GENERAL INFORMATION

Because of limited exhibition space at the First State Bank & Trust Co., applications are accepted on a first come first served basis. Approximately 190 pieces can be exhibited. You may submit two entries. The invitational show will be juried and approximately 80 works will be selected for the Cultural Arts Center exhibit.

Please exhibit only work not previously shown in any prior L/VAC - First State Bank exhibition. Hanging work should not exceed 42" in width with no sawtooth hangers or clips. Sculpture must be stable and less than 10 ft. in height. Three dimensional exhibitors must provide sculpture stand unless the work is free standing. No art can be removed from a show in which it is exhibited. L/VAC is not responsible for breakage of work in transit. L/VAC reserves the right to decline any work not suitably prepared for hanging.

Sales are encouraged. Work should be priced to include a 20% commission to the Lowndes/Valdosta Arts Commission if sold in or as a result of the exhibitions. Work sold may not be removed from either exhibit.

All work will be insured while at First State Bank & Trust Co. and the Cultural Arts Center. If you prefer to have us send your work back by UPS, you must provide a reusable package and address label and a check payable Lowndes/Valdosta Arts Commission (or L/VAC) to cover shipping fees.

'Tammy's Hot Pot' by Don Penny

First State Bank art show April 10

VALDOSTA — The eighth annual First State Bank Show, presented by the Lowndes/Valdosta Arts Commission, will be from 7-9 p.m. April 10.

"It's spring again here in the South, and just as the people of Lowndes County can depend on the beautiful yearly flowering of the azaleas and dogwoods, they can count on the First State Bank Show put on by LVAC," said Roberta George, executive director of LVAC. "Year after year, this show brings in the newest and finest art work from artists near and far."

"For the eighth year in a row, First State Bank will be host to the gala candlelight exhibit of almost 200 entries of paintings, sculpture and mixed-media work. In addition to patrons seeing all this artistic magnificence, there will be a generous hors d'oeuvre buffet catered by Ahhh David! Flowers and Food. It promises to be a great time for everyone." Entrance to the reception for artists and guests is a $25 donation. For reservations, call the Cultural Arts Center at (912) 247-ARTS.
