2011 Calendar

To our loyal customers and friends,

Greetings to all of you and get ready for the 2011 Colson Calendar! This year's calendar features art from the winners of the Spring Into Art exhibit held every April at the Turner Center for the Arts in Valdosta, Georgia. From over 400 entries, our staff selects the artwork that comprises this calendar. We have been supporting this effort since 1992! We hope you have enjoyed the calendars as much as we have enjoyed producing them all these years.

So what is going on at Colson Printing Company? Well, for starters we opened a new sales division in Albany, Georgia. We want to extend a sincere welcome to our new Albany customers! Our sales representative in this area is Ann Carter. Ann lives in Albany and is a seasoned veteran in the printing industry. Ann is doing an excellent job serving our new customers in Albany and surrounding areas.

In case you did not know, we cover the area like dew with salespeople. When you need them just give us a call. They are Emmett Bridges, Linda Gibbs, Philip Guthrie, Ann Carter, and Fred Coad. I know many of you are long standing customers and have come to know and appreciate the service these people provide. We are happy to have them on our team. Purchasing from a knowledgeable salesperson can help your business!

Another new face that I am happy to announce is my son Grant Colson. Grant is a college student at Valdosta State University and many of you may have followed him as an athlete at the Valdosta Boys Club and Georgia Christian School. Grant is presently working in our Logistics (Delivery) Department! He is doing an excellent job and even grandpa Wally Colson is proud of him!

Yes, grandpa is still guiding the ship and we would not have it any other way. To Wally Colson, thank you for being the great businessman you have been for 49 years. Next year will be 50 years and we are going to jump up and down and blow the roof off this town celebrating!

Thanks to all of you who have been our loyal customers, and who continue to bring your business to Colson Printing Company.

Wendy Colson
