THE VALDOSTA DAILY TIMES

The Turner Center Proudly Dedicates The 2007-2008 Presenter Series To Lena Bosch

For more than 20 years, Lena Bosch has given her time, energy, and devotion to the Presenter Series and many other programs at the Turner Center for the Arts.

When Lena was first a board member, the organization was known as the Lowndes Valdosta Arts Commission or LVAC.

She has been an instrumental part of LVAC's growth -- from a small performing arts series, with board meetings wherever space allowed, to sponsoring fledgling exhibits and classes at LVAC's first home in "the turpentine building" near the VSU campus, to today's beautiful Annette Howell Turner Center for the Arts, embracing the visual, written and performing arts.

In addition to the Presenter Series, her work with the Center for the Arts Guild, her wonderful pre-performance dinners, her fabulous cooking for receptions, and her quick wit and smile are all "trademark Lena." Our newly established Youth Art Board is also Lena's brainchild.

It gives us great joy to honor Lena Bosch during this 2007-08 Presenter Series!
