I Promise Myself

To be so strong that nothing can disturb my peace of mind.
To talk health, happiness, and prosperity to every person I meet.
To make all my friends feel that there is something worthwhile in them.
To look at the sunny side of everything, and make my optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best and to expect only the best.
To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as I am about my own.
To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.
To wear a cheerful expression at all times and give a smile to every living creature I meet.
To give so much time to improving myself that I have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear,
and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
To think well of myself and to proclaim this fact to the world, not in loud words, but in great deeds.
To live in the faith that the whole world is on my side, so long as I am true to the best that is in me.

COLLEGE CHECKLIST

As the year draws close to an end, most seniors prepare to head to college. They will practically be switching homes entirely, and being stressed out trying to get everything together, it would not be uncommon for a few key requirements to slip their minds, a few of them being:

• Do not forget to get your shots! Most colleges tend to be very diverse, and with a diverse amount of people comes an even greater diverse of disease. Dorms can be very crowded, making it even easier for diseases to spread. Up to date vaccinations should include Tetanus, Meningitis, Hepatitis B and any other shots your college finds necessary.

• Set up a campus visit - When deciding what college a person is going to spend the next four years of their lives at, one should really consider setting up a campus visit. Who knows, they might just get there to find a totally different place than what they expected to find. Another good reason to set up a campus visit is because when the possible "new-enrollee" gets there, they get to ask their tour guide as many questions as they want. They also get to look at what the classes are like, and even get to sneak a peak at the dorms.

• Pack everything! -Not implying that a person should go grabbing everything that they see, they should still keep in mind that they will be walking into an empty dorm room with nothing but what they brought with them. Waiting until they get there is not the time to start wondering if they packed everything, and nobody wants to have to take the ride of shame back home just because they left something- like their phone. There are tons of college checklists online that they can print off, for free, to help them remember everything they need, like an alarm clock, bed sheets, towels, toothpaste, deodorant, a calculator, etc.

Morgan Dunk

MORGAN,
Graduation Day is a day to mark a tremendous accomplishment. You could not have come to this day without a lot of hard work and dedication. There have been many days when you felt that you could not continue, but you did. Oh the since of pride you will feel as you hear them call your name and you head across that field and receive your diploma. It's then that you will know that all the tears and struggles were well worth it. But for us, there will be a lot of mixed emotions. We have watched you grow from a sweet little girl into a beautiful young woman ready to conquer the world. And we know that's just what you will do.

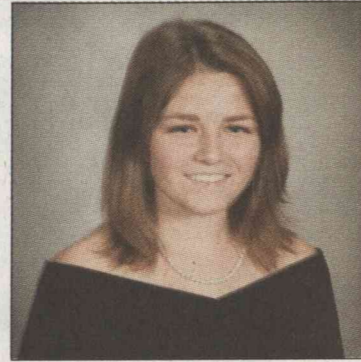

As you prepare to start this new chapter in your life, know how very proud we are of you and how much we love you. God is good and we know he has great things in store for you and will guide and direct you on this journey.

LOVE, YOUR FAMILY

 SENIOR 2018

Hunter,
 It has been an amazing journey watching you grow from a beautiful baby, to a toddler with a vivid imagination, to the fine young man you are today with your quick wit and sense of humor. We have been amazed by your dedication and strength and it has been an honor to watch and encourage you as you close the door on this chapter of your life. You will always have our support wherever your journey leads. Remember to hold your head high, reach for the stars and never forget to trust in God to light your path, he will never lead you wrong.

Hyatt,
As we look at you now, we don't see you as just a seventeen-year old man, we see you in all stages of life at once... A baby who came into the world half-grown at ten pounds to a toddler making up his own words like "Chumah" to starting school and making friends to middle school where your gifts and talents in leadership started to shine to now Salutatorian! It has been a blessing to watch you through life's journeys! You are our first grandchild, and you stole our hearts from the minute you were born. We are so proud to call you our Grandson! We love you!

Ephesians 6:16
“..Take up the Shield of Faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one.”

Hyatt,
As a mother and father raise their son, so does a son raise a mother and a father. You have taught us many things as we have watched you grow like how to find joy in the moment by simply singing a Disney song. We admire your courage, perseverance, character and integrity, but it is your Faith in God that delights us the most. Remember that following God is a daily journey. Your choices will either lead you closer to God or further from Him. Choose wisely, son, even when choosing right means you stand alone. We are so blessed that God has entrusted you to us for these seventeen years. Now it is your time to do as God leads you and follow His will. We are so proud of you!

You came into our lives one day, a tender little rose,
With tiny fingers, made just right, and little button nose,
You took our hearts gently in your hands, so sweet,
Your eyes shown brightly, you kicked your little feet,
Now you've grown into God's masterpiece, in his loving hands,
Not yet finished, but on the way, just as he has planned.

You've left such precious memories throughout our very souls,
Time will pass, but they will never fade or dim as we grow old.

We pray for you God's best always, his blessings without end,
And just remember, our precious love, he's always your best friend.

We love you bunches, sweetheart.

Almost 19 years ago your mom called you her little miracle.
Pop raised an eyebrow.
A few years later your dad called you a happy baby.
Pop just smirked and smiled.
Not long ago Dad told you to ask Pop what he wants for lunch.
You said

"A peanut butter sandwich and a beer!"
Since that's what you thought he wanted.
Pop just shook his head in disbelief.
Just a while back you got an old jeep to learn to drive.
It was a stick shift and again....
Pop just smirked, smiled and shook his head.
Now as a young man you've come along way.
With decisions to make and directions to take
And if in doubt on which to choose.....
Just stop and smile and shake your head....
win or lose.

ON THE COVER

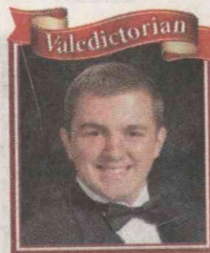

Who will ever forget the year 2020? Certainly not our Cairo High School Class of 2020! While their senior year was cut short, these graduating seniors have much to celebrate and the Grady County community congratulates them on their achievements. This year, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, we are featuring a dual cover, both of which feature this year's Valedictorian Eli Pырz and Salutatorian Zoe Prince—one masked and one unmasked.

Truett,
 We were there to watch you, celebrate with you, encourage you, and hold you, our precious grandson. Now, we see this handsome young man you have grown up to be, and we start the next chapter of life which is learning to let go. So, we hold you close to our hearts but quietly let you step into what God has in store for your life. Remember that your faith, family and friends will be your foundation. Sing and make music from your heart to the Lord.
EPHESIANS 5:19

Tru-Tru,

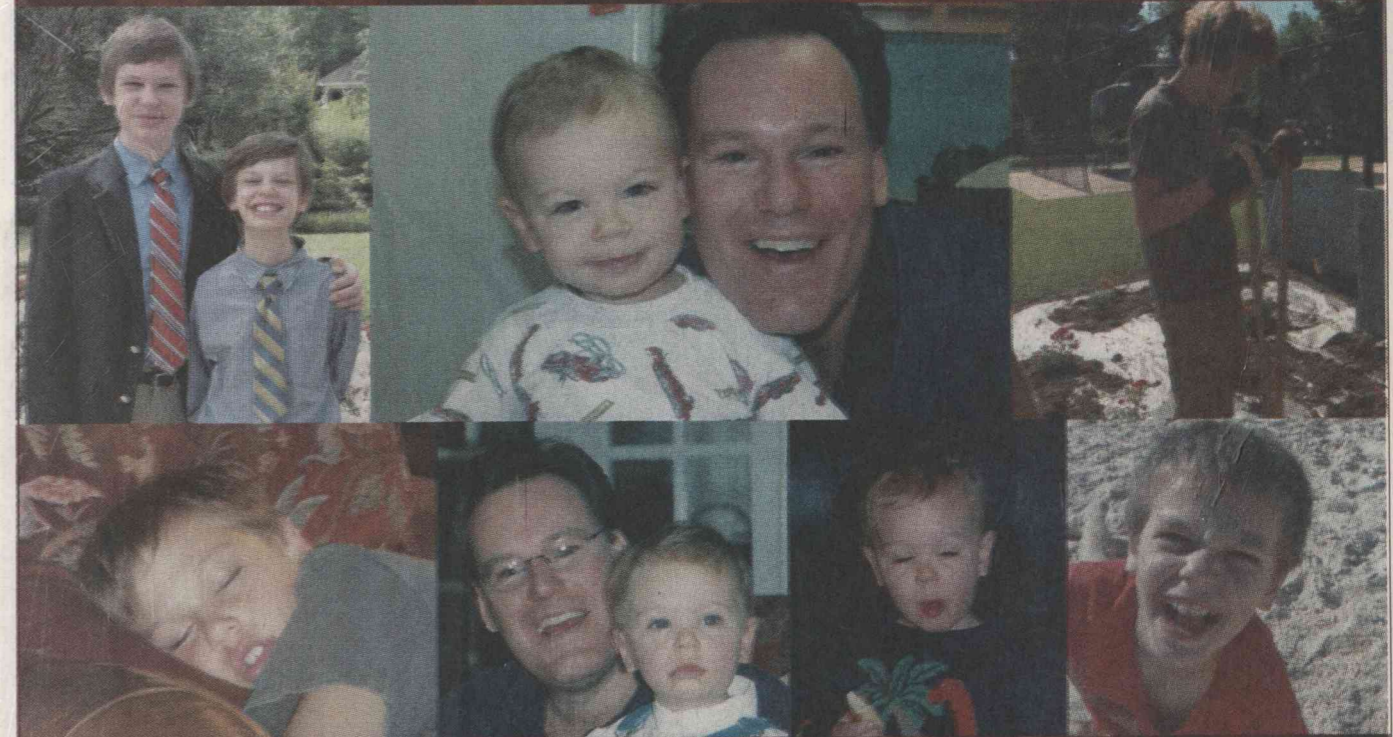

We constantly go between wanting you to be our baby forever and being excited about all the amazing things you will do in this life! Where once a little boy full of curiosity who could entertain himself stood, now an over six foot man who entertains us stands. You are so handsome and talented, but what makes a Mom and Dad like us the proudest is your heart for the Lord. You teach us more and more each day about how to love and serve others with your gentle, sweet spirit. We know that God is going to touch so many people through you, as He is calling you to the ministry as a Worship Pastor. Son, let Him use you fully! You were never ours to begin with but His. We are so blessed to have had these wonderful eighteen years with you at home.

We Love You,

CAIRO HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR 2020

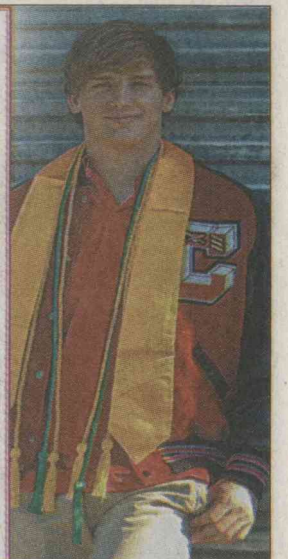

JT,

We are so proud of you. We are proud of the way you handle yourself - with quiet dignity and confidence. We are proud of the choices you have made and how you handle your priorities. We are proud of the way you treat others, with kindness and respect.

We are proud of your athletic achievements and the determination with which you have approached them.

We are also very proud of your academic achievements. There were many long nights you spent doing assignments and studying and we never had to be concerned with you doing what you needed to. Hard work and dedication pay off in the end and you are a shining example of that. We are most proud of the person you are when nobody is looking. You do not pretend to be somebody you are not, and you own your mistakes and learn from them. We wish you the best of luck at UGA and although you will dearly be missed, we are excited at what the future holds for you.

With all our love, Mom, Dad, and KK

Congratulations to our daughter,
Emilee Lynn Ezell

We are very proud of you!
Remember always our
Bible verse:
I can do all things
through Christ,
that strengthens me.

We love you to

Haven Gammill

You have been a part of us every moment of your life. We were there to watch you, celebrate you, encourage you, cry with you, and hold you. Now we see the beautiful young woman you have grown to be, and we slowly step into the chapter of letting go while longing to hold you closer.

Remember the gifts of family, friends and faith. They will always be your sure foundation. Now with joyful gratitude we celebrate your accomplishments and watch the next chapter.

HaHa it's time to open our hearts and let you fly.
All our Love ~ Ma and Pa

Callie Lauder

Callie,

GG and Papa are so very proud of you! We love you with all our hearts. Keep your eyes on Jesus- and you will be successful in whatever you do!

Abbey Lee

It's a beautiful thing to watch our granddaughter, who we always loved, grow up and get closer to her dreams.

Congratulations with all our love!
Granny Martha
and Papa Weyman

Eve Kirkland

Eve,

We have watched you blossom from a silly tomboy into a beautiful young woman. What makes us most proud of you is the person you are: very caring and compassionate. We have no doubt you will combine these attributes with your hard work ethic, creativity, and high moral standards to accomplish great things in life. We are incredibly proud of you!

Love ~ Mom and Dad

Haven Gammill
Senior 2020

We are very proud of the young woman you have become Haven. Our prayers will be with you everyday that you are not with us! We pray that you will rise up with the strength of a lioness and bring God-wonder wherever you go!

LOVE, MAMA AND DADDY

Claire Phillips

We are so proud of you. God has big plans for you. Trust God. Follow your dreams and be intentional in everything you do.

We love you, Dad, Mom, Cole, and Emalee Ryan

I press on toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus.

-Philippians 3:14

Eve Kirkland

Congratulations Eve!

I am very proud to call you my sister, and I can't wait to see what is in store for you as you enter this new chapter in life. It feels like yesterday that I was standing on my tip-toes to get the first glance of you in the hospital nursery, and now I'm watching you jump for joy as you got accepted to your dream school! You have big things in store for you, little Steve. Never forget you are exceptional! I love you.

Love, Emily

Emma Strickland

Congratulations on reaching this milestone! We are so proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are a blessing to our family, and we thank God for your presence in our lives. Your future is bright!

Congratulations KASEY TAYLOR!

The employees of Merritt Mechanical have watched you evolve from a little tom boy to a beautiful, smart and hard-working young lady. It's been a joy to watch you grow and achieve so much these past four years. Graduation is an exciting time; it marks both an ending and a beginning. Congratulations to the start of your next adventure!

You have brains in your head.
You have feet in your shoes.
You can steer yourself
any direction you choose.
You're on your own.
And you know what you know.
And YOU are the one who'll decide where to go...

GOD OPENED HEAVEN'S GATE A BIT

And let two special angels slip out of it Born cousins, just eleven weeks apart
You entered the world, and took our hearts You've grown up strong and happy, like brothers oh so dear Where one was found, the other was always near,
The back yard grass was worn where you played all sorts of ball All the while growing healthy, strong, and tall
You roamed the fields, and spread your wings
Made dams in streams, saw animal tracks and did all sorts of things Our hearts are filled to bursting with love
O'er the two magnificent gifts from above
And in God's loving hands, in a fleeting moment it seems You've grown to be such fine young men, living out your dreams,
Loving, caring and kind, but most of all sincere
Both devout Christians, we love you oh so dear
Our prayers for you were answered better than we sought
We are thankful for God's love, and the young men He wrought. You've grown into God's Masterpiece, formed in His loving hands Not yet finished, but on the way, just as He has planned
You've left such precious memories in our very souls
Time will pass but they will never fade as we grow old
We pray for you God's best always, his blessings without end
And always remember, our precious loves, He's always your best friend
We love you two more than words can express

Senior Superlatives

2022 SENIOR SUPERLATIVES: row 1, Macie Freeman, Grendy Castillo Recinos, Georgia Barham-Taylor and Madison Devoux; row 2, Mollie Meredith, Turner Mabry Baggett, Braeden Puckett, Anslee Owen, Shelby Knight, Haddyn Harrell, Sara Pearce. As'jha Thomas, McKenna Knight, Stephanie Garcia, Merritt Helton and Bria Bogan; row 3, Hank Hawthorne, Ty'Keem James, Dawson Best, Christian Maige, Olivia Woods, Mo Wilson, Will Walden, Cedrick Brown and Jayden Twyman.

J.J. WILCOX, an alumnus of C.H.S. and the keynote speaker at the 2022 baccalaureate service on May 22, 2022, spoke to the graduates of 2022 about hard work and following their dreams. He stressed that once he was right where they are. Above Wilcox reacts to being presented a gift by Senior Class Representative Georgia Barham-Taylor, right, as C.H.S. Principal Chris Lokey looks on.

SENIOR TURNER MABRY BAGGETT took to the stage to give the invocation.

MO WILSON, a representative of the senior class, closed the event with a prayer.

FOR ONE OF THE FINAL TIMES, THE CLASS OF 2022 gathered together the baccalaureate service at the high school gymnasium held Sunday, May 22, 2022.

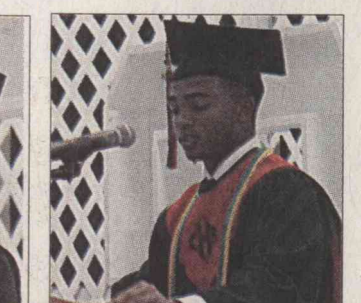

SARA PEARCE, the student body president, presided over the ceremony held Sunday. She welcomed the friends, family, and guests in attendance.

DAYGIANA DAVIS, a senior member of the CHS Chorus, sang a musical selection of "It's So Hard to Say Goodbye to Yesterday."

SENIOR CLASS VICE PRESIDENT MADISON DEVOUX introduced the speaker for Sunday's ceremony, J.J. Wilcox.

SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT JAYDEN TWYMAN thanked everyone for their attendance and their support of the senior class.

THE FIVE SENIOR MEMBERS of the C.H.S. Chorus, l-r, Iversyn Session, Daygiana Davis, Ty'keem James, Nikiyah Brown and Leah Brown - sang the closing benediction, "I Am Still Your Dreamer." They were led by Chorus Director Erikka Edwards.

Celebrate Responsibly!

WILLIAM DAUGHTRY

*Will Thomas,
Always remember there's no limit to what you can do if you keep believing in yourself. Work to reach this goal. You had to show up every day! Now feel great about what you have accomplished and continue to be the person who shows up each day for those things important in your life.*

Always with our Love and in our prayers Mama, Daddy, Grams, Pepaw, Ma and Pa
