Dear Georgia Archives Month Supporters:

The month of October will be celebrated as Georgia Archives Month 2009. The theme for this year, "Quench Your Thirst for History" was designated to educate the citizens of Georgia on how local and regional archives can have a direct impact on their daily lives.

The enclosed poster and flyer will help you advertise Georgia Archives Month. We hope these items encourage you to think of ways in which your institution, organization, or local government can celebrate Georgia Archives Month in your community. Your activity does not have to be directly related to the theme but does need to focus on the importance of archival records. Ideas include creating exhibits, hosting receptions, giving tours, writing articles, or developing special programs. Activities for Georgia Archives Month can be found on the Society of Georgia Archivists (SGA) Web site at www.soga.org. If you provide information on your planned activity, we will be happy to help publicize your event on the SGA Web site.

To help you, an Event Planning Guide has been created.

The guide is available in PDF (Portable Document Format) and can be downloaded from the SGA web site, <http://www.soga.org>

If you do not have access to the Internet, a copy may be printed out for you. Please contact Katherine Shirley, Richard B. Russell Library for Political Research and Studies, University of Georgia Libraries, Athens, GA; 706-542-0627, ks Shirley@uga.edu

For additional information or to provide information on your planned activity, please contact Katherine Shirley (706-542-0627) or Kristy Dixon (706-583-0212) or send an email to: archivesmonth@soga.org

We look forward to hearing from you and learning how we can help.

Sincerely,

Kristy L. Dixon, Co-Chair

GEORGIA ARCHIVES MONTH 2009

- What is the Archives Month?

The purpose of Archives Month is to celebrate the value of Georgia's historical records, publicize the many ways historical records enrich our lives, and recognize those who maintain our communities' historical records. This is the ideal time to call attention to your organization or local government and its work in preserving Georgia's documentary heritage.

- Publicity

The celebration will be publicized across the state through proclamations, a poster, newspaper articles, and events at various repositories. If you will provide information on your planned activity, we will be happy to help publicize your event on the Society of Georgia Archivists' (SGA) web site. See information below on how to submit information about your event.

- Events

We encourage you to think of ways in which your organization or local government can celebrate Archives Month in your community. Your activity does not have to be directly related to the theme, but does need to focus on the importance of archival records. Ideas include creating exhibits, hosting receptions, giving tours, writing articles, or developing special programs. The scheduled activities for 2009 and images from activities will be posted on the Society of Georgia Archivists' (SGA) web site: www.soga.org. For ideas, please see SGA's website. In addition, other states' Archives Week or Archives Month activities can be found on the Council of State Archivists' (COSA) Archives Week directory.
