

January 18, 1938.

Mrs. Earle Taylor,
1503 Hilton Avenue,
Columbus, Georgia.

Dear Mrs. Taylor:

We were all so glad to have you with us as a representative of your class at our twenty-fifth birthday celebration. You must come back to see us whenever you can.

I was sorry not to be able really to see something of you, but I'm sure you understood how busy most of us were during those two rather hectic days!

With all good wishes, I am,

Sincerely yours,

President.

FRR:C