Mr. C. M. Talbert, Sr. R. F. D. #1 Abingdon, Virginia

Dear Uncle Charlies

Mrs. Reade and Willie and Jack Dawson and I were all very much distressed to learn of Mrs. Talbert's death. We did not even know that she had been ill, --- so the news came as a real shock to us. Please accept our deepest sympathy.

I am trying to write a book about The Meadows, and will stop by and talk to you about it when I get back to camp in June. Papa always thought so much of you that I want you to help me remember some of the stories about him.

I hope that you are much better than you were last summer, and that the rest of your family is well. Your sincere friend,

Dear Judge Thomas:

I tried to find you at your office a couple of times yesterday, and cannot reach you on the telephone to-day; so an dropping you this note in connection with Mr. Bennett's letter.

If you think it necessary, please call me again and tell me what Mr. Bennett had to say and whether or not you there is anything that we here at the College can do about the situation.

I gather from the little you teld me on the 'phone that Mr. Bennett feels that somehow a high school football squabble may affect this college. It seems to me that if Wayeress parents should not send their daughters here to college because the Valdosta High School will not play the Brunswick High School a post season game of football in Wayeress,.... then the children of such stupid parents probably would not make very intriguing college material!

Judge W. E. Thomas Court House Valdosta, Georgia

Dear Judge Thomas:

When the convicts were cleaning up our south woods in preparation for May Day, I happened to see young Willie Frank Brown among them. Willie Frank's mother is the sister of our head cook at the college. The boy, as you know, is only fourteen, and I know you agree with me in feeling that it would be better for him (and eventually better for society), if he did not have to associate so closely with more or less hardened law-breakers.

It occurs to me that we might give the boy some sort of job at the college, picking up trash on the campus perhaps, give him his meals, and, if he did well, perhaps a little money.

Please let me have your reaction to this suggestion, tell me what you know about the boy, and also what steps we would have to take to enable him to be released from the chain gang on parole.

With best wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Julian Strickland told me yesterday afternoon that you had talked with him about me and that he had told you he would tell me what you had to say. I presume that you went to Julian because he is a member of the Board of Regents, though I must confess that I cannot understand why you did not come directly to me and tell me just what it is you have on your mind. After all, we are both grown men.

Please call me at your convenience, telephone 435, so that we may decide upon a time agreeable to you to come by and see me. I shall be glad to break any previous appointment to accommodate you.

From what Julian told me, I gather that you are displeased at some sort of political activity on my part. Such a suggestion is so utterly ridiculous that I am anxious to talk with you and find out what it is that really is disturbing you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Joe:

Sometime ago you spoke to me about two openings for house mothers. At that time I knew of no one available. I am writing now to confirm my telephone conversation with you regarding Mrs. George Middlebrooks who is now at G.S.W.C., Valdosta.

Miss Hopper, dean of women at G.S.W.C., is visiting our college today, and she has called to my attention the fact that President Reade must economize by consolidating some places, and that he would doubtless not have a place for Mrs. Middlebrooks. I understand from Reade and Miss Hopper that Mrs. Middlebrooks' services have been quite satisfactory.

I know Mrs. Middlebrooks personally, and I am sure she will be what you want. If she is not satisfactory there, at the end of the year, I agree to find her a place here, and if she is satisfactory, you will want to keep her, of course.

Dear Jack:

The news that Hollywood is planning to produce the "Loves of Edgar Allan Poe" fills me with alarm. They'll probably call him Allen and have him saying you-all to Virginia. God spare the mark, he may even call her honey child.

Dr. James Southall Wilson, Edger Allan Poe Professor of English at the University of Virginia, should be notified at once!

Thanks for the suggestion that I secure a position as technical advisor for the film. How does one go about securing such a position? And I will have you know, sir, that mine is no "fine Italian hand," ---my British father would also resent the implication.

If you don't mind, I will be Anthony Eden and you can be Leon Blum.

And please tell Miss Larisey that the mills of God grind slowly, and that I think she is exceeding small already. So what?

Dear Sir:

We have just been informed by Mr. L. R. Siebert, Secretary of the University System of Georgia, State Capitol, Atlanta, Georgia, that no definite arrangement has been made in regard to the manner in which furniture will be purchased for the new buildings being constructed in the State of Georgia at the various colleges. He has requested that we contact you and have our name placed on your mailing list.

With our forty years of manufacturing furniture and equipping institutions, we are quite sure that we will be of great assistance to you in your furnishing problems.

We have at your disposal a complete decorating staff and if you will furnish us with blue prints of the buildings that are to be constructed, we will be more than glad to prepare a scaled laid-in drawing, showing the placement of the furniture and the different pieces of materials to be used on the upholstered items. We are also in a position to furnish you with complete specifications covering the construction of the different pieces of furniture that you might have in mind purchasing. All of this information and assistance are yours at no extra cost.

We have equipped quite a number of institutions throughout the country and will be more than glad to submit for your approval illustrations of the different pieces of furniture that are most useful for your particular building.

Kindly let us hear from you at your earliest convenience. We are anxious to be of assistance and hope that you will give us the opportunity.

Henry thanks for having the riding coats sent. Joan has decided to keep the cheaper priced one from Lord and Taylor. The other three coats were sent to you by express on Saturday.

I an Calcioning sustainer's checks for your convenience. Please let me know about postage from both stores. After I had cut the price tags off so that Jean would not see them, I noticed that they were not supposed to be detached! However, I planed them back on the proper coats and suppose you will have no trouble.

Registration for the second quarter begins today; so there is a lot to de. So will write you a longer lotter later.

Dear Fatts:

Your letter just here. Of course, you would pick the only time that I have to be out of town! Jean and I plan to drive to Atlanta on Wednesday of this week, and come back here probably on Sunday the fourteenth.

Now I have a good idea, --- you come on up to Jacksonville with your friend Mrs. Sharman, wait around for a couple of hours and catch the Southern train just as you had planned, --but do not get off in Valdosta. Just stay on that same train and come on to Atlanta. You will get there on Saturday morning at 8:00 o'clock Central Time, which is nine o'clock Eastern Time, which I hope confuses you! This will give you a good night's sleep, and you can get a cab at the station in Atlanta and come to the Ansley Hotel, beat on our door, and join us for breakfast.

I shall have to work on Thursday and Friday, but we are going to "play" on Saturday and Sunday, --- so you will be just in time. The added expense will be only $7.50 which I will be glad to take care of if you can't make Lee pay for it;

By doing this you will have an chance to see some of your old "haunts" in Atlanta, and we will drive you back here to Valdosta for a visit. All of this sounds perfectly simple to me. so be sure to do it.

If any complications come up, phone or wire me at the Ansley Hotel, Atlanta, Jackson 1100, any time Thursday or Friday. If I hear nothing from you, we shall expect you at the Ansley on Saturday morning.

Valdosta is lovely at this time of year, and both Jean and I are so anxious to have you visit us that you must not let us down.

Dear Percy:

We have some library tables that have such a highly polished varnish on them that light reflection disturbs our students.

I am wondering if you can tell me how we can best get a duller finish on these tables.

We have removed all the varnish from two table tops, and now they look like kitchen tables! What do you think of our rubbing boiled linseed oil into these tops, letting them stand for a couple of weeks, and then rubbing them down with dull wax?

Transportation difficulties prevent our sending these huge table tops to you in Atlanta; and we have one or two colored men here that are good at this sort of thing if they know what to do.

I am enclosing a self-addressed, stamped envelope, ---just to shame you into writing to me at once!

Rt. Rev. George Tucker, D. D 281 Fourth Avenue New York City

Dear Bishop Tucker:

Jean and I are delighted to know that you will be in Jacksonville on February 4 and 5, and we do hope that you will be able to stop off here in Valdosta, either on your way down, or on your way back, see something of our college and talk to our students.

The last time we had the pleasure of seeing you was when you dropped in for tea with Dad and Miss Nan when you were at the High School at the time of the Centennial Celebration.

Jacksonville is only a hundred and twenty miles from Valdosta, and we would be happy to drive you from here there, or to drive you back after the meeting is over. If you will write me where you have to be and when, I will promise to work out an itinerary that will make it possible for you to pay us at least a brief visit!

For example, if your meeting closes at night, there is a morning train for Jacksonville that gets here at 11:30. You could have lunch with us, speak to our girls in the early afternoon, and we could drive you to Nahunta, about eighty miles from here, and put you on a fast Coast Line train that gets to Washington the next morning and on to New York in the afternoon or early evening.

We are so far from any metropolitan center that, whenever possible, we bring a Mohammed to the mountain. In this instance, we hope that Mohammed, this time as the presiding bishop of our church, will certainly come to us. Such a visit would be an inspiration to our students and to all of us.

With kind personal regards, I am

Dear Mr. Read:-

I discussed the reappointment of Mr. Horace Caldwell, as a Member of the Board of Regents, with Senator H. B. Edwards, and ofcourse Mr. Edwards feels about the appointment as you and I do. I told Mr. Edwards that when this appointment came up to be made that I would be very glad to recommend the reappointment of Mr. Caldwell.

I think that the Member of the Board of Regents of the Eighth Congressional District should come from Valdosta.

Kindly keep me advised about the matter and if there is anything that I can do which will not meet the disapproval of the Governor concerning Mr. Caldwell's appointment, I shall be very happy to do so.

I want to express to you again my appreciation of the kindness shown Carolyn during the time that she has spent in your college. We appreciate very much the progress that she is making and are very much satisfied about the work she is doing there.

Please let me hear from you when I can serve you further.

Dear Mr. Tuten:

Thank you so much for your letter of January 22. I appreciate what you have had to say and hope that the Governor will wish to have Mr. Caldwell confirmed as Regent from this district. Naturally, neither Mr. Caldwell nor I wish to make any definite request in a matter of this sort, but I personally hope that at least the more able members of the Board of Regents can be retained, as it takes a long time for anyone to acquaint himself with so large an organization as the University System.

I also appreciate the fact that Carolyn seems to be enjoying herself here and that you are satisfied with her progress.

I expect to be in Atlanta on Friday and Saturday of this week and shall be glad to see you if you will leave a call for me at the Ansley Hotel.
