last night. It is true that faculty dressed up and not many students came, but Miss Hopper had arranged an interesting program, utilizing artists which we have developed in this institution, Mary Winn Greer, Margaret Carter, Anna Richter, and Eleanor Morgan.

It grieves me to tell you that it has been very lovely and cool here since Wednesday, a little rain every day.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Dad:

Commencement exercises went off smoothly on yesterday morning. Summer school registration Monday and Tuesday. Hope to leave here Wednesday afternoon, probably spending Thursday in Atlanta. May spend another night at Greenville, S.C., or Asheville. Will wire you when to expect us at camp.

I have had a letter from Bob Ferguson saying that Cile will visit the Copeland girl here, if she decides to go to camp, and the two will go up together,--or else Cile will arrive Abingdon 2:34 P.M., June 27.

The Fergusons will spend the first two weeks in July at "Aqua Vista", St. Simon's Island, Georgia. Please jot this information down somewhere.

I shall see Mr. Copeland again,--and hope that he can send us his daughter.

Please drop a line to Bob,--R. E. Ferguson, Kentucky Tennessee Light and Power Company, Bowling Green, Kentucky, and tell him how much he should make the check for and how much allowance you think Cile should have. He asked me these questions, but I do not know whether he has paid any reservation fee.

Joe Prather is scheduled to go back to military camp, and will not be able to get to Glenrochie until a day or two before we open.

A letter posted in time to catch 41 on Wednesday morning should reach me at the Ansley Hotel, Atlanta, on Thursday.

The horses probably will leave here early next week. I shall wire you, or have some one else do so for me, when you may expect them at camp. Please be sure to have some one go along all fences around the stables, the drinking place at Black's, and wherever else possible,-- and look for barbed wire that might be down. Bars at Texas Baby and elsewhere, I hope, are up and in good shape.

Love in haste,

Willoughby Reade, Esq.
Episcopal High School
Alexandria, Virginia

Dear Dad:

Before going to Atlanta for the week-end (probably Friday through Monday, --- Ansley Hotel) --- --- I am sending you a very tentative layout of the 1941 Glenrochie Booklet. This layout has to do chiefly with photographs, though I am also enclosing booklet containing suggestions for new or changed copy. In addition, you will find a page of photographs "tentatively discarded", in case you and Nan prefer some of them to some suggested in tentative booklet.

After going through all the photographs with Homer, it seems advisable to have booklet "up-and-down" rather than "across", as it was last year.

Outside front cover: with proper spacing, think this O. K. Picture very attractive. Only other one which might do for cover is that of three archers, now on page 7. Personally, think tent group preferable.

Inside front cover: Booklet shows all camp activities; so perhaps no need to use entire inside front cover for such listing. Perhaps pictures showing the old and the new would be interesting.

Page 2: Three pictures showing ascent to new Texas Baby Tower suggested here. (In nearly all cases, Homer has negatives and will make better prints.)

Page 3: Cow picture is pretty, but seems to me out of place. - Don't know what to do with lovely branches. Perhaps we could have a page of general pictures somewhere else.

Pages 4 and 5: Don't care particularly for pages to be so "cut up". Your outdoor picture, or McIlwaine's indoor flash light (which do you prefer) include both big and little princesses; so see no need of duplication. In your picture, several have moved, several are looking down. On page 5, we may be giving too much space to handcrafts, particularly as interior picture is quite dark. Perhaps we should use only handcrafts and nature study exhibits, and picture of three little girls somewhere else.

Pages 6 and 7: O. K. by me.

Pages 8 and 9: Ditto.

Pages 10 and 11: Left blank tentatively, until text is estimated, and to allow for later shifting.

Pages 12 and 13: By cutting up two photographs, we can get a good picture of Crocker, Baker, and Owens, --- each mounted on nice looking horse (Patsy moved in one picture, Crocker in another!) Group picture at pool is clear, but for some reason most unattractive. Girls look glum, set, or something.

Page 15: Too much sameness. Can easily make some other selection.

If you and Nan can take a couple of hours off, go over each page critically, and write me what you suggest, I'll work out revised dummy and send to you for final approval. As you know, it takes many hours to get out even a small booklet like this one, --- at least it does if one wishes to balance photographs properly, have pictures blend with each other, placed suitably in accordance with text, etc., etc.

Once we can agree on pictures and their locations, the rest is comparatively simple. I can measure space left for text, fit it to the pictures without serious trouble, --- add a line here or there, or move text from one place to another. Do you think it necessary to rewrite the text entirely? I have found a number of textual suggestions from another camp booklet, and will include these in copies for your approval.

It is a lot of trouble for us to do all this, but the result will be satisfying, --- and frankly, I am a little afraid to leave anything more than actual printing to Homer. We do not know his artists, or make-up men, --- as I do those at Foote and Davies.

Everything going well here, but there still seems to be a lot to do.

Love to you and Nan, --- your devoted boy ---

Dear Dad:

Jean and I are distressed to hear of your cousin's death in London. As you had heard nothing of his being ill, it sounds as if he might have been killed by German bombs. I never knew him, of course, but from what you have written me about him he must have been a splendid man.

At least a week ago I sent you an air mail letter telling you that I had received the dummy for the camp booklet, asking you to drop Homer a line and find out certainly whether he would be able to get the booklet out for us, --- and to let me hear from you before this week end, when I must be in Atlanta again. The letter probably was written ten days ago, for I felt you would have ample time to write me here, even after writing to Homer.

I shall take the booklet material with me to Atlanta. If you think Homer may not be able to do the booklet, please wire me at the Ansley Hotel so that I can see Foote and Davies.

As I have meetings both on Friday and Saturday in Atlanta, Jean and I plan to leave here sometime tomorrow morning. Shall wait until after the mail comes, in case there might be a letter from you.

Love to you and Nan,

Your devoted boy,

Dear Dad:

Have had two or three letters from you in the past couple of days. I shall get Mr. Dusenbury to send you a check to cover my telephone calls and telegrams last summer. Thanks for the Jack Jervey poem.

CAMP BOOKLET

(1) What you say about the Barter Theatre is all right, but I think it would "catch the eye" a little more if it were given a separate paragraph heading, --- i. e., Barter Theatre: It might also be well to add Robert Porterfield's name as indicated.

(2) I believe you are right about the Williams girl from Washington. There were two DuBose sisters, perhaps later, who were friends of Mell's.

Your letter of 10:30 P. M., Sunday:

Congratulations on your contest, though you do not mention just which one it was.

Will you write to Earl Sanders, c/o Foote and Davies, explaining that Homer's troubles are passed and that he will get out the booklet, or shall I?

(a) As booklet states that trips are offered at cost, I think actual prices in circular letter should be sufficient

(b) Why not simply state in booklet that boxes of candy and cake will not be accepted at camp. Then, if such boxes should arrive, parents could be referred to this statement and asked whether they wished candy or cake to be returned, or opened and put on tables.

heating plant and the annual report.

With love to you and Nan,

Your devoted boy,

P. S. Ruth Reid has made several suggestions of several things she would like for Christmas. As she says she would like to be surprised. We will get something for her in the price range you suggest, and either give it to her from you for Christmas or else save it until you get here.

Dear Dad:

Am enclosing editorial from Saturday Evening Post, a letter from Mr. Cason Callaway (Chairman of the Board of Regents), and the letter from Miss Witheron. When you have time for it, I think that Mr. Callaway would appreciate a brief note from you saying a word or two about his boys.

So sorry to learn from your letter of last Sunday night that your cough is still bothering you. This plus your bad arm plus A.R.H. being away must keep you pretty miserable.

Jean appreciated your note about the pine leaves, -- or are they leaves? Just let us know when those wither, and we will send you some more.

Hope that Mr. Cheney is better. What with sulpher-nilimide, many cases of pneumonia are being cured, which otherwise would have been fatal.

Jean and I were tilling the soil on Sunday afternoon; so missed hearing Winston Churchill. Radio reception is so bad here by daylight that we rarely even know what is on. I haven't yet read "The White Cliffs" but did see enough of it to think you might like it.

I had a note from Madeline Race a week or so ago saying that she was going to write to you about a nurse, and if I am not mistaken about someone to play the piano who would, just for expenses. It seems to me that these two prospects will take care of two difficult positions to fill, and that you should sign them up early. The Bristol girl played very well, but was herself most unattractive, ---and her family, like the poor, were with us always.

Mrs. Weld, personally, is perhaps the nicest nurse we have ever had at camp. Professionally, however, I think she let the girls run over her, was too nice to them, --- and certainly both Nan and our athletic councilors were called on for too much duty at the infirmary. Indeed, I don't think that ordinary councilors ought to be asked to take infirmary duty, and I had thought of suggesting that you employ a colored woman to help at the infirmary and perhaps look after all trays.

With the sort of experience that Mrs. Witheron has had, however, she may not need this assistance.

For a good many reasons, I think that you had better arrange to have someone else plan the meals. While Jean and I want to be at camp as much as possible, recent developments make me think that we may have to be away from camp on an extended trip or two, though I hope for only a part of each month. Indeed, every camp or school or college ought to change "dietitians" every four or five years. A certain sameness about the meals is otherwise almost bound to appear. Again, keeping house can be and perhaps ought to be an almost full time job, --- for it should include looking after the kitchen, wash room, dining room, and cabin with some real care. Perhaps you can find someone who could do this work and who could also relieve the nurse at the infirmary at certain regular hours during the week.

I am simply swamped with work after the extended trip to Atlanta but will try to write you again on Sunday.

With love to you both, I am

Your devoted boy,

My dear Miss Reed:

I shall be glad to have you come in Saturday morning, and get a good rest before the arduous task of beginning Freshman Week on Monday. The dormitory is open and it will be quite satisfactory for you to get into your room and have your meals in the dining hall here. If you will have your linen available when you come in Saturday, it will be all right for your friend to spend the night with you in the dormitory since the rooms are equipped with two beds and you will have a roommate. I suppose you know about this. You are to room with one of the assistants in the music department, a last year's graduate. If you did not want to do this, there are quite a few tourist homes in the neighborhood, and if you do not see me on the campus, if you will call me at my apartment, I shall be glad to tell you about them.

Looking forward with pleasure to having you here this coming year, I am

Dear Mr. Reed:

The only boy that I know who is going to Virginia this fall, and in whom you (we) might be interested, is named Christopher Davis. He comes, I think, from Norfolk, and his middle name may be Columbus!

I have seen something of Chris in my home town of Abingdon, both last summer and this. He attended the High School last year, and I understand that he was quite well liked. He is tall and erratic looking, and wears a big shock of unruly hair. However, he really is a lot of fun, is interested in publications, and I believe would make us a first rate man.

Dear Captain Reich:

I was sorry not to be here the other day when you paid us a visit, but I happened to be in Savannah while you were in Valdosta! I suspect that our plant here is too small for your needs, but I shall appreciate it if you will drop me a line and give me some indication of what you think we may be able to do or ought to do.

Personally, I feel that it would be best both for the Government and for the University System if already established training units were enlarged and students shifted from one institution to another. At Milledgeville, for example, they might take another hundred WAVES and send us a hundred of their liberal arts students.

I hope that you will stop off again on your next trip over to Albany.

I am enclosing the information you have requested. It comprises rapidly dictated information as given to my secretary by one of my former Georgia Tech students, now a lieutenant in the U. S. Navy.

Dear Sir:

You seemed to be considering the buying of some practice pianos from us during March and also the Steinway Grand piano for concert purposes. I am wondering if you can see you way any better now in your plans financially than you could at that time. We are probably going to make some arrangement about the property during the summer months, and if there is a chance of our trading, I hope we can do so at an early date. If you think our price is too high, I should be glad to discuss your price with you. Let me hear from you if you are still interested. I should especially like to place the Steinway Grand with you as it should be used for concert.

If not convenient to send a typed copy of one of the diplomas, could you tell us whether the name, "University of Georgia", appears on your diploma; and if so, whether it precedes the name, "Georgia State Woman's College" as "University of Georgia, Georgia State Woman's College", or whether the degrees are given in the name of "Georgia State Woman's College of the University of Georgia".

Just a line to tell you that we were glad to have the men from the air base at the concert Thursday evening. I talked with a number of them and found them most courteous and agreeable. A number of people commented on their good manners and fine behavior.

Major Scott called me Saturday afternoon about a piano, and I asked if he would tell you that we will be happy to have a hundred of your enlisted men attend the Chekhov Players' rendition of "Twelfth Night" at 8:30 to-night. Dear Major Riley:

Although we seem to be getting along mighty well with our "soldier boy problem", I wonder if it might not be a good idea for you to suggest to the young men that they come to the College only when they have dates with our students, when they have been invited to some college function, or when they wish to attend an artist series program which is open to the public?

We have been just a little disturbed, particularly on Sunday afternoon, by soldiers ambling in from the streets and wandering about on the campus --- hoping, no doubt, to be fortunate enough to find and talk with some pretty girl! This letter is not one of criticism. I am just looking ahead a little, and know that you understand and appreciate what I am suggesting.

Dear Turner:

Twenty-six students did not return after Christmas. Ten new students entered. Net loss sixteen.

Last year, thirty-four students did not return after Christmas, and seven new students entered. Net loss twenty-seven.

It is encouraging to note that by comparison with last year our winter quarter enrollment is actually better, --- and a great deal better considering the uncertainty of the times.

Sincerely,

Mr. Hudson Rogers

Florida State College for Women

Dear Hudson:

On last Thursday evening, a very attractive young lady came up and spoke to me and Jean and told me, which I could hardly believe, that she was your daughter. I am wondering if you and your family can't come up for our May Day festivities on next Saturday?

There will be a lot of things going on, and I believe that all of you would enjoy the day.

The real purpose of this letter is to invite you to deliver the Baccalaureate Address on Friday, June 9, at 10 A.M., E.S.T. I must warn you that, on account of the present deplorable state of finances, the honorarium will not be excessive! However, we shall be glad to take care of your travel expenses and to present you with a reasonable emolument.

Despite June heat in South Georgia, we shall all appear in camps and gowns. The exercises may be held out of doors, in which event you will be provided with a microphone-loudspeaker hook-up.

Usually, of course, such invitations are issued months in advance, however, you know me of old,--and I can assure you, at least, that you are the first and only person whom I have invited! The Reverend Churchill Gibson, also a Virginia alumnus, is to preach our Baccalaureate Sermon on June 4. With best wishes to you, I am,

Sincerely yours,

President

Dr. Frank Reade,
Valdosta, Ga.

My dear Dr. Reade:
For the past two years Emory University has offered to prospective found leaders of the Ga. Federation of Women's Clubs, twelve tuition scholarships for one course in the Department of Public Affairs, during the Summer Session. This offer again has been renewed with a choice of courses in Public Opinion, Journalism, Fundamentals of spoken English, Political Science and Government of Georgia -

Because of our Federation's democratic reach into every community in Georgia and of its potential influence for quickened intelligence and better citizenship, I am deeply interested in having such courses made available to club women of every section in the State, so am asking all of the senior colleges to give us the same opportunity for study that Emory has offered us.

Do you have these courses during your summer session and will you give to the club women of your section tuition scholarships in such courses?

These scholarships must be announced soon. May I hear from you promptly?

Most cordially yours,

Floyd B. Rogers

Dear Mrs. Rogers:

I should have answered your letter of May 15 before now, but, as you and Dr. Rogers know only too well, this is a busy time for people in school work.

For a number of years, this College has encouraged what, for want of a better name, we call "The Open Door". Under this plan, any mature person in or near Valdosta may audit any of our courses, without credit, and without cost save for a fee of one dollar a month which is designed to keep out those who are curious only, and to take care of wear and tear on library books.

I think it likely that all the members of the Wymodausis Club know about the Open Door. However, it might be well for you to write to the president of the club and suggest to her that she urge the club members to take advantage of such college courses as may be of interest to them. Quite frankly, not a great many town people have audited our various courses, - but some have, and I hope that many more will.

In view of what I have written, you will probably agree with me that there is no need of our offering "tuition scholarships".

We plan to run a six weeks summer session, and a list of the courses to be offered will be published in the local paper.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

President

Dear Hudson:

Mr. Turner Rockwell, of the Valdosta Times, will appreciate it a great deal if you can let him have an abstract of your commencement address, at your earliest convenience.

It was just this sort of request, received about three days in advance, that persuaded me to sit down and write a speech for Honor Day at Georgia Tech on May 12!

We'll be looking for you and Mary a little before ten o'clock on Friday morning, June 9.

Dear Hudson:

Many, many thanks for coming up and speaking to our students (and others) at their commencement. My desk is piled high and summer school is opening today; so this can be only a note.

I am enclosing a small check, to take care of your expenses. Wish it could be more, but you know the situation this year.

Dear Mr. Reade: I am enclosing a statement of our 1940 fellowship program which I hope you will be good enough to post or otherwise call to the attention of persons who may be especially qualified for these grants.

Several application forms are being sent under separate cover and additional copies may be obtained upon request. We should like to have applications reach us as early as possible. In order to be considered this year they must reach us not later than January 5, 1940. Detailed correspondence concerning candidates or aspects of the fellowship program should be addressed to Mr. George M. Reynolds, Director for Fellowships, 4901 Ellis Avenue, Chicago.

I think you will be interested in the enclosed list of the fellows chosen by our Committee for 1939. We will greatly appreciate your helping us find an outstanding group from which to make our 1940 selections.

Very truly yours,

Dear Miss Rouse:

You know how slow all Southwest Virginians are; so I am sure you will forgive me for not having written sooner to thank you for helping us out with the Skinner program.

You must be sure to get in touch with me next summer, --- almost any time after June 15, at Abingdon. We would love to have you come down and play for our camp girls.

At Dean Opperman's suggestion I am sending you three young ladies a small check each rather than attempting to buy presents for you that you probably don't want!

Dear Mr. Pirkle:

Thank you for your letter of November 29 offering us an opportunity to place an advertisement in your year book.

I am sorry to have to write you that University System regulations prevent us from doing such advertising.

Occasionally, I do see what seem to be advertisements of some of our units, but I feel sure that these are not paid for with state money, and we do not have any such fund available at this time.

Dear Dick:

It was good to see you this morning, and I'm glad that you think well of what we are doing at the college. We really do have a lovely situation, a first rate faculty, and a mighty nice crowd of girls. Next time you pay a visit to South Georgia you must come during the regular session, when things are a little more lively than you found them today.

This note is to remind you to look into the business of social security for school teachers in the Association of Georgia Colleges. At a meeting at the Association several months ago, a number of those present felt that, as we are now subject to federal taxation, we ought to be eligible for the benefit of the social security program.

With all good wishes, and thanking you for taking time and trouble to come out to the college, I am,

Dr. Frank R. Reade,

Dear Frank:

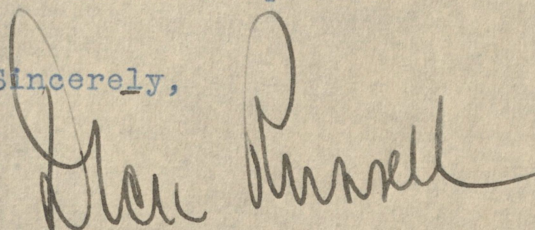

I enjoyed my brief visit to your beautiful campus, and regret that I could not stay with you longer.

I am looking into the question of social security for school teachers, and expect to have a report from the Social Security Board in the near future, which I will forward to you.

I am tremendously gratified to know that you are offering so much work in the social sciences. This is growing increasingly important, and I fear that Georgia has been far behind many other States in offering proper training in sociology.

With best wishes and personal regards, I am

Dear Dick:

Thank you for the copy of your letter of September 4 to Bill North telling him of the competitive examination by virtue of which you are to make your 1942 appointments to West Point. I am sure that the boy and his father appreciate your interest as much as I do.

We are opening school on Wednesday, and it looks as if we shall have a first rate enrollment, as all dormitory rooms are filled, and there are a number of applicants yet to be placed. This is particularly good news, as we had expected a decrease in enrollment by perhaps twenty-five or thirty students. Maybe people are just beginning to realize what a fine college we have here!

So far, we have not suffered any from the recent purge within the University System.

With kind personal regards and hoping that you will be able to get back to Valdosta sometime in the near future, I am

Sincerely yours,

President

Mr. Bill North
862 Rosedale Road, N.E.
Atlanta, Georgia

Dear Bill:

Since my recent correspondence with your father and Dr. Reade, it has developed that I will be able to make my 1942 appointment to the United States Military Academy on the basis of a competitive examination, to be held through the facilities of the Civil Service Commission on October 4 of this year, and I shall be glad to have you participate in this examination if you desire to do so.

My principal appointment will be awarded to the young man who makes the highest general average, and alternates to those standing next in line. You will find more detailed information in the enclosed leaflets.

You may present this letter to the Civil Service officials at the Post Office Building in Charleston, South Carolina at nine o'clock Saturday morning, October 4, 1941, as your authority to participate in the competitive West Point examination to be held at that time.

With every good wish, I am

Sincerely,

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

You will remember that we were most anxious to have you here at the College on the occasion of the celebration of our twenty-fifth anniversary, but that social engagements in Washington made it impossible for you to get away in mid-January.

Attached to this letter is a booklet which shows something of the development of the College during the past quarter of a century. I hope that you will have time to glance through it.

We are fortunate in having Miss Mary Woolley and Miss Mildred Thompson as speakers on the fifteenth. We have not for a moment, however, given up the idea of your visiting the College some time in the near future. We would like you to speak at our commencement exercises on June 10. Perhaps the anniversary booklet will tempt you!

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt
Office of Civilian Defense
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

Thank you so much for your letter of January 29. The gentleman about whom I wrote you has been offered a position in another state, but plans to be back in Georgia this summer. Everyone seems to think this a happy solution of the problem.

Our students here have hit upon something in which I believe you will be intensely interested. They are planning a continuous drive, for the duration, --- among themselves, their parents and friends, our faculty, and others interested in the college, --- to establish and build up a Defense Bond Scholarship Fund which, in years to come, will make it possible for deserving students, who would not otherwise be able to afford it, to have a college education.

Contributors to this fund will have the satisfaction of knowing:

(a) that their money is going directly into guns, and planes, and ships, --- to help preserve our free institutions.

(b) that ten years from now this money will provide loan scholarships which will enable those who come after us to enjoy the same privileges that we ourselves have enjoyed.

(c) that they are not laying up interest bearing bonds for themselves but are in a very real and utterly unselfish way making a contribution to the future.

Miss Louise Edwards (Senior Hall, Georgia State Womans College), --- who is chairman of the Defense Scholarship Fund, does not know that I am writing you, --- but I know that her committee would be gratified if you feel that you can write her a few lines of commendation with permission to use your statement in connection with their Defense Scholarship Fund ambitions.

With kind personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,
